

Bride of the Mysterious CEO chapter 86

Chapter 86 Honey

The next morning, Ryan brought Elena to Tina's house.

When Tina found out that Ryan was coming, she got up early and carefully dressed up.

When she saw Ryan, she smiled sweetly, "Cousin."

Without waiting Ryan to speak, Elena stretched out her hand. "Hello, I am Ryan's wife, Elena. We met yesterday."

Seeing the person behind Ryan, Tina's expression instantly stiffened. She quickly hid it and held Elena's hand with a smile. "Hello, Sister-in-law, I am Tina, cousin's cousin."

Elena responded with a smile and pushed Ryan inside. She quietly rubbed the back of her hand that was hurting from Tina's grip.

"Cousin and sister-in-law, sit anywhere you want. Mom is preparing food in the kitchen. I will go and pour some tea for you guys."

Tina was busy preparing and looked obedient.

Elena looked at the back of her hand which was blushing red. It seemed like Tina had really thought her as a rival of love.

But she was not scared. In the past few years, she had experienced a lot. Would she be scared by such a childish trick?

Elena stood up and looked around. It was medium sized villa. It was smaller than a normal villa and was very tidy. She lowered her head and looked at Ryan. "Did you buy this house for them?"

"It is under my name but is handled by Xavier." Ryan took his phone to reply a message while answering Elena's question.

"What's wrong?" Feeling the burning gaze, Ryan looked up and saw Elena staring at him.

Elena sized him up. "I keep feeling that there seems to be something missing from your body."

Ryan was about to ask what he lacked when Elena suddenly bent over and gently sucked on Ryan's neck. She kissed and bit Ryan's collarbone and neck. When she left, light pink marks appeared on Ryan's neck and collarbone.

“What is this for?” Ryan was somewhat shocked and helpless. This woman was really unfathomable.

“Of course I want to make a seal to prove that you are my man.”

Elena whispered softly into Ryan’s ear. Her possessive desire was very obvious. She was not as shy as usual.

Ryan smiled faintly. He was obviously very happy to watch Elena’s possessiveness for him.

Elena then tugged her hair behind her ear and moved her long hair backwards revealing her tender and fair neck. There were red marks all over her neck which was created by Ryan last time in the lounge.

When Ryan saw her smooth skin and the red marks on her neck, he swallowed a mouthful of saliva. The desire of his body started to lit up again.

“Cousin, sister-in-law, the water is here.” Tina placed the two glasses of water on the table and turned her head. When she saw the marks on Ryan’s neck, her hand trembled.

Elena bent down to help her. When she bent down, Tina happened to see the red marks on her neck. She was so shocked that the glasses almost fell to the ground.

“What’s wrong, cousin? I feel like you are absent minded. If you have something on your mind you can tell me. We’re all women. If you have any thoughts that you can’t talk to others about, I can understand.”

Hearing Elena’s words, a trace of panic appeared on Tina’s eyes. She quickly hid it and smiled to cover it up, “Sister-in-law, must be joking. How could I have something on my mind? It was just that I didn’t sleep well last night.”

“So it is like this. Since you did not sleep well last night, you must sleep early in future. Don’t think about anything that is not there. It will affect the quality of sleep.”

Elena picked the cup in front of her and suddenly put it down.

“Ah... The water is too hot. Honey, my hand hurts. Take a look and see if it has been scalded.”

Honey?

Ryan almost choked his own saliva. How could he not know that Elena’s acting skills were so outstanding?

He held Elena's hands with both hands, his face was full of heartache, "Why are you so careless?"

While holding Elena's hand, Ryan noticed that the back her hand was also very red. He felt that something was not right. He part that was burned should have been the palm. Why the back of her hand was injured?

He thought Elena shaking hands with Tina. It seemed that Tina did it.

Tina surpassed the anger in her heart and brought the towel over. "Sister-in-law, I am really sorry. You can use it to wipe your hand. I used cold water to soak it."

Ryan looked coldly at Tina. "Don't you know to check the water temperature before bringing it? What if the water fell on Elena?" Ryan asked angrily.

Tina was somewhat afraid of Ryan's cold eyes and angry words. She never thought that Elena was so important to Ryan.

Elena looked Ryan's angry look and knew that he must have understood Tina hurting her hand. She held Ryan's hand and softly, "It's okay. It was I who was careless." Elena took the towel and wiped her hands.

In the next second, Ryan snatched the towel from her hand and coldly ordered Tina, who was standing in front of them, "Bring some ice immediately. My wife's hand is hurt."

Tina's mother, Ingrid, who was in the kitchen walked out and saw a woman sitting next to Ryan and the later holding her hands. They seemed to be very lovey-dovey.

"Ryan is here. This must be your wife. I have long heard that your wife is as beautiful as a fairy. I never thought that after meeting her today, I realized she is even more beautiful than people say." Ingrid praised Elena. The smile on her face looked very sincere.

Chapter 87 Going to Work at the Monor Group

"Hello, I'm Ryan's aunt." Ingrid greeted her warmly, "Ryan and our family's elders are very good relatives. Our family will be your home from now on. Come and visit us when you have time."

Ingrid went forward and held Elena's hand. The intimacy was a little too much, as if Elena was her daughter-in-law. It made her feel very uncomfortable.

Elena smiled politely and quietly withdrew her hand. "Aunt, I just walked around. The decoration of your house is really beautiful."

Ingrid said proudly, "Yes, this house was chosen by Ryan for a long time before it was decided. You also know our relationship. It's all thanks to Ryan that he took care of us so well."

Ryan was too lazy to retort. He just sat there with a gloomy face. Elena smiled and held his hand. "Ryan, I didn't expect you to be so good to your aunt. You must keep in touch in the future."

Ingrid said this because she wanted to show off that their mother and daughter knew Ryan earlier than Elena. Luckily, Ryan had told her earlier. Otherwise, she would have thought that their relationship was very close.

After a pause, Elena asked again. "Right, Cousin, do you have a job?"

Tina looked at Ryan and said shyly, "I just graduated from college and haven't found a job yet."

"Then you can come to the Monor family's company to work." Elena smiled warmly, making people unable to see through her.

Tina was very surprised. She originally planned to go to the Monor family's company to work. This way, she could get closer to Ryan and also find an opportunity to improve their relationship.

She did not expect that before the plan was implemented, Elena would take the initiative and suddenly become Ryan's wife.

Tina was already unwilling to accept it. When she heard Elena's words, she had another idea. If she really fell into Ryan's eyes, then once he and Elena divorced, Young Madam of Monor's position would be still hers.

Tina did her best to conceal her excitement in her heart and pretended to be embarrassed as she said, "I am worried that I am not qualified and I am working hard to prepare for the interview."

"Since you are Ryan's cousin, why do you need to start with the interview? Anyway, he is in need of private assistants. Why don't you join the company as his private assistant and help him deal with matters?"

After Elena finished speaking, she looked at Ingrid. "Aunt, I don't know if you like this arrangements. Are you satisfied?"

Ingrid did not believe that Elena could not tell what her daughter was thinking about Ryan. She did not know what kind of medicine was in her gourd. "It would be great if it could be done like this. I'm just afraid that it would cause trouble for Ryan."

After saying that, Ingrid looked at Ryan probingly. There wasn't anything unusual on his face, but he didn't look happy either.

"What's so troublesome about this? It's just a piece of cake. Don't you agree, Ryan?" Elena turned her head and looked at Ryan, who had been silent the whole time.

Ryan did not want Tina to enter the Monor Group to work. It would be best if this annoying woman could get far away from him.

"If you want her to work in the Monor Group... Then alright." Ryan said with some anger. He didn't believe it. If Tina became his personal assistant, she would hang around him every day.

Would Elena really not be angry if she saw it?

Hearing Ryan's words, Tina could not hide her joy and threw herself into his arms, "That's great, Cousin. Thank you. I will definitely work hard and help you with all my effort."

Chapter 88 You Don't Like Her?

Ryan sat in his wheelchair and could not dodge. He frowned, pushed her away and held Elena's hand.

"Stay away from me!"

"Cousin, I..."

Tina felt sad for a second and tried to persuade herself in her heart. It did not matter that Ryan was cold now. After getting along with him for a long time, she would naturally think of ways to win Ryan's affection and snatch him from Elena's hands.

Elena smiled and did not speak, as if she did not care.

After that, it was time for dinner. At the dinner table, Ingrid and Tina had been enthusiastically picking food for Ryan. Because Elena had helped Tina put in a good word, they did not deliberately neglect her.

Ryan frowned when he saw these mother and daughter's efforts. He picked up the plate which was filled by the food Tina picked for him and put it aside. He then picked up a new plate and asked Elena to serve him some dishes.

Tina saw this and her heart was filled with anger but she could not expose herself in front of Ryan. So she only smiled and did not say anything.

Seeing Ingrid and Tina chatting happily, Elena felt a little sad. After the car accident five years ago, her mother became a vegetable. Not to mention making a meal for her, even normal conversations could not be done.

Elena's mood was a little down. Ryan noticed her mood and did not ask much at the dinner table. After eating a few bites, he found an excuse to take Elena away.

Walking to the door, Tina shouted and chased after him, "Cousin, wait a moment. I have something for you."

She handed over a jar, "This is the tea that you usually like to drink. It took me a lot of effort to find a high-quality tea. You must remember to drink it."

"How do you know I like to drink this?"

Ryan's tone was cold. He had never mentioned it in front of Tina.

"I..." Tina did not know how to explain this matter. Should she directly say that she had investigated Ryan's lifestyle?

"This is cousin's goodwill. If you don't like it, you can leave it. I usually also like to drink tea." Elena took the thing from Tina's hand.

"Sister-in-law..."

Tina wanted to say something but swallowed her words when she was about to say it.

"Don't worry. I will brew this tea for Ryan to drink. I will not let you down." Elena saw Tina's thoughts clearly.

"Cousin, Sister-in-law sees that you are a good girl. I will tell you a thing. You just have entered society. You must do everything steadily. You must not learn from those shameless girls who only know how to dig gold. In order to marry a rich person, they don't even care about other people's relationships and become a mistress."

Elena wanted to remind her not to delude herself with things that she could not get.

"I Understand."

Tina clenched her fists tightly. She clearly knew Elena was pointing fingers at the mulberry tree, but she could not reveal anything. If she made Ryan unhappy, she might not be able to work in the Monor Group.

Finishing, Elena pushed Ryan into the car. After driving for a distance, Elena opened the window and threw out the can of tea leaved in her hands.

“You don’t like Tina very much.” Ryan wanted to tease Elena, but she just ignored his wishes and insisted on letting Tina enter the company.

Elena was a little angry, “Don’t tell me you like her?”

Ryan helplessly sighed and held her in his arms, “Then why do you still want her to go to Monor’s to work? It’s better to keep a distance from her.”

Elena said bitterly, “The most dangerous place is the safest place. I want to see if she still dares to cause trouble under my watch.”

If everything was under her control, no one else would have a chance to take advantage of it. This was the reason why Elena wanted Tina to go to Monor’s to work.

Hearing Elena’s explanation, Ryan laughed out loud, “She really is my wife.”

In this way, he was relieved. It seemed that Elena still cared about him in her heart. Thinking of this, Ryan was somewhat excited in his heart.

Once they returned to the villa, Ryan pulled Elena into his arms and smelled the fragrance on her body.

“Do you know how I resisted when you kissed me? Since you lit up the fire again, it is your responsibility to extinguish it!”

“Ryan, I...” Before Elena could finish her sentence, Ryan sucked her lips and the cloths of her body were pulled open.

Chapter 89 Came to Work Early

The next day, when Elena and Ryan arrived at the office, they saw Tina in a white dress and high heels, waiting for them in the office with her resume.

Elena squatted down and whispered into Ryan’s ears. “Your cousin is so anxious. Last night the time was set for next week, she could not wait and rushed today.”

Seeing Ryan and Elena, Tina walked over, “Cousin, sister-in-law, we agreed to work next week but I want to familiarize myself with work in advance and study as soon as possible. It’s not a problem to come directly in this morning, is it?”

Ryan did not even look at Tina and directly walked to his office, leaving Elena and Ryan outside.

“Sister-in-law, did I disturb you?” Tina lowered her head, feeling wronged. She looked like a child who did something wrong.

At this time, Elsa who was called over by Elena walked over. She saw Tina’s appearance and asked probingly, “What is it? Who is she?”

After being beaten by Elena last time, Elsa felt some fear every time she saw the former. This woman had a huge source of energy which made her not dare to look down upon her.

“This is Ryan’s cousin. In the future, I will give her half of my work. Now, you will teach her how to deal with these matters, just like you taught me back then.” Finishing, Elena gave Elsa a cold glance. Elsa did not dare to look at Elena and brought Tina to an empty room.

“My name is Elsa. I am Director Monor’s assistant.” Elsa looked like she was doing business. With a cold voice, she piled a large stack of folders in front of Tina. “This is the information of Monor group. Your duty today is to finish reading all of them. You can only come into contact with other jobs after you memorize all of them. There shouldn’t be any problem, right?” Elsa asked with disdain in her eyes.

Tina had confidence on her face. “Don’t worry, I will definitely be able to do this job.”

She could also do what Elena could do and she had to do it better than Elena. Only then could she get closer to Ryan.

Elsa was about to go to her work when Tina suddenly called her. “Older Sister Elsa, I have something to ask you. I don’t know if you have some time now.”

“What is it?” Elsa was somewhat impatient. She hated people who lied on their relationship to find a job the most.

“I just want to know, how is my sister-in-law doing in the company?”

“Are you talking about Madam?” Elsa looked at Elena who was busy working in her office.

Nova, who was working at the side, heard their conversation and quietly pricked up her ears to eavesdrop.

“That’s right. Director Monor’s wife is my sister-in-law.” Even though she was very conflicted about this form of address, she still addressed it very politely. She knew that a little impatience could cause chaos in big scheme. She could not reveal her hostile relationship with Elena the moment she entered the company.

Tina did not know how many people stand on Elena's side and how many people could be used by her. So she had to be careful.

"After Madam came to the company, she treated us very well. But why did you ask me? She is your sister-in-law and Director Monor is your cousin. Don't you usually interact with her?"

Elsa frowned and looked Tina alertly.

After Nova heard this, she burst into laughing. "Elsa, I didn't expect you to flatter Madam."

"I'm chatting with someone else. What's up with you?" Elsa looked a little unhappy.

Chapter 90 Who is in Ryan's Lounge?

Nova knew it was boring so she shut her mouth and continue working.

After instructing Tina, Elsa also left. Tina started to flip through the documents in front of her and not long after a strange sound came from her seat.

Elena looked up and saw Tina touch all the documents on the ground but did not bend over to pick them up.

Elena walked up and seized Tina's somewhat pale face, "What's wrong?"

Tina rubbed her forehead. "I was too excited last night and did not sleep well. I left in a hurry in morning and did not eat breakfast. I have some hypoglycemia."

Elena crossed her arms and looked disdainfully at Tina who was sitting on the seat. "You want to go back early?"

Tina waved her hand. "No, no, no, I can insist. After all today is my first of work and I cannot leave."

As she spoke, she held her forehead. She looked very weak, it would make one's heard ache for her.

Elena slightly raised the corner of her lips and patted her shoulder, "I really like a responsible girl like you. Since that's the case, you must persist for a while and return early to have a good rest."

Elena sneered in her heart. This woman really thought that, by pretending weak, she could become an exception in the company and only eat and not work?

“I...”

Tina originally wanted to say that, she did not want to leave the company but she had to find a place to rest. She knew that Ryan's office had a lounge. This way, she could be alone with Ryan.

She did not know if Elena was really impartial or had seen through her thoughts.

Tina wanted to say something but stopped herself. Her face was very ugly and Elena only looked at her silently. She did not say anything and did not leave. After a moment, she opened her mouth and said, “If you really feel uncomfortable... Ryan's office has a lounge. Although you are his cousin, you two are not related by blood. If this were to spread out, it won't be good.”

Tina's heart filled with joy and she immediately pretended to be weak and supported the table. “Sister-in-law, I really feel uncomfortable and feel that I am about to faint. I will go in and lie down, after resting I will come out immediately.”

Elena looked at her disdainfully. She had not even been in the company for two hours and was already in hurry to climb onto Ryan's bed. Tina really did not know the word shame.

“Then I will ask Ryan's opinion, after all he is working.”

Elena walked towards Ryan's office. She did not expect Tina to follow her closely. She deliberately quickened her pace and walked into Ryan's office. Ryan was lowering his head and working seriously.

It was said that men who worked hard were most charming. Tina looked straight to him.

Ryan looked up. “Why are you all here? Do you need something to report?”

“There is something I want to discuss with you.” Elena explained.

Ryan raised his hand. Tina thought he wanted her to sit down, so she sat down on the chair in front of him.

In the end, Ryan only let Elena walk closer and glanced Tina unhappily.

Tina panicked and quickly stood up. “I'm sorry cousin. My body is not feeling well, so I misunderstood what you mean.”

Elena reached out her hand and intimately patted Ryan's shoulder. “Ryan, don't be so cold. Cousin said that she is a little dizzy, why don't you let her lie down on the bed for a while?”

“There is someone inside.” Ryan said lightly.

Not to mention Tina, even Elena was surprised when she heard that.

Thinking about what Ryan had done to her in the lounge, Elena was a little angry. She stood up straight. “Ryan Monor, you are a dignified general manager. How would you explain to the company that you publicly do such a thing that tarnished the atmosphere?”

Elena did expect that Ryan would not even avoid her and directly bring his lover to the company. Elena was angry and sad. She stared at Ryan and asked.
