Chapter 31

Chapter 31 Turning Point for Ryan

The two of them did not speak for a long time. Mrs. Baker, who was standing in the kitchen, saw that the two of them did not speak. Her heart was in her throat.

Now that Elena had offended Roman for Ryan, she was afraid that Elena's life in the future would not be easy.

Mrs. Baker walked in with water that just had been poured, "Eldest Young Master, you must be thirsty all the way here. Please drink some water."

Seeing Mrs. Baker's respectful manner, Roman immediately changed his attitude. "Mrs. Baker, you are still taking care of my brother. It has been hard on you."

"What are you talking about Young Master? Back then, I was indebted to Second Young Master for not abandoning me. That's why I have such a life today. You should know how to be grateful in life."

Mrs. Baker was not afraid of Roman. It was not the first or second time she had encountered such a thing. Ever since Roman became the president, no matter what Ryan had, he wanted to snatch from the later, even if it was the nanny who took care of Ryan.

"You are right. In life, you must be grateful. There are some things you should do. I believe you know what to do." Roman seemed to have something in his words. Elena did not know what they were talking about.

Roman took out his phone and opened the page of the album. He handed it to Elena, "I know I am doing this to bring my brother down into injustice, but I will be sorry if I do not do this."

Roman saw the change in Elena's expression and knew that he had achieved his goal. He smiled faintly and looked at the watch on his wrist. "It's getting late. I still have to go to work. Sister-in-law, I was rude today. I will definitely hold a banquet to apologize to you in the future."

“Big Brother, you are too polite.” Elena’s face returned to calm and she did not seem to be affected by the incident just now.

After sending Roman out, Elena’s face instantly became cold as she looked at Mrs. Baker, “What is the matter with this man?”

Mrs. Baker sighed and helplessly shook her head, “Madam, the eldest young master and the second young master had been at odds since they were young. Second Young Master was talented and intelligent. The old master of Monor family favored him and wanted him to get the position.”

“However, Second Young Master had an accident five years ago, and unfortunately both of his legs were broken. He would never be able to stand up in this lifetime and the family business of Monor family would never be handed over to a useless person, who could not even stand up. So, he had the Eldest Young Master replace Second Young Master.”

It was indeed a pity. The empire that he had worked so hard to build over the years, in the end, it was all given to someone else as a gift.

Elena did not think things would be like this. If this car accident nothing to do with Roman, then things would be inconceivable.

She didn’t believe that there was such a coincident in this world.

“Could it be that no one has investigated who had anything to do with this incident?”

Elena knew how capable Ryan was back then, and that was why such a car accident happened. Could it be that the people of the Monor family were just waiting for his death? That’s why there was no investigation?

“So what if they investigated? Second Young Master is no longer able to stand up. He is like an abandoned chess piece. Besides, even if they knew who did it, they still wanted to hand over their family business to the young master.”

Mrs. Baker had been working in a garden in the Monor family at the beginning. She had only heard about these things. But after taking care of Ryan, she finally knew how difficult it was for Ryan.

“Madam, to be honest, before marrying you, young master never smiled. The incident five years ago made Second Young Master uncertain. No one dared to talk to him ...”

It had to be said that Elena’s appearance had indeed changed Ryan. She hoped that Elena could stay by Ryan’s side for rest of her life.

Elena could not help but recall that it was also on a certain day five years ago when she was chased away by Lewis family. It was only then she realized that she was unable to move a single step away from that family. If it was not for the fact that she was forced to have no way out, Elena would not have gone against the current and become like today.

The two of them were really in the same boat, but the only fortunate thing was that she was luckier than Ryan. She had a pair of intact legs, but Ryan did not.

“Mrs. Baker, I know what you want to say. Don’t worry, I will never give up on Ryan. Since we are married, I will be responsible for him.”

Mrs. Baker heard this and couldn’t help but reveal a kind smile on her face. Sure enough, she was right about Elena.

Perhaps Elena was a turning point for Ryan.

Chapter 32 Now Do You Believe It?

At night, Elena and Ryan had a video call. Seeing the handsome face of the man in the video, Elena asked, “How long more do you need to go on a business trip?”

“Half a month.” It had been three days since he left. According to the usual time, it would take about half a month.

Elena’s eyes showed a trace of gloominess. “It will take so long?”

The two of them had obviously been together for less than two months. But even since this man was not at home, she felt that she was not used to it.

“You miss me?” Ryan smiled.

“Not really. By the way, I have something to tell you. Your big brother has come to our house today.” Elena said.

Ryan did not mind. He knew this man went to their house. “And then?”

“He said you went to look for a woman, and he even showed me a picture of you holding a woman in your arms.” For some reason, even though she knew Roman was deliberately sowing discord between them, she still did not mind.

“Haha, silly girl.”

Hearing the man’s laughter, Elena was a little angry. “What are you laughing at? I didn’t believe him. Otherwise, why would I video call you today?”

“Have a good rest. When I go back, I will take you directly to the company to work.” Ryan knew Elena was very smart. He could not just waste resources like this.

“Ah? I’m afraid I won’t be able to do it ...” Although she graduated from a famous university, she had been working part-time for the past few years and didn’t have any work experience. She was afraid that she wouldn’t be able to handle it.

Ryan took a deep breath. “How can you not be my personal secretary?”

Elena was speechless. Exclusive secretary? Why did it feel like she had snatched Xavier’s job?

Elena was in a good mood probably because she had talked to Ryan on the phone. She also slept very well that night.

After Elena woke up next morning, she changed her cloths and went downstairs.

Elena, who was standing at the corner of the stairs, blinked her eyes hard and then patted her own face.

Was she dreaming?

“Mrs. Baker, have I not woken up from my dream?”

Mrs. Baker turned around and saw that she was hitting her face and immediately went forward. “Madam, what are you doing?”

But Mrs. Baker’s face had a smile and also understood why Elena was like this.

“I am suspecting if I am still awake.” Elena laid beside Mrs. Baker’s ear and softly said. But no matter how many times she blinked her eyes, Ryan still existed.

“Don’t think about it anymore. Young Master rushed back this morning and has not eaten breakfast yet. Quickly go and accompany Young Master to eat breakfast.”

After Mrs. Baker finished speaking she continued to busy herself in the kitchen. Elena walked in front of Ryan and waved her hand in front of his eyes.

“You still don’t believe that I am real?” Seeing Elena testing him, Ryan could not help but feel that it was somewhat funny.

“I still can’t believe ...”

Before Elena finished speaking, Ryan suddenly pulled her into his arms and pressed her lips.

After tasting her lips thoroughly, Ryan let go of her. He smiled seductively and asked, “Now do you believe it?”

Elena’s face was flushed red due to his kiss and after hearing his words she could not help but blush faintly.

This man’s flirting skills are amazing!

“Why are you back?” After coming into her senses, Elena was embarrassed. She quietly got up from Ryan’s lap and sat across from him. She took a bite of the bread and swallowed in her mouth while asking.

“I don’t know which silly girl said she missed me last night. I was afraid that she would fall ill, so I had to come back early to take a look.” Ryan said as he ate.

Elena was shocked after hearing this.

He came all the way here just for her?

“Aren’t you torturing your own body? It just so happens that you are back. You should rest at home.”

Ryan didn’t seem to care about his body. It was either working late at night or working overtime. It was obvious that he was overdrawing his body.

“I didn’t expect my wife to be so thoughtful.”

After the breakfast, Elena strongly requested Ryan to rest at home, but Ryan stubbornly insisted and took Elena away from the home.

“Miss Elena?”

Just as Elena was pushing Ryan to stroll around, a man's voice suddenly sounded behind her.

The two of them turned around and Elena finally saw that this man was Spencer who saved her life before.

"So it really is you. I thought I had mistaken you for someone else." Spencer walked to Elena's side and looked down at Ryan.

After Ryan saw the man clearly, his eyebrows were tightly knitted together. A cold light shone on his eyes. Every part of his face seemed to be warning the man not to get close to Elena.

"Ryan, when Mrs. Baker and I came out to buy things, we were almost hit by a car. It was this Mr. Spencer who saved me. In the end, I haven't properly thanked him."

Elena's face had a warm smile that made people feel relaxed when they saw it.

"It was nothing. It's not worth mentioning. If Miss Elena really wants to repay me, why don't you treat me a meal today?" Spencer looked at Elena with a different light in his eyes.

"She is not free." Without waiting for Elena's reply, Ryan directly refused.

Elena heard Ryan's refusal and could not help but be slightly stunned. "What is it?"

"I'm tired."

Elena smiled helplessly. It was time for Ryan to have a good rest.

Chapter 33 Am I Redundant?

Elena looked at Spencer with a trace of apology in her eyes, "I am sorry. Mr. Spencer. My husband is not feeling well. I'll take him back to rest first ..."

"Why is it that he is not feeling well when I meet him? Is it because Mr. Monor is really not feeling well, or is it because he is feeling unwell after meeting me?"

Spencer spoke bluntly, as if he wanted to force Ryan to speak the truth.

“Whether your health is good or bad, of course it has to do with the person you meet. I didn’t expect this mister know his own limitations.” Ryan did not want to be outdone and directly retorted.

Elena “...” What is wrong with them!

Elena could not help but worry. If this continued, she was afraid that the two of them would start fighting.

“Mr. Spencer, I’m sorry. My husband just came back from a business trip and the time difference has not yet reversed. I will invite Mr. Spencer to dinner in a while.” Elena said apologetically once again.

“Don’t mention it, Miss Elena. I will be staying in Hai City for a long time and we will have a lot of chances to meet again.”

A meaningful look appeared in Spencer’s eyes. Then, his eyes fell on Ryan’s cold face and he unconsciously revealed a proud smile.

“Elena, where is my wallet?” Just as the two of them were about to leave, Ryan suddenly opened his mouth. Elena looked at the man’s hand and indeed found that his wallet was missing.

“Could it be that you put it on the counter when we were shopping just now and did not bring it over?” Elena could not help but be a little worried. Who was Ryan? If his wallet was lost, the loss could not be measured with just a little bit of money.

“Go and find it. I will wait for you here.”

“Okay, I will be right back.” Elena ran towards the store that she had just entered.

Only Ryan and Spencer were left. They looked at each other.

“I didn’t expect that the dignified second young master would use such a method. Is there something you want to say to me so that you send your wife away?”

“What are you doing here?” Ryan shouted coldly.

Spencer, however, had a playful look in his eyes. He sat on a chair not far from Ryan. “This is not your own city. Why don’t you let me come here?”

Spencer did not care that the man in front of him and Elena were husband and wife.

“If you like it, you can take it directly.” However, Ryan did not care about it. It seemed that Elena was just an item that anyone could take.

Ryan’s eyes were unpredictable. “It’s just a business marriage. How much relationship can you have?”

Just as he finished his sentence, a sound of falling something to the ground came from behind him.

Spencer did not notice anything unusual, but there was a trace of playfulness in the corner of his mouth. “If that is the case, why don’t you give your wife to me!”

“I have no objections. You can ask my wife if she wants to go you.” Ryan pushed the wheelchair over and turned to look at Elena.

“Do you like this man?”

Elena’s eyes were slightly red. She tried her best to hold back her tears.

After a while, Elena finally let go of her tightly clenched hands. At this moment, her fingertips were already white, which was enough to prove how much strength she used to hold them.

Elena bent down and picked up the wallet that had just fallen off.

“Mr. Spencer, don’t joke around anymore. I have already married Ryan and have no intention of remarrying. Ryan, your wallet is at the front desk of the store. Remember to take it well next time.”

Ryan sat on the wheelchair as if he was sitting on pins and needles. He seemed to have something to say to Elena but did not know how to say it.

Back in the car, the entire atmosphere was dead silent. It was so oppressive that it made people unable to breathe.

After a long while, Elena slowly opened her mouth.

“Ryan, to you, am I an extra person?”

No ...

Ryan muttered in his heart but he didn't know how to say it.

Elena looked at Ryan with hope, but the latter only closed his eyes and did not answer.

Elena lowered her head and smiled awkwardly. “Haha, I got it.”

“Alright, let's go home first. You should have a good rest. It is not a good for a leader to secretly run back from a business trip.” Elena held back her emotions but Ryan could hear that her voice was a little choked up.

“Yes.” Ryan closed his eyes again.

Chapter 34 A Change in Attitude

When they returned home, Mrs. Baker saw that Elena lightly nodded her head and ran back to her room. Mrs. Baker originally wanted to stop Elena but she realized that this woman's expression was hurried as if she was running away from something.

Mrs. Baker looked at Ryan with a puzzled expression, “Young Master, what happened to Madam?”

“Nothing.” Ryan's tone was also cold.

Mrs. Baker could not help but frown. Why did these two people become like this after going out for a while?

Ryan returned to the room and opened the door. He found Elena lying on the bed. When she heard Ryan's voice, she turned her body sideways and faced him with her back.

"I booked the flight for this afternoon."

"Yes." Elena did not say anything else.

"Then you have a good rest. I will leave first." There were no more explanations or comforting words.

Hearing the sound of the door closing, Elena sat up and tears kept rolling in her eyes.

"Elena, bear with it. Don't be so useless."

However, her legs still ran out of the bed by accident. When she came downstairs, she found that Mrs. Baker had already closed the door outside.

"Madam, what's the matter? Young Master has already left." Mrs. Baker was sure that something must have happened between them. She could clearly feel Elena's reluctance to part with Ryan.

"Why did he leave so quickly ..."

"Madam, the young master's car is just outside and hasn't gone far. Why don't I call him over and you guys can say a few more words."

After all, the two of them were newlyweds. It would be good if they could spend more time together.

"There's no need." Elena refused. What was the use of saying more? To Ryan, she was an extra person!

She knew that their meeting was a mistake. If she had not replaced Amara and married Ryan, the two of them would not have had any interactions in their lives.

Elena returned to her room and saw the arrangement of the entire room.

Before this, they were still considered harmonious. But now, Elena felt that this arrangement was somewhat comical.

It the afternoon, Elena received an unfamiliar phone call and discovered that it was actually Charles Monor.

“Dad, why did you have time to call me?” Elena had not called that word for many years. Now that she suddenly called him that, she felt a little awkward.

“I know Ryan went overseas for a business trip. You are also bored at home. Come and accompany me and Ryan’s mother for dinner tonight.”

Charles’s tone was gentle and peaceful, not like the tyrant who bullied others at all.

“Okay, dad. I will go back tonight.” Although she said that, Elena was still very nervous in her heart. Except for Roman, she was very concerned about the Monor family. The other member of Monor family weren’t familiar with her.

Elena did not know what the two elders liked, so she bought some tonics and took a car to the old residence of Monor family.

The old residence of the Monor family really lived up to its reputation as a business empire in Hai city. Just by looking at the courtyard, it was enough to prove the generosity of the Monor family.

It could no longer be described as a villa. It was clearly a palace.

“Young Madam, you’re here. Please follow me.” When the butler at the door saw Elena, he bowed and his tone was very polite. He directly led her into the manor.

Elena followed the butler into this magnificent palace like house.

“Elena is here. Quickly come in and take a seat.” Ryan’s mother, Amanda, called out to Elena. Even if Ryan had already lost his mind, he was still her youngest son.

“Thank you, Mom.” Elena walked to the sofa and sat down.

“Are you used to living with Ryan after marriage?” Amanda asked, “His personality is very strange. I hope you don’t mind.” As Amanda spoke, she picked up a fruit and sat beside Elena.

Elena nodded slightly. “I got along well with Ryan. It’s just that the two of us have never met before. We still need to get along slowly to understand each other’s personalities.”

“Ever since he got into a car accident, his personality has become extremely cold. I’m very glad that the two of you can get along with each other.”

Amanda said as she handed the peeled fruit to Elena. “Have a taste of the fruit. It was just shipped over from overseas.”

“Thank you, Mom. How can I ask you to peel an apple for me?” Elena’s enthusiasm towards this woman was hard to resist. Since five years ago when she was in dire straits, no one had ever treated her like this. For a moment, Elena found it hard to accept.

“We are all family. What is there to be polite about? If you have anything you want to eat or wear, you can tell me directly. We will all satisfy you.” Amada said as she put down the knife in her hand. However, her eyes were different from before.

“Mom, if you have anything you can tell me directly.” Elena also noticed and put down the fruit in her hand and looked at Amanda who had changed her expression.

Amanda could not help but raise her eyebrows. She did not expect this woman to be so smart.

Chapter 35 A Feast at Swan Goose Gate

“Since you have already said so much, I won’t beat around the bush with you. You should know what kind of role Ryan is playing in Monor family right now.”

Amanda’s unhurried manner was like a completely different person from before. Elena frowned slightly, “Mom, what do you mean by this? I have never participated in business matters. So I don’t really understand. If you have something to say, just tell me.”

Elena did not like such roundabout words. Moreover, this matter was related to Ryan, so she didn’t dare to make a decision directly.

“Elena, I believe that you are a smart woman. You must know what I meant to say. Our Monor family is facing a difficult situation right now, so we must find someone to bear the responsibility. I believe that you can understand what I am saying.”

“I’m sorry, I said that I don’t know anything about business. I really can’t do anything about this.” Elena still pretended not to understand.

Amanda was very angry and immediately stood up and pointed at Elena in front of her. “You ... You don’t know how to appreciate favors.”

“What is mother talking about? I do not understand business matters at all. So it’s useless for you to tell me this. Besides, I don’t work in Monor family, so I don’t know anything about the company.”

Elena also stood up and slightly lowered her head, like a child who had done something wrong.

It seemed that today's meal was probably a feast at Swan Goose gate!

The people of Monor family had all sided with Roman. Now that Monor family was in trouble, it was obvious that they wanted to push Ryan out as a scapegoat.

"What is wrong? Are you guys arguing?" Charles, who came down from the stairs, heard their voices and couldn't help but ask.

Amanda saw her husband came down and supported him to sit down. "There are still some people who do not know how to appreciate favors."

"Elena, don't lower yourself to your mother's level." Charles's tone was flat, completely different from the elites who had fought on the business world for a long time.

"I'm sorry, Dad. It's my first time here and I have made Mom angry."

Elena couldn't help but apologize. She knew that it was disadvantage to Ryan now. Although she was angry, she couldn't break the rules.

Charles came in front of Elena. "Did you eat this apple? Don't you think this apple is very sweet?"

"The apple from overseas is indeed very sweet." Elena answered truthfully.

Charles picked up the apple on the table and placed it in front of Elena. However, just as Elena wanted to catch it, the apple was thrown to the ground by Charles.

"Sorry, this apple is too big. It is not easy to hold it."

Elena looked at the apple on the ground that was covered in dust and could not help frowning. What was this man trying to do?

"Elena, I know you are a smart person. Although this apple tastes sweeter and more delicious than the ones in the country, since it fell on the ground, it can only be a useless apple."

After saying that, Charles turned around and walked into the kitchen.

Elena was still looking at the apple on the ground.

Charles was hinting that this apple was Ryan. No matter how bright and beautiful he was before, he was still a trash now and could not go to the elegant hall.

She never thought that Ryan's parents would be such a person. Was Ryan not their child?

Elena picked up the apple and walked straight to the kitchen. She turned on the faucet and put the apple under the faucet to wash it. After a while, the entire apple looked brand new.

Elena then put the apple in front of Charles.

"Dad, this apple is very precious. If you don't eat it when it falls on the ground, it will be a waste. If you wash it, the abandoned apple can also be eaten."

A trace of shock appeared on Charles's face. He never thought that this little girl would be so eloquent.

"If it's a strained with dirty stuff, it can be washed clean. What if this apple is broken?" Charles asked again.

"If it is broken, then it will be even easier. We can just cut off the tumor of the apple and leave only the good ones."

Elena put the washed mouth in front of her mouth and bit it. Charles stood where he was and his eyes had some intriguing look.

After a while, Charles laughed loudly, "I didn't expect you to be so smart. Today I prepared some dishes that you like to eat. Quickly come and eat."

After sitting down, Charles looked at the maid who had just brought the dishes over, "Go and ask the young master to come down and eat."
