

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 97

Tina sighed. Elena and Ryan had such a good relationship, so it was unlikely that she could ruin it.

Moreover, Elena seemed to have been guarding against her. The former might have known that she liked Ryan.

After thinking about it, she could not reveal any flaws.

Elsa and Nova happened to walk over and the two of them whispered, "This woman's eyeballs are about to fall on Ryan. Those who do not know would think that she is the real wife. Her skin is really thick."

"That's right. From the beginning, I felt that she did not seem like an honest person. It seems that she is going to snatch the husband from Elena."

"Snatch her husband?" Elsa laughed out loud, "You have underestimated Elena too much. She is as smart as a monkey. She must have seen through it a long time ago."

Nova nodded her head and saw Tina standing there without moving. Her eyes kept looking into the office.

"This woman, could it be that she wants to go in and steal something?"

"May be. People's hearts are not clear."

Not knowing if it was because the two of them were too loud, Tina turned her head and met their eyes.

Tina was stunned for a moment and immediately calmed down. She took the initiative to walk over, "Are you guys going to eat? Can you bring me along? I can treat you guys to something to eat."

“The two of us are going to lose weight. We won’t be having a proper meal in the afternoon. You can go by yourself.”

Elsa did not want to have too much contact with her. Since she knew that she did not have good intentions towards Elena, it was better to stay far away from her in order to avoid unnecessary trouble.

“The bun house Elena mentioned is not bad. You should hurry up and go.”

Tina was a little embarrassed but she did not say anything. She forced a smile and turned around to leave.

After the figure walked far away, Nova glanced at Elsa, “When did I say I want to lose weight? You don’t want to eat lunch and you want me to starve? What if Ryan knows that we are not good to his cousin and starts to investigate?”

Elsa did not have the slightest fear as she lifted her hand and placed it on Nova’s shoulder.

“You are too timid. Don’t you see that Elena does not like Tina at all?”

“What does it have to do with us if Elena does not like her? I am afraid that if Ryan blames us, the two of us will be the first to stand out.”

Although the internal strife in Monor Family was fierce, they wouldn’t allow anyone to bully their relatives, right?

“Anyway, I don’t like her. This woman pretends to be weak, like a purebred green tea bitch! I can’t appreciate it at all.”

Elsa did not like to talk in a roundabout way. She was usually straightforward.

This Tina was eyeing on a married man. And that man was no one but Ryan Monor!

Although they did not like Elena too much, they knew how to weight pros and cons.

Ryan loved Elena too much. And they had all seen it. If they supported Tina and this fell on Elena's ears, their future life in the company would be terrible.

So it was better to support Elena and stand behind as so as to avoid trouble.

And this woman, Tina, she would fell into her own trap sooner or later.
