

Chapter 2251: You Have To Be Responsible For What You Say

“Tell Ah Yuan to be careful. Don’t worry about Chenglan. I won’t say that Ah Yuan is injured...” With that, Madam Xiao held the guardrail and slowly turned around. She walked very slowly, her hand never leaving the guardrail. She walked out of Commander Xia’s line of sight slowly and demurely.

One good thing about Madam Xiao was that she didn’t make promises easily, but she never went back on her promises.

“Old Du is probably suspicious of what you did in the army.” Commander Xia, who had returned to the ward, still had a cold expression on his face. He said in a low voice, “Try not to return to the capital with Little Ye in the future.”

Old Du was different from the others. He was the Staff Officer of the General Staff Department who had a certain amount of power. Although all the military information in the Xueyu unit was top secret, they had to be wary of him touching the edge.

The door of the ward was not closed tightly. Xia Jinyuan, who had heard the conversation outside clearly, was lying on the bed. Compared to Commander Xia’s seriousness, he looked much more satisfied. “I’m afraid it’ll be a little difficult. Your daughter-in-law has found her family. In the future, as long as she’s on leave, she’ll definitely return to the capital. If she comes back, I’ll definitely accompany her if I can take leave too.”

He said, “Make yourself clear. Don’t be vague and leave me hanging.”

“It’s a long story...” Xia Jinyuan, who was not affected by Madam Xiao’s arrival, sat up straight. When he mentioned the Yue family, his attitude had to be serious. “Old Xia, what I’m about to say is the truth. I guarantee that it’s 100% true. Also, there’s a lot of information. Should I prepare a pill for your heart condition first?”

“Get lost. If you have something to say, say it clearly.” Commander Xia hated his son’s indecent appearance the most. He was sitting upright, but his tone of voice was filled with roguishness, especially when he spoke to him!

“Then listen carefully. This concerns your daughter-in-law’s background. Do you want to drink some water first? I’ll prepare a cup of cold water for you.” Xia Jinyuan was not being indecent. He was just showing concern to the commander-in-chief. He stood up and poured a cup of water for him before getting down to business.

“Nonsense! I still have Old Master Fu’s pen and ink in my study. How can I not be familiar with him? Xia Jinyuan, talk properly!” As soon as he spoke, Commander Xia glared at him. He even brought up Old Master Fu!

Xia Jinyuan, who was deeply aware that he had communication problems with Old Xia, raised his hand and rubbed his temples. He adjusted his breathing before continuing calmly, “Ye Jian is Old Master Fu’s granddaughter, his biological granddaughter. I’m not talking nonsense. You just don’t have the patience to hear me out.”

His daughter-in-law was the biological granddaughter of Old Master Fu’s first wife. Commander Xia’s first reaction was to pour the water from the cup in his hand on his son, who was giving him a headache. His hand trembled, but he stopped himself.

Xia Jinyuan noticed his actions and raised his eyebrows slightly. “Are you so frightened that you want to splash water on my face? Or do you want to splash water on my face because you don’t believe me?”

Both... Commander Xia’s expression was even more solemn and colder than when he faced Madam Xiao. “Little Six, you have to be responsible for what you say. Do you know what you just said?”

So, he did not believe it?

That made sense. Xia Jinyuan didn’t quite believe what he had experienced at the scene at first. It was normal for Old Xia, who was so cautious about everything, not to believe it either. Since the old man didn’t believe it, he would explain until he believed it.

Chapter 2252: Important Questions

“I’ve always been responsible for my words. Your daughter-in-law is indeed Old Master Fu’s biological granddaughter. Just now, when you called Ye Jian, I happened to be accompanying her to see Old Master Fu in Dan Gui Garden. The old man’s grandson is also my comrade, Li Jinnian. Ye Jian is still accompanying Old Master Fu in Dan Gui Garden. I asked her to come over with Li Jinnian tomorrow for the promotion ceremony.”

Commander Xia was panting. He didn’t believe it before, but now, he believed that Xia Jinyuan wasn’t lying to him.

Even though he had been through a lot, he was still shocked for a long time before coming back to his senses. He said in a low voice, “Previously, the military had investigated Little Ye, but they didn’t find out anything. How did you know? You didn’t even say anything! You actually didn’t mention anything to me about such an important matter!”

Although he was shocked, the questions he asked were still sharp.

Seeing that the commander-in-chief didn’t look too good, Xia Jinyuan knew that this matter had a huge impact on him. He hurriedly said, “Drink some water to calm yourself down. I didn’t find out about it much earlier than you. It all happened this morning.

“I rushed back to the hospital because I was afraid you’d be waiting for me. Secondly, I wanted to tell you about this.”

Commander Xia’s expression softened. The news had come too suddenly. He still had to digest it.

“Are you sure it’s true? Tell me how you found out that Little Ye is the old man’s granddaughter. This is such a big matter. It’s not something that you can just simply acknowledge! Once something goes wrong, the few of you will have to remove your military uniforms!”

This was no small matter. It was mainly because the old man’s identity was special. The sudden appearance of his biological granddaughter was not something that could be resolved with the door closed.

Xia Jinyuan told him about the photo in Li Jinnian’s hand and how Ye Jian’s parents missed out on each other back then. In the end, the old man secretly sent people to inquire about it in detail. “... Father-in-law was confined, and as he was afraid of implicating Mother-in-law, he waited until the old man visited him a year later before he dared to bring it up. He didn’t dare to say it aloud and only wrote a few words in the old man’s palm.

“The old man secretly went to the army to ask around with the photo left behind by Father-in-law and Mother-in-law’s name. He asked around for 20 years. It was not until Li Jinnian came over with the photo today that we found out about the twists and turns.”

Commander Xia, who listened to the entire process, sighed heavily. Suddenly, the commander-in-chief thought of a very important question. He frowned and said coldly, “This matter has to be suppressed and properly confirmed. Have a good rest. I still have something to do in the military!”

Sun Xueqing was Old Master Fu’s daughter-in-law, and Old Master Fu’s son, Fu Yusheng, was the chief engineer of the country’s navigation research. Back then, Fu Yusheng was suddenly detained for an investigation that lasted for a year. A year later, Old Master Fu went to inquire about Martyr Sun Xueqing but found nothing.

When Little Ye was three years old, Sun Xueqing passed away. All the information was erased... Commander Xia thought of all kinds of things, and his footsteps became faster as his expression became even colder.

Why did it seem like someone was deliberately targeting the Fu family?!

Xia Jinyuan did not chase after him to ask for the reason. He told Old Xia that his father-in-law was suddenly recalled and locked him up for a year. He wanted Old Xia to think in a certain direction.

The powerful and smart Old Xia must have already gotten it. Xia Jinyuan would leave the rest to the military and the military commission. He and Little Fox did not have to interfere for the time being.

Chapter 2253: Cousins

Because... A cold glint flashed across Xia Jinyuan's eyes. There were some things that he and Little Fox could not interfere in!

Alas, what was his little fox doing now? Chatting with the old master with the Demon King?

He really did not expect that the Demon King, whom he had once warned that he was 'a step too late', would actually become Little Fox's cousin. He had to admit that this was his fate with Little Fox!

On this day, Ye Jian accompanied the old man for the entire day. Apart from going home, she didn't go anywhere else. The old man, who had recognized his granddaughter, was so energetic that he even spoke energetically. At night, he ate half a bowl of rice more than usual.

At night, he went to bed two hours earlier than usual. Usually, he would only sleep after midnight. Tonight, he felt sleepy at around 10 p.m. In the words of the old man, 'a long life is still short. You have to live to at least 110 years old.'

Ye Jian and Li Jinnian laughed when they heard that. Li Jinnian even said, "You're only 88 years old now. You should live to 120 years old."

"I won't look forward to being 120 years old. I'll try my best to live to 110 years old. I'll be happy if I can see the two of you get married and have children."

When they talked about their descendants, the old man, who was originally a little sleepy, became energetic again. He said with interest, "I became a grandfather at the age of 61. I'm 88 this year. Let's see if I can become a great-grandfather at the age of 90. Ye Jian is still young. I remember that female soldiers have to be 24 years old before they can get married and have children. The marriage age of basic officers has to be pushed back. Let's see if I can get a great-grandchild when Ye Jian is 26 years old.

"Then I have to wait six more years. I have to live well. I have to try to live to 110 and see the birth of my great-grandchildren."

The old man was looking forward to having many great-grandchildren. Before he went to bed, he reminded his grandson, Li Jinnian, to write the letter as soon as possible and send it to Ye Jian's father to make him happy.

Li Jinnian felt that his uncle wouldn't just be happy. He would be so excited that he would dance around with tears in his eyes.

After closing the door gently, he said to Ye Jian, who had a gentle smile on her face, "When I was 24 years old, the old man started mentioning that he wanted to hug his great-grandson. Now that we have you, we can share the responsibility together. The pressure will be halved."

He was teasing her with a serious expression.

Ye Jian suppressed her laughter until her shoulders twitched. "Then you have to continue bearing the burden. You're seven years older than me. It's time for you to get married and have children." Li Jinnian was 27 years old this year. It was time for him to get married and have children.

"If there's a suitable girl, I'll definitely marry her immediately." Li Jinnian sneered and pushed open the small study room he was in during the day. "Come in and sit for a while. I'll tell you about the Fu family's history and you'll know why Grandpa wants us to get married and have children." Li Jinnian knew that she was bold. In the past, with his status, she didn't dare to tease him. Now that he was her cousin, she was bold enough to tease him.

He really hoped that it meant that the two of them were closer.

The old photo album was opened again. Li Jinnian pointed at the group photo that was taken in front of the Fu family's old residence. His cold voice tainted the darkness of the night as he said in a low voice, "The Fu family is a rich family. We made a fortune at the end of the Ming Dynasty and early Qing Dynasty, and the wealth lasted until the old master turned 28."

From prosperity to defeat, from being a wealthy family to having nothing at all and not even a place to stay... They flipped through the photo album, and Ye Jian listened to Li Jinnian talk about the Fu family's history. Ye Jian's heart sank again.

Chapter 2254: Military Rank Promotion

She did not feel much when she heard about it in the hospital. Now that she was no longer in the same state of mind, she was so sad that her heart was twisted into a ball.

"When Grandpa was 37 years old, my grandmother gave birth to my mother, who's also your aunt. When Grandpa was 40, your father, who's also my uncle, was born. My grandfather entrusted my uncle to my aunt's family until my uncle was 9 years old. It was only in that year that my grandfather found my uncle who had been out on the streets."

Out on the streets?

Ye Jian's heart ached as she asked hoarsely, "Why was my father out on the streets?"

"Uncle didn't mention it, and Grandpa didn't say anything either. If you want to know, you can ask Uncle." He knew everything about the Fu family, but he didn't know the reason for this. "Actually, it's meaningless to know. Even if you ask, it might just be another sad past."

Ye Jian pursed her lips. Her cousin was right. Her grandfather had suffered too much. Why mention those sad memories again?

After the photo album was closed, Ye Jian's heart was so heavy that she had to drink a few cups of warm water to calm herself down.

This was his cousin, a bloodline relationship that would never change!

The letter and the scanned photo of the student ID were sent out the next morning. After a few transfers, it would take at least a month before it would find itself in the hands of Chief Engineer Fu Yusheng.

Ye Jian, who was sitting below the stage, focused on the dozens of officers on the stage. She knew all of them. They were all navy comrades of Storm Commando and the Xueyu unit.

"You must cherish your honor and remember your original intentions. Remember your mission and take responsibility for your actions. You must not betray the trust of the people, the military, the military commission, and the president.

"Loyalty! Always remember what your responsibilities are. Always remember that you're soldiers protecting the country! Serve the country, be loyal to the people, and be loyal to the country!"

Commander Xia stood in front of the rostrum with a serious voice. He spoke with great military might and told all the promoted officers that rankings were the noble honor bestowed by the country to soldiers. It was necessary for them to remember their mission and responsibility as a soldier!

The promotion ceremony began with the solemn sound of the national anthem. Officers in neat rows stood in front of the rostrum. Commander-in-Chief Xia, the major general of the army, and the major general of the navy each gave the soldiers a military rank order.

Ye Jian watched as Commander Xia personally took off the major rank on Xia Jinyuan's epaulet and fastened the rank of lieutenant colonel. At that moment, Ye Jian was so excited that she felt like she was the one being promoted.

The ceremony ended with the majestic anthem of the People's Liberation Army. All the promoted officers saluted the rostrum and the audience.

Chapter 2255: Clear Eyes

There were not many people in the audience. This was a promotion that was not open to the public. When Xia Jinyuan walked to Ye Jian's side, the rank on his epaulet was still that of a major. To the public, he would always be a major.

Li Jinnian, who was walking beside Xia Jinyuan, stopped in time and said to him, "I still have something to do. Stay with my cousin first."

Xia Jinyuan smiled. His cousin-in-law was still somewhat tactful. "You're returning to the team this afternoon, right? I'll bring her over to look for you later. My father still has something to discuss with the three of us. See you later."

Regarding Ye Jian's return to the Fu family, Commander Xia needed to talk to the three of them in detail.

Today's Demon King was the normal Demon King. His expression was solemn, and his words were concise. No one was allowed to approach him at will.

Ye Jian saw him walking toward the navy commander. She knew that he had something to do, so she stood there and waited for Xia Jinyuan to walk over. The man in the military uniform walked over elegantly. With every step, Ye Jian felt her heart beat faster.

Today, he was wearing the standard winter military uniform for major celebrations and important foreign affairs activities. It was a suit with a white shirt inside and a navy blue tie. On the outside, he was wearing a well-ironed military uniform that showed the military's might. As he walked, he looked even more elegant compared to when he wore the usual military uniform.

This was the first time Ye Jian saw him in a military uniform. He was so handsome that she couldn't take her eyes off him.

It was no wonder Li Jinnian was stunned. How could an elder cousin disturb his cousin's happiness?

Xia Jinyuan had always been generous with his charm, especially in front of Ye Jian. Even his hair was charming. When he saw Ye Jian, he never looked away from her. Even his footsteps were much lighter.

"You're so fascinated by me?"

He walked closer and stood straight in front of her. There was a soft smile on his handsome face under his military hat. Indeed, even his hair was charming. "You have to be more reserved, Little Fox. You're almost drooling. Your cousin wanted to come over and look for you, but he was too embarrassed to come over when he saw you staring at me like this."

The young lieutenant colonel who approached her was even more charming. His every move revealed the military might of a soldier. Ye Jian, who was in a daze, couldn't help but feel her face heat up. She didn't avoid admitting it. "I'm indeed mesmerized by you. You're very handsome! You're handsome enough to fascinate me."

Xia Jinyuan laughed. The little fox was so bold now. "I'm even trying to show you masculinity with my hairstyle now. If this doesn't fascinate you, I'll be very sad."

This was not a good place to chat. He said softly, "I'll be more shameless in the future. You can't be scared away, then."

Ye Jian suddenly understood. She blushed and glared at the 'shameless' young lieutenant colonel. "What nonsense are you talking about?!"

“I’m not talking nonsense. Why are you so red in the face?” Lieutenant Colonel Xia, who was clearly implying something but pretending to be innocent, laughed softly. “You’ve become bad. Come, let’s talk outside.”

Chapter 2256: Warmth

Ye Jian didn’t reply and followed him. Then, they talked about something else.

Ye Jian looked at his epaulets from the corners of her eyes and pursed her lips. She took a few steps and frowned. After hesitating for a while, she asked, “Captain Xia, why do the members of the Xueyu unit maintain their military rank?”

“Because there are too many dangerous missions. Once captured, the higher the rank, the more dangerous it becomes. Sometimes, not only do we have to guard against the people outside, but we also have to guard against the people inside. The missions carried out by the Xueyu unit are all state secrets, and spies are everywhere in our country. Keeping our ranks unchanged is also part of a disguise.”

It was not a secret that his rank could not change. He could tell Ye Jian that.

“As you can see, the only people who promoted us are the major general of the army, the commander of the navy, and Commander-in-Chief Xia. The Xueyu unit and the Storm Delta Amphibious Assault Brigade are not affiliated with any unit. The only leaders we face directly are these three senior leaders. Similarly, it’s to protect our lives.

“As for you, if you’re awarded the rank of captain after graduation, you can actually be promoted to the rank of major directly with the military achievements you’ve attained. However, according to our country’s military promotion system, the promotion of a lieutenant to a colonel is limited to one rank every four years. If you join the team, you might be promoted to major directly, or you might wait four years before being promoted to major.

Before he walked out, Xia Jinyuan said solemnly.

Ye Jian smiled at the man she liked. “I hope so too. I look forward to that day.”

“Then we’ll look forward to it together.” He smiled at her, and their warm gazes met.

The love between Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan was never strong on one side and weak on the other. They chased after a love that was evenly matched. They could become each other’s support when the other was in danger and stand side by side when the other was at their peak.

Such was the love they sought.

Soon, the two of them met up with Li Jinnian and went to Commander Xia’s office. At this moment, Staff Officer Du was accompanying Madam Li, who was having a headache, to recuperate at home.

“Don’t worry about the outside world for the next few days. Get well.” After putting the boiled Chinese medicine by the bedside table, Staff Officer Du sighed. “There’s enough to do at the company and at home. We’ll talk about other matters when you’re better.”

“How much trouble can a young lady cause? She’s already back in the Southern Province. Out of sight, out of mind. What do you have to worry about? On the other hand, we have to pay more attention to Old Xia’s son.”

Madam Li, who had a headache, was lying on the bed with a hot towel on her forehead. Her eyes turned sharp as she said coldly, “Anyone who sees me now will laugh at me. This resentment won’t disappear just because she’s returned to the Southern Province!”

“How dare she play tricks on me and embarrass me?! Heh, if I don’t let her know how powerful I am, who knows who might climb up and step on me in the future?! You don’t have to worry about my matters. I know what to do.”

“As for that son of Old Xia...” Madam Li’s face grew more serious as she removed the hot towel from her forehead. “I asked Shuman if she’d gone to the hospital. She said she had but she didn’t get to see him. Old Xia said he was visiting a comrade.

“Aren’t you thinking too much? It’s not like we don’t know how much of a gangster that son of Old Xia is. This time, he’s going around while wearing his military uniform. Where will Old Xia put his face?”

Chapter 2257: Win For Life

Madam Li did not say anything else. Instead, she raised her hand to cover her forehead and closed her eyes tiredly. She had a neurological headache that could not be suppressed by medicine. Recuperation was the best treatment.

But with so many things happening now, how could she rest?!

“Alright, you should rest more and think less. I’ll get Li Yuan to accompany you to the sanatorium in Hai Province to recuperate for a month.” Staff Officer Du had always respected his wife. He did not feel good seeing her headache.

The nanny knocked on the door and entered with a hot towel in her hand. Staff Officer Du dismissed the nanny and waited on Madam Li himself.

As the hot towel was applied to her forehead, Madam Li gave a low groan of pleasure. She pressed the back of her hand against the hot towel and replied weakly, “I’ll get Shuman to look for Old Xia more, then. You can only rely on yourself in the army. I’ll help you if I can.”

“The Xia family is really the nemesis of our Du family. Kaiwei wasn’t restrained by Old Xia’s son but was suppressed by Xia Anbang’s son! As for our eldest daughter, she was also suppressed by Xia Anbang’s daughter. Just thinking about it makes me angry!”

Madam Li, who had a strong personality, was a little angry when she thought about how her children were being suppressed.

The only thing that made her feel better was that she wasn't being suppressed by Xiao Shuman's son. Otherwise, she would be so angry that her lifespan would be shortened.

Staff Officer Du was helpless when it came to his children. But what could he do? After all, the Du family's foundation was a little shallow. How could he compare to the Xia family?

Among Old Master Xia's five sons and one daughter, there was Xia Anbang, the second child. He was once the minister of Public Security and had died in the line of duty. The eldest son was Xia Anguo, the third son was Xia Xinhui, the fourth son was Xia Jiase, and the daughter was Xia Sujun. They were all powerful figures who could shake the ground when they walked out.

Staff Officer Du, who knew very well what was going on, did not dare to say it out loud. Otherwise, he would anger his wife, who was resting at home. However, with his wife's temper, he could not change the topic. He had to continue the conversation.

After deliberating for a while, Staff Officer Du smiled and comforted Madam Li. "That's not what you said in the past. You told me every day that as long as our eldest son, Kaiwei, is more promising than Old Xia's son, it would be fine. Now that Kaiwei is already the regiment commander while Old Xia's son is still a major, you've already won."

"If I want to win, I have to win for the rest of my life!"

The moment Madam Li slowly opened her eyes, a strange cold glint flashed across her eyes. Didn't those people often secretly say that Xiao Shuman was luckier than her?

Heh, she would let them see who was the lucky one!

Was it a blessing for a divorced woman to have her only son refuse to acknowledge her? It was bad luck!

"You're already a grandmother, but you're still so stubborn." Staff Officer Du felt helpless. He didn't know why his wife had to go against Xia's ex-wife, Xiao Shuman. They had been friends for decades, and they were on good terms.

Xiao Shuman had traveled far away. Once she had any difficulties and needed his wife's help, his wife, who could not go to her aid abroad, would do her best to help her without hesitation.

Their relationship was good. However, every time Xiao Shuman was mentioned, his wife's expression would be a little gloomy. He really didn't understand why.

Chapter 2258: I Really Admire You

Madam Li sneered. She could not hide the fatigue on her face. A few sharp wrinkles appeared at the corner of her mouth.

“People live to make a name for themselves. When she was young, there were always people who liked to compare her to me. They said that I, Li Chenglan, was inferior to Shuman in every aspect. Now that it has come to this, I don’t believe that she, a woman who has no relatives and is in trouble, can defeat me, Li Chenglan.

“I’m determined to win. Look, aren’t I winning now? When she’s in trouble, I help her without a word and worry about her at every turn. Now, who dares to compare me to her? Who dares to say she’s better than me?

“She’s divorced, and even her son won’t acknowledge her. But what about me? I have all my children. Even my eldest grandson is four years old. But what does she have? Nothing. She doesn’t even have anyone close to her anymore.”

Staff Officer Du was dumbfounded when he heard this. After a long while, he laughed and said, “Madam, I really admire you. You can fight for decades for pride. I can’t believe you! It’s also because of your help that our Du family could get to where we are today.

“Therefore, now that you’re not in good health, I’m very worried. Since the outcome of the battle between you and Xiao Shuman has been decided, there’s no need to spend any more time on it. If the worst comes to worst, I’ll get our eldest son’s wife to bring our grandson to accompany you to Haizhou for a vacation to relax.”

The eldest, Du Kaiwei, got married long ago and had a son. Their grandchild was already four years old.

Thinking of her good friend, Xiao Shuman’s, current situation, then thinking of her only grandson, the gloominess on Madam Li’s face dissipated a lot. “Forget it, don’t trouble his family. I don’t have any big problems. When I settle the matters in the Southern Province and feel comfortable, my headache will naturally get better.”

Madam Li, who had applied a few hot towels and had a headache, couldn’t help but think of Ye Ying when she mentioned the Southern Province. When she thought of Ye Ying, she remembered that she had gone to the restaurant yesterday and heard the ladies next door talking about her. Her head, which had finally recovered, started to hurt again.

Ye Ying, Ye Ying! That b*tch made her the laughing stock of the upper-class society in the capital! Did she think that everything would be fine after she paid the fine and went to the police station to be investigated for a few days?

Wishful thinking!

Since she liked changing men so much, she would let her enjoy having several men a day!

Madam Li had always been ruthless. It was impossible for Sun Ying, who already had the surname ‘Sun’, to escape safely.

Madam Li, who had a splitting headache and had no choice but to take two painkillers, waited for Staff Officer Du to leave. With a ruthless expression on her face, she called Du Kangyue, the eldest brother of Staff Officer Du. He was now the second-in-command of the province.

Ye Ying definitely wanted to be let out. Fine, she would let her come out first! She would definitely make her life a living hell after that!

As Xia Jinyuan said, with Madam Li around, he and Ye Jian didn't have to care about Ye Ying anymore. They just had to live their own lives.

Xia Jinyuan was sitting respectfully in front of the old man and was sized up by the old man's sharp gaze. He maintained his standard military posture. He relaxed his expression and breathing, trying his best to face the old man naturally.

The young lieutenant colonel was still restless when he walked out of Commander Xia's office. He personally heard his cousin-in-law say that he would send his girlfriend back to Dan Gui Garden. Hence, Lieutenant Colonel Xia made up his mind to follow them.

Commander Xia was even more supportive of this decision. He said indifferently from behind the three of them, "Little Six, accompany Little Ye to visit the old master. Remember to bring some gifts when you go over. Don't be rude."

Chapter 2259: Towering Like A Mountain

Little Ye was very outstanding. In the past, his son had to keep a firm hold on her. He was always worried that his daughter-in-law would be snatched away by other outstanding men.

Now that his daughter-in-law had become Old Master Fu's granddaughter, he was even more nervous!

Old Master Fu had dedicated his life to his country. He had countless outstanding students under him in the fields of missiles, atomic bombs, and space satellites. He did not know how many outstanding students the old master had who had yet to marry. If Old Master Fu brought Little Ye to a blind date on a whim one day... He got worried about Little Six just thinking about it.

With Little Ye's looks, talent, and ability, only Old Master Fu would look down on others. There was no way others would look down on Little Ye.

Commander Xia, who was afraid that his future daughter-in-law would be snatched away, felt really worried. He had to quickly go to Old Master Fu to express his sincerity before everything went down. At the same time, he had to show his face and leave a good impression!

As a father, he thought too much. As for his son, his thoughts were not that complicated. It was definitely necessary to visit the old master. It was also necessary for him to show his face in front of Old Master Fu and leave a good impression.

The old man's gaze was very sharp. When his gaze swept over, there was this strong feeling that could even make ghosts and monsters terrified. Xia Jinyuan maintained the composure of a soldier and maintained a sharp gaze. He did not move and was as majestic as a mountain.

Yesterday, the old man, who was in a bad mood, had only sized him up slightly. His attention was mostly on Ye Jian. Today, facing Xia Jinyuan, who had visited again and had a close relationship with Ye Jian, the old man's gaze was not only sharp but also quite careful.

The elderly man observed Xia Jinyuan for at least five minutes, then looked away and nodded to himself. He was a very good young man. Just his towering aura alone reassured him.

The old man's gaze was comparable to his old man's. When he swept his gaze over, it would make one's blood turn cold. They both could instantly turn a tiger into a rabbit. No one would dare to be impudent.

Just as he relaxed, he suddenly felt the old man's gaze land on his face again. Xia Jinyuan, whose breathing had almost become chaotic, revealed a calm smile and let the old man examine him once more.

The old man's gaze had already stopped on Xia Jinyuan's face. His eyes narrowed slightly.

After sizing him up roughly yesterday, he immediately felt that this young man's appearance gave him a sense of familiarity. The more he looked at him today, the more he felt that there was something familiar about him. He wondered if he was related to an old friend of his.

Not only did his old friend have a high status and incredible influence, but his character was also unquestionable. He was upright, loyal, and honest. He was loyal to the country and to the people.

As a special forces soldier, Xia Jinyuan noticed that the way the old man looked at him had changed. It was as if he was lost in his memories.

In front of the elders, Xia Jinyuan had always been polite. He sat upright with an open gaze and an elegant smile. No matter how the old man sized him up, he was never rude.

As a soldier, his back had to be straight and his gaze had to be sharp. No matter where he sat, his integrity would still be admirable.

The old man, who had seen countless people, was already nodding in approval in his heart. His gaze was no longer as sharp. Instead, there was a satisfied smile on his face. He asked kindly, "Your surname is Xia, and you're from the capital. There aren't many people with status in the capital. Are you related to General Xia Yunkui? Don't be so uptight. Just treat it as me choosing someone for my granddaughter."

Chapter 2260: Descendant Of An Old Friend

The old man, who was open-minded by nature, did not want to make things difficult for a young man. Moreover, this young man had accompanied his granddaughter here yesterday and today. Even though his granddaughter did not say anything, he understood the identity of this young man.

This grandson-in-law... was not bad. In terms of looks, he was worthy of his granddaughter, not to mention his temperament. He was very satisfied with the young man's steady temperament.

Coupled with the fact that he was similar to his old friend, he had a better impression of him.

Yesterday, Xia Jinyuan had only given Ye Jian courage. Today, he came to visit the old master as his grandson-in-law. The atmosphere was completely different. While he appeared calm, he also revealed the elegance of the Xia family.

He smiled at the old gentleman's question. "That's my grandfather. He retired 15 years ago. Now he has nothing to do but plant flowers at home with my grandmother and feed the fish."

"So, you're the descendant of General Xia. No wonder you're very imposing." The old man nodded slightly. Indeed, he was the descendant of an old friend! Only the descendant of his old friend could be so outstanding!

General Xia was a righteous person. Back then, he was almost unable to return to the Space Academy. It was General Xia who had stepped forward and allowed him to continue staying in the Space Academy. Thinking that the young man in front of him was his old friend's grandson, the old man was even more satisfied.

The old man, who was smiling even more kindly, said with a smile, "I'm old friends with your grandfather. Back then, he even helped me. I didn't expect General Xia's grandson to be the one who'll marry my granddaughter."

Xia Jinyuan's palms were actually sweating. When he heard that the old man was an old acquaintance of his grandfather, the last trace of nervousness in his heart disappeared. When he heard the last sentence, the sweat on his palms gradually disappeared.

Their grandfather was actually an old acquaintance. As expected, he and Little Fox were not from the same family.

Although he knew that the old man was quite satisfied with him, Xia Jinyuan still didn't dare to be careless. He smiled and said, "If you hadn't mentioned it, I really wouldn't have known that the two of you were old friends. Grandpa likes to stay at home now. One day, he's tending to the flowers and plants. The next day, he'll carry a hoe to cultivate a small piece of land and plant some fruits and vegetables.

"In the spring, the flowers and grass in the backyard will bloom. In the summer, green fruits hang on the branches. When the fruits are collected in the autumn, there'll be extras. Grandpa would send some to his neighbors to share the fruits of his labor."

Old Master Fu, who loved to listen to these homely things, laughed loudly. His old voice was pure and strong. "General Xia once told me that he would go home to farm after he retired."

"Gosh, even if he had no way of planting, he still found a way. He even has such bountiful harvests that he has to share the produce with his neighbors. General Xia is quite impressive."

Xia Jinyuan was the best at pleasing the old man. When Ye Jian and Li Jinnian returned from shopping, he was already in the study with the old man. Ye Jian could hear the old man saying, "Good, good! Good handwriting!"

"He even has the ability to coax old people. I really underestimated him." Hearing the laughter from the study, Li Jinnian's cold eyes narrowed slightly. It seemed that Xia Jinyuan's identity as Q King had been recognized by his grandfather.

Ye Jian took the supplies from him and put them aside. She smiled and said, "Old men find him very likable. In the past, when Grandpa Gen was still around, the old man didn't agree with him pursuing me. Later on, Grandpa Gen told me that Captain Xia is a good man and he's worth giving it a try.

"Uncle Chen also tested him and was equally satisfied. He also advised me to discuss things with him more often. He said I shouldn't make decisions on my own, lest the two of us become estranged."
