

BOOT CAMP 2051

Chapter 2052: A Guy Who's Nothing

He egged Xia Jinyuan on and humbled himself. To hell with arrogance and prejudice! He kept giving in to save his own skin. "Shoot him, Jack. Only you can take him out."

"Really, I'm sure you're capable. I can't do it. I must admit I'm not as good as you, and you really are the best and bravest Chinese I've ever met. Dude, I'm really happy to be your friend. It's an honor."

It was an extraordinary admission of defeat. He had no choice. He was terrified, especially since that person had taken out a few of his companions so easily. He would rather bow to a Chinese at this moment than lose his life.

For once, he was going to speak nicely to the damned Chinese.

Just this once!

He swore to God there would never be a second time!

The fear in his heart made Job put down his ridiculous arrogance, but Xia Jinyuan was quite calm and did not take his hypocritical words to heart.

Upon hearing this, a roguish smile appeared on his elegant face. He mocked slowly, "*sshole, is the gun in your hand a toy? Haven't you always been very powerful? You can shoot the person yourself.

"And you're the best. I'm no match for you as a Chinese person. Be brave and shoot. Don't make me look down on you."

An enemy's enemy was a friend. How could he shoot a friend?

Even if the other party cleared out everyone on the island, he would never shoot as long as he was not exposed.

Job was blue with anger. He knew he was being mocked, and by the Chinese he had always despised.

The admission of defeat just now was already Job's greatest concession. He had thought that if he softened his attitude, the other party would definitely be grateful to him. Who knew that he would actually mock him for being timid?!

Face livid, Job gritted his teeth and said resentfully, "You bloody Chinese, you'll pay for your cowardly behavior!

"If you don't get out there, you're going to get killed by those guys! You're going to get killed!"

How could his clown-like behavior anger Xia Jinyuan? It only made Xia Jinyuan mock him even more. He told him seriously, "Don't worry. Even if you're killed, I'll be fine.

“You can charge out. I won’t stop you. As long as you’re not afraid of being taken out and maybe think you have what it takes to take that person out, you can totally charge out and be a hero for once. You can be a hero like Superman!”

“Are you asking me to take this gun and shoot you?” The arrogant Job raised the gun in his hand. This Chinese man dared to mock him? Very well, he would show the bloody Chinese what would happen to those who provoked him, Job!

The cold gun was aimed at Xia Jinyuan’s forehead. Job, who had always looked down on Chinese and black people, spoke coldly. His eyes were filled with killing intent. He really wanted to kill Xia Jinyuan with the gun.

Facing the threat, Xia Jinyuan curled his thin lips slightly. He was not afraid at all. He spoke slowly, and his tone was disdainful enough to make the other party jump in anger. “You don’t dare to rush out to help your own people. Instead, you’re now pointing a gun at me. Mr. Job, your cowardice makes me look down on you even more.

“Do you know why I don’t like talking to you? Because everything you say makes me look down on you and makes me feel sick. You’re really the most cowardly, self-righteous, shit-for-brains guy I’ve ever met.”

Chapter 2053: Close

Job, who thought he had been insulted, was breathing a lot louder. The sound was particularly clear in the tense and silent night.

‘Good. Just continue to breathe this heavily.’

The corners of Xia Jinyuan’s lips curled up as he narrowed his eyes. The cold light in the depths of his dark pupils was like the glint of a blade, filled with sharpness.

“You have the guts to shoot me now, huh, Mr. Job? I’ve never seen this side of you before.” Xia Jinyuan seemed calm in the face of a gun aimed at his forehead. He was so calm that the sarcasm in his voice deepened. “Your guts are limited to just pointing a gun at me, a Chinese who looks down on you.

“As for the rest, with all due respect to Mr. Job, you really are as timid as a mouse.”

The thick mockery made the muscles on Job’s face tremble with anger. His anger burned to the point where his heart ached, but he did not dare to shout because the dark figure that frightened him was too close!

However, he could not accept being mocked by a Chinese who looked down on him!

Had to give him a warning! Damn this Chinese!

“You have successfully angered me, Chinese! I won’t forgive you even if you kneel and apologize to me now!”

His finger slowly squeezed the trigger. The sneer in Job's eyes was filled with deep malice. "If we don't escape tonight, I'll execute you myself! I'll send you to go see God!"

As soon as the words were out of his mouth, Job felt his vision blur. Then, a sharp pain shot through his wrist. If he hadn't been biting his lip, he would have screamed.

"Send me to see God? Are you sure you're capable of sending me to see God?" With his index finger hooked around the pistol, Xia Jinyuan swung the gun in a suave manner. With a faint smile, he said softly, "Mr. Job, the person who's out to kill you has already discovered your presence."

The bone-chilling voice floated softly and into the wind, making Job, whose wrist hurt so much that he could only gasp and shudder violently.

A fear he had never felt before rose from the depths of his heart and rushed uncontrollably to his limbs. The trembling Job met a pair of eyes as fierce and cold as those of a beast. There was a light in his eyes. It felt as if something terrifying would come out of the man's eyes and swallow him whole.

Job was afraid. He was cowardly. He slowly raised his hands to the back of his head. He could only talk with his actions. He was already too frightened to say a word.

But he was indignant, even if he was afraid!

He was unwilling to be threatened by this Chinese man!

'Just you wait, damn you!'

Under the faint starlight, Ye Jian, who was searching, heard movement. She heard someone whispering. The man was angry as if he was arguing with someone.

She didn't go any farther. She stopped and knew she couldn't go any farther in this direction. Someone was lying in wait.

The light in the forest was quite dim. If it weren't for the faint light from the stars, the entire island would have been pitch-black. Ye Jian, who didn't move forward, quietly hid between two rocks.

This was a blind spot. Even if they were lying in ambush than five meters away, it was impossible to shoot accurately. They would only hit the thick rocks with their bullets.

Heavy breathing could be heard. Ye Jian pursed her lips.

Was it one person? Or two?

'Are they arguing over the phone?'

'It doesn't seem like it.'

She didn't see the light radiating from the screen of a phone.

It had to be two of them! It was just that one of them was holding his temper.

Xia Jinyuan, who was listening carefully, raised his eyebrows with interest. That person could hear Job's voice even though they were at least five meters away.

Chapter 2054: Surrounded

Like his little fox, this person was quite sensitive to the hidden dangers around them. Their senses were naturally sharper than others.

However, it was also a little troublesome. This place had become a focus of fire. There were a total of nine people who had rushed to the island with him, not to mention the guys on the other speedboat. If they all surrounded this person, there would probably be blood.

It was a little strange. Although this island was a place for arms dealers to trade, there were no signs of it being developed. There were guards around the sea area that prohibited all ships and tourists from entering. How did these experts enter this island?

Why did they enter the island?

'Enemies of the arms dealer? Competitors?'

Xia Jinyuan fell into deep thought. The elegant smile on his handsome face in the darkness was gone. Even his eyebrows revealed a sword-like coldness.

He did not care about who the people on the island were. He was just afraid that the appearance of these people would alert the target he needed to bring back. If that was the case, it would be a little troublesome.

The target had finally revealed himself. Xia Jinyuan even learned through various channels that the target would be dealing with an arms dealer in the near future. If everything was ruined, the cunning target would continue to hide and no one knew when he would be arrested.

"What do they want, damn it?! Are they asking to die?"

Xia Jinyuan, who was deep in thought, was quickly pulled back to his senses by Job's panicked voice. He looked ahead with a sharp gaze and saw black shadows moving behind the leaves toward them.

No wonder Job was afraid. He was afraid they would catch him and force him to join the fight.

He overestimated himself and wanted to launch a sneak attack on others with the skills he had... It just happened to suit his persona as a powerful character. In fact, he was just waiting for the targets to be cleared!

Ye Jian, who had been hiding well, had long seen the moving black shadows. She watched as they walked toward her. Her bright black eyes shone with a cold light. They were bright and cold. There was only a deep coldness in them.

"I'm surrounded. Flank me from my right."

She used the softest voice to reach out to her comrades. "Take one alive first. I'll distract them while you take the opportunity to circle in front of them!"

There were people in front of her on either side. Behind her were White Crane, Weaver, and the engineers who had not left. She could not retreat. There was no choice but to advance.

Knowing that there was an ambush not far away, Ye Jian's voice was soft. But through the earpiece, her comrades could hear her clearly.

White Crane, who was already close to Ye Jian, softly said, "Okay." The three of them formed an inverted triangle with Ye Jian as the center and White Crane as the ascending point.

They would circle around to the front of Ye Jian and surround the targets.

The shadows were getting closer and closer to her. Ye Jian looked to her left... Just now, she had heard heavy breathing about five meters to her left, which meant that there was an ambush there. But for some reason, she didn't sense any danger.

The other party must have been hiding there for a certain period of time, but he had not shown his face or shot at her. It was as if he was an outsider and did not want to get into trouble.

Although the cautious Ye Jian didn't sense any danger, she didn't believe that there was no danger.

Through the gap in the rocks, she saw the black shadows approaching. She heard the voices of White Crane and Azalea too.

They had made it around!

Chapter 2055: I've Always Been Here

Just as a few hunched shadows were about to go behind a tree, Ye Jian suddenly stood up from behind the rock and shouted, "Move out!" She raised her pistol and quickly pulled the trigger.

After the first gunshot sounded, Ye Jian, who had released the trigger, dodged to the side of the rock and completed the second shot.

Xia Jinyuan, who had been watching from the side, suddenly heard a short and a cold shout. His deep black eyes, which were originally calm, suddenly became stormy.

Even though the voice was monotonous, he recognized it.

It was his little fox!

It was his little fox with whom he had been separated for less than a month!

She was right beside him!

At this moment, Major Xia felt an indescribable feeling in his heart. His lover was beside him, but he did not realize it immediately!

He even praised her skills while watching!

Suddenly, Job, who had been hiding his hands behind his ears, stood up and slammed into Xia Jinyuan. He said viciously, "Go to hell, disgusting Chinese!"

Ye Jian heard a sound. She turned sideways and fired at the spot where she heard movement. The bullet hit the rock with a bang and sparks flew.

She wasn't planning on hitting her target. Ahead was a blind spot. Her shot had done nothing more than to scare whoever it was behind the rock.

Xia Jinyuan, who had also found a blind spot, was on guard against the shooter. He kicked Job, who plotted against him, down. Xia Jinyuan squatted down and stuffed the cold gun barrel into Job's open mouth.

"You're one unlucky bastard. I thought I'd leave you alive, but you're throwing your life away. You might as well go see God, Mr. Job."

"Mmmmmmm..."

Job, whose plot had failed, shook his head vehemently. He could explain. He could explain!

The terrified Job had no chance to speak. Suddenly there were shots. Not single shots, but high-frequency shots.

They sounded menacing and very unfriendly!

Dense gunshots rang out. The firepower in the forest, which was only sporadic a moment ago, suddenly increased. The sound of bullets was like thunder that shook the ground. Job's feet twitched in fear as the gunfire rained down on him... He had lost control of his bladder.

High-frequency fire!

Someone else was coming, and they were coming from the front... Coming from the front? The men who had been in the helicopter with the arms dealer?

Oh no!

These people were high-ranking mercenaries!

They were armed with powerful submachine guns!

Xia Jinyuan stopped talking nonsense with Job. The moment he pulled the pistol out of his mouth, he grabbed the man's head with both hands and broke his neck without hesitation.

He needed to meet up with his little fox. He needed to meet up with his comrades on the island and help them leave in the speedboat.

It turned out that the missing military engineering team had been kidnapped to the island by the arms dealer.

No wonder Little Fox and the others sneaked over. The special forces of the Xueyu unit were like sharp swords that had been unsheathed. There were no difficulties for them!

Under such high-frequency shooting, Little Fox must still be up ahead. Xia Jinyuan, who was leaning against the rock, looked at the bullets that brushed past him in midair and smiled.

He crawled out from the rocks. His cold voice sounded over the dense gunfire, carrying traces of a smile. "Stay close. I'm coming over, Little Fox."

Ye Jian, whose face was pressed against the ground, was suddenly stunned. She actually heard Captain Xia's voice.

She must be so shocked by the sound of bullets that she was hallucinating!

Chapter 2056: Answer If You Hear Me

His voice was not loud, but it was extremely penetrating. Every word reached her ears. Ye Jian was thinking about him.

Ye Jian, who was so tense with her cheeks pressed against the ground, was suddenly stunned. She actually heard Captain Xia's voice from the deafening gunshots. She must be so shocked by the sound of the bullets that she was hallucinating!

A deep voice came from the earpiece. "Azure Bird, answer if you hear me."

It was high-frequency shooting. They were worried about Azure Bird.

Ye Jian, who thought that she was hallucinating, adjusted her mentality. She smiled and said, "I'm still alive. I'm fine. The bullets are all aimed at the sky. Only the stray bullets are brushing past."

After the faint smile, she, who was listening carefully to the gunshots, gradually pursed her lips. Her expression turned serious as she said, "I suspect that they want to capture us alive. Otherwise, they wouldn't be blindly shooting the bullets upward. Pigeon, how's the situation on your side?"

At this time, there were usually only two means for an aerial assault. One was intimidation; the other was encirclement.

Ye Jian preferred the second method.

They were not afraid of being surrounded. They were close to the beach and could retreat to the beach while suppressing the enemy with firepower. They were mainly worried about Pigeon and the six engineers who had not left.

"We're fine." Pigeon, who had been listening to the conversation between Ye Jian and the other two, replied, "Steady your firepower. You don't have to fight with them. We're close to the sea now. Once Blood Swallow drives the assault boat over, we'll leave immediately."

Ye Jian felt much more at ease. As long as they sent the engineering team back first, everything would be settled.

The two assault boats they had taken from the sightseeing island were too noisy. They did not sail directly into the beach that was convenient to anchor. Instead, they approached the highest cliff on the island. The ten of them swam ashore from the beach.

According to the plan, after the rescue was successful, the team members would return to the cliff to sail the assault boats over and leave with the engineering team.

Right now, Ye Jian, White Crane, and Azalea were too far away. If they let Pigeon and the others sail over to rescue them, the engineers on the boat would lose a layer of protection. If anything happened, they would be in danger.

That was why Ye Jian suggested snatching the speedboat. The three of them would snatch the speedboat from here and leave. They wouldn't have to inconvenience Pigeon and the others anymore. They just had to protect the engineers and leave.

Ye Jian's timely answer made all her comrades feel at ease.

Azalea, who was subdued to the high-frequency shooting, covered his arm that was scratched by the stray bullets and said in a low voice, "It's good that you're fine. The other party's firepower is too strong. If we keep being suppressed by them like this, we might really be captured alive.:"

"No matter how big the submachine gun's magazine is, it can't sweep through the area like a machine gun. Even if they take turns firing, they'll still need to replace the magazine when it's weak!"

Ye Jian, who had yet to cut off contact with Pigeon, looked at a tree with a bent trunk. A cold glint flashed across her dark eyes as she locked onto a certain spot. She said softly, "30 rounds of ammunition capacity. After 30 rounds, you have to change the magazine. White Crane, Azalea, cover for me. I'll go to the sniper position and kill one first."

At this moment, killing one meant losing one submachine gun!

The inverted triangle battle just now made it too close to the group of guys who were using high-frequency shooting to intimidate them. It was not convenient for them to move quickly. Only Ye Jian, who was a little farther away, could do it.

White Crane and Azalea, who were too close, were already covered in bark and leaves cut off by bullets. Hearing this, they replied at the same time, "No problem."

Chapter 2057: Incredible

They trusted Azure Bird. They believed that if she said something, it meant that she could definitely do it. This was the trust they shared as comrades. On the battlefield, trust would become tacit. Perfect cooperation would win.

"Go on! Scare them until they don't have the strength to hold a gun!"

The dark muzzle of the gun radiated coldly from behind the uneven rock. It kept firing so hard that the muzzle spat flames like tongues of flame.

The man who was firing the most viciously was shouting ferociously. He was a typical brute with curly hair, deep-set eyes, and brownish-black skin. He changed magazines so quickly, looking like a mad bison as he yelled arrogantly.

The bullets flew out of the muzzle and caused a thicker smell of smoke to waft around the forest. Although the high-frequency firing drowned out his voice, his pause in reloading alerted Ye Jian of his actions.

Ye Jian, who was familiar with all kinds of guns, had already calculated how long it would take to shoot all 30 bullets. At the same time, she was thinking about how to find the sniper position she liked.

Ye Jian, who was in danger, ended her contact with her comrades and started preparing to find a sniper position.

Just as she looked up slightly, what she had just thought was an auditory hallucination slowly sounded in her ears again.

“Shoot at the sky. I’m afraid he wants to capture you alive. There are two speedboats by the sea. They’re not far from you. You can choose to snatch the boats and leave. As for the others, take your own boats and leave while you still have firepower.”

The familiar low voice came clearly from beside her. This time, she heard it clearly. She was definitely not hallucinating!

She really heard Captain Xia’s voice coming from her side. It was low, steady, and filled with majestic power. She could hear every word clearly.

Ye Jian, whose heart was trembling slightly, looked in the direction of the voice in disbelief. She called out softly, “Captain Xia?”

Captain Xia?

Q King?

She was not the only one who heard it. Pigeon, who was protecting the engineers, and the others had heard it too. Their faces showed surprise.

Azure Bird was talking to Q King? Impossible!

It was possible! At Ye Jian’s call, she immediately received Xia Jinyuan’s answer.

Ye Jian saw a long ‘stone’ move less than a meter away from her. A familiar voice came from the other side with a faint smile. “You sound surprised. I’m also surprised to see my little fox here.”

Major Xia, who had approached silently, was disguising himself as a stone in the darkness. He heard Ye Jian talking to her comrades and waited for her to finish.

He did not make a sudden appearance. With her speed, if he suddenly appeared, she would definitely treat him as a target that needed to be eliminated and shoot him.

Ye Jian was really stunned. Captain Xia? It was really Captain Xia! She met Captain Xia, who was also on a mission, on this island?!

She came all the way here and ran into Captain Xia?

'It's unbelievable!'

Ye Jian wasn't the only one in disbelief. All the comrades who heard Ye Jian were in disbelief too. White Crane, who was closest to her, hid behind a rock and leaned against the wet rock. He adjusted his breathing and asked Ye Jian, "Azure Bird, who did you call out?"

Looking at the black shadow that had already crawled to her side, Ye Jian, who was still in shock, slowly reached out her hand when she heard her comrade's voice... She first touched Xia Jinyuan's head, then slowly touched his handsome face. It was warm and firm. She could even feel his breath on her fingers

Chapter 2058: The Handsome Face Engraved In Her Heart

She did not hear wrongly. He was indeed beside her!

The real touch made Ye Jian smile. A ball of light gradually spread from the depths of her black eyes, making her cold black eyes as bright as the sun. Even the sharp look on her face softened.

Ye Jian, who was still touching Xia Jinyuan's face, suppressed the joy in her heart. She maintained her composure on the battlefield and told all her comrades, "It's Q King. He's beside me."

Everyone was silent. Clearly, everyone was shaken.

Q King?

They were on the same island?

"All firepower is on Azure Bird's side now. Pigeon, Long Eagle, take our engineers and retreat quickly. Leave Azure Bird and the others to me."

His comrades were still in shock, but Xia Jinyuan's cold voice reached everyone's ears through the earpiece. "White Crane, Azalea, don't move for the time being. Wait for me and Azalea Bird to finish sniping before covering us."

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

The captain was here. Even if the two groups had different missions, they could still follow his orders at this moment.

And with him fighting alongside Azure Bird, they did not need to worry as much about her safety.

Ye Jian put on the headset again. Her bright black eyes were filled with a smile as she looked at the handsome face close to her.

Ye Jian couldn't take her eyes off him.

His face was deeply engraved in her heart. Even if she could only see his outline, she could still clearly see his handsome face and fluttering eyelashes.

No wonder she didn't feel any danger just now. It turned out the person hiding was Captain Xia.

In that case, he had actually been watching her for a long time and had always known of her existence, but he did not know who she was?

Ye Jian raised her eyebrows slightly and revealed an intriguing smile... He knew about her existence but didn't know who she was. Oh, she would need to have a talk with Captain Xia after this.

The major didn't know that his girlfriend wanted to have a chat with him after this. Seeing that she was staring at him, he smiled faintly and said, "Little girl, a gunfight is no time for you to stare and touch me all you want. When we get back to the country, I'll let you have a good look at me and touch me."

If the word 'touch' was not mentioned, it would be the most serious sentence. However, with the word 'touch', he sounded like an indecent ruffian.

It sounded indecent, but the gaze in his eyes was the most serious. He was reminding Ye Jian of the current situation.

His soulful gaze was not suitable for this moment.

Ye Jian heard a hint of seriousness in his tone and immediately looked away.

When the smile in her eyes disappeared, she returned to her usual composure.

She turned sideways and pointed at the tree with a bent bark. "How about that for a sniping position?" she asked him.

The location was good. The view from there was wide, and from the front, it was blocked by a rock, making it a blind spot. Below was a slope. The crooked tree growing out of the rock was indeed a good sniping position.

His little fox could always find the best sniping position quickly. She had the instincts of a hunter who could quickly spot his prey.

This instinct was also a talent that allowed her to survive predicaments.

Without the help of night vision equipment, Xia Jinyuan was in charge of shooting. He would shoot wherever Ye Jian went. It was time for them to attack.

A rifle was not a sniper rifle. Ye Jian had only fired a bullet before immediately retreating.

After all, the other party was holding submachine guns and had been shooting at high frequency. If she did not retreat in time, she might really become a live target.

Chapter 2059: Cooperate

The Xueyu unit's counterattack started when Ye Jian fired the bullet.

In her night-vision gear, she saw a man directly in front of her turn his phone outward as if he were talking to someone. He let the caller hear how fierce the sound of bullets was on their side.

They were just carrying submachine guns, not machine guns, let alone heavy weapons. Yet they really thought they'd succeed in suppressing the firepower.

Heh, arrogant and conceited!

Being arrogant and conceited on the battlefield would cause them to die!

Ye Jian smiled. Although it was beautiful, it was chilling.

Bang!

This gunshot merged with the high-frequency gunfire. It was not abrupt at all, nor did it immediately attract attention.

The man who was shot in the head held the phone in his right hand and lay motionless on the damp rock. Red and white liquid trickled slowly from the hole in his head and into his dark eyes. Then, it slowly ran down his face, completely hiding the conceited look on his face.

The person with him finally realized that something was wrong with his companion. He shouted his name but did not get an answer. He hurriedly reached out and pushed him.

This push ruined everything.

After this retaliation shot, the firepower of the special forces unit increased. The special forces were no longer suppressed by the firepower. It was no longer unbalanced or one-sided. Ye Jian and the others would fight their way out of the predicament and turn the situation around. They would obtain a suppressive victory!

The Xueyu unit's counterattack began. White Crane and Azalea fought the vanguard. The two of them raised their rifles and pressed forward.

Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan cooperated well and advanced from the rear. They rolled and ran... Every time they advanced a meter from the gunfire, they showed the high professional skills of soldiers from the special forces unit.

The one-sided high-frequency shooting became high-frequency shooting on both sides, catching the opponents off guard.

A man trembled as he dialed a number on his phone. "Mr. Anonio, we need backup. We—"

The next words would stay in his mouth forever. There would never be a way to say them again. Even though he was completely hidden behind the rocks, bullets went straight through his throat and then through his cervical vertebrae. He fell to the ground with red blood and white bone fragments splattering everywhere.

These men had undergone a certain amount of training, but it wasn't long-term training. They had picked up the various guns the arms dealer had to play with and dominated the beautiful city in the northern Caribbean for so long that it had allowed their self-confidence to swell in excess. They became arrogant and conceited.

It was this conceit that made them lower their guard. They thought that as long as they kept firing their guns, they could get things done.

The truth slapped them hard until they saw stars. Facing the intense gunshots and realizing four of their men had been shot in a row, the remaining people panicked.

The island was just a deserted island that the arms dealer usually made a trip to trade with other dealers. The rest of the time, the arms dealer would not come over. He would not send his elites to stay on the island either.

If he had not kidnapped 12 engineers sent by a Chinese company, he would not have sent anyone to the deserted island.

However, Antonio, the arms dealer, did not expect that the Chinese company, which in his impression was cowardly and would never dare to get into a conflict with the locals, would actually hire people to lay a hand on his island and save the engineers he kidnapped.

Chapter 2060: Holding Hands

At this moment, when Antonio heard his subordinate say that almost all of his men had been killed, he was smoking a cigar and tasting red wine. He also had his arm around a hot woman. However, he abruptly kicked the luxurious European ivory coffee table so hard that the crystal globe on the coffee table rolled onto the thick wool carpet.

"I want to know who the Chinese company has arranged to fight me! I'll make sure everyone is done for!"

Antonio, who did not know the engineers' true identities, had never thought that the Chinese would send people to rescue them. He would never know that the group of people who were sent were special forces soldiers.

The five biggest gangs in the world were in this country in North America. Antonio, the arms dealer, belonged to one of the powerful gangs. He smuggled firearms. His numbers, weapons, and equipment could even match the country's police and military.

Although the Chinese military had investigated Antonio thoroughly, they had never thought of annihilating his gang. After all, this was the affair of another country. China would not overstep its boundaries or go against an arms dealer for no reason.

They secretly carried out a rescue operation, and they found out who was the Chinese representative who had arms dealings with Antonio. The Chinese representative only came in secret and did not reveal their stance.

Antonio did not know that the Chinese had sent people, so he did not know their attitude. Now, his anger was not because the engineers of the Chinese company had been rescued but because he felt that his dignity had been provoked and severely insulted.

“Tell the people on the island that I’ll give a lot of money to whoever catches one of them alive! Find out who’s the damn bastard going against me!”

This was an outcome that even China, which had always kept a low profile, did not expect. ‘Search newn0vel(Org) on google’ As Antonio had the impression that Chinese companies were weak, he did not expect China to send special forces to rescue them.

It was expected that this place, which was already in chaos, would be even more chaotic.

Soon, Antonio’s subordinates received an answer amidst the intense gunfire. They only felt waves of despair. How could they possibly capture someone alive when they needed support?!

‘Maybe it’ll be my turn next.’

The people around fell one after another. In the end, there were only three people left and two were injured!

The suppressive firepower had already reached its end. Pigeon and the others successfully brought the country’s engineers onto the boats and left the island. Ye Jian, White Crane, and Azalea, who were completely relieved, stopped attacking with Xia Jinyuan’s gesture. The four of them no longer fired at the same time. Instead, they fired single shots.

“The three of you, go to the beach and leave as soon as possible. Leave the rest alive.” Xia Jinyuan took over Ye Jian’s headset and said in a low voice, “Ask the embassy to arrange for everyone to leave tonight. The same goes for the engineering team. Everyone will return to the country.”

“The man you’re dealing with here is Antonio, an arms dealer known for his brutality. He has more armed forces than the government or the military. Since you’ve rescued his hostages, he won’t let it slide. Return to the country tonight. Leave no one behind.”

He arranged for his own people to leave, but he didn’t think it would be dangerous for him to stay.

Biting her lip, Ye Jian asked him softly, “What about you?” Will he be okay?

“Don’t worry, I’ll be fine. Aren’t there still a few alive? I won’t let Antonio vent all his anger on me.” Xia Jinyuan could hear Ye Jian’s uneasiness. Taking advantage of the night, he held Ye Jian’s hand. She was wearing half a combat glove, so he could still touch her fingers intimately. “Don’t be afraid. I have a way to shift his anger away.”

This meant something was bound to happen when they got back.
