Chapter 26

Chapter 26 Mason's Attitude Changed

Amara's face revealed a trace of panic when she heard Elena's threat.

Adeline saw that her daughter could not keep her cool and felt disappointed in her heart. After all, Amara was taught by her and she did not think that Amara could not even control a little Elena.

It was very obvious that Elena wanted to stimulate Amara to achieve her goal. Could it be that Amara did not see through it at all?

Just as Amara wanted to speak, Adeline instantly stood up and stopped the former from speaking. "Elena, don't forget that Lewis family has raised you these few years. Back then, it was you who stole something. Our Lewis family is a prestigious family. We chased you out for the sake of the Lewis family's reputation."

"I believe you all know why Uncle and Aunt chased me out. I don't want to talk about what happened back then. I hope you won't keep mentioning it."

Elena did not want to repeat what happened back then. She knew in her heart that she would definitely use the same method to take revenge in the future.

When Adeline heard Elena's warning, her body could not help but tremble. How could Elena's hostility suddenly become so heavy?

Ever since she married Ryan, she had undergone a tremendous change.

"What is it? Don't you want to live happily with us?" Adeline's face revealed an awkward smile as she surpassed the impatience in her heart, "How could it be? No matter what, the Lewis family is your home. If you want to come back, you can do it at any time."

"Since you have already said so, then I will not be polite in the future." As she spoke, Elena walked past the two of them and sat on the sofa, they were sitting before.

"Mom, why did you leave her like this?" Amara was unhappy in her heart. Even if she took in a cat or dog, it was better than Elena.

Could it be that her mother did not hear what Elena said just now? This house actually belonged to her. It was simply a joke.

“Alright, it is getting late. You should also hurry back and rest. In a while, you still have to send Ryan and Elena away.” Adeline gave Amara a look to make the later pay attention to her words.

Amara glared at Elena and walked upstairs in her high heels.

Elena did not care and picked up the fruits on the table and continued to eat. She did not care about Adeline who was standing at the side with an ugly expression.

Ryan and Mason, who were playing chess outside, knew that it was late and stopped playing the game.

“I didn’t expect you to have such a deep understanding of chess at such a young age. It can be seen that your ability is extraordinary.” Mason kept praising Ryan.

“Mr. Lewis is too modest. I only know some skills because I liked to play chess when I was young.” Ryan was neither arrogant nor impatient and replied to Mason.

Mason was very satisfied. “You are really modest. Alright, it is already late. Why don’t you stay here today?”

“No need, I will go back immediately.” He did not like to stay outside, and he also did not like to interact too much with the people of Lewis family.

“Since that is the case, then I will not force you to stay here. In the future, you will take care of Elena.” Mason couldn’t help but sigh.

Elena did not have any real power, nor did she have any proper income. When she was with Ryan, she could be considered to have no need to worry about food and clothing for the rest of her life.

Ryan and Mason went into the hall and found that Elena was the only one sitting on the sofa watching TV. Elena saw two people come in and stood up. “Grandfather, Ryan, have you finished playing chess?”

“Are you tired? I asked Xavier to come and pick us up.” Ryan looked at Elena with concerned on his face.

“I am indeed a little sleepy.” Elena couldn’t help but yawn as she spoke. She had been here all day to deal with the mother and daughter so duo. She was now physically and mentally exhausted.

Ryan smiled dotingly. He was currently sitting in a wheelchair and couldn’t stand up. If he could stand up, he hoped to raise his hand and touch Elena’s hair.

About 20 minutes later, Xavier drove the car to the door.

Only Mason came out to see her off.

“Elena.”

Just as the two of them were about to get on the car, Mason called Elena from behind.

Elena’s face revealed a trace of surprise. “Grandfather, is there anything else?”

“The next time you go to the hospital, help me send my regards to your mother.”

“I understand.” Although she was not used to her grandpa’s enthusiasm, it changed their relationship.

“Be careful on the road. I’ll wait for you to go home.” Mason turned around and went back to the villa.

Elena could not help but be stunned on the spot. She never thought that her grandfather would actually say such words to her. In these five years, he had never cared about her mother. Today, for some reason, he suddenly cared about her mother.

Furthermore, back then, their family misunderstood that she stole something and got her grandfather to chase her out. Perhaps all these years, her grandfather had already thought clearly that the matter back then was not that simple.

At the dining table today, Elena could clearly see that there was a trace of guilt in her grandfather’s eyes. After all, blood was thicker than water.

Elena slowly lowered her head and a sour feeling appeared in her nose.

Chapter 27 Ryan Was on a Business Trip

Ryan saw this and raised his hand to hold Elena. He placed her hand on his palm. “Get in the car. The sky is getting cold. Your hand is freezing cold.”

Elena felt the warmth of Ryan’s big hands on her palm. It was as if she was hugging a stove.

“Thank you.” After saying that, Elena directly sat in Ryan’s car and went home.

When she slept at night, Elena originally thought that she could bring Ryan for a walk in the park tomorrow. She did not expect that before dawn the next day, she would be woken up by an ear-piercing bell.

Ryan sat up and picked up the phone on the bedside table. When he saw the caller ID, he could not help but frown.

“What’s wrong? Do you have something urgent?” Elena opened her sleepy eyes and looked at Ryan.

“Nothing.” After saying that, Ryan hung up the phone in his hand.

“Then why didn’t you answer the phone?” Elena was curious. Someone was calling at this time. It should be something urgent.

“It is not important to me. Go to sleep.” Maybe it was because Ryan’s tone was too gentle that Elena fell asleep again.

Ryan sat in a wheelchair and walked out of the room. He went to the study and dialed the number. His tone was very cold.

“What happened?”

It was four o’ clock in the morning. They usually would not call him at this time. Something must have happened to disturb him at this time.

“Ryan, a batch of our goods have been robbed.” The person on the other side of the phone sounded panicked. They had been dealing with this batch of goods for a long time. They did not expect that someone would dare to stop them.

“Have you investigated?” Ryan frowned. There was actually someone who dared to snatch his goods. Those people really did not want to live anymore.

When his subordinate heard Ryan’s cold tone, he could not help but shiver. “I have already investigated. It was the pirates who robbed our goods.”

“Chase them.” Ryan tone was cold, and his face was full of ruthlessness. If someone was in front of him, they would definitely be frightened by him.

“Ryan, what do you want to do with them?” His subordinate wasn’t sure what Ryan meant, so he didn’t dare to give the order directly.

“Kill them.” Ryan’s cold and threatening tone made the entire study feel as if it had fallen into an ice cellar. His subordinate could clearly feel his anger.

“Come and pick me up later.” Ryan’s tone was not friendly.

Hearing Ryan's words, the subordinate hesitated. "Ryan, you better not participate in this mission. You and Sister-in-law have just gotten married."

"When did I need you to make a decision for me?" Ryan stopped his subordinate's words.

If he could not even complete his career, how could he protect Elena?

"Then we will go and pick you up immediately." After saying that, the subordinate hung up the phone.

Ryan calmed his mood and returned to the room. Seeing Elena sleeping soundly on the bed, he gently kissed her on the cheek. "Wait for me to come back."

Elena felt his gentleness in her sleep. She only lightly responded and fell asleep again.

When Elena woke up, the sky was already bright. She immediately struggled to get up, but found that Ryan had already disappeared from her side.

Elena scratched her fluffy hair and walked barefoot on the soft carpet. She opened the curtains and allowed the sunlight to freely shine on her body. It was very comfortable.

Elena stretched and walked into the washing room.

When she came downstairs, she found that breakfast had already been prepared at the dining table. Elena excitedly walked down and found Mrs. Baker who was busy in the kitchen.

"Mrs. Baker, have you seen Ryan?" Elena asked quietly.

"Didn't Second Young Master sleep in his room? I haven't seen Second Young Master since I woke up." Mrs. Baker also had a trace of doubt.

"No, he is not in the room." Elena frowned. She didn't see Ryan since she woke up this morning.

"Madam, you don't have to worry about the young master. He probably went to work. He left so early probably because he was going to be on a business trip. This is also a common thing in these few years."

Mrs. Baker was already used to Ryan going on business trips, so she was not worried and also persuaded Elena not to worry.

Elena nodded. She turned around and sat at the dining table.

Elena looked at the delicious breakfast on the table and suddenly felt that it was tasteless. She had been with Ryan for half a month. Without him accompanying her to eat, she was suddenly not used to it.

Mrs. Baker looked at Elena's dejected look and smiled as she sat opposite Elena.

"Madam, are you thinking about Second Young Master?"

"Ah? No, I'm not thinking about him." Elena revealed an awkward smile, then her face turned red.

"You and Second Young Master just got married. It is inevitable that you miss him. I will not laugh at you guys. Madam, I have experience before. Of course, I understand your current feelings." Mrs. Baker saw Elena's innocent look and could not help but tease her.

"Later I will go out to buy some things. Mrs. Baker, accompany me. It is too boring to go shopping alone." She did not have friends these few years. Mrs. Baker was the only one who was good to her when she came here, so she was also willing to chat with Mrs. Baker.

"This is not good."

Mrs. Baker was somewhat embarrassed. She came here to be a servant and Elena not only did not dislike her but also took the initiative to help her do farm work. This way, she was already very grateful to Elena. She did not think that she would be able to go shopping with Elena like a friend.

"What's wrong with that? I don't have any friends. I came here. You're the only one who treats me the best. So you can go shopping with me without any problem."

Previously, Ryan had given her a card, and she had already submitted it to the hospital. She also had a lot of pocket money, so she wanted to buy some things.

Although this house was very big, it lacked a trace of the feeling of a home. She wanted to redecorate this house before Ryan returned.

Chapter 28 Hero Saving the Damsel in Distress

The two of them came to the mall looking at all kinds of stuff, but didn't know which one to pick.

Looking at Elena choosing her goods, Mrs. Baker could tell that she was not like those rich children who liked expensive things. She would always pick up practical things to buy.

“Madam, girls like you who save money are really rare nowadays.” Mrs. Baker praised.

Elena replied as she patrolled the items in the shopping mall, “Some things are flashy but not practical. Even if we buy them, it will be useless.”

Mrs. Baker thought about it and agreed. Those expensive things might look good but they were not practical. When she bought them, they would only be left empty.

“We have almost chosen the things. Let’s go back.”

Elena pulled the shopping cart from Mrs. Baker but just as Elena was walking forward, a shopping cart rushed towards them. Mrs. Baker was shocked and shouted, “Madam, quickly move aside.”

By the time Elena found out, it was already too late.

Suddenly, a man quickly went forward and pulled Elena over. The things in his hands were scattered all over the ground and were instantly crushed by the shopping cart.

Elena sat on the ground in a daze. If she was a second later, she might have been crushed into mud like the debris on the ground.

Mrs. Baker saw that Elena was very safe and immediately went forward, “Madam, are you hurt? If you feel any discomfort, you must tell me. I will take you to the hospital for an examination.”

When the man saw Elena still sitting on the ground without moving, he could not help but frown. “Your madam must have been scared. There shouldn’t be too much of a problem. I just pulled her over and didn’t let that shopping cart touch her.”

“Sir, thank you for saving her.” Mrs. Baker knew that it was inappropriate to thank others like this but the most important thing now was to see if Elena was okay.

She was Second Young Master’s wife. If she was really injured, how would she explain it to the young master?

After a while, Elena came back to her senses and a trace of fear appeared on her face, “Just now I ...”

“Madam, it is fine now. It was this mister who saved you just now.” Mrs. Baker saw Elena wake up and did not forget to remind her that this man was the one who saved her life just now.

Only then did Elena see the man who saved her clearly. His handsome face carried worry.

Elena immediately went forward and bowed, “I really have to thank you. If you did not make a move in time, I’m afraid that I would have been crushed like those things.”

“It was nothing. You don’t have to worry about it. But you should investigate what happened to that shopping cart.”

The man reminded Elena that it was not a simple matter. All the shopping carts were very orderly. Why did the shopping cart suddenly go out of control when Elena came over?

Hearing the man’s reminder, Elena slowly raised her head, “Sir, are you suspecting that someone did this on purpose?”

Elena frowned. For a moment, she really could not figure out who was the one who wanted to harm her.

Lewis family? But no matter how much the people of Lewis family hated her, they wouldn’t kill her.

“I really can’t think of anyone in such a short period of time. Perhaps it’s really a coincidence. I haven’t asked your name yet, sir.”

This man was her savior, so she had to thank him properly.

“Spencer.” Spencer replied.

“Mr. Spencer, you saved my life this time. If you don’t mind, why don’t you come to my house and have a meal?” Elena invited him sincerely.

However, Elena’s good intentions were rejected by Spencer. He smiled apologetically. “No need. This matter was as simple as lifting a finger. You don’t have to take it to heart.”

“No, why don’t we leave our contact details? We must treat you to a meal another day.” Elena did not want to owe others.

“If that is the case, then I will be troubling you in the future. However, those things that you just bought were almost crushed. You should go back and buy some more.”

After Spencer said that, he turned around and left. At the moment he turned around, Elena saw a crack on the man’s cloths. It was probably because he accidently broke it when he saved her just now.

Mrs. Baker reminded, “Madam, try not to invite strangers to your house in the future.”

“Why?” Elena asked curiously.

Mrs. Baker smiled, “Actually it’s nothing. It’s just that Young Master doesn’t like strangers entering his house. I don’t think I have told you before. I’m just reminding you.”

Elena nodded. Ryan was a disabled person, so it was normal that he did not like strangers visiting his house. She could still accept such a thing.

“I’ll remember this. Our things were crushed just now. Let’s buy some more before going home.”

Elena said and pulled Mrs. Baker back to the shopping mall to buy those things again.
