

Chapter 621: Why So Agitated?

“Why am I so agitated now? Like we’re going to do something bad.” An Jiaxin followed closely behind Ye Jian. Her eyes were shining brightly. “We’ve been locked in here for five days. We can finally go out and enjoy the breeze.”

Ye Jian looked at this excited friend of hers and smiled slightly, “Continue being happy for now while you can, I’ll see if you can smile later.”

“Don’t scare me, I haven’t had my breakfast.” An Jiaxin flinched and became a little nervous, “I thought it was quite fun, now that you’ve said this, I’m nervous now.”

They would only get breakfast after five kilometers. Ye Jian followed the group and whispered, “Don’t be nervous, there’s still me. Follow me closely, don’t run off alone. Ye Ying was the last one to return yesterday, we need to be careful today.”

“That jerk!” An Jiaxin gritted her teeth and stared at Ye Ying’s back. She squinted her eyes slightly and whispered back, “How about we teach her a lesson?”

The class behind had already started to move. Ye Jian held her and sped up for a few steps. She then laughed indifferently, “What’s the rush? She got the short end of the stick yesterday. Even if there was any movement, she wouldn’t do it herself. It’s not like we don’t know her. Don’t be anxious. I’m just reminding you.”

She struck yesterday. It wasn’t like Ye Ying if she struck again today.

“Follow closely and talk less. Don’t spend all your energy on talking!” The instructor kept reminding the students passing by in front of him, and the two girls immediately kept quiet.

Breakfast was only available after five kilometers, and the gusto they had slowly disappeared. They haven’t even made it through half of the distance and there were students already starting to slow down. Some even yelled that they were hungry.

Classmates from different dormitories were walking together, encouraging each other as they marched. If they couldn’t move, they leaned on each other. They couldn’t just leave their classmates behind.

Li Qian was fat but weak. If it wasn’t for Ye Jian carrying her, no one would be able to move her.

A few boys offered their help, but Li Qian was shy. When the boys went close to her, her face would turn as red as a tomato. She wouldn’t let the boys help her. She was stopping from time to time, and no one knew if she could finish the twenty kilometers.

Twenty kilometers of route march was a challenge for the students, but to the school and the military unit, it wasn’t. That was why the military unit had prepared for this and had set up a logistics station every five kilometers for food and water.

Medical work was also done very well. There was medical staff attached throughout the whole process.

The five-day military training had allowed the instructors to have a better understanding of the physical fitness of the students. They had already told those who were better to take good care of those who were weaker.

Walking five kilometers in the morning was within the students' tolerance. Seeing that the morale was gradually falling, Class One took the lead and broke out in military cadence after they passed through the forest.

Instantly, Ye Jian could feel that the small wild animals in a four-mile radius were scared away.

It wasn't a flat mountain road, but one full of bends. It wasn't a cement path, but a dirt road. People in front would leave behind a layer of yellow dust as they moved in front.

The morning in the mountains seemed to come earlier because of the thousands of students. When they had completed their five kilometers, it was already bright.

Chapter 622: Scared To Death

Breakfast was the usual – steamed bun with soy milk. There was no way you could be picky.”

“All of you get up, no squatting down! Walk around first before sitting down! Don't stand up too quickly, be careful not to faint!” The instructor wasn't eating and reminded the students who were collecting their breakfast, “Stand for awhile first before sitting down slowly to eat! Don't walk around, there are wild boars here. If you get impaled by the boar's tusk, you'll die before you even get down the mountain!”

As the instructor reminded them, Luo Ran turned to two boys, “Have you got the bags? I'll leave it to you guys later!”

“Luo Ran, it doesn't just appear out of nowhere. You said that there were many poisonous snakes nearby. If they were really poisonous, we would already have been scared away.” Another boy drank his soy milk in one breath and said, “Luo Ran, I feel this isn't very reliable. Even if there were snakes, we might not be able to catch one.”

Hearing that, Luo Ran glared at him and lambasted, “Fk! Why didn't you say it last night then? Stop saying all this! This must be done!”

“Brother Luo, you must first have a snake!”

“I tried looking out for one but to no avail! I even made excuses to go into the woods to pee and I didn't see any.” Another boy continued. They thought that it was a simple plan. Who knew it was so difficult!

Luo Ran was enraged and his face went dark as he glared at the three of them. He then threw the plastic cup for soy milk on the ground, “Fine, let's not bring up this for now. Better do the other thing well!”

Pieces of trash! They're all useless!

It wasn't easy to catch a snake. The military unit had already thought about this problem. There was no way students were going to find one.

After breakfast, it was time for the next five kilometers of route march. The first course they encountered was 'Air Defense Evacuation'.

There were fixed areas and no students can run away from them. Whoever did that would trigger the red alert and would be brought back to where they came from by soldiers.

"I'm scared to death! A soldier suddenly appeared with camouflage cream on his face and leaves on his head. I almost thought I saw a mandrill." A student who didn't listen to the instructions ran towards the forest and scared himself.

The mountain was a military area. For the purpose of this military training, they had invested a lot of effort. They would never allow the students to mess around.

The emergency and evacuation plans were set in place, and the evacuation route was also scientifically designed. Although they were carrying out air defense evacuation in the mountains, the military unit's emergency handling capacity had always been strong and these thousands of students were under the range of the surveillance cameras.

Yao Jing personally saw her classmates being sent back by a soldier and lost her confidence with her idea last night.

Snake? Where can we find a snake in this situation?!

Ye Ying was also complaining in her heart!

There was a gathering place for the air defense evacuation, and the team leader would bring the students back. As for Ye Jian, because she didn't participate in the military training before, she became a non-team member and assisted the instructor in handling some things.

After a round of exercises, she returned to the instructors who were responsible for receiving the students.

Chapter 623: Snake Meat Is Tasty When Eaten Raw

All the instructors treated Ye Jian like their own comrades after what happened yesterday. There was no distance between them.

"Come, before they come back, let's have some snacks." A soldier came from behind them. He didn't notice that there was a student among the instructors. He even stood beside Ye Jian and said, "I found something good. Do you want to have a taste of it?"

Found something good?

Ye Jian turned around. She saw a soldier around twenty-years-old. He was one of the soldiers that were secretly protecting the students along the journey. There was a non-poisonous snake in his hand.

The snake twirled around his arm. Ye Jian estimated that it was around one meter in length. The soldier grabbed it by its throat. The snake's mouth was wide open. It looked scary but it was quite harmless.

The instructors kept winking at their comrade to remind him that there was a student here.

The soldier didn't see their winks. He sat down excitedly beside Ye Jian.

When he finally noticed Ye Jian, he was shocked. "When did we have such a pretty female soldier? Even the office staffs are males. Where did she come from?"

Ye Jian had the aura of a soldier so the young man didn't suspect her identity.

"You're so talkative!" The instructor closest to him reminded him awkwardly, "This is a student. Take note of your actions."

The soldier holding the snake felt embarrassed. This snake... it seemed like they couldn't eat it.

Just as he was about to release it, Ye Jian grabbed the snake by the throat and said, "Mole snake, its meat is tender and it is non-poisonous. It's a good thing." When she walked through the forest in the Western Province with Principal Chen last time, this was what she ate the most.

When Ye Ying came over with two soldiers, she saw Ye Jian stabbing a dagger on a piece of wood. Then, she saw the long snake beneath the dagger.

Before she could react, she saw Ye Jian taking another dagger from an instructor and slitting the back of the snake.

Ye Ying felt a chill down her spine. Ye Jian was skinning a snake alive.

She felt her stomach churning. She vomited before she could find a decent spot.

To think that Yao Jing was planning to scare Ye Jian with a few snakes!

For the first time, Ye Ying wanted to stay as far away from Ye Jian as possible. Why did this happen? Why did she fail all the time? This time, she hadn't even started her plan but she could already predict her failure.

Ye Jian glanced at her once and then ignored her. After cutting the snake, she placed it on some clean leaves and passed it to the instructors. "The female student got scared by the snake. We should finish this quickly."

There was something weird about Ye Ying's gaze. When she got frightened, she didn't look away immediately. Instead, she seemed frustrated. Was it because she didn't manage to carry out her plan?

Chapter 624: Faint From Anger

If that was the case, Ye Jian was prepared to welcome any tricks.

She would make sure everyone who tried to harm her would get punished.

Ye Jian would never think that someone wanted to scare her with snakes. When the male students arrived, Ye Jian stood up and left the instructors.

The first team that came back was Yang Heng's team. He wasn't surprised when he saw Ye Jian.

"I guessed that you'll be the first." He didn't notice Ye Ying who was resting at the side. He walked straight to Ye Jian and continued, "We practiced all the exercises and only came back once we confirmed that we've passed. I'm getting the vibes of a real military unit."

Ye Jian saw the leaves in Yang Heng's hair. She smiled and replied, "Of course, there's 'Quick Pass' later. How confident are you?"

Quick Pass helped to train the agility and reaction of the students. The results of the male students would be recorded and used as a reference if they decided to apply for the army in the future.

The military training wasn't just training for students. The military used this opportunity to inspect the students too.

People like Luo Ran would never be able to enter the military.

The military would also take extra notice of people like Yang Heng.

"I grew up in the Transportation Bureau. I've never been in touch with the military. I'm confident if you ask me to guide the traffic but I'm not sure how well I can do in the military unit." Yang Heng smiled. There were no signs of tiredness on his face. This proved that his stamina was good.

Ye Ying finally managed to catch her breath after vomiting for a long time. The first thing she saw after she regained her senses was Yang Heng and Ye Jian chatting happily. She could tell that their relationship was good.

She took a while to recover from her astonishment. This time, she can finally let go. Yao Jing would take care of Ye Jian.

Yang Heng stood up and walked away as though he didn't know Ye Jian. It seemed as if Ye Ying had seen an illusion just now.

Yang Heng only noticed Ye Ying after Ye Jian reminded him. Thus, he pretended that he didn't know Ye Jian. He didn't want Yao Jing to harm Ye Jian because of him.

Ye Ying was confused.

In the meantime, Luo Ran found Yao Jing but he couldn't find Ye Jian. By the time he reached the gathering point, he had no energy left in him. He heard from his classmates that Ye Jian didn't participate in the 'Air Defense Evacuation' and almost fainted from anger.

He was looking for a chance to attack Ye Jian throughout the journey but in the end, she wasn't there.

One hour later, it was 'quick pass' training. Everyone's speed slowed down. It was actually a simple training. They just needed to crawl under some nets and passed through a few branches. Ye Jian felt that this was a child's play.

She didn't pass through the obstacles immediately. She allowed her classmates to pass through first. They were a team. She couldn't leave them behind.

Chapter 625: Luo Ran, I've Been Waiting For You

The ladies proceeded first while the men brought up the rear. They talked softly as they passed through the obstacles.

"Why are you gathering over there?" The instructor of Class One noticed that some male students were moving towards the more difficult obstacle path.

Ye Jian looked over too. Two male students had already entered the course so she couldn't see their faces. The other three male students were not from her class.

Why did other students come to her class? Ye Jian counted her classmates. Everyone was here.

"They're from another class. Instructor, do you want to contact the other instructors?" After her classmates had all entered the obstacle path, Ye Jian spoke to the instructor. "Their classmates might be looking for them."

The instructor replied, "Sure. Follow behind them. I'll contact my comrades."

Very soon, a voice sounded from the intercom. "Three students from Class Six and two students from Class Five are missing. Total of five missing students."

"There're five students here. Let me confirm their identity." The instructor knew that these were the five students. He noticed that Ye Jian had already caught up with her classmates so he contacted the soldiers who were protecting the students secretly and asked them to confirm the students' identity.

The obstacle course was more than three kilometers. By right, the students would take around 45 minutes to complete the course. The students had used up most of their energy during the missions before this so their speed got slower.

The soldiers guarding the students confirmed the identity of the five male students. The instructor heaved a sigh of relief. He had no choice but to let them complete the course with Class One.

Soon, the distance between the students got larger. Ye Jian looked at the male students that weren't from her class and caught up with An Jiaxin. "Move faster. Don't stay at the back. Luo Ran might be coming."

"..." An Jiaxin felt like cursing but she was too tired. She gathered some strength and scolded, "They're not students. They're gangsters!"

“Save your energy.” Ye Jian wasn’t worried about herself. She was more worried about An Jiaxin. She dragged An Jiaxin along as she tried to catch up with the other students in front.

Unfortunately, An Jiaxin didn’t have much energy left. She waved her hand and asked Ye Jian to leave first.

Ye Jian’s gaze darkened when she heard a slight noise from the hill in front. “Rest here. They should be in front now. I’ll ask the instructor to stop them.”

She will give them the chance to harm her!

“The instructor will be here soon. You can rest for a moment. I’ll leave first.” Ye Jian raised her voice so that Luo Ran who was in front could hear her. Then, she went to the other obstacle path. Only Lu Xin and a few other male students went on this path. This was the route Luo Ran and his friends took too.

Chapter 626: Wanting People’s Lives

It’s not difficult to deal with Luo Ran. Ye Jian just didn’t want to create any trouble in the military unit and affect her class’s grades because of her personal matters.

She was already avoiding them, but Luo Ran had to run into her!

Ye Jian, whose eyes were dim, naturally didn’t choose a random place to deal with Luo Ran. She didn’t have to avoid the infrared and surveillance cameras. The first thing she had to do was to pick the location, somewhere that could give her an advantage to deal with him. She needed the help of the surveillance cameras to prove that she was not dealing with Luo Ran, but saving them instead.

The province and the military unit had spent a lot of effort arranging this training. The twenty-kilometer route march was not a one-way journey to the end, but a detour. Their final assembly area was the chemical defense regiment’s shooting range.

The entire route was arranged scientifically and rigorously. The students would not walk an extra kilometer.

The three-kilometer expressway was a combination of a ‘Y’ and an inverted ‘Y’ section. Most students took the simplest expressway, while only a few took the path that Ye Jian took.

Ye Jian, who did not walk directly from the starting point, came up and started to find a place suitable for action.

Luo Ran saw Ye Jian coming up by herself and was overjoyed. He beckoned to a few boys around him and picked up the sticks that they have prepared beforehand and chased after Ye Jian who seemed lost and was slowing down.

Counting one, two, three silently in her head... After she couldn’t hear Lu Xin’s footsteps in the front and the other footsteps in the back, Ye Jian suddenly stopped, as if she was thinking about where she should go.

This place is good. There's surveillance cameras, camouflaged soldiers, and obstacles... The single wooden bridge had a safety net installed. It was a good place to deal with them. They wouldn't be able to climb up once they fell into the net. She could then 'accidentally' step on them and climb up the wooden bridge again.

Class One was the first to complete 'Quick Pass', and Ye Jian was the first to enter the training course with the wooden bridge.

Two camouflaged soldiers kept an eye on Ye Jian, ready to rescue her anytime as she walked on the wooden bridge, step by step. They then saw five students holding on to wooden sticks rushing up the bridge.

This was the twelve-kilometer mark. After passing the three-kilometer expressway, they were only left with a short route to return to the shooting range.

Luo Ran and the other boys were already exhausted from the twelve kilometers. They were catching their breath and restoring their energy when they saw Ye Jian stop. Who knew that she would suddenly move off after a minute.

"Ye Jian, I'll see where you can run to today!" Luo Ran couldn't bear it any longer. He took his stick and rushed up, staring fiercely at her back and roared. He raised the stick and smashed it towards Ye Jian's head.

He was only seventeen, but he was fierce and brutal, unlike the hooligans that had been around for a few years. He was worse than them!

The wooden stick went down with a huge smashing force. The other boys saw Luo Ran aiming for the girl's head and immediately threw their sticks away in shock.

They were all dazed and stepped back. Fk! This... this... How is this dealing with her? He's trying to kill her.

Chapter 627: Peed His Pants

Fighting, catching snakes to scare girls was acceptable. But they can't do it if it's killing people!

A soldier who disguised himself as if he was one with the tree saw that and the color of his face changed. A soldier with leaves on his head stood up and yelled at Ye Jian, "Get down, dodge!"

Get down, dodge... Ye Jian could certainly do all that, but she didn't want to dodge.

Otherwise, how could she deal with Luo Ran?

She was already standing on the wooden bridge. The back of her head seemed to have eyes as she made a move when the soldier yelled at her.

She turned her body sideways swiftly and grabbed the stick that was in his hand. She then took two steps and used her strength to pull Luo Ran close.

Luo Ran who grabbed the other end of the stick started to lose his balance as he was pulled towards her. He was stepping on the wooden bridge with one foot while the other foot was still on the ground.

“Where else can I run? Aren’t we having the route march now? Of course, I’ll be running towards the assembly point.” Ye Jian avoided the cameras smartly and spoke slowly with a voice as light as the morning breeze, “Luo Ran, be careful. Don’t let go of the stick.”

Her smile was even lighter than the wind. Her eyes became sharp and cold, like a sword. When she approached Luo Ran, there was an air of foreboding. “I’m not running anywhere today. I’ll play with you.”

Hearing that, his fierce facial features became savage and he roared louder, “I’ll kill you today!”

“Alright, I’m waiting!” Ye Jian smiled, and a flash of light gleamed in her eyes. Although she was smiling, she grabbed the stick and twisted it. Luo Ran’s arm was twisted until his muscles were deformed, catching him off guard as he screamed.

Luo Ran’s scream also surprised the soldiers who rushed out to rescue. They wouldn’t believe it if Ye Jian didn’t have any skills. The experts would know whether or not they were good. Her moves were fast and steady – a little skillful.

Luo Ran had originally thought that he could beat Ye Jian up and make her plead for her life. He didn’t know that he would be the one suffering in the end. His whole arm felt like it was going to be fractured. As he screamed, he released the stick and his facial features were distorted in pain.

It was just the start and he was already screaming. It looks like he is not all he’s cracked up to be.

Ye Jian smiled as her dark eyes grew cold. Before the soldiers even reached the safety net, Ye Jian had already completed her series of actions. She used her strength and threw Luo Ran down into the safety net.

Luo Ran didn’t know that he would land himself in this state without even hitting Ye Jian. He hadn’t finished screaming and in the next second, he had already fallen into the safety net. His back was already sweating.

When he was all focused on beating up Ye Jian, he didn’t see what was underneath his legs. Now that he was thrown into the safety net, he was in a daze.

Before he even reacted, he saw a black figure falling from the sky, smashing straight into him. Luo Ran, whose ferocity had already disappeared, was so shocked that he almost peed his pants.

He had always been ruthless when dealing with others, now that he was the target, he wanted to just avoid it as he saw the black figure descending onto him.

Chapter 628: A Bastard Like Luo Ran

Luo Ran panicked and tried to roll away, but his waist was hit hard by the stick in Ye Jian’s hand. The soldiers who rushed under the safety net heard the boy scream again.

Since she was going to deal with him, how could Ye Jian just let him run off? Ye Jian didn't show him any mercy as she 'fell' along with the stick in her hands. The stick in her hands struck Luo Ran's waist as she fell.

She still avoided his head and back. After all, they were in military training. If she really paralyzed him, the military unit would be unable to bear the consequences.

The two soldiers were already standing on top of the safety net and looking at the two students who fell down. They were not concerned about the boy who fell first, but the girl who was threatened by him.

"How are you? Relax, get up first."

They heard every word that the boy said. It was natural to save the girl first.

Ye Jian, who was still holding on to the stick, was lying on the net and replied, "I'm fine, I'm fine. When I fell, the stick seemed to have hit his waist. I'll go over and see if he's hurt."

The soldiers would not let Ye Jian go over. The boy was trying to harm her just now. Seeing that she was getting up and preparing to go over, the soldiers quickly stopped her, "Don't go over! Get up first!"

...

Standing up, Ye Jian shook her body,... and once again fell on the net. Her body was now planted beside Luo Ran.

"Stay away from him!" She was moving towards Luo Ran, and the soldiers were the ones who were worried, "Don't move, roll twice! Stay away from him!"

She wanted to spite Luo Ran. How could she roll off immediately?

Ye Jian smiled at Luo Ran and spoke softly, "I'm sorry, it was an accident again. A second accident. Brother Luo, I'm sorry."

Luo Ran was in so much pain, as though he had broken his wrist, and didn't pay much attention to Ye Jian. Groaning, when he heard Ye Jian say that, he realized that she did that deliberately!

For a guy like him to be bullied by a girl, he can't take it!

"You did this deliberately! Damn, if I don't kill you this time, my surname's not Luo!" Luo Ran felt that his face had been lost two times in a row. Thinking that the other four boys were watching this, the rage inside of him was burning so greatly that his eyes were red. Ruthless words came out of his mouth endlessly. He was so arrogant that he didn't respect the military unit at all.

Luo Ran was now like a mad wild dog. Seeing that Ye Jian was just next to his feet, he immediately straightened his feet and sent them flying towards Ye Jian, "I'll kill you! I'll just spend more money!"

"Fk you! You dare to oppose me? Killing you is as easy as killing an ant!"

Ye Jian was amused, "Try it and see if it's that easy." She was adding fuel to fire, and showing everyone that it had nothing to do with her.

As she triggered him, Luo Ran's ruthless words made the soldiers angry as they heard him. He wasn't a student, he was clearly a lawless hooligan! Just because he had a wealthy family, he thought that there was nothing he couldn't solve with money.

Seeing that the boy aimed his kick at her, the soldiers below yelled, "Cut the net, cut the net!"

Chapter 629: Should I Cripple You?

The sound traveled up and scared the four boys who didn't walk on the wooden bridge. Something had happened! Luo Ran was scared just now. Why was it that he's annoyed now and said that he would kill Ye Jian in front of the soldiers... The four of them looked at each other and panicked, "Quick, let's go take a look!"

Someone told them to go take a look and all of them ran over to the wooden bridge.

A camouflaged soldier walked out of the trees and blocked their path. He pointed at a wooden bridge above and instructed them, "The four of you go there."

They were already in a panic. Now that a soldier had appeared, the four boys broke out in cold sweat and stuttered, "Instructor, what happened to them?"

"Take care of yourself!" The soldier wouldn't tell them what had happened and just stood there, blocking their view. With a stern voice, he said, "You need to cross the wooden bridge in 'Quick Pass'. Do it one by one and keep half a meter distance between yourselves."

After being urged by the soldier, the four of them who felt guilty didn't dare to watch anymore and hurriedly went to the other wooden bridge.

When they walked to the other wooden bridge and looked down, they saw a large net that was one meter away from the bridge and covered with dead leaves. Turns out that it was a safety net.

Wiping away his cold sweat, a boy took the lead and got up the wooden bridge. He then subconsciously looked to his left. He could see Luo Ran going mad and kicking at Ye Jian. That ruthlessness of his flustered them.

But it was fortunate that Luo Ran was okay. The boy turned his head and whispered to his classmates behind, "Brother Luo Ran is okay. Let's go and meet him first." Brother Luo must be frightened to have screamed when he fell. The girl didn't even make a noise.

It was fortunate that the other four boys didn't rush up like what Luo Ran did. Otherwise, Ye Jian would have dealt with them too.

How could Ye Jian possibly be hit by him? The stick was still in her hands.

When the first kick came over, Ye Jian used the stick and struck Luo Ran's calf secretly. A close combat made it easier for her to deal with Luo Ran. She was confident that the soldiers below could not see it.

In the eyes of the soldiers, it was the boy who made her dodge his kicks, but he was the one screaming.

Luo Ran could only scream. He was in pain! His calf was hurt by those strikes. He wasn't kicking Ye Jian anymore. He was just flailing his legs around.

"You want to make me suffer? Luo Ran, I can cripple you now and nothing will happen to me." He was yelling in pain, but Ye Jian was speaking with ease. She didn't speak loudly. The soldiers couldn't hear it, but it was enough for Luo Ran to hear it clearly.

The more she said, the more enraged Luo Ran was. However, he didn't dare to kick with his legs anymore. His legs were in such great pain that he couldn't put any more energy in them.

When the protective net was cut, Luo Ran was the first to fall as he didn't hold on to the net. On the other hand, Ye Jian held on to the net with one hand and stayed there.

"Fk! Ye Jian, come here! You stinking soldiers, my family is rich, kill her for me! I'll give you money! Damn, it hurts! Ambulance, get me an ambulance!"

His words were becoming more and more out of line. The soldiers who caught him badly wanted to throw him down!

Chapter 630: You're Tired Of Living

A squad leader who was with his soldiers walked out and heard Luo Ran's mad words. He glanced at him coldly and instructed his soldiers, "Put him aside."

Ambulance? It's a good thing that they didn't stuff his mouth with mud!

The soldiers heard that and clamored. They then threw him aside like a dirty cloth. Stinking soldiers? That was insulting to a soldier!

Wanting to solve this with money, Luo Ran heard that and snarled, "Fk, too little? Give me a price! I don't lack money, kill her!"

Ye Jian was still hanging on the net. Her eyes suddenly darkened. This was their own personal issue. How dare he insult the soldiers!

After she got down, Ye Jian thanked the two soldiers and walked towards Luo Ran with a dark face, "Luo Ran, don't drag these soldiers in! I'm standing here now, come hit me if you have the ability!"

In Ye Jian's eyes, no matter which military unit the soldiers were in, they were considered her comrades. Insulting them was more unacceptable than insulting her.

The soldiers saw that a quiet female soldier was standing up for them and felt warmth in their hearts. They quickly stopped her, "Don't take him seriously, lots of people will deal with him in society."

“Sure, I’ll beat you up right now!” Luo Ran heard that and stood up abruptly. But he forgot that his legs were bruised because of Ye Jian. He endured the pain and glared ferociously at Ye Jian like a crocodile in the river. “Don’t run if you have the guts!”

Two soldiers saw this and one immediately clasped Luo Ran’s fists with his palm and retorted, “Be good! You dare to hit someone in the army, you must be tired of living!”

“A soldier is hitting a student, a soldier is hitting a student!” Luo Ran had been repeatedly challenging the soldiers during the course of the military training. He was relying on the fact that a soldier was not able to hit students. That was why he was so presumptuous. Now that he was being restrained by two soldiers, he shouted, “Help, help! Stinking soldiers are hitting students! Come help! Stinking soldiers are hitting students!”

Hearing that, Ye Jian didn’t get angry and laughed. Does he think that the army is a black market? Calling them stinking soldiers, offering them money... What kind of family did he grow up in?

“Of course we stink. We sweat every day. How can we not smell? You’re the one that stinks. Your mouth stinks and even your heart stinks.” The squad leader kept Ye Jian behind him and stared coldly at him, “You should think about how to explain this to the school! Paying to kill, brat, we are all listening.”

Ye Jian lowered her voice and whispered, “Squad leader, he’s going after me. You should release him. If words get into the students’ ears, they might really think that you hit him.” There were bruises on his legs, she couldn’t let the soldiers carry the blame for her.

“It’s okay, you go first. Leave this to us.” The squad leader turned his head and looked at the girl who stood up for them and smiled, “He said that we hit him. There must be evidence for that to happen.”

It was because there was evidence on his body, which was why she couldn’t let the soldiers do it.

Looking at Luo Ran coldly, she heard the squad leader ask her, “How are you? Are you hurt anywhere? If you don’t feel well, I will get my soldiers to stretch you to the containment vehicle. The medical staff can check on you.”
