

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 21

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 21

Chapter 21 Serve the Young Madam

After everyone came out of the venue, Isaac saw that it was still early, so he suggested, "It's still early. Why don't we go out and have a gathering? Ryan and sister-in-law got married, and the two of us couldn't rush back from overseas. I'll give you two another ceremony."

"That's right. Sister-in-law, don't worry. This time, we will definitely make proper arrangements for you. Whatever you want, I'll definitely do it for you as long as you say it." Jackson said.

The two of them had been Ryan's side for many years. They had been brothers since they were young. Ever since the incident happened with Ryan, no one was willing to take care of a useless person who could not inherit the family business.

However, Jackson had just seen that Elena would not hesitate to offend Roman for Ryan's sake. From it, it could be seen that Elena was not as greedy and vain as other woman.

"She is not free." Without waiting for Elena to speak, Ryan spoke on Elena's behalf. His tone carried a warning.

Jackson curled up his lips and muttered softly, "I have never seen you like this before. Aren't you going to play with us there?"

"What did you say?" Ryan raised his eyes and looked over. There was a trace of killing intent in his eyes.

Jackson saw that something was wrong and quickly ran away. "Ryan, I have to go. Isaac, send Ryan and others back."

Isaac saw him run away like a rabbit and smiled awkwardly. He then looked at Elena. "Sister-in-law, don't take offense. He probably didn't take any medicine today."

After the three of them said goodbye, Ryan left the charity auction with Elena. After this charity auction, Elena also discovered a problem. Jonathan really cared about the marriage between Amara and Roman.

Lewis family was also a wealthy family. Jonathan did not need to marry his daughter out of the family in a hurry, but she clearly felt that the Lewis family was very anxious just now.

Ryan saw that Elena was silent for a long time, so he couldn't help but ask, "What's wrong with you?"

Elena lifted her eyelids, "Just now at the charity auction, I felt that there was something between your brother and my cousin."

"You can tell?" Ryan was not surprised by such a thing.

The two of them were together because they wanted to form a business alliance between the two families. Now, the ambitious of the Lewis family and Monor family had gradually expanded to other cities.

Elena saw his indifferent look and could not help but be slightly stunned. "Did you already know that there was something going on between the two of them?"

"This matter is not hard to tell. The marriage alliance between the Lewis family and the Monor family is just trying to push the two families to the top."

The business world was like a battlefield. If they were not careful, they would be swallowed up by the other families. The Lewis family and Monor family didn't want to go bankrupt.

Amara and Roman were the most important two people in the two families. He and Elena were undoubtedly the sacrifices of these two families.

Elena heard Ryan's explanation and could not help but feel a lingering fear in her heart. The Lewis family had a meticulous mind. It turned out that everything was arranged by them.

Everything the Lewis family did was to pave a way for Amara.

Elena looked at Ryan who was beside her and felt some sympathy in her heart.

All of these belonged to him. But because of a car accident everything he had disappeared overnight.

If there were somethings that a person had never obtained before, even if he lost these things, he would not feel heartache. If he lost them after obtaining them, that would be the disappointment of falling to the bottom of the valley.

Xavier was driving in front. He looked behind the mirror and saw Elena's hesitant look. He changed the topic. "Young Master, the old master asked me to remind you to go back to the old house this Sunday."

"I'm not free." Ryan heard this, a trace of coldness appeared in his eyes. The gentle expression on his face also disappeared in an instant.

Xavier looked troubled. "But he said he wanted to treat young mistress well."

Although Elena did not know what had happened between the father and the son, seeing the expression on Ryan's face, she knew that there must be a huge gap between them.

Elena did not want to want to make things difficult for Ryan because of her. "I did not see your parents at my wedding. I should have seen them."

"In my heart, they are not worthy." In these five years, he had long seen through people's hearts. To him, these so-called familial love was simply worthless.

"Don't be like this." Elena advised earnestly, "No matter what, they are still your parents. Even if you don't like Roman, the blood relationship between you two will not change."

Elena sometimes thought that even if Ryan's parents did not treat him well, at least they were still alive, unlike her parents. Her father had long passed away and her mother was still unconscious. She could not even act spoiled with her parents.

"You're not afraid?" He saw that she seemed to want to go back to the Monor family.

"It's not a matter of whether I'm afraid or not, it's a matter of courtesy. I'm afraid your parents already know about our return to the Lewis family. This was my fault after all. We have to face this problem."

Looking at Ryan's attitude, Elena clearly felt that the relationship between him and his family was not good.

"Tell them that I will be back on time on Sunday." Ryan did not refute her words, but instructed Xavier who was driving in front.

"Yes, Young Master." Xavier knew very well what happen to Ryan over the years. It was normal that Ryan did not want go home.

But if he kept disobeying the old master's wishes, his future life might not be easy.

The two of them went to sleep after returning home. Elena was already very sleepy before attending the banquet. This time, after she came back from shower, she directly went to bed.

When she laid on the bed, Elena only thought of a problem. They were already married now. Although it was very natural for both of them to sleep in the same room, Elena still felt a little repulsed in her heart.

After all they had not known each other for long.

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 22

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 22

Chapter 22 Mason Was Furious

Ryan walked out of the bathroom after taking a shower. He saw Elena still sitting on the bed. He asked curiously, "Why aren't you asleep yet?"

Elena's cheeks turned slightly red when she heard that. She said, "Where are you sleeping?"

Ryan sat in the wheelchair and came to the bed. He said, "This is our wedding room. Of course I want to sleep here."

Ryan propped up his arms and sat on the bed.

Elena subconsciously closed her eyes. She fell on the bed in a panic. She covered her head with the blanket and said, "Good night, I will sleep first."

Ryan revealed a playful smile. He laid on the bed and did not speak. What happened today had been reverberating in his mind.

It had to be said that during this period of time, he had indeed understood that Elena was different from other women.

Then he turned around and pulled Elena, who had fallen asleep, into his arms. He then fell into a deep sleep.

On this side, it was peaceful night, but on the side of Lewis family, it was like a storm had arrived.

Mason sat on the sofa. The three people opposite him did not even dare to breathe loudly.

"Grandfather, this was clearly Elena's fault. Why did you blame it on me?"

Amara didn't think that her grandfather would embarrass her in front of so many people at the auction. She was the young miss of Lewis family, but she was reprimanded by her grandfather in front of so many people. This made her lose face.

Mason didn't want to bring this up, but Amara had said it out loud. He was burning with anger. "You still have the face to talk about this matter. If it wasn't for me suppressing this matter today, do you think you have the ability to participate in the charity auction?"

"Grandfather, it was clearly Elena who instigated Ryan to blow up our family's door that caused these things to happen. Otherwise, how could our family allow others to mock us like this?"

Amara was still as stubborn as before. She shouted at Mason. She was completely different from her elegant appearance during the day.

Mason was so angry that he knocked on the coffee table with his cane and said, "Do you think I am a fool? Although I am old, my eyes are not blind!"

Jonathan saw this and quickly went forward to persuade him, "Dad, don't be angry. Amara is still young and she is not sensible. Don't be angry with her."

He then looked at his own daughter and snapped, "How did you talk to your grandfather? Hurry up and apologize."

Jonathan knew that his father would not be so angry easily, but today he was so angry at Amara. There must be something else in between.

"I haven't talked about you yet, but you spoke first. Jonathan Lewis, let me ask you, why was it not Amara who married Ryan Monor but Elena? How dare you change my orders so casually? You don't take my words seriously at all!"

Everything was arranged by him first. He didn't expect that because he had been away for two months, all of his plans had been messed up by his own good son.

Jonathan knew that his father would blame him for this, but he had prepared an excuse. "Dad, Ryan is a cripple. I can't let my daughter marry him and suffer."

Mason was even angrier when he heard this, "So you want Elena to marry him? You don't want your daughter to marry him and suffer, so you let Elena to marry him and suffer for your daughter? Who gave you the courage to do this?"

Mason had always been a dictator at home. He really couldn't accept his own son disobeying him.

Recently, Mason clearly felt that Elena was different from before. If Elena wasn't controlled by him, she would definitely become a huge disaster for Lewis family in future!

Jonathan said neither servile nor overbearing, "Dad, you should remember that Elena was chased out of Lewis family because she stole something. You know how much our family spent on Elena's mother these years. Now it is time for her to repay the Lewis family. Doing so has saved the face of both families. We have also found a good husband for Elena."

Hearing this, Mason eyes showed a cold look. He looked up at his son in front of him and said, "I believe you know better than me whether Elena really stole something back then. I connived with you back then. I didn't think that you would dare to use this as an excuse today."

"Dad, you only have one son now and that is me. Why don't you believe me? Amara is your biological granddaughter. You can't just watch her marry a trash and let her lose her happiness for the rest of her life."

Jonathan had always known that if it wasn't for his elder brother's death, the position of the Lewis Family's Patriarch wouldn't have belonged to him.

Now that he was doing this for the sake of his daughter's happiness, Jonathan couldn't care about anything else.

Mason saw that Jonathan was still trying to argue with him, so he threw away the crutch in his hand and slapped Jonathan's face. "You unfilial son, kneel down!"

"Dad! What happened that made you so angry that you even hit your own son?" Adeline saw that her husband was hit and she was unhappy.

"You shut up. It was precisely because you were the one who sowed discord that my son became like this. Let me tell you, if you want Amara to marry into the Monor family, you have to listen to my arrangements."

Mason knew that there was no way to change what had happened, so he might as well let nature take its course. Perhaps Amara marrying Roman was also a good thing.

It would be fine if Roman had the ability. If Roman really could not defeat Ryan then Amara could only blame herself for being unlucky.

"Jonathan, go back to your room and reflect on your mistakes. You do not need to intervene in the company matters during this period of time. When you understand your mistakes, come and fine me."

Mason angrily picked up his walking stick and walked upstairs, leaving the family of three in the living room looking at each other

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 23

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 23

Chapter 23 Obtain His Trust

Adeline heard the sound of the door closing and her face was full of dissatisfaction. “Why did he suddenly become so angry today? Did something happen in the charity auction today?”

Adeline did not participate in today’s charity auction. When she returned, she saw Mason’s unhappy expression. She thought that he was angry because his business abroad was not successful.

Jonathan sat on the sofa and could not help but fall into deep thought. This time, Mason was different from before. Even if he did something like this before, Mason would not be so angry.

Elena was not favored now. Even if he let her marry a cripple, his father should not be so angry.

“Dad, don’t worry. Anyway, Elena has already married to Ryan. My grandfather has already acquiesced to the matter between me and Roman. My marriage with him is now set in stone.”

Amara did not care. Even if her grandfather investigated this matter, the ones who let Elena marry to Ryan were her father and mother. This matter had nothing to do with her.

Jonathan let out a long sigh. “Today’s matter can be considered to be in the past. It’s just that I don’t know if he will mention this matter again in the future.”

“Grandpa went to the charity auction today to talk to Ryan. I saw that grandpa’s face was very ugly. I don’t know what Ryan said to grandpa.” Amara had been staring at Elena and Ryan, thinking that her grandfather was blaming Elena and Ryan. In the end, he had vented all his anger on her.

“Anyway, Elena has already married Ryan. This matter has already been settled. We just need to protect Amara.” Adeline knew that Mason did not like her, but she had endured it for so many years, so she did not want to argue with him.

“Now we can only do this. Your grandfather has already said that if I still want you to marry into the Monor family, I will have to listen to his opinion. I will go and ask him what his plan is tomorrow.”

Actually, there was another thing that Jonathan couldn't figure out. Was it because he didn't listen to his father's arrangement that made his father so angry, or was there some other reason?

When necessary, he needed to find someone to investigate what was going on.

The next morning, Elena was woken up by the ringing of her phone. It was actually her grandfather. Even since she moved out of the Lewis family, he had never called her again.

The originally sleepy Elena instantly woke up. After the call connected, she said gently, “Grandpa, do you have something to tell me this early in the morning?”

“Last time when you came home, you were wronged. I know you are very disappointed. Today, you can bring Ryan back again.”

Mason's tone was much gentler compared to the last time at the charity auction. This made Elena a little uncomfortable.

“But ...”

“Don't worry. No one will bully you.” Mason understood Elena's dilemma. In just a few days, so many things had happened in Lewis family. It was reasonable for her to be disappointed.

Elena was in a trance. Her grandfather had never taken the initiative to talk to her like this. When her father was still alive, her relationship with her grandfather was not bad. It was a pity that after her father died, she moved away from the Lewis family. After that, her relationship with her grandfather faded.

“I know. I will bring Ryan back with me this afternoon.”

“Okay.” He did not say anything else. The two of them didn't have anything else to say, so they hung up.

Ryan held his head with one hand and looked at her from the corner of his eyes. “You have finished talking?”

Elena was shocked. “You're awake.”

Then, her face instantly turned red. She had never shared a bed with him before. This awkward scene made her feel very embarrassed.

“When you picked up the phone just now, I was already awake. Does your grandfather want you to go back?”

“No, he wants me to go back with you. It’s probably because what happened before made him feel ashamed. That’s why he wants to invite the two of us to go back again.”

Elena did not hide anything from him at all.

Ryan sat up straight and looked at her. “Don’t you want to go back to Lewis family?”

A trace of disappointment flashed across Elena’s face. “So what if I go back? I will definitely be bullied by my uncle’s family. I might as well move out and have some peace.”

The Lewis family was a place that made her sad. She really didn’t want to go back. Previously, her father and mother lived there with her. Although she was very happy, her uncle and his family had been plotting against her.

“This is because what you should have was taken away by your uncle. If I were you, I would think of ways to regain your grandfather’s trust. This way, you will have a chance to return to the Lewis family. Those people don’t want you live a good life, so why do you want them to live a good life?”

Ryan reminded Elena in a serious manner, hoping that Elena could recognize her current status and identity.

Elena furrowed her brows tightly. “My uncle and aunt misunderstood that I stole something back then. Grandfather’s attitude towards me declined sharply. My grandfather will not let me go back.”

Elena was born stubborn. Otherwise, she would not have been in such a deadlock with the Lewis family.

Ryan saw her indifferent look and could not help reminding her, “If you want to go back, you must obtain your grandfather’s trust. The only thing you need to do now is to please your grandfather. The incident that happened when we returned to the Lewis family had caused your grandfather to be dissatisfied with your uncle. You can take this opportunity to take advantage of the situation.”

Elena raised her eyes and looked over, “Don’t tell me that all of this was set up by you?”

She felt that he knew these things very well. This was like a plan that he had thought of.

“You really think too highly of me. I’m just a cripple, how could I set up such a big trap?”

After Ryan finished speaking, he propped his body up and placed his legs on the wheelchair. Then, he went to the wardrobe, picked up the cloths he wanted to change into, and put them on.

Elena stared blankly at Ryan's actions. It had to be said that even his changing of cloths was so graceful. It could be seen that if he was really not a cripple, there would be definitely many women who wanted to get close to him.

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 24

Bride of the Mysterious CEO

Chapter 24

Chapter 24 They Returned to Her Home Again

"What are you thinking?" Ryan called Elena a few times but Elena did not answer. He did not know what she was thinking.

Elena heard Ryan's voice and reacted. She smiled awkwardly. "Nothing."

"I'll go to the company first. I'll be back in advance." Elena looked at Ryan's back as he left and could not help but feel a little dazed.

Elena did not have a stable job. When she went for the interview previously, she would be rejected by the company every time. Although she knew who was making things difficult for her, Elena could not do anything about it.

Ryan was the leader of the Monor family. Even if the Monor family was now controlled by Roman, he couldn't do anything without Ryan's help.

There was a huge difference between her and Ryan.

Close to noon, Ryan finished all his work. He changed into a set of formal cloths at the company and went back to the villa to pick Elena up.

Xavier drove them to the Lewis family.

"The door of their home has been repaired." Ryan looked at the new gate after getting off the car.

"This is related to the reputation of Lewis family. Lewis family will never waste any time on this." Jonathan had done a good job in this aspect.

When the butler heard their conversation outside, he immediately became alert. He had already cast a shadow on Ryan. He was really afraid that he would throw another bomb here.

The housekeeper did not think much and ran out. "Second Miss, Son-in-law. The old master is waiting for you inside. Hurry up and go in."

This time, the butler's attitude was very gentle. Compared to the last time, it was like a completely different person.

The two of them ignored him. Elena pushed Ryan and walked into the villa under the housekeeper's gaze.

"Second Young Master of Monor family, you are too arrogant. We have been waiting for you here for so long. The old master has already called you in advance. Why did you wait until now before coming back?"

Adeline saw that Ryan and Elena came back so late and felt unhappy in her heart. There were so many elders waiting for them here. They were really rude.

"Elena and I are just worried that we will be locked outside the door. After all, we are also people who care about our face."

Ryan mentioned the previous incident again, which could make Mason unhappy again.

"It was I who told them to wait a little longer. Don't quarrel anymore." Mason didn't want to talk about the past. That incident was a disgrace to Lewis family.

Ryan pulled Elena's hand. Elena put all the things in her hand on the tea table.

"Grandfather, I haven't come to see you properly since you came back. I brought you some tonics this time."

Gifts were not important. What was important were the feelings. Elena had been chased out for so many years. She was still very polite. So this proved that Elena was a magnanimous girl. Mason praised her in his heart.

"Thank you. Please sit down." These few short words had already proved his praise for Elena.

But Amara's face was full of disdain. When she saw that cheap things, she mocked, "You dare to give such a cheap thing to Grandpa to eat? Only someone with your status would be interested in these things."

Elena did not get angry but laughed instead and sat beside Amara. "You are right. But these few years I have not found a proper job, so it is already very good that I am able to save some money to buy so many things for grandpa. I hope Grandpa doesn't mind them. Although they're a bit cheap, I'm sincere."

Mason could not help but be slightly stunned. "How can you not have a job? I remember you graduated from a famous university. You still don't have a job?"

Mason's questioning made Amara panic. The reason Elena could not find a job was entirely because of her. So if her grandfather continued to investigate, she would be in trouble.

Amara forcefully held back the smile on her face, "Grandfather, she has always taken care of her mother. Where would she have the time to go to work? It is already considered not bad that she can get some part-time work."

Elena raised her eyes and looked over. She did not bicker with Amara.

She must slowly take revenge!

Elena lowered her head in shame. "Yes, you are right. I have to take care of my mother, so I don't have time to work."

"You are now married to Ryan. You are the Second Young Mistress of Monor family, so you don't have to look for a job anymore."

Amara mocked Elena and Ryan.

Elena frowned when she heard that. Amara actually mocked Ryan? She felt displeased in her heart.

"You are wrong. I can't spend Monor family's money all the time just because I married to Ryan. Although I am a woman, I still have my dignity. I can't lose face for Lewis family because of money. Grandpa, do you think so?"

Elena turned this question to Mason. Her grandfather admired talents the most, so he would definitely agree with what Elena said.

Before Mason could say anything, Jonathan took over the conversation. "Dad, since Elena hasn't found a job yet, why don't we let her work in Lewis family? Elena graduated from a famous university. She should have some social experience working in the past few years. We can let her come to the company to help."

Elena changed very quickly. They had to keep an eye on Elena. He wanted to see Elena's ability. She could actually make their family suffer such humiliation many times.

"No need. Our family naturally has my wife's position."

Mason agreed with Jonathan's suggestion. Before he could say anything, Ryan spoke first.

Elena turned her head to look at Ryan. When did he find a job for her? Why didn't she get any news?

Mason looked at Ryan. He could not protect himself now. How could he still arrange Elena to enter the company?

"Are you sure you have arranged Elena to enter the company?" Mason asked with uncertainty. It would be best if she could enter the company of Monor family.

Bride of the Mysterious CEO By Blue Heart Chapter 25

Bride of the Mysterious CEO
Chapter 25
Chapter 25 Preemptive Strike

"Of course." Ryan replied.

"Since she can join the Monor family's business, then our Lewis family will have nothing to do with her. Dad, you're really a good person. She doesn't care about our family at all. How can she work in our Lewis family's company?"

Amara stood at the side and said with disdain on her face. Elena was able to enter the company of Monor family because of Ryan's arrangements. However, Ryan had probably forgotten that the Monor family was now controlled by Roman. At that time, it would be a piece of cake for her to punish a few people.

"Since that's the case, I'll have to trouble you to take care of Elena." Mason treated Ryan very politely, which made Elena feel a little uneasy.

Although she had a good relationship with her grandfather when she was young, her grandfather's attitude towards her had changed drastically since she was chased out by her uncle. Her grandfather's attitude just now was kind and loving.

At lunch time, there were also a few dishes that Elena liked to eat at the dining table. These few years Elena had been running around outside and did not have time to eat these things. Today, she also missed the scene when her parents were still alive.

Elena's nose was sour. She tried to lower her head as much as possible to not let her tears fall in front of everyone.

However, her appearance once again attracted Amara's dislike, "Have you not eaten for a long time? You wolf down your food like this? Do you still have the appearance of a rich young lady?"

Elena also held back her tears and did not let them fall. She was naturally not angered by this woman. If not for the fact that Ryan was with her, she would definitely not have let this woman go.

Ryan suddenly laughed. "Mr. Lewis, your granddaughter's straightforward character is really admirable. She can even say such words to her own sister. If she were to treat others like this, I'm afraid she would be even more arrogant."

"It's my fault for not teaching her well. I hope you don't take offense." Mason said and glared at Amara. Amara could only shut her mouth bitterly.

After the meal, Ryan was called outside the yard to play chess with Mason.

Elena did not follow him. Instead, she sat alone on the sofa and watched the television, but she did not have the mood to watch the content on it.

Amara walked down from upstairs and saw that Elena had not left. She walked down and sat opposite Elena. "I also do not know why. A stinky bug came to my house and did not leave. She really thinks of herself as a big miss and wants to stay here for a long time."

Although Adeline felt that Amara's words were somewhat inappropriate, she did not blame her. She did not like Elena and there was no need to pretend in front of her.

"Mom, do you feel that there is a smell in our room? It is too pungent." Amara started to mock Elena. She clearly wanted to chase Elena out.

Elena placed the remote control in her hand on the coffee table and turned to look at Amara. "Older sister, could it be that you also smelled this unpleasant smell? I also don't know where I can smell it, especially after what you said just now. This smell is even stronger."

"Elena, don't be too shameless. Don't forget. You are at my house now. If you make me angry, I'll get someone to throw you out."

"Before changing the property, this house should still be ours, right? If it wasn't for you forcing your way in, this house should be mine."

Elena was neither servile nor overbearing. Didn't Amara want to divide the property clearly? Then she would have to talk to Amara properly.

After her father passed away, Amara and her family were anxious to change to property. Her father's shares were naturally transferred to Jonathan's hands.

Back then, her father managed the company well, so her grandfather gave her 6% of the Lewis family's shares. All of this disappeared along with her father's death.

"You!" Amara wanted to say something but was stopped by Adeline who stood up. Adeline slowly opened her mouth again, "After not seeing you for a few days, you have become very eloquent. It really makes me look at you in a new light."

"Aunt, thank you for your praise. It was because you did not see my original appearance clearly." Anyway, her grandfather was not present and Elena did not want to act with these people.

Adeline smile froze on her face and she could not help but frown. Elena was indeed different from before. Could it be that it was really because she got married that she became like this?

Adeline endured the anger in her heart and picked up an apple and handed it to Elena, "I know that you feel wronged. But we can see that this Second Young Master of Monor family treats you pretty well. You have gained a lot from this. Furthermore, Ryan had just said that he would find you another job. From now on, the two of you can live a peaceful life and earn money."

"According to what you said, my life is indeed quite happy. Why don't I divorce Ryan and let elder sister marry Ryan?"

"Nonsense! Elena, if you dare to speak nonsense again, I don't mind tearing your mouth apart."

"Please don't, Big Sister. You are a well-behaved and sensible daughter of a socialite. Once someone discovers such an ugly side ... Wouldn't the good image you've created be ruined?"

Elena's expression did not change. These few people really needed to be taught a lesson. In the past, she did not make a sound because her mother still needed medical fees. Now, she did not have anything to be afraid of.

Amara did not think that the once weak Elena would actually say these words. Amara looked at Adeline as if asking for help and Adeline also did not have any other choice.

Now that Elena was married to Ryan, she was only Elena's aunt and did not have the qualifications to teach Elena a lesson.

“Cousin, why are you looking at me with such a strange look? Do you think I am different from before?” Elena stood up and placed the fruit Adeline gave her on the table.

“What nonsense are you talking about? Let me tell you, this is Lewis family. Don't try to do anything to attract my attention. I will never like you.” Amara threatened.

“Haha, sister, if you hadn't told me about this, I would have forgotten about it. You know why I was kicked out of my home that year.”