

BOOT CAMP 1841

Chapter 1841: The Major With Long-Sighted Vision

“The Xueyu unit is already one of them. Storm Commando is the second special forces unit in our country. From now on, no local troops will be able to participate in the training of the two units.”

This decision was made because as the internet developed, all kinds of eavesdropping and stealing methods were also being introduced. Due to the appearance of high-tech weapons developed by the country, various other developed countries were already keeping their eyes on them. The various countries were trying to get close to the army and bribe the servicemen.

The Xueyu unit was not only the top special forces in the country but it was also the most mysterious unit in the country. As the military strength of the country increased, this mysterious unit would receive many difficult missions.

Hence, the Xueyu unit was about to undergo a new reform.

“We will discuss your reform at the meeting again. We’ve agreed that the Xueyu unit will be divided into two teams and will be differentiated by Chinese and English code names. We’ve agreed that the two teams will have two combat commanders, but you still need to be the commander-in-chief.”

Three years ago, Xia Jinyuan mentioned the reform of the Xueyu unit in the form of a document. However, because the reform was too drastic, the military didn’t do anything.

After that, the domestic market suddenly became rampant. There were even a few pieces of information that were leaked. The military immediately took the reform plan proposed by Q King seriously.

One of the reports mentioned that in the future, the information stolen would be mainly related to tech. The Xueyu unit had to cut off all ties with the local troops and exist in a single form. They would become a true independent unit, a true hidden special force.

Whenever the Xueyu unit arranged training in the country, if they needed the help of the local unit, the military would give the highest-ranking person in charge an order. They would not give a number or name to the person in charge.

No one would know what kind of troops were doing their training there, and no one would know what kind of troops they had just encountered. They would appear and leave suddenly like a ghost army.

Just like this training, there was cooperation with the local troops. This was what Xia Jinyuan couldn’t accept.

In the end, he met Ye Jian’s middle school classmate. Although the man wasn’t sure if it was Ye Jian, he still suspected her... After the confrontation, Xia Jinyuan immediately reported it to the military.

With this, combined with the increasingly rampant internal activities, the military finally agreed to Xia Jinyuan's reform approach.

Three years ago, Xia Jinyuan had already foreseen the current situation. He had even analyzed the special forces reserves of the developed countries and mentioned that there were too few amphibious special forces in the country. They needed to be nurtured.

Storm Commando was originally the amphibious combat assault team, but because of Xia Jinyuan's 'document', they had become a reserve amphibious assault team, which would improve their training program.

Li Jinnian was a little stunned when he found out that they had become a 'reserve amphibious assault team'. He immediately asked, "Why did you suddenly make such a decision? There was no news at all."

He did not receive any news at all.. Since the establishment of the unit, it had been established as an 'amphibious' team. How did it become a reserve 'amphibious' team without him knowing anything? It made him feel that it was too rushed!

Chapter 1842: Honest To Each Other

Furthermore, he did not know why Storm Commando, which he led, had suddenly become the reserve 'amphibious' special forces!

Indeed, Demon King Li was a major who could withstand the storm and also withstand the test of surprise. He did not panic nor was he surprised. He only asked calmly.

Of course, he had to clarify things. It was impossible for him to lead his own people to become an 'amphibious' special forces without knowing the reason why. This was not only irresponsible to himself but also to all his team members.

"It can't be considered sudden. The military already had a plan three years ago." The meeting ended at 2 AM last night. The commander-in-chief of the navy had been waiting for Li Jinnian's call to report on the progress of the training. He was extremely happy, but his tone was calm and did not reveal his emotions. "I didn't expect them to choose Storm Commando. After all, our team was established less than two years ago!

"The military decided to select another 'amphibian' unit. They filtered through a few special forces from the various military districts and finally chose Storm Commando that you're leading. Jinnian, you have great foresight. Although I'm surprised, I believe that this is the responsibility that you should shoulder.

"You have to shoulder the responsibility that's given to you. I'll hand Storm Commando over to you now, and I hope you can achieve something. Go after your goal. One day, you'll truly surpass the Western SEAL Team!"

As a member of the navy, Li Jinnian had set his sights on the Western SEAL Team from the very beginning. He had trained with all his team members day and night. In less than a year, he had made a remarkable achievement to the navy and the military.

The SEALs were the top amphibious troops in a certain Western country. If Storm Commando could surpass them one day, it would be an earth-shattering event.

Li Jinnian knew that no matter how big his goal was, he would never give up!

If he couldn't accomplish it, he believed the next captain of the Storm Commando could... As long as he didn't give up, hope always existed. It could last forever.

As Li Jinnian listened quietly, his eyes darkened. He looked at the clear blue sky and said calmly, "Okay!"

The word 'okay' meant that he understood the situation and that he would shoulder the responsibility given to him by the country.

Li Jinnian did not shirk responsibility, did not retreat, did not hesitate, and did not have any fear. As a navy officer, Li Jinnian knew his mission and duty!

He was a soldier. When faced with a challenge, he would be calm and collected. He would never allow himself to panic. Instead, he would definitely win the challenge!

He was ready for a brand new future!

Although Li Jinnian and Xia Jinyuan's personalities were different, their beliefs and persistence were the same. From their figures, one could see the heroic and fearless spirit a soldier should have.

It was not until the end of the plateau training did Xia Jinyuan tell Ye Jian about Du Jiayi looking into her. He didn't want Ye Jian to be distracted when she entered the most dangerous individual combat training in the highlands.

Taking the 'Hidden In The Snow' training as an example, if one were to hide in the snow without moving, one would be like a popsicle in a few hours. He couldn't bear to let Du Jiayi distract Ye Jian.

"Not only did she ask about you in the border territory but she also asked about me. Now, the major general is keeping an eye on her.. She hasn't made any movements since she returned to the Nanguang Military District."

Chapter 1843: Frivolous

Xia Jinyuan didn't hide anything, including the fact that Du Jiayi was asking about him. "There's a major general keeping an eye on her. If she dares to do anything, she won't be the only one who will suffer. Staff Officer Du will suffer too!"

Asking... about Captain Xia?

"Why is she asking about you?" This was Ye Jian's main focus. Even her tone was much colder. "Why did she come to the border territory to ask about you? Where did she get the news that you're at the border territory? Where's her father?"

Captain Xia didn't show up that night. If she knew that he was in the bordering town, it would have been a very serious matter! It was a big matter regarding Captain Xia's safety in the country!

Xia Jinyuan had already witnessed Ye Jian's sharpness. He wasn't surprised when she asked him directly. He brushed away the white frost on her eyebrows and explained, "She doesn't know that I'm training here. Do you still remember that year when we fought together at the Snow Region Plateau? I was on a mission at that time. Due to some reasons, I became an ordinary platoon leader of a territory. Staff Officer Du is familiar with the territory there. He only knew that I was a soldier who graduated from National Science University and entered the territory to serve.

"Madam Xiao learned from Staff Officer Du that I was serving in the border territory, so she asked Du Jiayi to come and find out about me. As for why she wanted to find out about me, I don't want to know." It wouldn't be anything good, and he didn't want to be involved in anything related to Madam Xiao.

Ye Jian was relieved. She was afraid that Du Jiayi knew that Captain Xia was training in the bordering town, so that was why she was asking around about him.

She also noticed that Xia Jinyuan mentioned Madam Xiao, his tone was especially cold and even contained a hint of disgust. Ye Jian knew who Madam Xiao was. Although she didn't know why he had such an expression when he brought her up, Ye Jian was definitely on his side.

"Just ignore her. It's not worth getting angry over someone you don't like." Her heart ached as she tried to persuade him. He had been planning and training for this period of time. Sometimes, he didn't have time to give her lessons at night. He was tired enough, so he shouldn't let his mood be affected because of someone he didn't like.

How could Xia Jinyuan be angry because of Madam Xiao? He was just disgusted.

Affect his mood?

Ha, she didn't have that right.

As they were talking about private matters between the two of them, they had chosen a quiet place to talk. Xia Jinyuan glanced around and confirmed that there were no comrades around. Suddenly, he bent down and kissed Ye Jian's cheek. His thin lips curved up slightly into a wanton smile. "You guessed wrongly. You deserve punishment.

"I'm not someone who's easily affected by others. Of course, this little fox in front of me is an exception. A small look from her or a small action from her can make my mood fluctuate."

Indeed, it had not affected his mood. It could be seen from his indecent behavior!

After being kissed, Ye Jian glared at him. There was no anger in her eyes. Instead, she looked delicate. "You're getting more and more mischievous. You should pay attention to your identity."

"I do. I don't dare to forget about it. However, I still have to relax occasionally, especially now that it's our rest time." Major Xia always knew how to balance work and rest. They left the highlands at night. Now, it was equivalent to taking half a day off to wait for the Army Aviation's helicopter to arrive. Taking advantage of the rest time, he could take care of the stress he had been feeling for the past half a month.

The two of them weren't alone for too long. Just like what Ye Jian said, they still needed to pay attention to their identities. Also, Xia Jinyuan had something to attend to, so Ye Jian left first to revise her homework.

Returning to school meant that she had to hurry up.

Chapter 1844: A Mysterious Call

The northwestern part of the border was bone-chillingly cold, while the southern part of the Guangdong region was illuminated by the sun. Today, the lowest temperature was only eight degrees. Compared to the -10 °C temperature of the territory, the southern part of the Guangdong region was as warm as spring.

This was the first time Ye Zhifan entered a military area. He was dressed in a suit and leather shoes. He was in sharp contrast with the soldiers who wore dark green military uniforms.

Ye Zhifan looked at the heavily armed guards outside the office building and gulped. This was the first time he would be interacting with a high-ranking officer in the military.

He couldn't help but put his left hand into his pocket. When his fingers touched the slightly cold jade pendant, a trace of uneasiness flashed across his eyes.

That's right, it was unease!

The reason why he was able to talk to the young master of the Du family was that... he had received a call from that mysterious person once again. It had been more than ten years since he received a call from that mysterious person!

When he received the call again, the disguised voice did not change much. As the other person had grown older, their voice was no longer as impetuous as before.

When the voice came from the phone, he almost thought that he had to give back the jade because... he didn't cripple Ye Jian at all. Instead, he watched as she walked further and further away. She stood on higher ground now. Even a police chief like him couldn't do anything!

That was why he was afraid. He was afraid that the owner of this jade pendant would take back everything he had in a fit of anger and make him lose everything!

However, he didn't expect the mysterious person who hadn't contacted him for more than ten years to say, "Send Ye Ying to the military unit as soon as possible. I'll provide the opportunity!"

Sending Yingying to the military unit... This was what he had been dreaming of!

He followed the instructions and went on a business trip to Nanguang Military District. He saved Young Master Du, who was attacked during a meal as the triad forces wanted to take revenge on him...

Commander Du was from the Du family in the capital and was stationed in the Nanguang Military District.

He had racked his brains in the Southern Province but failed. In less than four days, he managed to do it easily. Although his back was slashed, it was worth it! It was really worth it!

“Regiment Commander, Director Ye is here.” The guard reported Ye Zhifan’s purpose for coming when he knocked on the door.

There was no reply immediately. Just as Ye Zhifan was feeling uneasy, the half-closed door suddenly opened. A soldier in his 30s opened the door personally.

His gaze landed on Ye Zhifan and he laughed. “Director Ye, I’ve been waiting for you. Quick, please sit down.”

This was Staff Officer Du’s eldest son, Du Kaiwei. He was 33 years old and was the regiment commander of the Nanguang Military District.

His enthusiasm made Ye Zhifan’s heart calm down. Although he felt his legs going weak just thinking about the dagger that slashed his back, it was worth it when he saw Commander Du’s smile. It was really worth it!

“Director Ye, now that you’re done with your work, do you have time to have a meal with me?” Not only did Du Kaiwei personally welcome him, but he also personally brewed tea and ordered the guards to leave. There were only two of them in the office. “It wasn’t easy for you to come to Nanguang for a trip, so I won’t delay your matters. I won’t say more about thanking you. There’s no sincerity in saying more. Let’s just do something practical that’ll make you happy.”

Director Ye had blocked the dagger for him. If he had not blocked it, the dagger would have sliced Du Kaiwei’s neck and his head would have hit the ground!

He could not neglect this favor!

Ye Zhifan smiled elegantly. He was calm in the face of the warm hospitality.. He didn’t show how happy he was.

Chapter 1845: Plotting

Before Ye Zhifan went to Nanguang for his business trip, he already had a rough understanding of the Du family’s situation. Although they weren’t a prominent family, they still had a good family background.

The family tree of Staff Officer Du’s family was relatively simple. He had an elder brother who was the second-in-command of the province. His children had already taken part in the work. As for what they were doing, it was unknown. However, with an elder brother who was the second-in-command of a province, they were probably doing well too.

Staff Officer Du was the second son. He had two sons and two daughters. Regimental Commander Du was the eldest son. He was only 33 years old.

There was also a younger sister who was a member of the Standing Committee in the Jiangsu province. Madam Du was in her early 40s and only had one daughter, who was still studying abroad.

However, what was worth mentioning was the wife of Staff Officer Du, Madam Li. It could be said that the Du family had a lot to do with Madam Li. She was an extremely knowledgeable lady who relied on her family's connections to elevate the Du family, which was originally a working farmer's family, to its current status.

Ye Zhifan knew what had happened to Madam Li when she was young and what had happened in recent years. He knew that she had a high status in the Du family. Everyone in the Du family respected her. Staff Officer Du listened to everything she said. Madam Li was in charge of everything in the family.

That was true. Considering she had relied on her family's connections to elevate her husband's family to its current prestigious status, anyone who had such a wife would treat her like their ancestor. The regimental commander in front of him respected his mother very much.

Because of Madam Li, Ye Zhifan had to be cautious.

In the face of Du Kaiwei's warm hospitality, Ye Zhifan took a sip of tea after he understood the situation. He said calmly, "Regimental Commander Du, you're too polite. I thought about what you told me last time and decided to do it.

"My daughter is studying in France now. If she were to suddenly take a break from school and return to the country to join the military... It would be difficult for her to pick up her studies again. She just turned 19 a while ago. I'm afraid she won't be able to take the hardship if I let her join the army at such a young age."

It wasn't that he didn't want to bring Yingying back to the country. It was just that he needed to know what Madam Li was thinking. She was a powerful lady who didn't like to be bullied.

The Du family would only progress smoothly if Madam Li agreed to it! Besides, he did not believe that Madam Li would not know that he had saved Du Kaiwei.

He even suspected that Madam Li was the one who suggested letting Yingying join the military. She wanted to test the Du family's motives.

It would have been fine if he had saved Du Kaiwei by chance, but it had been arranged by someone. The Du family was not an ordinary family, so he felt a little uneasy. He could only be cautious at every step.

Hearing this, Du Kaiwei's eyes flickered.

He actually rejected it, which was quite surprising.

Du Kaiwei gently placed the teacup in his hand back onto the solid wood coffee table. He placed one arm on the back of the sofa and spread his legs slightly. He, who was sitting in an unrestrained manner, could not help but ask with a smile, "Director Ye, do you not believe me?"

According to his investigation, Director Ye was putting in a lot of effort to send his daughter to the military unit. He tried all means to establish a relationship with the Military District of Southern Province, but he failed every time.

In his opinion, Director Ye's biggest failure was to marry a wife as stupid as a pig and offend a national treasure. It would be strange if he could build a relationship with the Military District of Southern Province.

Du Kaiwei did investigate Ye Zhifan's matter.. However, when he found out that the person who saved him was the director of the Southern Province Construction Bureau, he thought that it was a trap.

Chapter 1846: In Power

He also found out that Ye Zhifan had outstanding political achievements but didn't have much contact with Beijing. He wanted to build a relationship with the military unit but he was met with many obstacles. Hence, Du Kaiwei believed that Ye Zhifan had really saved him... It was not a trap. He was purely helping him.

Madam Li was right. No matter what the results of the investigation were, what they saw with their own eyes was the truth!

After saying that, Du Kaiwei, who had been maintaining a polite smile on his face, stared at Ye Zhifan without blinking. He patiently waited for the other party to answer him.

"What are you saying, Regimental Commander Du? This isn't a question of whether I believe you or not. It's just that firstly, I don't want my daughter to stop her studies. Secondly, my daughter is young and naughty. She made a huge mistake during the college entrance examination and isn't allowed to take the college entrance examination in the next five years."

Ye Zhifan spoke slowly and told the truth about Ye Ying.

He didn't believe that Regimental Commander Du wouldn't send someone to investigate this matter. Since Ye Zhifan couldn't hide it from him, he might as well tell him about it so that he would have a good impression of him.

"At that time, I thought that I couldn't let my daughter become useless. Since she couldn't take the college entrance examination, she should go to the army. Who knew that my daughter would be implicated because of some family matters. In addition, my daughter fainted once in junior high. When I went to the People's Hospital for a check-up, I found out that she has some heart problems. After all this, it's impossible for her to enter the army.

"Although it's my wish, I had no choice but to accept the truth. After thinking for a while, I finally decided to send my daughter overseas to study."

Ye Zhifan sighed and said, "I didn't discipline her well when she was young. She's still a good kid. If not, I would always have a headache."

The smile in Regimental Commander Du's eyes deepened when Ye Zhifan told him the truth. The situation he mentioned was no different from his investigation. Family scandals should not be made public. It was reasonable for him not to have told the truth previously.

"Since she has a heart problem, she can just go for a detailed check-up. Other things are not that important. It's just my younger daughter... She likes to be calculative and that's why she caused trouble." Du Kaiwei didn't think that Ye Ying was out of line because she had a younger sister who was more troublesome.

"Director Ye, you can consider it carefully. You don't have to answer me immediately. Director Ye, you're now in a high position. I can't help you with other things. I can only say a few words to get your daughter into the army.

"Also, when my family found out that it was you who saved me, my parents wanted to personally come to the Southern Province to thank you. However, both of my parents are busy. They can only wait for an opportunity to express their gratitude to you, Director Ye."

When Ye Zhifan heard this, he knew that he had made the right decision. The Du family was indeed trying to win him over!

Thank goodness! Thank goodness he found out about Madam Li's past, so he didn't agree to it immediately.

Before the Du family investigated Ye Zhifan, Ye Zhifan had investigated the Du family first. He knew that Madam Li was the head of the Du family, so he quickly understood her personality.

In the end, he found out that Madam Li had done something back then, which made him break out in a cold sweat.

The old madam of the Du family had a cousin who once gave away half a liter of rice to the Du family when the Du family was going through their most difficult time. About ten years ago, that cousin saw that the Du family was rich and had not visited them for a long time. They wanted to use this opportunity to admit their grandson to a good university.

Madam Li immediately agreed.. But in the end, they were allocated to the most remote place.

Chapter 1847: Truly Fated

The cousin tried to get in through the back door again, but Madam Li refused and said, "We've already repaid the favor. Are you trying to use this matter to get back at us? I'm sorry, but I, Li Chenglan, won't fall for this!"

This past was not easy to investigate. It was something that Staff Officer Du learned from his hometown. If he did not know about it, he would really have come to visit with his daughter's information today.

Ye Zhifan followed the rules of being an official. He was not radical and would not take any risks. With someone supporting him, he just needed to walk steadily.

Ye Zhifan knew that as long as he didn't make any mistakes, he would be able to rise to the top. Hence, Ye Zhifan was so cautious that he wouldn't do anything immediately. No matter how much he wanted to send Ye Ying to the military unit, he would control himself.

It was precisely because of his cautiousness that he avoided the minefield once again, and the Du family did not notice anything suspicious.

So what if Chen Dongfeng was capable? So what if Grandpa Gen was respected by so many soldiers when he was alive? He didn't care about Commander Liu or Commissar Yan either. With the Du family's status in the military, he would never give up what he wanted for his daughter!

Ye Zhifan didn't mention his relationship with the Du family to Sun Dongqing. It was fine as long as he knew about it. He didn't even want to talk about Ye Ying.

Xia Jinyuan knew that Ye Zhifan had climbed up the ladder to cling to the Du family tree at around 3 PM on the day he finished his mountain training.

Ye Jian said that she didn't want him to get involved. However, with Ye Zhifan's position getting higher and higher, how could he be at ease? He wasn't in the southern division so he had to ask someone to keep a close eye on that man. If Ye Zhifan made any big moves, Xia Jinyuan would know immediately.

The person who called him was Xia Yiwei. She was the secretary of the Southern Province.

"About 40 days ago, Ye Zhifan saved Du Kaiwei, who hasn't gotten along with his elder brother since he was young. He went back to Nanguang about half a month ago and went to Nanguang again. His secretary unintentionally mentioned that Director Ye went to Nanguang Military District. I'm guessing that he has connections with the Du family."

Ye Zhifan saved Du Kaiwei's life? Xia Jinyuan frowned. Why did this happen so coincidentally?

The little fox had just formed a grudge with Du Jiayi when Ye Zhifan got involved with the Du family.

"Have you investigated who wanted Du Kaiwei's life?"

"I've investigated. Du Kaiwei brought some soldiers over and cooperated with the relevant police personnel to clean up a village in Nanguang. When he appeared, he was seen by someone. The villagers worked together to save him," Xia Yiwei said very clearly after thoroughly investigating the matter.

The person who helped her investigate this matter was none other than Hou Zi, who was still showering in the bathroom.

It was the right time to lie lazily in bed on a Sunday in the middle of winter. Xia Yiwei rested her head on the soft white pillow and looked at the falling snow outside the window. Her voice was charming but sharp as she said, "Our Xia family and the Du family were never on good terms. Who knew that my sister-in-law would go against Du Jiayi in advance? In the end..."

Xia Yiwei explained the network of relationships one by one. It was really complicated! She summarized everything in one sentence. "If we're not family, we're not family. Sister-in-law really is fated with our Xia family..."

"I'm fated with your Xia family too..."

A familiar male voice suddenly came through the phone. Xia Jinyuan didn't even frown.. He said, "Help me ask Brother Zi about the progress in France."

Chapter 1848: Cripple Her

The receiver suddenly went silent. It was as if someone had covered it up. After a few seconds of silence, Hou Zi, who was satisfied, said lazily, "I won't delay the things you ask me to do. Don't worry. Everything is fine."

Hou Zi, who had his shoulder pressed against the phone on his ear, stuffed Xia Yiwei, who was trying to snatch her phone back, into the blanket. He said coldly, "They both have the surname 'Ye' but your Little Ye is more interesting."

"That woman in France flaunts her talents and pretends to be high and mighty. However, she's so quick to bite the bait."

Xia Jinyuan didn't ask about the process. He didn't ask Hou Zi how he was going to handle it. When he heard that Ye Ying had gone to study in France, he immediately contacted Hou Zi.

Xia Jinyuan wanted to ask Hou Zi for help to cripple Ye Ying in France. However, he remembered that Hou Zi had blown up his secret firearms warehouse in Mount Dalang. Hence, Xia Jinyuan changed his mind and asked Hou Zi to guide Ye Ying to the wrong path.

Xia Jinyuan knew that Hou Zi must have countless ways to seduce Ye Ying.

France was Hou Zi's second hometown. He knew a few people from all walks of life. Hou Zi knew what he shouldn't do.

"Thank you, Brother Zi. I'll treat you to a good drink when I go to the Southern Province."

"You're too polite. I'll let you do the drinking. I've quit drinking and smoking recently. All forms of entertainment have been banned by your sister for the sake of my liver, lungs, and body. If you treat me to a drink, I won't mind, but your sister will."

Hou Zi used the blanket to wrap Xia Yiwei, who was trying to struggle out of the blanket. He smiled as he looked at his beloved woman, whose face was flushed red and whose eyes were beautiful. He held the phone with one hand and pulled the blanket with the other to prevent her from jumping up and making a fuss with him.

He had been an underground lover for more than half his life, and it was time for him to be promoted!

Xia Yiwei's eyes were filled with anger, "Hou Zi, if you don't let go, I'll make you pack up and leave immediately! Let go of me, do you hear me?"

Xia Jinyuan heard what she said clearly. The two of them had been entangled with each other for so many years. However, they had never broken up.

There was no way they could break up. Hou Zi had ruthlessly destroyed his gang. He used two years to clear his name. Xia Jinyuan knew that Xia Yiwei couldn't dump Hou Zi and marry another man.

Seeing the two of them getting back together again, Xia Jinyuan felt that the dust had settled. He didn't say anything else but said before hanging up the phone, "Brother Zi, our old madam has been waiting for my sister to get married and have children."

"Don't worry, don't worry. I'll definitely let Old Madam Lin have her wish. I'll hang up first. I'm still a little afraid of your sister's explosive temper. Last night, she even wanted me to kneel on bowls. This time, she'll probably make me kneel on cactuses."

"Hou Zi, shut up! Give me your phone!" Xia Yiwei, who was wrapped up like a cocoon, roared. Just from her voice alone, one could tell that Secretary Xia wasn't displaying her usual wise and dignified demeanor.

Xia Jinyuan had no interest in listening to other people's private matters. He wanted to hang up but when he heard that Xia Yiwei still had something to say to him, he moved his phone farther away. He didn't want to hear the fun between the two of them.

"Yes, yes, yes. Baby, are you going through menopause? Why is your temper getting worse?" Hou Zi was a gangster. He didn't care about what he said. Now, he finally managed to win over the woman he loved. While coaxing her, he got closer and closer.. He wouldn't let her leave him.

Chapter 1849: Already Cast The Net

Xia Yiwei, who had struggled free from the blanket, was choked by his mention of 'menopause'. If she didn't have something to say to Xia Jinyuan, she would have rushed into the washroom and splashed cold water on his face!

She had something important to do, so she only glared at him coldly. Her snow-white arms came out of the blanket, and it could be seen that there were hickeys on the inside of her arms, adding to the ambiguous atmosphere.

"Little Six, tell Little Ye to be careful. We've been investigating the person behind Ye Zhifan for a few years but we still haven't found any leads. The waters in this are exceptionally deep." She could see how much Little Six cared about Little Ye. Little Ye was indeed not bad. It was her good fortune for Little Six to want to marry her. She only hoped that the two of them would be safe and not have any problems. "I've tried asking the provincial governor but I didn't manage to find anything."

Ye Zhifan's resume was clean, and his political achievements were good. He could achieve big things no matter what position he was in. It was as if he was born with the luck of an official!

The more it was like this, the more suspicious it was!

Xia Yiwei treated Ye Jian as her family. If not, she would not care about her at all.

Even after looking through the records from a few years, she still didn't manage to find anything. This showed that the person behind Ye Zhifan was very powerful!

Xia Jinyuan had always known that the person behind the scenes who was helping Ye Zhifan was not an ordinary person. Otherwise, Ye Zhifan's political career would not have risen so quickly.

Now that he was on good terms with the Du family, the Xia family had a chance. Upon hearing her words, Xia Jinyuan said calmly, "Just keep an eye on him for me. If you can't find any flaws, his daughter will become one."

With Hou Zi's methods, Ye Zhifan's daughter must be having a good life in France.

He seemed to have thought of something as a dark look flashed past his eyes. "Sis, ask his secretary to ask if he still has the intention of sending his daughter to the army."

If there was, Du Kaiwei would definitely arrange for Ye Ying to enter the military unit.

Her reputation in the country was ruined, and her misdeeds abroad were spread everywhere...

'Regimental Commander Du, if you really want to return the favor, please arrange for Director Ye's daughter to join the army!'

Xia Yiwei was the secretary of the Southern Province's head. It was much more convenient for her to keep an eye on Ye Zhifan. Moreover, Ye Zhifan's secretary had some ties with Xia Yiwei. It wouldn't be suspicious for her to ask some non-work questions.

"Tell Little Six that he doesn't have to worry about what's happening in France. He just has to do his own things. I'm not capable of handling things in the military, but I can still help out in the outside world." Hou Zi, who was about to get out of bed after putting on his clothes, leaned over and kissed Xia Yiwei's cheek gently. Then, he left the space for the two siblings.

He had to go downstairs to prepare Chinese food for his wife. If he didn't prepare it now, he could directly serve dinner.

Xia Jinyuan didn't speak for long after that. He was tired after finishing his training. When he came back, he took his phone and saw that Xia Yiwei had sent him a few messages asking him to call her back immediately.

Ye Jian, who was in front of him, was still standing quietly on the same spot. His dark eyes were smiling as he moved his twisted ankle a little. Then, he strode toward Ye Jian.

All of them were dressed in jungle combat uniforms. Their faces were covered in sweat from running, and they looked completely different. Some of their comrades had yet to return, and during the waiting process, they did not forget to exchange their training experiences and battle tactics.

“Swimming for a long period of time requires a spurt of energy. You can’t stop, or you’ll run out of oxygen. You also have to work together during the long-distance march on the mountain. When you need to run, you have to be fast. When you need to rest, you have to stop. This way, you can maintain your endurance and your body will be burning with adrenaline.” J5 was talking to a few members of Storm Commando.. Ye Jian was listening attentively at the side.
