Chapter 36 Bad Intentions

Roman came to the dining table and looked at Elena. He had a light smile on his face. "Sister-in-law, long time no see."

Elena smiled and said. "Big Brother, you must be joking. Didn't we just meet a few days ago?"

"What? Have you guys met alone?" Amanda looked at Elena and Roman.

"Yes, mother. Big Brother specifically came to tell me to pay more attention to Ryan's work overseas."

In other words, it was also to say that Roman was meddling in other people's business. It was not up to other people to talk about the matters between her and her husband.

Charles had always felt guilty about what happened five years ago. Although he had asked him to give up his position as the president, he still allowed him to keep his right as the general manager.

However, today, he heard from Elena that Roman had gone to cause trouble. He was unhappy. "Roman, your brother's legs are not convenient. Don't disturb his rest in the future. If you have anything to say, make a decision or ask me."

"I know, Dad." Roman lowered his head and frowned.

He had heard what Elena said upstairs. He did not expect this woman to more direct in some matters than ordinary people.

It seemed that he had to be careful of this woman in the future.

After dinner, Charles said that he still had some matters to deal with. He got up and went back to the study. Amanda did not have anything else to say to Elena.

This woman was nothing more than a chess piece used by the family. To their family, marrying her to her youngest son was just a chess piece. She was nothing more than a useless piece of trash.

Only Roman and Elena were left in the living room.

Elena looked at the time and got up to bow. "Thank you very much for your hospitality today. I will go back first."

"Sister-in-law is in such a hurry to leave. Is she going back to deal with some business?" Roman also wanted to test Elena to see if she could be used by him or not.

"Big brother, if you have something to say, just say it. There is no need to beat around the bush."

Elena turned her head and looked at the man in front of her who had a warm smile on his face. He was a typical smiling tiger.

Roman looked at the apple on the table. "Sister-in-law's mind is so clear. Don't you think you want to achieve something?"

Elena was not a fool. This man clearly wanted to bribe her. But since she had already become Ryan's wife, she definitely wouldn't betray him. Furthermore, Roman was not a good person and Elena would never follow him.

Roman held the apple in his hand and smiled. "Sister-in-law is very smart. I hope sister-in-law can join the company of Monor family to help. To me, it is like adding wings to a tiger."

"You are too polite, big brother. Ryan had previously said that he wanted me to work in the company. My specific job was to be his personal secretary. If big brother wants me to succeed, then I will do as big brother wishes."

Elena knew that she did not have a job now. While relying on the Lewis family, she also had to hug Ryan, this big tree, at the same time. But once she had a financial source, perhaps some things would be easy to deal with.

"Just being my brother's personal secretary is just doing some cumbersome things. I'm afraid it would be a waste of your talent." Roman did not agree to let Elena stay by Ryan's side. He must take such a talent for his own use.

"Then what does Big Brother think?" Elena asked.

"I do have a position, but I don't know if sister-in-law can take it."

"Big brother, just say it. No one can do everything in their lifetime. There are some things that you can't learn." Elena looked at Roman and said.

“Sister-in-law is indeed a forthright person. My company’s design director position is still empty. I heard that sister-in-law graduated from famous university’s design major. This position is definitely not difficult for sister-in-law.”

Elena could not help but frown when she heard this. Roman was clearly looking for trouble for her. She studied clothing design, while Roman’s job was to design houses. It sounded like they were all designed but the difference was like heaven and earth.

Seeing the troubled look on Elena’s face, Roman could not help but raise his hand. “Could it be that this matter has already troubled sister-in-law?”

Elena really wanted to slap him to death in the face of this man’s provocation.

“What is Big Brother saying? Although my major in university is clothing design, I believe that as long as I am willing to work hard, the design of the house is definitely not a difficult problem.”

“Since that’s the case, then I’ll go and pick up my sister-in-law for work tomorrow.”

Roman just wanted to humiliate her, so Elena naturally would not give him this chance. “Big brother, this matter is indeed not difficult for me but I do not want to do this job.”

“Oh? Sister-in-law, do you think the salary of this job is too low?” Elena’s answer surprised Roman.

“It has nothing to do with the salary. I just feel that this assistant job is more suitable for me.” Elena said firmly.

“Since that is the case, then I will not force you. I will pick you up to work tomorrow.”

“Okay. Thank you, Big Brother.” After saying that, Elena left the old residence. She originally did not want to deal with this family, so it took a lot of effort.

The next day, Roman came to Elena’s place on time to pick her up.

Mrs. Baker even reminded Elena before getting on the car that Roman was not a good person.

Elena also spoke to Mrs. Baker, “I know what you are thinking in your heart. Don’t worry, I will definitely not betray Ryan.”

When Roman brought Elena to the company, everyone looked over.

Everyone in the company knew that Roman was with Amara, and now there was another woman who got out of his car.

“Look, young master actually brought another woman to the company. She looks even prettier than Amara.”

“What do you know? How many diamond kings like them are wholeheartedly devoted? I’m afraid this is something new for the CEO.”

Roman brought Elena to the place where Ryan worked. Compared to the areas that they had just passed by, this place looked a little desolate.

“This is where my brother usually works.”

As they were talking, a woman in red dress twisted her body and walked towards Roman. “Young Master, why are you free today?”

“Let me introduce you. This is my brother’s personal assistant. Please take care of her in the future.” Roman’s tone clearly became more serious.

“Since it is the person recommended by the young master, I will take good care of her.”

That woman saw Elena did not have the slightest bit of arrogance on her body. She endured her impatience and walked over with her.

When they passed by Roman, the woman did not forget to wink at him.

The two of them came to a room. It was about the same size as the other directors office, but the color inside was black and white. It was Ryan’s style.

“This is Second Young Master’s office. In the future, you only need to wipe the table and sweep the floor. As for important documents, you don’t need to organize them. After all, you just arrived. If you make a mistake, it will be a loss of billions and billions of dollars.”

The woman in the red dress held back her disgust and said to Elena. This woman had been specially taken care by Roman. Her following days in the company would definitely not be easy.

“I know. Is there anything else you need to tell me?” Elena looked at the woman in front of her and said.

“Nothing important. I just hope that you do things seriously and do not have any evil thoughts that you should not have.” The woman in red dress glanced at Elena.

Chapter 38 Trapped in the Company

Mind? Elena smiled brightly. She had been brought in by Roman. This woman in red must have thought that she had some kind of relationship with Roman.

“May I know how to address you, young lady?” Elena asked.

“Elsa.” Elsa’s tone was somewhat impatient.

“Miss Elsa, I hope you don’t worry. I don’t have any improper thoughts about anyone in the company, so I also hope that you will have a proper attitude towards me!”

Elsa revealed a sneer, “Alright, you don’t need to explain.”

Elena was not angry, she knew that time could prove everything.

Elena walked into Ryan’s office and sat in a small suite outside. Seeing the people coming and going, she did not know what kind of mood Ryan had when he worked here.

In the past, Ryan used to sit in the CEO’s office on the top floor. Now that his position had been replaced, she was afraid that he would be sad. She also felt unpleasant in her heart.

Just as this idea popped up in her mind, it was immediately snuffed out by Elena. She seemed to have forgotten her own identity. To Ryan, she was just a person who was not important.

Elena sat in front of the desk but did not know what to do. Just now, Elsa also did not explain clearly. She could not have come here to wipe the table and sweep the floor all the time.

At this time, a woman carried a lot of folders and placed them in front of Elena. She still had a look of disdain on her face. “This is the thing that Supervisor Elsa asked me to pass to you. You need to rearrange this information so that you can familiarize yourself with the business.”

Elena saw this hill-like document and could not help but frown as she looked at this woman.

“Sorry, I am Ryan Monor’s assistant and I do not ask about these things. Moreover, these documents were from a long time ago. Why did you let me tidy them up?”

“Why are you talking so much nonsense? Just do what I tell you to do.”

Another woman came from behind the woman. She was still holding the same amount of documents as before. She threw them on Elena’s table again. “And these.”

“It was already barely enough to finish reading those documents just now. How could I finish reading all of them?” These women were simply looking for trouble.

“I didn’t say that I would let you finish reading them in a day. I’ll give you five days. If you can’t do it well you don’t have to work here anymore.”

After the woman finished speaking, she left in her high heels, which were more than ten centimeters long.

Elena sighed, but she still buried her head in tidying up.

When she was halfway through the documents, Elena looked up and found that it was already dark. There was no more in the office anymore.

When Elena left, it was already 10 o’ clock at night.

Elena stood up and stretched her body. It had been a long time since she had done this kind of work. Even when she moved, her body made creaking sounds.

Elena put away the documents and brought some important documents with her. When she arrived at the company building, she found that the company’s door was actually locked.

Elena wanted to call the security guard but found that the security guard seemed to have fallen asleep in the security room and could not hear her call at all.

Elena took out her phone and wanted to call for help but found that the phone was out of battery at the critical moment. Elena was now the one who could not call for anybody.

The entire corridor was pitch black. Elena knocked hard on the door but there was no reaction.

“Is there anyone there? Help! Someone is trapped her. Is there anyone who can help me?” Elena was hitting the door while calling for help. She was trying to find someone to help her along the way.

Elena looked at the street in front of her. Although this place was in the city center, the company had closed the door. No one would care if there was another person locked here.

Elena tried to break the company's door but found that the material of the glass was very solid. Under normal circumstances, it would not break.

Maybe it was because Elena knocked the door loudly, but there were people outside looking over. However, those people had the mentality of watching a show and did not have any intention of coming over to help.

Elena frowned tightly. What kind of sin did she commit in her previous life? In this life, there was actually not a single person who came over to help her.

Just as she was thinking, a man's figure walked towards her.

Elena focused her eyes and looked. She was shocked. "It's actually you."
