

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 100

The next day, Elena got on the plane and Ryan sent someone to follow her.

Before leaving for the airport, Elena reminded Ryan again and again to take care of himself and do not work overtime when she was not around. She even instructed Mrs. Baker and Xavier to take care of Ryan.

After getting off the plane in Europe, Elena and Jasper took a taxi to the designated hotel.

“Why are the people here in such a hurry? It seems like something urgent has happened.” Elena looked at the people, who were rushing here and there and asked doubtfully.

Jasper was calm as usual. “It’s not that they are in a hurry, but that they have a fast pace of life. This hotel belongs to Leonardo Reynolds, and most of the people here are his employees.”

Elena was speechless.

“Let’s rest for a day first. We will go and see the famous Leonardo Reynolds tomorrow.”

After entering the room, Elena first called Ryan to report the situation here. Then she took out the negotiation plan and carefully studied it. She wanted to know what interests or habits the opponent had.

She looked at it from head to toe. Elena understood what Ryan said before more. Elena understood what Ryan said before more. This Leonardo Reynolds seemed to be covered with a mysterious veil, making it impossible to find any clues.

The next day, Elena and Jasper left the hotel early in the morning, fearing that they would miss the chance to meet.

The doors of this company were all inlaid with gold. The two stone lions looked imposing and majestic. Elena had seen what was called powerful sect.

When the security guard saw the two people were coming into the company, he went forward to stop them. "What are you doing here?"

"Hello, we are the negotiators of Monor's. We are here to discuss corporation." Elena answered honestly. She did not want to miss this once in a lifetime opportunity.

The security guard looked at the time and said, "Sorry, I didn't receive any notice. You can't go in without an appointment. Please go back."

Even a security guard had such authority?

Elena took out the document in her hands and handed them over.

"We have already called your CEO before we came. This is the meeting information for the negotiation with your company. Can we go in now?"

The security guard was still hesitating when a man in a suit suddenly ran over from behind and grabbed the guard over. He then whispered a few words into the guard's ears.

Elena did not know what the man in the suit said to the security guard but the guard suddenly trembled and his eyes widened. He then looked at Elena and bowed. "Sorry, it's my mistake. I didn't receive any notice so I stopped you."

After saying that, he wiped his sweat and moved aside.

Elena was confused. What the man said to the guard that the attitude of the later changed 180 degrees?

Then, the man came in front of Elena and Jasper. "Sorry. It was our negligence. Miss Elena, our CEO invites you in."
