

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 127

Amber heard Elena's voice and came back to her senses. She put on a proper smile and said. "It's nothing."

Amber used a tissue to wipe the water that splashed on her cloths and avoided Elena's gaze.

For some reason, Elena felt that she actually had a trace of inferiority.

But Elena did not continue to ask. After all, this was her private matter.

After returning to the dining table, Elena was somewhat unable to eat. Elena did not know what happened between the two of them when they were young, but that was a memory that belonged to the two of them. Elena was simply unable to interfere.

After the meal, Amber took the initiative to leave and did not intend to disturb the two of them.

After that, Ryan also brought Elena and left the restaurant.

After returning to the company, Elena could not help but ask. "Are you and Amber on good terms?"

"Jealous?" Ryan had a smile on his face and teased.

"Go to hell."

Elena was furious and did not want to pursue this man's past. After all, during that period of time, Ryan did not belong to her.

“Amber’s fate is a little rough. The two of us have indeed known each other since childhood. She is born in a military family. As a woman, naturally she was not as popular as a man. So she was sent out by her grandmother, who in a beautiful way, said that she was taking care of her illness. Actually it was to take care of her in someone else’s home.”

“But she did not expect Amber’s brother to die in battle. Only then she brought Amber back. After she returned to the capital, she kept in touch with me. But I didn’t expect that something would happen later on.”

The Thomas family was one of the top super wealthy families in the capital. Not many people could offend them.

The people of the capital and the Hai City were not on the same level, so naturally, they could not let such a prestigious family contact a person from the Hai City. Since then, their relationship with Ryan had been cut off.

“Something happened? Could it be that something happened to Amber as well?”

Elena asked curiously. Ryan seemed to know everything about their family like the back of his hand.

“The weather is unpredictable. One time when Amber was carrying out a mission, she was accidentally caught by bad people. Those people had done something bad to her. Later on, her father thought that she had tarnished the reputation of Thomas family.”

“What? How can this be blamed on Amber?” Elena frowned and asked. This woman had actually experienced so many things.

“This is not the most important thing. Later on, Amber was discovered to be pregnant. At that time, she was only seventeen years old.”

“What about the child?” Elena felt like she heard a very sad story. After all, even in television dramas, such a thing would not be filmed like this.

“That child is indeed still there, but he has been training like a ghost ever since he was born...”

After hearing this, Elena instantly fell into deep thought.

Amber had sacrificed so much for the Thomas family, but in the end, she was abandoned. This kind of experience made her think of herself and feel pity for her.

Amber originally thought that behind this bright and beautiful background, there would always be the support of her family. Who would have thought that it would be the complete opposite.

No wonder when Amber was in the bathroom earlier, she told her that she would definitely not be together with Ryan.

Elena originally thought that it was because of the family problem, but after thinking about it, her inferiority originated from this matter.
