

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 92

Chapter 92 Difficult Project for Ryan

At this moment, Isaac woke up and looked at them with his messy hair. He had no idea what was going on.

Jackson approached the bed and threw the clothes on him. "Quickly put the clothes on. Didn't you see that sister-in-law is here? You're already so big, yet you still like to sleep naked. Don't you feel ashamed?"

Elena quickly turned back. Other than her husband, she didn't want to see any other men in this kind of situation at all.

She heard Isaac muttering as he put on his clothes. "Just now, you threw yourself on me and wanted to hug me to sleep. When you put on your pants, you turned hostile and didn't recognize me."

"What did you say?" Jackson put his hands on his waist and questioned.

Isaac replied snappily. "Nothing, I said you look good!"

The two of them bickered like a couple with combat power. Elena could not help but laugh secretly.

Jackson looked at Tina who was lying on the ground. She had not woken up for such a long time. It seemed that she had really fainted. He walked over and held her horizontally. He sighed helplessly. Sigh, who asked him to be so gentlemanly.

Unlike Ryan who only had sister-in-law in his eyes, he did not treat other women as people.

Seeing Jackson carrying Tina and walking over, Isaac asked, "Who is this?"

“Ryan’s cousin, that Tina. You have seen her too.” Jackson put Tina on the other side of the bed as he spoke.

Seeing this Isaac stood up abruptly, as if he would get sick as long as he was on the same bed as Tina.

Jackson and Isaac felt that it was very awkward to stay there all the time. They said that they would come and talk to Ryan next time. The two of them walked out of the office and bumped into Elsa who was walking toward them.

When Elsa saw Jackson, she shyly lowered her head. “Mr. Hall...”

“I haven’t seen you for a few days. You have become prettier again.” Jackson was used to dealing with women. He praised and winked at her.

“Mr. Hall, you must be joking.” Elsa lifted her fingers and pulled the hair beside her ear. She could not hide her shyness. As long as one had eyes, they could tell that she liked Jackson.

Isaac rolled his eyes behind Jackson. Jackson, this brat, was flirting with woman again. These women definitely did not know that he would say that whenever he saw beautiful women.

In the office, Ryan looked at Elena and smiled playfully. “Elena, I didn’t realize that you are a jealous person.”

Elena was at a loss. “Sorry, I should believe you.”

Ryan pulled her to sit on his lap. “You are my wife. You don’t have to apologize to me. The angrier you are, the more proof that you care about me, right?”

After that he stretched out his slender fingers and hooked Elena's chin. He wanted to kiss her soft lips. As long as he got close to Elena, he could not resist his desire. No matter where and when, he wanted to swallow this sweetness.

Elena quickly stood up and glanced at the lounge. "It would not be good if other people saw it."

"By the way, Jackson and Isaac came to find you at the same time. Is there something urgent?"

Seeing that Elena was deliberately changing the topic, Ryan did not expose her. In any case, there were plenty of opportunities to eat her.

"They came to find me because of the business that Roman gave me."

Not long ago, Roman gave Ryan a difficult task. If they succeeded, they would offend some old customers. If they failed, it would affect the business of Monor Family.

It was a pity that Roman had spent a lot of effort to find such a task for Ryan.

"I have heard about this project." As Ryan's assistant, Elena had naturally heard about it. Roman doing this deliberately to make things difficult for Ryan.

"What do you think?" Ryan leaned back on the chair and looked at the woman in front of him. Elena did not know as anxious as Jackson and Isaac. She might have a good solution.

Elena lowered her head and thought for a while.

"As far as I know, Monor Group has been in the European market for a few years. Their business channels have been doing well. If we can get this business done, we should have a chance to expand the market. However, in this way, we had to give special treatment to their new customers. At the same time, we would also need to maintain stability for their old customers. Otherwise, the current supply chain would also be cut off, and Monor's business in Europe would be affected. We need to offer a condition that all the old and new customers will accept."

Ryan took out a contract and handed it to Elena. "Take a look."

Elena took it and looked at it. She was surprised. "Why is the price so low? If the old customer knew, they would definitely not let it go."

Ryan nodded. "Roman and the board members have already suggested that the project will be completed within three months. I am now person in charge. If the conditions are not met, the position of general manager may be directly canceled."

"Can't the Board of Directors see that this mission is almost impossible to complete? Besides, if it causes any losses, does Roman not need to take any responsibility?"

With the difficulty of this project, not to mention three months , even if he used half a year, he might not able to solve it.

"Those old guys in the Board of Directors always act according to circumstances. Now, Roman is the president. Who dares to stop him what he wants to do?"

"Then what should we do? If you get your position removed, there will be no place for you in the Monor Family in the future?" Elena did not expect Roman to give such harsh conditions. Now, she did not know what to do.
