Chapter 9 The Lewis family's Good Behavior

He wants to blow up the door?

The Lewis family's butler, who was hiding at the door, trembled. He didn't dare to delay and immediately ran to the hall.

He immediately reported everything to the people present.

"What did you say? Ryan actually dared to blow up my door!" Jonathan was shocked when he heard butler's words.

"I want to know if he has the guts to do so! He is a useless person and he is disabled. He will not cause a big commotion." Adeline did not expect Ryan to be arrogant.

Everyone knew what kind of person Ryan was, so they guessed he didn't have the courage to blow up their family's door.

The Lewis family didn't have any familiar ties with Elena. The fact that they closed the door indicated their attitude. They didn't want to see any guests today. The Lewis family didn't expect Elena to insist on coming.

"Master, Madam, even if Ryan Monor's reputation isn't good, he is after all Second Young Master of Monor family. If he really blew up our door, then this matter will have a negative impact on both the families."

The butler reminded them.

Even if they didn't want to see the two people outside the door, it wouldn't be a good idea to close the door.

Amara looked at her nails and said, "You don't need to pay attention to them. Ryan is not strong. He was suppressed by Roman all these years. I want to see what two of them want to do."

Others might be afraid of Ryan but she wasn't. In the future, she would be the mistress of Monor Family!

He was someone who was abandoned by his family. When she married Roman she would have plenty of opportunities to teach a good lesson to Ryan and Elena.

At that time, no matter what they did, she would be able to control them.

The butler wanted to say something, but seeing Jonathan tacitly agreed to Amara's words, he could only do it. He told the people at the door, not to care about the people outside. They only needed to lock the door properly.

"Dad, mom, why did you let me and Ryan marry back then? Even if I marry Roman in future, if the news that I have an engagement with that useless person gets out, I will still be laughed by others!"

Amara's face was full of dissatisfaction. Now, many people knew that she and Ryan were engaged. Luckily, she had spent money to block the news in time. Otherwise, this news would have been spread long ago.

"What do you know? Back then. Ryan was very powerful. He was also an influential figure in Monor family. Unfortunately, a car accident turned him into a useless person, and that was why he wasn't popular in the Monor family for the past few years. But from this, it could be seen that Roman was indeed stronger and more ruthless than Ryan."

Back then, Ryan was very powerful. No one in the H city could defeat him, but he was destroyed by a car accident. If he hadn't become a useless person now, Jonathan would have been very optimistic about his engagement with Amara.

It could be seen that Ryan was not the best candidate for Amara's marriage.

"Amara, how is your relationship with Roman? You must be with him well and not let him be seduced by other women."

"Mom, don't worry. Don't tell me you don't understand your daughter's means! How could he be out of my control?"

Amara was very proud of this. Roman was under her control, and no other woman could get close to him.

"That's good. Remember ..."

Before she could finish her words, there was a loud noise outside. The glass of the villa was shaking.

"What's going on?" Jonathan stood up from the sofa. He had a bad feeling about this.

The butler ran in in a panic.

“Not good. Ryan blew up the door!”

Such a big commotion attracted the attention of the people nearby.

This time, the Lewis family completely lost their face.

“What? Ryan, this useless man, actually dared to do such a thing!” Jonathan was infuriated and immediately ran out angrily.

After Jonathan ran out, he found that the gate had indeed been destroyed. Even the wall had collapsed and ground was in a mess.

“Ryan, what do you want to do? Do you know whose home this is?” Jonathan saw Ryan and the other two standing coldly outside. He was filled with anger.

Ryan’s eyes were calm. When he heard Jonathan’s words, he couldn’t help but speak coldly.

“Lewis family is really good at doing things. Today, my wife and I are going home, but your door is tightly shut. If this matter spread out, I’m afraid that it will bring a negative impact to Lewis family’s reputation.”

“If you do this, the elders of Monor family won’t support you. Ryan, the reputation of the Monor family will be affected as well!”

Jonathan was furious. Although he knew that Ryan had a violent temperament, he never thought that Ryan would really do such a thing. He had completely disregarded his reputation.

“Reputation?” Ryan smiled. “Reputation is just a luxury to me. I don’t care about it anymore.”

He had been humiliated for so many years. He did not care what others thought of him.

“You!” Jonathan was furious. This was the first time he had seen Ryan say something like this.

Ryan could care less about anything, but the Lewis family could not ignore anything. Jonathan said to Elena, “I’m your uncle, after all. Why did you bring your husband to blow up your own family? You have wasted so many years of my care for you!”

Without waiting for Elena to speak, Ryan immediately let out a slight laugh and said, “So you know that you are Elena’s uncle.”

“Ryan, don’t be too impudent.” Jonathan shouted angrily. Ryan was too arrogant.

"I have already blown up the door. What are you going to do with me?" Ryan's cold tone sounded, causing everyone in Lewis family to be stunned.

Jonathan clenched his fists. He had never suffered such grievance before. If he didn't do anything today, the reputation of Lewis family would be completely lost.

Jonathan couldn't help but look at Elena and said in an unhappy tone, "Elena, even if you are married, your surname is still Lewis. Are you going to watch your own family get bullied?"

Elena had already seen the true face of this family. If it wasn't for her mother's illness, she wouldn't even have interacted with the people of Lewis family.

When she was chased out of the house, why didn't she get the proper care from these people?

"Uncle, what you said made me not know how to answer. Today was supposed to be the day I went home. Not only was the door closed but you also pushed all the blame on me. Is this the so called family?"

Elena's words were firm and forceful, without any fear.

No matter what, at a time like this, she had to support her husband.

Elena's voice was choked with sobs. She had suffered a lot in the Lewis family these years. Because of her mother's illness, she could only endure it again and again.

Now that Ryan was willing to stand up for her, what else did she have to worry about?

Ryan once again held Elena's hand. He slowly said, "You throwing a temper at your niece do not show your ability. If you want an explanation, ask me."

Jonathan could not help ridiculing, "You can represent the Monor family? Ryan Monor, don't you know what position you have in the Monor family?"

Ryan raised his eyebrows slightly, and his eyes were filled with coldness.

“Do you think I care about my position?”

Elena heard Jonathan’s mocking tone. She could not help frowning. She knew that her uncle had always bullied the weak and feared the strong. He only cared out profits. Now that he placed the bet on Roman, he would naturally belittle Ryan. She did not think that her uncle would directly mention Ryan’s sore points.

Elena immediately became angry, “Ryan is the legitimate Second Young Master of Monor family. Why can’t he represent Monor family? What you just said is not appropriate.”

Ryan raised his head. His wife actually stood up to protect him. Ryan immediately felt warm in his heart. Ever since his accident five years ago, no one had cared about him like this anymore.

Amara hated Elena’s arrogant manner the most. Her eyes were filled with disgust. Elena really could not differentiate her identity. She actually dared to be arrogant here.

“Elena, what right do you have to speak here? Don’t think that you can do whatever you want just because you marry into the Monor family. In my eyes, you are not worthy of anything!”

Ryan’s expression turned cold. His gaze swept over, “Miss Lewis, if I remember correctly, the person who was betrothed to me was you, right?”

“What nonsense are you spouting!” Amara panicked when she heard this.

Ryan had been staying in the Monor family all day. How could he know about these things?

Ryan said unhurriedly, as if he was stating a fact.

“Back then, the two families only made an engagement. They didn’t specify which daughter of the Lewis family is the one who married you. Now that you are married to Elena, our Lewis family had already completed the agreement!”

Adeline saw that her daughter was panicking and she quickly spoke to defend her daughter. At this moment, she must not let her daughter’s reputation be tarnished.

Jonathan also spoke, “Ryan Monor, you should know your own limits.” With his reputation and status, how could he be worthy of his daughter?

He hoped that his daughter would have a better home.

His words were equivalent to slapping Ryan's face in public!

Elena didn't expect Jonathan to say such insulting words to her husband. Her eyes immediately turned red with anger. She was about to step forward when Ryan held her hand.

Ryan shook his head at her and said calmly, "Xavier, go and give Mr. Lewis a reminder. Tell him who helped Lewis family get through the crisis five years ago and allowed Lewis family to hold on until today."

After Ryan finished speaking, Jonathan felt a little hot on his face. Five years ago, he personally went to Ryan's place and begged him to help Lewis family. At that time, he was in a very sorry state.

It had been so long since this incident happened, but he didn't expect Ryan to say it out loud.

"Ryan, it was you who lent me 30 million back then. I can return this money to you today. I don't want you to say this out loud all the time. It's like our Lewis family owes you!"

Ryan said unhurriedly, "Since my 30 million back then was equivalent to saving the entire Lewis family's company, Mr. Lewis can give me half of the company today. This is the only way you can return the favor I gave you back then."

"Don't bully us too much!" Veins popped out on Jonathan's face. Ryan was really arrogant. He was simply talking in his sleep.

At this moment, a luxury car stopped at the entrance.

The door opened and Roman got out the car. When he saw the scene in front of him, he frowned.

"What happened here?"

"Roman, you are finally here. They are bullying us in front of our house."

Amara saw Roman coming and she had someone to rely on. She immediately ran over to complain as if she had suffered a great grievance.

Roman could not stand seeing his woman being wronged. His face turned cold, "Don't cry, I will seek justice for you."

After he finished speaking, he turned his eyes to Ryan, who was sitting in the wheelchair. He didn't hide the disgust and disdain in his eyes at all.

“It’s not enough for you to lose face at home. What are you doing here? Do you think that you have not embarrassed the Monor family enough?”

His words were very difficult to listen to, and he didn’t even bother to ask about the reason. It seemed like Ryan was worse than a servant in his eyes.

“What is Big Brother doing here? Are you here to be humiliated with me?” Ryan leaned against the wheelchair. His expression was extremely cold, but he didn’t look at Roman.

His indifferent look made Roman’s heart burn. “Ryan, how dare you talk to me like this? I think you don’t want to live anymore!”

Ryan’s expression didn’t change.

“You want to kill me again?”

It was already fortunate that Ryan was able to survive that car accident five years ago. Over the years, he had been framed more than once. Roman must have been involved.

Ryan tilted his head, and his eyes shone with a cold light.

Roman’s expression turned cold. He had never thought that Ryan would say such a thing in front of him.

They were opposing each other, as if they could rush over and knock the other one to the ground in the next second.

Roman had brought a lot of people with him. If they had a conflict at a time like this, Ryan would be the one to suffer. Elena pushed his wheelchair. “Ryan, you are tired. Let’s go back.”

Ryan did not move. He stared at Roman.

Roman’s expression changed slightly. He looked at Elena’s red eyes. She looked like she had suffered a great grievance, but she stubbornly refused to lower her head and admit defeat.

Such a girl could not help but make his heart tremble and his face soften.

“You are Elena? Sorry, I was too busy at work to attend your and my brother’s wedding. Today’s matter was both wrong. Things have already come to this point. You should take my brother home first. The rest of the matters will be handled by me.”

His words were impartial and it made Elena surprised.

This was the first time she had seen Ryan's elder brother. Roman had just heard Amara complain and started to make trouble for his little brother. It could be seen that he would not sincerely help them.

At this time, Elena only wanted to send Ryan back as soon as possible. She could not let him be insulted anymore. Instead, she put on a smile. "I believe that Big Brother will definitely give me and Ryan justice."

"All of you, stop!" Jonathan didn't want to let them go just like that. "You destroyed my family's gate. You want to leave without even apologizing? Do you think our Lewis family is easy to bully?"

Ryan stopped in his tracks. He turned around and looked Jonathan coldly. "Mr. Lewis left me here. Do you want me to blow up your house as well?"
