

Chapter 731: Captain Xia's Pain

But, the young lady was really very reserved. Half an hour had passed and she was still maintaining the standard sitting posture of a soldier. No matter how bumpy the car was, her spine never relaxed.

She had indeed undergone strict training before. All her actions exuded the towering aura and sharpness of a soldier.

Ye Jian pursed her lips and gave a small smile. Commander Xia smiled and said, "He caused many troubles when he was young. For a period of time, I didn't even dare to go back to the courtyard. I'm afraid that when I go back, I'll get blocked by all my colleagues who will complain to me about what my son did again."

"If I need to describe that period with a phrase, I will say that it's as dark as hell. Thinking back, I feel that my temper must be good because I didn't strangle him to death."

Ye Jian felt cold sweat on her forehead as she listened to Commander Xia. How naughty was Captain Xia when he was young? He even managed to make Commander Xia afraid to go home!

Then, she smiled again. No wonder he was so irritating now. No wonder she always had a headache when she saw him. He was already playful when he was young. How could she be his match?

The chemical defense regiment was a two and a half hours drive from the provincial city. Only half an hour had passed so far. After passing Commander Xia's test, Xia Jinyuan started talking about his childhood when he noticed that Ye Jian was still uncomfortable.

He didn't feel embarrassed when his past was revealed. Instead, he felt quite proud. "The children in the courtyard were at two extremes. One group of them had outstanding results while the other group had lousy results. Little Fox, guess which group I belonged to."

"Probably the first..." The atmosphere was very good now. Ye Jian was genuinely happy. "But, I'm not so sure. You might be the second group too. After all, the current Captain Xia still causes headaches for Commander Xia."

That's right. The second he opened his mouth, he told his father that he wanted to find a senior high student as his girlfriend. It was a good thing that the commander-in-chief restrained himself and didn't hit him.

"Smart. I belong to the second group. I didn't listen in school and never did in the courtyard too. Every day, I just wanted to play. The game I played the most is 'fighting war'. The children were split into two teams. One was the enemy while one was our army. I was the general of our army. As the general, even if I didn't have a military uniform, I need to have a cap, right? Hence, I brought two of my friends out to steal a cap. We climbed into the logistics building using the water pipe and stole more than 20 caps."

"That year, the military just changed the design of their uniform so the caps were all new. I didn't know at that time but I stole the caps of the entire guard's team. I only realized that the cap was a little different after we finished playing. Thus, I decided against bringing the cap back home. I gave the dirty cap to a member of the enemy team who performed quite well and went back happily."

Ye Jian finally understood why Commander Xia didn't want to go home. A naughty Xia Jinyuan was really a headache. She asked, "What happened in the end?"

Even though this had happened a long time ago, Commander Xia still felt afraid when he answered for his son, "In the end, the caps were found in the bags of the children. But, the mastermind went to his grandparents' house to sleep that night. The entire courtyard was filled with the cries of children. Only my house didn't."

As expected of Captain Xia! He was able to detach himself from such a huge crime. Ye Jian gave him a thumbs up.

Commander Xia was distracted by his memories. He felt a little bitter as he said, "I noticed that you felt like hitting him just now. You can just hit him. There's no need to worry about injuring him or that I will be angry."

Ye Jian, who finally managed to relax, tensed up again. The commander-in-chief even managed to see that?

Chapter 732: I'm Not His Match Yet

Ye Jian got exposed but she kept her composure and maintained the smile on her face. She replied calmly, "Just now, I really did want to have a duel with Captain Xia. However, I know that I'm not his match so I gave up the thought."

Commander Xia had been in the military for half his life. He wasn't someone who liked to listen to flatters. He always admired broad-minded and upright people. Hence, he was surprised when Ye Jian didn't hide the matter and spoke about it openly.

This young lady was very mature and didn't curry his favor. She was frank and forthright too. This was very rare. It wasn't strange that his son, someone who had high expectations, would fall for this lady.

"We're just talking casually now. Little Ye, you don't have to be nervous." Commander Xia looked at her back which suddenly tensed up again and then turned to see his son who was frowning and worried about his future girlfriend. He decided that he should be a kind and friendly elder.

In the past, his father and mother, who are Xia Jinyuan's grandparents, didn't object to his marriage although they didn't agree with it. They even asked him to take care of his wife after she got pregnant.

Their family culture was like this so Commander Xia didn't think of separating the two of them.

“I might be a commander but I’m a father and an elder too. This isn’t working hours. Little Ye, you don’t have to be nervous. Just take me as your elder.”

If it wasn’t for Xia Jinyuan, how would Ye Jian know that the powerful Commander Xia on the stage was so warm and kind? Ye Jian, who had a good psychological quality, started to relax because of his laughter.

Besides the first half an hour of the journey from the chemical defense regiment to the provincial capital, Ye Jian didn’t feel any stress the rest of the time.

Since he was a soldier, Commander Xia was short and sweet in his speech, especially when he was analyzing military affairs. All his words hit the nail on the head. His view of the wars, including the current wars and the battles in the future, made Ye Jian respect him even more.

“In less than 10 years, the entire world will use information as their main battle plan. From scouting in the sky to ground combats, everything will be digitalized. This can be observed after the Gulf War. We observe that non-contact warfare will be an important operation. It will become one of the tactics in high-tech warfare.”

“There will always be casualties in a war. But, how to lower the number of casualties is a difficult problem the militaries of all countries need to solve. Non-contact warfare is an advantageous tactic. Whether it’s our country or other countries, everyone strives to use these tactics which can harm their enemies while protecting themselves.”

“You are still young so while you’re learning military theories, you should find out more about information warfare too. There are a few research departments in the National Science University that are leading the research in this area. It’s good that you are hot-blooded now but you must look further into the future. The wars that now are unlike the wars that happened in the past.”

“You’re born in a peaceful era so you must remember that while mankind is advancing, wars are advancing too. What kind of wars will happen in the future...” Commander Xia actually wanted to remind Ye Jian to study hard but as he spoke, he naturally linked it to future warfares. He paused for a moment and smiled. He decided to test Ye Jian. “What do you think future wars will be like?”

At this moment, Ye Jian was dumbstruck by what Commander Xia said. That was because he was actually right. In less than ten years, all the powerful and big nations would start digitalizing their wars. The appearance of drones, stealth fighters, and electromagnetic interference were all instances of information warfare.

Chapter 733: Shock The Elder

It was 1997 now. Everything was still hidden under the calm. Their country continued to maintain a low profile.

After the sanction in 1990, America recalled all the temporary bases they built in China. The professional team demolished all the equipment and facilities with the help of the American army. They also blew up a few tanks that they finished building. At the same time, all the blueprints were destroyed too.

As for the air force, the United States Air Force stopped providing China with the most advanced F16A fighter planes as well as more than ten Type B fighter planes.

Ever since then, China has been remaining silent in its military affairs. They started going into torpor all the way until the large scale military parade of 1999. That year, they reviewed 42 pieces of equipment, of which more than 90% were new equipment. Most of them were self-designed and manufactured. These high-tech weapons and equipment became the main weapons of the country. It also showed the real rise of a big nation.

In the past, she wasn't concerned about military affairs. But, after choosing this path and listening to what Commander Xia said, she believed that her country's military power had jumped drastically. As the highest-ranking commander of the military, Commander Xia's foresight was already ahead of the entire world.

Xia Jinyuan always discussed wars with his father so he never felt that this topic was difficult at all. However, he still felt a little worried when they spoke of it in front of Ye Jian.

He smiled and said, "Dad, are you testing me or testing her? If you're testing me, we never managed to distinguish who is better on this topic. If you're testing my future girlfriend, it might be too deep."

"From a professional point of view, this is indeed a deep topic. However, to the two of you who aspire to be an outstanding soldier, this is something you must think about." Commander Xia turned slightly serious as he said to the two youngsters, "No matter what your identity is now, as long as you enter the military, you must have the initiative."

He didn't hope that his son would just be a conservative person. He also didn't hope that his daughter-in-law was short-sighted. If they didn't know anything, he could teach them. But, they mustn't avoid it!

Ye Jian started thinking about Commander Xia's question. She was reborn so even though she didn't care much about military affairs in her past life, she more or less read about it in the news before.

She pursed her lips and weighed her thoughts in her heart before answering in a serious and sharp tone, "My view of future warfares is very simple. In the future, close combat will become an outdated tactic. The main tactics will be mostly long-ranged. Non-contactable tactics will definitely become the trend in future warfares."

"Just like what you said, information warfare is a long-range tactic. It will become the main tactic during wars. An instance will be using long-range methods to control weapons and fire them accurately, just like the fighter planes dropping missiles from the air. The ground will be damaged but the fighter planes won't. Everyone will aim to harm their enemy greatly while ensuring that their own people win."

From the start to the end, Xia Jinyuan was shocked. He was entirely stunned by her words. He didn't expect Little Fox to have such a deep understanding of future warfares even though she was very young.

Her understanding was so deep she was able to see what the future trend will be!

Commander Xia looked at Ye Jian in a new light. He was dumbfounded too. He repeatedly said, "Good, good." Then, he smiled, "Very good! It's rare that you have such foresight at a young age. If you really become Xia Jinyuan's girlfriend, it's his fortune!"

Chapter 734: Not Bad

"Our Xia family doesn't care about family status. We only care about people's thoughts and character. You don't have to be burdened when dealing with him, but I believe that the reason why you're moved by him and why you paid attention to him is not because of the Xia family's influence."

So far, Commander Xia was very satisfied with the senior high student that his son had picked! He didn't find a wrong one, it's just that she's a bit too young. Fortunately, she's got a great character and was able to make him feel assured.

He's not afraid that the two of them will ruin their future.

Ye Jian smiled and replied, "Rest assured, Commander Xia. We are not in a relationship now, and we won't do anything that will ruin our futures. I believe in myself and Captain Xia too."

"I'm assured!" Those who had the vision would not destroy themselves. Commander Xia nodded his head and asked Xia Jinyuan, who became silent, "Are you going to the chemical defense regiment in the afternoon? Is there anything else?"

Xia Jinyuan's eyes were deep and dark as his lips were slightly straightened. With a low voice and a hint of contemplation, he responded, "I'll be heading back to the chemical defense regiment in the afternoon, I'll send you off first, before sending Ye Jian."

There was a faint light floating and sinking in the depths of his pupils... It looks like he didn't understand his little fox completely.

He didn't know that her vision was so great, much greater than a veteran like him who grew up and served in the military for several years.

Commander Xia looked at the time and responded with an ok. He then asked the guard about his schedule.

And Ye Jian heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. This time, she used the knowledge of her previous life to answer the question. She was a little uneasy in her heart.

He must be thinking, how did she know all these?

That's right. She's so young, but how did she know about future warfare? And how did she know what tactics will be used? This was something that a young Ye Jian wouldn't know how to answer, but someone who lived for two lives would.

A woman that had two lives, a woman that had a secret that cannot be revealed. How could she open her heart and accept her other half who could walk into her life completely?

Commander Xia was happy, his daughter-in-law candidate was good. But there are still several years before she really becomes her daughter-in-law. It all depends on how their relationship develops.

The car had already entered the Provincial City and soon arrived at the military area. Commander Xia, who was satisfied with Ye Jian, smiled, "I have to attend a meeting at the military area, go do what you have to do."

After talking casually for an hour or so, and about the military for another forty minutes, Commander Xia was satisfied with her, so much so that he could ignore her age. He wined down the car window and waved to Ye Jian after she got out of the car. It was only after he repeatedly gave her advice that he then instructed the guard to drive off.

The car had already entered the military area, and Ye Jian raised her head. Her gaze landed on the huge national emblem directly above the entrance. She then looked at Xia Jinyuan, who was standing beside her silently. She then smiled, "In two years' time, this emblem will also be on me."

Because her goal was military school! That was also the hope of Uncle Chen and Uncle Gen.

"You will, because you will become a great soldier." Xia Jinyuan said warmly, with faith in her.

Chapter 735: Who Would Oppose Us?

Ye Jian smiled. It was almost three o'clock in the afternoon. She stood there in the sun as her fair skin shined like a pearl. Her short hair which reached just over the shoulder was tied up, revealing her delicate and perfect facial features.

When she smiled, you could see her gleaming black eyes that were warmer than the sun. "You, Uncle Chen and Grandpa Gen all believe in me unconditionally."

Xia Jinyuan loved to hear that, and he slowly raised his thin lips. There was a layer of sweat on the side of his forehead as he wore his military uniform in the 32 degrees celsius heat, showing his masculinity.

"If I don't believe in my future girlfriend, who else can I believe in?"

Ye Jian just smiled at him and responded, "Captain Xia, although I'm an orphan, I still have two elders around. It might be a bit difficult to be my boyfriend."

Grandpa Gen and Uncle Chen have always told me from the beginning that women are equally upright, independent, and confident. They don't need to rely and depend on anyone to live their wonderful lives. You want to be my boyfriend? Captain Xia, don't be too confident."

She had contained this sentence in her heart when she mentioned it to Commander Xia. Now that he was gone, she could say whatever she wanted to without any burden.

Xia Jinyuan narrowed his eyes, revealing that dangerous aura that Ye Jian was familiar with. "Do you think that that will be a problem?" At the entrance of the Provincial Military District, the bold Major Xia had his hands in his pockets as he leaned his tall body over. "I'm a nuisance, enough for Commander Xia to dread coming home in the past. Little Fox, do you think I won't be able to make your two elders agree to this?"

If someone who didn't have the looks were to squint like the way he did, it would only make people feel disgusted. However, Xia Jinyuan's facial features were elegant, and his eyes were deep and cold. Even as he squinted, it wasn't dreadful. It looked like a cheetah who was going to sleep, elegant enough to want to look at for a long time even if you knew it was dangerous.

Ye Jian looked at him and thought about the dangerous man in front of her that wouldn't stop until he reached his goal. What he said cannot be treated as a joke and had to be taken seriously.

The delicate eyebrows frowned as she said indifferently, "Uncle Chen and Grandpa Gen both came out of the battlefield and would have seen all sorts of people. Since they taught me, it's natural that they wouldn't easily let a man who just appeared out of nowhere take me away."

She was reminded to focus on her studies, and there was no way they would agree to Xia Jinyuan just like that.

"I have a cute and innocent little fox. Although she's smart and spirited, it's a pity she met a clever and tenacious hunter. It's difficult to escape from me." Xia Jinyuan laughed. His laughter was deep and mellow like wine. "Uncle Chen already knew about my intentions. If I go over and tell him that Commander Xia has no objections, do you think that Uncle Chen will say no? Or will he nod in agreement?"

He fancied her, and naturally considered all the factors, such as how to obtain the consent of Uncle Gen and Uncle Chen. Those were important issues to consider. He couldn't have missed it.

The clever hunter had made his move. Although he was inexperienced, he managed to consider these things because of his intelligence. He will go step by step, not allowing any errors to happen.

Chapter 736: Little Fox, Let's Talk Slowly

He leaned over, closing in the distance between them. They were so close that she was shrouded in the faint smell of mint coming from his body. Just when she was about to step back, Xia Jinyuan was already standing leisurely. "Don't be doubtful. Uncle Chen already knows. Little Fox, you need to know that everything I've said is true. I said that you will be my future girlfriend, my future wife. That's definitely true. And I've said that I will hold your hand and take you all the way to the top, and never leave you. This is all true and it will be... as long as I live!"

Ye Jian was shocked by his words but was also afraid that he was lying. She was wavering between believing it and doubting it. "You told Uncle Chen? When was it? Why don't I know about this?"

Uncle Chen would never hide anything about me. If you really said it, why didn't Uncle Chen beat you up?"

Ye Jian really didn't know that during the training in the depopulated zone, when the Xueyu unit was there to remove the mercenaries, Principal Chen approached Xia Jinyuan for a conversation when she hurt her waist.

Moreover, it was Principal Chen that started the topic and said that he could see that Major Xia was interested in Ye Jian.

"I can see that Major Xia is a bit interested in Jian. If it's just momentary, an infatuation, I advise you not to bother an orphan like her."

How did Xia Jinyuan answer back then?

In the face of her doubts, his cheetah-like eyes narrowed a little. He said a lot of words at the time, but he still remembers every sentence.

"You're afraid that I'll lie to you? Uncle Chen not only knew that I was interested in this little fox back then but also warned me to stay away from you." Xia Jinyuan said eagerly and started to appreciate the expression that was changing in front of him. There was shock, shyness, and a bit of disbelief.

In front of others, Little Fox has always been calm and indifferent, and she would have good control of her facial expressions. It was only when she was with him that she would show a plethora of emotions and faces. She was a real and spirited little fox in front of him.

It was a pity that Ye Jian didn't realize that that was the real version of herself in front of Xia Jinyuan.

It didn't matter. There was still enough time between the two of them. Although his life is limited to tens of thousands of days, in the future, they would be in each other's life!

Ye Jian started to believe most of his words because if Uncle Chen knew about it, he would definitely warn him! It was because of this that she was angry and shy now!

"What did you and Uncle Chen talk about, and when was it? Was it that night when you came to school to send me to train with the motorized infantry soldiers?"

That would be the only opportunity when he would have the time to do so.

Xia Jinyuan smiled, "Don't be anxious, I'm returning to the chemical defense regiment at 7.30 pm. We still have a few hours to slowly talk about it."

She was anxious, but not him.

“It’s hot outside, let’s find a place and talk about it. Go to the pharmacy first. The military surgeon told you to change the gauze after the military training. I’m guessing that you didn’t.”

It’s because he didn’t smell any medicine coming from her body.

A soldier who wears training or combat uniforms will bring common drugs like anti-inflammatory drugs along with him. He was particularly sensitive to such smells.

Chapter 737: The Most Handsome Man

Ye Jian didn’t change it and was planning to go to the pharmacy alone to buy some medicine and change her gauze after she returned to school. After what he had said, she looked at the gate of the provincial military district.

This was not a place to talk. The sentries by the entrance were already aware of their presence. It was a prohibited area and was not for people to hang around. If it wasn’t for Xia Jinyuan’s military uniform and her camouflage uniform, they would have already chased them away.

She didn’t refuse and Xia Jinyuan smiled wider. There was a gentle light in his sharp eyes. Ye Jian accidentally made eye contact with him, and hurriedly looked away.

After living for two lifetimes, Xia Jinyuan was indeed the best and most good-looking man.

Excellent and handsome, he had ability and an influential family. How could anyone reject someone with that kind of elegant and high-hearted temperament? She tried to tell herself and make metal preparations every day, but in the end, she didn’t manage to escape from him and had feelings for him instead.

But so what? Having feelings doesn’t mean that they can immediately fall in love! There were still many things that she had to do. A relationship is not her focus now.

After adjusting her breathing, Ye Jian said softly, “There’s a pharmacy in the alley at the back of the school. I’ll buy some and return to the dormitory and change it. Captain Xia, you should return to the chemical defense regiment early. After all, you were there to learn.”

She frantically looked away and slowly restored her inner peace, leaving only a faint blush on her face. Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows and his smile grew wider. Sometimes, he didn’t mind using his charisma to attract his calm and self-sustaining Little Fox!

“Buy a small medicine box back to school later. You need to prepare some commonly used medicine. Are you sure it’s convenient to change your gauze back in the dormitory? Aren’t you afraid that your classmates will ask you questions?” Xia Jinyuan held her shoulder and headed towards the road where they could get a taxi. “Go to the hotel after you bought the medicine, you can rest over there before going back to school.”

Ye Jian struggled away from his grasp and glared at him, "Don't touch me. Commander-in-chief said that I'm still young. Don't do this!"

"Commander-in-chief also said that since you are my future girlfriend, I should take good care of you." Xia Jinyuan didn't want to maintain a distance from her and looked at the blushing Ye Jian. His charming smile appeared on his face, "Do you know why Commander-in-chief didn't object to this after seeing you?"

"I don't want to know, if I knew that Commander-in-chief would object, I would have definitely told him to object and maintain his stance!"

She was angry. Xia Jinyuan didn't get angry, but smiled instead, "Are you angry? Be obedient. Don't hurt yourself because of your anger."

"Commander-in-chief's objection is invalid. The things I want to do, the person I choose, the person I like, has nothing to do with him. So don't worry about the Commander-in-chief's objection."

Every time like this, Ye Jian could only stay silent. She wasn't angry at all, nor was she afraid that the Commander-in-chief would object.

The most important thing was that she just wanted to know why the Commander-in-chief didn't object to this after seeing her. But after he said that, she started to worry that the Commander-in-chief might object.

"Captain Xia, you must have been beaten by Commander-in-chief when you're young!" Ye Jian gritted her teeth. The way he tortured people and twisted words, and taking things for granted... It made her want to beat him!

Chapter 738: You're The Most Beautiful Scenery In The World

What to do? Her fists were itching to beat him up!

Major Xia who has been beaten up since he was young raised his eyebrows and looked at her meaningfully. "Are you so anxious to know about my childhood? I thought I said enough about my childhood in the car, but turns out my little fox thinks it's not enough."

"You don't need to answer, I don't have the desire to know about Captain Xia's childhood." Ye Jian revealed a poker face, she needed more time to get used to the other side of Xia Jinyuan – the cheeky side!

She was obviously trying to vent out her anger, but he understood it as an interrogative one!

Now, in Xia Jinyuan's eyes, Ye Jian was undoubtedly cute, cute enough to make him want to be closer to her again and again, to understand her. "It happened often, but every time after I was beaten up, my dad has to return to the old house to be criticized."

“Aunt Liu, who takes care of me, would immediately make a phone call to my grandpa every time I’m getting beaten. Then I will be crying while my dad gets scolded by the Old Master.”

“It repeats almost every day. When I was a rebellious teenager, my dad sometimes would rather stay in the military guest house instead of staying at home, afraid that someone will bring along his son and find him.”

Reminiscing about his mischievous old days, Xia Jinyuan smiled deeply, but Ye Jian could see coldness in the corner of his eyes.

When he finally said the phrase ‘A child without a mother can really give a headache’, Ye Jian’s eyelids twitched.

She pursed her lips and said, “At least you have a dad. My dad passed away before my mom. After my mom passed away, while the other kids were calling out to their parents, I don’t even know where to find them.”

Was she comforting him? To use her sorrow to comfort him, it made his heart ache.

Their steps slowed to a stop, Xia Jinyuan quietly looked at the girl who showed a hint of sadness and sorrow. There was pity in his eyes.

In the years to come, he only hoped that she would have peace and no longer have sorrow.

Ye Jian didn’t realize that Xia Jinyuan’s heart was aching as she comforted him. Her eyebrows furrowed, “You’re not going? Are you staying to appreciate the beauty of the provincial military district?”

The sunlight seemed to move as the trees swayed, and the uniformed man standing under the light became the most beautiful scenery then. Pristine and mighty, for someone to be able to see such an exemplary man, they had to be truly blessed.

Ye Jian was not one who would appreciate sceneries. But every time she saw Xia Jinyuan, especially when he was in his uniform, her heartbeat would accelerate by half a beat.

The beauty in the lovers’ eyes could be amazing enough to make people indulge in it for a long time. Xia Jinyuan looked at his most beautiful scenery, and his cold eyes were shining like cold stars on a winter night.

She lost both her parents. But children will always need to leave their parents. He was going to take care of her all her life, to protect her peace and never make her feel any sorrow.

Looking at her, Xia Jinyuan slowly said, “In my heart, my eyes, the most beautiful scenery in the world is the person in front of me.”

At this moment, he smiled slightly while she blanked out.

The provincial military district was at the back of the mountain. It was the site of the old revolutionary base. The buildings outside were modern, but red brick houses were located deep among the shadows of the trees, and you could vaguely see the buildings through the fence.

Chapter 739: A Panicky Ye Jian

The scorching sun was gone now and the wind was blowing. Camphor leaves were falling as the yellow leaves on the ground were rolled up. A leaf drifted in front of Ye Jian's eyes and the soldier's figure was blurred for that second.

Those words stunned Ye Jian.

Turns out words have the ability to move someone and strike them in their hearts. At that moment, his warmth instantly weaved through her limbs and body. It didn't even give her any chance to reject it, and just like this, it occupied a space in the corner of her heart, breaking down those walls of hers.

Xia Jinyuan chuckled lightly. He didn't see her sorrow from the past in her eyes but saw her freeze up because of him.

"You're in a daze again. When did you have the habit of doing this?" He raised his hand and took the leaves that landed on her head, there was masculinity and warmth in his actions.

Ye Jian, who had forgotten to breathe, suddenly went back to her senses and started to cough. The air-flow poured back inward after taking a sharp breath, irritating her air passage.

Xia Jinyuan saw this and was already laughing so much that his chest was shaking. His hands were already on her back as he sighed, "Looks like you're in a daze because of me. It seems that this face of mine is still quite useful, at least it can seduce this little fox."

Seduce... Ye Jian, who almost coughed out her tears, raised her eyes. She wanted to glare at him, but those teary eyes to Xia Jinyuan are just Ye Jian's shyness.

He smiled softly and caressed her back. Then, his eyes became deep. He really wanted to kiss her, to kiss that pair of eyes that made him have feelings for her.

"Captain Xia is good-looking and you smiled in front of me deliberately. If I didn't look at you, I would have wasted your efforts!" Ye Jian wiped away her tears from the corner of her eyes and saw his dark eyes. Her heart suddenly thumped. She seemed to have felt something and she quickly escaped from his clutches, avoiding his breath that could fluster her.

She was dazed by his looks and his words. She was dazed by him.

Embarrassed, Ye Jian walked away and her face flushed red uncontrollably. Her ears were red and her heart was still trembling.

She escaped at the right time. If it was half a second later, he would have kissed her on that path. That desire to kiss her didn't disappear along with her escape but became stronger.

The last time they kissed seems to be a little bit long ago. Now he wanted to kiss again.

Ye Jian, who was all red, felt that she was fleeing. Only he could make her panic! What is this? Technically, she's older than him!

"Where are you going? The sky's dark, let's call a cab first." She walked fast, but she was no match for Xia Jinyuan's long legs. After catching up, he couldn't help but hold on to her shoulders and bring her to him. "Your wound is a bit inflamed, if you get caught in the rain again, you won't be able to attend the motorized infantry training."

Ye Jian, who was already in a panic, was suddenly hugged. Subconsciously, she lifted her feet and stomped on his toes, "Let me go, Xia Jinyuan."

Chapter 740: Since You're Injured, Be More Obedient

"Since you're injured, be more obedient. Stop moving around. I might touch your arm accidentally." Xia Jinyuan smiled as he raised his leg swiftly and evaded her actions. He called for a taxi and lowered his head close to her ears. He laughed softly and whispered, "Be obedient. Get in the car first. It's already starting to rain."

Once Autumn was over, the weather always changed suddenly. A few minutes ago, the sun hung high in the sky but now, dark clouds were flying in from all directions. The entire provincial city was covered with them. Lightning and thunder weren't seen or heard but raindrops were already starting to fall.

He leaned closed to her ears even when he was talking to her. Ye Jian could feel the warmth of his lips sliding past her ears. She also knew that he was teasing her.

Ye Jian was angry and speechless. Why did she meet such a dangerous man? He was as cold, elegant, and indifferent as a sword when they first met. Why was he so different in private?

Ye Jian's fingertips were trembling. However, she was a person who gets braver if she received more setbacks. When she was forced into a corner, she would definitely retaliate! She gritted her teeth and said, "I can walk and ride a car myself. Captain Xia does not have to take care of me so thoroughly."

"I need to take care of you carefully. If not, my future girlfriend will have opinions against me." Xia Jinyuan opened the car door and let her get in first. Then, he got into the car and gave the taxi driver an address. After that, he sat obediently in the car and didn't tease Ye Jian anymore.

The taxi driver glanced at the male and female in the back seat. He kept looking at them. Suddenly, he sighed. "Little fellow, do soldiers like you find it hard to get a girlfriend?"

"One of my nephews is a soldier too. He's almost 26 years old but he hasn't found a girlfriend yet. Our entire family is worried about him. We are afraid that he might really become a single man."

No wonder they could chat so well. He was a family member of a soldier. Xia Jinyuan maintained his politeness and smiled, "Sometimes, the military unit will organize a massive blind date for their soldiers. The leaders in the military are also worried about their men's future."

“Huh? There’s really such a thing? My nephew also said that but we thought that he was just comforting us. That’s good, that’s good. If he sees one he likes, he can bring her back.” The taxi driver got excited by the conversation. He looked at the female soldier who didn’t make any sound but was smiling. He said happily, “Your girlfriend is not bad. She looks good and she’s a soldier just like you. You have a common topic with her.”

Ye Jian swallowed her saliva unnaturally. How did the taxi driver see that she was his girlfriend?

“We knew each other through the blind date too. Hence, you don’t have to worry. Your nephew will definitely find a girlfriend. He might be able to bring a girlfriend back for the new year.” Major Xia felt that the taxi driver had good eyesight. He was able to see through his relationship with Little Fox with one look. Xia Jinyuan was in a good mood so he started chatting with the driver.

Ye Jian touched her forehead. After some time, he reminded the taxi driver implicitly, “The rain is getting heavier. Be careful when you drive.” Then, she said to Xia Jinyuan, “Stop talking to him. It’s easy to get distracted when you talk while driving.”

“Not bad, you take care of him well. Right, I need to drive carefully on a rainy day. We’ll stop talking.” The taxi driver laughed. In the heavy rain, the car moved forward stably.

Xia Jinyuan leaned over and said to Ye Jian, “Commander Xia felt reassured when I’m with you because you don’t seem like an underage young lady. You feel like an adult female soldier.”
