

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 19

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 19

Chapter 19 Let's Watch Their Love Together

Jackson saw Amara's confused look and laughed. "I have long heard that Miss Lewis is smart. I guess that is a lie."

Everyone understood. She was the only one who could not understand what was going on. She was smart? She was simply a retard!

"What do you mean by that?" Although she knew that this person was insulting her, the Hall family was one of the top wealthy families in the H city, so it was inconvenient for her to fall out with them.

"It literally means it." Jackson smiled and said, "Your grandfather did not blame Elena. But you came over to pretend to be a good person? You are going to laugh me to death."

After Jackson finished speaking, Amara finally reacted. No wonder her grandfather didn't let her speak just now. It was because of this matter.

Could it be that Elena's promise to her, she went back on it?

When she thought of this, she immediately glared angrily at Elena. She no longer pretended to be a good person and said sternly, "Elena, just you wait!"

After she finished speaking, she left angrily. Her rude manner was completely unrelated to the socialites.

Elena somewhat understood what had happened, but she did not know why things had developed to this extent. She was already prepared to welcome Mason's fury.

"Ryan, what did you say to grandpa just now?"

"Nothing." He said, "I just told him the truth."

Amara wanted to use Mason to deal with Elena. She did not expect Ryan to take the initiative to attack. In the end, she could only let herself suffer.

Ever since this woman said that she had sent the card to the hospital to pay for her mother's treatment fees, he guessed that Lewis family used this matter to threaten her again.

Now that Mason had cleared Elena of responsibility in front of him, what was left was the internal matters of the Lewis family. He did not care about their argument, and that would not affect his and her life.

Elena was really touched in her heart. This man always helped her. Every time she encountered a problem, this man would always stand by her side.

“Ryan, thank you.” This gratitude was sincere.

“Idiot!” Ryan smiled and held her in his arms.

Jackson jumped up and looked at Ryan with wide eyes. “There are so many people here. Do you think we are all air?”

Elena was shocked and wanted to push Ryan away. However, Ryan hugged her tightly and comforted her, “It’s fine. They said they are air. Then we will treat them as air.”

Isaac was speechless. Hello everyone, I am air.

Jackson was speechless. Hello everyone, I am air too.

The charity auction began.

Roman and Amara’s seats were just in front of Ryan and Elena.

When Elena and Ryan sat down, Roman turned around and smiled warmly. “Sister-in-law, I didn’t think that we would meet again so soon.”

He ignored Ryan. He didn’t even look at him.

“Big brother.” Elena greeted him very politely.

Although she felt that Roman was hostile towards Ryan, she could not make mistakes in this kind of situation.

The auction items displayed on the stage were mostly donated by some brand companies or the rich kids present. They were expensive and everyone liked these items.

When a necklace appeared on the stage, Amara’s eyes immediately lit up. “Roman, do you think that necklace looks good? Can you buy it and give it to me?”

“You like it?” Roman asked back.

Of course she liked it. This necklace was obviously the most important items here. The diamonds were shining.

“Roman, just buy it for me! This necklace will definitely look very good on me!” Amara said as she acted coquettishly.

Roman did not care about money. He smiled faintly and raised the sign in his hand.

Amara revealed a trace of a smile of success. She then turned her head and looked provocatively at Elena.

It was a pity that Elena was tired at the moment. She had already leaned on Ryan’s shoulder and was in a half-sleep state. She had no time to care about Amara’s gaze.

“Are you tired?” Ryan could see that Elena seemed to be tired.

Elena shook her head, “I’m fine. Wait. I’ll go back with you to rest. Is the banquet about to end?”

“Not yet.” Ryan said.

“Sister-in-law, Roman is taking a necklace for Amara.” Isaac, who was sitting at the side, kindly reminded her.

Elena heard it and could not help smiling, “I can guarantee that in the end, this necklace will not be bought you Roman. Someone will definitely give it to Roman.”

Ryan was stunned when he heard that. “How do you know all this?”

The identity of the heir to the Monor family was worth being fawned upon by many people. Those people would never let go of such a good opportunity.

Roman raised the plate from the beginning, but did not raise the plate after that. But looking at his confident look, he was sure that he could get the necklace.

“You think I don’t know anything?” Elena raised her head proudly, “When I was young, I came here with my dad once. I took a fancy to a bracelet and it was taken to give to my dad. Besides, I worked part-time here before, I know the procedure of this auction.”

“Do you like it?” Ryan asked.

“That necklace is too extravagant. It is not suitable for me.” Elena did not like those overly luxurious things. She liked simple things.

Next, the auction went very smoothly. When someone called 500, 000, no one increased the bid.

Seeing that the deal was about to be made, the emcee zoomed in so that everyone could see the exquisite necklace more carefully.

It was a thin necklace decorated with embellishments. There were some broken diamonds, and in the middle of it was a square box. On top of it was a small and exquisite rabbit, beautiful and lifelike.

After the picture was enlarged, Elena was immediately attracted and stared at the big screen.

Ryan smiled and retracted his gaze from her body. He picked up the bidding card beside his hand, "700, 000."

He raised the price by 200, 000 in an instant. The surrounding people looked over. They wanted to know who was so rich. This behavior was too extravagant.

Elena was very shocked. She turned around and looked at Ryan. "What are you doing?"

"I want to give it to you as a wedding gift."

Isaac was speechless.

Jackson sigh and said, "Isaac, let's watch their love together."

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 20

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 20

Chapter 20 The Mysterious Man Behind the Scenes

Roman and Amara, who were sitting at the front, heard Ryan's bid. They looked back at him and said, "We didn't expect you to know how to buy things to make woman happy."

"Big Brother, I learned it from you." Ryan responded coldly.

Ryan's indifferent reply made Roman unable to cause trouble for him.

"The men from the Monor family should be very generous. But if you treat it as a wedding gift to sister-in-law, wouldn't it be too shabby?"

If a man's gift to a woman was too shabby, it would only make this man appear petty.

"Roman, my sister won't mind. Anyway, she does not know anything about branded goods." Amara deliberately belittled Elena.

Elena needed to pay a high medical fee these few years. She didn't have the money to buy these luxury goods. Elena probably got Ryan to buy these things for her because of jealousy.

Elena smiled and did not get angry.

"I have indeed never worn these luxury goods, but I am very happy that my husband is willing to buy them for me. Sister, I am not like you. As long as you act cute, you'll get a gift."

Amara's face immediately changed after hearing this. "You are saying that I can only get a gift by acting spoiled? Elena, let me tell you, even if I don't want it, Roman will buy it and give it to me!"

"This is your private matter, I am not interested to know."

Elena did not want to argue with Amara. If Amara did not take the initiative to provoke her, she would definitely not respond to Amara.

But after Elena finished speaking, Amara actually raised the sign in Roman's hand. She said faintly, "One million."

Roman frowned. He really did not care about money. However, Amara acting on her own initiative to bid for him made him feel somewhat disgusted.

One million. Elena thought of this number in her heart. She did not know how much money Ryan could take out. But one million was definitely not a small amount.

"Ryan, I don't want this necklace anymore. Anyway, I don't like wearing necklaces. If you buy it, it will only be a useless thing."

Ryan smiled. Of course he knew what Elena was thinking.

He turned around and whispered a few words into Isaac's ear. Isaac nodded and stood up to leave the venue.

On the stage, the host was about to bid 1 million when a staff member hurriedly ran over and whispered a few words into the host's ear before running off again.

The host said awkwardly, "Sorry. This necklace had already been bought by someone anonymous. So the last item for auction has been canceled."

Amara did not expect this kind of thing to happen. She originally planned to compete with Ryan and make Elena lose face. She did not think that this auction item would be canceled.

This kind of situation had happened in the past. Some mysterious buyers were unwilling to reveal their identities, so they would go to the backstage and find the owner to buy it at a high price. The price they offered was usually higher than the price given by the person on the stage.

But she didn't know who bought the necklace.

"What a coincidence. Sister, the necklace you like was bought by someone else."

Amara turned around and looked at Elena who was behind her. "Why don't I discuss with the person and let him give this necklace to you?"

Her words had two objectives. She indicated that Elena did not get anything. She indirectly said that Ryan was a useless person.

How could Elena let Amara insult Ryan like this? She immediately retaliated domineeringly.

"Big Sister, you are really arrogant. Since he bought this necklace anonymously, it means that he doesn't want to expose his identity. How can you discuss it with him? Sister, you think too highly of yourself."

Amara wanted to pretend to be tolerant. But Elena's every word could anger her.

"Elena, who do you think you are? If you didn't marry into the Monor family, what qualifications do you have to come to this kind of place?"

Elena still said faintly, "You and I are one family. We are the same thing."

"Enough." Mason heard them quarreling as soon as he got closer. He coughed heavily. He was even more disappointed with Amara. He said angrily, "I told you to go home. Why are you still here? Do you really want to disgrace the Lewis family?"

Mason had always had high hopes for Amara. However, he did not expect Elena's words to make Amara panic. Amara was not as powerful as Elena. Moreover, her temperament and experience were not as good as Elena.

How could she allow the Lewis family to have a higher status in the future? It would be good if she did not let the Lewis family have a lower status.

Mason felt that it was very difficult to do so.

"Grandfather, it was Elena who bullied me."

"Shut up. Come home with me immediately!" Mason said coldly. He looked at Ryan and said, "Sorry. It was me who did not teach my granddaughter well."

Then he looked at Elena and turned to leave.

Roman just looked at them indifferently and didn't say a word. But he knew in his heart that Elena was not as weak as she looked on the surface.

Ryan and Elena did not leave immediately.

"Are we not going back?" Elena asked.

"Wait." Ryan forgot about the unhappiness just now.

At that moment, a staff member holding the necklace walked in front of Ryan. "Second Young Master, this is the necklace you bought. I have wrapped it for you."

"Thank the manager for me." Ryan said. He took the necklace and put it in front of Elena.

Elena saw the necklace and was surprised. "Did you buy the necklace?"

Ryan smiled. His smile was more useful than his words.

As long as she liked it, a necklace was nothing.

Ryan put the necklace in Elena's neck. He praised, "You look good."

Elena looked at the gentleness in Ryan's eyes and could not help kissing his face, "Thank you."

Ryan was stunned. He instantly became very happy. He pretended not to see the people around him and directly kissed Elena.