

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 132

"You..." Elena guessed Amara's thoughts and she felt a little guilty. But she naturally would not admit it.

Amara sat on the chair and raised her chin. "This is my matter and has nothing to do with you. You take care of your own matters and take care of your Ryan. That would be the best reward for the Lewis family."

"If it wasn't for Ryan... I'm afraid that you can't even afford to pay for your mother's medical expenses."

"Amara, other than using my mother as a threat, you have no other way? My mother no longer needs the help of the Lewis family, so you don't need to continue using her as an excuse. Since you want to wait, then you have to wait!"

Elena did not afraid the Lewis family anymore. Amara also did not have anything that she could use to threaten her anymore. With Ryan around, Elena was not afraid of anything.

After Elena finished speaking, she glanced at Tina who was beside her.

Elena frowned when she looked at that woman. She originally thought that when that woman saw the two of them quarrelling, she would leave. But she did not expect that the later would stand here and watch. She really did not know what to do.

Elena lightly sighed and walked towards the meeting room.

After returning to the meeting room, Ryan frowned and grabbed her hand. "Why did you go for so long? What happened?"

Elena was speechless. Did this man have superpowers? His guess was accurate!

Elena did not answer Ryan's question. Instead, she looked at Roman.

"Director Monor, your girlfriend is waiting for you downstairs. There is no conclusion to the discussion now. You should go down and see her. The meeting will be delayed for a while. I think everyone will not have any objections."

Roman frowned when he heard this. He had clearly told Amara not to disturb him when he was working. Why did she have to make trouble for him?

Although he was angry, he could not bear for her to wait for him downstairs, so he stopped the meeting and went downstairs.

After he left, the board of directors discussed animatedly. "Recently, the relationship between Monor family and Lewis family seems to be somewhat inharmonious."

"That Jonathan is addicted to gambling, and now he owes a huge debt of gambling. How can the Lewis family fill it up? If he wants to borrow money, he will definitely look for Roman!"

"Oh, but this Director Monor and Amara Lewis are in a relationship. He can't hide from Jonathan, right?"

"When something happens, who doesn't hide? That gambling debt must be huge debt. Roman has to pay from his own pocket to fill this bottomless hole. Tsk tsk..."

The content of the discussion became more and more unrestrained.

Roman had just arrived downstairs when he saw Tina coming out of the office. He had never been nice to her. "Why did you come to my office?"

“Cousin, I just came to deliver some information to you. I didn’t expect you to not be in the office. But when I came, Miss Lewis was sitting inside.”

Tina explained with a smile. Although Roman treated them well, this man was not as easy to talk to as Ryan. If she offended him, she might not have a few days left to live.

“I have already reminded you before. I don’t remember having any cousin or aunt. No matter who brought you in, you must call me Director Monor in the company. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being rude to you!”

Roman hated this woman who thought she was smart. She even wanted to use her past kindness to entangle him. If this warning did not work...

“I understand.” After saying that, Tina’s eyes were filled with tears as she prepared to leave. She did not expect to suffer such grievance.

She originally thought that after Elena brought her into the company, she would have more freedom. But she realized that it was not even as good as before.

The moment Tina turned around, she remembered all the resentment on Elena. If it was not for her, she would have already been engaged to Ryan!

Amara looked up and saw Roman coming. She quickly went forward and wrapped her arms around Roman’s neck.

“Why are you so busy? If I didn’t pass by the company and wanted to give you some snacks, I wouldn’t have been able to see you. Why didn’t you come and see me?”

“Why are you here? I seem to have reminded you not to disturb me while I’m working.”

When Ryan was still in power, he had been threatened by that man a lot, so Roman would never tolerate anyone threatening him.

“Alright. I have already come to find you. Don’t be angry, alright? Can you have a meal with me?” Amara said and gently leaned on Roman.

Roman paused and then pushed her away. “I have a meeting upstairs that hasn’t been held. You can’t let these shareholders wait for me. After I finish my meeting, we will go out to eat.”
