

BOOT CAMP 2081

Chapter 2081: Wait And See

Ye Jian did not want to know who was the man who did not take responsibility and left without letting her mother hear from him again. She only knew that her parents were happy after they got married.

Just as her mother had written in her diary, the two poor people lived like good friends. They worked together during the day and slept in different beds at night, but they could chat all night.

She also knew that her father actually liked another woman in the village, but because of his health, he could only watch the woman get married to another man and become a mother.

[When I received the news that Xinfan had died in a foreign land, I wanted to fight my mother-in-law to the death. It was her who forced Xinfan to die in a foreign land. It was her favoritism that caused Xin Fan to leave with his illness... I wanted my mother-in-law to pay with her life, but before I could do anything, I had to return to the army.]

[I have to face a mission that I know will cost me my life. I have no choice because I'm a soldier. I obey orders and accept arrangements. I have no other choice.

[I'm not afraid of sacrifice, but I'm afraid that there'll be no one to take care of my young daughter. I made a very bold choice. When everything was decided in the meeting, I stood up and told the prime minister loudly that if I sacrificed myself for the army, they had to take care of my daughter. That way, as long as the prime minister agreed, my daughter would be well taken care of even if she were to lose me.

[I also told my comrades to help take care of my daughter. I don't ask for her to live a life of luxury. I just want her to live a peaceful life. It doesn't matter if she doesn't know that she has an irresponsible mother like me. I just want her to grow up safely and never know those dirty and ugly things. I want her to grow up happily.]

Seeing this, Ye Jian smiled with tears in her eyes. Her mother was a fearless female soldier who was not afraid of sacrifice. She was a great mother who was tender and gentle to her.

A peaceful life... Her mother had wanted to exchange her last gamble for a stable life, but Ye Jian failed in her previous life. Her mother must have been deeply disappointed.

She would not let her mother down in this life!

Ye Jian, who had never seen Sun Xueqing's belongings before, looked at the two journals again and again. The fire in the stove was extinguished, and the water in the copper pot was cold. At last, Ye Jian had memorized the two journals.

After putting the journals back into the leather bag, Ye Jian then picked up a yellow booklet. The edges of the booklet were wrinkled from being read too many times. This was the manual of the army's regulations.

Ye Jian, who was flipping open the manual, looked at the rules and regulations. She seemed to be able to imagine her mother reading the manual seriously too.

The manual was a little thinner than the current manual. Ye Jian finished reading it in less than an hour. She did not close the manual and stared at the words that were underlined. Her calm gaze slowly changed. It was as sharp as the tip of a sword.

Smuggling, drug trafficking... Violation of discipline... These words were all underlined.

Her mother was sacrificed because of this!

The people who caused her death were not punished. They even climbed higher. In order to cover up their crimes, they even erased her mother's life... 'Mom, your sacrifice won't be for nothing. The person who caused you to die will definitely be captured!

'I'll finish what you didn't get to!'

After putting all the items back into the leather bag, Ye Jian sat in the kitchen and rested for a few hours. She left Shuikou Village at five in the morning.

When she reached the entrance of the village, she turned around and looked at the peaceful village. After retracting her gaze, Ye Jian strode away without looking back.

Chapter 2082: The Dust Settles

From Commander Xia's tone, Ye Jian knew that the political scene in the Southern Province was about to be chaotic. However, Ye Zhifan, who had not received the letter, was still immersed in the joy of his daughter, Ye Ying, joining the army.

After receiving the results of the physical examination and handing in all the information, Ye Ying quickly received the enlistment notice. There was still a month before the spring enlistment. With the Du family's help, Ye Ying received the enlistment notice before anyone else.

The regiment reported was none other than the capital city's political regiment that Ye Zhifan wanted to send Ye Ying to.

"Good! I'm really relieved now!" Ye Zhifan, who received Ye Ying's enlistment notice from the post office, looked at the name written on it and could not help but smile.

The red hard surface had the words 'Enlistment Notice' written in gold... It was this notice that he had tried his best to get previously but to no avail. However, he accidentally got it this time.

When Staff Officer Du agreed to help, he did not have too big of a reaction. He only felt that things had turned around and his daughter might be able to join the army.

Later on, Ye Ying applied for it, went through a physical examination, and sent the documents over... Even then, he did not feel too happy about it. After all, there were always variables. As long as there were no concrete results, he would choose to stay calm.

Now that he had received the enlistment notice, everything was settled. Ye Zhifan, who had always been calm, finally believed in Staff Officer Du. The heavy stone in his heart was finally lifted.

Ye Zhifan was paranoid by nature. Moreover, this matter was planned by the person behind the jade pendant. He also guessed that the person behind the jade pendant had asked Sun Yaozu to monitor him.' Search new nOvel(Org) '? He was paranoid and no longer believed in the person behind the jade pendant. At the same time, he did not believe that Staff Officer Du could really send Ye Ying to the army.

Now, he believed it!

"Keep the enlistment notice. When the uniform is distributed, I'll report to the capital city with you." Ye Zhifan handed the enlistment notice to Ye Ying. He felt content and said with a smile, "We have to arrive at the capital city a few days in advance. We'll go to the Du family to visit Madam Li first. We'll have to thank her for thinking highly of you."

If Madam Li did not like Ye Ying's obedience, Staff Officer Du wouldn't have opened the back door to Ye Ying so readily.

It could be seen that Madam Li was indeed in charge of the Du family. She could even influence Staff Officer Du's decision.

The smile on Ye Ying's face had not disappeared since she saw the enlistment notice. She nodded hard and said excitedly, "If it weren't for Madam Li's kind words, Staff Officer Du wouldn't have agreed so readily. Dad, not only do I have to thank Madam Li but I also have to respect her."

As long as she obtained Madam Li's support, her life in the capital city would definitely be good!

When the time came... When the time came... Ye Ying, who was stroking the words 'Enlistment Notice', lowered her eyes slightly. A dark and vicious look flashed past her almond-shaped eyes. When the time came, she would mention Ye Jian's name to Madam Li. She could use Madam Li to deal with Ye Jian!

Although Ye Zhifan was happy, he did not miss the change in Ye Ying's expression. Seeing that her expression was a little gloomy, he could roughly guess what was going on. A smile appeared on his face. "It wasn't easy for you to get to where you are today. Cherish this rare opportunity. Stabilize your status first and put everything else aside. Don't lose the big picture for petty things. Do you understand?"

Chapter 2083: Things Have Happened

Ye Jian was a thorn in their family's hearts. She was a thorn that could not be removed or touched. He wanted to get rid of her as much as his daughter, Ye Ying. However, now was not the time to do it. He still had to wait.

"Ye Jian is just a military school student now, while you're in the art troupe. The two of you won't have any interactions for the time being. Even if you want to use Madam Li to get rid of her, you need a chance to get her to take the initiative to help you.

“Before you find this opportunity, Ye Ying, you can only wait. Remember, Ye Jian isn’t someone you can easily scheme against. Her ability far exceeds yours. This is an indisputable fact. You’ve already seen it yourself, so I shouldn’t have to remind you of this.

“Also, I’ll keep an eye on Ye Jian. You don’t have to be distracted. Work hard in the army. Don’t disappoint Madam Li.”

As a father, Ye Zhifan was undoubtedly qualified. He taught and nurtured Ye Ying with all his heart. He did not value boys over girls and only hoped that his daughter could achieve something.

Now that he had obtained the hard-earned ‘enlistment notice’, he was worried that his daughter would be too impatient and lose her chance again.

His smile had already disappeared. As he spoke, his expression was exceptionally serious. His tone was cold and icy. “Don’t look for trouble with Ye Jian so easily. Don’t think that you can hold your head high in front of Ye Jian just because you got the notice. You must remember...” Ye Zhifan’s words became slower and slower. In the end, he said the last sentence word by word, “...how you got the enlistment notice in the first place!”

Ye Ying’s heart was pounding.

Ye Zhifan saw that his daughter was a little flustered. The past made his heart sink. He raised his voice and shouted, “Did you two do something stupid behind my back again?”

“No, no!” Ye Ying, who was shocked by the question, denied it. She tried her best to suppress the panic in her heart and put the notice in the drawer. When she looked up again, she forced a smile and said calmly, “No, no, we didn’t.

“I know that it wasn’t easy for me to get the chance to join the army, so how could I have spread the news? Even those friends who are close to me don’t know about it.

“Look, I haven’t gone out to play during this period of time. After I handed in my medical report, I was at home. Mom even wanted to go out to play but I refused. It’s because I know that I can’t announce my enlistment.

“Mom went out with her good friends today. I even specially told her not to mention that I’ll be joining the army. I’m already so cautious, so how could I spread the news?”

She said a bunch of things in a panic. Ye Zhifan was not completely at ease. However, when he thought about how the mother and daughter had not gone out much, he felt slightly relieved.

“It’s good that you’re aware. The military uniform will be here in a few days. When you receive it, immediately head to the capital city. I’ll only be at ease after I send you to the army.”

Ye Zhifan was not afraid of anything else. He was just afraid that the mother and daughter would run out to look for Ye Jian!

Now, he was very afraid of Ye Jian. He was afraid that Ye Jian would change her mind again.

However, something unexpected happened.

Chapter 2084: Interrupt

Hou Zi was having a good year. After playing chess with Old Master Xia for five days without saying anything, he obtained Old Master Xia's recognition and became the top son-in-law in the Xia family.

He was proud of his success and even smiled with an unfamiliar warmth. Ye Jian, who came to visit, was stunned when she saw Hou Zi.

"Even if you didn't come, I planned to look for you." Hou Zi got straight to the point after sitting down. He took out a video recording from the drawer of the coffee table. "I heard that Director Ye's daughter is preparing to report to the army. Send this video to the regiment she's going to. I guarantee that she won't be able to enter the army."

Video? To ensure that Ye Ying could not enter the army?

Before Ye Jian could ask, Xia Yiwei, who was carrying fruits out of the kitchen, glared at him. Then, she said to Ye Jian, who had just entered less than three minutes ago, "Little Ye, ignore him. Come, eat some fruits. It's the new year. Let's not talk about boring things."

After saying that, she pretended to be unhappy and glared at Hou Zi. Her gaze was as charming as water, causing Hou Zi's handsome eyebrows to raise. The smile on his handsome face suddenly had a deeper meaning.

Ye Jian looked at the video recording on the coffee table, then at Xia Yiwei, who was smiling until her face turned red. She wondered if she had come at the wrong time and disturbed the couple's time together.

"Wifey, I'm talking to Little Ye about very exciting things. Aren't you tired? Go back to the room and rest for a while. I'll go over to accompany you after I'm done talking to Little Ye." The tanned boss who used to stomp his feet and shake the territory of the Southern Province had become an enlightened gentleman. He stood up from the sofa and helped Xia Yiwei, who was as shy as a peach blossom, up. He said in a low voice, "Baby, your clothes are inside out. I'll accompany you upstairs so you can have a good sleep."

Her voice was very low, but the person sitting on the sofa was a special forces soldier. No matter how low her voice was, she could hear it clearly.

With Captain Xia's education on adult relationship matters, Ye Jian instantly understood that she came at the wrong time... She quickly picked up the hot tea to hide her embarrassment and pretended not to see or hear anything.

She gritted her teeth and glared at the culprit who caused her to wear her clothes inside out. It was all this fellow's fault! He insisted on putting her clothes on!

He liked to see her like this. Her joy, anger, and smiles were all so real. They were so real that he only needed to reach out slightly to pull the lover he had finally pursued into his arms and love her.

Hugging her slender waist, Hou Zi teased gently, "Didn't I say that you could just rest upstairs? You didn't have to come down. Now that you didn't put on your clothes right, you're blaming me. You're really difficult to serve."

"I'll deal with you later!" Xia Yiwei said fiercely. She did not want to go upstairs, but she had no other choice this time!

Hou Zi was not afraid of being taught a lesson. He could not wait to be taught a lesson by her. He coaxed her, saying, "Alright, I'll wait for you to teach me a lesson. I'll accompany you upstairs."

He then smiled at Ye Jian. "Sit down for a while. I'll send Yiwei upstairs to rest before telling you about the video recording."

Xia Yiwei maintained her usual dignity and smiled at Ye Jian. "Little Ye, I'll go back to my room to rest. We'll have dinner together tonight."

Hou Zi, who was hugging her, was already looking at Ye Jian with burning eyes. He said, "Yes, we should have dinner together."

Chapter 2085: Awkward

Ye Jian, who wanted to leave now, had already understood the deep meaning behind Hou Zi's burning gaze. She quickly found an excuse and said that she could not stay for dinner. She received Hou Zi's satisfied smile and Xia Yiwei's disappointed expression.

Ye Jian, who was sitting on pins and needles, was not even looking at Ye Ying's video recording any longer.

Compared to Hou Zi and Xia Yiwei's calmness, Ye Jian was still a little inexperienced.

Hou Zi quickly calmed down. The awkwardness just now did not affect him at all. He explained generously, "Sister Yiwei and I are not young anymore. The old master and old madam have been asking us to bear a child. In order not to disappoint the two of us, we have to hurry up when it's still the holidays."

It was fine if he had not explained, but once he did, Ye Jian felt even more awkward.

Interrupting the process of the two of them trying to bear a child... Should she apologize?

Apologizing would only make things more awkward!

Forget it, she should pretend not to know anything!

Her unnatural behavior made Hou Zi laugh out loud.

Little Six's partner was an interesting person. She did not even frown when she attacked, but when they talked about adult topics, she was so innocent that he... wanted to tease her.

Forget it, he was not going to tease today. With Little Six's protective nature, he would definitely return the favor.

His smile finally resolved the awkwardness in Ye Jian's heart and the unnatural expression on her face. "Alright, alright. I won't say anymore. If I continue, I'm afraid your face will burn red. Come, have a cup of tea first."

He picked up the cup of tea beside her and took a sip elegantly.

Ye Jian, who was feeling awkward, looked at the man in front of her who was no longer as cheeky as before. He now looked like a mature and elegant man. She felt that he no longer had the ruthlessness from the first time they met.

The 40-year-old Hou Zi had the calmness of someone who had been through a lot. It was like he was just sitting idly in the bamboo forest, looking at the clouds. Of course, this was just a facade. It was easy to look down on him.

As soon as the real Hou Zi spoke, however, his cold expression hid a murderous aura.

He waved the video recording that he had just received from France and said with a smile, "This recording is of Director Ye's precious daughter enjoying the nightlife in France while she was studying there. You can take a look."

Taking the small rectangular video player, Ye Jian began to watch it under Hou Zi's signal. When her dark eyes saw the contents of the video, a faint light flashed past them.

Closing the player, Ye Jian pursed her lips and asked Hou Zi softly, "Brother Zi, did... Captain Xia ask you to do this?" It was a question and an affirmation.

She could think of no one else but Captain Xia.

This was because as long as it was about her or the Ye family, this man who loved her deeply would always secretly help her.

He had done too many things for her. He had done so much that if he did not mention it, she would never know.

Hou Zi didn't find it strange that Ye Jian suspected this. He smiled and teased, "Other than Little Six, no one else can do this. He did a good deed without making it known. How noble!"

Back then, when Xia Jinyuan asked him to keep an eye on Director Ye's daughter, he said that he did not need to tell Ye Jian about it for the time being. The reason why he did not want to tell her was simple. He did not want Ye Jian, who had just entered military school, to be distracted.

Little Six's affection... Yes, it was comparable to his. They were both good men who were loyal to their women and had no complaints.

While praising Xia Jinyuan in his heart, Hou Zi did not forget to praise himself as well.

Xia Jinyuan was not the only shameless person. Hou Zi was also an outstandingly shameless person.

Chapter 2086: Cut Off

Thinking about how he and Xia Yiwei had been together for a long time and almost missed out on each other, Hou Zi put in a good word for Xia Jinyuan. "It's not easy for you either. No wonder Little Six always wants to protect you. He got Yiwei to keep an eye on Ye Zhifan and me to keep an eye on his daughter. Little Ye, Little Six said that meeting you is his life's blessing, but I have to be fair. It's your life's blessing to have met him."

They were all family, and Yiwei and Little Six were closer than biological siblings. For Yiwei's sake, Hou Zi had to say more good things about Little Six.

It could not be helped. The young lady in front of him was really outstanding. He reckoned that there were plenty of admirers outside, and Little Six was often not by her side. If she was taken by another man, Little Six would be in trouble!

Third Master Hou, who thought of himself as Little Six's brother-in-law, was worried about Little Six's lifelong happiness.

Ye Jian's emotions surged because of Hou Zi's words. When she thought of Captain Xia, who was still overseas on a mission, there was a look of deep affection on her face. "Brother Zi, you're right. It's indeed my blessing to have met you. Even I can't believe it sometimes. It's like a dream to have met him..."

"The two of you are quite close. That's good." Hou Zi saw the same affection in her eyes as Little Six and could not help but sigh.

Back then, he and Yi Wei were too stubborn. They kept hiding their feelings for each other, afraid that the other party would realize how deep their feelings for each other were. They felt that they had suffered a loss and almost lost each other.

Now that he thought about it, what he did back then was really laughable!

Little Six and Ye Jian were the complete opposite of him when he was young. They were not afraid that the other party would know how deeply they were in love with each other. Instead, they were afraid that they would miss out on the other party if they were too shallow.

This was good. They were both doing much better than when he was young.

Fortunately, Hou Zi did not lose Yiwei. He could use the rest of his life to make up for the mistake he made when he was young.

Third Master Hou, who was decisive in killing and revered by the people in the underworld, was now an ordinary man who was willing to protect his family. As long as he thought of his lover, his vicious aura would instantly dissipate.

“I still have to accompany Yiwei. Let’s make it short.” Hou Zi, whose heart was with his lover who was upstairs, recovered his calmness. He said to Ye Jian, “The video recording was sent from France yesterday. I took a look at it and found that it’s very detailed.

“You have to keep it with you. It’s not an ordinary video recording but a knife, a big knife that can help you attain your goals. I’ve given you the ‘knife’, so you have to use it well.

“Director Ye’s career has been too smooth-sailing. He forgot about his roots in an instant and forgot how many skeletons he had in his closet. Just watch. When the time comes, they’ll end up going at each other’s throats.

“Let me teach you another thing. Once you hold this knife, you have to use all your strength. Slash it down without leaving a trace. That’s how you’ll achieve big things.

“This is a principle that I’ve been following for decades. I’ll teach it to you for free. Listen carefully and remember it. Don’t let Little Six’s hard work go to waste, understand? I suggest you prepare a few more copies. Send one to the Military Disciplinary Committee and give one to Ye Zhifan. Keep the original copy for yourself.”

Even if Hou Zi did not say anything, Ye Jian already planned to do the same. Not only would she send it to the Military Discipline Committee and Ye Zhifan, but she would also... send it to Madam Li!

Just as Hou Zi had said, this was not an ordinary video recording. It was a knife. It was a knife that could cut off all of Ye Ying’s escape routes and make it impossible for the Ye family to make a comeback!

Chapter 2087: One Round To Decide The Winner

With this video recording, she could make Madam Li hate Ye Ying and not let her get close!

With this video recording, she could make Ye Ying fall into the abyss of pain and go through all the torture she had suffered in her previous life!

The investigation by the disciplinary committee would only make Ye Zhifan suffer. It would be difficult for Ye Ying to be implicated. This video recording was Ye Ying’s final straw. It was the final straw for their entire family. Ye Ying would never be able to make a comeback again!

At Hou Zi’s house, Ye Jian prepared a total of four copies. She planned to send one to Commander Xia and one to Madam Li. She would let Hou Zi keep the original recording. She also took the last two copies with her.

She would not let Captain Xia’s efforts be in vain. This recording was the knife that could cut off Ye Ying’s path. She would not show mercy!

After sending Ye Jian off, Hou Zi brought the original copy upstairs. Xia Yiwei, who had already woken up from her nap, was getting up and putting on her clothes.

Hearing the commotion, she turned around and asked, "Where's Little Ye? Has she left?"

"She has something to do, so she left." After putting the original copy in the hidden safe, Hou Zi did not give Xia Yiwei a chance to get up. He hugged her waist and rolled onto the bed. He let her rest in his arms.

Xia Yiwei, who had taken a nap, was energetic. She rested her head on his shoulder and frowned. "Why did you take the recording back? Doesn't Little Ye want it?"

This was a recording that could make Ye Zhifan angry. There was no reason for Little Ye not to want it.

"This is the original copy. She prepared four copies and left with them. Don't underestimate Little Six's girlfriend. She's vicious, and even you're not as ruthless as her." Hou Zi turned his body and stared at his lover with eyes that were no longer young but still charming. He sighed and said, "She and Little Six are definitely a match made in heaven. Even their style of doing things is extremely similar. Their personalities are similar too. They're both loyal. They're much stronger than us when we were young.

"Little Six and Ye Jian are both sensible people. They'll spend a long time together. They're not like us when we were young. After spending a long time together, we became like porcupines. We stabbed each other until we bled."

Like Xia Jinyuan, Hou Zi did not want his woman to worry too much. He naturally changed the topic to the two of them.

However, it was because of those experiences that she understood that the other party was the most suitable partner for her.

Seeing that Hou Zi was sad about the past, she could not help but smile and say, "We're different from Little Six and the others. Little Six and Little Ye are both soldiers. They know how to control themselves.

"The two of us have bad tempers. If we hadn't taken the time to improve ourselves when we were young, we might even get divorced when we're old and make our children and grandchildren worry."

Hou Zi thought about it and felt that what his wife said made sense. However, since she had mentioned children and grandchildren... She had to have children to have grandchildren. They should bear children while the time was still right.

After turning off their phones and pulling out the phone lines, Hou Zi and Xia Yiwei devoted themselves to their plan of having a child.

The matter that Little Six had asked Hou Zi to do was completed. The outcome of the chess game had been decided. What Ye Jian would do next was up to her. With her character, he did not need to think too much to know that she would not do anything disappointing. She would definitely watch the Ye family fall.

After the incident with Sun Yaozu, he had a little more understanding of his young sister-in-law. She would silently observe the overall situation and make arrangements very calmly. He would not have to worry about her. He should think about how to successfully bear a child with Yiwei.

Chapter 2089: Friendship Never Changes

Not only was he taller, but he was much more mature. Even his eyes were steady.

He was handsome, dashing, and tall. He pushed open the glass door of the cafe and walked in, attracting the gazes of countless young ladies along the way.

“You have good eyesight. You can tell at a glance that I’m ten centimeters taller.” After not seeing her for a year and a half, Yang Heng thought that they would feel unfamiliar with each other. When she smiled at him, he knew that he was wrong.

There was no unfamiliarity, only the joy of good friends reuniting.

Song Zhiqiu, who came with him, was about to pull out a chair and sit opposite Ye Jian when Yang Heng pushed him into the seat.

“Brother, you’re burning the bridge after crossing it! Without me, how could you have contacted Ye Jian?!” Song Zhiqiu staggered to his seat and complained to Ye Jian. “Ye Jian, my cousin, is not a kind person. You have to stay away from him.

“He just returned to the country last night. If my grandmother hadn’t stopped him, he would have come to my house in the middle of the night to disturb me. The first thing he said to me when he came to visit me today was to tell me to quickly contact you. Now that he saw you, he pushed me away. How unethical is that!”

Instead of complaining, he wanted to tell Ye Jian how anxious his cousin was to see her.

Yang Heng and Ye Jian understood what he meant. After smiling at each other, Yang Heng patted his cousin on the shoulder and sighed. “My relationship with Ye Jian is not what you think. I have a girlfriend. Don’t say anything that will cause my girlfriend to misunderstand.”

“Song Zhiqiu, you don’t have the potential to be a matchmaker.” Ye Jian laughed. He misunderstood her relationship with Yang Heng when school started. “You don’t even know that your cousin has a girlfriend. You’re quite a failure as his younger cousin.”

It was not until Song Zhiqiu saw the photo in Yang Heng’s wallet that he truly believed that his cousin had no feelings for Ye Jian.

Yang Heng, who was drinking coffee, looked at his friend whom he had not seen for a year and a half. The smile on his handsome face was deep. He really had no feelings for Ye Jian from the beginning because... he knew his limits.

Ye Jian said that he had become mature, but so did she.

The high school girl who almost threw him over her shoulder in the past was even more outstanding than before. She vaguely revealed the dignity of a soldier. She did not sit crookedly like them. Her back was straight as if she was about to rush into the clouds.

His aura was even more astonishing. Even though she was dressed casually, no one dared to size her up. She had a natural military might.

Although her eyes were clear and cold, her brows were relaxed. It could be seen that she had been living a good life for the past year. It made sense. She was admitted to the school she yearned for. With her ability, she must have been like a fish in water. The school life there would naturally make her feel good.

This was the Ye Jian he knew. Ye Jian could shine no matter where she was. Ye Jian was exactly such a person... He still said the same thing. Ordinary people should be sensible and befriend her. They shouldn't think about wooing her.

Otherwise, they would make themselves very insecure!

"Why are you looking at me? Don't you recognize me?" Ye Jian returned the photo of his girlfriend and teased, "Don't say that I'm not as beautiful as your mixed-blood girlfriend. Otherwise, I'll be very embarrassed."

Yang Heng's girlfriend was a mixed-race beauty with deep facial features. She was half-Chinese. Not only was she beautiful, but she was also very elegant and recognizable. After Song Zhiqiu saw the photo, he sighed and said, "Cousin, your girlfriend is really beautiful."

Chapter 2090: Incomparable

The three of them chatted about Yang Heng's beautiful girlfriend and accidentally chatted until the sky turned dark.

Ye Jian, who had planned to return to the sniper base, hurriedly called Principal Chen. She decided to stay in the city for the night and agreed to fly back to school with Song Zhiqiu on the 17th of January.

On the 17th of January, Ye Ying finally received her military uniform. She was going to enter the capital city with Ye Zhifan in the afternoon. She put on her military uniform and took photos at home.

Sun Dongqing used up all the film in no time. When she saw her daughter in her military uniform, she was so happy that her mouth could not close. "Beautiful, too beautiful! My precious daughter is best suited for military attire!"

She kept praising Ye Ying. Not only did she praise Ye Ying, but she also blamed Ye Zhifan for not praising their daughter. "Old Ye, why aren't you saying anything? Look at how beautiful Ye Ying is. This military uniform is meant for Yingying. How cool!"

Ye Zhifan, who was happy, said calmly, "Haven't you praised her enough? What else do I have to say?"

As an official for decades, he maintained his composure even when he returned home. No matter how happy he was, he would not show it on his face.

Today, he was considered to have shown mercy. If he usually saw his wife and daughter acting so fanatically, he would have scolded them for not being dignified enough.

Although his daughter looked valiant in her military uniform and was full of energy, he could not let his joy get the better of him! One had to know that joining the army was only the beginning. There was still a long way to go in the future!

Although Ye Ying would be joining the army today, she was a volunteer soldier, after all. Compared to Ye Jian, who graduated from military school and was at least a second lieutenant, she was much weaker.

One was a volunteer soldier who would be discharged when their term expired, while the other was a second lieutenant who had graduated from military school. Comparing the two, anyone could see the difference.

Thinking of Ye Jian, Ye Zhifan, who was leaning against the sofa, couldn't help but sit up straight. He looked at his wife and daughter, who were so proud of themselves. Ye Zhifan, who was smiling, revealed a cold expression.

Sun Dongqing said, "You praise just about everyone during your meetings. Why aren't you saying anything when it comes to our daughter? Think about it. Our daughter is going to the capital city this afternoon. It'll be difficult for us to see her in the future."

Ye Ying had already noticed the change in her father, but she didn't think too much about it. She was too happy to see Ye Zhifan's interest piqued. She turned around and sat on the sofa. She hugged his arm and acted playfully. "Dad, praise me too. You're better at praising people than Mom. Mom praised me for being beautiful, good-looking, and valiant. Your praise would surely be different. You have standards!"

Ye Zhifan, who was no longer happy, pointed at her shoulder and said coldly, "It's not too late for me to praise you when you have a star here."

Ye Ying's smile collapsed.

She had learned about our country's military rank system recently and knew what it meant to have stars on one's shoulder. As smart as she was, she quickly understood what Ye Zhifan wanted to say.

Sun Dongqing also knew a little, but she did not like her husband's disregard, especially when she saw her daughter looking aggrieved when she was about to join the army. She immediately said, "If you're so capable, why don't you put on your military uniform and come back with a few stars?"
