

Chapter 241: Major Xia's Arrangement (4)

While Ye Zhifan was signing the document, Xia Jinyuan was sitting in a truck and riding on the bumpy road. He was unable to open his eyes due to the glaring reflection from the snow. There were two hours time difference between this place and the capital city. This place was filled with snow. When the sun shone on it, everywhere was white and glaring.

"Do you want some oxygen?" Someone beside him asked calmly. His voice was low and there were no emotions in it. "We are 5000 meters above sea level, if you want to rest, we can ask the driver..."

The sound of rolling stones interrupted him. The soldier driving the car seemed to sense what was happening and stepped on the brake forcefully. "Q Wang, the snow mountain welcomed you with an appetizer."

The driver and the soldier sitting beside Xia Jinyuan were not strangers.

The driver was J5, someone who was lazy and carefree. As for the person sitting beside Xia Jinyuan, he was K7. He was a lieutenant who used to be a forensic expert.

Xia Jinyuan opened his water bottle and took two sips of the cold water. He looked at the weathered stones that kept rolling down in front of him and said indifferently, "What an exciting welcome ceremony. We are a few hours away from the military base. We need to repair the mountain road later too. Will we be able to pass in half an hour?"

"I'm not sure. That depends on how long the stones continue falling. Sit tight, I need to reverse for some distance." Stones were falling down the mountain in front of them. The road behind was steep. On their left, they could see a river flowing rapidly. It was like an enormous water dragon.

The mountain road was not an asphalt road or a cement road. It was made from stones. The military truck's engine roared. J5 maneuvered the steering wheel smoothly and managed to reverse the car a few meters back within less than 10 seconds.

J5 and K7 were all soldiers from the Xueyu unit. They entered two years before Xia Jinyuan. J5 graduated from the Army institute. K7 was a forensic expert. He made a mid-life career change and became a soldier.

After they reversed the car, they waited for the stones to stop falling. Then, the three of them took out their tool kits and started removing the stones. The stones were thrown into the river on the left. Every time a stone landed in the river, it sounded like the growl of a beast. J5 looked at Xia Jinyuan who was still calm and had no reactions on his face. He smiled and gave a look of approval.

An ace soldier who managed to become Q Wang. He was indeed a bold person.

K7 picked his pry up and threw it into the toolbox. He looked at the young major who didn't even frown. He suddenly said, "He is stronger than you."

This sentence came suddenly. He didn't say who this sentence was directed at but J5 knew.

"He is stronger than you too. I remember that on your first day, you started vomiting before we reached 5000 meters above sea level. Your face was so pale then. You looked so pitiful." J5 smiled and patted Xia Jinyuan's shoulder. He sighed. "Q Wang, I have high hopes of you. This fellow is an arrogant person. Before our commander retired, he was able to hold him back. Now, we hope that someone powerful will come and subdue him."

As a soldier who just came to report to the Xueyu unit, the Xueyu unit was not able to order Xia Jinyuan around even though he was a major.

Xueyu unit was a special military unit. All the soldiers inside had no name. No one knew where they came from or where they would be going in the future. Even if they die, they would become nameless heroes. Their nickname would be used until they retire from the military.

Chapter 242: Major Xia's Arrangement (5)

J5 and K7 only knew that Q King's surname was Xia. They would not ask him what his name was. They were not concerned about it too. Their nickname was their name. No matter where they were, they would only use their nickname.

Xia Jinyuan didn't know what their name was too. He smiled gently and replied, "I want to keep a low profile."

J5 immediately turned silent when he heard this. As for K7... He gave a slight smile that was almost unnoticeable. He glanced at Q King who indeed looked like he wanted to keep a low profile. There seemed to be some emotions in his voice as he said, "We like people who are low-key, unlike J5. He is always loud. He even had to write a 3000-word reflection letter at night because of his actions."

"I just spoke three sentences with a lady below the mountain. Who was the one who reported me secretly? I was forced to write the reflection letter! Damn it. I have already written 12,000 words this month!"

J5 sounded so pitiful when he said this. He looked at the rearview mirror and saw Q King smiling gently. His gaze turned dark. He sighed. "How pitiful. We are worse than the monks in the monastery. Monks can at least talk to female visitors."

Xia Jinyuan narrowed his eyes. After some time, he gave a mysterious smile. "Don't worry, I'm single. My family says that I'm still young so I shouldn't get into a relationship. I might get tricked by ladies. That is why I'm living like a monk just like you all."

“In the future, I think that I won’t be like J5. Is this the mating season? Why do you have to write a reflection letter so frequently?”

After five seconds, K7 started laughing. His entire aura seemed bright and warm now. It was not dead like just now.

J5 replied calmly, “According to what I know, only animals have a mating season.”

“I think Q King is right. You have a mating season too. If not, why are you unable to control yourself and talk to ladies? You must be a male animal. When it’s the mating season, you are unable to control yourself. That is why you have to write reflection letters so frequently.” K7’s laughter lasted for a short time. When he spoke again, his expression was calm. Only the tinge of redness on his cheeks proved that he had laughed just now.

Xia Jinyuan smiled. What a unique way of reminding him to keep his distance with female colleagues.

The Xueyu unit was indeed as secretive as what the rumors said. The moment he entered it, he became an orphan. He only had his comrades.

Luckily, he had arranged everything for the little fox before he left. Now... Even though he was not beside her and couldn’t contact her, he believed that she was able to solve all the difficulties she would face.

The sky was blue and filled with white clouds. The ground was covered in snow. Inside the car, Xia Jinyuan smiled. His smile was refreshing and bright.

The higher they climbed, the bumpier the road got. However, J5 and K7 never stopped. They took turns to drive the truck. They didn’t dare to waste any time.

Chapter 243: Major Xia’s Arrangement (6)

Ye Jian stood under the tree. Her smile froze for a moment. Xia Jinyuan was the one who reminded Grandpa Gen about the registered residence.

“When Major Xia comes back, you must thank him. It was lucky that he reminded me. If not, I won’t even think about it.” Grandpa Gen didn’t know that Xia Jinyuan had left Fujun Town and went to a new military unit. He said thoughtfully, “He helped us without asking for anything in return. We must thank him.”

He helped them many times. Grandpa Gen felt bad for not thanking him.

Ye Jian shook her head and smiled. “No need, Grandpa Gen. Major Xia came to Fujun Town for training. After his training ends, he will go to the military unit he is supposed to go to.”

“He will not return to this place anymore. We will need to wait a long time before we can thank him.” She owed him a thank you. If it wasn’t for him, they would not be able to catch Ye Zhifan off his guard and let him sign the document. If Ye Zhifan got ahold of her registered residence just like in her past life, she would lose her identity again. She would not be able to have any freedom.

Her heart pounded as she remembered what was written in the letter Principal Chen gave her: Wait for me.

Wait for him to come back? Wait for him to come back to Fujun Town or wait for their next meeting?

At first, she didn’t think so much. It was just three words. You could think of it simply or complicatedly. To her, Major Xia was a dangerous man. She instinctively wanted to keep her distance from him. Hence, she didn’t think much.

However, Grandpa Gen told her that Xia Jinyuan was the one who allowed her to change her registered residence easily. It could be said that he single-handedly solved this issue.

Then... Ye Jian rubbed her temples. She realized that even with her experience in life, she was unable to understand Xia Jinyuan’s thoughts.

If this issue didn’t happen, the three words would just be a farewell by a friend.

But he helped her. Hence, the three words had an ambiguous meaning now.

She hated this kind of guessing game.

Grandpa Gen turned quiet when he heard this.

After some time, he nodded. “With Major Xia’s capabilities, he shouldn’t stay here. He will have to leave soon. I just didn’t expect him to leave so quickly.”

Xia Jinyuan was sent to the military unit in Fujun Town, which needed to fight against criminals all the time, for two reasons. Firstly, the school sent him here to undergo foundation training. Secondly, Commander Xia wanted to groom his only son.

It had been almost one year since Xia Jinyuan came. Even if he wanted to continue staying here, Commander Xia would not allow him.

Hence, he had to leave. Nothing would change this ending.

Ye Jian smiled when she heard Grandpa Gen sighing. Grandpa Gen seems to respect Xia Jinyuan. “Don’t think that it’s a pity. I’m not bad too. I will not embarrass Principal Chen and you.”

That dangerous and elegant man had left. However, his short appearance left a lasting impression on many people. His appearance also gave her an interesting memory, a memory on that day, that year.

Chapter 244: Major Xia’s Arrangement (7)

Fighting together under the rainy night sky, killing enemies with guns in a foreign country... He was the one who gave her all these interesting memories.

Actually, before she left Australia, she wanted to ask him what he did with the huge amount of drugs he swooped away. She wanted to ask him how he taught the international police who looked down on the Chinese police a lesson.

Based on his personality, he would not let those people who looked down on his country off so easily.

“Don’t worry about your Dragon Jade. It’s worth a lot of money but it’s just an object. If Ye Zhifan wants to conceal it... girl...”

When Grandpa Gen was talking about the Dragon Jade, he noticed that Ye Jian had raised her head and was fiddling with the silver wire on her right wrist. She seemed to be in a daze. Her eyes were looking into the emptiness.

How can she lose her focus when we are talking about important matters?

Grandpa Gen called Ye Jian a few times. Ye Jian was reminiscing the moment when she fought hand-in-hand with Xia Jinyuan. She blinked. Her gaze seemed a little confused. After some time, she pursed her lips and lowered her head in embarrassment. “I was thinking about something and didn’t hear what you said. I’m sorry, Grandpa Gen.”

She put down her hand that was touching the silver wire naturally and slowly.

Grandpa Gen smiled. “I know. You are thinking about Major Xia, right?” He was old but he wasn’t blind.

However... Grandpa Gen turned serious. “Girl, whatever you are thinking about, you are still too young. You can’t go with your emotions for some matters.”

“Also, it doesn’t matter what Major Xia is thinking. You should take care of yourself.” There was sorrow in his eyes. He remembered something sad. “No matter how powerful a lady is, she will be on the losing end in a relationship.”

He observed the indifferent girl in front of him. He started smiling again. “I don’t think your heart will be moved so easily. If anyone falls in love with you, they would have a hard time.”

This was why Grandpa Gen didn’t interfere when he noticed that Xia Jinyuan had different feelings for Ye Jian.

“Don’t worry. Major Xia will always be other people’s Major Xia. He has nothing to do with me.” Ye Jian was able to let things go easily. She was an indifferent person. After experiencing so many things, her heart became tough.

She smiled and pushed the thoughts to the back of her head. She asked, “You mentioned the Dragon Jade just now. Is there something I don’t know?”

“That jade is worth a lot of money but it’s not a good thing too. If Ye Zhifan doesn’t want to give it back to you, don’t look for it. Our main focus should be to get your registered residence out.”

To Ye Jian, what Grandpa said was important. As for Xia Jinyuan... It was alright to push him aside first.

Hence, she smiled and replied, “Okay.”

Ye Jian didn’t care if the Dragon Jade was worthy or not. The most important thing was that it was not a good thing. Thus, she will not go and find it.

Chapter 245: Testing Each Other Secretly

Secretary Wu was going to leave with Grandpa Gen and Company Commander Yue. Before he left, he reminded Principle Chen, “Town Mayor Ye seemed unwilling to sign the document. That shows that he is unhappy with the fact that Ye Jian is going to have a new registered residence. The school might need the support of the government in certain areas next time. What you did today... Town Mayor Ye might bear a grudge against you because of this.”

The school and the government didn’t seem to have any relationship but in fact, they were closely knitted. For instance, if the school wanted funds to renovate their facilities, they needed to go through government sectors.

If Fujun Town Middle School needed funds from the government, the first sector they had to go through was the town government. It was understandable that Secretary Wu would be worried.

He wanted to remind Principal Chen so that he could be prepared for this kind of situation.

However, if he hadn’t prepared anything, Principal Chen would not offend Ye Zhifan. Hence, he smiled and replied, “Don’t worry, Secretary Wu. Our school has some relationship with the military. If Town Mayor Ye cannot settle some things, the military can help us.”

That was why Principal Chen was not worried that Town Mayor Ye would make things hard for them.

Getting Ye Jian’s registered residence out was much more important than getting funds for the renovation of the school. After Town Mayor Ye passes Ye Jian’s registered residence booklet to Grandpa Gen, everything will end today.

To Sun Dongqing, getting Ye Jian’s registered residence out of her family was a good thing.

She didn’t pretend to have a headache anymore and immediately went to look for her registered residence booklet. However, when Ye Zhifan wanted her to give the Dragon Jade back too, she refused.

That jade... was worth a lot of money! It was said to be worth 200,000RMB ten years ago.

How much would it be worth now?

Taking the jade away was like taking her life away. Her voice turned shrill as she said, "You agreed? You agreed to that? Ye Zhifan, are you stupid? Do you know how much that jade is worth? There is no way I'm going to give it back to her."

Ye Zhifan didn't have the energy to quarrel with his wife. "I will go to the jade shop in the afternoon. Hurry up and give me the jade."

"Mom, give Father the jade." Ye Ying heard the commotion and came out of her room. She stood at the door of the master's bedroom and frowned. She said with impatience, "Didn't you hear Father saying that he will go to a jade shop in the afternoon? He is going to find a piece of fake jade that looks like the Dragon Jade."

With just a single sentence, Ye Ying knew what Ye Zhifan wanted to do.

Sun Dongqing instantly smiled after hearing this.

"I agreed to go with Uncle Gen to finish the relevant procedure for moving Ye Jian's registered residence. Just nice, I can do that along the way. Also, Yingying, don't go to school for the next few days. Everyone is on Ye Jian's side now. You are not her match." Ye Zhifan never thought of letting Ye Ying change school. He wanted to evade the problem for the time being. When everything died down, he would send her back.

Ye Ying's eyes turned dark. After some time, she said in a low voice, "If I really leave, she will think that I'm afraid of her. I rather stay in school. What can she do to me? I don't believe that I'm worse than her."

"Father, can you look for an English teacher for me when you go to the city? Next time, I will go to the city every Friday and come back on Sunday."

Ye Zhifan would definitely agree to such matters. At the same time, he was glad that his daughter took the challenge head-on. That was how his daughter should be! Escaping is not a solution. The best way to welcome a challenge is to accept it and use her actions to prove that she was good too.

Chapter 246: Die Trying

What happened today... He would remember what Principal Chen did to him today!

Not only would Ye Zhifan remember this, but all the people who saw this scene would also remember it. They would be unable to forget it for a long period of time.

One month passed. Ye Jian had been the center of attention for almost a month ever since her registered residence was changed. Just as the hype around her was dying down, Ye Ying's appearance caused everyone to start noticing her again.

One of them sat in the classroom with an energetic face while the other one stood at the door with a pale face. When their eyes met, Ye Ying's gaze turned cold.

Ye Jian replied with a gentle smile.

Ye Ying saw this and started moving towards Ye Jian. All her classmates were looking at her. Then, she did something that made An Jiixin dumbfounded.

“Ye Jian, I’m really sorry.” Ye Ying walked over and apologized to Ye Jian sincerely. “My mom can be irritating sometimes. She does things based on her emotions. I’ve been wanting to apologize to you but I was in bad health. I only recovered yesterday.”

“I’m really sorry that I didn’t manage to apologize to you earlier.” Not only did she apologize, she even bowed down.

Ye Jian stood up calmly. After Ye Ying straightened her back, Ye Jian smiled gently. Ye Ying had learned to control her emotions. “I hope that we will be able to work happily with each other in the upcoming year. I hope that the town mayor’s wife can think before she acts. She is the wife of an officer. I’m sure your family doesn’t want the Municipal Discipline Office to hear about her actions.”

Damn it, this stupid girl was threatening her.

“Of course. I also hope that we can work together peacefully. Also, thank you for your reminder. I will ask my mother to take note of her actions.” Ye Ying gritted her teeth secretly. However, she maintained a smile on her face. Her smile seemed relaxed but there was a coldness in it.

She was not the only one. The entire class was flabbergasted. Only Ye Jian, who had fought with Ye Ying many times, was able to smile. Her smile irritated Ye Ying.

For the next few days, Ye Ying would hear all kinds of hurtful comments directed at her. However, she forced herself to bear with it.

Ye Jian was starting to see signs of the Ye Ying in her past life.

On the 30th of September, there was only half a day of school. When lessons ended, all the students rushed out of their class happily.

Ye Jian and Principal Chen left the school immediately too. They needed to rush for the bus to the city which would leave at 12.30 pm.

Then, they had to take a train into the province and rush to arrive at the Provincial People’s Great Hall before 9 am tomorrow to accept Ye Jian’s commendation. There was no time to lose.

On the bus, Ye Ying saw Ye Jian boarding. She clenched her fist tightly. Something dark flashed past her eyes.

“Yingying, be careful. The bus is moving off soon.” Ye Zhifan noticed this and reminded her calmly. Then, she smiled and greeted Principal Chen who came in after Ye Jian. Nothing amiss could be detected on his face.

Chapter 247: Something Amiss

This was the Ye Zhifan that Ye Jian was familiar with. He was a wolf in sheep's clothing. He would smile at you as he stabbed a knife in your back.

All the people on the bus knew Ye Zhifan. They were having an enjoyable conversation together. Ye Jian sat at the back and whispered to Principal Chen, "You can have a rest first. We need to sit for more than five hours and catch a train at night. It is a long journey. Your body might not be able to handle it. If we reach before the 8 pm train, we can find a place to rest first."

The other time, Xia Jinyuan started driving at 6 pm and reached the city at 11 pm.

Just now when she got onto the bus, she saw Principal Chen rubbing his left shoulder secretly. She looked at the sky outside. It was dark. Whenever it rained in July, the weather would turn cold. Principal Chen's shoulder was hit by a bullet before. It would hurt whenever it got cold.

Ye Zhifan turned and looked past the people between them. He said to Principal Chen, "Principal Chen, our train is at 8 pm too. Shall we go to the train station together?"

What a coincidence!

They took the same bus and the same train. Wasn't this a coincidence?

They reached the city after five and a half hours of journey. When they went onto the train... even their sleeping berth was in the same carriage.

When Ye Ying saw Ye Jian appearing in front of her again, her expression turned malicious. She was in the shadows so her face couldn't be seen clearly. She glared intently at the back view of Ye Jian who was preparing to board the train.

Ye Jian seemed to have felt the gaze. She turned around. Then, she slowly turned back.

Not only were they in the same carriage, but they were also in the same room too. Their sleeping berths were all in room 8.

"Hey, are you going to walk? Don't block the way." A man urged her angrily. When he saw no response from the person in front of him, he grabbed a dirty luggage bag and rushed forward directly. The bag knocked into Ye Jian. The fat man squeezed Ye Jian to the side and boarded the train first.

There was something hard in the bag. Ye Jian's shoulder hurt. At the same time, she heard the sound of metal pipes knocking into each other in the bag.

The security checks in 1995 were not stringent. Metal pipes and other metal objects could be brought into the train. If it was just a normal person, Ye Jian would not have noticed him. However, she felt killing intent from this fat man. She pursed her lips tightly.

Principal Chen saw her change of expression. After she boarded the train, he asked, "You were frowning just now. Did you get hurt from the knock?"

“The man has metal pipes in his bag. Also, his aura... makes me uncomfortable.” Ye Jian didn’t hide her feelings. She continued in a light tone, “It reminds me of the stories you told us when we went to the province the other time.”

Principal Chen thought that Ye Jian was being too sensitive. He replied, “Let’s wait and see first. We are sleeping on the upper berth. If anything happens, we can observe them.”

In 1995, trains were still messy. There were many pickpockets. At night, many people would start crying. Everyone would start to lose something.

The pickpockets were the most active around 2 am. This was when normal people were in deep sleep.

Chapter 248: Don’t Bother About It

The trains traveling to the province were trans-province green trains. Even sleeping berths had no air conditioning. The weather had turned cooler in July but with so many people sleeping in a small space, the windows had to be opened.

Ye Jian and Principal Chen found their berths and prepared to put their luggage on it. A middle-aged couple sleeping at the lower berths suddenly got up and looked at Principal Chen vigilantly.

“Where are you all sleeping? Are you sleeping in the middle berth or the upper berth?” The woman opened her mouth and questioned them. “Did you change your bed number? The berths are based on your berth number. You can’t just sleep anywhere.”

Her expression showed that she was guarding against them. She was probably afraid that they were thieves. It was good to be vigilant when you were outside but it wasn’t right for her to be so disrespectful. Did she think that she was the police and that they were criminals?

Ye Jian pursed her lips unhappily. She said to Principal Chen, “Principal Chen, I don’t have many things with me. I don’t need to put it on the luggage rack. I will put in on my bed.” She needed to tell them that they made the wrong judgment.

After she said this, the couple exchanged glances with each other. Then, they laid back down on their beds without even a word of apology.

After putting down their luggage, Principal Chen sat on the foldable seat next to the window and enjoyed the wind. The middle-aged woman sat up and pointed at the window. “Don’t open the window, do you understand? Just leave it like this.”

There were more than ten people in the train carriage. The first thing most of them did when they came into the room was to pull up the windows near the aisle and the bed. Those people that felt too warm would sit on the foldable seats next to the window and fan themselves as they complained about the hot environment.

Ye Jian looked at the window on their side. It was only opened slightly, just enough for the wind to blow in at night.

Principal Chen waved his hand nonchalantly. He didn't want Ye Jian to be irritated by this middle-aged woman's actions. It was common for them to meet such people during a long journey. There was no need to take it to heart.

Ye Jian smiled. She didn't argue with the middle-aged woman.

She didn't like to open her window entirely too. In this era, many things could happen on the train. The story that Principal Chen told them last time happened in May 1993. It was during a train from Beijing to Moscow.

It was a true story. The influence it had internationally was extremely bad. Many people didn't dare to take that train anymore.

That was not the only instance. There were many other cases but the impact was not as great as the international train case.

After the train left the train station, Principal Chen smiled at Ye Jian. "I have been going out very often this year. Normally, I wouldn't take the train unless I have to."

When he was young, Principal Chen went to many different areas to carry out missions. Hence, when he retired, he wanted to live a calm and stable life. The oil reserve below the school didn't allow him to leave the school often too.

This time, he came out because he had to bring Ye Jian to the Provincial People's Great Hall.

"To us, taking the train is an interesting experience. That time when 12 of us came to the province, Zhou Liao and a few of the male students didn't sleep for an entire night due to their excitement." Ye Jian had climbed to the middle berth. She popped her head out and chatted with Principal Chen who was still sitting on the foldable seat. "The first trip is always exciting."

A principal and a student. This identity was easily accepted by other people.

Hence, the middle-aged couple joined in their conversation too. Principal Chen was a talkative person. After some time, he was already chatting freely with the middle-aged man.

Chapter 249: Earnest Words

Principal Chen was a knowledgeable person. He could catch up with the middle-aged man no matter what the other party said. After some time, the middle-aged man started to become more humble.

Ye Jian smiled gently.

Normally, Principal Chen was not like this. He must have realized that the middle-aged couple was looking at them as though they were thieves so he did this.

The middle-aged man probably felt that he was unable to feel superior in terms of knowledge so he took out his cellular phone which looked like a brick. In this era, having a cellular phone meant that this person was wealthy and had a high status.

The person sleeping on the berth above Ye Jian was a young man who was working at the province. He leaned over and took a look at the cellular phone. Then, he said, "It's so ugly. I thought that it would look good."

Ye Jian laughed silently when she heard what he said. The people from Yannan City was the most astute people in the entire province... or rather, the entire country.

They were not only shrewd but also looked down on other people too. Wherever they were, they had a strange sense of superiority.

Using a cellular phone to showoff was something people from Yannan City would do.

Ye Jian didn't participate in the conversation. She laid on her pillow and listened to the sound of the train. Soon, she went into a light sleep.

Every time she fell asleep, she would wake up when she heard the vibrations of the train. Her sleep was light.

Three rows down, Ye Ying couldn't sleep too. This national day holiday, she would be going to the provincial capital to study. She would use these seven days to improve her English. There will be a foreign teacher accompanying her every day. She would need to converse in English all the time.

She tossed and turned in bed. Ye Zhifan was a light sleeper too so he woke up.

When he heard Ye Ying turning her body again, Ye Zhifan said in a low voice, "Yingying, you need to learn to keep calm and draw in your claws. You must secretly work hard and gain more knowledge and experience. Then at the right moment, you will amaze everyone."

"Father has said this multiple times but you don't seem to understand what I said." Yingying only met Ye Jian and didn't even talk to her. However, she lost her cool already.

Ye Zhifan remembered Ye Jian's performance in the morning. Her expression was indifferent. Even when she was talking to him, she maintained a gentle smile. Whether it was her expression or her tone, she was calm. She seemed to have forgotten about what happened in the past.

He had to admit that Ye Jian was better than his daughter. There was no way he could deny it.

His niece, who used to seek a living under their roof, used to be a timid and indecisive person who always listened to Yingying. When did she become such a powerful figure? Even he had to bow down to her sometimes.

She was not someone who attacked people voluntarily. However, if anyone provoked her, she would retaliate instantly and show people that she was not someone easy to bully.

Luckily, she didn't offend people actively. If not, Yingying might not be able to go back to school anymore.

“Ye Ying, you have to admit that she is better than you. Also, you have to admit that you can’t win against her now. She received an international award and persuaded a Chinese businessman to set up the ‘Outstanding Student Scholarship’. Yingying, touch your heart and ask yourself. If you went overseas for the competition, will you be able to achieve what she did?”

Chapter 250: Impending Danger

“Will you be able to let the Chinese businessman open his wallet willingly to help the country? No, you don’t have that ability. No matter how jealous you are of Ye Jian, you have to bear with it because you are really not Ye Jian’s match.”

Ye Zhifan was a qualified father. He taught his daughter how to plan her path and gain people’s liking.

The bad thing was, Sun Dongqing’s personality and actions more or less affected Ye Ying.

However, it was not too late now.

The only unfortunate thing was, Ye Zhifan only taught his daughter how to scheme against people. He didn’t teach her how to become a good person, a dignified and good person.

Not everything in this world can be achieved through scheming.

Ye Ying didn’t say anything. She listened to her father quietly.

She seemed to be listening attentively but in actual fact... She was biting her lower lips forcefully. Blood was seeping out of her lips.

She would rather die than admit that she was worse than Ye Jian.

As she thought about this, she slowly fell asleep. She had many dreams. She dreamt that she was in school. Then, she dreamt that she was at home. After some time, she dreamt that she was on board a train.

Now, she was the one that was uncomfortable, not Ye Jian. Their roles were changed.

At around 1 am, the train started to slow down. The train was letting another train pass through the tracks first.

The middle-aged woman sleeping below Ye Jian opened her eyes. Her husband and she took turns sleeping. When she noticed that the train slowed down, she felt for her black little bag under her pillow and listened to her surroundings carefully.

Ye Jian didn’t manage to enter deep sleep. On a train, she wasn’t able to sleep properly even if she got a sleeping berth.

She climbed down from her sleeping berth and wore her shoes. She paused for a moment and looked up at the woman who was staring at her intently. She smiled and said, “Aunt, you don’t have to be so nervous. The more nervous you are, the more likely something will happen. Relax a little. It's good for you."

Weird. Even a businessman who had a huge sum of money on him would not be so agitated, right?

She just came down to wear her shoes so that she could go to the bathroom. Yet, the middle-aged woman was looking at her and preparing to strike at her if she did anything.

Ye Jian didn't feel like sleeping anymore. She climbed to her berth and took out her toothbrush, toothpaste, cup, and towel. Then, she came down and went to the bathroom.

The bathroom was at the front of the carriage. As the train swayed from side to side, Ye Jian walked to the bathroom. When she passed berth number 5, she secretly slowed down.

Through the dim light in the aisle, she saw the fat man sitting on his bed from the corner of her eyes. Two more people were sitting opposite him too. She pursed her lips and walked past them naturally.

When she walked past a few more berths, she saw numerous people sitting up silently. Her heart lifted up. She felt a sense of impending danger.

She brushed her teeth and washed her face. Then, she walked back. The passengers that were sitting up just now had laid back down. She walked quickly and went back to her bed.
