Chapter 56 Grandpa Made the Decision

“Why did your aunt do this to you?” Mason asked.

Elena looked at Ryan and then lowered her head. Her eyes were filled with tears. “Grandpa, at that time, aunt thought I stole something, so she chased me out. I didn’t explain it at that time. But I didn’t expect Aunt to be so much more over the years... Grandpa, I know I’m useless. I don’t deserve to be your granddaughter, but I’m an adult now. Why do I have to suffer this grievance again and again?”

After she finished speaking, tears flowed out of Elena’s eyes. She looked so pitiful.

Ryan, who was sitting at the side, covered his mouth and smiled. This woman’s acting was not bad.

Hearing Elena say this, Mason became ever angrier. Back then, he could have just turned a blind eye, but he did not expect this woman to become even more fierce. She did not put him in her eyes at all.

If he allowed her to continue developing, she would probably not even acknowledge him as an old man in the future.

“Don’t worry, I will definitely uphold justice for you.”

After Mason finished speaking, he called Adeline out again.

Adeline’s face was full of dissatisfaction. When she looked at Elena, her eyes were also filled with resentment.

“Today, in front of me, you guys will settle this matter.” Mason sat on the sofa.

Adeline looked at Elena coldly and then spoke in a voice only the two of them could hear.

“Elena, if you don’t want your mother to die in the hospital, you know what to say!”

“Aunt, it is already at this time, why do you still use my mother to threaten me?”

Elena lowered her head again and walked to Mason. "Grandpa, if you really think my mother is a burden, just remove her oxygen tube. I don't think my mother would want to see me being threatened day after day."

Elena once again cried as her tears flowed down her cheeks.

Adeline, however, shook her head in panic and did not agree. She said loudly, "No, I didn't say that. Dad, you have to believe me."

Jonathan, who was working in the study, heard the noise downstairs. He put down his work and ran downstairs.

He didn't expect to see Elena and Ryan there and his wife was begging his father.

Jonathan frowned. He had clearly reminded Adeline not to provoke Elena and Ryan, but she refused to listen. Now that it was in front of the old man, he was afraid that his future life wouldn't be easy.

"Dad, what's going on?" Jonathan asked Mason.

Mason did not look at Jonathan. He still looked serious. "I believe you know what happened. She is your wife. Why don't you discuss what she had done?"

Jonathan saw that Elena still had tears on her face. She lowered her head and sobbed softly. She must have been wronged again.

Then he looked at Ryan. This man did not have any expression on his face. He looked at their family as if he was watching a good show.

Jonathan looked at Adeline indifferently with a warning look in his eyes.

Then he turned to look at Mason. "Dad, you don't have to be angry with Adeline. She did this for Amara."

When he heard Amara and Roman, Mason's expression loosened a little. Nothing was more important than the marriage between the two families.

"What is the relationship between this matter with Amara and Roman? Elena has already married to Ryan. How could she interfere with Amara's matters?" Mason said as he looked at Elena who was still wiping her tears. He did not know what she was thinking about.

Chapter 57 Mind Your Words

“Dad, this woman used the convenience of her working in the Monor group to often talk bad about Amara by Roman’s side. The main culprit behind Amara and Roman’s argument today was her. I called her back today because of this matter.”

Adeline saw a trace of loosening on her father-in-law’s face and knew that her opportunity had come.

Hearing Adeline say this, Elena cried even harder. The grievance on her face became even more intense.

“If you want to add a crime, why do you have to say it? Although I work in the Monor Group, I have no chance to see Big Brother. Furthermore, I am Ryan’s personal assistant. Why would I go to Roman’s place and say bad things about my sister?”

“You didn’t? Then why did my daughter get into a fight with Roman when she was in a good terms with him? Don’t think that I don’t know what you are thinking. Do you want to enter into Monor Group then using this opportunity to seduce Roman?”

“Adeline Lewis! Mind your words! Yours words are too serious!” A trace of displeasure appeared in Ryan’s face. His face was as cold as ice as he said, “That knife just now didn’t seem to make you remember.”

“I...”

“There is no evidence. Don’t speak nonsense. Elena is my granddaughter. She would not do such a thing. Furthermore, she had already married Ryan. She would not care about those things anymore.” Mason paused for a moment and asked again, “Did you personally see this?”

If there is no evidence, they could not misunderstand Elena. Although she had only married Ryan, who had lost his power, Ryan still had his own power.

“I... Although I didn’t see this, she is a person who makes things difficult for others.”

Adeline was anxious and could not say anything. Although she did not see it with her own eyes, this was a matter that was set in stone. Amara had already told her that’s why this was definitely not wrong.

“Haha, what a joke! She is my own wife, do I still want her to be alone with my Big Brother? Do you really want to know why the two of them quarreled?” Ryan sat in a wheelchair and came in front of Mason.

“Mr. Lewis, it seems like the Lewis family doesn’t have a place for me and my wife to stay. In that case, you don’t have to call us back in the future?” The displeasure in Ryan’s face became even worse. He turned around and asked Elena, “Will you come back to this family in future?”

Elena looked at Mason. Her face was still covered with tears. She looked pitiful, “Grandpa, I’m sorry. I can’t eat with you in the future. I apologize to make you unhappy today. But I don’t want to come back in future. After all, I also feel very uncomfortable in a place that doesn’t belong to me.”

Elena cried with tears in her eyes. Her attitude was resolute.

“Elena, if you have something to say, say it properly. After all, Lewis family is your father’s home.” Jonathan saw the situation and quickly said it nicely. If his father offended his family because of this matter, then the loss would outweigh the gain.

When Ryan saw the faces of this family, he laughed in his heart. This family really knew how to put on an act. For the sake the family’s interests, they changed their faces very quickly.

Ryan and Elena did not have time to waste talking nonsense with this family. He pulled Elena and walked towards the door. Just as they opened the door, Mason’s voice came from behind, “Elena, it is my birthday on Sunday. Bring Ryan back earlier.”

“Grandfather, I...”

“Don’t worry about those things. I said you can come back as soon as you want. This is your home and your father’s home! Grandpa is waiting for you at home.” After Mason finished speaking, Ryan pinched Elena’s palm, and Elena quickly nodded, “Alright Grandpa, we will come back and see you on Sunday. We will definitely prepare a proper gift for you.”

After saying that, two of them left the Lewis family.

Mason sat on the sofa with a dark expression. He turned his head and said to Jonathan, “Tell your wife not to blame others for things that don’t need to be done. When doing things, you need to pay attention to evidences.”

“Dad, do you really plan to let Elena come back to our Lewis family?” Adeline asked again. There were only three of them left, so there was no need for her to pretend.

Mason raised his eyes and looked at this extremely stupid woman, “In the future, even if you want to teach Elena a lesson, you don’t need to do it in front of Ryan. Don’t you know Ryan’s identity? Even if the two of them have no feelings for each other, she is still Ryan’s woman. If you continue to bully Elena in front of him, it would be going against the entire Monor family. Stupid!”

During this period of time, Mason could clearly feel the changes in Elena. It seemed like this woman really wanted to re-enter the Lewis family. Although he did not know what she was thinking, he could at least put his mind at ease when she was in front of him.

“Tell Amara and Roman not to go the company to find trouble with Elena in the future. The two of them are not as simple as they seem in the surface.” Mason could feel the powerful aura from Ryan. Even if his legs were crippled, it could not hide the king’s aura from his body.

In comparison, Roman seemed a little petty. He did not know who the final winner was between these two people, but since both of their granddaughters could enter into the Monor family... In the future no matter who took the position of patriarch, it would be beneficial to Lewis family.

Chapter 58

Chapter 58 To the Party

Time flies. In blink of an eye, it was Sunday.

The Lewis family had long become a bustling city and all the wealthy families were giving Old Man Lewis face, for his birthday.

Jonathan and Adeline stood at the door to welcome the guests. They wanted to see what gifts these people brought. Perhaps they would be lucky enough to work with these business tycoons.

Elena looked at the cars coming and going in front of her. Most of the people here were trying to please the Lewis family, hoping that their family would be protected by the Lewis family. Ryan turned around and saw Elena staring at these people. A smile appeared in his face.

“When you saw these people, what were you thinking in your heart?”

“Flattery.”

“The world is like this, everyone admires the strong.” Ryan had been mocked and ridiculed by many people in the past few years, especially when he fell from the being the President to such a position today. He had probably seen through the world a long ago.

“I am afraid today’s banquet will not be simple, get ready.” Since he already came here, he shouldn’t be afraid of troubles.

Elena wore a gorgeous evening gown and pushed Ryan, who was wearing a suit, into the Lewis family. When Jonathan and Adeline saw Elena and Ryan, Adeline’s originally happy face revealed disdain, “The two of you really come over. Elena, look at you like this. This gown is also rented, right? Then you have to be careful, lest you get it dirty and can’t get rid of it.”

Elena smiled and held Ryan’s hand. “Aunty, did you forget? I have already married Ryan. I am the Young Mistress of Monor family. Does aunty thinks the Young Mistress of Monor family can’t even afford a formal dress? Don’t you take the Monor family seriously at all?”

“Elena, how dare you! Do you know what day it is today? Let me tell you, if you mess up with the banquet today, I will never let you go! And also I will never let your mother go!” Adeline threatened once again.

This woman actually dared to offend the Lewis family and say such words to her. It could be seen that she had been grown up and wanted to do something.

“Ah Aunt, do you really think you can threaten me with my mother? Oh right, I forget to tell you, my mother has been transferred into another hospital. As per where she has been sent to, I won’t tell you. And also you don’t need to pay for my mother’s medical expenses anymore. So don’t try to use my mother as a weapon to threaten me again in future.”

Jonathan frowned when he heard Elena’s words. The reason he didn’t want Adeline to provoke Elena was because he was afraid that Elena would be useful in the future.

But he did not expect Elena to directly transfer her mother to another hospital. If it was not for her mother’s coercion, he was afraid that there would be many things which would not be easily handled in future.

“Elena, your mother has been transferred to another hospital? Why didn’t you tell your uncle? The First People’s hospital is the best hospital center in our Hai city. If it was transferred, it will not good for your mother’s condition.”

Ryan narrowed his eyes and laughed, “Mr. Lewis really values relationships and loyalty. I’m just curious, why didn’t Mr. Lewis treat my mother-in-law well before this? On the contrary, he only cared when he heard that my mother-in-law has been transferred to another hospital.”

“Ryan, you must be joking. Elena’s father is my elder brother. It is my duty to take care of my sister-in-law. Before this, I have been paying for my sister-in-law’s medical expenses. You can’t say that I didn’t do my best.”

A hint of evasion appeared in Jonathan’s eyes. He knew it was inappropriate to say such things.

Ryan smiled faintly, “Mr. Lewis is thoughtful, but the boat has already come to an end. In the future, I don’t need the Lewis family to pay for my mother-in-law’s medical expenses anymore. Elena’s mother is my mother, so it is only right for me to take care of my mother-in-law. Don’t you think so?”

Ryan still had a smile in his face.

“Yo, why is it so crowded at the entrance? Isn’t the Lewis family welcoming guests anymore?”

Jackson and Isaac came to the scene and said when they saw the situation here was not right. Jackson continued, “Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, we are here today to congratulate the old master Lewis. Aren’t you going to welcome us?”

“Both of you have good intension. Quickly go in and enjoy the banquet.” Both Jackson and Isaac were from the top wealthy families of Hai city, so Jonathan’s attitude was very polite.

“Sigh, Mr. Lewis, you are saying this now. No, that’s not right! We saw the commotion from afar and wanted to rush over to take a look at what was going on. We didn’t expect the two of you were making things difficult for Ryan and Elena.”

“How can you say that it was difficult? Elena is my niece. How could I not treat her well? As an uncle, I naturally have to do my best for my niece.”

“I wonder if dear uncle can let his niece and son-in-law enter?” Ryan asked. He could ignore Jonathan’s face but he couldn’t ignore Elena’s.

“Of course. You are family. You don’t have to be so polite. Quickly go in and take a seat.” No matter how unwilling Adeline was, Jonathan had already spoken so she could not give up.

It was all thanks to Ryan.

Isaac and Jackson walked in when they saw there was no show to watch. Although Elena was Mason's granddaughter, she was not favored. She was afraid that if she stayed for a long time, it would cause Mason to be unhappy.

She knew that she only owed a chance. As long as she had a chance to prove her ability, no one would look down on her.

Ryan looked at Elena and smiled, "Are you still thinking about what happened today? Don't worry, there won't be any problem."

"Yes sister-in-law, there is nothing he can't do. You don't have to worry about these things."

"Shut up. You're everywhere. You have to intervene in the matters between husband and wife."

After Jackson finished speaking, he was scolded by Isaac. Isaac then looked at Elena apologetically, "I am sorry, sister-in-law. He is always like this. I forgot to give him medicine today. You must not get angry with him. I will call the best mental center in the Hai City and ask them to take him in."

Elena smiled. The others treated Ryan with ingratiating and disdain. They were not as sincere as the two of them.

As soon as they finished speaking, they saw a man and a woman in a gorgeous dress walk into the hall. That dazzling light and impressive figure, who else could it be other than Roman and Amara?

Elena and Ryan looked at the two of them. It had to be said that Amara and Roman were very compatible. When the two of them stood there, the light would be attracted to two of them.

"Why do I feel like an old fox with a pheasant?" Jackson asked. Elena laughed it loud. "I didn't expect you to be so humorous."

"Sister-in-law, in the future, we must get to know each other more. I also really like your personality. When the time comes, the two of us must talk all night long."

As long as Jackson finished speaking, Ryan looked at him with a killing gaze. Jackson was frightened and shut his mouth immediately. Ryan coughed and reminded him that Elena was already a married woman and it was best not to have a long talk at night.

Amara was wearing a gorgeous blank dress and her pretty makeup made her look like a queen in the banquet as if she was the female lead of the banquet.

After that the two of them walked in front of Mason and gave him a gift. “Grandpa, this is a gift that Roman and I have chosen together. I wish you good fortune like the long flowing water in the East Sea and longevity like the pine trees in the South Mountain.”

Mason opened the gift. He didn't expect it to be an ancient painting from hundreds of years ago. Mason widened his eyes, “Amara, where did you find this?”

“I knew an old master painter. I accidentally saw this painting and did not expect it to be the real one. I bought it that time for your birthday, so I can gift it to you. I hope you like it..”

Amara had a big smile on her face and her proud expression was overflowing with words.

Mason nodded with satisfaction. “You have a filial heart. Not bad. Not bad. Your parents have taught you very well in these few years, and you have your own career. Grandpa also wishes your good will.”

Elena frowned and looked down at the painting in her hands. “Whose painting is the real one?”

Ryan saw Elena was muttering something and asked.

“I just saw the painting Amara gave to grandfather. It was exactly the same as our painting... One of us must be fake.” Elena could not help but frown. How could there be such a coincident? Or was it that Amara came prepared?

“Of course, it is not a coincident. If Amara says that her painting is real, then she is digging her own grave. This painting has been brought by an invisible tycoon few years ago. Coincidentally, I met the invisible tycoon three years ago and bought this painting in a high price for my personal collection. However, during this period of time, I have never shown it to anyone. How could it fall into Amara's hands?”

Ryan analyzed bit by bit. If Amara's painting was real, then the painting in Ryan's studio was either stolen or replaced.
