

Chapter 381: Finally

“She left long ago. You’re lucky that you met her. She’s a responsible young lady. She accompanied you for forty minutes in the hot afternoon.” Principal Cao saw his tie and knew that he hurried over from work. “Come in and have a seat to cool down. I’ll arrange for a car. Let’s go out to have lunch.”

“What plans do you have in the afternoon? If you have nothing, you can rest in your hotel. You can go out and play too but you must bring people along with you.”

Qin Xiu retracted his gaze and started chatting with his uncle. “I’ll take notice of it. I want to walk around your school in the afternoon. Your school is a hundred-year-old school. I can rest if I get tired. As long as I don’t go out of the school, you don’t have to worry about me.”

Besides his sense of direction, Principal Cao wasn’t worried about anything else. “Okay. The school just opened today so I have many things to settle. You can take a look around the school. When is your flight? Are you going back to the capital?”

“The day after tomorrow. I won’t be going back to the capital city. I’ll go to Germany with the representative team for work.” As a worker of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Qin Xiu didn’t spend much time in China. Most of the time, he was on a plane or he was overseas.

Ye Jian pushed the door and entered the teachers’ office. The cold air inside cooled her down.

“Have a seat here. This is Mrs. Zhu’s office table.” Mrs. Tong waved at her and asked her to take a seat at the desk beside her. She pointed to the file and then looked at the time. She smiled kindly. “The list is here. Take a look at it yourself. I have some things to settle so we’ll go to the cafeteria at 12.30 pm. Is that okay?”

Ye Jian smiled and nodded. “Okay. Please continue with your work. There’s no need to worry about me.”

Teachers were often busy on the first day of school. Only Mrs. Tong didn’t leave for lunch in the entire office. Ye Jian took the file from the pile of documents and looked at it carefully.

The first few papers were from the outstanding students. When she flipped to the 15th page, Ye Ying’s picture entered her eyes.

Not bad. She got fairer and her words had become prettier.

She looked at Ye Ying’s specialty. Dance, English... Ye Jian smiled.

It looked like Ye Ying had spent much effort on her English.

She wasn't shocked. In her past life, Ye Ying was good in English too after she came back from studying overseas.

She didn't know if Ye Ying knew English when she was in senior high. After all, she never studied after she graduated from junior high.

She sat at Mrs. Zhu's desk and flipped through the file. She scanned through the names and the pictures. Within ten minutes, she finished looking through the file and had remembered all the names of the 60 students.

As expected of a hundred-year-old school. Class One was filled with elite students.

However, some students' didn't have extremely good results. This was reasonable. The school couldn't let all the good students in the second year of senior high be in one class. Class One just had better results overall.

After Mrs. Tong finished all her matters, she looked up and saw Ye Jian reading through the math textbook.

She looked at the file that was in its original spot. She looked at the quiet student who was looking at the math textbook and smiled. "Why are you looking at the textbook? Have you seen the students' list? There are photos inside. You can get to know your classmates first."

She thought that Ye Jian didn't look at the list.

"I've finished looking at the list. You were busy with work so I didn't want to interrupt you. I took Mrs. Zhu's textbook to take a look." Ye Ying closed the textbook in her hand. She didn't tell Mrs. Tong about her relationship with Ye Ying.

Chapter 382: This Is A Senior High Where You Can Be Wilful

While she was working, Mrs. Tong would wear a simple pair of glasses that were attached to a black string. She took off her glasses and smiled at Ye Jian. "It looks like you hid some of your potentials during the training last year. Ye Jian, you know how to keep a low profile. That's a rare thing."

She managed to remember 60 students within such a short time. This wasn't something a normal person could do. At least she never met any student who could do it after so many years of teaching.

Also, she was curious about how this 16-year-old girl was able to remain calm and know how to keep a low profile.

Ye Jian never mentioned her family much. After Mrs. Tong asked her about it, she took out her registration form and pointed to the column about her parents. "I'm different from the other students. I need to protect myself carefully."

"Sometimes, keeping a low profile doesn't mean that you're weak. It's a form of protection too. Also, I'm able to be on friendly terms with my classmates if I maintain a certain standard and not appear too outstanding."

This was her understanding of survival and communication with other people after living two lives.

When interacting with other students, it was better to hide your true potential. This was a place where comparison occurred all the time.

Mrs. Tong was speechless for a moment. She sighed after a while. “Ye Jian, I just want to say that I have no regrets as a teacher after meeting a student like you.”

“However, you must remember that the fittest survive. This is one of the school values. The competition between the students starts the moment they enter school.”

“The same value applies to results. In Class One, results speak for themselves. People might be jealous because of your good results but on the other hand, they respect people with good results too.”

Mrs. Tong was a teacher who had a good teacher’s virtue. She didn’t hope that Ye Jian would hide her abilities to fit into the crowd. She didn’t need to keep a low profile at such a young age.

As a young person, she should live more wilfully.

If she was so cautious in school, she would be even more cautious when she stepped into society.

“It’s alright to be cautious in society but a school is a different place. This is a place where students should be happy. Why should you be careful? The greater your ability, the bigger your stage. Ye Jian, remember what I said today. Provincial No.1 Middle School is a huge stage. Students can do whatever they want here. You don’t have to hide your ability. You study well because you have the capability to do it. Why will the students talk badly about you?”

“Even if they do, you don’t have to take it to heart. There will be people jealous of a strong person. There will be people who respect him too.”

The two of them chatted for half an hour before leaving. Principal Chen and Uncle Gen taught Ye Jian to be independent. Mrs. Tong taught her to be strong but gentle.

She taught Ye Jian how to have a strong and gentle heart at the same time.

In the future, after Ye Jian climbed to the top of the military world with her own strength, Mrs. Tong was one of the people she thanked during an interview.

Chapter 383: I Miss You. What Should I Do?

After lunch, Mrs. Tong returned to her office while Ye Jian went to get her luggage from Principal Chen.

Principal Chen was busy with work. Besides the start of school, he was free most of the time.

He liked his job as a librarian. His body condition was not very good. In order to see how far the little girl he groomed could walk, he started to take care of his health.

There was a new batch of books which just arrived. There were all kinds of books. The resources of a hundred-year-old school were much better than the other schools. This could be seen from the books in the library.

Two hours later, Ye Jian left with her luggage after looking at many books.

It was 4 pm. The school was much quieter now. She walked on a stone pavement with huge camphor trees lining it. After turning left from Swan Lake and walking a few meters down, she would reach the female dormitory.

When she reached the Swan Lake, she saw a person sitting on the stone bench under the willow tree. He placed his arm on the back seat of the bench in a relaxed manner and was admiring the beautiful scenery of Swan Lake.

Ye Jian thought for a moment. She decided to walk over.

This was an old friend. If she evaded him, he would tease her the next time they meet.

“You didn’t evade me? Little Fox, I’m surprised.” It was as though Xia Jinyuan had eyes behind his back. Before Ye Jian got near, he had turned his head.

The golden sunlight shone through the willow tree and formed patches of light on his handsome face. It was hard to see his expression.

He saw Ye Jian carrying her luggage so he got up. “I need your help with a serious matter. Do you want to put your luggage on my car first or put them at your dormitory first?”

He was still smiling but the seriousness in his eyes proved to Ye Jian that he was indeed talking about something important.

“If you’re in a hurry, we can leave immediately. If not, I’ll put them in the dormitory first.” Ye Jian lifted her light luggage. There weren’t many things inside. She only brought a few clothes.

Xia Jinyuan had waited for around half an hour. He took the luggage which he had carried for many times today and smiled. “Bring them along then. You might be able to use them at night.”

“I’ll inform you first that we might not be able to go back to school tonight.”

Ye Jian didn’t mind camping outside. Even if she had to stay by the roadside or camp under the bridges, she wouldn’t complain.

When they returned to the car, Xia Jinyuan’s cell phone started vibrating. He glanced at Ye Jian before picking up the call. “Come over in 20 minutes. Book a hotel beforehand. If it’s too late, we’ll sleep at a hotel.”

Ye Jian didn’t ask him what happened. She was used to letting other people speak first.

The car stopped outside the police station. Before it was parked properly, two policemen in uniform ran over with a serious expression.

“The suspect has strong counter-reconnaissance capabilities and is brutal. He might have erased all his traces after committing his crime. All the cameras in the province have sent their images over. The images during the time of the crime are sent over too. We don’t have much time left, We need to find the suspect quickly.”

The moment they got down, one of the policemen instantly reported all their findings. Then other policemen led them to the surveillance camera control room.

“Get all the images of the location of the crime. Also, bring the images from the cameras at the two crossroads nearest to the location of the crime.” Xia Jinyuan started giving out orders. He told Ye Jian, You have a good memory and good distinguishing skills. I’ve prepared a pen and paper. If you discover anything, write it down.”

Chapter 384: Helping The Criminal Investigation Unit

“Our job is to help the Criminal Investigation Unit find pieces of evidence.” The iron lady asked for his help so even though he was on leave, he had to help.

Actually, it didn’t matter if Ye Jian came or not. He just wanted to see her.

Ye Jian looked at him many times. Why was a soldier from the Special Forces needed here?

“Someone asked for my help. I can’t reject the person.” He slowed down a little and bent down slightly. He whispered in her ear, “If I don’t ask for your help, how are we supposed to stay together tonight?”

...

Ye Jian realized that the seriousness in his eyes just now was fake. Before he arrived at the police station, he didn’t know what was happening too.

“Xia Jinyuan, can you be more serious?”

“You’re thinking too much again. What do you think we’re supposed to do tonight?” Xia Jinyuan smiled. He straightened his back and walked elegantly into the surveillance room.

“Come in. We only have five hours. We need to go to another place in five hours.”

He messed with her emotions and then calmed her down again by talking about the serious matter.

The change was so sudden that Ye Jian had to take a few deep breaths before she managed to calm down.

There were many surveillance cameras in the entire provincial city. Under Xia Jinyuan’s arrangements, Ye Jian threw away her emotions and started her work.

The door to the room was half-opened. A tall lady wearing a suit and pants stood outside the door and looked at the thin student.

This was the senior high student that Little Six asked me to take care of?

“Secretary Xia, please tell Leader Chang that our bureau will solve the case in three days.” An officer in uniform, who was the director of the public secretary officers, stood beside the lady and said seriously, “We won’t give the suspect any chance to leave the provincial city.”

The lady wore exquisite makeup and stood unperturbed even before the leaders of the bureau. She nodded and smiled, “Yes, I will definitely tell Leader Chang.”

This is a suspect that has committed many crimes. He is wanted by the entire country. After he came to the Southern Province, he committed another case again. If he isn’t caught, Leader Chang wouldn’t be able to sleep peacefully.

Even the capital city was alarmed by this case.

Little Six was here. He also asked for her help many times. Well, since you came, don’t think about leaving happily. You must help me solve this huge trouble first.

Wasn’t finding evidence his forte?

The question was, why did he bring a high school student along?

The lady frowned. She didn’t interrupt the two people working inside. She left quietly.

“Height 178 cm. Weight 75 kg. Short hair...” After four hours, Ye Jian drew an image of a man on the paper. The images on the six screens were all paused. They all showed a man’s legs or his back view or the blurred image of his face.

Xia Jinyuan leaned forward slightly. He told Ye Jian about the situation he understood from his side. “He might be short-sighted. He narrowed his eyes sometimes when he looked at things. He’s not used to wearing spectacles but he always has them with him. Hence, an imprint of a spectacle frame was left on one of the bloodstains.”

Chapter 385: The Girl That Made Him Proud

Their chairs got closer to each other. To make it easier for Ye Jian to draw, Xia Jinyuan left his seat and squatted beside Ye Jian. “He cut his hair after he came to the Southern Province. Draw two drawings of the man. One with his hair reaching his ears while the other with a bob hairstyle.”

“Okay.” Ye Jian agreed with what he said. The first image on the screen was a man with slightly longer hair while on the fifth screen, the man had bob hair.

She sat in the middle with many policemen watching her as she drew. As she described the man, a thin man with skinny features appeared on the paper.

Xia Jinyuan took the drawing and said in a low voice, "This is not 100% similar but it's more than 90% accurate. The suspect might not admit to his crimes but we have to catch him first."

He gave the picture to the policemen. Ye Jian started drawing a full-body image of the suspect. She showed his height and body structure.

A policeman left with the drawing of the suspect's face. The other people held their breaths as they looked at the high school student whose drawing skill was on par with the professional police.

From the moment she started drawing, she never stopped. It was as though she had seen the person before.

The drawing of the face was sent to the respective departments to see if there were any similar looking people. After Ye Jian finished drawing the full-body image of the man, the policeman that was waiting for the results of the matching results dashed into the room like a gust of wind. "They found it!"

This meant that Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan's work was done.

They were only required to provide some evidence for the police. Many people appeared in the cameras. It was hard to find a suspect among so many images from the surveillance cameras in the provincial city.

The two of them took slightly more than four hours to find the suspect. This was a great help to the police. Leader Chang heaved a sigh of relief.

"Little Xia, call your brother over for a meal." Leader Chang knew Commander Xia and he met Xia Jinyuan a few times too. Since he helped him with such a huge matter, it was reasonable for him to treat him to a meal to express his thanks.

As the secretary of the leader, she had to deal with many things. Even a small matter like a meal needed careful planning. However, this time, there was no need for it.

"You're too kind. He brought a friend over so he's probably sending his friend home."

Leader Chang thought that it was some friend from the Xia family so he smiled and replied, "Fine. Ask the police to hurry with the case. They must solve it within 48 hours. We can't let another crime happen in my province!"

Can they solve the case in 48 hours? Ye Jian hoped that the police can catch the suspect as soon as possible.

After leaving the police station, the lights on the streets had lit up. It was almost 10 pm now. Ye Jian looked at the man who seemed to be in a hurry. "Captain Xia, it's still early. There's no need to go to the hotel."

“Yes.” The moonlight shone on Xia Jinyuan. Xia Jinyuan smiled. The reflection of the moon could be seen in his eyes. It glittered when he smiled. He seemed more mesmerizing than he was in the day.” Why are you stepping back? Will the hotel follow you when you step back?”

Ye Jian rubbed her head as though it was hurting. She said helplessly, “Captain Xia, I don’t have the time to joke with you. It’s 10 pm now. I need to go back to the dormitory. I still have lessons tomorrow. Did you forget that I’m a student? The pressure in high school is great. I can’t lose my focus.”

Chapter 386: Why Do You Treat Me So Well

Even when she was feeling helpless, there was a sly look on her face. She seemed to be yielding to him but she knew what she wanted.

Xia Jinyuan took two steps back and stood in front of her. His tall figure blocked the moonlight. Ye Jian was covered entirely by his shadow.

Under the faint moonlight and the lights from the lamps, he raised his hand and patted her head lightly. He said gently, “You don’t want to stay in school during the weekend, right? Do you want a place that you can train at?”

“I’ll give you ten seconds to decide if you want to follow me.” He looked at her. Even in the dark, he was able to find her face easily.

Ye Jian sighed lightly. She smiled. “I can’t reject your offer. I don’t need ten seconds. One second is enough. I’ll follow you. Lead the way, Captain Xia.”

His gaze was gentle and deep. Ye Jian didn’t think that she had any reason to reject him.

It was past 10 pm but the city was still busy. Their car left the police station and drove in another direction. Xia Jinyuan said as he was driving, “You can go to the military district in the provincial city during the weekends. I’ll ask someone to look after you. I’ll bring you over to meet some people and then get you a pass.”

“You can go there after your school ends on Friday and come back on Sunday afternoon. The military district here is not as big as the one in Fujun Town but believe me, there’s no lack of top soldiers.”

Since she was destined to enter the military, why not let her get used to the environment first.

Also, he could tell that she didn’t like to depend on other people.

Hence, he would give her the chance to open her own network using her own capability.

If he wanted to succeed in wooing this sly little fox, he must put in a lot of effort.

Ye Jian tilted her body and looked intently at the man who helped her so much. She stared at his handsome face. She wanted to ask him why he treated her so well but the words got stuck in her throat.

The words felt like thorns. They seemed to be able to cut her throat if she said it out.

She didn’t want to accept his goodwill.

She had nothing to repay him.

“Do you want to sleep?” Xia Jinyuan had been looking at her from the corner of his eyes. “What are you thinking? Do you have any questions?”

“Oh, are you thinking why I’m bringing you to the military district?”

Ye Jian clenched her fist tightly. Her heart pounded furiously. She looked calm but she was all tensed up.

Please don’t say anything that would give me a headache.

Xia Jinyuan glanced at her a few times. He noticed her nervousness so he smiled and explained, “Before I came, I called Uncle Gen. He asked me for help to see if I can bring you to the provincial military district.”

“I won’t reject such small matters. You’re a talented person. Even the regimental commander and the political commissar in the military unit recognized you. Even if I don’t bring you to the provincial military unit, the regimental commander and the political commissar will do it.”

Ye Jian relaxed after hearing what he said. She heaved a sigh of relief secretly. So this was what happened.

Outside the car window, the lights from the lamps flashed past. He saw her expression relaxing instantly.

She was still a young lady. She was smart but she was still young.

He just moved a little and she got so nervous. She seemed afraid that he would say something which she couldn’t promise him now.

Chapter 387: Not Easily Bullied

“... Grandpa Gen is worried that I can’t take care of myself. He is an old person so he worries too much. Captain Xia, sorry to cause you trouble.” Since Xia Jinyuan didn’t say anything ambiguous, Ye Jian relaxed and smiled brightly. “If you need my help next time, I’ll definitely help. Just like today, I’m willing to help you.”

She always believed whatever he said without any questions. Xia Jinyuan gave a gentle smile. This was his only gentleness as a soldier. “Stupid girl, if I ask you to come hell or high water, will you do it too?”

“Of course!” Ye Jian replied without thinking. Her expression was serious too. “I believe Captain Xia. Even if you ask me to come hell or high water, you and your comrades will be the ones who will rush in first.”

She was so confident in him. She didn’t compliment him but when Xia Jinyuan saw her shining eyes, he felt his heart palpitating faster.

After some time, he smiled lightly and sighed, “You’re really a stupid girl.”

He focused on driving so he stopped glancing at her. Ye Jian didn't look at him again too. She was afraid that she would get used to the care he had for her. The kind of care and concern that he had only for her.

Stupid girl, you trust me so much. I'm the person you trust the most. How can I bear to let you go?

Even if I have to wait, I'm willing to do it.

Ye Jian didn't go back to school that day. When she came out of the provincial military district, it was already midnight. She went to stay at the nearest hotel.

The receptionist at the hotel kept looking at them. It was abnormal for an adult to bring a young girl to a hotel in the middle of the night.

The receptionist blinked and then scanned Ye Jian coldly. When she saw Xia Jinyuan, she got excited. She said sweetly, "Mister, hello. I'm..."

"I'm not interested in who you are. I know that you're the receptionist of the hotel." How dare this lady look at his little fox like this. She was looking for a beating. Xia Jinyuan glared at the receptionist. The receptionist's face turned pale when she sensed the mighty aura and the cold tone.

He looked at the available rooms and said, "Two luxury suites. My sister likes to keep things clean. I'll give you ten minutes to make sure that the rooms are clean."

Ye Jian pulled his sleeve to show that he didn't need to do this.

Many people liked to judge other people. She had experienced this too much. Hence, she didn't take it to heart.

She only cared about the opinions of the people closest to her. As for those unimportant people, they had nothing to do with her.

However, she had something to say.

She glared at the receptionist coldly. She took the two room cards that the receptionist was holding with shaky hands. She smiled slightly and said softly, "Miss Liu Zhen, you went to Huajun Hotel with a man less than 1.6 meters in height two weeks ago. After you left the hotel the next day, you went to Anxi Teahouse with another fat man in the evening. Then, you changed another man again."

The moment she said the first sentence, the receptionist's knees started giving way. But the time Ye Jian told her that she went to a hotel with a man two weeks ago, her face had turned pale. She leaned her body on the marbled counter.

Chapter 388: Do You Want To Sleep Together

This was not all. Ye Jian said in the end, "I have to tell you that the man who went to Huajun Hotel with you went to the hospital yesterday. He didn't look good. There might be something wrong with his health. Miss Liu Zhen, I suggest that you go to the hospital for a check-up too."

By the time Ye Jian finished speaking, the receptionist had fallen onto the floor.

The other receptionist beside her didn't know what happened. She hurriedly came over and apologized to Ye Jian. Then, she called for the security officer.

Ye Jian spoke in a voice only the two of them could hear. She didn't embarrass the receptionist further.

After they entered the lift, Xia Jinyuan laughed softly. "You really don't like to suffer any losses. No wonder Uncle Chen let you come out alone."

"Even if I have to take a beating, it depends on what the beating is. I'm just reminding the receptionist that she shouldn't think about all these unhealthy things all the time. Does she think that everyone is like her?" Ye Jian blinked playfully. She smiled. "Also, I'm reminding her out of goodwill."

Reminding her out of goodwill? It was more like scaring the receptionist.

Xia Jinyuan pressed the level they were staying at. He pretended to sigh and said, "You managed to find the person among all the images you saw in the surveillance cameras. Little Fox, looks like I must be careful around you next time."

She only came to the provincial city today. That meant that the only way she knew where the receptionist went two weeks ago was through the images on the surveillance cameras.

Her memory was amazing and she could remember many things. Would the military allow her to be a normal soldier?

Obviously, that was impossible.

The military would want to know about her whereabouts all the time. Just like how they never touched her again after confirming her identity in the desert.

As for Ye Jian, her instincts told her that she mustn't continue the conversation. Xia Jinyuan's words were ambiguous.

She lowered her head and pretended to yawn. She looked tired and said, "So sleepy. I want to sleep soon." The lift door opened. She slid out of the lift in an agile manner.

"So sleepy? Do you want to drink a cup of coffee to wake yourself up? Or we can have a heart to heart chat in our rooms." Xia Jinyuan smiled as he walked out of the lift elegantly. His voice was lazy and enchanting. "My room is just beside yours. If you want to chat, you're welcome anytime."

Ye Jian hastened her pace. She dashed into her room and swiped the card on the door. Then, she closed the door with a bang. The dangerous man is being bad again!

She patted her chest lightly. Then, she slapped her forehead. She didn't even bid him goodnight!

She calmed down and opened the door again. "Xia... Ah!"

The moment she opened the door, she saw a black shadow in front. She screamed in surprise and aimed her fist at the person's jaw instinctively.

“Did you specially open the door to hit me?” The black figure was Xia Jinyuan. He reacted faster than Ye Jian and managed to evade her fist.

He smiled at her. “I just came to say goodnight and I almost got hit.”

It was in the middle of the night. In front of such a dangerous man, Ye Jian stopped in her tracks and said awkwardly, “I’m sorry! Captain Xia, I acted instinctively. I didn’t do it on purpose. Goodnight, see you tomorrow.”

Chapter 389: Angry Little Fox

The door closed once again. She seemed to be running away from the teasing of a gangster.

Outside the door, Xia Jinyuan rubbed his eyebrows with his slender fingers. He looked helpless but his eyes were no longer as cold and distant as before. They were filled with gentleness.

He smiled slightly and muttered to himself, “Stupid girl, if I want to enter, this door won’t be able to stop me.”

He was just teasing her.

He remembered what happened at the reception desk. His gaze turned cold again.

Even a receptionist has different thoughts about the relationship between them. Other people might think the same way too. Rumors about them might even spread.

It looked like Little Fox made the right decision to keep a distance from him.

His leave was ending so he wouldn’t be able to hear all these rumors.

However, Little Fox was different. She was going to stay here for two years. If he appeared occasionally and acted like this all the time, she would be the one handling all the rumors after he leaves.

He wanted to interact intimately with Little Fox but he didn’t consider the trouble his actions might cause to Little Fox’s life.

The sound of water splashing in the bathroom stopped after a while.

The door opened. A pair of muscular legs stepped out. Then, a white flash of light was seen. A white towel covered up Xia Jinyuan’s waist and below.

His cell phone at the head of his bed had rung many times. He took another towel and wiped his wet hair. Then, he wore his slippers and walked over to his bed.

A soldier who just came out of a bath was sexy. The defined lines on his body seemed to be the work of God. They were perfect. Every part of his body was mesmerizing.

When he sat down, the abs on his abdomen showed off how strong he was.

“You haven’t slept?” His voice was low. It sounded lazy and elegant as though he was seducing a lady from the village. “You’re not sleeping but I want to sleep.”

“If there’s an adult female next to you, can you sleep?” A lady’s voice was heard. She was Xia Jinyuan’s cousin, the secretary of the provincial leader, the iron lady.

Xia Jinyuan scoffed and replied lazily, “Xia Yiwei, you went to the police station despite how busy you are and then rushed back immediately. You’re really busy.”

How could he not notice someone sizing up his Little Fox so blatantly?

“No matter how busy I am, I’m curious about the underaged lady that had all your attention.” Xia Yiwei placed her feet on the study table. There was a cigarette between her fingers. She was halfway through her cigarette.

Xia Jinyuan understood what she was trying to say. He smiled and said softly, “I’m just protecting an underaged lady now. I’m not so hungry. I won’t have an unhealthy relationship with an underaged girl.”

“Oh, I see. I’ll hang up now. Goodbye.”

She hung up really quickly. She felt at ease that he understood what she meant.

Xia Jinyuan knew his boundaries. If he said he didn’t do it, it meant that he didn’t.

She didn’t know that even if Xia Jinyuan had the intention, he had to see if Ye Jian wanted to do it first.

At 6 am the next morning, Ye Jian hurried to school. When Xia Jinyuan drove his car, his right hand kept gripping around the handbrake.

He said that he would get some interest back from her but after thinking about it the entire night yesterday, he decided to hold himself back. She still had lessons to attend.

Chapter 390: I Kissed You

“Captain Xia, I’m leaving. Goodbye.” When she heard the car door unlocking, Ye Jian immediately opened the door. The moment she tilted her body, her wrist was grabbed.

She turned and looked at her wrist while frowning. “Captain Xia, why are you...”

Something black appeared in front of her eyes. Ye Jian felt the refreshing smell of mint coming closer and closer.

It was like the apple in Eve’s hand. She was unable to reject the temptation.

Something cold landed on her forehead. The cold lips turned warm after a moment.

The lips stayed for a long time on her forehead. So long that her skin seemed to be scalded.

“Okay, you can go down.” Xia Jinyuan saw her tense expression. He went back to his seat. He noticed that she wasn’t rejecting his kiss. She just seemed lost.

He felt warm in his heart. "This is my interest. I came back to get my interest, Little Fox."

He went all the way to the desert to chase after her. However, he still missed her. He needed to get some interest.

Ye Jian almost fled.

She grabbed her luggage and dashed into the school. She only stopped after entering the school gate.

She turned and saw the car which hasn't left as well as the man that had come down. Her forehead was slightly hot. She pursed her lips stubbornly. She wanted to say something but in the end, she just turned and entered the school.

Xia Jinyuan smiled lightly. He watched Little Fox as she entered the school and disappeared from his sight. He blinked. He got into the car and left with a good mood.

At first, he wanted to take her first kiss. However, he decided to take a step back and give her a peck on her forehead instead. The results were surprisingly good.

It was good that she didn't resist. It was normal that she would feel lost too.

His little fox never had any experience with relationships. Well, he didn't have any experience too. He just went with his feelings.

At 6 am in the morning, only the students who were exercising had arrived in school. Ye Jian was afraid that her roommates hadn't woken up so she went to the teachers' office to wait for Mrs. Tong before going to the classroom with her.

Within half an hour, Mrs. Tong came with Mrs. Zhu. They seemed to be discussing something. Ye Jian waited for them to walk closer before greeting them.

"So early? Did you have a good rest today?" Mrs. Tong knew what Ye Jian went to do yesterday. She hurriedly took out her key and opened the office door.

Mrs. Zhu said seriously, "There's a test this morning. You must display your ability properly. I'll release the results in the afternoon."

This was a normal thing. On the first day of school, Provincial No.1 Middle School would have a test to remind students that the holidays are over. They should get serious now.

Mrs. Tong smiled and turned. "Mrs. Zhu, don't scare students with your stern face." Then, she said to Ye Jian, "There's no need to leave your luggage in your dormitory. We'll go to your class together after morning self-study."

Mrs. Zhu looked at the calm Ye Jian. She rarely smiled in front of students but this time, she did. "This is a bold student. She managed to defeat all the competitors from the other countries. Why will she be scared of a test? Mrs. Tong, let's change classes today. I'll give an exam during the first two lessons so that they can wake up faster."

Ye Jian heard the two teachers planning how to wake their students up quickly so she took out a new textbook and started looking through it.
