

Campus Master Chapter 1

Chapter 1

The September sun, still blazing hot, that hot sun shines on the streets and people are in a hurry, sweating, not wanting to stay outside for a second longer.

However, for Ji Feng, this season is even colder than winter!

“Let’s break up!”

“Hui Hui, you, what did you just say?” Ji Feng asked in a trembling voice.

“I said, I want to break up with you!” The girl named Hui Hui said indifferently, “Also, from now on, please don’t call me Hui Hui, my name is Hu Xuehui!”

“Why?” Ji Feng asked with an ashen face, “Hui Hui, why is that?”

Ji Feng’s heart felt a twinge of pain and he was almost about to fall over.

Just two months ago, the two of them had made a vow to never part, but a summer had passed and he had heard the decisive words of breaking up, how could he be willing?

The two of them had vowed never to part.

Hu Xuehui and Ji Feng were both senior year students at the same time at the Second Middle School in Mang Shi County, and were in the same class.

Ji Feng is a real person and does not talk much, although his family is in the county, but does not have the flair of those other county students, only slightly worse grades, in the class can only be considered moderate to low.

Hu Xuehui, on the other hand, has a lively personality, is pretty, likes to talk to people, and is the vice president of the class, so she is liked by her male classmates, and a few of them even fight over her.

But in the end, it was Ji Feng, who had always been a man of few words, who got the girl’s heart.

Because they were at the same table, they grew fond of each other over time and secretly developed an underground romance.

However, Ji Feng did not expect that as soon as senior year started, he heard Hu Xuehui's request to break up.

"Why? You still have the nerve to ask me why?" Once Hu Xuehui heard this, her voice couldn't help but raise quite a bit, causing the students passing back and forth around her to turn their heads to look over and sweep up a few times. .com

"Did I do something wrong?" Ji Feng asked with a pale face, his tone almost taking on a pleading tone.

"Ji Feng, it is impossible for us to continue because our future paths are different!" Hu Xuehui said coldly and condescendingly, "Do you think that with your family's condition, you can support you to go to university? With your grades, can you get into university? I'm going to university, and I'll be living in the city in the future, so being with you will only ruin my future!"

"Family?" Ji Feng's face instantly turned pale, still undeterred, he asked, "Didn't I tell you a long time ago that my family was poor, why did you not propose a breakup until now?"

"Why?" Hu Xuehui sneered, her tone full of mockery, "Ji Feng, do you know, I went to my sister's house in Jiangzhou during the summer holidays, do you know how much the house where my sister and brother-in-law live is worth? You just can't even afford a toilet if you work hard all your life, do you know how much the car my sister drives is worth?"

Ji Feng shook his head with difficulty and said, "I will work hard to earn money!"

Ji Feng had heard Hu Xuehui talk about her sister, it was said that her sister was working in Jiangzhou, how come she suddenly became rich now?

"Hmph, hard work?" Hu Xuethui laughed mockingly, "Work hard for how many years? Ten years, twenty years? Or fifty years? I don't want to follow you until I'm about to die of old age before I can afford a house in a big city and drive a car, Ji Feng, in the future you should stop pestering me, but I'm definitely going to go to university in Jiangzhou, by then, we won't be in the same world!"

Ji Feng stared at her blankly, originally that pretty face, was the one that would always blossom the most beautiful smile to him, but now, this beautiful face, was written with condescension, and those moving eyes were filled with indifference.

"Okay, let's break up!" Ji Feng finally nodded his head. Hu Xuehui had already shown the indifference of rejecting people, and his efforts to salvage her were just futile.

In this situation, Ji Feng, who had an inferiority complex inside, chose to preserve the last bit of dignity for himself!

“Also, I’ve already asked the teacher to transfer the seat, and we are no longer at the same table in the future, nor do we have any relationship!” Hu Xuehui said indifferently and turned around condescendingly to leave, not even looking at Ji Feng anymore.

A girl who had been waiting for Hu Xuehui not far away saw that their conversation had ended, so she walked over to accompany her and gradually left.

“Xuehui, your words just now seemed too heavy, that’s not very nice, is it?” From a distance, came the girl’s voice.

“Hmph, that’s considered polite of me to say that!” Hu Xuehui looked angry, “Thanks to him being a city dweller, his family is so poor that they usually don’t even bother to buy me a present, I was really blind in the past, how could I look at him?!”

“Xue Hui, keep your voice down, don’t let Ji Feng hear you!” The girl seemed to feel a bit bad and discouraged.

“What’s the fear of hearing? A poor bastard son is just .....

Boom~~~!

Not far away, Ji Feng heard these words, instantly as if struck by explosive thunder, the whole person froze on the spot, breathing sharply, his face rose red, his eyes almost to spew fire.

illegitimate son ..... illegitimate son ..... wild seed .....

Ji Feng’s teeth were about to be gritted, the veins on his forehead rose high, the whole person almost choked, his fists clenched, unclenched, clenched again, unclenched again .....

Until Hu Xuehui and the girl walked away, Ji Feng finally barely calmed down and smiled ruefully: “bastard ..... wild seeds ..... huh .....

That’s right, Ji Feng is an illegitimate son, to put it bluntly, is a wild seed!

This secret, except for Hu Xuehui, he had never told anyone. Just because Ji Feng was an illegitimate son, his mother was kicked out of the house by his grandparents, and if it wasn’t for the help of good people, their mother and son would have become beggars on the streets, or even starved to death on the streets.

The word bastard became the best joke for other children to laugh at him as a child and stayed with him throughout his childhood.

It was because of his illegitimate status that Ji Feng became inferior and introverted, and even a mocking look from others could make him die of shame.

It was only when he met Hu Xuehui that Ji Feng's personality became a little more open. Because of this, he told Hu Xuehui about his family and his identity.

But he could never have imagined that his poor family became the reason for Hu Xuehui's breakup, while his illegitimate son's identity became the object of her ridicule and disdain!

"Just, just ....."

Ji Feng shook his head, lost his soul and walked towards the outside of the school, smiling sadly: "Private son, I'm just a private son that people laugh at, even the people I love the most, they all mock me with impunity ....."

In the heat of September, there were hardly any pedestrians on the streets, making Ji Feng look even more lonely. The only thing that made this summer less lonely was the TV in the shop next to it playing music and TV shows.

"The latest broadcast, scientists have recently observed a crab nebula in outer space, one billion light years away from our solar system, which emits a surprising gamma-ray flare, the first time a gamma-ray flare has been observed in a cosmic nebula so far. Scientists speculate that the gamma-ray flare is too far away to have an impact on human life ....."

Unbeknownst to the announcer who was broadcasting the news set, just outside the atmosphere, a gamma-ray flare was streaking towards Earth.

Ji Feng was lost in thought, walking aimlessly on the street, being viciously ridiculed by the girl he loved, leaving him heartbroken as if he were dead, as if he had no soul.

Just then, the sunlight in the sky seemed to flicker and a beam of light, invisible to the naked eye, struck Ji Feng's head, causing him to faint on the spot and lose consciousness.
