

Bride Of The Mysterious CEO Chapter 99

Elena was stunned with her eyes wide open.

“Me... Alone??”

She had never experienced such situation before. She didn't even know what to pay attention to during negotiation. If she went alone, she would definitely mess things up. At that time, she would cause trouble for Ryan.

“This won't do, right? Can... Can I do it?” Negotiations were not her forte. She had no confidence at all.

Leonardo Reynolds did not sound like a person to be trifled with. If she offended this mysterious boss, she was afraid that she would not be able to come back alive.

“Don't worry.” Seeing Elena so nervous, Ryan smiled and held her hand.

“I have arranged everything. There will be no danger. You have to believe in yourself. I don't have anyone I can trust right now, so I can only let you go. I believe you have the ability.”

Ryan's eyes were firm. The people of Monor Family would have a whole new level of respect for her after this deal was made.

Elena did not know whether she could do it or not, but since Ryan had already said so, she would definitely give it a try.

If she kept hiding behind Ryan and didn't have the ability to take charge, how could she help him in the future?

“Alright, then I will try, but I don’t know if it will work in the end.”

Ryan and Elena both returned to Villa after work.

Although Elena said that she would try to sign the contract with King, she was not sure if she could do this or not.

If she did any mistake, then she was afraid that the consequences would be unimaginable.

And what about Ryan?

If she failed, what would Ryan do? How would he face Roman in future?

Would Roman kick him out of the Monor Family and the Monor Group?

Countless questions flashed in Elena’s mind which made her nervous.

Mr. Baker came with a bowl of soup. She saw that Elena did not eat anything at all. So she asked worriedly, “Madam, What happened? Why are you not eating anything?”

Elena came back to her senses after listening to Mr. Baker. She looked at her and smiled embarrassedly, “No, no... I was just thinking out something.”

Ryan, who was beside her, saw this and held Elena’s hand. He knew very well what was going on in her mind.

“Don’t worry, you can do it. I believe in my wife’s ability!”

Elena looked at Ryan's eyes. His eyes were like two big black holes which could suck people if they looked into it.

Elena lowered her head. "I know I have to do it. I am just afraid that I will embarrass you."

This was her biggest worry. Ryan was already surrounded by tigers and wolves. She did not want to add more problems for him.

Ryan looked at the woman in front of him thoughtfully. In everything, she first thought about him. Even in this situation she was not thinking that her life would be at risk if something went wrong. But her biggest worry that if she did not succeed, he would be in danger.

"What's wrong?" Ryan was silently looking at Elena for a long time. His gaze made Elena somewhat nervous.

"You can do it!"

After returning to the bedroom, Elena sat on the bed and studied the documents of the negotiation.

Since Ryan trusted her so much, she must not make any mistake. She had to stand out his expectations.

Ryan came out of the bathroom, and saw she was still looking at the documents. He could not bear it anymore. He went to the bedside with his wheelchair and snatched the document from her hand.

"Stop it! You have already analyzed it thoroughly. Get some rest. Don't tire yourself."

Ryan was both sad and touched. She was working so hard just because of him. She was taking so much stress because she didn't want Roman to bully him.

His wife cared about him so much.

Elena listened to Ryan's words and closed the document. When she turned to side, Ryan had already popped himself to the bed.

The bedside lamps were still on. Elena turned off the lamp beside her. She saw Ryan's bedside lamp was also on. So she leaned over to turn off the lamp.

While leaning over, Elena suddenly slipped and fell over Ryan.

She was only wearing a sleeveless, V neck nightgown. And her fair and tender shoulders were exposed.

When she fell over Ryan, her nightgown happened to slip a little lower, and her soft and sexy breasts came to Ryan's line of sight.

Ryan's body tightened and his throat moved violently. Somewhere in his body had already started to harden. His eyes filled with lust and his body also started to heat up.

Damn it! His body reacted so quickly when Elena was around him!

He originally thought that he wouldn't disturb Elena tonight and let her have a good rest. But his body was hitting up more and more and that desire in his body was rising more and more.

He felt like he was in a hot volcano, burning all over and Elena was the cold glacier which could relieve his pain in an instant.

Elena was still unaware of the reactions of the man beneath her. She turned off the lamp and looked at Ryan who was under her. She smiled and lightly kissed him goodnight on his lips.

She didn't have any second thought but her unintentional action made the last bit of rationally of the man vanish.

Just as Elena was about to turn over and get off from Ryan, the man wrapped his hands around her waist and grabbed her, making her stick close to him.

Elena got off guard and directly fell in Ryan's arms. She then raised her head and looked at him in confusion.

"Elena..." Ryan's voice was already very low and hoarse at this moment.

She felt something was not right. Ryan's voice was very hoarse and he was also breathing very heavily. His body seemed to be very hot. Elena then looked at Ryan's eyes. Looking at those burning gazes, Elena suddenly understood what was going on.

"Ryan..."

She blushed and tried to get off from Ryan.

Her soft call made Ryan almost crazy. And finally Ryan could not able to take it anymore and turned over, pressing Elena under him.

Elena caught off guard by Ryan's sudden action. The next moment, her nightgown was pulled open and violent kisses fell all over her body.
