Chapter 2244: Cousin-In-Law Is Good At Talking

The Little Fox was beautiful like this. She didn't have the sadness that used to occasionally appear in her eyes. This was what he had hoped for. He only wished she would live without worries for the rest of her life.

Li Jinnian smiled. This cousin of his was very smart. She was telling him she was very close to Xia Jinyuan and had the support of the commander-in-chief. She wanted him to relax.

That was good. He only wished there would be no more haze or sadness in her life.

He would definitely support her in whatever she wanted to do.

Whatever she wanted, he would definitely find a way to get it for her.

If she wanted to be with the one she loved, he would be just as quietly supportive.

Commander Xia's call interrupted their conversation. Ye Jian took out her phone and immediately picked it up.

Commander Xia, who was standing in the ward, heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that Ye Jian picked up the call within three seconds. "Little Ye, where are you and Little Six? His mother is in the ward now. Come back and see her."

Madam Xiao was in the ward!

Ye Jian's expression turned serious. "We're outside now. It'll take about an hour to rush back. Please wait for a while."

She quickly said to Xia Jinyuan, "Madam Xiao is in the ward to see you. Go back quickly."

"Give me your phone." Xia Jinyuan stood up and took the phone from Ye Jian.

Li Jinnian frowned when he saw this.

Commander Xia's divorce was not a secret in the military. He knew a little about it. However, from the looks of it, Xia Jinyuan did not seem to have any feelings for his mother.

"Madam Xiao is a woman with a lot of character. Back then, she left Captain Xia in pursuit of freedom, so his feelings for her aren't too deep." Ye Jian could already see Li Jinnian's slight frown, so she implicitly explained the reason for her boyfriend's distant response. "Madam Xiao's departure hurt Captain Xia. Later, something happened, so Captain Xia doesn't have much motherly love for her."

Seeing how anxious she was to defend Xia Jinyuan, Li Jinnian couldn't help but laugh. "Sister, you're already loyal to him before you're married. As your cousin, I might have to be an evil person a few times.

"As a soldier, I respect Xia Jinyuan very much. However, it's not so simple for him to become my cousin-in-law. As your elder cousin, I have to deal with your marriage carefully. I can't be careless."

Who said that the Demon King was cold and taciturn? He was clearly good at talking!

Ye Jian was silently lamenting for her boyfriend. She smiled sweetly and said, "I didn't say that I would marry Captain Xia immediately. He still has a secret identity. Other than those close to him and a few of our comrades, no one else knows about my relationship with Captain Xia."

The tall man had already walked out of her sight. A trace of worry flashed across Ye Jian's smiling eyes. Then, she said solemnly, "Cousin, Captain Xia isn't just a boyfriend to me. He has been holding my hand for so many years and guiding me on which path to take. I wouldn't have been able to get to where I am today without him. Without Captain Xia, I might not have what I have today."

"Cousin, did you know that it was Captain Xia who asked me to be sent to you for training? He personally suggested to Major General Yang that I trained with you. He also told me that you're the soldier he admires the most. He even said it was better for me to train with you for a dozen days than to train with someone else for a year."
