

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 111

“This necklace is important, so you can’t touch it. As for what exactly happened, I can only explain it to you in the future.”

After Ryan finished speaking, he planned to put the necklace away, but it was snatched by Elena again.

Ryan frowned. This woman must be angry. He was afraid that Elena would misunderstand something, so he tried to explain, “Elena, it’s...”

“I want to ask why this necklace is with you?” Before Ryan could say anything, Elena looked at him in confusion and asked.

Ryan was also surprised by this question. “What did you say?”

From Elena’s tone, it seemed that this necklace belonged to her.

“I was wondering why this necklace is with you. I lost it before. When did you pick it up?”

Elena was overjoyed and asked Ryan with excitement.

Seeing this woman’s expression, no matter how stupid Ryan was, he knew that this necklace belonged to Elena. He remembered that he picked up this necklace on that street.

Could it be that this woman was the Ella who saved him back then?

“When I went out to work earlier, I picked up this necklace. When I saw that it was expensive, I put it away. I have been searching for the lost owner. Do you remember where it was lost?”

Ryan did not confess his identity to Elena. He could not tell Elena just like that, because doing so might put Elena in danger.

“I lived in the old city. I wanted to go back to Lewis family that day, but I didn’t expect an accident to happen in a small alley. A man was injured and I helped him. That necklace should have disappeared there. I went back and looked for it for a long time, but I didn’t find it. I didn’t expect that you would find it. It seems like our fate is quite good.”

Elena deliberately hid the fact that the man had kissed her that night. No matter what Ryan was her husband and she didn’t want to create any problems in her relationship.

But one thing that could not be changed was that her first kiss was taken away by that man!

Elena took a deep breath and decided to not think about this matter now. The most important thing was that her necklace was found.

Elena really could not believe that this necklace actually was with Ryan.

Seeing that Elena tell him the exact time and place, Ryan suppressed that excitement in his heart and returned to the necklace to the woman in front of him. “Since it’s yours, return it to its owner.”

“Thank you. This necklace is a birthday gift from my father. It is very precious to me.” After Elena finished speaking, Elena put the necklace around her neck.

Ryan took a deep breath. He really did not think that Ella, whom he had been searching for a long time, would be the one he had not found.

It turned out to be the one in front of him, Elena!

Thinking about it, Elena probably felt that under that kind of situation, she did not want to work with that kind of people, so she randomly gave him a name.

“Since I have already given you the things, go back and prepare to sleep first. After sitting on the plane for such a long time, you must be very tired.” Ryan’s tone was very gentle. He looked at Elena with eyes that were about to squeeze water out.

When Elena walked out, Ryan immediately dialed Xavier’s number. “There is no need to search for that woman anymore, because I have already found her.”

“Have you found her? Where is that person? Do you need me to thank her in person?”

Xavier said in surprise. Since they had already found him, they had to pay a huge sum of money to thank her. If it wasn’t for the help of this woman, Second Master would have been long gone.

When Ryan shouted these two words, the man on the other side had been so shocked that he couldn’t speak. He didn’t expect that the person who helped their Second Master was actually their Madam. This was too much of a coincidence.

Ryan recalled the letter E carved on the back of the necklace. It turned out to be Elena’s E.

“Second Master, I didn’t expect the fate between you and Madam to be so deep. It turns out that the two of you were already destined to be together.”

Xavier was also overjoyed. He had never thought that this person would be their family’s young mistress. If he knew that Elena was Ella, he would not have spent so much effort.

“I also did not think that this matter would be so coincidental.”

Elena might be the guardian sent by the heavens to protect him. Not only did she save his life, but she also helped him escape danger several times.

Ryan must have saved the Milky Way in his previous life to have such a wife.

When Ryan returned to his room, he found that Elena had already washed up and sitting on the bed.

“Are you tired?” Ryan’s tone was very gentle, as if he was coaxing a child.

“Of course, I have been very tired for the past month. I have been on a plane for so long today. I need to have a good rest. You should also take a shower and have a good rest.”

Luckily, Ryan worked in his own company. Even if he was not favored, he would not be fired. No matter how much he worked himself or gave works to others, no one would complain. Otherwise, with the amount of work he gave others, this man would have been fired many times.

Ryan smiled. “Alright.”

About 20 minutes later, Ryan came out of the bathroom with his pajamas on. He glanced at the woman on the bed. She was staring the ceiling blankly.

Ryan frowned and came forward to Elena’s side. “What’s wrong?”

Elena looked at Ryan and sat up. “I can’t sleep. I think its jetlag.”

Then she again turned to look at Ryan. "Why don't you sleep with me? I think I can sleep earlier with you around." As Elena spoke, she patted the place beside her.

Ryan smiled, went to the other side of the bed with his wheelchair, then propped himself to the bed and laid beside Elena.

Elena had just taken shower and there was a faint smell of shower gel coming from her body.

Ryan took a deep breath then suddenly turned around and pulled Elena into his embrace. He buried his head into Elena's neck. "I missed you."

Elena smiled as she listened to his words. She looked at the man beside her. "I missed you too."

Ever since, Ryan knew the fact that Elena was that woman who saved him at that night, his love for her increased a several hundreds time. He swore in his heart that no matter what happened, he would love and cherish the woman in his arms for the rest of his life.

She had been not by his side for more than a month. Now that she was finally lying beside him, the smell of her body made Ryan lustful.

His hands that were holding Elena started to move around her body. He also started to kiss her neck.

After sometime Ryan finally lost control. He started to breathing heavily and his eyes also darkened.

He wanted to do that immediately but he was also afraid that she would not able to take it as she was already very tired.

"I will go take a cold shower..." Ryan took a deep breath trying to calm himself and let go of Elena.

Elena was watching this from the side. She had already been intimate with him many times and knew very well that Ryan was on verge of losing his control. But he still compromised because he was afraid that she would not be able to take it.

This made Elena very touched. Her husband cared about her so much.

Thinking of this, Elena suddenly sat up from the bed and grabbed Ryan, who was about to sit on his wheelchair.

Ryan caught off guard by her sudden action and looked Elena in confusion. "What are you..."

The last words of his sentence were blocked by Elena's sudden kiss.

Elena wrapped her hands around Ryan's neck and kissed him passionately.

Ryan was already in a difficult position before. And now the woman he loved threw herself into his arms on her own initiative. Even the toughest man of the world couldn't resist this temptation, let alone him, who was already in the verge of collapsing.

Ryan didn't hesitate anymore. He wrapped his hands around her waist and pressed her on the bed. He impatiently stripped off his and her clothes.

Elena closed her eyes and wrapped her arms and legs around Ryan's body. She contentedly accepted everything that Ryan was doing to her.

This night was destined to be a happy and blissful night.
