

BOOT CAMP 881

Chapter 881: Things Were Not So Simple

“He said that they found four steel nails in the tire of the truck. As for the details, I’m not so sure.” Ye Jian wasn’t able to answer her clearly. An on-site inspection and more investigation were needed to confirm this conclusion.

The only thing that she felt was strange was the grey sedan that went past the accident without slowing down at all... At that time, she only checked whether there were any accidents on the other side of the road. She didn’t notice the car plate numbers of those cars.

However, it was easy to find out the car plate numbers. They just needed to look for the surveillance cameras.

Director Song sighed. She felt that it was better to not mention this topic. It was a heavy topic.

It was already 5.30 am. Ye Jian remembered that there were four utility rooms on the first floor of the airport. But, Xia Jinyuan only said that he placed his military uniform on the ceiling of a utility room. She needed to look through all the rooms.

She turned and looked at Director Song who wasn’t looking well. “Auntie Song, why don’t you take a rest in the lounge. I haven’t done what I need to do. I won’t be able to accompany you.”

“Sure, sure, sure. There’s no need to accompany me. There’s no need to accompany me. Go and do what you need to do. Hurry.”

She was already an adult. There was no need for a child to accompany her. No, she mustn’t see Little Ye as a child. This young lady had saved her life!

Looking at Ye Jian’s back view as she left, Director Song muttered ‘bless her’ in her heart. It was fortunate that she met Ye Jian before she left. If not, if not... she would be dead!

At 5.30 am, the airport was very empty, especially on the first floor. She didn’t meet a single person for a long time.

Ye Jian directly walked towards the first washroom she saw. The four utility rooms were all beside various washrooms. They were very easy to find.

In the third utility room she found, Ye Jian carefully removed the grid panel from the ceiling. She saw a black plastic bag appearing in front of her eyes. She took the plastic bag down. A moldy smell wafted into her nose.

Just like what she guessed, the damp military uniform had already turned moldy.

The military uniform, military cap, and shirt were all stacked properly. Even though it was giving off a moldy smell, it didn’t affect the dignity of the military attire.

At that time, Xia Jinyuan was in a hurry but the military uniform was still folded and stacked properly. From this, you could tell how much love a soldier had for the military uniform on his body. This was the uniform that represented the dignity of their country.

Ye Jian lightly touched the national emblem on the military cap. The corners of her lips lifted slightly. In less than two years, she would be able to possess such a glorious military uniform too.

“The worker for the next shift is here. Leader, I will get off work now.” A woman’s voice came from outside. Ye Jian moved quickly and hid behind the door. Two middle-aged women wearing the cleaner uniform of the airport walked in.

“Leader, there’s no more disinfectant. I need to replenish it for the morning shift. Yesterday night...” The workers doing the night shift were handing over their work. After the two of them walked to their cabinet, Ye Jian quickly moved out of the room without alarming them.

At 5 am, buses were already starting to arrive at the airport. Ye Jian, who was carrying the bag of military uniform, didn’t stop even for a minute. She sat on the 5.40 am bus towards the city and reached Hotel Venus at around 7 am.

The moment she reached the lobby of the hotel, Ye Jian saw a few senior sisters from the third year who were preparing to go home. There was actually nothing to be afraid of but for some reason, Ye Jian felt a little guilty as she tightened her grip around the bag.

Luckily, the dress she was wearing was the one Director Song lent her. She wasn’t in her school uniform.

She lowered her head and slightly evaded her senior sisters. Before they could notice her, she walked furiously towards the entrance of the elevator.

Chapter 882: She Really Wanted To Return To Her Room

Ye Jian only secretly heaved a sigh of relief after she entered the elevator. Fortunately, she didn’t meet any more students. If not, she wouldn’t know how to explain herself!

Actually, there was no need to explain too. Who would ask her where she went?

Guilty... Ye Jian didn’t know why she felt guilty either.

When she saw someone familiar, she would remember that she was holding Xia Jinyuan’s military attire. She would remember that she was hiding an adult in her room and would feel... “Ding...”

The elevator door opened. Ye Jian, who had not finished her thoughts, raised her eyes abruptly in fright. She watched as the elevator door opened slowly and a few young men from the third year walked in while laughing and chatting with one another.

“Hey, isn’t this Ye Jian? Why are you up so early?” The young men didn’t enter immediately. Instead, they used their hands to block the elevator door. “The breakfast is not bad. It’s much better than the ones we have in school. The pastry chefs they invited from Harbour City are not bad. The cakes they baked were delicious.”

They didn't notice that the elevator came from below so they thought that Ye Jian woke up early to have breakfast. They introduced the breakfast enthusiastically. "The crystal dumplings are not bad. It's translucent and there are some fillings inside. We ate so many of it until we felt embarrassed."

"The char siew buns are not bad too. You can try it."

At first, Ye Jian didn't plan to come out. But, she was frightened by her seniors so she stepped out of the elevator and smiled at her seniors. "Thank you. I will try them later."

It was only 7.14 am. The third-year students really did wake up early. They had even finished their breakfast...

She maintained the smile on her face as she hurriedly walked away. She felt guilty... even if she was just holding a military attire, she felt guilty!

Whenever she remembered that Xia Jinyuan was sleeping in her room... she would feel guilty.

Some students were already awake. What if they went to knock on her room? What if... Xia Jinyuan opened the door in his bathrobe? What if...

Thinking of all these what-ifs, the always calm Ye Jian noticed that her breaths had gotten shorter.

She started walking faster and faster. If Xia Jinyuan opened the door while wearing his bathrobe... she wouldn't know how to solve the situation at that time!

But, she still had to bring some breakfast back. She needed to eat and Xia Jinyuan needed to eat too.

She should take some food that could be eaten warm. Cakes were fine but she would pass on the crystal dumpling. The skin would turn hard when it became cold. The rice cake was good too. It was easy to digest.

She would get a portion of porridge too. How about plain porridge? It could be eaten when cold. When they were soldiers, they would even eat raw snake meat when they were hungry.

Ye Jian carried the two servings of breakfast and entered the elevator. She prayed that she wouldn't meet any more students. She hoped that she could return to her room smoothly.

In the elevator, Mother Yang was talking to a few of her relatives. "There's no need to go out for lunch. You can come to my house. Tinglan will bring Angel to my house after she fetches her from the airport. As her Aunt, I haven't seen Angel for many years."

"Let's eat some breakfast first. After some time, Hengheng's classmates should have all woken up. Let's go and eat first so that we won't make the students feel uncomfortable when they see us there."

As the elevator beside her opened, Ye Jian saw Mother Yang walking out. Her eyelids twitched slightly.

What you're afraid of always happens.

On the other hand, Mother Yang was thrilled to see Ye Jian, especially when she saw Ye Jian wearing the bohemian long dress. Her eyes were smiling and she laughed as she said, "Good morning, Little Ye. You're beautiful today. Auntie almost didn't recognize you."

Then, she asked her relatives, "Don't you think that she's prettier today? The same person wearing the school uniform and the long dress but I still prefer it when Little Ye wears a long dress. It caught me by surprise."

Chapter 883: There's A Man In Her Room

The relatives that were standing beside Mother Yang smiled as they looked at Ye Jian. Wasn't this the young lady that played darts yesterday? They heard that her result was among the top in the school too. Hengheng's classmates talked about her the most yesterday night.

At this moment, Ye Jian's heart was palpitating furiously. She tightened her fingers around the bag that contained Xia Jinyuan's military attire. After getting complimented by Mother Yang, she started blushing.

She felt guilty and nervous. She could only work hard to maintain the smile on her face so that she wouldn't reveal her nervousness.

The relatives of the Yang family laughed and teased Ye Jian kindly when they noticed that the young lady was blushing after a few sentences of compliments. "Look at how embarrassed the young lady is after what you said. Fine, she still needs to go back to her room and eat her breakfast. You can stop complimenting her. You can continue after you finish eating."

Amidst the relatives' laughter, Mother Yang's gaze landed on the breakfast Ye Jian was carrying. "I really like Little Ye. She has a good temperament and is a capable person. She's a good child too." Then, she said to Ye Jian, "Let me ask the service staff to send the food to your room. You don't have to carry it."

When she was talking to Old Yang in bed yesterday, both of them felt that it was a good choice to take Little Ye as their goddaughter so that the Yao family would feel afraid.

She wasn't someone who likes to argue with other people but when she saw how the Yao family acted yesterday night, she felt her heart turning cold.

They didn't have any principles of being human at all! Old Yao and his wife were the culprits that caused Yao Jing to grow up to be so unreasonable and evil. They were the ones who harmed Yao Jing but they still didn't know it.

Ye Jian just wanted to leave as soon as possible so she smiled politely and said, "No need, Auntie. There are not many dishes. Thank you."

"You're being polite with me again. The elevator is here. You can return to your room for breakfast first. Later, I will ask Yang Heng to go over and look for you." Yesterday night, she said that she would invite Little Ye to her house for lunch today. Since she was inviting Tinglan and her family today, she had to postpone her meal with Little Ye. Mother Yang was smiling as she spoke. In her heart, she was thinking about inviting Little Ye to her house for dinner tonight.

How could Yang Heng come to look for her later? Ye Jian hurriedly replied, "Auntie, I still have to do some things later so I will need to leave early. What happened yesterday night is already over. I'm fine. Thank you for your concern."

She saw the number that represented which floor the elevator was at from the corner of her eyes. There was still one more level... The wait is so long.

"You're leaving so early? Go back to your room and have your breakfast then." The elevator reached at this moment so Mother Yang smiled and said, "Hurry up and go in. Your breakfast will turn cold."

There was a warm smile in Mother Yang's eyes when she saw Ye Jian walking into the elevator and bidding farewell to her. This child was really afraid to trouble her family. Actually, in reality, Yang Heng was the one who implicated Ye Jian.

Yao Jing targeted Ye Jian because she saw Yang Heng being close to her. In the end... it was all because Yao Jing had an evil heart!

The elevator door closed slowly. Ye Jian saw Mother Yang and her relatives walking away with smiles on their faces. When the elevator door hadn't closed completely, Ye Jian leaned against the cold walls of the elevator. There were perspirations on her nose.

She only took in a deep breath after the elevator stopped on the level she was living on. The moment she stepped out of the elevator, she released her breath she had been holding all these while. Then... she held her breath again all the way to her room.

She took out her room card and entered her room quickly. She didn't meet any more students and managed to return successfully.

Even at the car accident scene, she wasn't so anxious at all. Yet, when coming back to her room, she was so nervous as if she was a thief. As expected, she couldn't relax entirely when the matter involved Captain Xia. Her heart was so tensed up.

The room was very quiet. There was no sound at all. Ye Jian closed the door slowly and tiptoed into the room to take a look. She finally managed to calm her breath a little but she got nervous again. Her face started turning red uncontrollably.

Chapter 884: The Room Has Her Smell

He was actually... actually still maintaining the same posture as a few hours ago. He didn't move an inch and her clothes were still on his face!

What kind of habit is this? Why is he taking other people's clothes and putting them on his face?

Ye Jian put down the breakfast and wanted to pick her clothes up. After taking two steps, she hesitated.

She raised her hand and patted her slightly warm cheeks. Then, she took his military attire and walked into the washroom.

When she came back, he didn't wake up. It meant that he was really tired. Forget it, let him sleep.

When she turned on the tap, Ye Jian made sure that the noise was at its softest. She was worried that it might disturb Xia Jinyuan so Ye Jian didn't wash the clothes immediately. Instead, she turned on the showerhead and washed her hair.

Her hair was stained with blood. Other people might not be able to smell the blood but she smelled it all the way to the hotel.

The water flowed out slowly with a soft flowing sound. After she finished washing her hair, Ye Jian started with the military cap. She washed until the entire military attire didn't have any moldy smell anymore. Then, Ye Jian used the towel to absorb the water on the clothes before using the hairdryer to dry them.

She stayed in the washroom alone from 7 am plus to 8.30 am. By this time, only the shirt was still wet.

She hung the jacket and the pants neatly on the hanger. Then, she placed the tie beside it and hung everything in the wardrobe. Her actions were very light. She didn't wake Xia Jinyuan, who had not slept for four days and four nights, up.

Xia Jinyuan, who used Ye Jian's clothes as his eye mask, was sleeping extremely soundly and peacefully.

That was because there was a young lady beside him. A young lady that stood beside him firmly on a rainy day and said to him in a soft tone, "The relationship between a soldier and a civilian is thicker than water. Sometimes, as civilians, we can be your backup too. You will never hesitate to protect us so please allow me to help you with whatever small things I can."

At such a young age, she already knew how to stand up bravely and protect him at that time. Now, she was already a qualified reserve soldier. He believed that she could protect herself.

The room was filled with the fragrance from her body. He could still feel the lingering warmth from her body on the bed and the refreshing smell that belonged to her floated around his nose. These were all 'medicine' that could make him relaxed. The moment he laid on the bed, he slept until he didn't want to wake up.

He needed to quickly replenish his sleep. If K7 didn't contact the team by today, G3 and he would have to go back and search for their missing comrade along with the other team members after the two of them completed their mission in the Southern Province.

Outside the room, Yang Heng raised his hand and knocked on the door. He had a good night's sleep yesterday. His hair was wet and he was wearing his school uniform which had blue and white strips on it. He looked as handsome as a model. "Ye Jian, are you awake? You can go down and have breakfast now. They will stop serving breakfast at 9 am. You can only go out and eat."

There were already many students walking in the corridor. Some carried their school bags and prepared to go home directly after eating breakfast.

Some were still sleeping. For instance, Wang Jin and his friends played and sang until 2 am last night so they couldn't get up at this time. They were sleeping as soundly as pigs.

Yang Heng also slept till quite late so he didn't know that his mother had already met Ye Jian in the morning. When he didn't hear any replies from the room, he knocked on the door again and smiled. "Are you still not awake? Ye Jian, stop sleeping. It's time to get up."

Ye Jian was drying Xia Jinyuan's shirt in the washroom so she didn't hear the knocks. When Yang Heng knocked the second time, Xia Jinyuan, who was sleeping soundly, frowned slightly. The fourth time, he opened his eyes...

Chapter 885: I'm Looking At You

His face was covered with clothes and when he breathed, he could smell the natural fragrance from Ye Jian's body.

He always had the habit of putting clothes or towels on his face when he was sleeping to block the light. He didn't know when he placed little fox's clothes on his face. No wonder he slept so soundly.

"Ye Jian, are you awake?"

The voice of a young man came from outside the door. He had already gone through his voice-changing stage so his voice was clean and deep like a youth. Even from the voice, Xia Jinyuan could tell that the man's appearance was not bad.

Xia Jinyuan laid on the bed and didn't want to move. He didn't dare to move either... He was afraid that when he stood up, Ye Jian would open the door... There would be a huge misunderstanding.

"Ye Jian isn't awake yet?" Some students walked passed and asked Yang Heng casually.

Xia Jinyuan heard the young man laughing and replying, "Nope. I'm calling for her to have breakfast. You don't have to wait for me. Go down and have your meal first."

The door of the washroom opened. Ye Jian was holding the dried shirt as she walked out. When she hung up the shirt, she unconsciously leaned her body forward to see if she had alerted the man that was sleeping on the bed.

She saw Xia Jinyuan lifting the blanket. Ye Jian quickly hung the clothes and said in a soft voice, "Did I wake you up?" He had slept for around six hours. If it was a deep sleep, it was enough rest for a special forces soldier that was used to high-intensity training.

Xia Jinyuan didn't say anything. He woke up from a deep sleep so the moment he opened his eyes, he felt extremely refreshed and energetic. There was no tiredness in his clear gaze. He didn't seem as if he slept for a few hours. Instead, he looked as though he had been exercising for the past hours.

Now, his clear and sharp gaze was fixed on Ye Jian. They were calm and deep like an ancient well. As Ye Jian spoke, waves started appearing on the surface of the well, layer by layer. Lights were shimmering in the well too.

Ye Jian was curious about why he was staring at her. She frowned and asked, "What are you looking at? Why are you being so weird?"

What was he looking at?

Naturally, Xia Jinyuan was looking at Ye Jian. At this time, there was only Ye Jian in his eyes.

He knew that his little fox was not bad, no, she wasn't just not bad. The first time he saw her, she amazed him with her beauty.

Her beauty wasn't just on the surface. It was a kind of beauty that settled down through time and reflected her modest personality. Her personality was good too. She was strong enough to persevere through hardships.

This already beautiful lady suddenly changed into a bohemian-style flower dress and stood in front of him prettily. The peony sewn on the dress was exquisite and beautiful but now, it became a flower that was used to bring out her beauty. It allowed her to become the lady that walked out among the blooming flowers, bringing along with her a refreshing and enchanting aura as she suddenly appeared and mesmerized him for life.

The amazement lasted in his heart for a long while. He said, "Looking at you. I'm looking at you."

I'm looking at you, with you in my eyes, nobody else exists in it.

I'm looking at you, placing you in my heart, and carving you upon it.

His gaze slowly moved down from her smile and landed on her slender and thin waist that looked as though it would break any moment. Xia Jinyuan smiled slightly and continued, "I saw a little fox that had become a demon. She's so beautiful that she makes my heart palpitate."

"Xia Jinyuan!" His directness caused Ye Jian's white and jade-like skin to turn slightly pink as though they were tinted with peach blossoms. She glared at the man that started teasing her the moment he woke up. Then, she turned and prepared to take out the military uniform that she just hung up.

Chapter 886: Little Fox, Do You Have X-ray Vision?

"Knock knock knock..."

The sound of knocking sounded once again. Xia Jinyuan finally remembered that there was still a young man standing outside the door. He looked at Ye Jian who was feeling shy because of his compliments. He pointed at the door and moved his hands to signal to her that there was a young man outside looking for her.

Ye Jian immediately retracted his expression and pursed her lips tightly. She was a little unhappy when she said softly, "...Why didn't you say so earlier?"

"I wanted to tell you the moment I woke up but I didn't expect to see a fox demon appearing suddenly so... I forgot." Xia Jinyuan watched as Ye Jian froze on the spot. The smile at the edge of his lips didn't subside. Instead, it got even deeper.

Yesterday night, she didn't want her classmates to see him. Now... What will come will come. Little Fox, how are you going to explain why there is a grown-up man wearing a bathrobe in your room bright and early in the morning?

Ye Jian gritted her teeth furiously when she noticed that he was still able to smile. As expected, she couldn't have a date with Xia Jinyuan at a place with many familiar people. She mustn't allow him to stay in her room and sleep too!

It caused her to feel anxious and guilty!

Ye Jian lived for two lifetimes but she had never stayed in the same hotel room as a man before! She lived for two lifetimes but she never had so many classmates looking for her. Also, when they came to look for her, a man was wearing a bathrobe that revealed his muscular chest in her room!

"Clothes, wear your clothes properly!" Ye Jian pointed at his chest. She glared at him with her black eyes. "This is the same as being naked! Tighten your belt!"

Captain Xia's skin tone was just like hers. No matter how much the sun shone on him, it was still very fair. The entryway light was a spotlight. When it shone over, you could see the beautiful lines of his muscles. The sexy outline of his chest muscles made it look so tight one could sense the astonishing power within them.

"I'm inside the room. He's outside. What are you afraid of?" Xia Jinyuan's lips curved into an alluring angle when he noticed how agitated she was. He laughed softly and said, "I'm already wearing a bathrobe. Why do you still say that it's the same as being naked?"

"Little Fox, do you have X-ray vision? Can you see what's... under the bathrobe?"

Ye Jian took a deep breath and walked towards the man that was so irritating she felt like punching him. Her hands moved towards his waist.

She wanted to help him tie his bathrobe properly!

His warm breath came from the top of her head. She knew that if she raised her head and looked at him now, she would see her reflection in his deep eyes. There would only be her reflection in them.

She knew this because even without looking up, she could feel his intense gaze on her body. All his focus was on her.

She pulled the loose belt into her hand and quickly tightened it with pursed lips. Then, she lifted the two sides of his bathrobe so that his chest was covered up properly. "X-ray vision? Even without an X-ray vision, I was able to see everything clearly just now."

Xia Jinyuan lowered his head and saw her tidying his bathrobe with her slender hands. She was nervous but she still pretended to be calm. Xia Jinyuan teased her, "You can see that I'm not wearing my underwear too?"

Before he could retract the smile on his face, Ye Jian's head suddenly knocked into his chin. It was so abrupt... he almost bit his tongue off.

As he gasped in pain, Ye Jian raised her hand and smiled innocently. "I'm sorry. I didn't mean to hurt you."

She didn't mean to hurt him but she wanted to teach him a lesson.

Xia Jinyuan raised his hand and rubbed his chin. He maintained his gentlemen aura as he said, "I know. My little fox worries about me so much that she will gently brush my brows when I'm sleeping. How can she bear to hurt me?"

Chapter 887: Don't Move, My Boyfriend That Can't Be Revealed

Ye Jian had nothing to say. Her face turned red and she gritted her teeth furiously.

In this aspect, she was never Xia Jinyuan's match. Why did she have to seek trouble for herself? Now, she needed to bear with it. Once she grew older, she wouldn't have to worry about so many things. Hmph, Major Xia, just wait and see!

"When do you plan on opening the door? Don't let your senior brother wait for too long." Xia Jinyuan's chin was hurting but his heart was filled with happiness. He stood right in the middle of the entryway. Once the door was opened, he would be seen. He maintained a good image and even raised his chest slightly as he waited for Ye Jian to open the door. He made the bathrobe feel like a suit.

...He was waiting for her schoolmates to see him.

Ye Jian didn't want to talk to him. She turned and closed the door of the wardrobe softly. Then... she silently went back to the washroom, wet her face with water, and walked out with a face towel... Damn it, he was still standing tall and straight in the middle of the entryway. He showed no intention of moving.

Ye Jian pushed him into the room and then pushed him further into a corner. "Stand still, don't move, my future boyfriend that can't be revealed."

Future boyfriend that can't be revealed... This was a problem. Xia Jinyuan watched Ye Jian as she turned around after taking two steps. She wanted to make sure that he was still standing in the corner. This cute action caused Xia Jinyuan to laugh until his chest vibrated even though he was still rubbing his chin in pain.

She was a pure little fox. She was like a piece of white paper. In the future, all the strokes on the paper would be left by him.

17 years old was still too young. When she grew older, he wouldn't need to hide anymore... Little Fox would probably start to resist at that time.

Before the time came, he needed to work hard to leave the colors of 'Xia Jinyuan' in her pure white world. He needed to make sure that he was the only presence in her world. She would be the only presence in his world too.

Xia Jinyuan only loved Ye Jian and only wanted her. She was the only person in his world. This was how simple everything was!

Everything he was doing, saying, and expressing was the real him.

On the battlefield, Xia Jinyuan was a cautious and vicious man. In his daily life, he was slightly irritating and loved to tease the person he loved.

Little Fox was able to see what kind of man Xia Jinyuan was when he was in his military uniform and when he took it off.

This was the real Xia Jinyuan. He needed Ye Jian to get used to the Xia Jinyuan off the battlefield and let her know that he never wanted to hide anything from her. He would always stand in front of her truthfully and sincerely.

Yang Heng was about to leave when he heard the doorknob turning. He turned around and saw Ye Jian standing at the entrance. She seemed to have just washed her hair. Yang Heng immediately gave a bright smile and said, "Good morning. Have you eaten breakfast? When are you leaving?"

"Good morning. I'm packing up and preparing to leave now." Ye Jian pretended that she didn't hear his knocking because she was washing her face. She looked at Yang Heng calmly. There was a grown-up man in her room so she could only open her door a little and use her body to block as much of the gap as possible.

She was starting to accept the real Xia Jinyuan a little by a little. Even though she always felt helpless when he teased her, Ye Jian was never angry. Instead, she felt a little guilty.

That was because she was hiding a huge secret...

Yang Heng would never believe that there was a man in her room. When he heard that she was packing up and leaving soon, he smiled and said, "Sure, there's a bus at the entrance of the hotel that goes directly to our school. You can take the bus."

Chapter 888: You, Change Your Clothes

"Yesterday, my mom said that she wanted to invite you over for lunch today but I'm afraid she will have to break her promise. My cousin just came back. We will be having a family gathering in the afternoon."

Ye Jian would have forgotten about this if he didn't mention it. She said hurriedly, "There's no need for that. Your mom is being too polite. It will be hard to find me on the weekends. Please help me to thank your mom."

"We all know that we won't be able to find you on the weekends. I'm going to have breakfast. See you on Monday."

“See you on Monday.” Yang Heng didn’t suspect anything because of Ye Jian’s calm expression. He turned to leave and Ye Jian closed the door. Then, she leaned against the door and heaved a huge sigh of relief. She was so nervous her hands felt sweaty.

Xia Jinyuan saw her nervous expression. He couldn’t control the smile on his face as he said in a low voice, “Don’t worry, even if your schoolmates come in, I will...”

Before he could tell Ye Jian that he would hide properly, someone knocked on the door again. Xia Jinyuan quickly kept his smile and walked quickly towards Ye Jian. He dashed into the washroom.

The voices of two senior sisters came from behind the door. “Junior Sister Ye Jian, have you finished packing up? We just met Yang Heng and he said that you wanted to go back to school. We can go back together.”

It was true that you mustn’t feel guilty. The moment you feel guilty, what you’re afraid of will happen!

Ye Jian opened the door again and explained that she wasn’t going back to school. Finally, she sent away the two enthusiastic senior sisters.

“This place is very unsafe. We need to leave immediately.” Xia Jinyuan came out and tried his best to control his smile. He looked at Ye Jian seriously. “I’m worried that you might cry due to nervousness.”

Her face was as red as an apple and she seemed extremely tensed up as though something might happen again. Somehow, she seemed cute.

Ye Jian could tell that he was forcing back a smile. She glared at him and opened the wardrobe. She took out his military uniform. “This place is very safe. You’re the one that’s making me nervous because you’re wearing a bathrobe. I’m still a student. If they saw a man in a bathrobe in my room, I won’t have the face to go back to school anymore.”

By right, it was nothing. However, if someone saw him, nothing would become something!

“After you wear your clothes, I don’t mind opening the door directly!” She took out the military attire and the shirt. When she looked up, she saw Xia Jinyuan staring at her intently with a pitiful gaze. Her hands stopped in mid-air. She unconsciously took a step back. “...Why are you looking at me? Hurry up and wear your clothes.”

Her voice was stable but it was a little soft. Her heart trembled a little when she saw the current Xia Jinyuan.

He just woke up from his sleep so tiredness could still be seen on his handsome face. His eyes were deep and extremely dark. He was like a leopard that had its claws out and she was the prey that he laid his eyes on.

“...You, change your clothes. We’ll leave after you change your clothes.”

Her breathing was a little tense. Xia Jinyuan could sense her nervousness. He walked over and took the clean and fragrant military attire. His gaze was fixed on her face. "You went to the airport immediately after I fell asleep?"

"Yes. Didn't you say that you don't have any clothes? That's why I thought of taking your military attire back." His expression was calm. She couldn't understand what made his expression so dark a moment ago. Ye Jian felt that she didn't provoke his sensitive spots either. Everything went naturally.

Chapter 889: What Do You Think I Will Do

But, his gaze was still so deep and dark. It was as if there was a whirlpool in his eyes and it was sucking her in.

The military attire was dry. Xia Jinyuan tightened his grip around the clothes. She retrieved his clothes back for him without him knowing. He had a sturdy feeling in his heart. It felt as if his entire world was filled up. At this moment, she filled up every single empty spot in his world.

"It looks like I was sleeping too soundly. I didn't know when you left and when you came back," Xia Jinyuan said in a soft tone. His composed voice didn't cause any changes in his deep and dark eyes. His gaze was still so intense it made Ye Jian's heart tighten.

He came over at 3.30 am. Little Fox probably left around 3.40 am. It would take an hour to get to the airport. It's 8.40 am now. She needed around an hour to dry his military attire so that meant that she came back to the hotel a little past 6 am.

She came back for such a long time but he didn't notice any movement. It seemed like the effect of her smell was even more amazing than sleeping pills,

He didn't know that Ye Jian got delayed at the scene of a car accident for 40 minutes so he thought that she came back very early.

Before he slept, he should have reminded her that even after taking the military attire back... Unfortunately, he couldn't wear it now. He had to waste her efforts.

"You were too tired. Now, you look much more energetic. Hurry up and change your clothes. Why are you still standing here?" Ye Jian felt a little anxious when she noticed his gaze getting more and more intense.

Maybe it was because he just woke up so there was a hint of laziness in his mature aura. Every single small action he did, even if it was just raising his eyebrows, looked sexy... She felt her heart beating faster.

Can you not be so sexy?!

Can you not look at me like this?!

Can you hurry up and change your clothes?!

Xia Jinyuan looked at the young lady that silently helped him. He looked at her as she got nervous because of him and her face turned red because of him. He didn't just feel happy, he felt his heart palpitating.

He took a step forward. Ye Jian immediately retreated towards the entrance. Her black eyes opened wide as she looked at him with vigilance. At the same time, she said in a calm and serious tone, "Captain Xia, this is a hotel. My schoolmates will come and look for me at any moment. Don't do anything stupid!"

Do something stupid? What was she referring to?

Why does Little Fox always look at him with a 'what are you going to do' expression whenever they are alone? He didn't have any bad intentions but her actions hooked his evil thoughts out!

"What do you think I want to do?" He raised his eyebrows and asked.

Ye Jian replied sternly, "I don't know!"

"You know." Xia Jinyuan took a step forward. The lazy aura started engulfing Ye Jian. "You said that because you know."

Ye Jian shook her head firmly and replied in an even more resolute tone, "I don't know!"

Even if she did, she wouldn't admit it!

The air started getting thin. His manly aura was domineering and scorching.

His gaze turned even deeper. Ye Jian felt that her soul was being sucked slowly into his gaze.

If she looked away, she was showing signs of weakness. In front of him, she was used to looking into his eyes.

She mustn't lose in terms of her aura. Once she did, he would gain the upper hand.

"I told you in the past and Commander Xia also reminded you that the more you resist and reject me, the more I will pester you. Look, you're rejecting me now. It's... difficult for me not to do anything to you."

Chapter 890: Ignite Your Desire To Conquer

He walked closer and closer as he laughed softly. It didn't make Ye Jian afraid and wanted to run away. Instead, she was afraid that she would get lost in his gentleness.

He got closer to her slowly and gently. He was like silk. He would entangle around you without you noticing until you were not able to escape. Then, you get entrapped in his web of gentleness.

This feeling caused Ye Jian to feel anxious and flustered. She knew she could believe him... believe the sense of security his lethal gentleness could provide for her.

"There's nothing we can do now. Don't forget that we made a pact. We will understand each other before dating. This is our promise. Captain Xia, I think that you haven't forgotten that, right?"

He was too close, so close that her mind was in a mess. His aura and his gentleness messed up her heart.

Ye Jian took a deep breath secretly and tried to calm her palpitating heart. She looked up at the man whose entire body seemed to be engulfing her. She saw her small figure in his eyes. She also saw a small smile in his eyes. She pursed her lips and said calmly, "You're right. I shouldn't reject you. This will ignite your desire to conquer."

It looked like she got anxious because of his action. That's good. She was just anxious, not afraid.

The smile on the edge of his lips got deeper, so deep that the leisurely aura made him appear drunk. He gave off the sexiest aura of a man when he smiled. "However, I like it when you reject me. Although you reject me, you still accept me."

There were two more years before she graduated from senior high. There was enough time for her to accept him getting close to her... Every time he met her, he would try to shorten the distance between them.

Now, she was just nervous and not afraid. This proved that unknowingly, their relationship had gotten better.

Ye Jian's thoughts were all revealed by Xia Jinyuan. She raised her hand and rubbed her forehead lightly.

Indeed, she had always been accepting Xia Jinyuan amidst her resistance. Did that mean... that she needed to be honest about her secret?

Should she find a chance to tell Xia Jinyuan her past frankly and open her heart to accept this man that gave her a sense of security?

Could she stretch her hand out... and hold his hand?

Ye Jian couldn't deny that when she looked at the gentle eyes of Xia Jinyuan in front of her, she had a desire to do that.

However, the impulse just appeared in her heart for an instant like a firework. When the light disappears, her impulse goes along with it.

Grandpa Gen and Uncle Chen taught her that women needed to stand upright and appear before everyone with the proudness of a woman.

Before she had the ability to do that, she needed to learn to be patient and wait for the opportunity to soar up into the sky.

No, it wasn't the right moment for her to reveal her secret. She still needed some time to see if he could accept her.

After all, she was underage and he was still young.

“I admit that I’m learning to accept the Captain Xia, who still infiltrated into my room in the middle of the night although he is already so tired. If I reject him mercilessly, Captain Xia will probably be sad.” Ye Jian smiled and relaxed her tense heart and body.

Her reply made Major Xia even happier than he already was. He reached out and managed to hug the nervous little fox easily in his arms.

He smiled and sighed. “The relationship between two people is a process, a process of acceptance. I said that I will wait for the day you will accept me so I will.”

“You always like to think too much. You even asked me ‘what I want to do’. Little Fox, this kind of question is like a hint. You’re hinting to me that I can do something.”
