

BOOT CAMP 821

Chapter 821: Good Friend, Good Loyalty, A Good Slap In The Face

She continued, "Don't show off your ultimate moves. My back is full of cold sweat now. If I continue playing, I won't be able to handle it! My legs feel a little weak now."

Ye Jian never thought that showing an adequate amount of weakness meant that you were a coward. She had confidence in herself so there wasn't any cowardice seen in her expression. If they continued playing, no one knew who would win or lose.

She didn't know if two darts in one shot and three darts in one shot meant throwing two darts, each aimed at one target.

During her desert training, Grandpa Gen threw two objects into the air at the same time. The two objects flew with the yellow sand. During that moment, she needed to hit both the objects in one shot to pass her training.

If it was something like that, she had the confidence to win the young men. But, there was really no need to continue playing. They should stop when it was appropriate.

The young ladies were all waiting for the young men to start their sit-ups. Wang Jin and his friends reacted quickly and said instantly, "A bet is a bet. 50 sit-ups. Come, let's complete the 50 sit-ups together!"

They quickly did their 50 sit-ups and the competition ended perfectly.

Yang Heng was already standing beside Commissioner Yang. He smiled and looked at the lively stage. "Dad, what do you think? I told you that she had many capabilities. This is her first time playing but she's already so good at it. I feel happy to have such a friend."

"Oh, just a friend? You don't have any other intentions?" Commissioner Yang smiled as he teased his son. "I feel that this lady is very attractive. Are you sure that you only treat her as a friend?"

Yang Heng smiled and looked at his father. He said unflinchingly, "She's really attractive but I know my own capabilities. Thus, we can only be friends."

He wasn't belittling himself. It was just that sometimes, you need to understand yourself. If you know that some things are not possible, don't insist on it.

Also, what was wrong with being friends? He didn't have to worry about his friend getting snatched away by someone else!

Commissioner Yang smiled in satisfaction when he saw how clear-minded his son was. Ye Jian was indeed very outstanding. But because of that, he knew clearly that his son wouldn't be able to completely handle a young lady like her.

The problem didn't exist even without his reminder. How could Commissioner Yang not feel relieved?

Yang Heng laughed and said, "Also, I dare to say that if they continued playing, she might not lose. She's able to let go when she needs to. She's even more decisive than a man."

"Yes, indeed. There aren't many young people that are able to save people's pride inconspicuously."

Commissioner Yang had been in the political world for a long time so he had a keen sight for people. He smiled slightly and nodded. He complimented, "She didn't waste her talent. Her parents are not around anymore but she's still able to become so impressive. Very good. Making this kind of friend is good. I support you."

As a politician, he knew how important connections were. Ye Jian was just a student now but in the future, she would definitely do something big.

His son would be motivated to work harder if he made such a friend. Also, she would be of help to him in the future too.

But... Commissioner Yang pondered for a moment before reminding his son in a soft voice, "Yang Heng, you need to treat your friend sincerely. Don't beat around the bush as you do with other people. Since you decided to be her friend, you must treat her wholeheartedly."

Although many people say that "there are no permanent friends, only permanent interests", if they met the right friend, it would be a friend worth making!

Chapter 822: Leaving To Hit People

Even if they won't have a common goal in the future, they would still have a genuine friendship!

"I know. That's why I treated her as a friend right from the start. Also, help me watch Uncle Yao. Yao Jing has grudges against her." This was what Yang Heng wanted to say.

Commissioner Yang frowned. After some time, he nodded lightly. He didn't say anything but his nod was enough to prove that he understood everything.

After seeing his father nodding his head, Yang Heng heaved a sigh of relief softly. The huge burden in his heart finally dropped. He pursed his lips and said in a low voice, "I've always wanted to tell you this but I'm afraid that you might reject it because you don't understand Ye Jian well enough. Yao Jing may seem like a lively person but she has many cheap tricks up her sleeve! Like just now, she kept playing small tricks. I feel irritated by them."

"Uncle Yao and Auntie Yao didn't stop her. Instead, they allowed her to do what she liked and felt that all these are just small matters! If this continues, Yao Jing's personality will lead to trouble for her family sooner or later."

While the father and son were talking quietly among themselves, Yao Jing, who just contacted Luo Ran, came back and kept complaining to her parents. There was a dark expression on her beautiful face. "She knows that it's Yang Heng's birthday today but she still stole the spotlight. Why is there such an irritating person like her?"

“Mom, you must tell Auntie about this later. Don’t let Auntie be deceived by her looks!”

“Enough. You made a mistake just now too. How can you still complain about other people? Raise your head and puff up your chest. Don’t shrink your neck!” Father Yao reprimanded Yao Jing in a low voice. “Ye Jian is outstanding. You must admit this! You need to understand that she’s more outstanding than you!”

“Look at the stage. She’s competing against five people but she showed no signs of panic. She even caused the five young men to break out in cold sweat! If you don’t want other people to steal your limelight, you must make sure that you have the capabilities to suppress other people first!”

“If it were you, based on your personality, you would have continued the competition and made yourself the limelight! Look at what she did. She ended the competition at the right time. Not only did she take care of the young men’s egos, but she also earned their respect. Also, this is Yang Heng’s birthday party. He is the main lead of the day!”

Mother Yao wasn’t Sun Dongqing. If her child made a mistake and didn’t know how to act properly, she would teach her. Thus, she put on a stern face and educated her daughter, “You stepped forward before you understood the entire situation. You even forgot to watch other people’s expressions! What did I teach you in the past? Where did all the knowledge go?”

“Also, your dad and I warned you against tackling Ye Jian again. But, you treated yourself like the host today after your Uncle Yang and Auntie Yang smiled at you again. You presumptuously usurped the host’s role so much that I feel embarrassed for you!”

“Apologize to your Uncle Yang and Auntie Yang later. Children can be immature but they must know to admit their mistakes!” Mother Yao finished her sentence in a low voice. When her daughter’s attention was shifted away from her, she whispered to her husband, “It looks like Ye Jian’s influence on Jingjing is quite huge. I think Yang Heng treats Ye Jian differently too. We should cancel all activities during the weekends in the future and invite a home tutor for Yao Jing. If not, she might not be able to get into the same school as Yang Heng!”

There were many members of the Yang family in the political world. In the business world, there were many talents from their family too. In comparison, the Yao family was lacking. If the two families could become relatives by marriage, there would only be advantages to gain.

The couple didn’t have the heart to keep watching the performances anymore so they continued discussing secretly. At 9.30 pm, a huge birthday cake was pushed out. The applause of the students never stopped.

The candles were lit up and the lights in the entire ballroom turned off. Only a few small lamps were lit up. Amidst the dim light, the birthday song was played.

Chapter 823: A Motley Crew

Today was the day of her duel with Luo Ran. Now, she needed to go to the back alley of the pub to meet him.

Amidst the happy voices singing “happy birthday”, Ye Jian found Wang Jin accurately and came beside him. She whispered, “I have some things to do so I need to leave for a moment. I’ll come back later.”

“Okay. I’ll leave a big piece of cake for you to rub on Yang Heng’s face.” Wang Jin didn’t know that Ye Jian was going out for a duel. He thought that she would be back in a short while so he didn’t ask her for any details. He was thinking about how to sneak an attack on Yang Heng later so he didn’t even notice when Ye Jian left.

After the lights lit up and the cake was cut, no one ate the cake. Everyone started playing with their cakes by rubbing it on other people’s faces.

Yang Heng was in the worst state. Even his eyebrows were stained with cake.

“Ye Jian left? Did she say where she was going? Why didn’t you ask her to stay and wait for me to go over first?” When Yang Heng heard what Wang Jin said, he frowned. A piece of cream even dropped down his eyebrows when he frowned. After he asked this question, he realized that he said the wrong thing. He patted Wang Jin’s shoulder and continued before Wang Jin could reply, “I was a little anxious, sorry.”

Wang Jin replied hurriedly, “It’s alright. I know you well. Since a young lady said that she needed to leave for a little while, I didn’t probe further. She said that she will come back in a while.”

No one knows when she will come back.

How long was a while? Ye Jian didn’t say so no one knew the answer.

She played darts happily, she laughed happily, and she even ignored Yao Jing’s provocation. She always managed to refute Yao Jing easily and caused Yao Jing to be on the losing end.

If she didn’t leave because she was unhappy. Then... she most probably left because of personal matters.

She paused for a moment and sighed. “I also said something wrong too. I don’t know if the child felt uncomfortable because of it.”

She told everyone her genuine mistake. Yang Heng immediately said, “Mom, don’t worry about this. She won’t take it to heart. If she hasn’t come back after the celebration ends, I’ll go and look for her.”

“She shouldn’t have gone too far. Maybe she really has some urgent matters to attend to. I think that the child knows her ground. Both of you don’t have to worry about her. Half an hour later, if she hasn’t come back, I’ll send people to check on her.” Commissioner Yang trusted Ye Jian. A young lady that was able to help the police solve a huge case must be someone with good critical thinking skills. Normally, a child like this wouldn’t place herself in a dangerous situation.

He rather believed that she really had urgent matters to attend to and didn’t leave because she was unhappy.

It was close to 10 pm. At this time, the city wasn’t as lively as it would be in ten years. There weren’t many cars or people on the road. If you walked on the streets, you would notice that the cars could travel at twice the speed as compared to day time.

Ye Jian walked naturally after she came out of the hotel. The people behind her followed her at a steady pace too.

Chapter 824: A VIP Has Come

In the middle of the night, a few men with unknown identities were following a young lady. Anyone who saw this scene could tell that something was wrong.

When she came out of the ballroom, Ye Jian saw a few men sitting on the sofa in the lobby of the hotel. One of them had blonde hair. This was the bunch of people that she met when she came back late from her training one day in the past.

Brother Huang. This was the name she heard someone shouting at that time.

When they saw her coming out, the group of men straightened their backs and their gazes landed on her. It was obvious that they were waiting for her.

She didn’t care about these people. The most important person was Luo Ran. She needed to wait for him to come out.

She walked calmly out of the hotel and walked until she reached a crossroads. She waited for the green man to light up. The men following her closely all stood still not far away behind her. They were all waving something in their hands. It was a small dagger.

A black car stopped as the traffic light turned red. Ye Jian crossed the road as the green light on the footwalk lit up. She reached the side of the road where Hotel Caesar was at.

“Third Master, look.” The driver said softly, “It’s the young lady that left with Miss Xia the other time. She’s going to the barren land where we’re going to build our clubhouse in the future. She’s alone and there are two groups of people following her.”

Hou Zi, who just finished a business meeting and was slightly drunk, squinted his eyes and looked at the small figures following Ye Jian. He said calmly, “These people aren’t even enough for her appetizer. Send some people to watch over her. If anything happens, lend her a helping hand. Help her to clear up the scene if there's a need to. Don't leave any traces behind."

The little girl was good at fighting. He also heard that she was good with guns. Unfortunately, he has never seen her using them before. They were all rumors in her school.

Even Commander Xia had seen her before but never stopped her. As long as nothing big happened, she would have no problem in becoming the daughter-in-law of the Xia family.

In that case, he should take care of her when he could.

Also, he had already asked the little girl to call him Brother Zi. Since she called him brother, how could he be a bystander?

The car drove directly to the entrance of the hotel. The doorman had already recognized his boss's car so once the car stopped, he opened the car door and waited for his boss to come down.

The lobby manager quickly walked to the revolving door and waited for Hou Zi to come in. He said in a low voice, "Third Master, a VIP has come to the 23rd floor." He whispered a name to Hou Zi. Before he could continue the rest of his sentence, a tall figure appeared outside the revolving door.

"...I don't know when he came out. He's standing behind you now." After the lobby manager finished speaking, he placed both hands in front of his abdomen and retreated to the side.

Hou Zi turned around. He suppressed the gas in his stomach caused by the liquor and looked at the man that was walking in. The happiness in his eyes was almost seeping out. The smile on his face came from the bottom of his heart. Even though there were signs of aging at the edge of his eyes, it didn't destroy his handsomeness.

"No wonder Yiwei says that the Southern Province has become your second home. You always come here whenever you can and spend your few days of holiday dating. Be careful, the old madam at home might get angry."

As Hou Zi teased the man, slowly, his gaze turned sad. He rarely had this kind of emotion in his eyes. He raised his hand and placed his arms around the man that was admiring his drunk state. There was a tinge of sorrow in his smile too. "There's something wrong with your sister. Help me to persuade her. She suddenly said that she wanted to break up with me today. I was so stunned."

"Break up? Fk! She's the only woman I had for the past 17 years. What right does she have to break up with me?"

Chapter 825: You Came Back Just In Time

"I kind of support my sister in breaking up with you. My sister's first love came back. He is single and is a top-class world-renowned architect. His criteria aren't worse than you." Xia Jinyuan smiled calmly. He went to the school but didn't find Ye Jian. He also couldn't contact her so he didn't have the time to comfort this 'old man' who just lost his love!

He was just twenty years old but Little Fox had already called him an 'old man'. Hou Zi was almost forty years old. He should be even more of an 'old man' now. He was almost forty but he got dumped... How pathetic.

But, no matter how pitiful he was, it had nothing to do with him. He had to stand on his family's side.

He took Hou Zi's arm off his shoulder and said to the person beside Hou Zi. "Brother Zi is drunk. Bring him up to take a rest."

He didn't have the time to care about other things. Even Uncle Chen didn't know where Ye Jian went. He called Commander Liu but he said that Ye Jian didn't go to his place for two weeks. Tonight... where did Ye Jian go?

Hou Zi was a little drunk but he wasn't drunk until he needed people to hold him up. He looked at Xia Jinyuan's tall figure. The stimulation from his break up caused him to give a heavy sigh. He laughed softly. "23 years old. When Yiwei was 23 years old, she had already been with me for four years."

The moment he finished speaking, Hou Zi narrowed his eyes. What did Old Sixth say just now? He said that... Yiwei's first love was back?!

Damn it!

No wonder he couldn't find anything after investigating for half a month. He was back! Hou Zi felt a sense of crisis. He retracted his expression and hints of killing intent appeared on his face. It was very faint but obvious.

He didn't win me in the past. He won't win me now!

Does he want to snatch my woman? No way!

The moment Old Sixth came back, he gave him such an important piece of information. Naturally, he needed to reciprocate his kindness.

Ye Jian didn't know that Hou Zi saw her coincidentally. She listened to the footsteps following closely behind her and a smile appeared faintly on the corner of her eyes. She brought these people to the empty piece of land behind Hotel Caesar.

Now, the development of the Southern Province wasn't as impressive as ten years later. If she wanted to find a quiet place to teach some people a lesson, she just needed to evade the cameras on the main streets in the city.

There was an empty piece of land behind Hotel Caesar. Wild grass filled the entire place. It was like a natural glass plain. In the middle of the night, there wasn't even a street lamp there. Ye Jian waited quietly at the side for those people to come over.

She walked quickly and calmly. In addition, the darkness around them caused the gangsters who were following her to feel frightened. On the other hand, Luo Ran, who was right at the back of the group of people following her, didn't feel afraid at all. Instead, he felt that this was his chance.

Luo Ran stopped hiding after following Ye Jian all the way from the hotel. He rushed forward and caught up with Brother Huang. He said viciously, "No one will know even if we bury a corpse here. She lured us here in the middle of the night. All of you must teach this lady a lesson for me!"

"Fk! I can finally vent my anger!"

No matter how stupid Luo Ran was, he could still tell that Ye Jian purposely lured them here. There were many people beside him and everyone had a dagger with them. Thus, Luo Ran wasn't frightened at all. He only wanted to take care of Ye Jian quickly so that he could vent his anger.

He might have some experience in society but how can his experience be compared with Brother Huang's? A young lady had to guts to lure them to this place so there might be an ambush.

Brother Huang didn't move instantly. Instead, he said, "We still need to observe a little more. The young lady is quite bold. She lured us here all alone. Brother, don't you want to know why she had the guts to do this?"

Chapter 826: Once You Act, You Should Make People Frightened

"All of you are stupid. I arranged to meet her behind the pub. If there's an ambush, it should be behind the pub!" Luo Ran was rarely so smart. He said in a sinister voice, "Do you think she can foresee the future and know that we're waiting for her to come out of the hotel? Will she be able to send people here immediately to ambush us?"

Luo Ran was impatient. He didn't want to wait anymore. He really wanted to beat Ye Jian up so that he could vent his anger.

Ye Jian didn't want to wait either. She wanted to end this early so that she could go back to the hotel and sleep.

She wanted to sleep early because she had to rush to the training grounds tomorrow and start her vehicle training properly.

She bent down and picked two normal-sized rocks from the bushes. Then, she threw them in the direction where the voices came from.

Before the rocks landed on the ground, Ye Jian's indifferent voice floated over from the darkness along with the night breeze. "Luo Ran, you brought so many men with you. Do you still need to hide?"

"Damn it, she's even provoking us!" Brother Huang waved his dagger and moved to the front. If he didn't come forward after being provoked by a student, it would be embarrassing.

At first, Luo Ran wanted to listen to Yao Jing. She said that it was better if he didn't reveal himself. But, at this moment, blood rushed to his head and he couldn't care about anything else. He brought so many people along so why should he be afraid of her?

“Ye Jian, tonight, if I don’t beat you up until you call me grandpa, I will change my surname!” Luo Ran took out a small dagger from his pocket and stared viciously in the direction where the sound came from. He could faintly see a black figure.

Ye Jian moved her hands and legs. She took the silver wire on her wrist and walked towards the bunch of people.

It was very dark at night so Luo Ran, Brother Huang, and his men couldn’t see their surroundings clearly. They wanted to surround Ye Jian but now, they didn’t even know her exact position.

However, to Ye Jian, darkness was her best protection.

Brother Huang was looking for his target but he didn’t notice that Ye Jian was only around one meter away from them. When he saw the black figure slowly appearing in his vision, Brother Huang was elated. He spat his saliva on the ground and ordered his men in a vicious tone, “Let’s swing some punches first and kill some of the lady’s...”

“Ah!” When he was speaking, one of his men on his right side screamed in pain. His entire body fell into the grass and he held his neck tightly. He kicked his legs furiously and he was screaming shrilly in fright.

“Neck, my neck. Brother... Huang, my... my... my...” He was still able to shout at the start but towards the end, he could only pant heavily. He couldn’t shout for help at all.

The survival rule of wolves. When attacking, always remember to attack the lethal spot of your prey.

The silver wire in Ye Jian’s hand was most suitable for twining around something. Twining around the neck was the fastest and most convenient way. It was the way that made people most frightened too.

After a scream of agony, only the sound of struggling and heavy panting could be heard. There were no signs of warning at all. It just happened suddenly. When they heard the scream, Brother Huang and his men felt their hairs standing up. Every one of them was so scared they started retreating a few steps back. In that instant, their expression was filled with anxiousness.

Damn it! What on earth happened?

He wanted to kill some of Ye Jian’s arrogance but in the end, he got frightened.

Ye Jian wouldn’t kill anyone. When her opponent was about to suffocate, she retracted the silver wire. In the dark, no one could see what she was doing. They only heard the young man let out a deep mumble from his throat. He seemed to be in excruciating pain, so painful that he fainted.

Chapter 827: Leave! Leave! Hurry Up And Leave!

There was one less dart in Ye Jian’s hand. Ye Jian stood at the original position where Brother Huang and his men were at before they moved back. She started to smile. It was a cold smile. Her light voice was filled with killing intent. “Why? We haven’t even started but you already want to run away in fright? Are you sure that you came here to fight?”

“Luo Ran, I don’t know what to say about you. You’re a coward but unexpectedly, the people you brought are cowards too. I really look down on you. How about this? I won’t make things difficult for you. All of you just have to break one arm and I’ll let you off. How about that?”

Of course, they won’t accept this. Her words were so hurtful. They felt humiliated!

Brother Huang kicked one of his men and shouted angrily, “Damn it, attack her! Why are all of you still in a daze?”

If someone attacked her, she would cripple that person. If two people attacked her, she would cripple two of them. Ye Jian didn’t mind using violence to solve a problem if she could. Using violence was much easier than using your brain.

The silver wire was a weapon for killing people. During normal times, it was used as an accessory. Those that couldn’t tell what it was just thought that it was a silver bracelet. Once it revealed its true identity, killing people was an easy task for it.

The people that once owned it had killed many people with it. Its current owner had died once so she was able to use it even more agilely so that it could release its full potential.

A scream of pain sounded from the empty piece of land. All the screams sent chills to the depth of people’s hearts. The last few young men weren’t even able to hold their daggers properly because of this.

They couldn’t see the person who was hitting them. All they could see was a black figure and the black figures of their brothers as they fell to the ground in front of them. As for the other people... they couldn’t see them at all. They didn’t know where she was either!

They couldn’t even hear her voice! They only knew that she was beside them, like a predator that was hiding in the dark and waiting to pounce on its prey to give a lethal blow.

“Brother Huang, why not, why not... why not we just leave? This lady is... abnormal. She’s very abnormal.”

“We can’t see her. We can only hear the screams from our brothers. Brother... Huang... Brother Huang... are they dead?” In the end, only five people remained, including Luo Ran and Brother Huang.

That meant that Ye Jian had taken down seven men. She managed to take down seven men within a short period of time!

Despite this, Ye Jian didn’t feel a sense of achievement. She could smell the faint smell of the white powder formed by combining morphine and alkaloid. People who ingest this destroy their own bodies!

To defeat them, Ye Jian just needed to avoid getting scratched by them to prevent her blood from getting infected.

In this great world, at this great age where she had such a good life, she didn't want to get infected with AIDS, something that couldn't even be cured ten years later! If one of the people taking this thing was infected, the person who used the same syringe as he had a high probability of getting it too.

It was always better to be careful.

The sound of scraping kept coming from the ground. It sounded as if many monsters were crawling on the ground. None of the gangsters that fell on the ground was making a sound. It appeared as if... the monsters on the ground had eaten them in one bite.

Darkness was the best protection. At the same time, it evoked fear. It was the color that amplified fear, including the fear you thought of in the depths of your heart.

Hearing the scraping sound, Brother Huang shivered and realized that something was amiss.

He sniffed forcefully. His voice cracked a little as he shouted, "Leave, leave! Leave! Hurry up and leave!" If they continued fighting, they would be stupid. It was obvious that the lady wasn't easy to deal with!

Chapter 828: Frightened Until He Kneeled And Begged For Mercy

He wanted to leave but he needed to be able to leave first. Multiple strong lights from motorcycles suddenly shone from the front. It shone over directly like light beams. It was glaring, so glaring that it made people's heart shudder.

"Do you know who this place belongs to? If you don't, you should look at the name of this building first?" A cold voice was heard. It was an unfamiliar voice but Ye Jian was familiar with the killing intent heard in the voice. Only people who have killed someone before would have this killing intent.

The entire building belonged to Hotel Caesar. It was a little high so it was hard to see the words on top of this skyscraper. At least when Ye Jian raised her head, she couldn't see the words.

She couldn't see it but that didn't mean that Ye Jian didn't know what place this was. As for the people that knew this place, they might not know whose territory it was.

The person who spoke was a subordinate of Hou Zi. He was like a brother and a friend to him. In the underworld, he had a certain status too.

A person like Luo Ran wouldn't know about this. He was already furious at Ye Jian for what she said so he shouted back angrily, "I don't care whose territory this is. This is a matter between me and her. What does it have to do with you?"

Brother Huang's dagger dropped on the ground. He shivered and kneeled down. "It's... it's... Third Master's territory. Third Master, Third Master, I didn't mean to offend you. This senior high student asked me to teach this chick a lesson. I took his money and must have been possessed to come to Third Master's place."

"Third Master, please spare me. Please spare me. Please be kind and let me go this time. Third Master, please spare me, please spare me."

The light was too bright so Brother Huang and his men had to squint their eyes. The light lit up the young men that had fallen to the ground before this.

Their arms were all in a weird position. All of them laid on the ground with painful expressions on their faces. They weren't able to lift their hands to take off their clothes that were stuffed in their mouths. They could only move their bodies and legs against the ground while making sounds from their throats... It was fairly easy for Brother Huang and the other people to think that they were human-eating monsters crawling around them.

No one cared about them. Brother Huang was so frightened that he kneeled to beg for mercy. Why would he have the time to bother about his men?

Someone stepped in front of the strong light. The figure had long and slender legs. The person didn't just stop there. The figure walked step by step towards them.

Brother Huang's eyes were stinging because of the strong light. He was so frightened he kept shivering continuously. Then, water could be seen on his light yellow pants. A huge patch of his pants was wet in an instant... He only saw the outline of the figure but he already peed his pants because of the person's force of presence.

Besides Luo Ran, who was still stubbornly furious, the other three young men were so frightened they looked like leaves in the autumn wind. They were so scared that they couldn't stand properly. Anyone was able to kill them easily at this moment.

The figure wasn't walking very fast. But, every step he took had an aura that made these mediocre gangsters afraid. This was an aura that could only be gained by someone who was experienced in the field and whose hands were stained with blood. No one could replicate it. No one could be compared with him either.

This force of presence might frighten other people but to Ye Jian, it was extremely familiar. She didn't expect him to appear here again. As compared to the past where they only met every year or half a year, Xia Jinyuan was appearing in front of her... a little too frequently.

Chapter 829: Blade-like Killing Intent

He didn't even give the other party a chance to open his mouth and beg for mercy again. He lifted his leg and kicked the person's face. A few bloody teeth flew out of Brother Huang's mouth instantly.

Chick? Is he talking about my little fox? He's looking for a beating. He's looking for death!

"Ah..."

A painful scream came out of Brother Huang's throat. His entire body was thrown back because of the kick. Half of his life was gone.

No words were said. His actions caused the other three gangsters to pee in their pants too. The person who kicked Brother Huang... was it Third Master Hou?

Was it the famous Third Master Hou that was known for being ruthless and heartless? The Third Master Hou that everyone was afraid of?

If it was Third Master, no one in the underworld would dare to say anything if he raised his hand and killed them now. No one would question Third Master!

"Third Master, please spare us. It had nothing to do with us. We just took money from this bastard because he wanted to teach a girl from his school a lesson. Since we took his money, we must follow his order. We just came out to do our job along with Brother Huang. Third Master, please spare us..."

Flames of anger were shooting out of Luo Ran's eyes as he looked at these people who were frightened to death. He scolded, "Fk! How dare you spoil my plan? You're looking for death!" He raised the dagger in his hand and stabbed in Xia Jinyuan's direction. Xia Jinyuan hadn't spoken until now.

Ye Jian swung the silver wire in her hand out when she saw this. The silver wire twirled two rounds around Luo Ran's neck. Ye Jian didn't even need to use any energy. When Luo Ran ran forward, the silver wire would tighten around his neck.

Luo Ran's eyes widened when he felt something strangling him. Naturally, he moved his hands to protect his neck. He wanted to pull the thing that was strangling him away.

The stronger he struggled, the tighter the silver wire became, and the closer he was to meeting Hades. It seemed as if Hades was just in front of him. Luo Ran started to feel frightened. "Let me go! My father is a renowned businessman in the Southern Province. If you dare to touch me, my father won't let you go!"

"Damn it, let me go! Let me go!"

The thing around his neck was getting tighter. It was getting harder and harder to breathe. In the end, he couldn't say anything anymore. He could only breathe heavily in the hopes that he would be able to survive.

Ye Jian used one knee to control the silver wire while she walked over to Xia Jinyuan who was aggravated. "It's just a small matter. Why are you angry? I'm not even angry." Captain Xia wasn't someone who got angry easily. This time, she could tell from the handsome and indifferent face that he was really angry.

"Stooges are hard to deal with. If you can deal with something once and for all, you should do it. Go back to the hotel and rest. I'll take care of this," Xia Jinyuan said calmly. The killing intent in his indifferent voice was like a blade. It sliced through everyone's heart.

Just listening to the voice alone was enough for Brother Huang and the other gangsters to feel that they had died many times.

“Third Master, please spare us. Please spare us. We failed to recognize you and offended you. Please have mercy on us and let us go this once. Please let us go this once!”

During life and death moments, their knees were worthless. All of them kneeled on the rocky ground and kowtowed furiously as they begged for mercy.

Xia Jinyuan was wearing casual clothes. He was standing in the light so no one saw his face. They only knew that to this man standing in front of them, they were just nobodies that he was able to take care of with just a wave of his hand. No efforts were needed on his end.

Luo Ran was just a senior high student that was raised with money until he became haughty. Normally, he acted arrogantly and kept threatening to take other people’s lives. When his life was at risk, he was so frightened that his pupils shrunk.

Chapter 830: We Don’t Dare Anymore

He was stunned by the killing intent on Xia Jinyuan’s body. A chill started from the tip of his toes and ended right in his heart. It caused him to shiver suddenly. He was so afraid that all the cells in his body were reminding him to run away quickly! Hurry up and run! If you don’t run now, you might not be able to live!

He wanted to leave but to prevent Xia Jinyuan from stepping in to help her, Ye Jian raised her leg before Xia Jinyuan could do anything and kicked Luo Ran’s stomach. The kick landed him on the ground. He already had a hard time breathing so after this painful fall, Luo Ran almost fainted.

“Ye Jian, how dare you kick me?” Luo Ran was in so much pain his features turned hideous. He clutched his abdomen and glared at Ye Jian furiously. The viciousness in his eyes wasn’t a fearless kind of viciousness. It was a shallow, cute, and foolish kind of viciousness.

He was still pretending to be fierce at a time like this. If he wasn’t stupid, what was he?

Just now, he was extremely frightened. Now, because Ye Jian kicked him, he wanted to scare her again. This was such a foolish and funny way of thinking.

Ye Jian lowered her head and her cold gaze moved down slowly. When she looked at Luo Ran, she seemed like an immortal sitting on the clouds and looking down on a nobody. “I dare to kick you and even dare to kill you!” Her voice was cold and heartless.

“You dare, you...”

“Why won’t I dare to do something that even you dare to do?” She smiled as she replied. Her gaze was so cold it was like the layer of ice in an ancient well. The chill went right into the bones. No one knew what was beneath the layer of ice. For an instant, Luo Ran choked on his words. He didn’t dare to make any sound for a moment.

Xia Jinyuan glanced at the senior high boy that was still attempting to appear bold. He said to his little fox, “If you don’t take care of this kind of person earlier, he will become a scum of society. Take care of him as early as possible and bless the common people.”

“Let me handle it.” Ye Jian raised her head and looked at Xia Jinyuan who wanted to help her with her troubles. She smiled and continued, “The affairs between students don’t require your help to solve. If you really want to help me, get rid of these hooligans. I don’t care if they’re dead or alive. Just don’t let me see them in the future.”

Her casual tone made Brother Huang and his men understand that they had begged the wrong person just now. They should beg this young lady instead.

However, it was too late. Xia Jinyuan was already infuriated. How could he let them off?

The corners of his thin lips lifted slightly. The tall man smiled as he nodded and said, “Alright.” Then, he raised his hand. Four men got down from their motorcycle. They weren’t carrying anything in their hands. They walked towards the hooligans who were so frightened they kept shivering uncontrollably. A malicious aura was exuding out of their bodies.

Brother Huang, whose teeth had dropped and half of his life was gone after the kick just now started begging frantically. “Third Master, we won’t dare to do it anymore. We won’t dare to do it anymore. Please, Third Master, please let us go. Please... please.”

His muffled voice was filled with fear. It was the kind of fear when you had reached the end of your life. This fear affected Luo Ran. The young man, who was used to being arrogant in front of Ye Jian, turned pale from fright.

After Ye Jian heard Xia Jinyuan agreeing to her request, she smiled and casually released the silver wire in her hand... It wouldn’t be worth it if she strangled Luo Ran to death.

She turned and looked down at Luo Ran. Under the intense light, Ye Jian’s gentle features were embossed with a cold and hard light. There were no emotions in her features. It was just cold. The indifference in her expression caused Luo Ran’s heart to shudder.

He could tell that she didn’t care about his life. From her eyes, he knew that if she wanted to take care of him, she could do it with a raise of her hand. He also saw clearly that the thing twined around his neck was a thin wire made from silver. He found the thin wire very familiar... It was the silver accessory Ye Jian wore on her left hand!
