They were both sons of Monor family, so why were Charles and Amanda so biased? It was unfair for one son to let the other son reap the benefits of his own business.

“Sister-in-law, what are you listening to? Is it because Big Cousin and Second Cousin were fighting inside?” Tina did not know what was happening inside and asked curiously.

Elena turned around and looked up straight. “It’s nothing. It is inevitable for brothers to quarrel. It will be fine very soon. There is no need for us women to worry. Let’s go.”

It was too late for her to guard against this woman. She didn’t want the later to know the things about Monor Family.

Tina didn’t pursue this matter any further. She was already very close to Ryan. If she caused any trouble, she was afraid that Ryan would be angry with her.

Tina had been very cautious. She had been very careful all the times. Only in this way could she get a firm foothold.

Elena was her sister-in-law after all. Even if she threatend the former as an enemy in her heart, she had to maintain a good relationship with the former on the surface. It would be best if she could curry favor with her and not let her see any flaws.

Elena pushed open the door and walked in. she first looked at Roman then she walked to Ryan.

“Hubby, I’m hungry. Let’s go and eat.”

Roman looked at Elena with a complicated gaze. He did not want to embarrass himself anymore. So he turned around and walked out of the room.

No matter what, he was the president now. He would definitely control the company in the future and get everything he deserved.

Elena closed the door and her voice became somewhat cold, “Why does he always like to find trouble with you? There is something wrong with it! If I see him bullying you again, I’ll definitely get someone to beat him up and teach him a lesson!”

Ryan stared at the close door. He recalled the look Roman had when he looked at Elena.

As a man, he knew very well that Roman’s look indicated that he was interested in Elena.

Damn it!

Roman was eyeing on his woman!

Ryan clenched his fists. There was a hint of ruthlessness in his eyes.

“Don’t talk to him in the future and don’t let him get close to you.”

Elena nodded. Although she didn’t know what Ryan meant, she really did not want to get close to Roman, that scum.

“Even if you didn’t say it, I would not take initiative to get close to him. This kind of cruel and merciless man who can do anything to achieve his goal, I would be annoyed when I see him. I wouldn’t be get close to him at all.”

No one would like a person who could do anything to his family for power.

Furthermore, there was also Tina in the company. She felt there must be something wrong with this woman. Her gaze drifted around Ryan, and she might even interfere at any time.

“Let’s go and eat. You have been tired for the whole day. You have to take care of yourself and rest. Don’t tire yourself.”

When the two of them walked out of the door, they saw Tina still standing at the door. There was a conflicted expression on her face, as if she wanted to say something but stopped herself.

Elena coldly asked her, “You are not leaving yet. Is there something you need?”

Tina lowered her head and spoke somewhat embarrassedly. “I am not familiar with this place and do not know where to eat.”

Elena instantly understood that she wanted to eat with the two of them. But she did not want this scheming woman to follow.

“There is a steamed bun shop downstairs. It is very delicious. You can go there and eat. We will not accompany you there. Bye bye.”

After saying that, Elena pushed Ryan out without waiting for Tina to speak.

Who would be willing to add a light bulb to their meal?
