

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 134

The two of them had just left the company when they were stopped by Tina.

Tina walked in front of Ryan and looked at Elena cautiously before saying, "Cousin, I have a very important matter to discuss with you. Can you come over for a while?"

Elena looked at the nervous look on this woman's face as if she was about to cry. Usually, she would not see this woman looking for Ryan alone.

Perhaps she really had something to ask Ryan for help.

Elena let go of Ryan's wheelchair and bent down a little. "I will wait for you in the car. Let your cousin send you over later."

After saying that, Elena glanced at Tina again then left in the direction of their car.

After Elena left, Tina immediately took out her phone. She looked at Ryan seriously.

"When I was in the big cousin's office today, I heard the conversation between Amara and Sister-in-law. After thinking for a long time, I decided to tell you. After all, you and sister-in-law are husband and wife. Sister-in-law should not hide this matter from you."

"What exactly do you want to say?" A trace of displeasure appeared on Ryan's face. Could it be that this woman wanted to cause trouble again?

Tina found the recording, she just recorded in the office and put it in front of Ryan.

"Don't forget that you were the one who took my place and married Ryan."

“Yes. If you hadn’t given Ryan to me, how could I have today’s wealth and glory?”

“...”

Ryan frowned when he heard the recording. Tina thought that he was angry and immediately went forward to comfort him.

“Cousin, I know sister-in-law really likes you, but I didn’t think that the two sisters would talk about this matter. I want to record it so that you can understand the truth. I don’t want you to be kept in the dark.”

“Although sister-in-law treats you very well, what she did was considered as cheating. She took someone’s place and married you. No matter how good she is, what she did was unforgivable.”

Tina thought that by this recording, she could easily create a hole in their relationship. If Ryan believed her words and in fit of anger divorced Elena, then the position of Second Young Madam of the Monor Family would be hers!

Unexpectedly, Ryan took the phone and threw it on the ground. The phone instantly broke into pieces.

Even though Tina felt sorry for her phone, seeing Ryan like this, she felt that it was worth it.

“Cousin... What’s wrong?” She had never seen Ryan so angry before. It seemed that it was not far from the day they broke up.

Ryan raised his head and looked at the man in front of him fiercely. “Who asked you to record what the two of them said?”

Tina almost did not react when she heard this. A puzzled look appeared on her face. "Cousin, what do you mean by this?"

"Didn't you understand? Why did you record their conversation? Don't you know what privacy is?"

"Elena is my wife. Of course, I know how she married me."

Ryan was very angry. He didn't expect that Elena would be eavesdropped when she took the information. Ryan hated people who listened to the side of the wall the most.

This woman knew that she was a criminal and even told him about this in front of him. Did she really think that he, Ryan Monor, was a fool?

"Cousin, I..." Tina did not know what to say for a moment.

She originally thought that this matter would cause the relationship between the husband and wife to not get along. Who knew that Ryan actually trusted Elena so much. Could Ryan really tolerate this kind of thing?

"Tina, let me tell you. If it was not for my grandfather's face, I would not acknowledge a cousin like you. That year, your mother saved my grandfather's life. However, my grandfather has already repaid all of your kindness all these years. Don't even dream of reaching the sky in a single bound!"

This woman's heart is not enough to swallow an elephant. Her mother is also not a good person.

Ryan was just too lazy to argue with them. Today, she actually played such tricks in front of him. This kind of person who stirred up trouble was not allowed to stay in the company.

"Cousin, don't say that. It's my fault. I shouldn't have said that to sister-in-law. I'm sorry..."

Tina actually cried. It just so happened that Roman and Amara walked out.

When Roman saw it, he frowned. "Ryan, I have already reminded you to take care of your relationship."

"She is just a person without blood relations. She is playing a clown here. I do not intend to keep her in the company."

When Tina heard this, she cried even more. "Director Monor, I'm sorry. Today's matter is my fault. Please don't be angry with me. As long as you don't chase me away, whatever happens."

Tina looked at Roman hoped that he would give her a chance. No matter what, she had to stay in Monor family.
