Chapter 2245: I Can't Bear For You To Be Sad

When Ye Jian was telling her family about Xia Jinyuan to her family, her eyes were filled with gentleness. Li Jinnian could feel how much she loved Xia Jinyuan.

"If it hadn't been for his arrangements, I might not have known there was you, Grandpa, and Dad. Maybe I'd still be living with the hatred of being abandoned because of Mom.

"Cousin, Captain Xia is very important to me. He's become a part of my life that I can never part with. My life has long been tied to his.

"I know you want to test Captain Xia more for my own good, but I can't bear to. So, Cousin, I still need you to be magnanimous and let him off."

Li Jinnian had a serious expression as he listened to all this. He had no choice but to reevaluate Xia Jinyuan's importance in his sister's heart. Before he could say anything, he heard her say first, "Let him off." He didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Alright, alright, alright. I won't make things difficult for him. You can't bear to see him sad, but I can't bear to see you sad either." Li Jinnian waved his hand. His cold and handsome face had always been smiling faintly. His cold eyes contained a faint smile as he said, "I know you're worried about him. Hurry up and go take a look."

Only then did Ye Jian get up and leave. Li Jinnian looked at her anxious back and couldn't help but laugh. Then, he sighed softly.

His cousin was still too inexperienced. Against Xia Jinyuan, who was once the number one unruly lad in the capital, she would sometimes fall behind. Otherwise, he wouldn't have had to warn Xia Jinyuan on the first day!

Although his cousin understood that he was doing this for her own good, she did not understand why he said that. He was just telling Xia Jinyuan that the girl he loved now had her family backing her up!

She was Li Jinnian's cousin.

Xia Jinyuan was a responsible man. It was undeniable that he was relieved to hear from his cousin that the commander-in-chief already knew about their relationship and was completely on her side.

The Xia family was different from the Fu family. Although the Fu family was rich, they were businessmen. On the other hand, the Xia family was a well-known aristocratic family in Imperial City. There was still a difference between aristocratic families and businessmen. If the Xia family paid attention to their foundation, no matter how responsible Xia Jinyuan was, he was worried that Ye Jian would suffer when she joined the Xia family in the future.

Now that Ye Jian had the approval of the commander-in-chief, his cousin would undoubtedly lead a more comfortable life in the future.

With Xia Jinyuan's love, the commander-in-chief's approval, and his cousin's extraordinary abilities, he really didn't have to worry about his cousin being bullied by Xia Jinyuan.

He might even be able to see Xia Jinyuan being bullied by his cousin.

Thinking that his former opponent would be 'bullied' by his cousin, the smile on Li Jinnian's cold face deepened.

Ye Jian didn't know what her cousin was thinking. Seeing that Xia Jinyuan's footsteps were cold, she couldn't help but worry even more.

"Madam Xiao, I appreciate your kindness, but I'm outside now and won't be able to rush back in a while. You don't have to wait for me." Xia Jinyuan, who had no feelings for his biological mother, said politely, "Please let my father take the phone. I'll let him send you off."

His voice was faint but not cold. It was distant but also polite. To him, Madam Xiao was nothing more than a stranger...

Madam Xiao, who was holding her phone tightly, closed her eyes in pain. Fortunately, she had turned around and did not let her ex-husband see her loss of composure. Unwilling to leave just like that, she said softly, "Ah Yuan, if it's not convenient for you to rush back to the hospital, I'll come again on another day to look for you, okay?"

"Your father said you're injured. I got worried, so I came to see you."
