

Chapter 691: Exceptional Charm

Her eyes were still. She blinked softly and spoke calmly, "Captain Xia, do you know what you are doing now? You just said that the little boys who sent me love letters are bad and would affect my studies. Now, aren't you doing the same bad things to affect my studies?"

"Compared to the fact that they only sent me a love letter, Captain Xia's confession was so straightforward that a senior high student like me is at a loss." She realized that being in senior high was a good thing. She's young, and she had to study, not fall in love!

When she said that, Ye Jian felt that she exerted a lot of energy. This was the first time she realized that sometimes it was more difficult to say yes.

Because she knew very well that it would be inappropriate if she agreed to that now!

Who is she? She's an orphan who works hard on her own and nurtured by the army. So what if she's a martyr's daughter? In her past life, that identity didn't bring her anywhere far. She still had to rely on herself.

If she can support herself, she will truly live a wonderful life.

It was not suitable for her to talk about romance now, that was for sure! Grandpa Gen and Uncle Chen had always told her that women must also be dauntless, not just men!

Only then, would they be able to live on, to have their own lives, and live wonderfully!

And who was Xia Jinyuan? As Han Zheng had said, ladies were lining up for him in the capital city to be his girlfriend. She had nothing now!

She doesn't know what love is, but if one of them was standing high above the other, will there be a happy ending?

This was not a good time for her to fall in love with him now. She had to reject him. It was something she must do.

In the blink of an eye, Ye Jian was already constantly warning herself to stay calm, and not be wavered by his confession. She must not agree impulsively!

Xia Jinyuan was not someone who would give up when he faced obstacles. Hearing that, his smile got wider, and there was a dim light in his eyes, like a beast.

"You're right. You're still young. It's inappropriate to do so now. That's why I'm waiting for you to go to university. I can wait, but who knew that the boys in your school would be so bold."

Suddenly, he leaned forward. The moonlight was dim, but Ye Jian could clearly see the seriousness in his eyes. It looked very much like her. Once you lock on to something, you will never turn your head back.

She finally calmed her heart down, but it started to pound again, making her flustered. Xia Jinyuan then smiled, "I can't possibly let other people make the first move. I have to take the lead and be the first person to do so."

Hearing that, Ye Jian couldn't help laughing... There was a laugh, but she immediately controlled herself, clenching her facial muscles... And in the eyes of Xia Jinyuan, there was an exceptional charm coming from her.

Chapter 692: Notice That Something Was Amiss

"Can you stop mentioning love letters or confessions? I don't even know who the other party is. I didn't read any of the love letters too. I'm not curious about them at all. If you continue mentioning them, I might really read them to see why Captain Xia is taking it to heart."

Xia Jinyuan smiled. His handsome face was so close that Ye Jian could feel his warm breath on her face. He lowered his voice by half a key, making it sound rich, mellow, and sexy, just like red wine. "I really take it to heart. That's why I'm anxious."

"Fortunately, I came on time and found out about this. If I wait till you go to university to act, I will probably see you getting together with someone else. I'll really regret it then. I..."

Ye Jian lived for two lifetimes but this was the first time she heard a speech like this. She started blushing once she heard it... She reached her hand out and covered Xia Jinyuan's mouth. "Xia Jinyuan, you don't look like a soldier now. Get..."

She was embarrassed and agitated. Hence, she didn't think of the consequences when she covered Xia Jinyuan's mouth.

Ye Jian always evaded Xia Jinyuan but she trusted him too. How could she not believe a comrade who went through life and death with her? Because of trust, Ye Jian never thought about her next step when facing Xia Jinyuan. She never wondered what was the best way to respond to him.

Thus, she covered his mouth instinctively. Because of trust, she didn't think of the consequences.

Xia Jinyuan never expected this to happen. He was stunned for a second. Something flashed past his eyes. He lifted his arm and grabbed her thin waist.

He pulled her towards him and fell to the ground using a wrestling technique. None of them was hurt. They landed on the grass without any pain.

"I didn't know that you're so daring. You dare to cover my mouth when I'm talking. Aren't you afraid that I'll bite your fingers?" Ye Jian tried to resist but failed. They two of them made a huge movement again after falling to the ground. Xia Jinyuan turned his body and laid with his back on the ground. Ye Jian was lying on his body.

Ye Jian wouldn't allow this. She didn't remove her hand that was on his mouth. Instead, she pushed it down harder. At the same time, she moved her hand towards his nose, wanting to suffocate him so that he would release his hand voluntarily.

"Captain Xia, we're talking about our bet now, not rolling on the grass. If you don't release your hand, I'll cover your nose. Don't blame me if something happens to you."

Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows. His mouth was covered but his hands and legs were free. He lifted his other hand and grabbed her waist too.

A seventeen-year-old lady was like a fruit that was slowly ripening. It smelled unripe but enticing. Xia Jinyuan, who had never been so close to a lady and was always keeping a distance with ladies, got enticed by Ye Jian. He started feeling restless.

It had to be known that all the Special Forces soldiers in the Xueyu unit passed the seduction test.

To ensure that her back wouldn't get hurt by the rocks, he laid on the ground while she was on top of him. Her hand was still on his mouth. Their bodies were naturally touching each other. They were so close that the wind couldn't blow between them.

His gaze changed. They became darker and deeper. The emotions inside instantly made Ye Jian realize that something was amiss.

Chapter 693: Sleep Right After The Confession

Her hands were still on his lips. She could feel the temperature on them. They were warm, just like his smile which always entered her gaze when she was least expecting it.

From his eyes, she knew that he didn't believe she would suffocate him. She could even tell that he was smiling gently at her. The emotions in his eyes made her release her hand.

She released her grip and felt Xia Jinyuan's chest shaking. He was laughing.

His laughter was relaxed but it made Ye Jian feel helpless.

It was hard to reject Xia Jinyuan. It really wasn't the right time now. However, there is still another Commander Xia behind him. Ye Jian found it hard to breathe. A soldier has natural respect and fear towards a general. Ye Jian was no different.

Xia Jinyuan held her tighter. They were so tight she felt as though he wanted to push her body into his and merge them together.

Young. She's still young. I can't scare her. I need to do it slowly.

He would confess first and then give her the love letter. He would slowly walk into her heart. This was the only way to let the sly little fox accept him. The restless Xia Jinyuan wanted to do some small actions, such as kissing her mouth and giving her his first kiss. However, he suddenly remembered that night when he went to catch her in her school. She got frightened because she saw his hungry look from the light of the flashlight. At the same time, he saw the opposition in her eyes.

This allowed him to immediately understand that he mustn't try to tame this little wolf. He could only get closer to her and become the person she trusted.

He had already taken so many steps. If he made a mistake when confessing, all his efforts would be wasted.

Xia Jinyuan really spent much effort on Ye Jian. He bore with the restlessness of his body. He couldn't let Ye Jian know the natural reaction of a man.

Both of them were reserved in their relationship. One laid below while one laid at the top. She looked down on him and he looked up at her. The sky full of stars became their background. The wind stopped and the trees stopped swaying. The two humans stared at each other quietly but the emotions in their eyes were intense. Xia Jinyuan's Adam's apple kept moving up and down. Slowly, he closed his eyes.

Since he didn't say anything, Ye Jian didn't speak too. His arms were still hugging his waist tightly. He hugged her so tightly she didn't dare to open her mouth. She was afraid that once she spoke, she would startle the wolf that had closed his eyes. She might not be able to handle the implications.

No one knew if the wind was too comfortable or was it because these two people were careless. The person hugging the lady he liked closed his eyes and... fell asleep.

Ye Jian had been rushing here and there all this while so as Xia Jinyuan hugged her, she started feeling sleepy too. She kept nodding her head like a chick pecking the food on the ground. Slowly, her head fell towards his broad chest and she fell asleep.

No one knew how long they slept. When Xia Jinyuan opened his eyes, he was stunned. Did he fall asleep after confessing? He actually fell asleep after doing such an important thing!

Before the astonishment on his face subsided, he looked down at his chest and saw Ye Jian who was sleeping like a puppy. He couldn't help but smile. Was this fate? They fell asleep at the same time. Wasn't this fate?

Chapter 694: Xia Jinyuan's First Kiss Is Gone

Ye Jian woke up with a start because of his voice. She immediately remembered that she... fell asleep while lying on Xia Jinyuan's chest.

"Have you thought about it?" Xia Jinyuan, who had a good sleep, opened his mouth. His soft and gentle voice was like the cold moonlight, capable of intoxicating people. "Just because we slept together, doesn't mean that the previous bet doesn't count."

Just because we slept together... Ye Jian choked up because of his words. Ye Jian relaxed her waist and took a deep breath, "No. The bet..." She turned and flipped away from Xia Jinyuan's body, not giving him any time to prepare at all.

After rolling over, Ye Jian was already squatting on the ground. She then smacked her hands and stood up.

Looking at Xia Jinyuan who was still lying down, her mouth was raised slightly as she smiled, "If Captain Xia's bet is for me to consider you as a potential candidate when I'm looking for a boyfriend, then I'll agree."

Why would I disagree? Isn't there still a lot of time? If he can persist on, then she will too. If he gives up, then she will face it openly.

Xia Jinyuan's bet was indeed the case. Hearing that, he sprang up with the strength of his waist and moved over to Ye Jian's side. He felt helpless with Ye Jian's shy smile. "No, I don't want such a bet."

The confession was done, and the love letter was completed. With her temperament, how could she be moved by those little boys in school? She didn't respond to their love letters, let alone read them. It was evident that she would not be moved by them... And he had the confidence that if she were to look for a boyfriend, she would consider him.

It's just that this was not the right time. She would not consider him as a boyfriend. Naturally, it was even less so for her schoolmates.

"Then what is it?" An alarm blared in Ye Jian's heart. She suddenly let down her guard and made a mistake! Xia Jinyuan took a step forward, and the wary Ye Jian took a step back. Once again, she looked like she was ready to run away at any time.

Xia Jinyuan narrowed his eyes slightly and said with a smile, "It's very simple, and it won't put you in a bad spot."

The more he said it like this, the more Ye Jian felt that it was not that simple, "Sure, then say it now. Since I lost, I'm willing to do it, as long as it's..." Her words were all choked up because of his sudden approach, and when Xia Jinyuan's hands instantly caught Ye Jian's wrists, all she could think of then was: He's worthy of being an elite in the Special Forces! He's so fast!

"It's very simple, I want to present you with my first kiss." He clasped her wrists and buckled them around his waist, and hugged her again. He then lowered his head and printed his thin lips on her delicate ones.

Only offering one's first kiss to the right person would have a lasting appeal.

His kiss was different from his gentle smiles. He swept in directly in an overbearing manner, like thousands of horses crossing the borders. It stunned her. When the tip of his tongue caught hers aggressively, Ye Jian's face blushed with a booming red.

Ye Jian had never thought that his wager would be his first kiss! He had his first kiss, but Ye Jian had hers too! That was her first kiss in her two lifetimes. And it was gone just like that.

It was Xia Jinyuan's first time kissing, and it was obvious that he was inexperienced in it. However, he was clever and was naturally good at kissing. He kissed the way that he felt like it. So what if she was a senior high student? As long as he liked it, he would never tolerate their coveting.

Chapter 695: Xia Jinyuan, What Are You Trying To Do?

Ye Jian, who was about to lose her breath, was a little embarrassed. But when she heard Xia Jinyuan's clear breathing and saw his chest moving up and down, the embarrassment on her face vanished suddenly. She started laughing.

Her laughter was like the spring water in the mountain stream, happy and clear. She wasn't ashamed or angry because of this kiss. Neither was she screaming as though she had been taken advantage of.

Xia Jinyuan didn't expect her to laugh. He then sighed, "Little Fox, your reaction is really unexpected."

He originally thought that she would at least glare at him, or scold him. After all, he made a move on her.

Of course, if not for the fact that she wasn't resisting, he wouldn't have dared to kiss her so daringly. The little fox was a wild and untamable fox, but beneath all that, she had the ability to hurt people. If she really wanted to give him a slap, he would accept it.

However, she didn't do anything. She didn't even scold him. Instead, she laughed.

"Captain Xia gave me his first kiss. Should I be crying? A man's first kiss is rarer than a woman's. I didn't know that Captain Xia still kept his first kiss." Ye Jian's eyes were clear like the water, and it even reflected the moonlight. "Captain Xia, don't you feel like you were at a disadvantage?"

Disadvantage? How can that be?

Xia Jinyuan smiled, and his handsome face was as bright as the moon, "It's worth it to give it to you. It's just that I was a bit inexperienced. I used too much strength, and sucked..."

"Xia Jinyuan!" Whenever Ye Jian felt embarrassed, she would shout his full name. She finally managed to regain her composure. But because of what he said, she was blushing again. She was no match for his thick skin.

To woo their girlfriends, men had to be thick-skinned. If not, someone would snatch them away. Now that Xia Jinyuan had experienced it all, he didn't feel ashamed but felt that it was something to be proud of.

"Are you shy? Little Fox, your shyness makes me relieved. Shyness is good. It proves that this isn't one-sided." Now that the target has been locked on, and the offensive has been launched, he had to say what he wanted to.

That's to prevent other people from snatching her away!

Facing such a Xia Jinyuan, Ye Jian was helpless. She was struggling to get away from his arms but was hugged tightly. She could hear the smile in his voice, "As a soldier, I forgot the 'adventurous spirit' that a soldier should have, and let procrastination get the better of me that I almost regretted it. Just thinking about the future makes me forget the fighting spirit and temperament of a soldier.”

Ye Jian was stunned by his words as she tried to struggle her way out. Fighting spirit? Temperament? What is he trying to say?

“Since young, the first book I read was a manual about the basic rules of military behavior. It was a small red book with a golden military emblem printed on it. The first page read ‘One must have an ideological temperament, work attitude, fighting spirit, and lifestyle.’”

Chapter 696: When Two Armies Are At A Stalemate, The More Persistent One Will Win

“We must seek truth from facts, be modest and prudent, apply what we have learned, mean what we say, be positive and eager, dare to be innovative, be brave and determined, be decisive and quick, work hard and persevere, be diligent and frugal.”

He really started reciting the soldiers’ manual. For a moment, Ye Jian couldn’t catch up with his tempo. She didn’t understand what he was doing too. What did this have to do with the soldiers’ manual?

Since she didn’t know what was happening, she didn’t dare to move. It might be because she didn’t hate the hug with the faint mint smell too. She listened quietly to his low and happy voice.

“We must remember these points all the time and never forget them. If I was decisive and quick, seek truth from the facts, meant what I said, and dared to be innovative, the love letter in my pocket would have been sent out long ago!”

As she continued listening, Ye Jian felt that she... understood some things. Then, she heard him saying, “When two armies are at a stalemate, the most persistent one will win. I keep thinking that you’re too young but I forgot about the environmental factors.”

At this moment, Ye Jian didn’t even have the energy to open her mouth anymore. The soldiers’ manual became a love manual for soldiers in his hand.

“Captain Xia is indeed an outstanding Special Forces soldier. Not only do you put what you learn to use, you use them in all areas of life. You’re indeed an ace soldier!” Ye Jian felt speechless as she said this. She even wondered to herself. If Commander Xia knew that his son was like this, would he raise his gun?

Xia Jinyuan took her sarcasm as a compliment. Tonight, the gap between his little fox and him got closer. While he was delighted, he remembered to summarize his experience.

Soldiers must know how to summarise their experience. With more experiences, the rate of success would be higher. The setbacks they faced would get lesser too. As a soldier, they must always remember the saying that conceit makes one lag behind. He mustn’t think that just because he is so outstanding, his little fox will only like him.

A smile appeared on his elegant and handsome face. He said calmly, "I forgot about this in the past. That's why I lag behind other people. Now, I will never forget the spirit a soldier should have. Hence, Little Fox, I will take the risk and move forward occasionally in the future."

This time, Xia Jinyuan was using the qualities a soldier should have on chasing his girlfriend. He decided to use his risk-taking spirit too. That was why he said that his wager was his first kiss.

That was really a huge risk. If Ye Jian got offended, he would be in trouble.

When Ye Jian heard this, her eyes widened. She took some time before she muttered, "If Commander Xia knows this, I wonder what he will think."

Xia Jinyuan felt that he could represent Commander Xia to answer this question. He hugged her and said with a serious face. "Commander Xia always supported my risk-taking spirit. Ever since I entered the military, I took many special and unique risks for the first time. My first target training was a risk. My first grenade throwing experience was a risk. My first military performance was a risk."

"The person who takes more risk will get more benefits. If you're afraid to commit to yourself, you can only watch the girl you like being taken away by someone else."

As she listened to him, Ye Jian had to give him a thumbs up. "What you say makes me feel that those soldiers who haven't found a girlfriend should read the soldiers' manual a few more times. When they have a deep understanding of it just like you, they will be able to find a girlfriend."

"I'm afraid that they will not understand it. I'm only enlightened after I gave away my first kiss. In that instant, I learned how to use it. The other people might not have a way to get enlightened."

After chatting for so long, Xia Jinyuan's heartbeat had gone back to normal. He brought Ye Jian closer to him and smiled. When he smiled, the handsome features appeared alluring under the moonlight. "Let's not talk about this. Tell me, how does it feel? Do you feel your heart palpitating in excitement?"

How do I... feel? Ye Jian was still thinking about how he managed to link the soldiers' manual to love so she got shocked by the sudden question. Her face turned red instantly. She wasn't embarrassed by the kiss but this question made her feel shy.

"Xia Jinyuan, don't say such things!" That dangerous Xia Jinyuan was back again. Ye Jian didn't feel relaxed anymore. She started thinking about how she should escape from his arms.

Under the faint moonlight, you could see Xia Jinyuan squinting with his cold eyes. Ye Jian's heart dropped. She immediately said, "The bet is over. Captain Xia, can you release your hands now?"

"No. You haven't told me how it feels like. Why not I say it first?" Xia Jinyuan had some takebacks again. A man should be more thick-skinned. That way, he would get more results.

Look, the little fox in his arms was so embarrassed her eyes were sparkling. Even her eyebrows were enchanting. When she looked over, her gaze hooked onto his heart and made his heart shudder.

Ye Jian regretted not leaving when he was talking. Now, it was a little hard to escape.

Based on her understanding of him, if she said that she didn't know what it feels like, this dangerous man would suggest trying again. If she said that the feeling was good, he would want to do it again too.

That meant that he had all the initiative. If she wanted to leave, she must leave his embrace first. But, she was unwilling to just leave like this.

He gave his first kiss but her first kiss was gone too. Yet, he still asked her what it felt like and was starting to tease her again.

She didn't reply immediately. After moving her eyes around, she remained quiet. Xia Jinyuan couldn't understand what she was thinking for a moment.

However, that didn't matter as long as he knew that she wasn't angry.

"There's a rich aftertaste. After trying it once, I find it impossible to stop," he spoke in a deep and charismatic voice. He lowered his head and bent his back, placed his forehead against hers and moved his head slowly. "Shall we try it again?"

He was just speaking the truth. After tasting it, he regretted not controlling his breathing and elongating their first kiss. It should have lasted longer.

He made a miscalculation. He was too impatient.

Ye Jian, who was looking down, lifted the ends of her lips and gave a naughty smile. Then, she raised her hands and softly hugged the back of his neck. Her breath smelled sweet as she said slowly, "Captain Xia tastes not bad too. You're like a spirit. Before I drink it, I'm already drunk. I am really quite drunk now. If you ask me what it tastes like exactly..."

As she spoke, she tiptoed and raised her head. Her lips, which were as soft as the bud and soft tips of a flower at the start of Spring, slowly moved closer and closer towards his thin lips. They were so close that restlessness appeared in Xia Jinyuan's black eyes.

Chapter 698: You Taste Really Good

The outstanding man only gave his first kiss when he was more than twenty years old. He was past the young and innocent age and knows what is the most precious. He knew what he really wanted at this age. Now, what he wanted was... to taste her again.

At sixteen years old, they shouldn't talk about the things that happened in bed. They would just talk about love and share a kiss. Of course, he had to make sure no one knew his identity.

As he thought about this, Major Xia realized sadly that even if he was considered Little Fox's boyfriend now, he still had to hide.

He watched her as she closed in on him. When she raised her head, he saw the sly look in her eyes that shone under the reflection of the crescent moon above. Xia Jinyuan narrowed his eyes instantly. What a sly little fox. She was using her beauty to entice him.

“I’m already drunk before tasting Captain Xia fully. If I tried it again...” Her lips were already grazing his lips. If she moved a little closer, they would kiss. Ye Jian was really like a sly little fox. She planned to use her beauty to escape from her predator’s hands. However, she didn’t know that her predator had already seen through her scheme and was obediently waiting for her to initiate the movement.

The hunter had the patience of a hunter. The fox had the instinct of a fox. When Ye Jian looked at his squinting black eyes, she knew that she must run away.

She felt a sense of danger. This time, it was a real sense of danger.

Before the danger arrived, she moved her hands, which were around Xia Jinyuan’s neck, swiftly and hurriedly. She grabbed Xia Jinyuan’s broad shoulders at a speed as fast as lightning. At the same time, she pressed her thumb deep into his scapula while sticking her right leg between his legs. Then, she hooked her calf over his left calf. The short-range combat had started.

A second ago, they were still giving each other their first kiss. A second later, they were fighting back and forth. There was a lack of romance in this kind of love but they gained the trust and the understanding between each other.

“It looks like my taste didn’t make you drunk. You’re the one that made me drunk instead.” As someone with good fighting skills, Xia Jinyuan wouldn’t really fight with her. The more she wanted to escape, the more he wanted to chase her. If it wasn’t for the fact that it was already a little late, he might really use his full strength to subdue her.

The distance between the two of them widened a little. Ye Jian knew that she wasn’t his match so she took a huge leap back. All she wanted to do was to escape. She smiled and said, “Captain Xia’s taste is not bad. It’s just a little strong. I’m not at a suitable age to enjoy it.”

It wasn’t just a little strong. It’s very strong! One kiss and her knees went weak. Also... even until now, there was still a faint mint smell lingering in her mouth. His taste was so strong it pierced right into her heart.

Xia Jinyuan laughed. He hurriedly chased after her. “Why not have a good taste of it the next time you give me your first kiss?”

When he chased after her, Ye Jian sped up. After hearing what he said, she glanced at the man who was still thinking about the next time they met without slowing down her speed. “If you change the topic, we might be able to continue chatting. If not, you can go to the right and I’ll move to the left. We’ll bid farewell to each other.”

“Are you shy? You were still laughing after the kiss just now. Why are you embarrassed now?” The shyness Ye Jian revealed from her expression enchanted Xia Jinyuan even more. He couldn’t understand why he got interested in this little lady. The interest was quite huge.

It was the kind of interest that made him want to bring her back and make her his wife.

If Commander Xia knew about this, he might just take out a gun and shoot his son.

Chapter 699: Time Will Give You The Answer

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Xia Jinyuan took out the letter that was warm from his body temperature and blocked her path. He stretched out his hand with a smile. “This is my love letter. It’s a love letter worth reading. It’s definitely better than those written by the little boys. Read it carefully and approve it. I will come back one month later to receive the result.”

Ye Jian never received the love letters she received personally. Now, the love letter she was holding in her hand... this was actually the first time she received a love letter directly.

“Captain Xia, are you sure?”

“You don’t have to suspect me. I know clearly what I’m doing. I’ve already given you my first kiss. Little Fox, you can’t question my sincerity.”

The first kiss again! Ye Jian put the love letter in her pocket and said helplessly, “Can you stop mentioning your first kiss? That’s my first kiss too! We are equal now. Don’t mention it again in the future.”

“Also, I can reply to you now. If I have to find a boyfriend, I will consider the soldier called Xia Jinyuan first. He is a soldier and I’m a soldier too! But he has to be the Xia Jinyuan that I know when I meet him again.”

This wasn’t a promise. It was just a reply telling him that she would wait for him. This waiting wasn’t just the passing of time too. Before they become lovers, they will have to fight together and trust each other. She wanted to wait until they understood each other better.

To other people, time just flew by. To Xia Jinyuan and Ye Jian, it was a passage to understand each other.

He watched as she walked briskly into the moonlight. The beautiful and arrogant back view brought a smile to Xia Jinyuan’s face. “You are my comrade and my lover, Little Fox!”

You are my comrade. There’s an unbreakable trust between us. You’re my lover. You give me the motivation to persevere.

The scenery tonight was the most beautiful. The moon was a crescent but it lit up the entire earth with its silver light. Even the solemn-looking chemical defense regiment in the daylight turned gentle under the glow of the moon.

Ye Jian didn't return to her dormitory immediately. She stood under the light and opened the first love letter she received with her hands. When her gaze landed on the first line, she smiled gently.

A small sedan from a government agency jolted as it drove along the winding mountain roads. It caused Ye Zhifan, who was sitting in the car expressionlessly, to give a cold and indignant look.

"Little Wang, drive slower." He opened his mouth. His force of presence made the chauffeur, Little Wang shudder.

Ye Ying unconsciously shrunk her shoulders and leaned towards Sun Dongqing. If her father scolded her loudly, she wouldn't be afraid... but his attitude now made her fearful. Until now, she hadn't heard a single word of reprimand from him.

"It's alright. It's alright. We're going home now. What's so good about this rundown place? Your health isn't good to start with so I'm worried that you might suffer there. It's alright to go home one day earlier. Mom will make healthy food for you tomorrow."

Sun Dongqing had limited exposure so she didn't think in-depth. When she recalled what the teachers of the school and those stern-faced officers said, she commented angrily, "What kind of people are they? How can they scare our Yingying like this? Old Ye, you must go to the school and find their principal the day after tomorrow. You can't let Yingying suffer like this!"

"Find the principal the day after tomorrow? Why not you ask your daughter if she has the face to go back to school?" The angrier he got, the calmer his expression. Even his tone was indifferent. "I don't have any more faces for her to humiliate. If you want to go, you can find the principal on your own. You can finish the application for transferring schools too. Don't let her embarrass herself further in Provincial No.1 Middle School."

Chapter 700: Trampling On The Face And Slapping On The Face

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Ye Zhifan rarely exploded in anger in front of his daughter. No matter how angry he was, he would just reprimand her for a while and analyzed the pros and cons for her at the end. There wasn't a time when his tone was so cold and nonchalant like tonight. It sent chills to people's hearts.

He was really indignant.

Ye Ying wasn't the only one afraid. Even Sun Dongqing felt her heart palpitating furiously in fright. She looked at her husband and then at her daughter. She was confused. "Why does she need to transfer schools? Isn't she doing well in school? The soldiers said that she was weak so something bad might happen to her if she continued staying there. That was why they asked us to bring her back, right?"

"What does this have to do with transferring schools? Even if the teachers said that Yingying gossiped in class, what's wrong with that? Children don't know anything. Will a teacher make a fuss over a child?"

When Sun Dongqing saw her daughter lying alone on the bed in the infirmary, she rushed over and caressed her dearly. Her voice was loud and she only cared about Ye Ying so she didn't notice what Teacher Xiao and the political commissar said.

In the end, Ye Zhifan felt so embarrassed that he went out of the infirmary. It was much quieter outside. He listened to the political commissar as the political commissar explained to him what happened.

"Mr. Ye, our military unit won't dare to keep Ye Ying here anymore. Yesterday, she instigated her entire class to discriminate against a female student. If the female student didn't have some capabilities, we would have a hard time clearing up the scene."

"We thought that what happened yesterday would teach Student Ye a lesson but we were too naive. Today, during the target training, the instructor of Class One revealed his admiration for one of the students. Student Ye Ying made groundless accusations towards the soldier because of this."

"I noticed that Mr. Ye came in a car from a government agency so you must be a current government official. Can you tell me how the military and the school should handle someone that accused a soldier with merits?"

"The strong write history while the weak make accusations. Fortunately, my soldier and that lady that was accused are both capable and have a strong mentality. If not, they might really get affected by Student Ye Ying."

"The military is a place where discipline is important. We only seek facts and will severely punish anyone that tattletales. Since Ye Ying isn't a soldier from my military unit, I will have to ask Mr. Ye to bring her home first and teach her how to be a person. My soldiers are all people with indomitable spirits. I can't let anyone accuse them!"

Ye Zhifan almost didn't manage to restrain himself from rushing in and slapping his daughter who was still lying on the sickbed. He felt that his pride, which he gathered for so many years as an official, was being trampled upon. The person who caused him to lose his face was none other than the daughter he had high hopes for. He kept apologizing and bowing to the officers. He wanted to end this issue once and for all but the political commissar didn't give him any chances. The political commissar said directly, "Mr. Ye has pride but the military has pride too! Anyone that dares to bully our soldier is bullying the entire military unit. Ye Ying dares to accuse our men even though she is just a student. We won't find her for trouble. Instead, we will confront her parents!"

This was even more humiliating than someone trampling on his face!
