

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 16

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 16

Chapter 16 Charity Auction

Elena suddenly had the urge to cry. After so many years of suffering, there was suddenly someone who was good to her. This made her not how to face this kind of warmth.

Just like how she suddenly became a little princess, she was very nervous.

“Don’t cry, you need to remember your identity. In the future, no matter where you are, don’t let others bully you. With me here, you don’t have to be afraid of anything.”

Hearing Ryan say this, Elena suddenly laughed. She was in a much better mood.

“I am not as miserable as you say.” The Lewis family did not bully her every day. They would only be cruel to her when it came to benefits.

“You should eat quickly. The makeup artist is ready.”

“A makeup artist?” Elena was stunned. She needed makeup?

“Come with me to a charity auction later.” Ryan’s tone was calm, as if this kind of occasion was already common.

Elena knew about charity auction. She had attended it once when she was young. In her impression, other than the purpose of public welfare, people would also make friends with people in the circle. If people met their superiors, they would have to flatter them, although they appeared to be very harmonious on the surface.

She did not like this kind of scene. Everyone was very hypocritical.

Ryan saw that she was a little unhappy, so he asked, “You don’t like it?”

“No.” Elena shook her head. “It has been a long time since I have attended an official occasion. I am afraid I will embarrass you.”

Since the day she left the Lewis family, she was no longer a child of a wealthy family. Her life with the aristocrats had been completely out of touch. She had become an ordinary person.

Now, she no longer had the noble aura she had in the past. If she stood together with Ryan, she would appear shabby.

She was really afraid that when the time came, someone would laugh at her and she would lose face for Ryan.

Ryan was surprised. He originally thought that she would be very happy to be able to attend such an occasion. He didn't expect that the first thing she thought of was that she didn't want to lose face of him.

"Let's go together." He looked at her with a firm gaze, giving her a scene of encouragement.

He was not worried about this matter, so Elena had nothing to worry about. She met his gaze and nodded, "Okay, let's go together."

After the meal, Xavier brought the makeup artist in.

She looked at the luxurious jewelry in front of her and could not move her eyes away. These brand names that she used to be very familiar with were now unfamiliar to her. She did not think that she would have the chance to wear these accessories again.

Ryan did not need so many designs. He only needed to change into a new set of cloths. After all, Ryan was very handsome and the accessories were very unnecessary on his face.

When Elena came out from the inside, although the cloths on her body were beautiful, it was too exaggerated.

She always felt that it was a little awkward to wear these things on her body. She looked at Ryan.

"Ryan, can I dress a little more casually? After all, this is a charity auction. If I dress so grandly, it will cause a lot of discussion."

Ryan smiled with a profound meaning. "Alright." The next second, he looked at the makeup artist.

The makeup artist was shocked. She had a premonition that she was going to lose her job. "Second Young Master, I will immediately change the young madam's attire. The young madam has a good figure. She will be suitable for anything."

Half an hour later, Elena walked out again, as if she had changed into a different person.

She was wearing a pure white dress, like a celestial maiden who had fallen into the mortal world without a speck of dust. She did not have any decorations, only a pearl necklace around her neck. Her hair was also coiled into a bun.

She looked like a completely different person from before. She looked like a hibiscus.

“Not bad.”

Ryan nodded. Only then did the makeup artist heave a sigh of relief. “Second Young Master, I’ll be leaving first.”

Xavier sent the makeup artist away. He returned to the living room. There wasn’t much time left. The car was already waiting at the door. He said, “Young Master, let’s go.”

Elena lowered her head and her face was slightly red. She was little embarrassed. But she was very happy to receive Ryan’s praise.

At the banquet scene, Ryan pulled Elena’s hand and walked in. Elena was a little nervous and her palms were sweating.

“Don’t be afraid.” Ryan held her hand tightly.

Elena took a deep breath and relaxed. He was by her side. No matter how nervous she was, she could quickly calm down. His body seemed to carry some kind of magic.

Almost everyone in the hall had arrived, and they greeted each other in groups of three or five.

When Ryan and Elena walked into the hall, everyone looked over.

These two people had caused quite a commotion recently. This trash had married an unfavored daughter. They could be considered to be of equal social status and were very suitable for each other. Furthermore, they had gained some prestige at the entrance of the Lewis family.

No one came over to greet them, and Ryan did not care about these things. He pulled Elena and walked forward.

A few people who were sitting in the dark heard the hall quieted down. They looked over and felt different.

Jackson smiled and drank the red wine in his glass. “Look, they are here.”

"I know." Isaac picked up the glass and took a sip. He put it down. "Other than Ryan, who else can make you so excited?"

The rest of them laughed.

Jackson stood up and looked outside. "Ryan is here. Let's go out."

"Master Hall, I just arrived. You are leaving. Stay with me for a while together!" The woman next to him held Jackson's arm.

"That's right. That cripple from the Monor family is not worth looking at." Another woman spoke as well.

They were prostitutes. The best way out for them was to get close to a rich second generation. Today, they had the opportunity to serve a few rich young masters. How could they let go of such a good opportunity?

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 17

Bride of the Mysterious CEO
Chapter 17
Chapter 17 Talk

"Get lost!"

Jackson didn't waste any more words. He glared at her, scaring her so much that she quickly let go of his hand.

This kind of charity auction didn't mean much to them. He brought a woman with him, just to relieve his boredom. But now, he didn't want to bother with her anymore.

"I already told you not to bring any women here, they're all trouble, but you just won't listen to me." Marcel sneered, stood up and walked out.

Isaac laughed and gave Jackson a helpless look.

When they came to the hall, Ryan had already brought his wife into the hall. The surroundings were deserted, and no one stood with them.

"Why didn't I notice Ryan's wife was so beautiful? Today, I found out that she was like an otherworldly fairy!" Jackson stared at Elena. He had never seen such a pure and elegant woman like Elena.

Some of the purity was not because of the way a woman dressed, but because of their nature. This kind of pure temperament was never something that others could learn.

Isaac slapped the back of Jackson's head. "What are you looking at? She was Ryan's wife. You dare to covet her?"

"I don't dare!" Jackson retracted his gaze and muttered, "Ryan's taste is still so good!"

Roman came to the scene, surrounded by a large group of people flattering him. He glanced sideways at Ryan and withdrew his gaze. He didn't take him seriously at all.

Even if Ryan had some horrifying means in the past, now, he was undoubtedly just a piece of trash.

Those people who were flattering Roman also thought the same in their hearts. Roman was the future heir of Monor family, and it was worth befriending him.

Roman enjoyed these flatteries, and he responded politely. Although Ryan was not a threat to him, Roman would be very happy if these people could make Ryan embarrass himself.

Everything was different from five years ago. Ryan, no matter how capable you are, you will have to rely on my charity to live your life in the future. Isn't that right?

Mason Lewis, who had rushed to the scene after getting off the plane, also saw Elena standing beside Ryan.

Mason frowned. He had heard that Jonathan had married Elena to Ryan. He was overseas at that time. If he had known about this beforehand, he would definitely have opposed this marriage.

However, Mason had been in the business world for a long time and knew how to get along with others. He walked directly to the two of them. His face did not have the disdain and coldness of others, instead, it was calm as usual.

Elena looked at her grandfather and had an indescribable feeling in her heart. When she was young, her grandfather was very good to her. But after her father passed away, her mother was framed by her aunt. Because of this, her grandfather hated her and her mother.

However, on the surface, she needed to be polite. She gave Mason enough face. "Grandfather, when did you come back?"

"I just arrived."

"You must have been tired all the way, right?"

“I am fine!”

Mason did not have much of an expression on his face.

But in the end, he was still dissatisfied with his granddaughter’s marriage. His words were stiff, and it was clear that he was unhappy.

“Grandfather, aren’t you happy? Who did something that provoked your mood?” Elena asked even though she knew the answer.

Amara and Jonathan had already told Mason about the explosion at Lewis family’s door. He must have come to find Elena and Ryan to blame them.

Mason showed a trace of impatience, “In the entire Lewis family, no one can anger me. Elena, I will remember what happened today. I have something to talk about to Ryan right now.”

Elena nodded, then squatted down and looked at Ryan. She said, “The auction will start in a while. I want to go over there and eat something. You and my grandfather can have a good talk.”

There were some things that Mason did not want Elena to hear. Elena was very tactful and took the initiative to leave room for the two of them to talk.

She did not know what kind of contact Ryan and Mason had. But Mason would definitely be like the others, not giving face to Ryan. She was somewhat worried that Ryan would not hold back and fight back for her sake. In the end, he would suffer.

Jackson walked to Mason and said in a harsh tone, “You are President Lewis, right? Long time no see. I heard that Lewis family has been very powerful recently.”

“Master Hall, you flatter me.” Mason wasn’t angry. He just pretended that he did not hear the hint in Jackson’s words. His direct response made Jackson not know what to say next.

“Jackson.” Ryan opened his mouth. He looked in the direction Elena had left.

“Follow her. Don’t let anyone bully her. Otherwise, I will punish you.”

Jackson was speechless. Ryan did not give him face. He was not his personal bodyguard!

He thought in his heart, but he caught up to Elena. “Sister-in –law, you are not familiar with this place, right? I will take you around.”

Ryan saw that they had gone far away, so he and Mason went to a deserted place in the corner.

“Mr. Lewis, if you have anything to say, just say it.” Ryan didn’t seem to regard Mason as an elder. Instead, he seemed to be talking to his peers.

“Why is Elena the one who married you and not Amara?” Mason went straight to the point. He was the one who arranged the marriage, and it should be Ryan and Amara who got married.

Furthermore, this wedding should only be held next year. Why did he only go out for a month and the wedding was finished in a hurry?

Ryan sneered and raised his head to ask Mason, “You should go and ask your son. He was the one who played tricks.”

“That’s impossible!” Mason voice was cold and stern. “Before I left, I told them that Amara was the one who should marry you. How could they dare not to listen me?”

Mason did not believe Ryan. Jonathan and Amara had clearly agreed to him. Why did they immediately break the engagement and let Elena marry to Ryan after Mason left?

They had lied to him!

“Nothing is impossible. Mr. Lewis, you have overestimated the importance of you in your heart.” Ryan said playfully, as if he had seen through Mason’s thoughts.

Mason was so angry that he trembled. He didn’t think that things would develop to this extent. Now Young Madam of Monor family had become Elena. His plan was disrupted. Now, there was no way he could redeem it even if he regretted it.

“Mr. Lewis, what are you afraid of? Do you think I am not worthy of your granddaughter, Elena, or are you afraid that something good will happen to her in the future?”

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 18

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 18

Chapter 18 Amara Thinks too Highly of Herself

Mason’s expression tensed up when he heard this. He suddenly felt very puzzled. How could Ryan guess what he was thinking?

“Old Master Lewis, there are some things I don’t want to say. This doesn’t mean that I don’t know. You must take good care of your son in the future.”

Ryan's tone was cold. He had told them what had happened today, whether intentionally or not. He was also threatening Mason. He wanted them to know who they were.

Mason said angrily, "I heard you brought Elena to provoke us. You blew up my door. Is this true?"

"This is true. Mr. Lewis, you are still not a muddle-headed person. I believe you know who is right and who is wrong."

Ryan did not make it clear. If he explained these things too clearly, it would not be fun.

Mason knew that this matter wasn't as simple as it seemed.

Elena was not favored in Lewis family and was even chased out by him in the end. If it wasn't because of her mother's illness, she definitely wouldn't have taken the initiative to return to the Lewis family.

When Elena and Ryan returned to the Lewis family, they had a conflict with the people of the Lewis family. It must be his petty son and daughter-in-law who made things difficult for them. That was why Ryan was angry.

Jonathan looked down on Elena and also looked down on Ryan. It was not surprising that he did such a thing.

Mason really disliked his son. His son was already a middle-aged man. He had yet to learn how to judge the situation. He had no foresight. How could he trust his useless son with his family business in the future?

Mason thought about it and could not help smiling apologetically to Ryan. "It's my fault that I didn't teach my son well and did not consider the consequences. Ryan, I hope you don't bicker with them."

Ryan let out a soft laugh. "Mr. Lewis, you have said the matter too seriously."

Elena followed Jackson to the food area. She ate in a hurry at night, so she was not full. At this moment, she casually picked up some food to eat.

In public, she wasn't as casual as at home. She tried her best to show her elegance and not give others the chance to find fault with her.

Jackson was more and more curious about her. He looked at her a few more times. He always felt that Ryan was very lucky to be able to marry her.

Elena felt a little embarrassed from being stared at. "Why are you staring at me? Did I eat too much?"

"No. Sister-in-law, you're so beautiful even when you eat. How did you get to know Ryan?" Jackson supported his chin with his hand as he spoke and continued to look at Elena curiously.

Isaac had just walked over when he heard Jackson say such disgusting words to Elena.

Isaac also rolled his eyes at him. "Sister-in-law, you don't have to pay attention to him. He was crazy. We've sent him to hospital many times. He comes out of his own every time!"

Jackson was speechless. Is it really appropriate for you to talk like this?

"Sister-in-law, you can eat whatever you want. These are prepared by the top chefs. If you like it, I will ask the chefs to go to Ryan's house and specially cook for you!"

"No need, I'll just have a taste." She was wearing a white dress today. It would be bad if she dirtier her cloths.

They chatted for a while before Ryan and Mason walked over.

Elena took the initiative to help Ryan push the wheelchair and asked in a low voice, "How was your conversation? Did grandpa make things difficult for you?"

Ryan patted Elena's hand and said with a smile, "No."

"Sister-in-law, you are wrong. It had always been Ryan who made things difficult for others. How could someone make things difficult for him?" Jackson seemed to have heard a joke.

In the next second, Ryan glanced over and Jackson shut his mouth. Ryan felt that Jackson had said too much.

Mason took a look at Elena, who seemed to treat Ryan quite well, and then continued to speak, "Elena, since you married to Ryan, you must pay attention to your image in the future. Don't disgrace our Lewis family."

A bitter smile appeared on Elena's face. No matter when and where, her grandfather still cared about the image of Lewis family. He would never care if Elena was happy or not.

Why would he care about a granddaughter that he had kicked out of the family long ago?

“Grandfather, I understand. Don’t worry.” Elena lowered her head and did not look at Mason. She did not want others to see her so weak.

Amara, who was far away, saw Mason and Elena standing together and laughed complacently.

“Grandfather must have gone to make things difficult for them. They definitely won’t dare to be arrogant anymore!” After that, she arrogantly walked towards Elena.

Amara saw Elena lowering her head and went forward to pull her arm. She reproached, “Elena, grandfather is back. You should apologize to grandpa. Grandpa is getting old. He doesn’t want to experience so many troublesome things. We’re all family. We just need to solve the misunderstanding.”

Ryan listened to Amara’s tone. She seemed to be blaming Elena. He frowned and immediately said coldly, “Mr. Lewis, please educate your granddaughter well.”

Amara actually dared to bully his wife in front of him!

Mason already knew that this matter was Lewis family’s fault. He had only come here to discuss matters with Ryan. He didn’t expect Amara to blame Elena.

Mason had already lost face in front of Ryan because of this matter. He immediately became cold.

“Did you have the right to interrupt our business? Go home quickly. Don’t embarrass yourself here!”

Amara did not understand why her grandfather was angry, “Grandfather, I know you are angry with Elena, but no matter what, she is my younger sister. Don’t blame her too much.”

In the eyes of outsiders, Amara was really thinking for Elena.

Unfortunately, everyone present was not a fool. They all knew the reason for this matter. So they naturally knew why Amara did this.

Jackson and Isaac almost laughed out loud. They looked at Amara as if they were looking at a fool. They then looked at Mason. Their hint was very obvious. Was this how the Lewis family raised their granddaughter?

She had done something wrong, yet she was playing dumb here. She pretended to complain for Elena. In fact, she was deepening their conflict. She continued to slander Elena.

“Shut up!” Mason was very angry and said, “Go home immediately. I’ll teach you a lesson when I get home.”

Amara was stunned. She did not know why Mason did not scold Elena but scolded her instead.

What was going on?