

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 181 the Fairy Someone Loved

Alfred pushed Lottie's luggage out of the house and headed in the direction the landlord had pointed to. Lottie had no choice but to follow him silently.

"Damn it."

In the car outside the house, Sean watched in shock as Lottie followed Alfred into the house. "Sir, this..." Ralph frowned as he looked in the direction where Lottie and Alfred had left. His brows furrowed again. Everyone in the crew lived in the house, except for them. They went to a shabby house.

It was self-evident what it meant.

Blue veins stood out on his temples. "Go and find the landlord."

"I also want to live in that small house."

Sean paused and glanced at the small broken house. "Sir, you don't need to..."

"That house is too shabby. You are distinguished..."

Before he could finish his words, Ralph stared at him.

Sean immediately shut up. "Get it!"

Ten minutes later, Sean rushed back to the car and said, "The landlord said that one more person can live there!" "I've also made it clear."

While drinking water, Sean took a deep breath and explained to Ralph, "There are two more people in the crew than the scheduled rooms. No actor is willing to live in the shabby house."

"Maybe Ms. Chapman was in a bad mood because of the news last night so that she proposed to live outside and Alfred followed!"

After saying that, Sean carefully looked at Ralph from the rearview mirror. "Sir, you should believe that Ms. Chapman has nothing to do with Mr. Barton!"

Ralph glanced at him and said, "Do I need your explanation?" Would he not understand his wife? She was just angry with him.

"Alfred moved into another shabby house at the opposite side against Ms. Changers'. But the landlord said that you can live next door to her."

"As a neighbor, you are only separated by a wall, but Alfred, who lives opposite is separated by a corridor. You are closer than him!"

Ralph nodded lightly and elegantly took the key from Sean. "Let's go."

His attitude was cold and indifferent, while his anxiety when he walked to the house showed that he was in a hurry.

Sean sighed and quickly caught up with him taking his luggage.

Alfred left after he had sent Lottie's luggage to her room.

Although he was interested in her, he was still a gentleman and would not do anything out of line. Closing the door, Lottie let out a sigh of relief and lay down on the big bed.

She had stayed up all night and slept in the car all morning. For that moment, she only felt that her neck and shoulders were sore.

It must be because of the wrong posture when she slept in the morning.

Lying on the big soft bed, she picked up her mobile phone. After sending a message to her two babies to say that she was safe, she looked at the ceiling and was ready to sleep.

"Bang~"

"Bang~"

As soon as she closed her eyes, there was a strident noise next door. She frowned and got up in frustration.

The door of the next room was wholly open, and the landlord was squatting on the ground, covered with dirt, and working on a wire.

She was a little speechless. "What are you doing?"

The landlord looked up and wiped his sweat. When he saw it was her, he smiled and said, "A rich man wants to rent a room here."

"It used to be a storeroom, and there was no electricity. I'll put the electricity on."

Lottie was a little speechless. "Aren't there any more rooms to rent?"

"Yes, there are. There are plenty of houses that are bigger and more luxurious than this." "The reason why I let you live here is that I only this little house left."

The landlord sighed as he spoke. "I really don't know what the rich person thinks. He insists on living here instead of living in a good house..."

"But this man seems to be really rich. He has a driver by his side who calls him Sir."

"They all came from Rexwell like you. From the driver's words, it seems that the man made his wife unhappy, so he came to find her...

"The man is handsome and rich. I wonder what kind of fairy his wife looks like..." Lottie frowned. Just as she was about to say something, her phone rang.

It was a message from the Fabian.

"Mommy, Daddy didn't go home today. I asked Mario and he said that Daddy was looking for you."

Reading the words on her phone, a smile appeared on her lips.

According to what the landlord had just said, she probably knew what had happened...

The fairy mentioned by the landlord was probably her.

“Well.”

She smiled at the landlord in a good mood. “Where is the guest now?”

The landlord pointed in the direction of the river behind the little house and said, “He’s answering a phone.” Lottie raised her eyebrow and looked in the direction of the river.

As expected, a slender man stood far away.

It was too far away for her to see clearly.

But she was sure that he was the man she loved.

She didn’t know when she had become so familiar with him... that she could clearly identified him by his back.

The landlord began to do his word again.

“You don’t need to do that.”

She smiled lightly. “There is electricity in my room. He can live with me.”

The landlord paused. “But... but you’re a female...”

Suddenly, his eyes lit up as if he had understood something. “Are you the fairy?”

Lottie was amused by his words. “I’m not a fairy.”

“I’m just a girl be loved.”

After that, she turned around and walked toward the river.

The wind in the countryside was a little cold.

It was cool and refreshing.

Lottie took a deep breath and looked at the figure on the phone. She slowly walked over.

In the beginning, she was still calm.

But the closer she got, the surer she was that the man was Ralph.

It was impossible for her to calm down because of the joy and excitement.

In the end, she nearly ran all the way to Ralph.

The tall and straight man was on the phone.

Hearing the footsteps behind him, he frowned and turned his head subconsciously.

The sun was low in the west and was shining on her bright smiling face, which made people fall in love for a moment.

The man’s hand holding the phone suddenly stopped.

“Let’s talk about it when I get back.”

After simple arrangement, he hung up.

“Why are you coming?”

Lottie’s hands were clasped behind her back. She was happy, shy, and a little pride in her voice. Looking at her face, Ralph suddenly felt that his decision was right.

He was running around on the road, and he didn’t rest well.

But at that moment, her smile made him feel that everything was worth it.

He gazed at her with his intense eyes. “What do you think?”

“Aren’t you busy with the international economy?”

She knew that he was tired of working overtime the last night, so she didn’t dare tell him about her departure, for fear of disturbing him.

“Aren’t you going to rest?”

“I was afraid that you would misunderstand my relationship with Alice after learning the news, so I didn’t rest.” His serious expression made Lottie touched.

“So... you came here for this?”

“Yes, but not all about that.”

“What else?”

“And...”

He chuckled. “It’s the first time my wife has been so far away from me after marriage. I’m worried.”

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 182 So Worried about Lottie

His words made the Lottie smile uncontrollably.

In the sunshine, she looked up at him in front of her.

He was handsome, tall, and graceful.

It was the appearance of the prince charming in her dream.

Everything he did were the romantic plots that she had thought about before.

No, she had never even thought about what he had done for her.

She looked at him and said in a sweet voice, “Are you so worried about me?”

“Of course.”

The man smiled and walked over. He pulled her slender body over and held her in his arms. Ralph's chest was hot as he warmed her cheeks.

He hugged her tightly. "I'm afraid you'll think too much and give another man a chance on impulse." There was a hint of coquetry in his words.

Lottie pursed her lips and raised her hand to hold his strong waist tightly. "No matter how many times I think... I won't give another man a chance."

"Really?"

He raised his hand to lift her face and gently rubbed it. "Then why did you let others carry your suitcase and let others live opposite you?"

"He's just a colleague."

She chuckled. "What about you? Why did you lie to me about going to the company and meeting Alice instead?"

After that, she looked at him seriously. "I'm quite curious. What did you say to drive her so angry?"

Ralph frowned slightly.

The DNA identification of Lottie and Stella was in the folder of his office, which shows that Lottie was Stella's biological mother.

He closed his eyes and sighed softly. "I'll tell you after you finish filming here."

She had always wanted to find her own child.

If she knew that Stella was her daughter for the moment, she would not finish the movie and would rush back at night.

Therefore, he had to wait until she finished filming.

Anyway, Stella was still playing with Elijah and Fabian in Chapmans' Villa.

It won't be long for them to reunite after a week.

"All right."

Ralph didn't want to say anything, so Lottie didn't press him.

She took a deep breath and stretched out her arms. She hugged Ralph's waist tightly. "Honey." "Hmm?"

"I'm really surprised that you can come to me."

In fact, even if he didn't come to see her, she wouldn't feel angry about him.

After all, she was working, and he had no reason to let go of his own work to accompany her. But he came...

This kind of happiness was hard to explain.

It was surprise, warm, and sweet.

The wind in the countryside blew through the woods.

They hugged each other, looking like a painting from a distance.

On the distant hillside, Yoyo had been standing there for a long time.

After a while, she curled her lips and took a picture indifferently. She sent it to Alice.

“They are really in a good mood.”

On the other end of the phone, after Alice received the photo, she was so angry that she was going crazy!

She had spent so much effort to let Ralph know that Lottie is the biological mother of Alfred’s adopted daughter. She had even asked reporters to secretly take photos of them, causing such big news.

As a result, they still hugged each other without any estrangement! ? “This is the result of your impulsive behavior.”

Yoyo narrowed her eyes and pressed the voice button. She coldly sent a voice message to Alice, “Originally, their DNA identification will be a trump card in our hands.”

“But you foolishly ruined this card.”

Alice gritted her teeth. “Yoyo, what should we do now?”

“Can you help me...?”

“I won’t help you again.”

Yoyo sneered. “If I continue to cooperate with a fool like you, I am afraid that sooner or later I will be in dilemma like my cousin.” After that, she did not forget to ridicule her. “By the way, Alice, Yank likes you very much, doesn’t he?” “Why don’t you stop struggling and marry him? He’s smart enough to protect a fool like you.”

After finishing this last sentence, Yoyo directly add Alice in the blacklist and deleted her.

At the other end of the phone, Alice was so angry that she slammed the phone to the wall!

Yoyo, go and see!

She thought that they had agreed to deal with Lottie together!

She would get Ralph and Yoyo would get Alfred!

But Yoyo suddenly gave up!

Alice clenched her hands into fists.

She thought that without Yoyo’s help, she would also be able to deal with Lottie!

She wanted to prove to Yoyo that she was not a good-for-nothing, nor an idiot.

Without Yoyo, she would also deal with Lottie!

Thinking of that, Alice took a deep breath and took out her mobile phone to find a number.

“The crew of ‘Azeroath is filming the exterior. Do you know anyone of them? Introduce some to me.”

Lottie and Ralph didn’t return to the small house until it was dark.

By the time they returned, the crew had already prepared dinner.

Lorry was afraid that someone would do something bad to Lottie in a remote and poor place, so she had been standing at the door of Lottie’s room, holding her meal box.

The time she saw Lottie return, she was about to open her mouth and complain, and she saw the tall man behind her.

She couldn’t help raising her eyebrows. “No wonder you didn’t come back for so long. It turned out to be that you go out with your husband.”

After that, she glanced at the meal box in front of her. “It seems that I have been holding it for so long in vain.” “It’s not in vain.” Lottie chuckled and raised the small bamboo basket in her hand. “You’re lucky.”

“We went shopping in the village and bought some fresh vegetables and meat from the villagers. We planned to come back to have a meal.”

Lorry raised her eyebrows. “So I can have a free meal?” “Of course.”

“I borrowed the kitchen from the landlord. Would you like to help me in the kitchen, or would you like to stay here and chat with my husband for a while?”

After a moment of silence, Lorry decisively chose to stare at Ralph. “I don’t know how to cook...”

“Then I’ll go.”

Lottie chuckled and turned around. She carried the small bamboo basket to the kitchen.

At the door of the kitchen, the landlord’s daughter was quietly looking at Lottie with her wet eyes.

“Auntie...”

“Can I have some delicious food with you?”

The little girl’s blinking touched Lottie.

She raised her hand and gently rubbed the little girl’s head. “Okay, wait for a while. I’ll share some with you when I’m done!” “Thank you, Auntie!”

“Mr. Chapman.”

In the distance, Lorry watched the interaction between Lottie and Candy. She couldn’t help teasing him.

“Do you consider giving birth to a daughter with Lottie?”

“I think with her gentle personality, she deserves a daughter to accompany her.” “One daughter is not enough.”

Ralph narrowed his eyes and said with a smile, “I want at least two daughters.” Stella could be counted as one.

The other one... He was still working on it.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 183 Alfred, You Lost

Lottie made four dishes and a soup.

Ralph set up a small table on the wooden board of the owner. They started their open-air dinner in front of the small house.

The landlord's daughter Candy had been eating with Lottie.

Lottie liked the little girl very much, so she played with her and served her food.

It was not until her mother called her back to sleep that the little girl reluctantly left.

After Candy had left, Lorry couldn't help sighing with emotion. "Lottie, you really need a daughter."

"Even though Candy isn't your biological daughter, you like her so much. If you have your own daughter, she would be much favored by you."

Lottie shrugged. "I do like a daughter very much."

After saying that, she felt a burning gaze on her.

Her face instantly turned red!

She remembered that she had... She had promised Elijah and Fabian that she would have a daughter with Ralph...

She said that she liked a daughter. Did it mean that she was giving Ralph a hint? Thinking of that, Lottie couldn't help but tremble slightly. ...

She could even imagine what would happen after they returned to the room...

The more she thought about it, the redder her face became.

The redder her face was, the more she couldn't help thinking about it.

Fortunately, it was dark and Lorry did not stare at her.

Otherwise, it would be so humiliating!

"What are you eating here?"

Just as they were eating happily, a cold and deep voice sounded.

Alfred was coming.

He walked over. When he saw Ralph, there was a flash of shock in his eyes, and then he understood.

Alfred sat down leisurely beside Lorry with a smile. "Mr. Chapman is right. Lottie is a henpecked wife."

"I didn't expect that Mr. Chapman, who has been pampered since you was a child, would come to such a shabby village." After saying that, he glanced at Ralph coldly. "Mr. Chapman, are you used to living here?"

“The bed here is not soft and the environment is not good. Why do you make things difficult for yourself, Mr. Chapman?” Ralph narrowed his eyes slightly and smiled. “Hasn’t Mr. Barton, who has been spoiled since you was a child, also come?”

“I can’t be regarded as having a comfortable life. After all, my father doesn’t really spoil me and doesn’t care much about me.” “But...”

Ralph raised his eyebrows slightly. “I heard that Mr. Barton is the only child in the family.”

“I also heard that Mr. Barton has been engaged to a girl since you were a child, but the bride has been lost for many years.”

Ralph looked coldly at Alfred’s pale face. “Mr. Barton, if you have time, please don’t be good to other’s wife. Why don’t you work harder to find your fiancée?”

“Maybe after finding her, Mr. Barton and the girl will get along very well.”

“Ralph!”

Alfred was completely enraged.

He looked up and glared at Ralph angrily. “Don’t tease me with my family matters!”

“After the filming, I will cancel the engagement with the woman of the Bells when I go back to attend the wedding!”

Ralph glanced at him coldly and said, “But I heard that... the reason why Barton hasn’t canceled the engagement for so many years is that there is no news about the girl for so many years.”

“The Bells also said that if you want to break the engagement, you have to personally agree with that girl.”

After that, he sighed. “So, whether you cancel the engagement or not, you have to find the girl.”

Alfred frowned hard. “I thought Mr. Chapman was so busy every day for the Chapman Group and his business.” “I didn’t expect Mr. Chapman to know so much about the Bartons and the Bells.”

“Does Mr. Chapman have a big nose?”

“Nope.”

Ralph calmly picked up the cup on the table and took a sip of coffee. “The information makes winners.”

“Mr. Barton knows everything about the Chapmans. You even covet my wife. It’s not too much for me to investigate Mr. Barton’s background, is it?”

The two men fought fiercely.

Lottie opened her mouth, wanting to stop the fight, but she didn’t know how to start. In the end, Lorry rolled her eyes and directly raised her hand to slap the table.

“Are you jealous?”

“Why don’t you go to the open space in the backyard and have a fight. It’s annoying!” Ralph narrowed his eyes slightly and glanced at Alfred without saying anything.

Alfred suddenly stood up. “Mr. Chapman, let’s go.”

Ralph elegantly pulled the collar of his shirt, and he smiled. “Are you sure you want to fight me?” “Of course.”

Alfred smiled faintly. “When I was a child, I learned some martial arts from the Bells.” “If you hurt later, don’t blame me, Mr. Chapman.”

Ralph narrowed his eyes.

Alfred picked a quarrel with him.

However, he was willing to fight.

Ralph pulled open his tie and threw it directly into Lottie’s arms. “Keep it for me.”

Lottie was speechless.

“Are you really going to fight?”

Lorry was excited. “Fight! Fight!”

As she spoke, she pulled Lottie up and followed behind the two tall men.

“Will Ralph win?”

“Alfred just said that he learned martial arts from the Bells’ teacher.”

“Do you know the Bells? I’m their relative with the Bells. Let me tell you something, the Bells are actually...” While Lorry was talking, Alfred and Ralph had already started fighting.

Lottie frowned and looked at the two handsome men worriedly.

She knew that men were eager to win. Ralph would definitely not bear Alfred’s fight.

But...

Obviously, Alfred was better than Ralph.

No matter what, Lottie had learned some martial arts from Alfred. Alfred’s skills...

All of a sudden, Lottie was stunned.

Alfred’s skills were somewhat similar to her father’s, Arthur!

She suddenly remembered something and turned to look at Lorry. “Tell me, who did Alfred learn his skills from?” Lorry frowned. “The Bells in Europe...”

Lottie bit her lip.

Europe, the Bells, Arthur Bell...

Could it be...

She quickly picked up her phone and sent a message to Arthur.

When Lottie sent the message, Ralph was still at a disadvantage.

However, when she finished sending the message and looked up, Alfred was already under Ralph's control.

Ralph pressed Alfred's body down.

Ralph raised his hand and wiped his nose. He said proudly, "Alfred, you lost."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 184 Still Running away

"I haven't lost yet."

Alfred was pressed and struggled desperately. "I haven't lost yet!"

"You lost."

Ralph smiled faintly and let go of Alfred.

Ralph stood up and looked down at Alfred, who was lying on the ground and could not even stand up. "You lost. Don't struggle." No matter what, Alfred lost.

Ralph felt bored as he continued to be entangled with a loser in love.

He stood up and raised his hand, then patted Lorry on the shoulder. "Take good care of him."

After saying this, Ralph immediately carried Lottie in his arms.

Her body suddenly soared into the air and Lottie instinctively let out a yell.

She subconsciously reached out to wrap her arms around Ralph's neck. "What are you doing?"

"What do you think?"

Ralph held her in his arms and strode toward the room.

Lottie frowned and subconsciously turned back to look at Lorry who helped Alfred stand up.

Alfred sat on the ground dejectedly and hit the ground with his fist.

Lorry held his arm anxiously, trying to persuade him.

Through Ralph's shoulder, Lottie saw Alfred's helplessness and sadness.

"Don't blame me for being ruthless."

Ralph holding her said lightly.

His deep voice shook her chest and also her.

"This is a struggle between men."

"He has always liked you and wanted to fight for it, but I think he is still a gentleman."

If Alfred wanted to woo Lottie at work, then no matter how powerful Ralph was, he couldn't avoid it.

It was impossible for him to stay by Lottie's side 2 all the day while Alfred had to shoot with her for more than 10 hours a day.

But Alfred was well-educated after all. Even if he wanted to woo Lottie, he would always restrain himself and be frank.

Ralph still appreciated him in this respect.

But no matter how much he admired Alfred, he liked his wife after all.

Tonight's fight was his first battle with Alfred, and it should be the last one.

Thinking of this, Ralph sighed. He raised his hand and gently pinched Lottie's nose.

"It's all your fault."

If Alfred didn't like Lottie, he would rather be friends with someone like Alfred.

For some reason, Lottie's nose was pinched.

Lottie pursed her lips unhappily. "Why do you blame me?"

"It's because of your charm."

Lottie didn't believe that. "I don't have any charm at all."

Before meeting Ralph, she had always felt inferior.

Because of her past encounters.

Because she had a good boyfriend, Luke, but she was just a stunt double.

But after meeting Ralph, she realized that girls like her could find true love.

"You do."

Ralph hugged her arms tightly and whispered into her ear, "You're the most charming in bed." "And I want to find more charm for you tonight."

Lottie was speechless.

Before the woman could refuse, Ralph had already opened her door.

He didn't turn on the lights.

In the darkness, Lottie's body was thrown onto the soft bed.

Then, Ralph's body pressed down on her.

And then...

Suddenly.

There was a loud noise.

“Honey, the bed collapsed.”

“I know.”

“What should we do?”

Lottie’s face burned with embarrassment. “Do you want the landlord to fix the bed?”

She knew that many things in the countryside were simple and crude, but this was too... It was too simple! “No need.”

The man chuckled, hugged her with one hand, and pulled the quilt to the ground with the other hand, spreading it out.

“Haven’t we tried on the ground yet?”

Lottie was stunned.

“Can I refuse?”

Ralph bit her earlobe maliciously. “But if you don’t like it on the ground...” “Let’s go to the mountain? The moonlight outside is very good.” Lottie was too surprised to say nothing.

“The ground... the ground is pretty good!”

Lottie quickly reached out her arms and hugged him. “That’s ok!” She didn’t want to go up the mountain!

If it was discovered, it would be a shame!

Looking at Lottie, Ralph curled his lips and said satisfyingly, “Okay.” They made love the whole night.

The next day, it rained heavily outside.

The crew was forced to stop.

Ralph got up early in the morning and started to work.

The signal in the short room was not good, and Ralph had an important meeting to attend. Sean had no choice but to move Ralph’s office to the storage room on the top floor.

Lottie lay lazily on the bed until noon.

After washing up, she remembered that there were a few tomatoes in the kitchen yesterday. She promised Candy last night that they would eat together.

Thinking of this, she turned to the kitchen, took some tomatoes, and went to the landlord’s house to find Candy.

However, Lottie didn’t find Candy and bumped into Candy’s mother, who was full of tears.

“Candy is missing!”

The woman was wet all over, as if she had been pulled out of the water.

Her eyes were full of tears. "Candy told me that she went out to feed the little rabbit, but she didn't come back for a long time. I went to the rabbit cage and found that not only Candy was gone, but also the rabbit was gone!"

As Candy's mother spoke, her tears began to flow again. "The rabbit must have run away. Candy went after the rabbit!"

"It's such a bad day. Candy ran out by herself. If something happens to her..."

After that, she bit her lip, turned around with the umbrella in her hand, and said, "I'll look for her again."

Seeing the anxious look on the woman's face, Lottie didn't even think and picked up the umbrella. "I'll go with you. We'll split up and look for her!"

Candy's mother looked at Lottie gratefully. "Thank you!"

After that, Candy's mother rushed into the rain with an umbrella in her hand.

Lottie sighed. She also raised her umbrella and looked for Candy opposite.

The rain was getting heavier and heavier, and the sound of the rain covered all the sounds around. Lottie had to raise her voice.

"Candy!"

"Candy!"

"Candy!"

Lottie shouted loudly while holding the umbrella. She didn't notice that someone was following behind her.

Lottie had been searching in the heavy rain for a long time, so long that her voice was hoarse.

The rain finally became smaller.

She raised her head and looked at the strange scene in front of her. Only then did she realize that she had walked far away from the home hotel.

Candy was only five or six years old. She should not be able to go so far.

Thinking of this, she took a deep breath and turned to go back.

When she turned around, the man standing behind her startled her.

She recognized that this man was a stage manager in the crew.

At this moment, there was an evil smile on his face and a bright fruit knife in his hand. Under the gloomy sky, the expression on his face was particularly ferocious.

Lottie subconsciously took a step back.

Usually, with her skills, she was not afraid of him at all.

But now, she had been walking and shouting for a long time. Therefore, she was exhausted. Coupled with this rainy day, the road was wet and slippery...

The only way she could think of was to run!

In a hurry, she threw the umbrella away and ran away.

The man in black probably didn't expect her to run so fast, so he chased behind her.

A man's and a woman's physical strength were different, and Lottie was panicking- With a loud sound, she fell directly on the road.

"Run?"

Behind her, the man's sinister voice, accompanied by his footsteps, approached little by little.

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 185 Can't Protect Her This Time

Lottie bit her lip and stared fixedly at the man in front of her.

She couldn't get up.

The intense pain in her leg showed that she must have been injured.

In the rain, the knife in the man's hand was so bright that it was shocking.

Lying on the ground, she supported herself with her arms and stepped back step by step. "I have nothing against you..." The man smiled. "Yes, we have no grievances."

"But someone is willing to spend one hundred thousand dollars to kill you."

He walked up to her with a sneer, raised his knife, and chopped down hard-

Lottie closed her eyes and did nothing.

She thought that she was lucky. Since she was a child, she had been able to escape from dangers many times.

But she didn't expect that in the end, she would die on such a rainy day on the road in the countryside because of this reason...

The smell of blood came.

However, the expected pain did not get.

She frowned and opened her eyes subconsciously.

In front of her was a familiar man's big hand.

Ralph gripped the blade tightly. Blood flowed down from the wound. Some splashed onto Lottie's face, while others dripped to the ground.

"Go to the hell!"

The man in black gritted his teeth, pulled the knife out of Ralph's hand, and chopped down fiercely.

However, before he could brandish his knife again, Ralph kicked him to the ground.

With a sound, the man's knife fell to the ground.

Ralph quickly kicked the knife aside.

The man rushed up crazily.

Ralph frowned. He wanted to continue fighting with him, but the wound on his hand was so deep that he could almost see bones.

Pain and blood loss made Ralph's face pale.

Lottie asked. "Are you alright?"

"I'm fine."

Ralph turned around and smiled at her. "It's rare to have a chance to protect you."

After that, Ralph bit his lip and stopped the man from picking up the knife.

The rain was getting heavier and heavier.

Rain, blood, and mud mixed together.

Lottie sat there crying. She couldn't stand up and couldn't help Ralph. She only watched helplessly. This feeling was too torturous.

Looking at the usually aloof man fighting with another person like a superman, Lottie felt sad so much that she felt as if her heart had been torn open.

She felt so sad and helpless.

After long time.

Sean hurried over.

He rushed up and subdued the man in black with Ralph.

"Boss, are you all right?"

Sean pressed the man in black under his knees and looked up at Ralph worriedly.

"I'm fine."

Ralph took a deep breath and put his injured hand to his side. He turned his head and looked at Lottie gently. "Can you stand up?"

Looking at the blood dripping from his hand, Lottie shook her head in tears. "I can't stand up..." "I'll hug you."

She quickly shook her head. "No, you're hurt..."

"It's just a small injury."

He gave her a gentle look. "I am not so weak."

After that, Ralph squatted down and used his uninjured hand to carry Lottie's body. Lottie was worried about him, so she didn't dare struggle.

In the beginning, she was always worried that he would not be able to hold on.

But later, Ralph held her and walked steadily for a long time.

Lottie was relieved.

It seemed that he was really fine.

The rain stopped.

Sean escorted the man in black while Ralph carried Lottie in his arms.

They walked very far. Then they finally returned to the small village where the home hotel was located. The blood on Ralph's hands spilled all the way.

"Lottie!"

Everyone in the crew was waiting on the road at the entrance of the hotel.

Seeing that Lottie had returned, Lorry rushed over.

Ralph put her down from his arms.

Only after her feet stepped on the ground did Lottie feel that the danger was really over.

Lorry held her hand excitedly. "Are you okay? I'm so worried!"

"Even if you go out to find Candy, you should ask everyone to help you. How can you go out alone?"

"You are still a girl after all!"

Her worried words warmed Lottie's heart.

Lottie pursed her lips. "I really didn't think too much..."

At that time, she didn't know what was wrong. When she heard the news of Candy's disappearance and saws her mother's anxious look, she didn't think too much. Her mind was full of hope that Candy would come back soon.

"Lottie, I'm sorry..."

In the crowd, who was holding the little rabbit in her arms, stood up timidly and said, "I've made you worry. An uncle said that my little rabbit was cute and wanted to kill it to eat, so I..."

Tears welled up in the little girl's eyes. Candy said that she hid with the rabbit in her arms...

"I really didn't mean to disappear..."

Candy's words made Lottie let out a long sigh of relief.

It turned out that everything was a misunderstanding.

"You're fine..."

“Lottie, why are you bleeding so much?”

All of a sudden, Lorry’s voice brought Lottie back to her senses.

Blood?

Lottie frowned. She wasn’t injured...

Suddenly, she thought of the man behind her.

The moment she turned around, Ralph who had lost too much blood fell directly on her...

The medical skills in the village were limited.

The wound on Ralph’s hand was very deep, and it was infected by the splashing mud.

In the village, she found a barefoot doctor to prescribe some anti-inflammatory medicine to stop the bleeding, and then she directly drove back to Rexwell with Sean.

Before leaving, Mr. Bane stood outside the car, tears streaming down his face.

“Sorry, Mr. Bane.”

She looked at the director outside the car apologetically. “I probably won’t be able to shoot the following shots. My husband hurts like this... I have to take care of him.”

Mr. Bane wiped away his tears with grievance and said, “I’m afraid this movie can’t be filmed...”

“Alfred left early in the morning. He said that he had failed in love and wanted to go back to his hometown to relax...” “Now that you have left...”

Lottie frowned. Only then did she realize that she had indeed never seen Alfred since this morning.

It turned out that he had already left...

Lottie took a deep breath and said, “Mr. Bane, I wish you have a better performance next.”

After that, she rolled up the window. “Sean, let’s go.”

The car started.

She sat in the back seat and hugged the man lying on her tightly.

“You’ll be fine.”

“Everything will be fine...”

The pale-faced Ralph raised his hand and gently held her hand. “I’m just a little weak. I’ll be fine after resting for a while.” After that, he glanced at his injured right hand and said, “Maybe it will take some time for you to feed me every day.” Ralph’s words made Lottie sad and touched.

She sighed softly. “Not to mention for a while, even for a lifetime...”

Ralph chuckled. “Sean, record.”

“Say it again, what will be in your life?”

Lottie was speechless.

After a while, Lottie rolled her eyes at him and said, "You are so shameless even when you're injured."

Ralph smiled and closed his eyes to say, "Alice arranges it."

"Yank can't protect her this time."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 186 Ralph Would Find It Out

When arriving in Rexwell, Ralph was fainted for excessive blood loss.

All the doctors of the Central Hospital were waiting at the hospital gate.

As soon as Ralph arrived, the doctors quickly picked him up on a stretcher.

Lottie wanted to follow them, but someone stopped her.

It was Alice.

She asked two bodyguards to stop Lottie and said, "You can't go in."

If it weren't for you, Ralph would not have such a serious injury!

Lottie bit her lip and glared at Alice, "It's you who hurt him!"

"You arrange it!"

Alice did not expect that Lottie would expose her so directly. She asked indifferently, "You're talking nonsense." Lottie was so angry that she cared nothing. She sneered, "Am I wrong?"

"I don't know why you always make trouble to me, and even arrange someone to kill me!"

"If Ralph can't get better, I will kill you!"

People around the hospital could hear what Lottie said, and looked toward them.

Alice felt awkward.

She stopped Lottie and wanted to teach her a lesson, but now it was Lottie who taught her a lesson! Thinking of this, she looked at the two bodyguards and said, "Catch her!"

After the bodyguards caught Lottie, Alice walked up to Lottie and was about to slap her.

Lottie closed her eyes.

Although she had some martial arts skills, she could not beat these two tall and strong bodyguards.

She even had no enough energy to struggle.

"Ah-!"

Lottie did not feel any pain that she expected, but heard Alice's howl.

She opened her eyes in shock.

She felt helpless.

Because she saw that Alice was pushed down and beaten by Elijah and Fabian.

Elijah and Fabian usually looked gentleman and noble.

But now, they did not care their image and kept hitting Alice.

Alice was struggling desperately.

However, Alice's hands and feet were grasped by Frank and others, so she could not escape.

In other words, Alice had no choice but to be hit by Elijah and Fabian.

Stella was videotaping with her mobile phone not far away. She looked at Lottie,

"Don't worry! They won't kill her."

Lottie was speechless.

She knew that Elijah and Fabian wouldn't kill her.

But ...

Lottie frowned and glared at the two bodyguards who were holding her, "Leave me alone." The two bodyguards looked at each other, and then they let Lottie go.

Lottie strode to Stella, "When do you come?"

Stella shrugged, "We just arrive."

"Elijah and Fabian saw Alice hit you, so they couldn't stand it anymore and rushed over."

"Fortunately, I asked Frank to get that bad woman. Otherwise, they will be injured."

Stella turned around and asked seriously, "is Uncle Chapman ok?"

Lottie did not expect that Stella would care about Ralph, so she was stunned.

After a while, she said, "He is not good."

"Stop!"

Stella put away her phone and held Lottie's hand, "Let's go."

Elijah and Fabian stopped hitting Alice and followed Stella and Lottie.

Alice lay on the ground and could not stand up for a long time.

Elijah and Fabian looked weak, but they hit her fiercely!

Two bodyguards rushed to help Alice.

Alice took a deep breath, "Help me in."

She had to see how seriously Ralph was injured.

She planned to take advantage of Ralph's injury to make trouble to the Old Mr. Chapman. When Alice was about to go in, she was stopped by a few tall and strong men. Frank sneered and raised his hand to block her way, "Miss White, you can't go in." Alice frowned and glared at him, "Who are you? Why do you stop me?"

"We are Stella's bodyguards."

"She doesn't allow you to go in."

Frank chuckled and looked at Alice's two bodyguards, "I advise you to give up." Alice bit her lip. She looked at Frank, and took a step back.

She could not defeat Frank.

She felt angry, and turned back to the car to call Yank.

"Yank, can you help me?"

"Ralph is injured and he is treated in the hospital now. I want to visit him, but Lottie stopped me." Yank was playing golf.

Hearing that, he felt shocked.

After a while, he asked, "Why does Ralph get injured?"

Alice said, "I do it."

"I arrange someone to kill Lottie, but I don't expect..."

Yank felt angry.

"Are you crazy?!"

"Why do you arrange someone to kill Lottie?"

"Do you know consequences?"

"You should discuss it with me and come up with an appropriate solution!"

"Are you stupid? Do you think that Ralph can't find it out?"

"The Chapmans don't know Ralph is injured until now. Do you think carefully that if you go to the hospital, the Chapmans will suspect you?"

Alice was silent for a long time.

After a while, she understood what Yank meant.

She felt worried and asked, "What should I do?" "I don't think so much. Can you..."

Yank closed his eyes and said, "I apply for a flight route right away. You can take my private plane to leave."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 187 Don't Let Her Go

When Lottie rushed into, Ralph was in the emergency room.

Sitting on the bench, Lottie looked at the red words of Under Emergency, and felt worried.
It's all her fault.

If she could think twice and did not run out alone in the rain,

Ralph would not be injured.

The four of them waited for a long time outside the emergency room.

Finally, Ralph's attending doctor walked out of the emergency room.

He looked at Lottie and said, "Ralph is fine."

"He is in a coma. His wounds are infected, and he loses too much blood"

The doctor continued to say, "Ralph has been protected since he was a child." "His gene is special."

"He rejects the blood from ordinary people."

"In short, except for his lineal relatives, other people's blood must be tested to confirm with the special gene, so that Ralph can use it."

He sighed, "Mr. Chapman loses too much blood, and the blood source is not enough."

After saying, the doctor looked at Elijah and Fabian, "Maybe Mr. Chapman's two sons can help."

Lottie frowned.

Before she said anything, Elijah and Fabian said at the same time, "Where is the blood transfusion room?" Looking at them, Lottie felt relieved.

She turned to look at the doctor and asked, "They are young child. Will the blood transfusion affect their health?" The doctor smiled, "No. They will recover after a good rest."

"Mr. Chapman doesn't need much blood."

When Lottie was about to say something, Stella jumped down from the chair.

She ran over, and looked at Lottie, "I can also transfuse my blood to Uncle Chapman."

Stella said, "I did a blood test when I was a child. I also have special genes!"

Looking at Stella, the doctor rubbed her head and said, "Your blood maybe not work."

"There are many special genes. Your special genes may be different from that of Mr. Chapman." "You are a kind girl, but you are no need to do that."

The doctor smiled and said, "Just let boys do it. You are a girl, and you should be obedient and don't make trouble." Stella was a girl with strong self-esteem. Hearing the doctor's words, she felt angry.

She frowned, and asked, "Why can't a girl do it?"

"Girls can also save people. Why do you look down on girls?"

The doctor was shocked.

He didn't expect that his words would irritate her.

He quickly apologized, "You misunderstand me. What I mean is that you are beautiful."

"The little princess can also save people!"

Stella rolled up her sleeves, revealing her slender and white arms, "I want to transfuse my blood to Uncle Chapman. I want to save him!"

"I want to be a little princess who can save people!"

The doctor looked helplessly at Lottie, and then at Elijah and Fabian, "Forget it. Let's go first."

Stella frowned and stood in front of the doctor, "Take me with you!"

"Take her together."

Elijah looked at Stella, "We can draw blood together."

"Inject the blood of me and my little brother to my father, and test Stella's blood to store it in the blood bank to save more people."

Fabian also agreed, "That's right. Stella wants to save people, and no matter who he is."

He turned to look at Stella, "Am I right?"

Stella frowned and felt unhappy, but she agreed them, "That's it!"

"I'm a little fairy who can save people!"

The doctor sighed helplessly and asked a nurse to take them to the blood infusion room to draw blood.

The most urgent thing is to inject blood for Ralph and he should not waste time on these trivial things.

After they left, Lottie continued to wait outside the emergency room alone.

After a while, her phone rang.

It was Kayden.

Lottie frowned and answered, "Kayden."

"Lottie."

Kayden was not used to calling Lottie aunt-in-law, so he still called her name, "I have something to tell you." "Go ahead."

Kayden said, "I know that Ralph is seriously injured. Please forgive me for not being able to go to the hospital to see him now."

"I have something more important to do for him."

"He helps me so much, so it's my turn to help him."

Kayden took a deep breath and said, "I find that Yank applies for a private plane route ten minutes ago. An hour later, his private plane will fly to Africa."

Lottie frowned, "Why does Yank go to Africa?" Kayden chuckled, "Do you think it is he who wants to go to Africa?"

"Yank rarely takes a private plane. He used to be a Special Forces soldier, and he prefers to drive an off-road vehicle or take a train to travel."

"He hasn't used his private plane for more than two years. Now, he hurries to apply for a private plane route. Don't you think there is something wrong?"

"Ralph's business covers all over the world except for Africa."

"Yank knows that when the plane arrives in Africa, Ralph can't control the direction of the plane."

Kayden had already made it clear. If Lottie didn't understand, she would be a fool.

Lottie thought of Yank's previous help for Alice.

She held the phone tightly, "Stop her."

Yank was a smart man. He knew that if Ralph woke up, he would not revenge Alice.

He wanted to send Alice out before Ralph woke up.

Thinking of this, Lottie took a deep breath, "Can you stop her?"

Kayden smiled and said, "Lottie, you overestimate me."

"These years, I work in the entertainment industry. Since Natalia is sick, I have been looking doctors for her every day." "My followers are arranged to look for doctors."

"Yank must arrange many people to protect Alice to leave safely. I can't stop her at all."

"That's why I called you."

"Ralph's followers only obey his orders in the past, but later he married you, and told his followers to obey your orders." "Now, Ralph is unconscious. Only you can order his followers."

Lottie held her phone tightly and became decisive.

"I see."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 188 She Can't Leave

After hanging up the phone, Lottie turned to look at Sean who had been waiting in the distance.

"Do you and your followers obey my order?"

Sean felt confused. He did not know why Lottie suddenly asked him such a question.

After a moment of silence, he sighed and said, "Mrs. Chapman."

“You can order us.”

“Not long after you married Mr. Chapman, he officially informed us that we must obey your orders.”
Hearing this, Lottie felt moved.

She held back tears and looked back at the emergency room.

This man...

He did a lot of things for her.

If Kayden did not tell her, she wouldn't know that he had ordered his followers to obey her orders.
Lottie closed her eyes, “Come with me.”

“Take your followers together. We go the airport now.”

When Lottie turned around, she hesitated for a moment and then went to the blood transfusion room.
In the blood infusion room, the three children were drawing blood with the help of nurses.

Seeing her, Elijah raised his head and asked, “What's wrong?”

She said, “I need your help with monitoring.”

Elijah and Stella were both top hackers, so it was not a problem for them to attack the airport's monitor.
She needed someone to help her locate Alice so that she could find Alice as soon as possible.

“Okay.”

Elijah gave Lottie an earphone and said, “Be careful.”

Lottie turned around and left with Sean.

The moment the elevator door was closed, she turned around to look in the direction of the emergency room.

The emergency room door was still closed.

She closed her eyes.

In the past, Ralph always protected her.

Now...

It was her turn to do something for him.

Even though she was very worried about him, she must stop Alice.

The blood infusion room was extremely quiet.

When the nurse put the blood bags aside and was about to make a mark, she saw two of them jump off the chairs.

Elijah and Stella took out their laptop quickly and hacked into the airport monitor systems.

The nurse was stunned.

She sighed, and felt that children from rich families were really powerful!

When she looked down at the three bags of blood on the table, she was confused.

She forgot which one should be stored in the blood bank!

At this time, the doctor hurried in and asked, "Is the blood ready?"

The nurse was silent.

"Are these two bags?"

The doctor took them away, "It's urgent!"

When the nurse came to her senses, the doctor already taken away the two blood bags!

She lowered her head and stared at the rest one. She finally realized that she made a serious mistake! Mr. Chapman had special genes. If he used inappropriate blood, he would die!

Thinking of this, the nurse rushed out of the blood infusion room.

By the time she hurried to the emergency room, the two bags of blood had been put on the shelf and were slowly transfused into Ralph Chapman's body.

One of them had already been transfused.

She panicked, pulled the doctor aside, and told him what had just happened.

"What!?"

The doctor scolded her and reported it to the director.

The director rushed over with Edward Grant. "Don't panic. Go and get the surveillance video!" "Mr. Chapman's blood transfusion may not be that little girl's."

The nurse nodded in panic and the two of them went to the monitoring room together.

But the answer from the monitoring room made all the doctors in the room fall silent.

The bag of blood that Ralph Chapman had transfused was from Stella...

The nurse's legs went limp and she fell to the ground.

If Mr. Chapman died because of her negligence, then her whole family would not be able to survive in Rexwell in the future! No, not just her.

The whole hospital would be buried with Ralph Chapman!

The dean closed his eyes helplessly and let out a long sigh. "Go and check if there are any other ways to remedy it..."

As soon as the man's voice fell, the door of the monitoring room was open. The doctor who came in was surprised. "Mr. Chapman is awake!"

Edward Grant, who was standing aside, suddenly paused. "You're awake?" How was that possible?

Because of the special genes in Ralph Chapman's blood, his blood could only be injected with specific genes. Otherwise, there would be a serious rejection reaction and he would die directly.

And this gene was passed down from generation to generation, and only one out of ten million people could have such a gene.

How could it be so coincidental that Stella Barton also had such genes?

This kind of coincidence was really too strange.

Unless...

Edward Grant turned his head and glanced at the doctor in the room. "Do you think that little girl looks like Mr. Chapman?"

All the doctors were stunned and nodded. "Yes."

"Doctor Grant, why do you ask this? Don't tell me..."

Edward Grant frowned. "I'm going to find Ralph Chapman now."

By the time Lottie Green arrived at the airport with her men, forty minutes had passed since Kayden Chapman had called her.

In other words, Alice White's plane would take off in 20 minutes.

"Mommy, they're in the east."

In the headset, Elijah Chapman's voice was calm. "At the second entrance to the east, the person protected by a group of people is suspected to be Alice White, but I'm not sure."

"My face can't be seen clearly."

Lottie Green narrowed her eyes. "Then treat her as Alice White."

After that, she waved her hand behind her. "Let's go!"

Sean Holland rushed in with a group of people.

Among the men in black behind Sean Holland, someone secretly knocked on the phone screen.

"They have arrived at the east side of the airport."

Outside the airport, a black BMW was parked in the corner.

Yank Chapman also stared coldly at the moving blue flash point on the computer screen. "Those people should be able to hold Lottie Green back for a while. Hurry up and go in."

The woman sitting in the passenger seat pursed her lips and looked at him with grievance. "Second brother, am I really going to Africa?"

Yank Chapman closed his eyes. "If you don't leave now, the gods won't be able to save you."

"In order to bluff, I've already sent all men to attract Lottie Green's attention. Why aren't you leaving?"
"She can't leave."

As soon as Yank Chapman finished speaking, the car door was opened from the outside.

A black figure directly opened the car door and sat in the back seat. "Second Uncle, long time no see." Yank Chapman's pupils suddenly contracted. "Kayden Chapman, are you and Lottie Green in cahoots?" "No, I'm in cahoots with uncle."

The man smiled faintly and leaned against the back seat of the car in a comfortable position. "Do you really think I don't know that you let people spy on me?"

"Second Uncle, do you really think that we can do nothing about it when he is injured and unconscious?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 189 You Know Yumi

Lottie Green led Sean Holland and the rest to surround Yank Chapman's group.

The man in the lead frowned and raised his head to look at Lottie Green. "What are you doing?"

Lottie Green's lips curled into a faint smile as she glanced at the woman in red. "Who is she?"

The woman was wearing a red cloak, which was big enough to cover her whole face.

The woman's body paused slightly when she heard Lottie Green's words.

A moment later, she lifted her cape, revealing her bright and clean face. "Lottie Green."

Lottie Green's eyes narrowed slightly.

The woman in the red cloak in front of her was not Alice White.

It was Yoyo.

Lottie Green smiled faintly and raised her hand to rub her chin. "Aren't you still in Xon County? You're back so fast?" She could come back because Ralph Chapman was in poor health, so Sean Holland drove all the way back.

Why did Yoyo come back so quickly?

"Brother picked me up by plane."

Yoyo looked up at the time and smiled faintly behind her ear. "Judging from the time, Alice White should have boarded the plane and left now, right?"

'Africa is a place where Ralph Chapman's power can't penetrate.'

With that, she sighed lightly. "You can't find her."

Looking at her smug expression, Lottie Green shrugged. "Then you might be disappointed."

"But..."

Lottie Green looked up at Yoyo. "Why would Yank Chapman dare use all of his men to lure them out of the mountain?"

"Isn't he afraid that I will divide Ralph Chapman's men into several small teams and surround them?"

Yoyo looked up and chuckled. "Second Brother knows all your arrangements well. Do you believe it?"

The woman nodded. "Of course."

"Since you said so..."

After that, she turned to look at Sean Holland. "Check it out."

There were indeed Yank Chapman's undercover agents in their team.

Sean Holland nodded and turned to glare at the men in black behind him. "Go back first!"

"Don't let me find out who is the spy here!"

He glared at these people fiercely. "Once I find out, I want his whole family to suffer!"

On the way here, he wasn't convinced when Kayden Chapman and Lottie Green made a plan.

"My brothers and I have been working for Mr. Chapman for many years. It's impossible for us to be undercover!"

"Why do you suspect us?" At that time, Lottie Green still smiled faintly. "It's good if there's really no undercover agent. If there's... we can't take the risk."

Thinking back to what he had said at that time, Sean Holland only felt that his face was slapped hard.

He glared coldly at the person behind him again. "Let's go!"

The men in black all lowered their heads and followed Sean Holland quietly.

When he passed by Lottie Green, he frowned and grabbed Lottie Green by her neck.

This sudden turn of events stunned Lottie Green and Sean Holland.

After a while, Sean Holland frowned. "It's you?" "It's me!"

The man in black frowned and stared at Sean Holland coldly. "Go back with you and wait for your investigation?" "When you find out who I am, will I still be alive?"

"Now, get me a private plane immediately. I'm going to fly away!"

"Otherwise, I'll kill her!"

The man in black knew his current situation very well. "She is Mr. Chapman's sweetheart. He is still in a coma. If I really hurt her, you can't explain it to Mr. Chapman!"

"Hurry up and go!" "This is a good plan." Lottie Green gave a wry smile. "Did you learn martial arts from Yank Chapman?"

The man in black was stunned. He probably hadn't expected that Lottie Green would still be able to chat with him calmly after being taken hostage.

After a while, he snorted. "Yes!"

“Ralph Chapman was once the commander of the army. I came back with him when he retired. I have been undercover with Ralph Chapman for many years.”

After that, he tightened his grip on Lottie Green’s hand. “Don’t move, or I’ll strangle you to death!” Lottie Green smiled faintly. “Actually... I can also strangle you to death.” The moment her voice fell, she directly broke free from the shackles of the man in black and fought with him.

At first, the man in black didn’t know her strength. After being beaten, he suddenly realized that Lottie Green had practiced martial arts!

But because he had underestimated the enemy in front of him, he had been beaten too seriously by her. When he wanted to fight with her, he couldn’t beat her at all.

Lottie Green quickly subdued him and pressed him to the ground.

The man in black struggled for a long time but did not struggle again.

After a long while, he finally sighed as if he had lost all his strength. “I didn’t expect that the Lottie Green, who looks weak, is actually a master.”

“You flatter me.”

Lottie Green smiled faintly and looked up at Sean Holland, who was already stunned. “Are you still not coming over?”

Only then did Sean Holland recover from the shock.

He hurriedly called for the people around him to come over and subdue the men in black together.

In the end, Sean Holland ran happily to Lottie Green’s side. “Madam, you’re really... too amazing.”

Lottie Green frowned. “I’ve been a stunt double for many years.”

Although Arthur Bell had repeatedly warned her not to show her skills in public, the situation just now was too urgent.

On the one hand, Kayden Chapman might not be able to control Yank Chapman for too long.

On the other hand, she was also afraid that Sean Holland would really be manipulated by Yank Chapman’s men because of her.

Only once... Nothing will happen, right?

With this in mind, she strode out of the airport with Sean Holland and the others and walked toward the parking lot outside the airport.

In a corner of the airport, a mysterious man in black silently put away his mobile phone which turned on the camera.

When Lottie Green arrived at the parking lot, Kayden Chapman’s men had already taken control of Alice White.

Alice White, dressed in white, was escorted by two bodyguards and kept struggling.

She raised her head and glared angrily at Lottie Green when she saw her. "Don't think you won just because you caught me!" "So what if Ralph Chapman cares about you? So what if Elijah Chapman and Fabian Chapman like you!"

"You will always be Yumi's substitute. You will never be comparable to Yumi!"

"Shut up, Alice!"

Yank Chapman, who was standing to one side, interrupted Alice White coldly, "You still don't know how to repent at this time!" After that, he raised his head and looked at Lottie Green with some embarrassment. "Sister-in-law."

It's because I didn't discipline this girl well that she talked nonsense.

"Don't take it to heart. In Ralph's heart, you are much more important than Yumi."

Lottie Green raised her eyebrows lightly. "Second brother, you know Yumi too?"

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 190 News that Make You Can't Sleep

"Of course I know."

Yank Chapman also smiled faintly. "Back then, when Ralph was on a business trip, it was me to find Yuri first and call him back."

After that, the man turned to look at Lottie Green. "How is Ralph now?"

"He is still in the rescue..."

When it came to Ralph Chapman, Lottie Green couldn't help but glare at Alice White.

"Lottie, go find Uncle first."

Kayden Chapman frowned and said, "I'll handle it here."

Lottie Green nodded and turned to leave.

After walking a few steps, she suddenly seemed to think of something and turned to look at Yank Chapman. "Second Brother, why don't we go and see Ralph together?"

"If he wakes up from his injury, he may want to see his family more." Yank Chapman narrowed his eyes. Lottie Green wasn't stupid at all.

On the surface, she asked him to go with her to see Ralph Chapman because she thought that Ralph Chapman was injured and had to have relatives present.

In fact, she was afraid that he would put pressure on Kayden Chapman behind her and finally let Alice White go.

But he still smiled. "My sister-in-law is thoughtful."

After that, he lifted his leg and strode to Sean Holland's car.

Lottie Green was a little surprised.

Subconsciously, she turned to look at Kayden Chapman.

The man nodded at her, indicating that she could rest assured.

Only then did Lottie Green turn around and follow behind Yank Chapman into the car.

From the airport to the hospital, Yank Chapman was very calm along the way.

He even began to chat with Lottie Green about her recent work.

“Are we really not going to film ‘Azeroath’?”

“What a pity.”

“I’m also curious. Alfred Barton can be considered an old man in the entertainment industry. Why did he suddenly quit acting? Later, I heard that he fell in love with someone.”

Lottie Green replied passively one by one.

When Yank Chapman stopped talking, she took a deep breath and leaned against the passenger seat to look at Yank Chapman, who was in the back seat of the car. “Second Brother.”

“Since you know Yumi... do you know me?”

She used to be Yumi’s best friend.

Since Yank Chapman had known Yumi before and even found Yumi for Ralph Chapman, he should know her too, right? The woman’s question caused Yank Chapman’s body to suddenly pause.

After a while, he coldly raised the corner of his mouth. “If I know Yumi, why should I know you?”

Lottie Green paused. “Yumi and I...”

“You have nothing to do with Yumi.”

Before she could finish her words, Yank Chapman interrupted her coldly, “You are you, and Yumi is Yumi.”

Lottie Green was baffled by his words.

The woman frowned. Just as she was about to say something, the car stopped at the entrance of the hospital.

As soon as Lottie Green got out of the car, she met Edward Grant, who was standing at the entrance of the hospital.

Edward Grant couldn’t help but laugh when he saw Lottie Green. “Ralph is awake.”

The woman paused and quickly ran into the hospital.

Yank Chapman followed behind her and frowned when he saw the woman running towards Ralph Chapman’s ward.

He admitted that at this moment, he was a little jealous of Ralph Chapman.

With such a woman, she was willing to do anything for him.

When he was in a coma, he caught the person he wanted to catch on his behalf and helped him solve the traitor he wanted to solve.

Knowing that he had woken up, she ran to him like a little bird.

On the other hand, the girl he liked...

Yank Chapman also sighed.

There was a huge gap between them.

Even now, he still had to clean up her mess.

"Ralph knows."

Edward Grant looked up into the distance and said lightly, "Second Brother, have you thought about how to end this?" Yank Chapman was also stunned.

After a while, he turned around and asked, "What did Ralph return to?"

"Lottie Green, she's the Yumi you're talking about."

Edward Grant lowered his eyes and fiddled with the phone in his hand. "Half an hour ago, my men had already compared the hair and nails of Lottie Green and the two children to each other. As a result, it could come out in three hours."

After that, he turned to look at Yank Chapman coldly. "Second Brother, you also participated in the fire, didn't you?" Yank Chapman narrowed his eyes.

After a long time, he chuckled. "I don't know what you're talking about."

After saying that, he turned around lightly and said, "I suddenly remember that no one has informed Mr. Old Chapman about Ralph's injury."

"I'll go back and inform them."

After saying this, Yank Chapman placed one hand in his pocket and strode out of the hospital.

He didn't notice the panic in his calm eyes the moment he turned around.

"Honey."

Lottie Green sprinted all the way into Ralph Chapman's ward.

The woman rushed in and held his big hand, which was not injured. "Are you still uncomfortable?" "It's not difficult."

"Lottie."

"Yes."

"I'm very happy to marry you."

The man's pale face made his black eyes even deeper.

He stared at her face quietly, as if he wanted to nail her whole body into his heart. Lottie Green felt a little uncomfortable by his gaze.

She raised her hand and touched her face. "Is there anything on my face?"

"No, I just think you look good."

Ralph Chapman rarely confessed his love to Lottie Green so straightforwardly. The woman was stunned, and then her whole face turned red and hot.

She pursed her lips and faltered. "Why did you suddenly say that?"

The man looked down at the time.

There were still two and a half hours before the DNA results came out.

He couldn't help it anymore.

But...

Many things were very difficult to explain.

He still planned to wait until the official report came out. After everything was settled, these things would be more suitable for her.

The doctor also said that if Stella's blood entered his body without any rejection reaction, it proved that there was such a special genes in Stella's blood.

And a person with such special genes could appear among tens of millions of people.

He hoped that there was no coincidence between him and Stella.

Thinking of this, the man sighed and pointed to his bed. "Sleep with me for a while?"

"Okay."

After saying that, Lottie Green took a deep breath and carefully climbed onto the bed, hugging the man's strong waist tightly.

Nothing was more important than him.

If he hadn't been injured today, or if he hadn't gone through hell today, she would never know how much she cared about him and how important he was to her.

Fortunately.

She buried her head in his chest. It was not too late to know now.

Perhaps it was because she had been in high spirits that Lottie Green had fallen asleep on Ralph Chapman's bed.

When she woke up again, it was already dark.

"Little lazy bug, do you want to sleep a little longer?"

Hearing the man's deep voice, she chuckled and shook her head. "I'm not sleeping anymore."

“All right.”

“Next, I want to announce a message that will make you completely awake and unable to fall asleep.”
