

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 123

Mason's face was filled with guilt. He didn't dare to raise his head to look at Elena.

Only recently did he realize that this child was much stronger than he had imagined. In comparison, Amara was really spoiled.

Amara had been pampered all these years and did not listen to what was happening outside the wall. If it was not for the protection of her family, she would not have been able to do anything.

The corner of Elena's mouth curled into a cold smile. That emotional feeling just now had completely disappeared.

She leaned on the chair and looked coldly at Mason. "So Grandfather called me out today because he wanted to say these words. If that was the case, Grandfather and I have nothing more to say. I must investigate this matter thoroughly. I will make those who hurt my parents pay the price they deserve."

"Child, isn't this forcing Grandpa into a dead end?" Mason also did not expect Elena to be so persistent about this matter.

It had been so many years. He originally thought that this child had already let go of her obsession, but who would have thought that she would not let go at all.

"Grandfather did not allow me to investigate this matter, so he forced me into a dead end!"

"Elena..."

"Grandfather doesn't need to say anymore. I know what you are thinking in your heart. You are doing this for Lewis family, but what does the Lewis family have to do with me now? I just want to return the truth to my father and mother."

Mason could clearly feel that Elena, who had been through the rain and wind for a few years, was no longer as pure as before. He was getting more and more out of control of her now.

“You need to know what the consequences of the investigation are.” Mason reminded her with a stern expression.

“I will bear the consequences myself. Grandfather, you don’t have to worry about it.”

After saying that, Elena took her things and left without looking back.

Mason shook his head helplessly. He had suppressed all those things that happened in the past. If Elena revealed the truth, then Lewis family would be destroyed.

After Elena ran out from the inside, she found that Ryan was actually waiting for her outside.

When Elena saw him, her nose felt sore and her eyes instantly turned red.

Ryan raised his hand and gently caressed her face. “Don’t say anything. I understand. Get in the car.”

Elena got in the car, leaned against Ryan and thought back to what happened at the coffee shop. It was really funny.

There were some things that no matter how hard she tried to make up for it, it was useless. People who went would never come back.

Ryan silently held her in his arms but he did not ask anything. Something did not need to be asked to know what happened.

After going back, the two of them tacitly did not mention about Elena and Mason's meeting.

Two days later, Ryan and Elena arrived at the company.

Just as they were about to reach Ryan's office, they saw Tina, who seemed to have been waiting for them for a long time.

When Tina saw Ryan her eyes lit up immediately. She went forward and handed over the documents in her hands to Ryan.

"Director Monor, this document was sent over early this morning. Director Stone had a deal with you to discuss the contract."

"Which Director Stone?" Ryan asked.

"He's the real estate agent, Erik Stone. He said he was working with our company, but was delayed because of something. He's waiting in the meeting room now."

"Got it."

"By the way, the President asked you to look for him in his office when you get to the company." Tina politely said.

Ryan narrowed his eyes and looked at her, then put the document on the table. "Got it."

“What’s wrong?”

Ryan handed the document to her. “We have signed this contract with Director Stone’s father. This document is scrapped.”

“Since we have already signed the contract, why did Director Stone come to you with this scrapped document?”

Ryan leaned on the wheelchair and sneered. “Mr. Stone is famous for being cunning and scheming, and his reputation in the industry has always been bad. He came here with this scrapped document. It seems that he is deliberately looked for trouble.”

“Then what do you plan to do?”

Elena was a little worried. After all, there were already so many problems waiting for them to solve and she didn’t wish to add another one on Ryan’s shoulder.

“Humph, let him wait for me in the meeting room. Roman has something to talk to me about. We’ll talk about this contract when I get back.”
