

Chapter 841: I Think You're Nothing Much

When she saw how calm Ye Jian was as if she wasn't afraid of what her daughter was saying, Mother Yao's heart dropped a little.

Years of experience in the political world told her that if they continued the topic, it might be bad for her daughter. Since she had a hunch, she immediately said, "I don't think it's not a huge matter. It might just be an argument among the children."

"Jingjing, why are you interfering with other people's business when you don't know what has happened? Your Auntie Song and Uncle Yang will know how to deal with it. Hurry up and say goodbye. We need to go home."

In the past, they were embarrassed in school. This time, she wouldn't let a child embarrass them in front of Huiying and her husband.

For family matters, Deputy Commissioner Yao always listened to his wife. He received the hint and laughed as he patted Commissioner Yang's shoulder. "Boys are more playful than girls. You should ask them properly about what happened. Jingjing was just concerned about Hengheng. She won't speak carelessly. It's getting late. We'll go home first."

"Deputy Commissioner Yao, this matter is related to Yao Jing. On the contrary, Yang Heng has nothing to do with it." Ye Jian opened her mouth and spoke calmly. However, it was enough to cause a change of expression on all the faces of the Yao family.

Yao Jing stared at Ye Jian with daggers in her eyes. "What does it have to do with me? You were the one who asked Yang Heng and his friends out to fight for you. How can you still talk about this without feeling embarrassed?"

Yao Jing even knew that she went out for a fight. It looks like Luo Ran and his men appeared at the hotel not because they found out that she was here. It was Yao Jing who informed them about it.

She wasn't afraid of this snake that would occasionally reveal her venomous fangs. However, it still affected her mood. Ye Jian squinted slightly and pretended to feel guilty as she shouted, "How do you know that we went out to fight?"

You're only feeling guilty now? It's too late! You provoked someone you shouldn't! Don't even think about having a good life in school!

"Why won't I know? Just now, the senior brother called Wang Jin said everything!" Yao Jing smiled coldly. When she looked at Ye Jian, her gaze was filled with contempt. "Senior Brother Wang Jin said that they agreed to do it together but in the end, he was the only one who moved. He said that the rest of them were disloyal. Ye Jian, Wang Jin admitted it personally. Are you still trying to cover up the truth?"

"A girl actually instigated a few boys to fight for you. Do you have any sense of shame?"

She wasn't just impolite. She didn't even have the basic morals of a human!

Ye Jian's gaze turned cold. She looked at Yao Jing and reprimanded her angrily, "A girl defaming another girl for her own selfish motives without any evidence. Yao Jing, you aren't just shameless. You don't even have the basic morals of a human!"

Most of the time, she always wore a small smile and a gentle expression when she interacted with other people. Hence, when she suddenly turned cold and serious, the force of presence she exuded even stunned the adults that were present. Her gentle and beautiful face suddenly turned stern and fierce. No one dared to look straight at her.

As someone who had carried guns on the battlefield, executed multiple missions, and cleared many enemies, the force of presence Ye Jian gave off wasn't something a delicate young lady like Yao Jing could fight with. The moment she got reprimanded by Ye Jian, she took a few steps back and fell into the arms of her father.

Deputy Commissioner Yao was stunned too but when his daughter bumped into him, it caused him to regain his senses. He remembered the military unit supporting Ye Jian so he swallowed the words he wanted to say to help his daughter. After some time, he smiled coldly and said, "You have such a glib tongue that you're bullying your schoolmate. I think that you're nothing much! Jingjing, let's leave!"

Chapter 842: Call The Police Before Filing The Case

"Deputy Commissioner Yao, your daughter sent a secret message to a boy from my school who always mixed around with gangsters. She told him to bring a bunch of gangsters to the hotel so that they could cause trouble for me." She just started speaking but Ye Jian already saw the sudden change of expression on the two people who were trying to protect their daughter.

Ye Jian didn't wait for Mother Yao to stop her. Her voice was as stern and cold as the winter wind. Her words were heavy and chilly. "Deputy Commissioner Yao, at that time in the principal's office, you and your wife promised that you will definitely educate your daughter so that she will never create trouble for me again. She won't do anything to target me or frame me."

"You just made the promise before National Day but now, less than one month later, you have forgotten everything. You didn't keep your daughter within bounds either! Deputy Commissioner Yao, you said that if Yao Jing creates trouble for me again, you will voluntarily transfer schools for her!"

"Now, I would like to ask if the promise made by a government official can be fulfilled on the spot!"

Her voice was fierce and her aura was domineering. It was like the huge wave splashing on the edge of the seashore. The faces of the Yao family changed from deathly white to bitterly cold. They couldn't hide their anger.

Mother Yao, who wanted to hide what her daughter did in school from the Yang family, questioned Ye Jian in a shrill voice when she heard this, “Ye Jian, don’t think that just because you’re a daughter of a martyr, you can humiliate my daughter again and again! Even if you want to end this issue today, I will not give it up so easily!”

Her daughter kept suffering because of Ye Jian and Ye Jian even revealed the issue that they wanted to keep a secret. How could Mother Yao bear with it?

She pulled her daughter behind her to protect her and shrieked, “Jingjing, stand up properly for me! Ever since you were young, I have told you that we can admit defeat but we must never lower our heads! If someone bullies us, we will bully them back harshly!”

“Very good! Since you don’t want to end this nicely, I need to call the police and file a case first! You calculated against me and still wanted to pretend that nothing had happened. Yao Jing, I really want to see if you’re smarter, or is the police smarter!” There was no fear in Ye Jian’s expression as she faced Mother Yao. Every sentence and word she said made people jump in fright.

Call the police... What exactly happened? Why did she need to call the police?

Commissioner Yang realized that this was a huge matter so he said in a low voice, “Let’s go to the tea room and clear up what has happened. If we really call the police, Old Yao, it’s time for your assessment soon. Don’t embarrass yourself!”

If the things Ye Jian said made the Yao family extremely frightened, what Commissioner Yang said allowed the Yao family to suppress their flames of anger that were just getting ignited. Mother Yao gave off an overbearing aura and glared at Ye Jian viciously. She forced herself to speak. “Old Yang, no matter how huge the matter is, it’s still between the children. We shouldn’t alert the police because of it. Don’t get frightened by her.”

Would the Commissioner of the Transport Bureau get frightened by a young lady? Commissioner Yang sighed as he smiled and shook his head. Old Yao and his wife rose in ranks too quickly during the past few years. Their journey was too smooth so they got proud and started to lose their peace of mind. When they meet a little setback, they would start suppressing the other party using their power. If they continue like this, they will regret it one day.

“Old Yang is right. Let’s sit down and have a chat first. I like this child. She is a tactful child. I believe that she won’t make baseless accusations.” Mother Yang didn’t like adults that forced young people. When she saw Ye Jian facing the two adults from the Yao family alone, she sighed secretly in her heart and held Ye Jian’s hand softly. Then, she patted her hand and said seriously, “Don’t be afraid, everything can be solved. As long as you have evidence, nothing is difficult.”

Chapter 843: Impatient And Close-Minded

Ye Jian wasn’t afraid at all. She pursed her lips and smiled slightly, “Auntie, I’m not afraid. I will not be afraid of something I have confidence and am sure of. If I’m not sure or certain about something, I will not use reasons like ‘I only saw it but am not sure what happened’ to defame other people and clear my own suspicion.”

When Yao Jing heard that Ye Jian wanted to call the police, she clenched her fist unconsciously. She grabbed Deputy Commissioner Yao's arm tightly as her lips trembled. However, her voice was still calm and soft as she said, "Dad, you mustn't let her call the police. Ask Mom to calm down and not make a huge scene. I know that Mom and you can't bear to see me suffer but this time, I really dragged you down."

She was just a child, a child that was well-versed with talking to people. Most of the time, she wasn't afraid of trouble but once it came, she was scared.

Calling the police was the worst scenario. It was what she was most fearful of too.

Once they called the police, based on how timid Luo Ran was, he would definitely tell the police the idea she gave him truthfully so that he could pretend to be innocent!

Even if Luo Ran wouldn't do it, his parents would think of ways to make him say it!

When he heard his daughter, Deputy Commissioner Yao felt as if a huge rock had slammed down on his heart. It slammed down so hard he closed his eyes uncontrollably.

"You're too impatient, Jingjing."

Too impatient, too close-minded, too anxious for success!

Yao Jing pursed her lips tightly. Tears were floating in her eyes. "Dad, I didn't expect her to be so ruthless. She didn't leave any path of retreat for me! I didn't expect this! I really didn't expect this!" She didn't think that Ye Jian would want to call the police. She didn't know that Uncle Yang's family would side with Ye Jian too.

She took a deep breath and quietly pulled Mother Yao. "Mom, stop talking first. I will take care of it. This matter is between Ye Jian and me. I can't get you implicated. I will settle my own business."

"Jingjing!" Mother Yao was very confident but when she heard this, her heart clenched tightly. "What have you been hiding from us?"

"I have been hiding the matters between Ye Jian and me from Dad and you. Calm down."

Her daughter was actually sensible. However, her opponent was Ye Jian. She was a powerful opponent. Her daughter didn't have the ability to deal with Ye Jian. It was understandable that she would fail.

"Why do I know that you asked Yang Heng out for a fight? The reason is simple. I know that you and Luo Ran agreed to have a duel in the alley behind the pub." Yao Jing stood up and walked in front of Ye Jian. She straightened her back and said coldly, "I know this so I guessed that Yang Heng and his friends went out to fight."

Ye Jian smiled. "No wonder. I was surprised when I saw Luo Ran and a bunch of gangsters in the lobby the moment I walked out of the banquet hall. I didn't even need to rush to the meeting place. You were the one who told them I was here. I was thinking about why you kept avoiding me in school for the past half a month. You were afraid that I would suspect you."

"Unfortunately, Yao Jing, a smart person like you made the wrong move."

"Ye Jian, stop making excuses. You brought a group of boys out to fight. Why are you still so proud?"

Was Yao Jing saying that Hengheng undoubtedly went out to fight? Was she accusing Ye Jian of offending disreputable people and dragging Hengheng down with her?

Chapter 844: Yao Jing, You're Really Despicable

Mother Yang's calm expression turned dark immediately. Even her voice carried a tinge of anger. "Yao Jing, you have no evidence but you speak so firmly. When you made a mistake in junior high, I thought that you were young and immature then. Yet, you're still like this even though you're in your second year of high school now."

"Shuhe, you know that I don't like it when adults interfere with children's affairs. A few years ago, to ensure that Yao Jing can study in peace, you used your power to kick a lady who hosted a show with Hengheng out of school. I didn't say anything but that doesn't mean I don't know about it."

Shuhe was Mother Yao's name.

"You are a student too. You know that some gangsters from outside want to bully a student from your school but you didn't tell the adults. Instead, you gave information to help them. Yao Jing, Auntie doesn't understand what your motive is. How can you be so ruthless?"

"From the looks of it, it's fortunate that I sent that lady to the capital city to study. If she studied in the provincial city, based on how ruthless Yao Jing is, she will definitely force the lady to her death!"

Mother Yang was really angry. Hence, the words she said weren't pleasant either.

When Mother Yao mentioned what happened in junior high, the Yao family was flabbergasted. Now, Mother Yang even said that Yao Jing was ruthless. The person who couldn't accept it the most was Yao Jing. At first, she was still able to maintain her proud expression but now, her entire body swayed uncontrollably.

The Auntie Song that liked her actually said that she was ruthless. She also knew... knew about what happened in junior high!

How is that possible? How did Auntie Song know about this?

What about Yang Heng? What about him?

Her pupils contracted immediately. She raised her head and stared at Yang Heng intently. She wanted to get some information from his expression. She didn't dare to hear him say anything that would make her even more embarrassed so she just stared at him.

Mother Yang had already shifted her gaze calmly away from Mother Yao. All these while, she had been holding Ye Jian's hand. From her actions, anyone could tell that she was on Ye Jian's side.

Mother Yao felt bitterness in her throat as if she ate a Chinese goldthread^[1]. She was suffering but she couldn't express it. She looked at Mother Yang and then shifted her gaze to look at the calm Commissioner Yang. When she saw Yang Heng, a hint of hope flashed passed her eyes. That's right, as long as Yang Heng still wanted to be together with Jingjing, everything was fine!

"Hengheng, you grew up with Jingjing. She's a soft-hearted person who will cry when other people cry. You... Please say something. Don't let your mother misunderstand Jingjing."

As long as Yang Heng stepped out, the misunderstanding Huiying had towards Jingjing could be resolved no matter how deep it was. For a moment, Mother Yao placed all her hope on Yang Heng.

But, when Yang Heng finally opened his mouth, she understood the real meaning of pain.

"Yao Jing, Wang Jin, and I have been searching for Ye Jian in the hotel all these while. We don't even know where she went." Yang Heng spoke coldly under Mother Yao's hopeful gaze. The indifference on his clean and handsome face made Yao Jing anxious for some reason. "At that time, I don't understand why you started scolding Ye Jian the moment you ran over. Now, I know. You came to the hotel to block Ye Jian. When you saw that Wang Jin was injured, you tried to turn Ye Jian into a bad girl that only knew how to instigate other men to stand up for her."

"I can tell you seriously and truthfully that we don't even know why Ye Jian went out just now! We don't even know that Luo Ran came to the hotel with his men! If I knew at that time, I would have personally taught him a lesson! I will not stand at the side and do nothing!"

"As for your actions, Yao Jing, I just want to say that you're really despicable!"

Chapter 845: Please Show Some Mercy

At first, she hoped that Yang Heng would speak up for her daughter, in the end... He called Jingjing despicable!

Mother Yao's expression was as if her face had been torn apart. Ice blades shot out of her eyes as she glared at Yang Heng. Her voice was filled with anger as she said word by word, "Hengheng, you disappoint me!"

"Shuhe, this is my son." Mother Yang wouldn't allow other people to bully her son. She glanced at her old neighbor who was feeling anxious for their own daughter but didn't care about other people's children. The disappointment in her heart caused her expression to become distant.

As for Yao Jing, the moment Yang Heng finished speaking, she felt as if she got struck by lightning.

Yang Heng said that she was... despicable! He actually hurt her to protect Ye Jian!!

Her face turned pale and she was in a trance. She stared at Yang Heng blankly. She didn't hear. She didn't hear anything. Yang Heng wouldn't say such things to her. He wouldn't talk to her like this for an outsider.

Why would he reprimand her because of an outsider? Who is Ye Jian? She only met Yang Heng for less than two months while she grew up with him and have known him for more than ten years!

Yao Jing stood beside her mother with her fist clenched tightly. Her mind was empty. The more she wanted to force herself to calm down, the more she couldn't control her emotions and wanted to cry.

"Why, Yang Heng, why, why are you doing this..." Tears fell from her eyes. She never showed her weakness in front of other people but this time, she was crying for the man she loved. What's more, she was crying in front of Ye Jian!

Ye Jian, what did Ye Jian say about her in front of Yang Heng? Why does Yang Heng hate her so much now?

Because she secretly warned those students that attempted to get close to Yang Heng? Because she once pleaded with her parents to chase the girl that practiced her script with Yang Heng every day, the girl that kept smiling and chasing after Yang Heng out of school?

Why didn't he say anything? Why didn't he tell her that he hated it when she did all these?

"If you don't like it, why didn't you tell me? Since you don't like it, why didn't you tell me personally?" At this moment, Yao Jing had many questions for Yang Heng. As for Ye Jian, she was pushed to one side.

Everything she did was for Yang Heng. Yet, now, she got reprimanded by him. She couldn't accept it! She couldn't!

Mother Yao saw that her daughter's heart was all on Yang Heng but Yang Heng was helping Ye Jian to bully her daughter instead. She was agitated and furious. She glared at Ye Jian and said, "Ye Jian, what bad things did you tell Yang Heng about my daughter? You're a girl but you're so evil. You abandoned your morals and framed Yao Jing so that you can achieve your selfish desires!"

"Jingjing's father and I are both listening. You can say what's your motive now. What on earth do you want? Say it out. If we can satisfy you, we will definitely do it!"

"I just hope that you can show some mercy and let go of my Jingjing! I will be grateful to you for life!"

Mother Yao was asking for trouble with her words. She wanted to push all the blame on Ye Jian but she knew Ye Jian was good at sparring with words. Thus, she spoke hurriedly and quickly. She hoped that after Commissioner Yang and Mother Yang heard what she said, they could prevent Yang Heng from reprimanding Yao Jing.

She just wanted someone to pull Yang Heng back so that he wouldn't say things her daughter couldn't accept anymore.

Her daughter had already suffered in the hands of Ye Jian. How could she bear Yang Heng's scolding?

Chapter 846: What A Good Education

She didn't want her daughter to suffer but she let Ye Jian bear the groundless accusations.

Ye Jian stared at Mother Yao with a dark gaze. Mother Yao was an official but she neglected her morals. Ye Jian opened her mouth and said calmly, "Only evil-minded people will think that other people are evil too. They always think that other people will do bad things just like them and be in a constant state of anxiety because of it. Once something really happens, they will jump out immediately and reprimand other people righteously, saying that they are the evil ones instead."

In front of Mother Yao, Ye Jian's expression was so indifferent as if she was looking at a rogue throwing a tantrum. She wouldn't make a fuss but she wouldn't give in so easily too. Her voice was calm but the words were so sharp it caused Mother Yao's heart to scrunch up in pain.

"You, you, you... You..." Mother Yao repeated the same word for a long time. Her face turned green. As she frowned, she finally said, "Even an adult like me can't win you in talking. No wonder my daughter always suffered in your hands! You're cunning and unreasonable!"

Mother Yang had undergone higher education before so she was a gentle and knowledgeable person. Yet, when she heard this, she got furious. "Shuhe, Ye Jian is taking a step back. You're the one that keeps pushing the line because of Yao Jing!"

"You said that Ye Jian is cunning. Let me ask you, what kind of person would team up with a bunch of gangsters and ask them to come to the hotel to beat Ye Jian up? Can I say that this person is treacherous? Can I say that anyone would want to punish this person?"

Commissioner Yang always respected his wife so when he saw her shoulders trembling because of rage, he said to Deputy Commissioner Yao with a stern face, "Old Yao, I have witnessed how biased your family is once again!"

"Your partiality really widened my perspective! You used the dignity of other people's children to put a smile on your child's face. Old Yao, what a good education your family has!"

This was supposed to be an issue between Ye Jian and Yao Jing. Unconsciously, it became an issue between Ye Jian, Yao Jing, and Yang Heng. Then, as Deputy Commissioner Yao and Mother Yao entered the battle because they wanted to protect their daughter, the entire issue became bigger.

After hearing Mother Yao distorting the truth and scolding Ye Jian for being evil, Yang Heng smiled coldly. After Commissioner Yang finished speaking, he opened his mouth and said in a colder and deeper tone, "During military training, Yao Jing instigated Luo Ran to catch poisonous snakes from the mountain and throw it on Ye Jian. She even said that since there were many snakes there, no one would suspect Luo Ran even if Ye Jian got bitten to death.

“The next day, during military training, one of the instructors caught a snake. Ye Jian was resting with the instructors and was in charge of getting rid of the snake. Someone witnessed her killing the snake and knew that plan wouldn’t work.

“Then, Yao Jing went to look for Luo Ran during our afternoon break. She asked him to teach Ye Jian a lesson during the military training instead. However, things happened and her plan didn’t work again. Luo Ran created trouble in the military unit and was sent back to the school because of it.”

“I think that Yao Jing must have been very angry when she knew that Luo Ran didn’t succeed. After all, everything was planned secretly by her. They were supposed to succeed but they all failed in the end.”

Yang Heng might create trouble outside but he never implicated his family or troubled his school. This was enough to prove his capability. Every sentence he said caused Yao Jing’s face to turn paler. She was so pale even her lips lost color.

How is that possible? How did Yang Heng know all these? How did he know all these?

That’s right, how did Yang Heng know all these? Ye Jian looked at him. These matters... even she didn’t know about them. How did he find out?

Chapter 847: The Yao Family Is Greatly Humiliated

“How did you know all these things?”

“Ye Jian, what did you tell Yang Heng? What did you tell him?”

Ye Jian and Yao Jing spoke at almost the same time. This was too much of a coincidence, so much that when Yao Jing heard Ye Jian’s voice, she leaned her entire body towards her mother.

She was a smart person. How could she not know what negative impacts this coincidence gave her?

If Ye Jian didn’t know all these, it meant that she didn’t know what Yao Jing did. Hence, she couldn’t have told Yang Heng anything bad about her.

Yet, Yao Jing asked Ye Jian what she told Yang Heng. When she questioned Ye Jian, she was also admitting that she did all these bad things. However, she still questioned Ye Jian why she told Yang Heng about all these evil things she did!

In the end, Ye Jian didn’t even know that Yao Jing did all these things... Because of Yao Jing’s accusation, Mother Yang was able to see how evil Yao Jing really was!

She did the wrong things but she didn’t admit it. Instead, she framed other people. This was just like what Mother Yang said a moment ago. She was a treacherous person.

This unexpected coincidence caused the expression of all three members of the Yao family to change entirely. They were alarmed. The presence of Commissioner Yang and Mother Yang made them agitated.

When Deputy Commissioner Yao heard this, he started furrowing his eyebrows, which had been straight all these while. He stared at his daughter with a deep gaze and asked calmly, “Does this mean that everything Hengheng said is true and you have done all these things?”

Mother Yao wanted to question her daughter too but when she saw her daughter’s frightened and helpless expression, her heart softened. She secretly glared at her husband. It didn’t matter if Jingjing did all those things. How could he ask his daughter to personally admit it again?

Wasn’t he allowing the Yang family to be disgusted at Jingjing again? Huiying didn’t like young ladies who do things secretly behind people’s backs.

She turned to Yang Heng and said, “Hengheng, Yao Jing is just cheeky. Normally, she really...” She wanted to say that her daughter did all those wrong things because she was cheeky and immature. Normally, she wasn’t like this.

Before she finished speaking, Mother Yao heard Ye Jian’s soft laughter. She immediately felt furious and embarrassed. She turned and glared at Ye Jian with a cold face. She scolded, “Ye Jian, has no one taught you that you shouldn’t interrupt other people when they are talking?”

“I’m sorry. Everyone taught me to be sincere as a human and to be true to my heart. They told me that no matter what happened, I should be frank, forthright, and upright. No one said that when I do something wrong, I can use cheeky and immature as excuses to evade my mistakes.”

Ye Jian spoke calmly. She wasn’t worried that she would get reprimanded by Mother Yao again for no real reason. She smiled coldly and looked at the stern Deputy Commissioner Yao who was exuding the aura of an official. “Deputy Commissioner Yao, I’m really worried for you. Yao Jing is already 17 years old but you are treating her like a mentally handicapped three-year-old.”

“I didn’t fall into her trap but your wife said that I’m cunning. I can see that the way Deputy Commissioner Yao educates your child is really unique. There aren’t any other families within this hundred-kilometers radius like yours. No wonder Deputy Commissioner Yao could rise so quickly in rank. It must be because of your special education method.”

Mother Yang, who got enraged by Mother Yao’s words, couldn’t help but purse her lips and smile when she heard this. This Little Ye was really interesting. She was a needle hidden in silk floss^[1]. Every single needle pierced right into the hearts of the Yao family. This showed them that she wasn’t someone easy to bully.

On the other side, Deputy Commissioner Yao could only sigh as he was feeling awkward from what Ye Jian and Commissioner Yang said. If he interfered with this matter... it would be a humiliation for the Yao family!

Chapter 848: Jingjing Is Still Young And Immature

A great Deputy Commissioner bickering with a student in the lobby of a hotel. If this piece of news spread to his department, how was he supposed to keep his subordinates in check anymore?

Mother Yao clutched her chest with her hand. Pain. Her heart was hurting terribly at this moment!

This Ye Jian had the gift of the gab. She was a Head of Office but she couldn't do anything to this young lady!

Yao Jing noticed that her parents were speechless so she wiped her tears furiously and said angrily, "One should bear the consequences of his own actions. I admit what I've done. Don't make things difficult for my parents."

"Make things difficult for your parents?" Ye Jian sounded as if she just heard a joke. She rolled her eyes. Her gaze was so cold that sharp icy needles seemed to be coming out of it. "Why not let Commissioner Yang, Auntie Song, and the hotel staff that are still present in the lobby be my witness? You can ask them if I was making things difficult for your parents."

Yao Jing immediately raised her head and looked around her. After glancing around, she frantically retracted her gaze. There were people secretly looking in their direction... Some people were looking at her family.

They mustn't talk here. They need to change their location to somewhere secluded so that no one could see them. How could she let other people think that their family was bullying Ye Jian when in actual fact, Ye Jian was the one bullying her?

"Yang Heng, Yang Heng..." Yao Jing controlled the tears in her eyes and looked at Yang Heng pitifully. She didn't dare to beg Commissioner Yang and his wife. Ever since Yang Heng revealed all the things she did, she didn't dare to talk to them anymore.

She didn't even dare to look at Mother Yang.

Her tears and her pitiful expression didn't cause any fluctuations in Yang Heng's heart. He glanced past her face lightly before turning to look at the awkward, ashamed, and angry Mother Yao. He said, "Auntie, you said that Ye Jian humiliated Yao Jing just now and scolded Ye Jian for being cunning without any reason. As the younger generation, I can't say that you don't know how to distinguish between right and wrong. However, I will have to say some things even if it will make you unhappy or angry."

"In your eyes, you only saw that Yao Jing was suffering. You don't know that she was unhappy because Ye Jian didn't jump into the traps she laid out."

"She felt wronged and felt like a failure because she couldn't even deal with a classmate that had no parents. That was why she was furious and unhappy. But, Uncle Yao and you just thought that it's other people's fault that they made your daughter suffer and angered her."

"She instigated another young man to throw venomous snakes at Ye Jian. Do you think this is kind or cunning? She asked men to beat Ye Jian up. Do you think that is kind or cunning? She called gangsters from outside to come to the hotel to find Ye Jian. Do you think that is kind or cunning?"

"Ye Jian didn't do anything. She didn't even know the things Yao Jing did in secret but you said that she was cunning. In that case, let me ask you. Yao Jing did so many things. Is she cunning or is she kind?"

Mother Yao's face turned red because of Yang Heng's words. She didn't know what to say for a long time. She just clutched her chest and breathed heavily. This child was holding on to her mistake and not letting her go!

Mother Yao heaved a long sigh and said earnestly, "Hengheng, Jingjing is still young and immature. As her parents, we can't bear to see her suffer. Auntie believes that your parents feel the same way."

"So that's what Auntie thinks. Your own child can't suffer at all but it's alright if other people's children have to suffer until they need to transfer schools. After all, you won't feel the pain since it's not your own child."

Yang Heng had been speaking all these while so even Ye Jian had retreated to the side. She wanted to say something but Mother Yang pulled her back and smiled. "Let Yang Heng do it. He knows how to deal with it."

Chapter 849: She's An Obedient Child

Without his parents' support, Yang Heng wouldn't be able to face the Yao family so directly.

He knew clearly that things had already reached a breaking point. If he didn't cut his ties with Yao Jing and wait for her to pester him again, he wouldn't be able to get rid of her anymore. Thus, it was better to say everything on his mind directly.

The boy's voice was sharp and clean. Unconsciously, he was slapping the faces of Yao Jing's parents. "In your and Uncle Yao's eyes, your daughter is your baby. You must dote on her dearly. As for other people's children, they were born to be stepped on. If they were scolded by Yao Jing, they mustn't be angry. Instead, they should thank Yao Jing."

"Uncle Yao and you think that the other person should jump into Yao Jing's trap to make her happy. If they didn't, they are not doing the right thing. They shouldn't make Yao Jing unhappy!"

Yang Heng's continuous speech caused Mother Yao to stagger. Her vision turned black and she couldn't stand up properly. Yao Jing, who kept crying, had to hold on to her mother. Mother Yao grabbed her daughter's arm and forced a smile on her face. She said, "Hengheng, Jingjing did those things because..."

Yang Heng used a gentle attitude to forcefully stop Mother Yao from continuing her sentence. He smiled politely and replied, "Do you want to say that she did those things because she likes me? Just because she likes me, she can ask Uncle and Auntie to help her chase that young lady out of school?"

"Just because she likes me, she can attack Ye Jian without restraint? Just because she likes me, she can secretly warn all the ladies that interacted with me? Just because she likes me, she wanted to catch a venomous snake and let it bite Ye Jian because Ye Jian is close to me. Just because she likes me, she asked gangsters to beat Ye Jian up."

"Auntie, please don't let her like me. I can't handle such a frightening form of like! I don't have the right to scold your daughter but I can tell you that if she continues using her like for me to form enemies for me and continues harming my friends, I won't care how close the relationship between our families are. I will not show any mercy to her anymore!"

Yang Heng was smiling but the contempt in his smile caused Deputy Commissioner Yao and his wife to flush. They wished that they could disappear immediately.

Mother Yao was a woman. As a Head of Office, she had authority. Usually, people treated her with respect. No one would refute her or go against her will. Yet, now, she was being mocked by a child who grew up before her eyes. He mocked her until she had no dignity left. Her face had turned red.

Her face was stinging in pain and her heart was hurting too. She was humiliated until she had nothing left!

Nothing!

“Hengheng, you didn’t give me any path of retreat at all. Yes, you’re right. Auntie was the one who spoiled Jingjing. It’s Auntie’s fault. I’m the person in the wrong. I was the one who made a mistake!” Mother Yao had tears shimmering in her eyes as she raised her hand and caressed her precious daughter’s head to console her. She saw her daughter’s face. She was so frightened it had turned pale. Mother Yao felt as if a portion of her heart was dug out. It was so painful that tears fell down her face. “It’s all Auntie’s fault. Jingjing is still young and immature. It has nothing to do with her.”

“I was the one who caused her to become like this. She’s an obedient child. She will listen to what her parents say. It’s all my fault. I shouldn’t have taught her like this. You’re right. This isn’t good for her. I harmed her. I harmed her.”

To protect Yao Jing’s reputation, Mother Yao pushed all the blame onto herself. She just didn’t want the future son-in-law she liked to hate her daughter.

Chapter 850: Became A Dead Piece Of Chess

Yao Jing, who kept crying, hid behind Mother Yao. She didn’t dare to come out to face her mistakes. She didn’t even dare to open her mouth because of her overwhelming nervousness. She didn’t have any courage left at all!

She glanced at Ye Jian from the corner of her eyes. She was standing with Mother Yang. Wearing a clean set of school uniform, the gentle smile on her face was clean and refreshing too. This was a stark contrast to her haggard appearance now. Yao Jing felt as though she was being slapped in the face multiple times. Her cheeks hurt.

When all the things she did were revealed, when all her secrets were exposed in front of the person she wanted to hurt and take revenge on, she felt humiliated. All her arrogance was crushed into dust at that moment.

All these secret matters... They dealt with all of them secretly so they thought that the Yang family didn’t know. However, unexpectedly... unexpectedly, they knew everything!

They have become a joke. A joke. They thought that they could fool everyone but the other people were just pretending that they didn't know anything. Now, because of this, their dignities were heavily damaged.

Yang Heng lowered his eyelids a little and pursed his lips. He asked in a soft voice, "Did you instruct Yao Jing to call people over to beat Ye Jian up? Auntie, I'm not a three-year-old kid. I understand what you mean but I can't accept it."

"If you're wrong, you're wrong. The things she did to Ye Jian had nothing to do with you. It's her own problem."

Mother Yao was speechless and dumbfounded. Yang Heng actually hated her daughter so much. She had already apologized but he still refused to comfort Yao Jing.

Mother Yao was agitated and furious. She was angry with her daughter for letting her down. In a fit of anger, she suddenly turned around and did something no one thought she would do. She raised her hand and slapped Yao Jing with all her might. The loud slap caused everyone's heart to jump.

"Yao Jing, you really disappointed us! You made mistakes over and over again. You disappointed me! You really disappointed me!" She was so disappointed. She let Yang Heng notice all the things she did. She didn't defeat Ye Jian and instead, dragged herself down!

Ever since she was young, Mother Yao had taught Yao Jing that she must do everything steadily and safely. She mustn't be stupid and implicate herself!

Look at the things she did today! As her parents, they couldn't do anything to help her salvage the situation!

She turned herself into a dead piece of chess!

Yao Jing was stunned by the sudden slap. In her memory, no matter what she did, she would always get complimented by her parents. Yet, this time, she was slapped!!

The last time when Ye Jian hit her, she had to apologize to Ye Jian. However, after she got home, her parents compensated and comforted her so she felt slightly better!

"Shuhe, bring Yao Jing back home. I think that she has received a huge shock today." Mother Yang was a kind person. She didn't like Yao Jing's way of doing things but she didn't want to force her either. "Go back and have a rest. Hengheng's intention is obvious. I don't want to force my son to accept someone he doesn't like."

"Yao Jing, who you like is your business. Auntie won't interfere with it. However, if you want to become Yang Heng's girlfriend, Auntie can tell you my opinion now. That is impossible."

"Huiying!" Mother Yao was anxious. She pulled Mother Yang's sleeve and said with a regretful expression, "You know Yao Jing very well. She's just a little immature. I will..."
