

BOOT CAMP 2151

Chapter 2151: Like A Snake

Where should she look for her? Goddamn it! Where was she going to look for Du Jiayi?!

She had to find Du Jiayi and tell her that her cousin who cheated in the college entrance examination was Ye Jian, the military school student who was accompanying Commander Xia to watch the performance!

She also had to tell Staff Officer Du to investigate Ye Jian's cheating during the college entrance examination. She had to chase her out of the military school and make it impossible for her to accompany the army chief again for the rest of her life!

"Ye Ying, sit up straight!"

The squad leader realized that the recruit was leaning forward more and more, which made her stand out as the rest were clearly sitting upright. He immediately shouted and reminded her sternly.

Ye Ying couldn't control her emotions. As long as she thought about how Ye Jian was summoned by the army chief, she couldn't control her emotions.

She could clearly hear the squad leader's voice, but not only did she not lean back, she sat up straight and even wanted to stand up.

The squad leader was so frightened that his heart kept thumping. He had no choice but to grab Ye Ying's arm tightly. "Ye Ying, go back with me and receive your punishment in front of the captain!"

Ye Ying, who was completely immersed in her imagination, was grabbed by the squad leader. As another wave of applause sounded, Ye Ying came back to her senses.

'Sh*t!

'I forgot where I was!'

Ye Ying's heart sank. She didn't dare to turn around and talk to the squad leader. She struggled slightly and gestured for the squad leader to let go of her first.

"I'm sorry, Squad Leader. This is the first time I've seen so many chiefs. I'm very nervous and afraid," Ye Ying explained in a low voice. She stared at Ye Jian, who was sitting with the army chief. Her gaze was like a poisonous snake, filled with ruthlessness and malice.

Seeing that she had finally sat up straight and she was clapping along with the rhythm, the squad leader felt a little relieved.

However, the squad leader still observed Ye Ying from time to time to prevent her from causing trouble.

Ye Ying, who had come back to her senses, didn't lose her composure anymore. She had already obtained comfort from her wild guesses. She was certain that Ye Jian was summoned by Commander Xia because of Uncle Gen.

'Just you wait, Ye Jian. I'll teach you a lesson later!'

She planned to bring Du Jiayi to Ye Jian after it was over. She wanted Du Jiayi to recognize her and wait for Staff Officer Du to expose Ye Jian's hypocritical character.

As she thought about this, Ye Ying felt satisfied. She even thought about how miserable Ye Jian would end up later.

Hahaha...

She would definitely be so scared that she wouldn't dare to face anyone anymore. When Staff Officer Du appeared, she would definitely be so scared that she would cry and regret what she had done!

Hahaha, she might even beg her to put in a good word for her in front of Staff Officer Du and plead for mercy!

'Want me to say something nice and plead for mercy on your behalf? Dream on, Ye Jian! I'll make you wish you were dead and regret what you did to me!'

Ye Ying, who was deep in her fantasy, almost laughed out loud.

Fortunately, she knew where she was now. Even if she wanted to laugh, she had to control herself. She bit the tip of her tongue to stop herself from laughing.

Ye Ying felt unprecedented joy through her imagination. However, Du Jiayi was not that happy.

No wonder she couldn't find Ye Jian when she searched through the system. So she was a military school student! She had searched for a long time, but she couldn't find such a person. For a moment, she thought that she had heard the wrong name!

Instead of staying in school to learn, the military school student followed a group of male soldiers into the depths of the snow mountain. 'Ye Jian, do you have nothing better to do?'

Chapter 2152: Suffering

Du Jiayi, who had a ribbon wrapped around her finger, stared at Ye Jian, who had entered with Commander Xia. A cold glint flashed across her eyes.

No wonder she didn't like her at first glance. It turned out that she had already received Commander Xia's favor. Heh, she didn't have the ability to touch the people around Commander Xia, but she could still lay a hand on a small military school student!

'Ye Jian, Ye Jian, don't blame me for making things difficult for you. It's because you're too annoying!'

Du Jiayi, who had been unhappy since yesterday, seemed to have found an outlet when she saw Ye Jian. A cold smile flashed across her eyes. She lowered the backstage curtain and turned to the dressing room to prepare herself.

An unfriendly gaze from the front and an unfriendly gaze from the back gave Ye Jian a headache.

Who were they? She was just watching a show. Why were people suddenly targeting her?

Ye Jian didn't know who it was until she saw Du Jiayi go on stage. She finally knew that the malicious gaze coming from the front belonged to Du Jiayi.

But what about the line of sight behind her? Who was behind her?

"Don't underestimate the military arts soldier. Different soldiers have different responsibilities. The military arts soldiers are warriors who protect the spirit of the soldiers. By adjusting the atmosphere, they can improve the emotions of the soldiers and increase their combat ability.

"Some soldiers think that the military arts soldiers just dance, sing, or run to the middle of the stage to read poems and essays. Be it in peacetime or war, the military arts soldiers transmit their intentions to protect our combat power and cohesion.

"The Western army is mainly an offensive army, while our country is a defensive army. The offensive army mainly goes straight to the other party's home base. Meanwhile, our army has mainly guarded our home since the founding of the country. The military arts soldiers are an indispensable unit in the family. Without its existence, the entire military camp life will be overshadowed."

Commander Xia, who was watching the performance, smiled and spoke to Ye Jian like an elder instructing a junior. Every word he said had a deep meaning.

Sometimes, when the commander-in-chief spoke softly, Ye Jian would lean over to listen.

Not everyone could be taught by the commander-in-chief, and not everyone could be corrected by the commander-in-chief. Having an open-minded, far-sighted, and military-minded elder's education made Ye Jian feel that she had improved again.

From Ye Ying's side, she could clearly see the army chief talking with Ye Jian from time to time. She could even see Ye Jian's side profile as she listened attentively. Occasionally, she could see the military chief nodding in agreement.

Every time she saw this scene, Ye Ying's heart burned. She wanted to rush up and point at Ye Jian's nose and curse so that the army chief could see Ye Jian's true colors.

'You're really capable. You could even coax the army chief into nodding. Alright! I'll let you be smug for a while. Soon... Soon, I'll make you unable to be smug anymore!'

The vicious gaze was too obvious. Ye Jian couldn't help but turn her head and look over.

It was too easy for Ye Jian to find Ye Ying. Everyone was focused on the stage. Only Ye Ying, who was sitting in the fourth row from the back, was staring at her.

Chapter 2154: The Incredibly Stupid Ye Ying

“No, no, you’re too kind. Come, come, let’s talk outside,” the leader replied with a faint smile. There were many talents in the National Science University. Many students had been summoned by the chief. There was no need to make a fuss.

It was the same for their school and the other schools.

On the other side, Ye Ying walked out of the venue to look for Du Jiayi. She found an excuse to use the washroom. She quickly went backstage and bumped into Du Jiayi, who was about to leave.

“Sister Jiayi, didn’t you say that you wanted to see Ye Jian’s photo the last time? She was sitting at the front podium watching your exciting performance just now. You might not have noticed her. I’ll bring you to her now!”

She was in a hurry and did not notice that Du Jiayi was talking to Madam Li on her phone. She was also accompanied by a guard sent by Staff Officer Du. He would bring the two of them out of the venue through the passageway that the leaders had left from.

When Du Jiayi saw Ye Ying, she tossed her bag over and smiled while on the phone with Madam Li.

“Speak of the devil. Yingying is beside me. I’ll bring her out for you immediately.”

“Move a little faster. She still has to return to the team.” Madam Li hung up with a smile and said to Staff Officer Du, “Take me to Old Xia. Shuman has already settled back in the country, and I haven’t seen Little Six going over to visit her. I have to ask what’s going on.

“It’s understandable that he didn’t visit before this. But I don’t believe that Old Xia will really be willing to put his son in the army all year round. Will he not even let him come back to accompany Old Master Xia and Old Madam Xia during the new year?”

“Jiayi hasn’t been back all year either. Let’s keep a tight rein on Old Xia. It’s not like it’s out of the ordinary that his son hasn’t been back all year.” Staff Officer Du shook his head and replied with a smile, “Don’t say too much. Don’t let Old Xia have a problem with you.”

“Ha, when did he not have an opinion about me? But I don’t care.” Madam Li raised her chin slightly. Her eyes, which had fine lines at the corners, were filled with arrogance. But when she saw a colonel with two bars and three stars, she would restrain her expression and reveal a dignified smile. “Old Zhong of the capital regiment is here. I’ve asked Ye Ying to come out and meet me. You tell him to come over.”

Among the few daughter-in-law candidates, she was most satisfied with Ye Ying. The same went for her son.

In that case, she would nurture Ye Ying first.

Staff Officer Du didn’t interfere with family matters. It was just a matter of exchanging a few words. Whether it was useful or not depended on the individual.

.....

On the other hand, Du Jiayi confirmed that the Ye Jian she knew was the same person Ye Ying mentioned. She had many ideas now.

Interesting. It was rare for cousins to cause such a ruckus.

However, she didn't tell Ye Ying that she knew Ye Jian. Instead, she pretended to be serious and said, "I'll mention your suspicions to my father first, but you need to give more details. After I start, you can explain it to my father."

What did her mother see in Ye Ying? How could such a stupid girl win her favor?!

Could a girl in National Science University have gotten in by cheating? Did she think the military school was a market that everyone could get in?

Du Jiayi looked down on Ye Ying even more.

Ye Ying, who didn't notice anything, was overjoyed. She could directly mention Ye Jian to Staff Officer Du... She would definitely mention her!

'Ye Jian, you b*tch!

'Wait and see, I'll make sure you die without a burial place! I'll make sure you never get back up again!'

Chapter 2155: Despicable Person

Her thoughts did not escape the discerning Du Jiayi. She glanced at her coldly. Du Jiayi, who usually liked to use others to make a move on her opponent, smiled again and said, "Also, Commander Zhong of the capital city's political regiment is also here. Be smart later and don't say the wrong thing."

This time, Ye Ying completely forgot about Ye Jian's matter. She couldn't control her excitement, and it showed on her face.

Du Jiayi glanced at Ye Ying disdainfully. A hint of malice flashed across Du Jiayi's arrogant eyes as she slowly said, "Be more dignified. You're just going to be meeting a regiment commander. What's there to be happy about? Just smile. Don't embarrass my parents!

"That cousin of yours is a lot calmer than you are. She doesn't have any stage fright sitting next to the commander-in-chief. She could still maintain a smile and talk to him. You should learn more from your cousin."

Du Jiayi knew that Ye Ying hated it when people compared her to Ye Jian, but she still said it. Her intentions were obvious.

Ye Ying didn't understand her intentions. Instead, she hated Ye Jian even more. Why did she have to hear people comparing her to Ye Jian wherever she went?

Why did they ask her to learn from Ye Jian? She was clearly many times better than Ye Jian!

She secretly gritted her teeth before sighing softly. “Yes, she’s always been bold. There’s nothing she doesn’t dare to do. I’m not the same. I don’t dare to do bad things. I get nervous when I encounter good situations.”

‘Is she still timid? Hah, that’s not obvious at all.’

Du Jiayi sneered. Ye Ying’s face stiffened. She might have understood the deeper meaning. She said awkwardly, “I’m not timid. I’m just a little nervous. Please remind me later.”

“I don’t need to remind you. Just learn from your cousin, Ye Jian. With such good ready-made teaching materials, what else do you need?” Even if she was making sarcastic remarks, Du Jiayi could still maintain her politeness. It would make people misunderstand that she didn’t mean anything else. Those who were purely listening would not think too much.

Ye Ying’s face was so stiff that she couldn’t even maintain a basic smile. In order to not let Jiayi see her expression, Ye Ying chose to look down.

She could not be angry with Du Jiayi, let alone argue with her. Madam Li would not like it.

Lowering her head, she did not notice that Du Jiayi had suddenly stopped in her tracks. Her eyes were cold as she stared at the figure walking over from the side tunnel.

This was a Y-shaped passage. Both sides had to pass through the main passage to leave the venue. Ye Jian’s expression didn’t change when she saw the two of them. She maintained the same pace as the guard and glanced at Du Jiayi calmly before walking to the front.

Ye Jian was not surprised that Ye Ying was walking with Du Jiayi.

What was there to be surprised about? Han Zheng had already said that Madam Li was very satisfied with Ye Ying and wanted her son to marry her.

Du Jiayi’s expression changed when she saw Ye Jian ignoring her.

‘What an arrogant cadet!’

She did not even have a smile on her face and actually chose to ignore her!

‘Good. I’ll show her later!’

Staring at the figure walking in front of her, she said in a low voice, “Why didn’t you greet your cousin when you saw her?”

Ye Ying hadn’t seen Ye Jian. When she looked up, she only saw Ye Jian’s side profile. It was faint and filled with dignity.

“She doesn’t like me talking to her, so why should I pester her?” Ye Ying said, trying to hide the truth. She buried her head deeper. Ye Jian was too hateful, too hateful!

Ye Jian and Du Jiayi... They were the two most hateful people!

Chapter 2156: Confrontation

Facing both sides, Ye Ying, who did not dare to offend either of them, could only lower her head and curse in her heart.

She didn't want to make a move on Ye Jian right now. She didn't want Ye Jian to be nearby when she spoke to Staff Officer Du! Thinking of this, Ye Ying couldn't help but slow down.

Du Jiayi, on the other hand, was the opposite. Neither of the cousins was to her liking. 'They don't get along? Perfect! Let them disgust each other. I'll just stand aside and watch.'

She had to let Madam Li see it and let her know how hypocritical her future daughter-in-law was. The words she said were disgusting!

Ye Ying wanted to walk slowly, but Du Jiayi didn't give her a chance. She urged, "Walk faster. Do you want my parents and Commander Zhong to wait for you?"

"My mother hates waiting! Don't make her angry."

None of her words could be as lethal as this. Ye Ying could only grit her teeth and chase after Du Jiayi to keep up with her.

She shouldn't worry about this and that. How could Ye Jian be beside her when she spoke? Her luck couldn't be that bad!

Even if Ye Jian was really there, she would just not say anything when the time came.

That's right. Wouldn't it be fine if she didn't say anything? What was she worried about? Instead of worrying about meeting Ye Jian, she might as well coax Madam Li. She could only rely on Madam Li now.

Ye Ying, who had adjusted her mentality, pursed her lips and puffed up her cheeks to relax her expression. She smiled obediently and walked out of the passageway.

Outside, Madam Li smiled and said to Commander Xia, "Old Xia, come out and have a chat with us when you're free. Bring Jinyuan out too. Don't force him to stay in the army all day long. Young people need to socialize occasionally. If he stays in the army all day long, you might not be able to get a daughter-in-law."

Not everyone knew that Xia Jinyuan had joined the army, and it was impossible for them to know that he had reached the age of marriage. Commander Zhong was one of them. When he heard this, he smiled and said, "Is the young son of the commander-in-chief at the age of marriage? Remember to invite me to the wedding."

"I'll remember it for you, Old Xia. When his son gets married and he's forgotten to inform you, I'll call you!" Staff Officer Du agreed with a smile. Once they were outside, he wouldn't let anyone see that he and Commander Xia didn't get along. He would make their relationship seem alright.

Commander Xia naturally wouldn't let anyone in on the truth, so he smiled as well and said, "As long as he's willing to get married early, I'm happy to invite you all to have a drink. Old Du, oh Old Du, I didn't attend your children's first two weddings. Remember to inform me when you host the third one."

When Staff Officer Du's eldest son and daughter got married, the Du family did not invite Commander Xia at all. Now that the old matter was brought up again, the smile on Staff Officer Du's face was a little forced.

What did Old Xia mean? Was he to blame?

Commander Xia's meaning was obvious. The relationship between the two families was so ordinary. It was best not to interact with each other in public, let alone say something that would make others think that the two families were very close.

"Of course, of course. You escaped from the first two. I can't let you escape from the last two." When it came to socializing, Madam Li was much better at it. She quietly changed the topic to a joke.

Commander Zhong did not talk much. He smiled when he should and said a few words when he should. The two people standing in front of him were not people he could interrupt casually. He just had to listen carefully.

Chapter 2157: Impure Motive

The conflict between the Xia and Du families was not something to be discussed openly. Commander Zhong did not know about the twists and turns in the matter and only thought that the two chiefs were teasing each other.

Ye Jian didn't disturb Commander Xia when she walked out. She even told the guard to wait for her.

"Who are you waiting for? Do you need me to take you there?"

A clear and polite voice came from behind. At first, the guard felt that the woman who spoke was very cultured even before seeing her in person.

However, Ye Jian, who had already seen the person, knew that her politeness was fake. When she spoke, her tone was sharp. It sounded polite, but every word was directed at her.

Ye Ying was walking with Du Jiayi. Ye Ying was just a chess piece for Du Jiayi, waiting to be taken advantage of.

Turning, Ye Jian smiled at the northern belle. "No, thank you."

"Is there really no need? Didn't you sit with Commander Xia previously? Are you looking for Commander Xia? Ye Ying told me that you and her are cousins. I'm on good terms with Ye Ying. If you have any difficulties, tell me. I'll solve them for you."

Du Jiayi finished speaking to Ye Jian. She decided to let the two of them argue. She smiled at Ye Ying and said, "Just now, you said that you were afraid that your cousin wouldn't talk to you. Look, I spoke up for you first. How could she ignore you?"

Ye Jian thought that the two's relationship was good, but it turned out that it was nothing much. Ye Ying's face was so stiff that she couldn't even smile. Du Jiayi acted as if she didn't see it.

In her previous life, Sun Dongqing had said that Ye Ying and her sister-in-law's relationship was average. In this life, although many things had changed, their relationship was still average.

Ye Jian didn't intend to deal with the two of them. She smiled and replied, "Ye Ying and I are not cousins. Miss Du, since you don't know the situation, it's better to stay out of other people's business.

"Ye Ying and I are not cousins, so our relationship is naturally ordinary. No, not ordinary. It's a very, very bad relationship."

.....

Ye Jian, who was smiling, directly exposed her true relationship with Ye Ying. She even specially called Du Jiayi 'Miss Du'.

Ye Ying looked at Du Jiayi in bewilderment and then at Ye Jian.

Miss Du? Du Jiayi didn't even introduce herself just now. How did Ye Jian know her surname?

Unless... Unless the two of them already knew each other!

Thinking that the two of them knew each other, Ye Ying's expression turned cold.

Du Jiayi clearly knew Ye Jian. What was she thinking when she didn't mention a word of it to her?

Du Jiayi's expression was ugly as well. She thought that Ye Ying had lied to her and deliberately said that she was Ye Jian's cousin.

The two of them were very suspicious of each other because of Ye Jian's words.

Madam Li had already seen Du Jiayi and gestured for Staff Officer Du to bring her over. She smiled and said, "Commander Zhong, there's a new recruit in your regiment. I'll have to trouble you to discipline her more. I'll get her to come over and greet you in case she doesn't know that you're her regiment commander when she sees you in the future."

When Commander Xia heard this, he knew who the recruit was and smiled calmly. "Then I'll leave first. I still have something to deal with."

"Alright, I'll call Shuman when I have time. Bring Jinyuan out to have dinner with her. Shuman has already returned to the country to settle down. You should let the mother and son meet often."

Madam Li, who was almost at a disadvantage just now, even tried to humiliate Commander Xia in front of a regiment commander.

'Trying to embarrass the Du family? Xia Xinhui, do you dare to mention your family?'

Chapter 2158: The Show Begins

'Why wouldn't I dare?'

The honest Commander Xia shook his head and sighed with a smile. "Try to persuade her. Her child has grown up and joined the army. As a father, I can't even see him once a year. Tell her not to keep thinking about pestering her son to come back to visit her."

Commander Zhong knew that the commander-in-chief had been divorced for many years. Although it sounded a little awkward, since the commander-in-chief himself had said it himself, there was no longer any awkwardness.

The smile on Madam Li's face faded a lot. She did not expect Old Xia to talk about his private matters in front of a regiment commander!

The mother failed to turn the tables, and the daughter did not manage to sow discord between the two cousins.

Du Jiayi's gaze was so cold that it was a little gloomy.

She glanced at Ye Jian and lowered her gaze slightly. She looked down at Ye Jian and said with a faint smile, "No wonder I couldn't find any information about you. You're still a military school student.

"Instead of sitting properly in the classroom, the military school student was running around. Ye Jian, be careful or you'll never graduate."

These words were extremely vicious. What she meant was that Ye Jian might even lose her life.

The guard had already walked over. Without waiting for Ye Jian to answer, Du Jiayi smiled and brushed past Ye Jian's shoulder arrogantly.

Ye Ying recalled Du Jiayi's words and felt that something was amiss. After Du Jiayi had taken a few steps, Ye Ying raised her chin and said arrogantly, "Ye Jian, you want to fight me? You'll die miserably!"

"I'll wait for you then, Ye Ying." Facing Ye Ying, who deliberately stayed behind to humiliate herself, Ye Jian smiled. Her dark eyes stared at Ye Ying, and she smiled meaningfully. "Let's see who will be worse off."

Ye Ying's eyes widened as she blurted out angrily, "That package..."

She couldn't say it. What if it wasn't her? Her father had said that Ye Jian didn't have the ability. If she said that, it would be equivalent to giving her the evidence!

She swallowed her words and glared at Ye Jian angrily. She chased after Du Jiayi in a panic.

Du Jiayi walked quickly with a dark expression. Ye Jian didn't want to come over? Ha, she would make Ye Jian come over!

She walked over and first saluted Commander Xia and Commander Zhong. Then, she said respectfully, "Commander, the military student over there wishes to come over but doesn't dare to. Do you want the guards to bring her over?"

"Child, why are you always so enthusiastic? You think everyone is like you and is so bold." Madam Li pretended to chide her, but due to her smile, everyone knew that she didn't really blame Du Jiayi.

With outsiders present, Du Jiayi seemed very calm. Her lips curved into a proper smile as she explained seriously, "Mom, you misunderstood me. Ye Ying told me that the military school student was her cousin, so I specially went over to greet her. However..."

She paused for a moment and said something that made Ye Ying panic, "But she said that she and Ye Ying aren't cousins. I'm a little confused. Why don't you ask Ye Ying to call Ye Jian over to ask? They both have the surname Ye. Ye Ying is so obedient. She can't possibly spout nonsense."

Madam Li didn't like messy relatives. She should investigate Ye Zhifan's relatives.

Tomorrow, she would return to the company and instruct her subordinates to investigate.

Frowning, she looked at Ye Ying and said coldly, "What happened? Is she your cousin?" She shouldn't embarrass her daughter!

"Madam, she's my cousin. I'm not lying to you." Ye Ying, who was crying, looked at Madam Li obediently. Soon, she lowered her head and said uneasily, "I don't know why she would say that she's not my cousin in front of Sister Jiayi. She's clearly my cousin. Commander-in-Chief. I'm not lying to you."

Ye Ying wanted to say many bad things about Ye Jian, but the commander-in-chief's threatening gaze made her not dare to do anything.

Chapter 2159: Embarrassed

Commander Xia's expression turned ugly. Ye Jian was the daughter-in-law of the Xia family!

With a prospective daughter-in-law like Ye Jian, Commander Xia felt that no girl could compare to Ye Jian. Even the calm and polite Du Jiayi was inferior.

"If you don't even know, why did you say that she's your cousin? You don't even understand your own matters!" Commander Xia was very protective. His words forced Ye Ying to sweat profusely. That was not all. He frowned and swept his gaze over Ye Ying's shoulder. His voice became even deeper. "New recruit? You were specially recruited? Who recruited you? Didn't they investigate your family background? There's even a special recruit who doesn't even know if she has a cousin?"

No recruit could withstand the might of the commander-in-chief. Ye Ying, who was already feeling guilty and afraid, was so scared that her knees were weak and her face was pale.

"Chief, I... She's my cousin, but I don't know why she said she's not," Ye Ying replied in a trembling voice. "I really don't know!"

Staff Officer Du, who had been humiliated, also turned cold. He had said not to casually bring anyone over! Look, Ye Ying had embarrassed him this time!

No matter how obedient this daughter of a minor official was, she didn't have much confidence! Unlike Jiayi, who was confident and could accept even if she did something wrong. Jiayi wouldn't cry easily and make others look down on her.

Commander Xia was furious when he saw a soldier crying.

"Military arts soldier? Commander Zhong, you must have specially recruited a military arts soldier whose specialty is crying!" The commander-in-chief's anger could not be directed directly at a new recruit. Since the leader of the new recruit was present, he naturally had to say something.

Regiment Commander Zhong felt a headache coming on. It wasn't their regiment that had specially recruited Ye Ying. It was Staff Officer Du.

Fortunately, Commander Xia's anger quickly shifted. He asked Staff Officer Du, "She's the recruit that your wife said she wanted Commander Zhong to take care of, right? Why? Is she related to your Du family?"

"That's strange. If she's related to your Du family, don't you know if she has a cousin?"

At this moment, even Madam Li wasn't qualified to speak. Du Jiayi, who was secretly clenching her fists, was even less qualified. She didn't know that she would end up harming her own family.

.....

'Dad... How will he answer that?'

How else could he answer? Staff Officer Du sighed and replied, "Old Xia, calm down. This recruit does have some connections to my family. Her father saved my son—"

"Yes, yes, don't be angry, Old Xia. It's scary. She's a special recruit. She's quite talented. I've seen it myself. She's the best." With her husband's words, Madam Li chimed in. "The child is well-behaved. She has an affinity with me. She's very kind. She's a little timid, but I can tell she's not a troublemaker.

"Calm down. She's a new recruit who just joined the army. She won't be able to get used to the things here for a while. After some training, she'll definitely be a qualified military arts soldier."

Du Jiayi, who didn't want to speak up for Ye Ying, had no choice but to speak up, "Commander-in-chief, when I first arrived at the army, I cried because I missed home."

She didn't want to make things difficult for her parents because of Ye Ying. She then targeted Ye Ying. "Ye Ying, you said that Ye Jian's results were bad in the past and it's strange for her to suddenly get into a military school. Staff Officer Du and Commander Xia are both here. If you have anything to say, just say it."

Chapter 2160: Cut Off The Root Of The Problem

As soon as this was said, Commander Xia's expression was extremely cold. He glanced at Du Jiayi and then at Ye Ying. He shouted, "How dare you?!"

Ye Ying, whose face was as white as paper, swayed and almost fainted.

In front of Staff Officer Du and Commander Xia... Du Jiayi directly said that she suspected that Ye Jian had cheated to get into military school. 'Du Jiayi! Do you want her to die?!'

At this moment, Ye Ying wanted to pounce on Du Jiayi and tear her mouth apart.

Du Jiayi couldn't care less. How could a daughter who let her parents slap her in the face be worthy of the Du family?

Obedient? Gentle?

It was all fake!

If she caused trouble before even entering the Du family, wouldn't it be even more chaotic when she entered the Du family in the future?

The root of the problem had to be solved before it was too late!

When it came to being ruthless, Du Jiayi was dozens of times better than Ye Ying. Previously, she wanted to slowly persuade Madam Li to give up on the idea of making Ye Ying her daughter-in-law. After what happened just now, she immediately made up her mind to sever Ye Ying's relationship with the Du family.

Did she think that getting into military school was child's play? Was the college entrance examination child's play? Could Ye Jian get in just by cheating? Pig brain!

If that was really the case, who knew how many military school students in the country had gotten in by cheating?

"Du Jiayi, stand down!" Madam Li was furious. She had just said that she liked Ye Ying, yet her daughter jumped out to say something indecent. Xia Xinhui didn't know what to say!

.....

The others would say that she was blind! They would say that she was senile!

The phone in her bag vibrated desperately. Someone kept calling Madam Li's phone, but because of Du Jiayi's disorderly interruption, Madam Li was too busy to answer the call.

The assistant who was calling her was so anxious that he was sweating non-stop. He kept calling Madam Li and urging the driver to drive faster.

The driver looked at the dashboard and pressed the accelerator even more. He was going as fast as he could. Any faster and he'd speed off the highway!

The assistant, whose call wasn't picked up after several calls, looked extremely anxious. He was so anxious that his shirt collar was already drenched in sweat.

He had to find Chairwoman Li quickly. Things had already been delayed for more than an hour. If he didn't find Chairwoman Li quickly, with her temper, she would definitely skin him alive!

This matter concerned the Du family and Madam Li's reputation. The anxious senior assistant started to pray.

How would he know that the protagonist in the videotape was Miss Ye Ying, who appeared at Miss Jiayi's birthday party yesterday?

...It was fine if it were an ordinary person, but Chairwoman Li had praised Miss Ye Ying for being obedient and sensible. She liked her very much. Her words and actions made people feel that she treated Miss Ye Ying as her future daughter-in-law.

The obedient and sensible girl whom Chairwoman Li wanted to be her daughter-in-law turned out to have such a messy private life. Wasn't this a huge slap to Chairwoman Li's face?

At this moment, Madam Li did not know that her assistant was so anxious and could not wait to report something to her.

Looking at Ye Ying, who was speechless for a long time, she glanced at Du Jiayi with a dark expression, warning her not to make trouble again. Then, she smiled at Commander Xia. "Old Xia, you..."

"Mom, your phone has been ringing for a long time in your bag. It must be an emergency. Answer the call first," Du Jiayi interrupted. She wanted to cut off Ye Ying's escape route. Du Jiayi would never give up just because of her mother's gaze!
