

BOOT CAMP 1991

Chapter 1991 Rapid Progress

The Military Disciplinary Committee was no ordinary organization. Even if the highest-ranking officer made a mistake, the Military Disciplinary Committee would still be the one to handle it.

Ye Jian was worried. However, when she heard Commissioner Cai's cheerful voice on the phone last night, he didn't seem tired at all. Instead, he laughed loudly and talked to her. Sometimes, he would say something irrelevant... He was saying those things to the people around him, but he was also indirectly telling her that he was fine. It was just that his personal freedom was restricted.

"Uncle Chen, you've been worried about me for the entire day over my mother's case. This time, I have a feeling that the Military Disciplinary Committee will interfere... Just as Commissioner Cai said, this is a good thing.

"I just don't quite understand. It's not the first or second day since my mother's past achievements were erased by the military unit. Why do you think the Military Disciplinary Committee is suddenly launching an investigation? Could it be..." Ye Jian's voice got lower and lower. Her pupils suddenly constricted, and her fingers couldn't help but tremble as if she had discovered something big.

The sudden silence made Principal Chen, who was driving the car, take a quick look at her. He saw that her face was as dark as a gloomy cloud. There were faint traces of thunder. He immediately asked her, "What?" "Could it be that... the person has come to the military headquarters? The General Staff Department, the General Political Department, the General Logistics Department, and the General Armaments Department... Is that person in one of these four great institutions?"

This was the only way to suppress the matter of her mother's past in the army. He had the ability to suppress it so that no one would find out!

"Girl, your guesses always make me break out in a cold sweat." Principal Chen couldn't help but tighten the steering wheel as he drove steadily. He looked ahead with a firm stare, causing a few wrinkles to appear at the corners of his eyes. "Don't make wild guesses for now. We might have an answer when you get to the Military Disciplinary Committee.

"You said that the Military Disciplinary Committee didn't investigate this before. Now that they've suddenly started investigating, I feel that Captain Xia might be involved. However, Captain Xia is still a major. The possibility of him attacking is low... I'm afraid it might be Commander Xia."

Ye Jian was stunned. "You mean... Commander Xia raised the issue of my mother to the Military Disciplinary Committee?"

This... This was too shocking! She believed that Captain Xia would raise the issue to the Military Disciplinary Committee, but Commander Xia... She really didn't dare to believe it.

However, she had to believe it even if she couldn't. When they arrived at their destination, Ye Jian saw a familiar figure standing there with his hands behind his back. The tall figure stood like a tall mountain.

The soldiers around him were so powerful that the sentinels on both sides of him were standing stiffly. Seeing Ye Jian getting out of the car, Commander Xia, who had been waiting for almost ten minutes, walked over. The golden military rank on his epaulet followed him as he walked with big strides.

Ye Jian didn't dare to let the commander in chief pick her up. She hurriedly ran over. When she was a certain distance away, she followed the military salute and stood straight. She saluted and greeted the commander in chief who was walking over. Her breathing was heavy as she said in a cold voice, "Ye Jian, a first-year cadet of the National Science University. Report! Hello, Commander in Chief!"

"Happy New Year." Commander Xia smiled and returned the greeting. He saw that Ye Jian looked more mature than before. He was happy. "You're really early. Weren't you told last night that there's no hurry? You could rest first before coming."

This was the girlfriend his son had taken a fancy to and the daughter-in-law he was satisfied with. As a father, it was only right for him to show concern.

Chapter 1992 Shed Blood And Not Tears

After hearing this, Ye Jian understood what had happened. Commander Xia was the one who asked the Military Disciplinary Committee to investigate the matter regarding her mother. For a moment, her heart swelled up and she didn't know what to say.

When Commander Xia saw this, he thought to himself, 'My son really understands Little Ye. He knew that she'd definitely be moved to tears when she finds out that he's the one helping her look into Sun Xueqing's matter.'

Indeed, she looked like she was about to cry.

This child... Sigh, it hadn't been easy for her at all. After enduring so many tough days, she was still so pure and kind. She had the most sincere and pure heart... It could be seen that his son's taste was indeed better than his.

"Little Ye, shed blood and not tears. As a female soldier, you might be more emotional, but I still hope that you can face everything calmly." Although Commander Xia was smiling as he spoke, his expression was still quite serious. "Moreover, your matter isn't your personal matter. It's something that concerns our entire army! As the commander in chief, I'll have no choice but to shamefully run away from my post if I can't even deal with this matter that has brought shame to the entire military."

Ye Jian knew that her emotions were fluctuating. She sniffed lightly and suppressed her emotions slowly. "If Mom knew about this, she'd be very happy. The country she's loyal to hasn't forgotten her."

"How can our country forget the martyrs who were sacrificed for our country? Do you see the towering monument of heroes? Our country will never forget the martyrs who sacrificed themselves!"

Commander Xia's expression changed as he said sternly. It was obvious how angry he was!

The angry Commander Xia made people even more fearful of him. A few officers on duty passed by, and when they saluted him, their faces were tense.

It was not just the officers who were passing by who tensed up. Ye Jian, who had been following them, felt the same way too. When he got angry just now, her heart had skipped a beat.

Ye Jian had lived two lifetimes, but she didn't have as much experience as Commander Xia. Although she had undergone strict training, it was normal for her to be afraid of the angry Commander Xia.

It would be strange if she wasn't afraid.

The commander in chief who was talking to Ye Jian saluted the officer and continued leading Ye Jian forward.

Realizing that he had frightened Ye Jian, his tone became much gentler. "I originally planned to contact you on the third or fourth day of Lunar New Year, but you took the initiative to call Cai Zhizhang. The Military Disciplinary Committee reached out to me and asked you to come over directly. Don't be afraid. It's not a bad thing. It's a good thing. Don't be nervous. Relax and have a good chat with the Military Disciplinary Committee.

"I'll be by your side. You can say whatever you want. Don't worry!" He reminded Ye Jian that everyone in the room was trustworthy.

Ye Jian nodded. She didn't show any fear when she saw the leader of the Military Disciplinary Committee.

Commander Xia had come specially for Ye Jian's sake. After Ye Jian was brought in, he went and sat in front of the surveillance room. He turned on the microphone. "Say whatever you want. There's nothing to be afraid of."

The leader of the Military Disciplinary Committee, who was in charge of recording this, glanced at the commander in chief and laughed. "Old Xia, are you afraid that we'll bend the law?"

"I feel at ease letting you guys be in charge. A cadet facing a group of leaders will naturally feel a little pressured. I'll guide her." Commander Xia, who had turned off the microphone, sat down steadily. He spoke calmly, and the leader of the Military Disciplinary Committee didn't say anything else.
