

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 109

“Sister-in-law, I don’t know where my cousin went. I haven’t seen him come to the company recently, but don’t misunderstand. My cousin is definitely not that kind of person.”

Tina explained somewhat hurried as if she was afraid that Elena would misunderstand something. After she finished speaking, Elsa and Nova who were at the side raised their heads.

Elsa was somewhat speechless. “Did you realize that Tina did it on purpose? If she said that, even if there was nothing wrong, there would be a misunderstanding.”

“This woman is too sophisticated. She has thoughts about Ryan, but she doesn’t dare to show it. She has been hiding it all this time, but she also deliberately pretended to be weak to gain sympathy. She wants to be a cousin and build a memorial arch.” Nova hated people like this the most.

“Mrs. Monor, Director Monor has not come to work these few days. He should be at home now.” Elsa could not bear Tina’s shamelessness anymore and stepped forward to explain Elena.

Elena looked at Tina and turned to thank Elsa. “Thank you, Elsa.”

She then turned around and said to Tina. “For a woman like you who sowing discord, it is better to speak less.”

Elena was about to leave with the things in her hands but she was about to walk to the door, she turned around and looked at Tina.

“There is a saying that I have to remind you. Do you delude yourself to obtain things that do not belong to you!”

Elena did not forget what this woman wanted to do in the video last time. She was so naked and was so close to Ryan. She wanted to seduce her when she was not around.

Unfortunately, Ryan did not like her at all.

Tina clenched her fists and sat in her seat. When she heard her colleagues talking about her, she instantly exploded.

“What are you guys muttering about? Can’t you say openly? Let me tell you, she is only an outsider. Ryan is my cousin. He will definitely not side with an outsider.”

Elsa immediately stood up and looked at the woman in front of her with a mocking smile. “I thought you would continue to pretend. To be honest, we do not like your fake feminine appearance. You are actually so bold as to seduce Ryan. You are still his cousin. Those who don’t know will think that the two of you are lover.”

“Let me tell you, if you continue to talk nonsense, I will make my cousin fire all of you. Don’t forget that Roman is also my cousin.”

“Hehe, is that so? Go and tell! If it wasn’t for Ryan and Roman, do you think you could still step on the door of a company like Monors?”

“Don’t overestimate yourself! You are nothing than a so-called cousin of Ryan Monor.” Nova laughed like she was watching a good show and her colleagues also echoed her.

“You... You...” Tina was so angry that she could not say anything.

All of this was Elena’s fault. How could she embarrass her in front of so many people? It was obvious that she deliberately wanted to make her the target of the company.

Elena quickly came out of the company and entered in the taxi in which Jasper had been waiting for her.

“Quickly, go to the villa.” She could not wait to see Ryan.

They quickly reached at the villa. Elena had just reached the intersection when she coincidentally saw Ryan was walking in home in a wheelchair.

“Ryan...” Elena shouted at the top of her lungs and quickly ran over. She directly threw herself in Ryan’s arms.

“Ryan, I signed this contract!”

Ryan pulled Elena and let her sit in his lap and held the woman in his arms tightly.

“It has only been a month and you have already completed the mission. I told you that you are very capable.” Ryan kissed her forehead and comforted her.

Elena smiled and looked up. As she looked Ryan’s face, she found there was a red mark in his handsome face. It looked very scary.

Elena frowned and gently caressed the wound. She asked somewhat anxiously. “What happen to your face?”

“I heard from Jasper that you are coming back. I was a little anxious when I came over. I accidentally knocked on it when I got off the car. I will just go back and apply some medicine on the wound...”

Before Ryan finished speaking Elena had already carried the man into her arms.

“You have to be careful in the future. Otherwise, my heart will ache if something happens to you.”
