

BOOT CAMP 701

Chapter 701: Stupidity

He lowered his ego but the other party didn't see it at all. When Ye Zhifan recalled what happened, he could still feel the stinging pain on his face.

Sun Dongqing remained in the infirmary so she didn't know what happened exactly. Ye Zhifan looked at her innocent and righteous face. He couldn't hide the disgust in his heart.

He looked coldly at the face that was filled with fats. Contempt flashed passed his eyes.

When this stupid lady was young, she looked quite beautiful. Now, as she aged, her beauty was gone. Only her stupidity was left.

Since the driver was around, Ye Zhifan didn't want to talk much. He retracted his gaze and slowly leaned back on the car seat. He closed his eyes. He didn't even have the energy to reprimand them.

At first, he thought that his daughter had the potential. Yet, in the end, she was hopeless. As compared to Ye Jian, Ye Ying was lagging far behind. Too far.

Sun Xueqing, Sun Dongqing... they were sisters but why was one so intelligent while the other was so dumb!

"I know that once that wicked girl, Ye Jian, comes back, nothing good will happen! Our Ye Ying had such a smooth journey when she was in the first year of senior high. All the teachers and her classmates say that she's a good student! However, the moment Ye Jian arrived, she angered Ye Ying. No, I must personally visit the school the day after tomorrow. I must teach her a lesson!"

Sun Dongqing didn't see the grim expression on her husband's face. She hugged her daughter and continued furiously, "If Yingying doesn't have a good time in school, the wicked girl mustn't have a good time too!"

This time, Ye Ying didn't dare to make a sound. She looked cautiously at Ye Zhifan on the passenger's seat. His eyes were closed. She pulled Sun Dongqing's sleeve lightly and said, "Mom, stop talking. Let's go home and talk."

Her father was a prideful person and the driver was still here... Don't wash your dirty linen in public. He was a government official. He couldn't reveal his family troubles to the driver.

Ye Ying was so frightened, cold sweat formed on her back. She didn't dare to add oil to the flame. She just hoped that when she gets back home, her father's anger would subside and he would be able to talk nicely to her.

By right, in the past, Ye Zhifan's anger would subside after he reached home. However, this time was different. After sending the two of them home, he didn't get out. Instead, he asked the driver to send him off somewhere else.

Ye Ying was dumbfounded. She rushed to the car door without thinking and said fearfully, "Dad, Dad, where are you going? I still have some things to tell you. Where are you going? It's already so late. Can't you do your business tomorrow?"

"Go to school with your mother the day after tomorrow and finish the procedures required for transferring school. You will not be able to study in Provincial No.1 Middle School anymore. I don't have the face to go there. Your mother and you can do the embarrassing things." Ye Zhifan was disappointed, extremely disappointed. He paved the way for her, giving her everything she wanted. But in the end, she managed to turn the path of success into a dead end."

He was so disappointed he didn't want to help her anymore. He didn't even want to talk to her.

Ye Ying's pupils contracted. She was trembling like a leaf in the cold wind. Her face was pale. She understood what her father meant. She never expected that... the thing that was waiting for her wasn't a scolding. It was disappointment. It was giving up.

Giving up... Ye Ying felt as though she had fallen into an ice lake. She started to shiver even more violently. "Dad, there's someone supporting Ye Jian. She isn't just a normal student. Her military stance was complimented by our instructors. When we were having our target training today, she just stood there and took a shot without any preparations. The political commissar said that she would hit the bull's eyes and she really did."

Chapter 702: You Really Disappointed Me

Ye Zhifan didn't expect his daughter to have the guts to rush over when the car engine had already started. This fearless spirit... was just like him. He looked at the person who had probably guessed what he wanted to do. She was clearly frightened as her face had turned white but she was still able to elaborate the main points clearly...

"It's my fault. Dad, it's my fault. I shouldn't have disobeyed you. I shouldn't have kept targeting Ye Jian. I shouldn't have put myself in a situation with no route of retreat. Dad, I was wrong. I was really wrong."

Ye Ying was really scared that she would be abandoned. She knew that her father was someone who meant what he said. He was also someone who had the ambition to climb higher.

Especially after she discovered the person who was supporting her father secretly. She remembered the piece of jade in front of her chest. This jade was able to change her identity. Ye Ying was afraid that Ye Zhifan would give this piece of jade to Ye Jian. If she was abandoned, Ye Jian would benefit from it!

At this moment, Ye Ying was afraid but her mind was clear. She knew that even if she was beaten up today, it would be worth it.

Everyone says that a daughter understands her parents the best. They were right. Ye Ying had really guessed Ye Zhifan's thoughts. Indeed, if the piece of jade was able to make him climb higher in his official career, he didn't mind returning it to Ye Jian.

This thought disappeared in his mind almost instantly after it was formed. How could he give the piece of jade back to Ye Jian? His relationship with his niece was bad. They were like enemies. If Ye Jian took the jade and turned into a princess, he would be the first she laid her hands on.

Most importantly, the person behind this jade was able to let him turn from an unknown village leader into a government official with real power in the city within a few years. How could he not know of Ye Jian's presence and... his family's attitude towards Ye Jian?

The person didn't blame him for keeping the jade and not returning it to Ye Jian. Instead, he even helped him secretly in his official career. Until now, he didn't understand what the person behind this piece of jade was thinking.

However, there was one thing he was sure about. The person didn't care who the owner of this jade was. Even if he didn't return this jade to Ye Jian at all, he would be fine!

He looked at his daughter who was afraid but still had some courage and guts. Ye Zhifan pushed open the car door with a cold face. He didn't say anything when he got down. He just raised his hand and slapped her.

Slap! The sound of the slap could be heard clearly at this time of the night. It was so loud, the driver, who had walked away for some distance, turned around instinctively to take a look. Then, he walked even further. He was afraid that he would offend this Chairman Ye who was rumored to be participating in the fight for the position of the vice city mayor again.

This slap was very powerful. It was so hard Ye Ying fell down and scrapped her hands on the ground. Blood streaks appeared on her hand due to the abrasion. Her hands were burning in pain.

The right side of her face was turning red at a visible speed. But, she didn't cry. She just heaved a sigh of relief secretly. She bit her lips and staggered as she stood up under the cold gaze.

"I've told you many times that you can't touch Ye Jian yet. You must bear with it. Yet, what did you do? You didn't control yourself and even helped her to become an idol of everyone in your class."

"She left the school for one year but still managed to come back smoothly. She even got into Provincial No.1 Middle School easily and jumped one grade. I reminded you again and again that you mustn't have any conflict with Ye Jian. Even if you want to target her, you must make use of other people."

"But, you are stupid enough to turn yourself into the enemy of all your classmates. Even the military unit has a bad impression of you! Yingying, you really disappointed me!"

Chapter 703: The Person Behind the Jade

It was impossible to leave his daughter alone and not care about her. After hitting her, Ye Zhifan reprimanded her so that she would remember his lesson and not do any dumb things again.

Ye Ying, who felt relieved, didn't dare to tell her father that she was about to faint from the pain on her face. She stood on the spot with her eyes on the ground. She didn't dare to resist. She just nodded and accepted the scolding.

Sun Dongqing, who was taking out her keys to open the door, heard the sound. Her expression changed entirely. She ran over with her body of fats.

The Ye family was living in a small apartment building that had six floors. They were staying on the first floor so they had a small courtyard in front and behind their house. Sun Dongqing rushed out of the courtyard and saw her precious daughter's face under the street light. There was a red hand mark on it. It was swollen too.

"You bastard! Why aren't you looking for those people that harmed our daughter? Why are you hitting our daughter instead? I'm going to fight you!" Ye Ying was her beloved daughter. Nothing could happen to her. Hence, Sun Dongqing couldn't let her husband hit Ye Ying. She rushed over like a bitch and wanted to hit Ye Zhifan.

"Ye Ying, if you disappoint me again, I won't help you again even if you are forced to quit school by Ye Jian. Remember what you said just now. If I have to clean your split milk again, you can return to Shuikou Village with your mother and stay there so you won't embarrass me anymore."

Ye Zhifan didn't even look at his wife who rushed out. He opened the car door and sat inside. Then, he pressed the honk to remind the driver to come back.

"Where are you going? Where are you planning to go after hitting our daughter? Get off the car! Get off!" Sun Dongqing pulled the car door handle furiously. When she couldn't open it, she started pounding the door and shouting indignantly. She didn't notice that her husband wasn't even willing to look at her.

But Ye Ying observed this. The words that Wang Dandan once said flashed past her mind. In that instant, she felt her heart drop.

Ever since she entered Provincial No.1 Middle School, her father, whose presence was like a mountain to her... even when he came to the province, he rarely stayed at home. He would either say that there was a dinner appointment or he was busy with meetings.

Sun Dongqing didn't seem to mind. She shouted a few angry words before turning to hold Ye Ying. "Your father is treating himself as an official at home too. What happened just now? I just went to look for my keys to open the door and you got hit!"

"Mom, has Dad been constantly contacting you?" Ye Ying matured at a young age. The moment she realized that something was amiss, she asked her mother after they entered the house, "Why do I feel that there's something wrong with Dad?"

Sun Dongqing was bending down to take the slippers out. She appeared nonchalant. "You don't have to worry about us. Your Dad and I have always been like this. Come, change your shoes and tell me what happened in the military unit. I feel that your Dad's expression is strange."

Ye Ying didn't want to think about this matter again. The moment she remembered how high and mighty Ye Jian looked like, her heart would scrunch up in pain.

"I made some mistakes. Dad will help me to transfer school the day after tomorrow. How about the Provincial No. 2 Middle School? Ye Jian is very famous in school now. I don't want to be compared with her. Transferring schools will be beneficial to me."

If she didn't transfer school, she would be too embarrassed to go for lessons.

The students in Class One didn't know that Ye Ying had left the military unit. The ladies knew that she didn't go back to the dormitory to sleep when they were turning off the lights but when they remembered the things she did during target practice, everyone pretended that they knew nothing.

To them, Ye Ying was an awkward presence. They didn't know how to face her in the future.

Chapter 704: Good Daughter-In-Law

They each got into their beds and turned off the lights, and after a while, there was a slight snoring sound. After a tiring day, they fell asleep almost instantly when they laid on the bed.

Ye Jian didn't sleep. Her eyes were closed as she smiled slightly. It was a faint smile, yet it was full of joy.

Captain Xia's love letter was really touching, and that sentence 'looking at the sea of sand, I felt that flying past somewhere where you had been is a blessing too' was enough to make her heart flutter.

That sentence had a deep meaning, and she couldn't help but think about that desert training last year. When she was there, a fighter jet was flying overhead.

Flying past somewhere where you had been... Is it possible that Captain Xia was operating one of the fighter jets that night?

Xia Jinyuan, who can even operate a fighter jet, is in love with a young... senior high student? It seemed ridiculous when she thought about it.

However, his expression and his love letter were true and sincere. They were not fake.

The Ye Jian that was reborn didn't need a family and didn't even think of falling in love. Now that she was being pursued by Major Xia, she was at a loss.

She continued thinking about it and tossed around in bed a few times. She didn't even know when she fell asleep.

On the other side, Xia Jinyuan was sitting in Commander Guo's office, expressing his opinion with a cold expression. "The defense needs to be strengthened. The peripheral defense is too weak, and it would have a great impact. There are a total of 73 probes. Although it looks like a net that covers everything, in fact, it does not work well amongst the dense bushes. It's best to replace them with infrared cameras and probes."

Commander Guo's face was especially dark. After the probes were installed, none of the top soldiers in the regiment could pass. Later, an elite team from the Nanguang Military District came and no one passed too. He was still smug about it.

But now, the reality struck him in the face. A senior high student and a major snuck into the forest just like that. That student was only discovered at the 54th probe, and no one would have discovered this major if he didn't deliberately show himself!

With such a result, it would be difficult if Commander Guo's face wasn't dark. Safe? What crap! It was his first day and he obliterated them!

If it weren't for the military training review tomorrow, Commander Guo would have been in trouble tonight.

One of the culprits, Ye Jian, was sleeping soundly. When she opened her eyes, it was already five in the morning. Her body clock was as precise as usual, unaffected by the love letter and confession.

After the morning training, it was time for the review. It was the first time that No.16 Middle School and Provincial No.1 Middle School had their students in the same formation. The bugle sounded brightly and the students were all dressed in uniform as the national anthem echoed throughout the training ground.

The flag guard was composed of three people. Ye Jian was the flag bearer. Yang Heng and another representative from No.16 Middle School were standing beside Ye Jian. He was a tall and skinny senior.

The three of them didn't train beforehand and only practiced a few times during the morning training. Under Ye Jian's leadership, they passed after practicing five times.

Standing at the forefront, Ye Jian immediately saw Xia Jinyuan, who was standing on the reviewing platform. All she did was just raise her eyes slightly but he seemed to have felt it and gazed over.

"The flag bearer in the middle was the senior high student who accompanied the Head abroad. She's just like a soldier." His gaze was locked onto Ye Jian. Xia Jinyuan softly whispered to Commander Xia, "She's good, right?"

Chapter 705: She's The One I Picked

There were a total of three flag guards, and she was standing right in front. Commander Xia didn't need to deliberately look for her.

Hearing that, he glanced at the particularly petite girl who was with the two other boys. Because of Xia Jinyuan's words, he looked at her for a while more and then nodded and praised, "Looks like she's a good one. It's rare for someone like her to be praised by the Head."

Although it sounded like a few words of appreciation, those who were familiar with Commander Xia knew that if someone could get a little praise from him, it meant that the person was really talented.

Ye Jian was standing between two boys who were more than 1.7m tall. Although her height was shorter than the other boys, her composure was different. She stood tall and carried the flag pole. Her aura was imposing, so much so that people could only feel that her aura was so powerful that it suppressed the two boys around her.

The leaders on the platform were talking, and the students would more or less fidget. But Ye Jian didn't. She was standing straight with her legs upright, like the barrel of a rifle.

Her chin was lifted slightly, with the restraint and majesty of a soldier, and her eyes were firm, cold, and sharp. Her temperament was completely different from the rest of the students.

Even if Xia Jinyuan didn't remind him, Commander Xia would have noticed her too.

"Not only is it rare, but she's also trained by a Class A Master Sergeant and a world-class sniper. I saw her four-year training plan, which was completely based on the US Delta Special Forces' training. Isn't a girl like her one in a million, even if she was in the army?"

In the little fox's living environment, he could temporarily become her secret boyfriend, but here, especially in front of his father, Xia Jinyuan didn't think about hiding it.

Besides, by hinting Commander Xia, he could prevent people from introducing their precious daughters to him.

Commander Xia knew his son well. It was the first time that his son introduced a girl to him. He couldn't help but glance a few more times. His sharp gaze returned and he said lightly, "Class A Master Sergeant, world-class sniper... Two heavyweight soldiers trained her. This is the first time I've heard of such a special case."

"They're not soldiers on active duty. They are all seniors who have retired from the army. Don't misunderstand. I'm not trying to abuse my power. The major general knows about Ye Jian, and the Head specifically ordered us to nurture her well and not waste her talents." Other people might be afraid of having eye contact with Commander Xia, but not his son. Xia Jinyuan continued to be indifferent with a slight smile. "I feel it's difficult to meet such a girl. Since I've met her, I have to take action."

A bomb was thrown. Commander Xia was unprepared for this. As the Commander-in-chief, there was only a momentary change of color on Commander Xia's face. Besides Xia Jinyuan, no one else realized a change in Commander Xia's face.

If he heard it correctly, his son, who had so much self-respect that the Matriarch couldn't intervene in his affairs, is telling him that he wants to take action against a senior high student?

What action? Military action?

Chapter 706: Where's The Gun?!

It's definitely not military action. What sort of military action can he possibly take against a senior high student! Commander Xia felt like he had returned to ten years ago. His naughty son that made the guards quit has returned.

He didn't do anything and looked at the girl who was starting to walk past the review platform. Her steps were filled with aura, especially when she waved the red flag and pointed at the enemy's movements. It waved like a sword, filled with fortitude.

If he wasn't told, he wouldn't have thought that this was a student, but a full-fledged soldier.

"If you want to take action, you have to see if the other party is willing." Despite the surprise, Commander Xia didn't reveal any of that. "Such girls are rare, and their minds are mature. It won't be easy for them to walk on the wrong path."

Applause sounded. The school leaders started clapping out of pride as Ye Jian approached the review platform.

Xia Jinyuan didn't reply immediately and told his Commander-Dad as he applauded, "Applaud, Dad. Everyone's clapping for her, it won't be polite if you don't do anything."

"Look at how good she is. The boys beside her are all not as good as her."

He just had to harp about it, like he was afraid that no one would know how good she was. Commander Xia wanted to smack him in the back of his head.

As the flag guards walked by, it was time for the parade. Class One was the first to go, and Ye Jian passed the flag to the instructor and trotted all the way back to her class. And with Instructor Huang's command, Class One was ready to be inspected by the leaders.

"Dad, I'll book a daughter-in-law for you in advance. It's her. I'm not changing it."

Xia Jinyuan continued to throw 'bombs' at Commander Xia, without considering whether his father would accept it or not.

"I think good things have to be done as soon as possible, or you will lose out. You often say that you should act when it's time for you to do so. I feel that this is the time to act. Indecision and hesitation will only make you miss out on opportunities."

"To tell you the truth, I fancied her when she was in junior high. It was after several years of deliberation before I decided to pursue her and make her your daughter-in-law."

Hearing that, Commander Xia's hand reached for his waist. He fancied her when she was in junior high? Is... is this his son? He was boiling with rage, and wanted to shoot him!

Xia Jinyuan acted as though he didn't see his dark face and smiled, "Don't pull out your gun. If you really kill me now, you will not only lose a son but a good daughter-in-law too."

"Compared to your tastes, mine is definitely much better. I'm saving you from worrying about whether I would be causing trouble in the army, or whether I would still be a bachelor in my forties. You can rest assured. I'm so filial, you should be happy about this."

Happy? He's asking for a beating! This bastard, just as he thought that he was back on the right track, who knew that he would fall in love with an adolescent girl!

Chapter 707: Doesn't Like You? I Feel At Ease Now.

Under the platform, after Instructor Huang shouted, "Salute!", the students from Second Year Class One raised their hands and saluted. All their gaze was fixed on the reviewing platform. The people on the platform, including Commander Xia, had to salute back to the students that greeted them.

Ye Jian was standing in the row closest to the reviewing platform. She lifted her hand and saluted. When she looked towards the reviewing platform, the first things she saw were the unfamiliar faces of the leaders she didn't know. Then, she saw Xia Jinyuan who was saluting her. He was wearing a peaked cap and he looked so handsome and elegant, he seemed like an immortal on the moon. She noticed the smile in his eyes and when she looked over, he purposely reminded her to look at his right with his eyes.

When she looked over, Ye Jian's soul almost flew out of her body in fright... the gold and shining epaulets, the military aura that was stronger than any other people... Commander Xia was looking at her intently!

Her heart pounded furiously. Ye Jian tried her best to control her breathing and appear natural on the front. She didn't mess up her steps either. She maintained her composure and walked passed the reviewing platform calmly.

The distance between them wasn't wide. It was only around three meters. Thus, Commander Xia naturally noticed the small changes in Ye Jian's expression. Ye Jian had lived for two lifetimes but this was the highest-ranking officer of the military. He was much older than her and his experience and knowledge weren't something she could match up to.

After Ye Jian walked past, Commander Xia spoke to his son calmly, "She seems to recognize me."

"I think she knows you. The day before yesterday, at night, we accompanied the Head back. I gave her our house number so she called me that day but I was bathing. You took the call and from then onwards, she didn't dare to call our house again." Xia Jinyuan put down his arm but the smile on his face didn't disappear. His smile made him look even brighter than the sky in the day when they weren't any clouds. "Don't misunderstand her. Even if she knew who you are, it doesn't mean that she laid her eyes on your status."

“Also, I forgot to tell you that I have decided on my wife. The crucial point is... the wife I decided on haven’t agreed to be my wife. I need to woo her. I don’t know if I will be able to succeed in wooing her, Dad.”

Commander Xia felt like reaching for his gun again. Didn’t this mean that everything he said before was nonsense? He even said that he would take action! What kind of action was this? The other party hadn’t even agreed. It was just a one-sided love from his irritating son.

He can’t even deal with his wife! How dare he say that his taste is better than me?

No matter how bad my taste was in the past, I still managed to leave behind a good offspring!

However, he had to admit that he felt relaxed. He thought that he was really in a romantic relationship with an adolescent but fortunately, everything was just empty talk. The lady hadn’t even fallen in love with him. Not bad. This lady has good willpower. This is worth complimenting.

Commander Xia wasn’t the kind of person who would only allow her son to marry the lady if he liked the lady. He didn’t care about the status of their families too. His son’s wife belonged to his son. As his father, he didn’t need to like her!

As for the family’s background, the Xia family didn’t need a lady to support them. It was a man’s job to make contributions and accomplish great tasks. Why did he need to rely on his wife?

Commander Xia felt at ease once he knew that everything was still in progress. The results were unknown too. Thus, a small smile appeared on his stern face. “As long as the lady hasn’t fallen in love with you, I’ll feel at ease.”

“The lady has good willpower. The Head never analyzed a person wrongly so this lady must be really good. I don’t care what you want to do but there’s one thing I have to emphasize. If I hear anything about you seducing a young lady in my military unit, you can be prepared to eat bullets.”

Chapter 708: I Need To Protect Her

Commander Xia wasn’t against his son dating a high school student. Why did he need to oppose them? The lady hadn’t even liked his son! As long as the lady didn’t agree, it was just a one-sided love.

But, he had to look into the lady too. He didn’t need a daughter-in-law with a powerful background but he had to ensure that the character of his daughter-in-law was good.

“Don’t bring the lady to me first. I don’t want to know what’s happening between the two of you either. She’s still a high school student. You’re at least six years older than her. If you really like her, the least you can do is to not disturb her now.”

Xia Jinyuan had never thought of bringing Ye Jian back home at this time too. Today, he just wanted to let Commander Xia take a look at Ye Jian so that his father knew he had someone he loved. In the future, his father would take notice of Ye Jian in the military unit and have a better understanding of her. That way, he wouldn't give her a cold face when they meet the next time.

Since he chose Little Fox, as a man, the first thing he needed to do was to protect his woman so that she wouldn't suffer in his family.

Based on Little Fox's personality, after she enters the military, she will only receive admiration and compliments from Commander Xia. At that time, he would have a smoother time bringing Little Fox into the Xia family.

The relationship between the two of them hadn't started but Xia Jinyuan had already laid out the path for Ye Jian.

"I don't have the thought of bringing her home currently. Don't worry about that. Also, I will not cross the line when she's still in high school. I will wait for her to get into university first. Today, I just want to let you know that I like a good lady and I will work hard to woo her so that she can become your daughter-in-law."

"Since you know her, you can examine her and understand her in the future. You will know why I like her. She's an orphan. Her mother is a martyr. I don't wish that when I bring her home, she'll have to be very cautious when living with us."

Xia Jinyuan was a person who knew what he wanted. Hence, he made his attitude known to his father. He would definitely protect the lady he liked and wouldn't allow her to suffer in his family.

He knew Ye Jian's background and knew... how she spent her days in the past when she was staying with Ye Zhifan. Thus, he wanted to give her a loving family in the future.

"You can decide on your own matters. I will not interfere. However, let me warn you first. If something happens between the two of you, I will not interfere too. Don't come and beg me either." Commander Xia could hear how firm his son was. His son would only marry that lady.

No matter what his attitude was, if the young lady created any trouble when she was studying, he wouldn't care about it even if it became a huge issue.

"Commander Xia, the flag bearer is one of the most outstanding female students in this batch..." Commander Guo, who was standing on the right side of Commander Xia, turned his head and said in a low voice, "During the military stance competition two days ago, her performance astounded the experienced soldiers in my military unit. Yesterday, during target practice, she hit the bull's eye when taking a shot 200 meters away while standing. Our military should take note of this young lady."

As the lady that the Head took a fancy on and brought her along to Pakistan during his secret visit, she must have some capabilities. However, she really had the ability. It wasn't easy for a senior high student to hit the bull's eye.

Commander Xia nodded and smiled. "Young people are indeed capable nowadays. She's indeed good. Her parade step march and saluting has the aura of a soldier."

Chapter 709: I Don't Want To Meet The Parents

Commander Guo didn't see Ye Jian's performance the last two days but the political commissar beside him kept talking about her the moment she appeared.

Also, yesterday night, Commander Liu from the military unit next door seemed proud of Ye Jian too. Thus, today, he specially asked who Ye Jian was and took notice of her throughout the entire ceremony.

It had to be said that the military unit next door was really impressive. He wondered where they found this little girl and how they managed to train her.

It was impossible that she trained in the military. The military was a restricted area. They wouldn't allow a student to enter as she pleased.

How on earth did they manage to train her?

How did they manage to make her into a qualified soldier without breaking the military rules?

Since Ye Jian wasn't his soldier, Commander Guo was more concerned about how the training for his neighboring military unit went. He didn't care how impressive the person was.

Commander Guo noticed that Commander Xia complimented Ye Jian too so he quickly pulled his political commissar over and asked him to tell Commander Xia about Ye Jian.

"She was able to eat raw snake meat with the old soldiers during her training. Based on what the platoon leader who followed the students during route march said, she had the aura of an experienced soldier. Other students were panting heavily after the 20 kilometers route march but she seemed fine. She would fight to be the first in everything."

As a soldier, you needed to have the spirit to fight for the first in everything you did. If you became the first, you would become your comrades' role model. You could lift everyone's enthusiasm and let your superiors feel assured.

The political commissar didn't beat around the bush when he was complimenting Ye Jian. Xia Jinyuan smiled brightly as he continued listening to him. He couldn't put his smile away for a long time.

It was good that he was still able to smile. At this moment, cold sweat was forming on Ye Jian's back continuously.

Her nerves were all tensed up. Commander Xia came to the military unit. But, yesterday night, she just agreed to consider making Xia Jinyuan her boyfriend!

How stupid was she to do that?

Did her mind get filled with water yesterday? If Commander Xia knew that she had an ambiguous relationship with his son, he could destroy all the efforts she made using just one sentence!

She wasn't afraid of Ye Zhifan or the person behind him but she had to be afraid of this highest-ranked general of the entire military.

She lived two lifetimes but in front of him, she was just a nobody!

Even if she lived two lifetimes, she would still be full of respect and fearful of such a huge figure.

Most importantly, she had some relationship with his son. If it wasn't for this relationship, she wouldn't be afraid of this powerful person.

That was because she didn't have any background and didn't need to curry anyone's favor. She was Ye Jian, someone who moved forward using her own hard work.

She felt guilty all because of Xia Jinyuan.

Somehow, she felt that... if Commander Xia knew about this one day, he would give her a shot with his gun!

Ye Jian felt her head hurting. Now, she just hoped that Xia Jinyuan didn't tell Commander Xia about their relationship. Even if he wanted to say, it shouldn't be now!

Ye Jian was underage. She was just a senior high student. If she was in a romantic relationship with a current soldier, she wouldn't be the one that got hurt. Xia Jinyuan's future was the one that would be destroyed.

As parents, no one wanted to see their child's future getting ruined!

Not even the impartial Commander Xia!

Ye Jian felt a chill down her spine. She felt that Xia Jinyuan wouldn't tell Commander Xia anything. After all, he was a man. All men wanted to build a good career.

Who would hope that his future would be destroyed by a lady?

Chapter 710: Awkwardness Disease

Especially an outstanding man like Xia Jinyuan. One look and you would know that this was a man who wouldn't accept failure. When he wore his military uniform and stood among the leaders, his aura and spirit were one of the best.

He was born to be different. How could he worry Commander Xia just because of her?

Thinking about this, Ye Jian finally managed to stop the cold sweat from forming. ...She still needed to improve her psychological endurance. Commander Xia just showed his face but she already felt so guilty.

She suddenly remembered the call that night. Commander Xia picked up her call personally... in the end, she got frightened so she just said, "Sorry, I called the wrong number." Then, she hung up.

Ye Jian groaned in her heart. She raised her hand and knocked her forehead. "Ye Jian, Ye Jian, your head must be filled with water. You just received Xia Jinyuan's love letter. Why did you agree to consider making him your boyfriend? Your mind must be filled with water! Filled with water!"

She knocked her head and silently complained. The other classes were walking in front and Ye Jian and her class were standing at the back. Thus, no one noticed her small actions.

But, Instructor Huang, who was standing beside her, noticed it. He was standing with his legs apart at shoulder's length and his hands behind his back. When he spoke, he didn't move his head. Even his facial muscles didn't move. He asked Ye Jian in a low voice, "You seem a little uncomfortable."

She was indeed uncomfortable. However, it wasn't her body that was feeling uncomfortable. She was feeling awkward in her heart.

"I'm alright. I just remembered an embarrassing thing." Ye Jian sighed secretly before retracting the expression on her face. She cleared her throat and whispered back, "I'm fine now."

Xia Jinyuan wouldn't be so hot-headed and tell Commander Xia about their relationship. Nothing was confirmed yet. Based on his intelligence, he wouldn't make such a bad move.

There was still a long journey ahead. No one knew if they would really get together in the future!

The bad thoughts in her mind were washed away just like how the sea washed away the sand on the shore. Only good thoughts were left. Ye Jian relaxed.

As an instructor, Instructor Huang didn't have the right to interfere with his student's private matters. Thus, when he heard Ye Jian's reply, he reminded her in a more serious tone, "Don't let your personal affairs affect the inspection. You can think about the things you haven't solved after the inspection ends."

"Now, we're still undergoing inspection. The leaders above are watching us. You're the model soldier and the flag bearer. Many people will be watching you. Don't pull yourself down."

The performances of all the classes were starting. Ye Jian replied softly, "Yes." Then, she regained her composure and stopped thinking about the things between Xia Jinyuan and her.

Now, she could only trust that this dangerous man didn't report his personal life to Commander Xia.

Instructor Huang looked at the lady whom he respected from the corner of his eyes. He noticed that her expression had turned calm. He couldn't help but smile with his eyes.

The political commissar was right. Being able to teach such an impressive student before he retired from the military really added more color to his military journey.

The inspection of the military training was split into different portions. There was the military stance, military boxing, knife skills, cudgel skills, and tactical performance. This was the first time the Southern Province implemented military training so they were very strict with it. There were only seven days of training but there were many things they had to learn.

Not all students participated in every component. Due to the time constraint, each class was assigned a component to perform.
