

Chapter 1831: Heartbroken

She did not resent the Du family for standing idly by. After all, in her previous life, she was a nobody to the Du family. They would not deliberately make things difficult for her. At most, they would just turn a blind eye to her.

However, if Du Jiayi really wanted to take revenge for something that was her fault and Ye Jian was merely retaliating, then Ye Jian would really have to go against the Du family.

Ye Ying was related to the Du family, while Ye Jian was directly against the Du family. Only now did Ye Jian feel that the competition between her and Ye Ying had begun!

The cold temperature made Ye Jian's palms sweat. Would he be willing to go against the Du family for her?

Xia Jinyuan didn't reply immediately. He took off the glove on his left hand and the glove on Ye Jian's right hand. Then, he held her right hand tightly and stared at her. "Why are you asking such a question?"

"Du Jiayi's family isn't simple. I'm worried."

Her reply made Major Xia laugh softly. He said arrogantly, "In Beijing, if the Xia family dares to claim to be number two, no one will dare to claim to be number one. Du Jiayi's family is not simple but let me ask you, do you think my family is simple?"

This was the real Xia Jinyuan. Arrogant and domineering. No one would think that it was unnatural!

Ye Jian was in a daze. She looked at him quietly and didn't look away for a long time.

The two of them talked between themselves. They didn't avoid the comrades in the car. However, the comrades would look away whenever Xia Jinyuan shot them a glance. Even J5 would look away.

J5 sensed that something was wrong. He looked at Ye Jian and retracted his gaze. He nudged G3 with his elbow.

G3 turned his head and saw J5 blinking to signal him to look at the opposite side. He heard J5's soft voice. "Why does it sound like they're having a fight?"

He and J5 were comrades who knew about their relationship. It was the most suitable for them to sit opposite the couple. Hearing this, G3 glanced at Xia Jinyuan from the corners of his eyes. He lowered his head and said softly, "Not really. He's not angry."

If lovers who were in a relationship were quarreling, their faces would turn grim. A quarreling couple would definitely not look like the two sitting opposite them right now.

G3 judged whether the two were quarreling based on experience.

“They’re not fighting? But why do I feel that something is different all of a sudden?” J5 was worried. In the past, he was worried that Xia Jinyuan would ruin his future if he dated an underage girl. Now, he was worried that Xia Jinyuan would end up giving Ye Jian to another unit if he was careless.

As an instructor, J5 really felt that he was worried sick.

“There’s something going on between the two of them. Don’t worry too much. Q King is a calm person. He knows what he’s doing.” G3 said a few words and stopped talking. He was a man of few words and only spoke a little more than K7.

J5 pondered for a while and listened to his comrade’s words. He didn’t pay attention to it anymore.

After being silent for a long time, Ye Jian sighed softly and said, “I’m just afraid of implicating you and Commander Xia.”

“Little Fox, if my old man heard what you said, he’ll scold me and hit me until I’m badly bruised.. He’ll definitely start lecturing me. He’d say if I was so capable and could perform well outside, why am I unable to settle my own wife? Why am I unable to let my own wife treat the Xia family as her own?”

Chapter 1832: Strange Person

Fortunately, the venue was small and there were many people. Otherwise, with Major Xia’s shamelessness, he would definitely hug Ye Jian while exclaiming.

Major Xia’s shamelessness was the same as his ability. It was growing by the day. Hence, if there was a chance, he would definitely let Ye Jian see how shameless he could be.

Ye Jian thought about all the things Commander Xia had done and couldn’t help but smile.

“There’s no such thing as implicating us. You’re my girlfriend and my lover. Commander Xia acknowledges you as his daughter-in-law. If the Du family dares to plot against you, the first person who won’t let the Du family off is Old Xia.

“By the way, let me tell you something that Old Xia doesn’t want others to talk about...”

“Don’t, don’t say it! I don’t want to hear it!” Ye Jian immediately interrupted him. She almost covered her ears. She was just a cadet. She didn’t have the guts to listen to the private matters that the commander-in-chief didn’t want others to know.

Xia Jinyuan said indifferently, “There are only one or two of his private affairs that Old Xia doesn’t want others to talk about. The divorce with his ex-wife has a lot to do with Du Jiayi’s mother.

“Back then, his ex-wife was hesitant about whether she should leave him or not. Old Xia was still trying hard to salvage the marriage. Right then, Madam Du introduced a talented man who could write good love poems to Old Xia’s ex-wife. Then, his ex-wife divorced Old Xia in order to pursue true love and left the country.”

“Can you stop talking...” Ye Jian’s heart was pounding. As his daughter-in-law, she couldn’t listen to this. No, no, as a cadet, she could!

“No, I have to say it!” Major Xia rejected her decisively. The more he spoke, the brighter the light in his dark eyes became. “Old Xia wanted to pursue her again after their divorce. Who knew that once his ex-wife went abroad, he couldn’t follow her abroad since he was a soldier. He was dumbfounded.

“Like the general Old Xia is, he didn’t blame Madam Du for this. However, Staff Officer Du, who was also a regiment commander back then, was very motivated. In order to compete for the position, he made a report and said that Old Xia was incapable. After his ex-wife found out, she remained firm in her decision.”

Ye Jian really didn’t want to hear it. However, the man beside her was talking excitedly. He was almost clapping as he spoke.

She did not understand why he was so happy when his mother had left.

“In short, Staff Officer Du and Old Xia have been at odds with each other for decades, so if Du Jiayi dares to plot against you, heh, Old Xia will be the first to retaliate.”

Major Xia smiled as he finished speaking. He saw his little fox raising her left hand to her forehead. He added, “I’m really grateful to Madam Du. It’s all thanks to her that I have such a good life today. Old Xia really didn’t have good taste in choosing a wife back then. No wonder my grandmother objected to it. If his ex-wife still stayed in the Xia family, I wonder if she would be able to walk the right path.”

After living for two lifetimes, this was the first time Ye Jian had heard a son talk about his mother like that! What did Commander Xia’s ex-wife do to make her son ignore her like this?

“I’ll tell you about my relationship with Commander Xia’s ex-wife next time. I’m afraid that you’ll feel disgusted. As for the Du family...” Xia Jinyuan’s smile disappeared, and his eyes turned vicious. He said coldly, “As for the Du family, you don’t have to worry about them. With me protecting you, if Du Jiayi dares to do anything, her military career will come to an end!

“If I can’t even protect you, I’m not worthy of being your boyfriend.”

Chapter 1833: The Right Way To Open Up To Your Boyfriend

“If I can’t even protect you, I’m not worthy of being your boyfriend.”

There was no need to be sentimental. Just from his tone, one could tell how much Xia Jinyuan valued Ye Jian.

Xia Jinyuan had never said that he would protect anyone. With his status and family background, he was destined to be a reserved and calm man. He wouldn’t easily make promises or agree to anything.

However, he said...

Before he met Ye Jian, he had never said he would protect anyone. No one had the honor of receiving the promise of this nobleman.

But now, he clearly told Ye Jian that he would protect her for the rest of his life. He was her boyfriend and her lover!

Ye Jian felt tears welling up in her eyes. No one had ever said such words to her in her previous life.

In her previous life, no matter what she did, she lost everything because of Ye Ying's interference. Not only did she lose everything, but because of Ye Ying, those people who didn't dare to offend Ye Ying were all malicious toward Ye Jian.

Thinking back to her previous life, only the security company gave her a sense of security while medical school gave her a short period of peace.

After a long while, she held his strong hand and said softly, "Thank you, Captain Xia."

'Thank you for saving me from wandering in this life.

'Thank you for letting me know how it feels to be pampered.

'Thank you for letting me know I don't have to be afraid.

'There are so many more things I have to thank you for... Only with you in this life will I know what perfection is.'

Ye Jian was a girl who was easily satisfied. Xia Jinyuan knew very well that she would never ask too much of him. She would never think of relying on him to solve any troublesome matters. Even when it came to Ye Zhifan, she never once said that she needed his help.

A girl who had always relied on her own hard work to climb up the ladder, even though she had suffered tremendously in her previous life, she still maintained a pure heart. She was kind and grateful. How could Xia Jinyuan not be moved by her?

Meeting Ye Jian was the beginning of his and Ye Jian's happiness.

Her look of sadness didn't escape Xia Jinyuan's eyes. It could be said that Xia Jinyuan would be able to detect any subtle changes in her emotions.

He gently held her hand and said in a low voice, "The Du family has found our Xia family to be an eyesore for a long time. Ever since Old Xia became the regiment commander, they've been making things difficult for us. Hence, if Du Jiayi makes a move on you, the Xia family will have something to use against them. Hence, you don't need to thank me."

The Xia and Du families were not on good terms to begin with?

Ye Jian was still worried that he was merely coaxing her. She frowned slightly and asked carefully, "Are you saying this because you're afraid that I'll feel guilty?"

Who would dare to make things difficult for the Xia family?

Xia Jinyuan's family background was already formidable enough.. Who would dare to offend him? Was that person tired of living? If they were to make an enemy out of the Xia family, they would have to weigh their own capabilities first.

Chapter 1834: Shy?

"You've become a silly fox. Do you think I'm afraid that you'll feel guilty and make up such a big story?" The careful look on her face hurt his heart deeply. His girl had suffered all kinds of hardships since she was young. Before she met Grandpa Gen and Uncle Chen, she didn't receive the love and care of her family, nor did she receive the protection that she deserved. Therefore, she was so afraid of losing her family, losing all her happiness, and even more afraid of implicating those who cared about her.

Holding her fingers tightly, Xia Jinyuan said in a low and gentle voice, "The matters between the two families can't be explained in a few words. If you're interested, I'll tell you about it another day."

Ye Jian finally believed him. Her expression relaxed. She smiled and said, "No wonder I didn't like Du Jiayi when she first spoke. It's because of you."

Xia Jinyuan's heart softened when he saw her smile.

Before she was 14 years old, she didn't have anyone to love or protect her. She was bullied by Ye Zhifan and his family all the time. She was able to grow up healthily despite being in such an environment. She didn't have any psychological illnesses either. In Old Xia's words, 'daughters of martyrs are different.'

She was indeed different. It was his luck to meet a different girl.

That was why he didn't want to see her get sad over the past. His girl should be happy. Even if it was a thorny journey in the military, he still wanted his girl to be happy.

If she was unhappy, he would use his own method to let her walk out of her sadness and regain her happiness.

Major Xia, who placed Ye Jian as the most important person in his heart, gently squeezed the slender hand in his big hand. His thin lips lifted slightly to reveal a mischievous smile. "Actually, I don't really want to accept your 'thank you'. If I accept it, I won't be able to make any other requests. But if I don't accept it, I'm worried that you'll feel uneasy." At that moment, her sadness didn't escape Xia Jinyuan's gaze. Hence, he started revealing his devilish nature again.

"How about this? I'll accept your 'thank you' and then you can give me some benefits. For example, kiss me?"

Speaking of benefits, Major Xia, who had forgotten about the pain after recovering from his wound, became energetic again. He glanced at all his comrades in the car who had their eyes closed and moved his handsome face over. "Just for a while. I won't ask for too much."

Every time this happened, Ye Jian would feel helpless. Why was it that Major Xia, who was always serious in front of others, would always maintain his serious attitude for only five minutes with her? Other than being serious in battle, it seemed that he would not be serious anywhere else.

Even so, she could not find it annoying!

Fortunately, their comrades who had been running around for a day and a night had already fallen asleep. Even J5 and G3, who were sitting opposite them, had their heads leaning against each other. They hugged their rifles tightly and closed their eyes as they appeared to be sleeping soundly. They were closing their eyes so that Ye Jian wouldn't feel awkward.

"Are you shy? Then I'll close my eyes too..."

Before he could finish speaking, Ye Jian suddenly leaned forward. She found her target and kissed him with her slightly cold and tender lips. Her target was Major Xia's thin lips.

Major Xia was stunned when he felt the cool touch. His little fox actually dared to kiss him in front of all their comrades!

However, he closed his eyes so he did not get to watch properly!

"How is it? The dessert tastes good, right?" Ye Jian had already sat up straight and asked him calmly. "Compared to the dessert you want, I think this dessert should be more pleasing."

Although it was a light kiss, the meaning was clear. It meant that his girl had completely accepted him!

Chapter 1835: Kissing Without A Word

It was more than just joy. It made him so happy that... he wanted to do it again.

However, it was obviously impossible. Major Xia, who had a regretful look on his face, glanced at J5 casually and said, "When did you start doing sneak attacks? You ended it before I could react. What a pity."

The sky was bright outside. Under the hazy morning light, Ye Jian smiled. She looked at Xia Jinyuan with a tender expression. "As long as you like it."

This sentence made Major Xia nod his head continuously. He really liked it. He didn't mind it at all. He liked her sudden attack too much!

How sweet!

Major Xia, who always kept his back straight, looked the most serious on the surface. However, his hands never stopped moving. One moment, he touched the back of Ye Jian's hand with his fingers. The next moment, he held Ye Jian's finger tightly. Then, he grabbed Ye Jian's hand and stuffed it into his pocket, using his body heat to warm her up.

He had no choice. He was still feeling regretful, and his heart was itching! If he didn't find something to do, he would feel terrible!

The Tibetan road was full of twists and turns. There were countless dangerous roads. The two trucks containing dozens of special forces soldiers followed this dangerous road to reach their destination.

J5 moved his body slightly. There was a faint smile at the corner of his lips. How could they have fought? Their relationship was so sweet.

Ye Jian was bold enough to kiss Xia Jinyuan directly. Their captain was stunned for at least three seconds. It was obvious that he didn't expect Ye Jian to suddenly kiss him.

Tsk tsk tsk, this sweetness made him feel as though his mouth was filled with candy.

He wanted to watch them for a longer time, but their captain didn't allow it.

A cold gaze swept over him, causing him to quickly close his eyes... He thought that he had hidden well, but who knew that everything was exposed.

Hahaha, this was probably why Xia Jinyuan was stunned when Ye Jian kissed him. He would even pull the curtain when he was taking a shower with the team. Q King was someone who cared about his privacy. He didn't want others to see his girlfriend kissing him. He did not even let his comrades do it!

It was peaceful in the truck. Everyone swayed along due to the bumpy ride. They were swaying from side to side. In such a dynamic environment, all the special forces soldiers, including Ye Jian, slept peacefully. It was amazing!

Occasionally, the back of one of the team members' heads would suddenly slam into the hard truck. One of his eyes would be half-open, and the other half would still be shut. He would take a look without even rubbing the back of his head before continuing to sleep.

At night, they met up with the remaining members of Storm Commando and began to complete all the projects in the plateau training.

On the other hand, Qin Xiu and the others arrived at Shenxian Bay outpost around two o'clock in the afternoon the next day. They arrived at the outpost that was close to the sky. He and another 'interpreter' who rarely made a sound got off the truck and entered the camp arranged by the outpost. They never came out again.

The sky above the outpost was very blue. There were no trees or grass. Under the pure white snow was brown gravel. As the oxygen content in the air was less than half compared to the land below, it was extremely difficult to plant trees in Shenxian Bay where the ultraviolet rays were stronger.

The arrival of the troupe caused the outpost to become lively. The red lanterns were hung up even before the Spring Festival.. Even though the water temperature was only 70 degrees, it was still warm enough for the female soldiers of the troupe.

Chapter 1836: Keep A Close Eye On Her

Singing, dancing, and skits were all programs that the troupe could do. There were still ten minutes before the two-hour art performance ended, but the soldiers at the outpost were still reluctant to part with them. Du Jiayi suggested to the leaders to see if they could add more time to increase the interaction between the soldiers and the troupe.

Company Commander Feng at the outpost looked at the time and saw that the familiar figure had not returned yet. He happily agreed.

When the soldiers interacted and sang with the troupe and the atmosphere reached its peak, Company Commander Feng quietly got up and left.

“He’s not back yet?” He walked directly to the platoon leader who was standing guard for the soldiers tonight and said in a low voice, “If he’s not back in half an hour, quickly send the soldiers out to receive him.”

If anything happened to a diplomat or a heavyweight weapons specialist under his watch, he would be a sinner of the country!

“We need to avoid attention at the place we’re going. If he doesn’t come back in half an hour, I’ll send someone to pick him up immediately.” The platoon leader, who had white frost on his face mask, nodded lightly. He looked at the barracks vigilantly. Then, he said, “Half an hour ago, a soldier reported to me. He said that the female soldier with the rank of lieutenant asked him which outpost an officer named ‘Xia Jinyuan’ graduated from.”

The graduates of National Science University all had military ranks. They were definitely not ordinary soldiers.

When Company Commander Feng heard that, his pair of eyes, which seemed to be illuminated by ultraviolet rays, flashed sharply. Although he didn’t know who Xia Jinyuan was, it was a little abnormal for someone to come to the outpost and ask about an officer who might have graduated from National Science University at the border of the territory!

What was even more abnormal was that the female soldiers could have asked him directly instead of an ordinary soldier!

The alertness of any officer was indeed extraordinary.

“Du Jiayi is the only female soldier in the troupe with the surname ‘Du’. Tell the soldiers to keep an eye on her and not let her wander around.” Company Commander Feng no longer had a smile on his face. He looked rather serious. “If she asks the soldiers questions again, ask them to bring her to see me.”

As they were talking, a few black silhouettes could vaguely be seen moving. The platoon leader immediately took out his binoculars and looked in that direction. “Company Commander, the political commissar is back!”

“Keep a close eye on them. I’ll go and pick them up.” Compared to the performance of the troupe, Company Commander Feng naturally placed more importance on the special agent who had come for the border defense, as well as the diplomat who was also an interpreter.

The ‘interpreter’ accompanying Qin Xiu was not an interpreter but a missile specialist carrying an important item.

The satellite launch base at the northwest border of the entire territory had entered the final adjustment phase. At the same time, the defense base was also being built. The northwestern border was sealed off by heavy snow, but it was also the best time to launch some defense.

Qin Xiu came with a special agent and was in charge of communicating with an important figure who bought a missile from the country.

Communication between countries that could appear on television could be made public, but only secret communication could be considered core communication.

Qin Xiu, who had been under protection all the way here, saw the flag that was fluttering in the wind. Although he could only see its outline clearly, it still gave Qin Xiu a sense of stability.

As a citizen, one could only feel a sense of belonging and security in their own country.

Finally, Qin Xiu, who had completed his task, declined Company Commander Feng’s invitation to watch the troupe’s performance.. Du Jiayi was there, and he did not want to be recognized.

Chapter 1837: My Wife Has Been Targeted

As for Mrs. Qin’s advice, Qin Xiu chose to forget it.

The staff did not go to watch the performance and returned to the barracks with Qin Xiu. They chose to close the door and rest.

With their mission completed, they could finally have a good sleep!

Qin Xiu lay on the bed and did not fall asleep immediately. Even though his body was so tired that it seemed like he could not even open his eyes, a beautiful and youthful face kept appearing in his mind.

She was an interesting girl. She didn’t have any similarities to all the girls he had seen before. Those ladies from the capital were indeed capable but they were still inferior to Ye Jian.

Initially, his impression of Ye Jian was that she had an unforgettable face. The sunlight shone down the clouds and through the glass, scattering the misty light on the girl who was sitting by the window. He had accidentally looked up. The girl who was bathing in the sunlight had flawless and delicate skin. Her bright eyes seemed to gather the purest spiritual energy in the world. He was attracted to her at first sight.

She was beautiful. That was what he thought at that time. He even hid behind the beam to admire the girl’s smile many times. His admiration for her was not concealed at all.

She had a youthful face, a good figure, and a bright smile... He recognized her immediately when they met again.

A second-year student could accompany the head overseas. Who else in the entire capital city had such honor?

If he wanted to woo Ye Jian, he would have to tell his mother, Mrs. Qin, about it. If she agreed, things would go smoothly for him. Otherwise, with Mrs. Qin's feudal thinking, she wouldn't accept a daughter-in-law who was born in a normal family.

Thinking about this, Qin Xiu couldn't help but smile. He was really daydreaming. Daughter-in-law? With Ye Jian's talent, she was the only one who could choose. No one had the right to choose her.

Even so, he had to get Mrs. Qin and the Qin family's approval before he could pursue Ye Jian. Regardless of anything else, he didn't want her to be humiliated because of his family.

At that moment, a woman's voice suddenly came from outside the window. Qin Xiu, who was resting with his eyes closed, wasn't bothered about it. When the voice sounded, it drifted into his ears.

"Company Commander, is there really no soldier called Xia Jinyuan in our outpost? But why did I hear that he served at the most remote outpost in the border area? Are you afraid that I'll disturb him so you're purposely saying that you don't know him? Or did he serve here before and was transferred away?"

This was Du Jiayi's voice. She was asking about Xia Jinyuan's whereabouts.

"You're really mistaken. There really isn't anyone named Xia Jinyuan at the outpost. The most remote outpost on the border is not just Shenxian Bay. There are quite a few more. Since he's not here, then he must be at another outpost. Of course, that's on the premise that you are certain that he was allocated to the northwest outpost of the border."

Company Commander Feng smiled as he looked at the captain of the art troupe who had come to look for him after the performance ended. His dark and purple face had a slight smile on it as he patiently explained, "A cadet from the National Science University will have a military rank after graduating. If he was really assigned to our outpost, as the company commander, how could I not know?"

"Captain Du, I can tell you with certainty that in the past few years, no officer named Xia Jinyuan has been assigned to our outpost."

Du Jiayi was quite stubborn and insisted on getting the answer she wanted, so how was the company commander supposed to answer?

Chapter 1838: That's How The Misunderstanding Came About

Only then did Du Jiayi believe that the company commander was not lying to her. It seemed that Xia Jinyuan was indeed not at this outpost but at another.

She immediately put on a dignified smile and said, "I'm sorry, Company Commander. I've made things difficult for you. I'm old friends with Xia Jinyuan. After he started serving in the military, he has never contacted his mother. I asked about his whereabouts because his mother asked me to. I'm sorry to have delayed you for so long, Company Commander."

Company Commander Feng had already understood the situation from the leader. Knowing that there was no problem with Du Jiayi's identity, he smiled brightly and said, "Not at all. It's just a pity that I couldn't offer you much help."

The daughter of the staff officer was polite and did not put on any airs. She even risked her life to come and visit the soldiers at the outpost. Company Commander Feng, who had a good impression of her, was very willing to help her. "Why don't we do this? Captain Du, write a letter. I'll get someone to ask the various outposts when the time comes. If there's any news, I'll send a letter to 30 Mile Camp. What do you think?"

When Qin Xiu heard Du Jiayi's elated reply, he smiled.

She was so anxious to find Xia Jinyuan. It seemed that the daughter of the Du family liked Xia Jinyuan... The two families were in a death knot. Xia Jinyuan was a firm person. Du Jiayi might be defeated.

Of course, that was not what he was concerned about.

Instead, he wanted to tell Mrs. Qin that the daughter-in-law she liked already had someone in her heart. As her son, he didn't want to be the bad guy and ruin the Du family's daughter's future.

The Qin family didn't want rumors to spread about their favorite daughter-in-law. The first person who wouldn't allow it wasn't Mrs. Qin but the old man who was currently living his life in luxury.

The Qin family had always been strict. In the early years of the war, the Qin family went abroad to avoid chaos. After returning to the country, Old Master Qin even detained the younger generation of the family and forbade them from messing around, lest they ruin the Qin family's foundation.

When it came to his grandchildren's generation, the Qin family was considered stable. However, when it came to history, Old Master Qin would inevitably be short of breath. Therefore, even though the Qin family had been restored to the prosperous times before the war, their family was still strict. Anyone who went slightly out of line would anger Old Master Qin.

If one of his grandsons married a woman with a bad reputation, it might be possible that they could no longer have the surname 'Qin' in order to restore the family's reputation.

The conversation outside gradually died down, and Du Jiayi said, "How are Reporter Qin and his colleague doing?" Only then did Qin Xiu know that Company Commander Feng had given this excuse.

He did not know if Company Commander Feng would tell Du Jiayi the truth. As the company commander of the outpost, it was impossible for him to make such a big mistake when it concerned national secrets.

The sound of footsteps and conversation gradually faded until the surroundings returned to calmness. Qin Xiu, who was lying flat on his back, closed his eyes again. The smile on his lips meant that he had probably solved another problem in his mind. Unexpectedly, he fell asleep after a while.

The charcoal-burning stove gave off an unpleasant smell. Despite this, Qin Xiu slept until dawn.

On the second day, Qin Xiu began what a reporter should do—interview the company commander, platoon commander, and comrades. Then, he climbed to the high altitude outpost with the company commander. It took Qin Xiu two days to finish his work.

In the meantime, Du Jiayi had tried several times to see his manuscript, but she was always rejected. In the end, Du Jiayi's face turned ashen. She had not recovered even after they had returned to 30 Mile Camp.

Xia Jinyuan was about 300 kilometers away from the campsite. On the fourth day after Qin Xiu and the rest returned to the capital, he knew that Du Jiayi was asking about his whereabouts.. At the same time, she also asked about which unit Ye Jian belonged to, the number of the unit... and other information related to her identity.

Chapter 1839: Divine Assistance

The leader of the 30 Mile Camp, whom she had asked questions to, directly said, "This is what a soldier should do. It's also the duty of a soldier. There's no need to repay me, or the atmosphere will be affected."

Du Jiayi was stumped by the leader's words. She had no choice but to return to the Nanguang Military District with regrets.

When Xia Jinyuan found out that Du Jiayi was asking about Ye Jian, he was also asking about her. He was talking to Major General Lu on the phone. His eyes suddenly turned sharp. "Where did she find out that I was serving in the bordering town?!"

It was not that nobody knew that he was currently training in the bordering area, but she happened to know that he had been serving in the bordering area ever since he graduated from National Science University!

When Ye Jian was in her third year of junior high school, he received a mission to protect the satellite base of the Xueyu unit. He was accompanied by J5, G3, Z7 and other comrades from the Xueyu unit.

It was precisely because of some unknown reasons that this group of comrades needed to go to the borders of a certain country to meet with the military there. In addition, the two armies needed to hand over information to each other. These few unregistered soldiers only had military rank and no military information.

Previously, Han Zheng said that he still remembered that he belonged to the Border Army. It was because of this that he had a military unit.

It was understandable to ask about Ye Jian, but it was hard to find out about Xia Jinyuan's whereabouts! Moreover, she was actually asking around in the bordering town! This showed that she was very sure that she was serving in the bordering town.

The only way to find out that he, an unregistered military officer, was serving in the military was the identity he had used before at the satellite base.

The major general of the army had already investigated this matter thoroughly and said, "Border territory is the secondary army zone. This is Staff Officer Du's 'hometown'. It's indeed not difficult for Du Jiayi to find out."

"Ha, how capable! Just because it used to be his 'hometown', can he casually reveal the location where a soldier is carrying out his military service?" Xia Jinyuan's expression immediately darkened. There was a strong sense of hostility on his handsome face. "If you extend your hand too far, be careful of being stomped!"

The major general was shocked when he heard this.

Du Jiayi directly investigated Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan's information through the system. At that time, she activated the warning system.

The person in charge of military secrets immediately reported it to him. In less than half a day, he had thoroughly investigated the entire matter, including how Du Jiayi knew about it.

There was obvious hostility in Xia Jinyuan's voice. Major General Lu knew a little about the Xia and Du families. Because he knew about it, he had to resolve it properly so that Xia Jinyuan would be aware of these matters. Otherwise, it would give Staff Officer Du another chance to deal with the Xia family.

He said, "All your information is listed as top-secret files. Your identities are not in the system. Hence, there's no leakage of information about the Xueyu unit. Moreover, even the fake identities that you all created when you entered the satellite base were classified as top-secret. Staff Officer Du doesn't have the authority to check it!"

Xia Jinyuan said in a deep voice, "I believe in the military. Please tell me how she knew about my military information, then."

"The reason why she knew that you were serving in border territory was indeed because of Staff Officer Du. She didn't ask Staff Officer Du personally, but..." At this point, the major general paused for a rare moment. When he spoke again, even his tone became much gentler. "It's because the commander-in-chief's ex-wife asked Staff Officer Du.. Staff Officer Du said that he knew that you had served in the border territory a few years ago but he didn't know anything else."

Chapter 1840: Stop Wearing That Military Uniform!

"Du Jiayi knew that you might be serving in the bordering town. The Commander-in-chief's ex-wife told her and asked her to come and find out. When she left, she left a total of two letters. One is in the hands of Company Commander Feng at the outpost, and the other is in 30 Mile Camp."

Wasn't the Commander-in-chief's ex-wife Madam Xiao? Why did Madam Xiao, who brought her son along when she was having an affair, suddenly want to ask about him?

He didn't tell Boss Xia about her affair as a form of repayment!

"When you went to border territory to ensure that the construction of the base was done as an ordinary officer, Staff Officer Du was your approval officer. Hence, it's normal for him to know. Moreover, he only said that you were serving in the border territory and didn't say anything about the military unit or any other details... You should calm down."

The major general of the army didn't want Xia Jinyuan to lose his rationality. Especially since... the ex-wife of the commander-in-chief, Madam Xiao, was also involved. Xia Jinyuan was the last person in the Xia family who wanted to contact Madam Xiao.

Xia Jinyuan found it unbelievable that Du Jiayi could find out where he was serving, but it turned out to be Madam Xiao who was behind it. Xia Jinyuan couldn't help but look at the sky. The sun didn't rise from the west today.

"You don't have to hand the letters to me. Just destroy them. As for my anger, there's no use being angry." He had originally wanted to figure out Du Jiayi's motive, but now, there was no need.

Didn't Madam Xiao treat Du Jiayi like she was her own daughter? Since Madam Xiao entrusted her daughter to do something, she had no choice but to accept it.

Xia Jinyuan contacted Major General Lu through the ground navigation platform. He smiled and said, "It doesn't matter that she was entrusted by Madam Xiao. However, you have to pay attention to Ye Jian.

"Ye Jian's information is not something Madam Xiao can find out just because she wants to. Moreover, her information is listed in the top-secret file with the rest of you. As long as anyone searches for Ye Jian's information in the system, the military's top-secret department will know and contact me immediately. Ye Jian hasn't entered the military unit yet. Madam Xiao won't be able to find anything even if she wants to."

The major general wasn't worried that Ye Jian's information would be investigated, nor was he worried that someone would find out about Xia Jinyuan's information. He was worried that Xia Jinyuan would do something irrational because of Madam Xiao's interference.

The Xueyu unit was not affiliated with any military unit. It could be said that everyone in the team was an unregistered soldier. There was no information on their identities. When they were alive, they were treated like soldiers. However, if they were to sacrifice themselves, they might not be able to enjoy the honor that a soldier should.

Major General Lu was the only person who could check the information of everyone in the Xueyu unit. Even Commander Xia didn't have the authority to do so.

However, Xia Jinyuan wanted the major general to pay attention to the matter. Hence, he told him everything that happened between Ye Jian and Du Jiayi. "... I'm not overly worried. Du Jiayi is a ruthless person. Major General, you have to take the appropriate measures."

With Xia Jinyuan's reminder, the major general frowned and said coldly, "She's so narrow-minded. If she dares to do anything to Ye Jian, she won't be able to wear her military uniform for long."

Ye Jian was an important member of the military. She didn't do anything wrong in the rescue mission. However, Du Jiayi wanted to use her family's power to harm Ye Jian just because she talked back to her. The military headquarters wasn't the Du family's military headquarters! It wasn't a place where the Du family could control everything!

With the major general's nod, Xia Jinyuan felt more at ease. Then, he heard the major general talk about the meetings between the two teams of the Xueyu unit and Storm Commando. He told him the general details of the meeting. "The military has decided to train two special forces units.."
