

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 130

When Amara saw Elena, the expression on her face changed unpredictably. She went forward and grabbed Elena's cloths.

"You slut! Did you deliberately come out to see me make a fool of myself?"

Seeing the creases on her cloths, Elena immediately felt a trace of displeasure. "That's right. I am here to see you make a fool of yourself. I want to see how the dignified Miss Lewis deals with her own emotional problems."

"You... How dare you... I think you really don't want to live anymore. Don't forget you grew up eating someone's food!"

Amara had been at odds with Elena since she was young. Naturally, she would not suffer such a loss. If possible, Amara hoped Elena could die.

"Thank you for that bowl of rice from your family allowing me to live. There are still people waiting for you in the room, Director Monor. Ryan told you to go in as soon as possible." Elena said and shook off Amara's said. Then she left.

Roman helplessly sighed. "Forget it. I will go in and take care of business first. Go to the office and wait for me. I'll go and find you after I finish my work."

After finished speaking, Roman ignored Amara, whose face was completely dark and went into the meeting room.

Amara did not know what to do when she saw Roman's attitude towards her becoming worse day by day.

Amara did not go back to Lewis family, instead she come to Roman's personal office.

She pulled every single drawer and checked carefully. But she did not find anything unusual. It seemed that he was really busy in the company during this period of time.

Unexpectedly, at this moment Tina pushed open the door and walked in. When she saw Amara, she was somewhat shocked. "Hello, I am here to look for Director Monor."

Amara sized her up. This woman was petite and cute. She did not know what kind of relationship she had with Roman.

She looked at her coldly. "If you are here to deliver documents, just put the things down. Roman went to a meeting."

"Miss, I am here to deliver the document to Director Monor. Since Director Monor is not here, I will wait for him to come back before giving it to them." Tina tightly held the document in her hand, afraid that Amara would snatch it away.

Amara looked up and said impatiently. "Roman is my man."

"Even if Roman is your husband, I can only hand this document to him." Tina still held the document tightly and did not intend to give it to Amara.

Who knew Amara would go crazy and directly slap Tina.

At this moment, Elena happened to come into the office. When she saw this scene, she was immediately frightened to the spot. "What are you guys doing?"

"Sister-in-law..." Tina immediately looked at Elena, feeling wronged.

Amara saw Elena walk down and immediately put away her hand. There was a look of disdain in her eyes.

“I don’t know when my younger sister had someone called sister-in-law.” With her understanding of Monor family, Ryan and Roman did not have a younger sister. So naturally, no one would call Elena sister-in-law.

“This woman is Ryan’s cousin. So logically speaking, she should call Roman cousin.”

Amara was slightly stunned. She had never come into contact with too many relatives of Monor family. So naturally, she would not know if Ryan had such a cousin.

If that was the case and she beat someone up like that, she was afraid that the people of Monor family would never let her go/

Tina stood at the side with a wronged expression. Her face was filled with displeasure. Since she was young, she hadn’t even hit by her father and mother. Why should she be beaten by this woman?

Amara also knew that this matter could not be spread out she could only come in front of Tina.

“Apologies. I have never seen you before and did not know that you are from Monor family. I hope you can forgive me for offending you.”
