

BOOT CAMP 2017

Chapter 2017: Know Too Much

Xia Yiwei liked Ye Jian's unpretentious personality. When her family asked her about her, she gave Ye Jian a high evaluation.

She nodded affirmatively and answered her elder brother, who was the most authoritative figure in their generation, "Yes, she's indeed not bad. You'll know when Little Six brings her back."

It made Zhou Yijin click his tongue. "No way! She's younger than me! And she's a cadet!... If she wants to come over, do I have to stay away, then?"

"I'll find a way to get you back so you can learn from Little Six's girlfriend," Zhou Yichen said with a smile. His elegant voice was filled with cruelty. "I'll make you so ashamed."

The conversation between the two siblings made everyone laugh out loud. The servants in the old mansion couldn't help but smile when they heard their laughter.

When Ye Jian returned to the hotel, Principal Chen asked her to talk to him.

Looking at Principal Chen's serious expression, Ye Jian felt scared.

"Just now, Commander Liu mentioned that Ye Zhifan has a relationship with Staff Officer Du. Girl, you seem to have known about it. When did you know about it?"

Principal Chen, who was sitting on the sofa, asked. His voice was very deep. Ye Jian, who was sitting down, felt her heart beating faster. She didn't know how she had angered Principal Chen. She thought about it... but it didn't seem to be the case.

Back in the hospital, Captain Xia had told him that he needed to hide this matter from Ye Jian for the time being. Hence, he never once mentioned the relationship between Ye Zhifan and Staff Officer Du.

However, Ye Jian didn't seem surprised at all. Instead, she seemed to already know about it. But it was impossible that Captain Xia was the one who told her.

So, this was what was going on. Ye Jian pursed her lips slightly. She thought for a while, then told him everything that had happened in the mall today. "...When I left, Sun Dongqing told me that I won't be happy for long. When Ye Ying enters the military unit, everything will change.

"So, when Commander Liu mentioned that Ye Zhifan has a relationship with Staff Officer Du, I wasn't surprised."

Fortunately, she had met Ye Zhifan and the rest in the morning. Otherwise, she wouldn't be able to explain why she wasn't surprised. After all, she had known about it in her previous life.

Her explanation made Principal Chen nod slightly. "I see. That makes sense.

“Since you already know, there’s no need for me to hide some things from you.” Principal Chen told Ye Jian the truth about his conversation with Xia Jinyuan in the hospital.

Regarding Commissioner Cai going to the National Science University to look for Ye Jian and how Sun Yaozu’s matter was settled, Ye Jian now knew everything that Xia Jinyuan had wanted to hide from her.

The only thing she didn’t know was that the reason why Ye Zhifan was able to form a relationship with Staff Officer Du was that he saved his son.

“Captain Xia suspects that both of them are banding together against you and the Xia family. He was afraid that you would be paranoid, so he only mentioned it to me. He wanted to find out more before telling you.

“There’s no need for that now. You already know what we’re trying to hide from you, and the Military Disciplinary Committee is also involved now. I’m not worried that you’ll do something rash because of your mother.

“Also, you can’t blame Captain Xia for not telling you. I saw that you were about to take the exam and told him not to tell you so that you wouldn’t be distracted.” Principal Chen didn’t want the two of them to get into a conflict. “If Captain Xia hadn’t reported your mother’s matters to Commander Xia, I’m afraid the Military Disciplinary Committee wouldn’t have known about this!

“You can’t blame Captain Xia, you should thank him instead.”

Chapter 2018: The Final Glory

Ye Jian rubbed her forehead and said helplessly, “Uncle Chen, I’m not an unreasonable person. Why would I blame him?”

“As you said, I should really thank him.”

Principal Chen nodded in satisfaction. That was good!

When Ye Jian returned to her room, her smile disappeared instantly. Her eyes were as sharp as swords.

After Ye Zhifan’s life-saving act, it seemed that Ye Ying would really join the military!

She just hoped that the Military Disciplinary Committee would take action as soon as possible and cut off Ye Zhifan’s career path. That way, even if Ye Ying joined the military, she would still be the daughter of a criminal!

Although she didn’t want to see Ye Ying enter the military, the Du family and the Xia family didn’t see eye to eye. If Staff Officer Du really admitted Ye Ying, who had heart disease and a stain on her file, to the military, wouldn’t it be suspicious?

She needed to tell Captain Xia. If he didn’t come back in time, she could tell Commander Xia directly.

At this moment, Ye Zhifan, who was in high spirits, didn’t know that he had been targeted. He was happy to befriend the family of Staff Officer Du. When he saw the wife of Staff Officer Du holding his daughter’s hand and talking to her from time to time, he was even happier.

“Director Ye, you’re so blessed to have such a bright and obedient daughter.” Staff Officer Du had always respected his wife. To put it bluntly, he was afraid of his wife. Seeing that his wife quite liked that young lady, he smiled and added, “I have a younger daughter who’s four years older than your daughter. She’s also very obedient. Once your daughter joins the army, our two daughters will definitely be friends.”

Director Ye had long known that Staff Officer Du had a daughter in the Nanguang Military District’s art troupe. He was secretly delighted and flattered him without batting an eyelid. “Your daughter is the real daughter of a prestigious family. My daughter here is, at most, a pretty daughter from a humble family. You shouldn’t humble your daughter’s status by saying that.”

It was confirmed that Ye Ying would join the military now. Madam Li nodded her head. There was no doubt about it.

Madam Li was very satisfied with Ye Zhifan’s ability to speak. He was very skillful. He didn’t flatter her, but he always spoke well of her family and their education. Such kind words made him really likable.

Therefore, she said, “You don’t have to belittle yourself, Director Ye. A pretty girl from a humble family is as good as a pretty girl from a noble family. Although my daughter is obedient, she’s too opinionated. I can tell with one look that your daughter is thoughtful and clever. She must take the adults’ words seriously.

“Most children nowadays like to make decisions on their own. They think they’re so great, but in reality, they’re nothing without the protection of their parents.

“Your daughter is very good. I like obedient, sensible, and polite children.”

Although Ye Ying inadvertently revealed a coquettish demeanor that made people feel uncomfortable, her words were gentle and delicate. There was no anger or embarrassment on her face either. From this point of view, she was better than many of those girls who were self-righteous.

“You’re flattering me. I don’t dare to be rude in front of you. I think that you always say the right things. I’ll listen carefully to what you say.” Ye Ying looked shy as if she hadn’t received any praise. “You have an aura that other people don’t have. I can’t explain it. I just feel that if I can get your guidance, it’ll greatly benefit me.”

If Ye Zhifan’s words earlier had made Madam Li satisfied, then Ye Ying’s words really hit the nail on the head. Madam Li’s polite smile immediately turned into a sincere smile.
