

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 31 I Won't Give in

When Lottie woke up, it was the next morning.

She had a lot of nightmares overnight. When she woke up, her pillow was moist with sweat.

She got up, recharged her cell phone, and went to the bathroom to wash up.

She could vaguely remember what had happened last night.

She was locked in an empty lounge on the set.

Her cell phone was power off and it was darkness around her.

When she was desperate, she saw Ralph...

After that, she lost consciousness.

Last night, Ralph appeared before her like a god.

Thinking of that, Lottie blushed and her heartbeat quickened.

Suddenly, the phone rang outside, which brought her back to the earth.

Lottie rushed out to answer the phone.

It was Connie.

"Lottie, what are you doing?"

“Something big has happened!”

Lottie wiped her face with a towel and frowned slightly. “What made you get up so early to call me?”

“Isobel posted the picture of you and Luke on the Internet!”

“The netizens all denounce you. They said you intended to seduce Luke!”

Lottie was stunned.

Connie said anxiously, “Isobel made your face vague and declared that she didn’t want to be so merciless. Due to it, the netizens are more curious about you.”

“Someone analyzed the costume you were wearing and pointed out that the woman on the picture is just Isobel’s stunt double.

Now they are searching your identity.”

Connie’s words were like a heavy hammer that hit Lottie’s heart.

She bit her lips and scanned Isobel’s blogs.

What Connie said was true.

“My boyfriend is fine. I hope this kind of thing won’t happen again. (I make that actress’s face vague since I don’t want to be too merciless. If she dares to do that again, I wouldn’t let her off.)

A video was attached, in which Luke tore the wounds on her shoulder and she fell.

The ending of the video was her wronged and angry face after Isobel slapped her.

The netizens commented on this post and scolded Lottie for she was so shameless and even seduced Luke.

Someone even asked Natalia to make this shameless actress's name public.

When she was reading these comments, a cold shiver ran down her spine.

She thought Isobel and Luke just wanted to lock her up to give her a lesson.

It turned out that it was just a tiny part of their plan.

They not only wanted to break her down but also wanted to kick her out of the entertainment circle.

Moreover, the relationship between them would become a hot topic again with this matter, which would make them more famous.

They only took her as a stepping stone! Lottie gritted her teeth. She had underestimated Isobel and Luke.

Isobel went to the dressing room yesterday to confirm where Lottie's wounds, instead of threatening her.

When she acted with Luke, Luke should have stretched out his left hand, but he stretched out his right hand and pressed her wounds precisely.

He used so much force that her wounds were torn again.

When Lottie was too painful to stand up, Luke took the opportunity to hold her in his arms. Isobel came over to slap her.

Lottie only felt the turmoil in her mind.

Their plan was very thorough.

"What should we do?"

Connie's voice sounded anxious on the phone, "Lottie, should we fight back or negotiate with them?"

"They have made a name. I am just a stunt double. I am no match for them."

Lottie closed her eyes. "And I don't want to negotiate with them."

They just want her to beg them, right?

Yesterday afternoon, she refused Luke's request for giving some guidance to Isobel. In the evening, they set her up like this.

"But..."

Connie pursed her lips, "Lottie, if we don't deal with this trouble, perhaps you can't even be a stunt double..."

"You are the most excellent performer in our class. We thought you would be the best actress..."

"But Luke made you..."

Connie choked and failed to continue.

"I won't give in."

Lottie took a deep breath and looked at herself in the mirror with a smile. "I won't give in even if I lose the job."

After hanging up, Lottie lay on the bed to read the news.

All the netizens abused Lottie for being too shameless and even seducing Luke.

Lottie was not very sad when reading these comments.

Lottie knew that it was Isobel who was shameless.

Then, her phone rang. It was the head of the studio.

“Lottie, you are so fearless and even offend our boss!”

“Brodie also knows your name. He just called me and wants to meet you.”

“He may have decided to dismiss you. No one can help you this time. Prepare to pack up your luggage and go home!” With that said, the head hung up the phone.

She had expected it.

Lottie sighed, changed her clothes, and went downstairs.

In the living room downstairs, Elijah was holding the laptop and tapping.

When she came downstairs, Elijah looked up at her. “Does your shoulder still hurt?”

Lottie was stunned and a bit confused.

Elijah sighed and turned his laptop to show her the video.

On the screen was the video posted by Isobel.

“That man did it on purpose.”

He turned his head with concern in his eyes. “It hurts a lot?”

Lottie was a bit moved.

She smiled and rubbed his head with her hand. “No.”

“Your mommy is strong.”

Elijah pouted, “If so, why are you afraid of the darkness?”

Lottie was lost for words.

She coughed and looked around. “Where is Fabian?”

“He?”

Elijah shrugged his shoulders, “Dad punished him to play chess with my grandpa.”

“Why did your dad punish him?”

Elijah looked at Lottie with his big dark eyes. “Fabian laughed at my dad for he could not make you have a baby girl.

Lottie was speechless.

She blushed, turned her gaze, and ran away with her handbag.

The head said that Brodie was waiting for her in the administration building.

Lottie got off the car and found that the administration building was in a festive mood.

The administration building was decorated with two red lanterns.

When Brodie saw Lottie, he hurriedly came over, “Lottie, you are finally here. I have been waiting for you for a long time!” Lottie was at a loss.

She glanced at the administration building in a festive mood and at the boss who was smiling.

“Firing me just makes you so happy like this?”

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 32 Let Luke Kneel

Brodie was confused, "What?"

Lottie nodded. "You want to fire me because of the news on the Internet..."

"What news?"

Brodie looked at his secretary confusedly. "What happened?"

The secretary paused, leaned over, and whispered to Brodie.

Brodie frowned and put on a serious look.

Lottie sighed helplessly.

She had to be dismissed anyway.

When she decided to resign, Brodie gave her a complimenting smile and said, "Don't worry. I'll handle it." "I will ban Isobel from working in the entertainment circle at once!"

Hearing that, Lottie and Brodie's men were all stunned.

The secretary whispered to remind Brodie, "It's Lottie who should be banned."

Brodie frowned, "No. I said it is Isobel. She turned the facts upside down with the video shoot on the set.

“Lottie is a very decent stunt double. She has good taste and devotes herself to work. She won’t seduce a nobody like Luke.

With that said, he smiled at Lottie, “Lottie, let’s have a good chat somewhere else.”

Lottie was shocked.

What happened?

She was taken to the VIP room of the administration building.

Brodie served her with a cup of tea, “We have deleted all the videos on the internet. Don’t worry. It won’t have any impact on your career.”

Last night, after Ralph left, Brodie pondered overnight.

It was said that Ralph was ugly, old, and bad-tempered. But Ralph was quite different from Brodie’s impressions when Brodie saw Ralph.

People said that Ralph didn’t care about his wife and even abused her. However, Brodie felt that Ralph loved his wife very much.

Brodie had no idea why Ralph married a stunt double, but he knew that he needed to be nice to Lottie. In this way, it would be easier for him to get the investment of Chapman Group.

Thinking of that, Brodie smiled more brightly, “Lottie, you are a good actress. I will certainly give you more chances.”

“You only need to focus on work. I will make you be the heroine if you want!”

Lottie looked at the cup that Brodie handed to her in surprise.

For a moment she braced herself to take the cup. “Why are you so nice to me?”

Brodie was not an amiable person.

She felt frightened by his attitude.

“Because...”

Before Brodie could finish, someone pushed the door open.

The director of As White as in Snow came in.

“Brodie, I want to change the stunt double who seduced Luke yesterday.”

He sat down opposite Lottie and complained, “I quarreled with Natalia on the set. She refused my request, so I can only ask you...”

Obviously, the director did not recognize Lottie and continued to talk.

“Luke’s agent just came to me and told me that it has affected Luke and Isobel’s relationship. If I don’t change her, Luke and Isobel will refuse to play the roles.”

“The unprofessional actors should be banned.” “Let them get the results they want.”

Brodie interrupted the director, took the cup, and took a sip. “He really takes himself as a somebody.

Lottie wants to seduce him? For what?”

With that said, he gave a glance at Lottie, “Lottie, for what?”

Lottie didn’t say anything.

The director was stunned and couldn’t say a word.

He lowered his voice, "The investment is two hundred million. If Luke quits his role, the shooting plan will be disrupted and we can't get the investment."

Brodie snorted, "Two hundred million is nothing."

"Don't turn the facts upside down for two hundred million."

He spoke firmly with reason.

As long as he pleased Lottie, he could earn more than two hundred million.

The director gave Brodie a look as if Brodie was a lunatic, "Are you crazy?"

"Whatever your plan is, Luke can't quit his role!"

Then, the director got up angrily, "If you don't ban that stunt double, I will unite with all the staff and let them resign." Bang!

The director left and slammed the door.

"He is so rude!"

Brodie looked at the director's back and scolded him. Then he turned his head and looked at Lottie with a smile. "Lottie, did it frighten you?"

Lottie clenched her teeth.

She was not a fool, so she could sense Brodie was strange today.

Brodie was a greedy man who wished his employees to work overtime every day.

How could he be willing to lose two hundred million for such a small figure like her? She bit her lip.

"Brodie, I'd better quit."

Brodie looked at her with an obsequious smile. “No. It is worth a lot.” “You are Ralph’s wife. As long as you persuade Ralph, I can make more than two hundred million.” Lottie was shocked.

She got it.

Brodie was so strange today because he found that she was Ralph’s wife.

Ralph had hundreds of billions.

Mixed feelings came to her. She looked at Brodie’s face and smiled. “You’ve thought too highly of me.” “Ralph and I are not the ones.”

“He’s great while I’m not. I won’t ask him for help.”

She took a deep breath and stood up, “You want to be associated with Ralph with my help. I’m sorry. You’ve thought too much.” “I can’t bring you 200 hundred million, so you might as well take your staff’s advice.”

Then she picked up her bag and turned to leave. “I quit the job myself.”

Coming out of the administration building, Lottie breathed a sigh of relief.

She would rather be out of work than be taken advantage of.

She wanted a clear conscience.

Just then, a car pulled up beside her.

The window was rolled down, and it was a man’s face. “Elijah said that you would lose your job.”

“I come here to take you home.”

Lottie felt touched when she saw Ralph.

She opened the car door and got in. “Since you knew this, why don’t you help me keep my job?” The man put on a faint smile, “They will beg you.”

Lottie pursed her lips. “Brodie did beg me.”

After all, she was a cash cow in Brodie’s eyes.

Ralph squinted, “I am not talking about him.”

He turned to look at her small face, “I will let Luke kneel to beg you.”

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 33 I Won’t Run the Risk

“You’d better also let Isobel kneel before me and apologize to me.” Lottie twitched her mouth. “Let all people that look down upon me kneel before me.”

Ralph was a bit surprised when she said so.

He narrowed his eyes and smiled. “OK.”

Lottie turned to look at him. “Shall I provide you with a list of names?”

Ralph smiled faintly. “It will be better if you do so.”

“If not, I can find them out myself.”

Lottie was speechless.

Was Ralph serious?

She sighed. “I was just kidding.”

With that said, she rolled down the window and the wind blew in.

The cool wind calmed her down, “I was very cool when I just refused Brodie. I told him that I could solve the problems myself.” “I’d be ashamed if I ended up relying on you.”

Ralph looked at her face quietly.

Lottie looked into his eyes without flinching.

After a while, he turned his head and looked ahead. “I’m always there when you are in need.”

Did he agree with her?

Lottie nodded hurriedly. “I know it.”

She looked at him with a smile. “I won’t be polite if I need your help.”

He turned his gaze and saw her beautiful smile as if there were stars in her eyes.

Ralph subconsciously reached out and gently stroke her head. “I’m waiting.”

His intimate touch stunned Lottie.

Ralph didn’t feel anything wrong. He gently rubbed her head and withdrew his hand. Then he leaned against the seat to take a nap.

Lottie felt her soul out of her body.

She blushed and shivered a bit. Her heartbeat quickened.

Subconsciously, she peered at Ralph from the corner of her eye.

When he closed his eyes to take a nap, she was observing his handsome and noble profile.

Maybe she couldn't have married a great man like him if he hadn't had two kids.

They arrived at the villa by car half an hour later.

Fabian was playing chess with his grandpa and didn't come back. Elijah went somewhere else.

Lottie turned on her computer when she went upstairs to change her clothes.

More and more people abused her on the Internet.

Someone posted Lottie's picture and information. Her picture was edited and "Bitch" was on her face.

It was an insulting word. Though she was strong-minded, she still felt uncomfortable when she saw it.

She was angry when she read the news.

She thought herself strong enough, but she couldn't calmly pocket the abuse.

She couldn't handle it calmly.

Suddenly, her cell phone rang.

Looking at the caller ID, Lottie took a deep breath and answered the phone. At the same time, she started recording this call.

“The boss has agreed to kick you out of the studio.”

Isobel on the phone was smug, “Lottie, I’ve told you before. You can’t fight against me.”

“When we first met each other, you were noble and proud while I was a miserable girl.”

“At that time, you considered yourself right, so you cursed and drove away the boss who wanted to support me. You gave me five hundred and asked me to love myself and live a good life.”

“But now…”

“Look at you. You are only an illegitimate daughter of the Green family.”

“You were abandoned by your boyfriend, disliked by your husband, and even out of work.”

“That’s fate.”

Lottie clutched her phone, “Did you set me up?”

“You came into the lounge yesterday to confirm where my wound was.”

“According to the script, Luke was supposed to press my right shoulder, but he pressed my left shoulder.” “Yes!”

Before Lottie finished, she was interrupted by Isobel.

“You were trapped in the lounge last night. It was my plan.”

“I know that you’ve been afraid of the darkness since that night five years ago, so I did it on purpose.” “You can’t fight against me.”

Lottie took a deep breath and glanced at the phone screen. The call was being recorded. She gritted her teeth and said, "Isobel, I wrote biographies of every role you played before to guide you."

"I haven't done it this time. Do you have to be so angry and even set me up?"

Isobel snorted, "I don't need any reason to make a fool of you."

"Don't think so highly of yourself. I've found another person to replace you."

"I just want to bully you, can't I?"

"You can."

Lottie snorted. "But let's see what will happen."

Then Lottie hung up the phone.

How dare she hang up?

Isobel held the table corner and ordered the assistant on the side, "Hire more netizens to abuse Lottie as harshly as they can." "Isobel, we have no need to do too much."

Luke came over, held Isobel in his arms, and felt pity for Lottie, "I'm afraid that she cannot stand it and commit suicide."

Isobel rubbed against Luke's chest with her head and said in a charming voice, "She is very tough. If not, she would have died in the car accident."

Thinking of that, Luke sighed, "You're right."

"But..."

He lowered his head and kissed Isobel on her forehead. "If you want to ruin her life, why don't you reveal her scandal?" That scandal could lead to her downfall.

"I cannot make it public at my will."

Isobel rolled her eyes, "Rexwell is not large. Others can find it out without much effort."

"Her baby is not dead. If that scandal broke, her baby's family may protect her since she is the mother. I won't run this risk."

Lottie received a call from Noel.

"Because of the news about you, some reporters are tailing after Natalia and take photos. She asks you to come over.

"Natalia decides to let them follow if they want."

"Natalia will take you to the hospital."

"Isobel could whip up the public opinion. We can also do that."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 34 Make Him Go Bankrupt

When Lottie arrived at the hospital, Natalia was waiting.

Seeing Lottie, Natalia got out of the touring car, held Lottie's arms, and strode into the hospital.

Those reporters behind followed up like annoying flies.

Natalia took Lottie to inspect wounds.

Only when they sat down did Lottie know that Natalia took her to inspect the wound caused by Isobel.

“Forget it.”

Lottie smiled faintly, untied the button of her blouse, and exposed her left shoulder wrapped in gauze, “You should inspect this.” Natalia widened her eyes in shock, “Lottie, you...”

Lottie tore the gauze on the wound calmly and revealed the wound that had been torn by Luke, “When I worked as a stunt double before, someone replaced the prop knife with the real one. I got injured and that wound didn’t heal.”

“Yesterday, I fell not because I was not dedicated or something went wrong. When I was acting, Luke happened to touch my wound.”

Natalia was stunned and got it.

No wonder it seemed that Lottie seduced Luke.

“He did it on purpose.”

The doctor on the side inspected Lottie’s wound and sighed, “He torn apart your wound that hasn’t healed.” “How could you bear it?”

The doctor sighed as he had Natalie’s wounds dressed, “You should take good care of yourself and prevent others from doing that again.

Lottie nodded without saying anything.

Natalia looked at Lottie in shock. After a long time, she gritted her teeth, "That's just their plan, right?" "Yes."

Lottie smiled. "Isobel was there when I was injured."

Natalia gritted her teeth, asked the doctor for a report of Lottie's injury, and posted it on the Internet.

"Lottie is not only my stunt double but also my friend. She is being bullied by others. As her friend, I need to speak up for her!" Soon, Natalia's post stirred up heated debate on the Internet.

Professionals said the report was true.

A crew member on the set said Lottie was indeed injured because of an accident.

Someone even took a screenshot of the video posted by Isobel, in which Luke's fingers sank into Lottie's wounds.

This caused an uproar.

It turned out that the video was fake.

Did Isobel misunderstand Lottie?

A netizen with Stars Surrounding the Moon as his nickname replied, "It was a misunderstanding."

He posted pictures from the surveillance footage on the set and told the reporters the whole story.

The news provoked different responses.

Those who abused Lottie were silent.

Other netizens found that all of these were planned by Isobel.

“How could it be possible?”

In Luke’s studio, Isobel angrily pulled the tablecloth off and the vase and teacups on it were broken into pieces on the ground.

Isobel read the news with hatred in her eyes.

Her scheme should be perfect.

But Natalia even spoke up for Lottie.

Lottie could even prove her innocence with the surveillance footage.

The surveillance footage was confidential. How could she get it? Besides, Lottie should have been fired today!

Isobel was so angry that she took a vase and smashed it into pieces.

“Isobel.”

Luke pushed the door and came in. Looking at the pieces on the ground, he frowned, “You can’t solve the problem by smashing things.”

“The agency just called. They want us to come up with a PR strategy, or your career will be sacrificed.”

To sacrifice her career?

Isobel irritably turned on the computer to refute the netizens’ statement.

“It’s just speculation. Isn’t it too hasty to convict me based on a few pictures?”

“Moreover, even if my boyfriend happened to touch her wound, did she have to throw herself into my boyfriend’s arms?”

“I am angry just because she threw herself into my boyfriend’s arms.”

Isobel’s response aroused heated discussion.

“Isobel Criticizes the Other Woman” became the searching keyword and had more views than “Natalie Speaks for Her Friend”.

Looking at it, Isobel sneered, “She still can’t fight against me.”

Taurus Awards Ceremony would be held in less than half a month. Isobel was the hot candidate and very likely to win the New Star Award.

Isobel chose to do that, not only to humiliate Lottie but also to make herself recognized by more people.

Isobel believed that she could become famous because of these search keywords.

She picked up the phone and called the staff from the public-relations firm, “I want to buy more hits on the search keywords about me, which should be the top one.”

The staff of the public-relations firm was silent for moments, “Ms. Mitchell, if you want to make it, you need to pay three hundred thousand.”

Isobel snorted, “Three hundred thousand is a small amount. Just do it for me.”

Isobel hung up the phone and gave three hundred thousand to that person.”

She must step on Lottie and get a higher position.

The top search keywords could be pushed to all netizens. That was the shortcut for her to become popular.

In the children's room of the Chapmans' villa, the phone on the carpet rang.

"Fabian, she has paid the money. What shall we do next?"

"Try to make more hits to the search keywords about her."

Fabian glanced at Elijah who was typing on the laptop and smiled mischievously, "We do things after we get the money." The man on the phone paused, "But, Master Fabian, your mom will be unhappy if she knows that."

"She won't."

Fabian rolled his eyes, "I'm making money for her. She won't be unhappy."

"Just do your best. I will protect you no matter what the result is."

Fabian hung up the phone and whispered to Elijah, "Bro, how is it? Does Daddy make a move?"

"Soon."

Elijah squinted, "How much money does Lottie's ex-boyfriend have?"

Fabian frowned. "Brother, why are you curious about it?"

"I want him to go bankrupt."

Spoiled By My Bossy CEO Husband - Chapter 35 Break Up Right Away

“Isobel Criticizes the Other Woman” got more hits and ranked second on the list.

In Luke’s studio, the staff excitedly projected the list onto a big screen.

Looking at her name on the screen, Isobel held Luke’s hand tightly, “My name will be the top search soon.” Then, her name would be pushed to all netizens and she would be as popular as Natalia.

Natalia could win her reputation because of the top search about her speaking up for Lottie.

Natalia could become more popular because of that. Isobel believed she could also make it.

“According to the current situation, it will become top search in less than five minutes.”

Yasmin, Luke’s agent, took out the recorder excitedly, “I want to record this historic moment!”

Isobel and Luke stood before the big screen.

They were ready for a photo with the top search.

They were waiting excitedly.

There was a little gap between the views of the top two. Yasmin took a photo at once.

However, her expression changed when the photo came out.

The search for Isobel was still in second place.

The first was “20% discount of Kayden Jewelry”

Luke rolled his eyes and said, “What is Kayden doing?”

Why did Kayden buy the top search at this time?

Isobel twitched her mouth and called the public relations firm, "Give the search about me more hits. I want it to be the top one."

The person on the phone was a little embarrassed, "Ms. Mitchell, Kayden spent eight hundred thousand to top the search about Kayden Jewelry. If you want your search to surpass it..."

"At least, you should give me another five hundred thousand."

Isobel was stunned.

She didn't expect that Kayden would spend so much money on advertising.

However, a small figure like her was unnoticed usually.

If it were not for this attractive topic, her name would not appear on the hot search. She would not have the opportunity to top the search.

If she gave it up now, she couldn't accept it.

However, she had already spent all her savings.

She took a deep breath and turned her gaze at Luke, "Luke..."

Luke was silent for a while and breathed a sigh of relief, "Just five hundred thousand. I can afford it."

"Ralph, the search about Isobel starts to get more hits."

In the office on the top floor of Chapman Group, Kayden frowned and looked at his phone. "Why don't we buy much more views on the top search and make it difficult for her to continue her plan?"

She will give up if she knows she can't make it."

“It’s too troublesome to fight against her bit by bit.”

Ralph sat in the chair, elegantly took his coffee cup, and took a sip. “We should give her some hope.” “Otherwise, your cousins will make less money.”

Kayden was lost for words.

“What’s the next top search?”

Ralph glanced at Kayden, “Kayden Is a Gay. What do you think?”

“You’re kidding!”

Kayden jumped up, “I like women!”

“If so, think about the next top search within ten minutes. Otherwise, that will be the next top search.”

Kayden was speechless.

Twenty minutes later, when Isobel and Luke prepared to witness the search in the second place became the top one, there was another hot search, “Two Famous Stars Announce Their Romance.”

The couple who announced their relationship was very popular. That search became the top in less than ten minutes.

Isobel clenched her teeth and found it hard to breathe, “Did they collude in making a fool of me?”

She almost made it but still failed. She couldn’t accept it.

She could make it with a little bit of luck.

She would be very famous if she did it.

She called the public relations firm again.

However, the staff asked for one million this time.

Isobel even couldn't speak calmly, "Greedy guys!"

The staff laughed, "Ms. Mitchell, those two stars are much more popular than you. They have a lot of fans." Isobel was trembling with anger.

She had two options. She could spend another one million to try to top her search.

Or, she could give up. If so, she would not gain popularity and the eight hundred thousand was also in vain.

But...

Isobel gritted her teeth. "Can you give me a discount?"

"No."

She didn't have so much money.

After a while, she raised her head and looked at Luke with pitiful eyes. "Luke..."

Luke couldn't bear to see her cry.

Luke hesitated for a long time and took a deep breath. "I have a million."

Then another million came into Fabian's account.

"He has hesitated for so long, so it should be all his savings."

Elijah yawned and used the account named "Stars Surrounding the Moon" to post the last blog at a set time.

Then he turned off his laptop and called Lottie, "Lottie, have you bought the star fruit that I want?"

Lottie was wandering in the market, "Not yet."

After Lottie went out of the hospital, she received a call from Elijah who wanted to eat star fruit.

She went to a market but was told that it had been sold out.

She went to another market and received the same reply.

She did not believe that she was so unlucky today, so she went to several markets...

Now she was in the sixth market.

"Forget it!"

Elijah said with a smile, "Just buy me two oranges."

Lottie paused. "Only two oranges?"

"Yes, I don't want to eat star fruit now."

Lottie hung up the phone in distress. She bought two oranges and felt somewhat sorry for Elijah.

Therefore, she went to another market.

Lottie was busy buying fruit for her son, so she even did not know the top search had changed several times.

"Isobel Criticizes the Other Woman" remained in the second row.

But her name was still the keyword of the top search.

The top search was "Isobel's Call Recording."

Hits on it were seven times more than those on the second. The record was about the dialogue between Isobel and Lottie.

Lottie's voice was processed, while Isobel's voice was not.

"At that time, you considered yourself right, so you cursed and drove away the boss who wanted to support me. You gave me five hundred and asked me to love myself and live a good life."

"You were trapped in the lounge last night. It was my plan."

"I just want to bully you, can't I?"

Hearing the record, people who had supported Isobel regretted it.

Isobel was not a great woman that fought against the other woman.

She was a crafty and tricky woman.

Netizens abused Isobel.

It was very silent in Luke's studio.

Yasmin crossed her legs and sneered, "You spent 1.3 million to get such a result?"

"The news that Isobel set up her stunt double will be pushed to all netizens. Now you become famous." Isobel sat there with a pale face and buried her head, "Yasmin, what should we do?"

"What should we do?"

Yasmin's face was gloomy, "You've got a bad reputation now, but you can't bring trouble to Luke."

"You'd better break up with him right away!"
