

BOOT CAMP 2232

Chapter 2232: A Wandering Child Returns To Her Home, Tears Are Flowing

This was blood. This was family. No matter how long they had been separated, there was a sense of familiarity between them.

It had been a long journey and a lonely one. Finally, she came home in tears.

Ye Jian didn't know why she was crying again. When she realized that she was crying, her face was already covered in tears.

She raised her foot and took the first, then the second step... When she stood on the ninth step, she looked up at the old man who was waiting for her to approach. She saw the tears glittering in the old man's eyes and the excitement under his kind smile.

She walked up the stairs step by step. Before Ye Jian could walk over, the calm old man had already reached out his trembling hand. Ye Jian stood under his outstretched hand and let him gently caress the top of her head. He sighed and said, "Child, you can come home now."

There was no need to verify anything. Their bloodline could never be cut off. The old master had already confirmed that this familiar child was a child of the Fu family.

Ye Jian looked up at the old man with tears in her eyes. After a while, she said softly, "It's cold outside. Let me help you into the house." Her voice trembled.

"Okay, okay... Let's talk inside the house," the white-haired old man said repeatedly as Ye Jian helped him into the house.

Seeing that Ye Jian was supporting his grandfather steadily, Li Jinnian let go of his hand. Ye Jian helped him walk into the house while Xia Jinyuan walked behind.

"Ye Jian is indeed my uncle's daughter. I can't be wrong." The old and young figures walked slowly in front. Li Jinnian, whose eyes were deep and gentle, watched them closely. He whispered to Xia Jinyuan, "My grandfather can't be wrong either. The old man has already decided that Ye Jian is his granddaughter, his only granddaughter."

Ever since he could remember, his maternal grandfather had never shed a tear in public. Even when his grandmother and mother passed away, his grandfather only cried behind his back.

He'd never bowed his head to fate. He'd survived one ordeal after another with a strong will.

However, Ye Jian's return made him cry tears of joy. Even though he was holding back his tears, tears still glittered in his eyes.

Xia Jinyuan was happy for Ye Jian.

From the old man's reaction, he had already decided that Ye Jian was his granddaughter. The matters of one's bloodline were indeed magical. Even though it was their first meeting, he also felt that Ye Jian was the old man's granddaughter.

“I trust my instincts too. However, it’s better to be cautious. We can’t skip the DNA test.” Looking at Ye Jian’s back, Xia Jinyuan said calmly, “There are still many things that need to be sorted out. Let’s go in first.”

Li Jinnian nodded. “You know more about Ye Jian than I do. Coincidentally, I have many things to ask you. However...” He paused for a few seconds and said, “You have to avoid letting my grandfather know some things. I’m worried that the old man won’t be able to accept it.”

He was referring to the tough days Ye Jian had lived in the past.

Xia Jinyuan nodded in understanding. He couldn’t say what kind of life Little Fox had lived in the past in front of the old man. He definitely wouldn’t be able to accept it.

“Old Master will definitely ask about Ye Jian’s life back then. With Ye Jian’s kindness, she won’t complain. She’ll only say something that’ll make Old Master feel comfortable. However, with Old Master’s wisdom, he’ll definitely be able to tell that Ye Jian is coaxing him. Is there anything wrong with Old Master’s heart? If there is, it’s best to prepare the medicine first.”

Xia Jinyuan made careful arrangements.
