

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 125

“You are really shameless.” Ryan cursed.

Director Stone looked at Ryan in disbelief. He did not expect that later would curse him in a place like this.

“Ryan, I advise you to talk nicely. I brought a contract worth tens of millions. Aren’t you afraid that you will mess it up?” Director Stone threatened.

However, Ryan did not care at all. “Your company has already signed all the contracts with our company. Where did you get this contract from? There are many loopholes in this contract. Can’t you see it?”

“The second son of the Stone family is so stupid. Looks like I really need to give Old Master Stone a call and have him teach you properly.”

“You... Ryan, don’t go too far. What’s the difference between you and me now? You are just working for Roman.”

The next second, Ryan punched the man in the chest.

The sound of bones breaking made Elena suck in a deep breath. She had never seen Ryan so angry before.

“Ryan... You... You are just a cripple...” Director Stone covered his chest and spat a mouthful of blood. He cursed angrily because of the pain.

“Why aren’t you getting lost?” Ryan’s tone was extremely cold.

“You... Just you wait.” Director Stone held his chest and left. He swore that he would never let this matter rest.

Ryan turned around and looked at Elena. He instantly went up and grabbed her hand. “Did that man bully you?”

“No.” Elena shook her head.

However, her hand betrayed her. There was a faint mark of fingers on her fair forearm. From the mark, it could be seen how much strength that man had put.

“Did he do it?”

“No, I am fine.” Elena tried to break free from Ryan’s hand. She did not want him to be so angry because of this manager.

She knew Ryan was really angry. Otherwise, he would not have made a move in the company.

“Sorry, I should have come back earlier.” Ryan said with concern. His eyes were already bloodshot.

Elena saw that Ryan was worried about her and felt warm in her heart.

“It is not enough to hit him.” Ryan still had an angry expression his face.

Someone dared to touch his wife in his own office? He did not want to live anymore, right?

Ryan just couldn't swallow this anger. He wanted to find that Director Stone and settle score with him. Just as he was about to turn around and went outside, Elena grabbed his wheelchair.

"Ryan, calm down! I am really fine." Roman was keeping his eyes on them. If Ryan made any move right now, then it would give Roman a chance to find trouble for the former.

"No! I want to find him and teach him a lesson! How dare he touch you?" Ryan was furious.

Elena was shocked to see Ryan like this. From the day they got married, although Ryan was temperamental sometimes, she had never seen him so furious before.

But no matter what, she had to stop him. So Elena grabbed his wheelchair, leaned over and kissed him.

Ryan was stunned for a moment before quickly reacting. He pulled her and let her sit his lap. He held her so tightly as if he was going to break her bones

Both of them started to compete with each other and refused to give in.

Elena knew under such circumstances, she first needed to calm him down, and then think of way to deal with the problem. But she couldn't find any other thing which could calm him other than this.

After feeling satisfied, Ryan left Elena's lips. He looked down at the woman in his arms. Her lips were red and swollen and her eyes were misty. She looked enchanting.

He suddenly felt a little regretful. If they were at home at this time, he would have already eaten her.

Elena felt dizzy after such a forceful kiss. She took a deep breath to calm herself down. Then she looked at the man who was furious just a moment ago.

“Hubby, don’t be angry. I’m not hurt. Besides you have already settled the score with him. I don’t want you to be angry because of this.” Elena said flirtatiously while playing with Ryan’s Adam’s apple.

Seeing her like this, even though he wanted to be angry, he couldn’t. Ryan sighed and caressed her hair. This little girl had become so smart.

Outside the office, Tina had been waiting anxiously. When she saw Director Stone running out in a panic, she knew that the matter was not done.

Tina clenched her fists tightly. She did not expect Elena’s luck to be so good. The chess game calculated was considered useless.

Tina tidied up her emotions and walked into the office. “Sister-in-law, are you alright...?”

Half of way through her words, Tina froze due to the scene in front of her.

Elena was sitting on Ryan’s laps and playing with his cloths. Ryan was looking at her lovingly while holding her in his arms. They looked so sweet.

Elena did not expect someone to barge into the office at this moment. She wanted to stand up but Ryan held her more tightly.

“Don’t you know to knock the door before coming someone’s office?” Ryan’s eyes were cold when he looked at Tina.

“Cousin, I... I am sorry.” Tina was hurt by the scene just now. She just wanted to turn around and ran out. She couldn’t see them be so intimate with each other.

“Wait!” Elena listened to Tina’s words when she just came in. She then felt that something was not right and her sharp gaze pierced towards her.

“How did you know that something would happen to me?”

Tina panicked in her heart and hurriedly explained. “I saw Director Stone rushing out just now and thought that something had happened.”

“What could have happened?” Elena sneered. Did this woman think everyone was a fool?

Tina shook her head. “Of course I don’t want anything to happen to you, Sister-in-law. Director Stone is insidious and cunning, and he is also a lecherous person. Sister-in-law, you must hide from him when you see him in the future.”

“Since you know who Director Stone is, why didn’t you go in when you heard the voice just now? Or was this arranged by you?” Ryan’s tone was fierce. His eyes were so cold that it could give people goosebumps.

Tina’s eyes were wide open and she waved her hands repeatedly. “I was wronged. After Director Stone came, I went to washroom. When I came back, you were there too. I didn’t know what happened inside.”

“You better be honest with me. If I find out that you dare to harm Elena, don’t blame me for throwing you into yellow river.” Ryan was extremely cold.

“Cousin...”

“Call me Director Monor!” Ryan didn’t appreciate it. Cousin? He didn’t have any.

“Director Monor, this matter has nothing to do with me.” Tina tried her best to defend herself.

“Watch your mouth. If you let me know that there are rumors outside, I will not let you off.” Ryan threatened.

Tina lowered her head and tried her best to suppress her emotions. “Alright.”

After she finished speaking, she turned around and ran out.
