Chapter 1061

Jung Yoo-soo is here? And very aggressive too?

Hearing Rong Peng and the girl's words, Ji Feng couldn't help but raise an eyebrow, secretly saying, it looks like Zheng Yuxiu is very arrogant here, huh?

"Tell them to get lost!" Rong Peng snorted coldly, his face incomparably gloomy.

"But" The girl in the professional outfit was just about to speak when she was interrupted by Rong Peng.

"There's no buts or no buts, tell them that I said so and tell them to get lost!" Rong Peng said angrily, "In the future, don't even let such uncouth people in the door of the building!"

"This" is, I'll let them go now!" The girl nodded her head with some difficulty.

"Bang!"

Before that girl could go out, the door of the office was pushed open at once, and several people came in with big strides as they fishtailed in.

"Rong Peng, your stance is really not small, you really think you are the chairman of the board?" A person said with a sneer, very harsh, it was none other than Zheng Yuxiu.

At this moment, Zheng Yuxiu's dress was very fashionable, her long hair was permed into big wavy curls and draped over her shoulders, short skirt, high heels, she looked like an incomparably fashionable city girl.

But her face, with a thick sneer and mockery, ruined this beauty of hers, making her appear somewhat sarcastic and mean-spirited.

"Now I'm still the chairman of Rong Peng Group, not just anyone can see me if they want to!" Rong Peng coldly swept a glance at Zheng Yuxiu and sneered, "Especially some uncouth and disrespectful things, old me gets annoyed when I see them."

"You"

Zheng Yuxiu was scolded furiously, but she could not return the scolding, she could only sarcastically say, "Rong Peng, don't be too arrogant, you won't be the chairman for a few days!"

"Even if I only serve for a day, I am still the chairman of the Rong Peng Group, Zheng Yuxiu, you don't have to shout in front of me, even if your mother comes, she still has to call me brother-in-law honestly, who are you to shout in front of me?" Rong Peng scolded angrily.

"You" you" Zheng Yuxiu's face turned red with anger, but she didn't know how to retort, Rong Peng was her elder and her aunt's husband, this was a fact that no one could change, but The cursing and swearing of Rong Peng was just too infuriating.

Ji Feng was watching from the side, but he was secretly amused, this Rong Peng, really deserves to be an old oilman who often rolls around in the jianghu, when it should be gentle and elegant, but when it should be rude, it can also be rude, so that the opponent really can do nothing but dry anger.

In particular, as the chairman of a large conglomerate with tens of billions of dollars in assets, Rong Peng is able to pull off cursing and swearing, not caring about his image at all.

Of course, from this, one could also see just how angry Rong Peng had become!

"Don't point your hoof at me, you little hoof, I'm telling you, you're not allowed to be wild here!" Rong Peng said in a cold voice.

"..... Good, very good!"

Zheng Yuxiu was really pissed off, she sneered and kept nodding her head, "Rong Peng, I see that you are really eager to find death, humph! Fine, then I'll let you see with your own eyes what it's like to have your son's arms and legs broken because of your rascality and arrogance!"

"You"

Rong Suyan jerked up beside her, staring at Zheng Yuxiu with unbridled anger and cursing angrily, "Zheng Yuxiu, did you really do what happened to Bao Gang? Do you have any conscience left? You are simply not human!"

"My dear cousin, you should also watch your words, if you accidentally break a few more ribs for Rong Baogang because of your nonsense, it's not my business!" Zheng Yuxiu hugged her arms and sneered.

"Bitch!"

Rong Suyan's body shook a little in anger, and finally let out an angry rebuke.

Ji Feng, on the other hand, was observing Zheng Yuxiu and his group from the side. There were four people following Zheng Yuxiu, a woman and three men, two of them were bodyguard-like men, and the remaining one, a man and a woman, all looked relatively civilized and should be staff members.

But on their faces, they all wore sneers and condescension, not putting Rong Peng and the others in their eyes at all.

"It looks like the Wu family is bound and determined to get the Rong Peng Group." Ji Feng secretly said, "However, one has to admire the two brothers, Wu Zhiyong and Wu Zhihe, for actually letting Zheng Yuxiu throw his weight around, what a brilliant plan to kill two birds with one stone."

Rong Peng is Zheng Yuxiu's aunt's husband, now that the Wu family has asked Zheng Yuxiu to come forward, it is undoubtedly also forcing Zheng Yuxiu to a dead end, if she agrees to come forward and ask Rong Peng for the entire shareholding, then her face and reputation will be completely ruined, this kind of thing will definitely be spread out, from now on, she will only be able to follow the Wu family's lead, there is no other choice!

Imagine, who would get too close to a vicious woman who could do that to her own family?

Under such circumstances, there was no possibility for Zheng Yuxiu to separate from the Wu family.

On the other hand, if Zheng Yuxiu did not agree, she would never be able to gain the trust of the Wu family and there would be a lump between her and the Rong family Zheng Yuxiu could only grit her teeth and agree.

Let Zheng Yuxiu to negotiate with Rong Peng, in the case of Zheng Yuxiu pull down the face, she can say anything, Rong Peng how wise, I'm afraid can not resist a woman's nonsense, especially that woman also has the advantage of the situation.

"Without really using official power to suppress Rong Peng, having Zheng Yuxiu step in is indeed the best way to go!" Ji Feng could not help but shake his head and secretly snicker: "Both to ask for equity and the Wu family does not fall into the mouth, really treacherous ah"

"Rong Peng, I came today to remind you that three days, counting today, you only have three days."

Zheng Yuxiu stretched out three fingers and waved them in front of him, sneering, "You also do not take your status to show off in front of me, within three days, I want to see in the equity transfer agreement, with your name, otherwise do not need me to remind you, the consequences should be clear to you!"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Rong Peng's face was gloomy as he stared coldly at Zheng Yuxiu, the anger in his eyes burning brightly.

"You don't need to look at me like this either, informing you again and again now, this is already giving you enough face. If you give shame, the consequences are not something you can bear, so I advise you, better put a little wiser, you yourself are not afraid, but, think about your family"

Zheng Yuxiu is not afraid of Rong Peng's gaze in the slightest, smug and full of threatening meaning said.

She already despised this businessman's aunt, feeling superior to him, and now that she has torn her face off, it's natural to talk about even less fear.

"Zheng Yuxiu, get out of my house, get out of my house immediately!" Rong Suyan was furious and stood up sharply, pointing at Zheng Yuxiu and scolding him angrily.

"It's easy to want me to leave, sign the equity transfer agreement However, I think at that time, the person who should get out, should be you guys?" Zheng Yuxiu's gaze was filled with mockery as she stared at Rong Suyan, "Of course, you can also go back and beg to Zhihe, I think he would remember the old love between you two, right? LOL"

"Tsk~~!"

At this moment, an abrupt voice suddenly sounded, "I've seen shameless people, but I've never seen such shameless people, this is really a big world full of strange things Zheng Yuxiu, you are the children of leading cadres, but now you come to force people to hand over their hard-earned achievements Not only is it shameless, but, it's also out of order, right?"

Ji Feng slowly stood up and looked at Zheng Yuxiu with a smirk, "Especially, you actually used a threatening language, is this any different from a rogue landlord?"

Ji Feng's voice was somewhat abrupt, causing Zheng Yuxiu to not even react for a moment. In fact, at the beginning, Ji Feng was sitting with his back to the office door, so Zheng Yuxiu had not noticed Ji Feng at all as soon as he came in and made a big show of authority and threatened Rong Peng.

Besides, even if he had noticed it, he would have only seen a back, so of course he would not have thought that Ji Feng would appear here, because she knew very well that only some time ago, Ji Feng had hospitalized Wu Zhihe in Jiangzhou, so how could he suddenly appear in Yuezhou?

Therefore, Zheng Yuxiu was stunned for a moment before she recognized that this person was actually Ji Feng, and she instantly changed her face slightly, "You, how come you are here?"

"Oh"

Ji Feng smiled blandly: "Miss Zheng, I think you are a bit too broad-minded, aren't you? Do I still need to report to you on where I am?"

"You" Zheng Yuxiu choked.

She was a little flustered in her heart and a little angry at being squeezed by Ji Feng, but she soon calmed down.

"Ji Feng, this is a matter between us and the Rong family, there is no qualification for you to interfere. Besides, don't think that just because you are a member of the Ji family, you are overstepping in everything that is idle. Let me tell you, this Rongpeng Group was not originally owned by Rongpeng, there was an agreement at the beginning of the group's establishment that had already divided the equity relationship of the Rongpeng Group, even if you take the lawsuit to Yanjing, you won't win!"

Zheng Yuxiu said openly and smugly, "So I advise you to get things straight before you meddle! Don't fail to mind your own business and get yourself into trouble."

"Oh?"

Ji Feng raised an eyebrow and smiled lightly, "If my understanding is correct, that agreement, it also seems to indicate that Rong Peng holds 30% of the shares, right?"

Zheng Yuxiu's face changed, and then he sneered, "Thirty percent of the shares? I'm afraid you don't know that the agreement you mentioned only stated that Rong Peng owned 30% of the shares of the original Rong Peng Company, not the current Rong Peng Group!"

"Is that so?" Ji Feng frowned, "Isn't the predecessor of the Rong Peng Group, the Rong Peng Company? Is there a difference between the two?"

Just as his words came, the corner of his eyes glanced over and saw that the eyes of Rong Peng beside him changed slightly.

Ji Feng's heart, then a sigh

Chapter 1062

When Rong Peng's eyes changed, Ji Feng immediately understood in his heart that what Zheng Yuxiu said was most likely true!

Otherwise, Rong Peng would not have such a look in his eyes, and if Zheng Yuxiu was talking nonsense, then he should also refute it, it was impossible for him to be so silent.

"Rong Peng, you only have three days, by the wee hours of the night after tomorrow, if you haven't signed the equity transfer agreement, we'll go through the legal process then, and by then, you'll have to hand over the equity just the same." Seeing that even Ji Feng did not say anything, Zheng Yuxiu became even more smug as she held her head high and glanced at Ji Feng again before she hummed, "No one can stop it!"

After saying that, she smiled triumphantly, then turned around and left.

Rong Peng's face was blue, and Rong Suyan was even more furious as her body trembled, her beautiful eyes almost spitting out fire.

"Oh yes" Zheng Yuxiu, who had just reached the door, suddenly stopped again, she turned around and looked at Rong Peng mockingly: "If we have to wait for us to get our equity back through legal proceedings, maybe our patience will be dragged out by you gone, by then, there might be a situation you don't want to see emerge, I think it must be very unpleasant to have your arms and legs broken"

She then cackled and turned to stride away, the high heels snapping on the floor, as harsh as her laughter.

"The matter of equity can be discussed separately." Ji Feng suddenly spoke up.

"What?"

Zheng Yuxiu jerked to a halt and turned to look at Ji Feng, asking smugly, "Ji Shao, Ji Gongzi, I didn't hear what you said, how about repeating it?"

"Oh" sure!"

Ji Feng was exasperated by Zheng Yuxiu's arrogant look, he nodded and repeated again, "I said, regarding the issue of Rong Peng Group's equity, we can talk about it separately. However, if anything happens to Rongbao Gang in prison, I will pursue it to the end, and by then some people will have more than just their arms and legs broken, maybe their faces will be smashed!"

"Is that so?"

Zheng Yuxiu is unconcerned, "Ji Shao, frankly speaking to you" this joke of yours is not funny! Although the Ji family's power is big, but it is not able to cover the sky with one hand, in fact there are many people that you can't scare!" See you later!"

"PAP PAP PAP!"

The sound of high heels on the floor rang out again as Zheng Yuxiu giggled and walked out of the chairman's office, her voice gradually fading into the corridor.

However, the piercing laughter seemed to still echo in the ears of Ji Feng and the others.

"Bang~~!"

A teacup was dropped on the floor and shattered.

"I, Rong Peng, have really accumulated eighteen fucking lifetimes of virtue, to actually have such a day!" Rong Peng's face was iron blue and he gasped sharply, "A little hoof, to dare to talk to me like that, this time it's good that he didn't point his nose and scold me, huh"

"Dad, take it easy, it's not worth getting so angry over this kind of person, your body is important!" Rong Suyan hurried to comfort Rong Peng, "This kind of person is just a villain."

"A villain's ambition" is, indeed, a villain's ambition!"

Rong Peng laughed in anger, "Just such a villain, such a little hoof, can actually just spill his guts in my place, can point his finger at my nose and scold me, can ride on my head and shit and piss! What kind of a villain must be to do such a thing! How miserable must I have been to end up in this situation!"

Rong Suyan could not help but be silent, her heart saddened.

She knew that her father was proud. He had never bowed down to anyone in his life, and he had his own pride and self-respect.

However, for his own sake, his father had given in and even acquiesced to the fact that he was Wu Zhihe's lover. At that time, Rong Suyan knew that his father was actually having a hard time in his heart. Then there was the fact that this time, for the sake of his younger brother, and also for himself and his mother, his father did not choose to commit suicide, but endured the bullying of the Wu family, even being pointed at and scolded by his own juniors, and he endured it all.

For the sake of his family, his father gave up all his dignity and pride"

"Some people" bounce around too much." Ji Feng paused before saying indifferently, "When a villain gets his way, there will always be a day when he falls."

"Maybe there will be that day."

Rong Peng couldn't help but shake his head slightly, "But, I don't know if I can wait for that day!"

His words were full of depression and despondency, and also had a strong sense of loneliness.

The Wu family was too powerful, a family like this would prosper for many more years, and now that Zheng Yuxiu had followed Wu Zhihe, it would be difficult even if he wanted to fall into disrepair.

Rong Peng even doubts that until the day he dies, he may not be able to see Zheng Yuxiu fall from grace.

That day" may come very, very long before it comes, perhaps never.

“Mr. Rong should not be too pessimistic either.” Ji Feng smiled faintly, “As the saying goes, happiness breeds sorrow and complacency, a family that seems to be flourishing now may not be able to continue to exist forever, and a villain who is gaining power now may not be able to stay in power forever. As the saying goes, things are in the hands of the people!”

“Things are in the hands of the people” Rong Peng shook his head slightly and sighed softly, “Perhaps, it’s that things can’t be done.”

He certainly understood Ji Feng’s meaning, if he couldn’t wait for the day when the Wu family naturally declined, and the day when Zheng Yuxiu fell, then he would rely on his own hands and let them fall!

However, how powerful is the Wu family, and is it that easy to deal with?

With Rong Peng’s current power, not to mention dealing with the Wu family, even the Zheng family, where Zheng Yuxiu was, would be able to easily crush him to death. It was only because he was still the chairman of the Rong Peng Group, and if they were to lay hands on him, it would cause great social repercussions, that the other party did not dare to lay hands on him.

But what should he do about his own family?

How else could one fight against them with such a disparate power comparison?

When he thought of all the hard work he had put in over the years to bring the Rong Peng Group from a small company to this glorious point today, but after more than ten years of hard work, he had become destitute in one day, and even more so, he could not fight against the Wu family, Rong Peng felt even more lonely and desolate.

Seeing Rong Peng’s expression, Ji Feng knew that Rong Peng was discouraged, this is not good, once a person has no energy, no energy, then this person is also ruined.

Once a person like Rong Peng, who is an absolute powerhouse in business and has been reigning over the world for most of his life, is discouraged, the decay will be faster and more complete. If he wanted to recover, it would be almost impossible, and his life would be over.

Naturally, Ji Feng would not watch Rong Peng’s decadence continue, and he laughed: “I don’t agree with Mr. Rong’s words. I think that as long as you have the belief and the courage to act, there is nothing in this world that cannot be done! So what if the Martial Family? So what if we lose the Rong Peng Group?”

Looking at Rong Peng’s somewhat surprised expression, Ji Feng said proudly, “Mr. Rong, to say the least, you may not quite believe it, after the Wu family boss was sniped, what I have to face is the full-scale counter-attack of the entire Rong Peng Group. But at that time, what I can use is only a billion or so dollars, the rest, nothing.”

Rong Peng nodded unconsciously, he certainly understood more about the energy that the Rong Peng Group had, a billion or so dollars indeed sounded like a lot already, and to many people it was an astronomical figure. But in front of the Rongpeng Group, this amount of money is really not enough to see.

The Rongpeng Group has a huge amount of money that is frighteningly large, and there is no shortage of talent, even for employees who have been fired by the Rongpeng Group. Not to mention the fact that Rong Peng Group has a very good vision and a robust industrial chain, which are far from being comparable to other companies.

If it wasn’t for these advantages, Rongpeng Group wouldn’t be known as the leader of private enterprises in Southern Guangdong.

“Even so, I have never been afraid, let alone thought of using official power to confront the Rongpeng Group!”

Ji Feng said forcefully, “Because I believe that I can do it myself! I totally have this bottom and this confidence to dissolve all of the Rongpeng Group’s offensive, and even I have thought about how many years it would take to bring down the Rongpeng Group! I am definitely not joking or bragging, I really thought about it this way!”

“If Mr. Rong doesn’t believe it, we can wait and see, the Red Light Company under the Rongpeng Group is preparing to invest in building an electronic component production base in Huahe County, right?” Ji Feng said, “I can put down the word right here, when this electronic component production base is completed, it will be the beginning of the sniping of the Red Light Company!”

“What?” Rong Peng couldn’t help but be shocked.

“Yes it is a bit.” Rong Peng admitted frankly, “Red Light is not small, and it’s all open in terms of channels, so it should be a bit difficult to snipe”

“What if I really do?” Ji Feng asked.

“That would be awesome.” Rong Peng said, “Needless to say nothing else, just this kind of verve of Ji Shao alone is not something that ordinary people can compare to.”

“I am also just an ordinary person, Mr. Rong, you should stop giving me high hats!” Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile, and then said, “I am only saying this to ask Mr. Rong, even a young man like me, who doesn’t know the sky is high, dares to take on the Rong Peng Group hard, so why, Mr. Rong, have you lost your confidence now instead, after spending most of your life in the business world?”

“Mr. Rong, what I want to ask most is, Mr. Rong, who once reigned over the business world, do you still have the confidence now? Do you still have that guts?” Ji Feng asked with a solemn expression.

Rong Peng was stunned and his eyes flickered for a few moments, but in a whirlwind, he fell silent again.

Campus Master Chapter 1063-1064 -

Chapter 1063

After a long time, Rong Peng said, “Young Ji, I have the guts, but this confidence”

He couldn’t help but shake his head and smile bitterly: “To be honest, the Wu family is powerful, not something I can resist, even if I still have the Rong Peng Group in my hands, I have no way to resist them. I think you know very well how the business situation in the country is, so Ji Shao, and I'm not afraid of you laughing, if the other side is a huge business empire, then I'm not even afraid in the slightest, but, now we have to face the Wu family ah!"

Ji Feng then understood, Rong Peng this is unable to imagine how to confront the Wu family.

In fact, if you think about it, it's true that in China, to do small business, you may not need any network of connections or background, just to live in the muddy sky or to support your family, which is very simple.

But if you want to do big business, if you want to rise to the top, if you don't have a background, if you don't have a backstage, then really don't even think about it.

The biggest advantage of the Wu family is their huge energy in the political world, and this alone is enough to make Rong Peng lose his confidence to fight against them.

This is because the ability of Rong Peng to rise quickly in just a decade or so and reach this point is certainly outstanding, but the assistance of the Wu family behind the scenes has definitely played a significant role as well.

Therefore, Rong Peng may have a clearer understanding than many people of what will happen if he goes against a family that has great power in the political world!

"The Wu family is indeed very powerful, however, there is a limit to how powerful they can be, and they also have to abide by certain rules, so they don't dare to act recklessly, and I won't allow them to do so either."

Ji Feng laughed: "Losing the Rongpeng Group is no big deal, but losing confidence is the most frightening thing! Since they took away the Rongpeng Group, then Mr. Rong, don't you just build another group, I think, not only should you build a second group, but also destroy this Rongpeng Group that they took away from you, destroy him with your own hands, to make their bamboo basket empty!"

At the end of the sentence, his hand was raised high and slashed downwards, looking extremely imposing.

Ji Feng's entire person, too, looked atmospheric and arrogant!

Rong Peng's body couldn't help but shake slightly as he jerked his head up and looked at Ji Feng.

Ji Feng smiled and said: "Mr. Rong, I think you don't want to just put up with being bullied, do you? Since that's the case, what else is there to say, resist! As for the Martial Family, you don't have to worry about this, the Martial Family also has to follow the rules, no one can overshadow the sky with one hand, if they go too far, someone will naturally come out and speak up."

Rong Peng was silent for a long time before he looked up at Ji Feng and asked, "Young Ji, I do want to take revenge, but, I am now left with nothing."

"How can you have nothing?"

Ji Feng smiled and pointed at himself, then pointed at Rong Suyan who was sitting next to him quietly listening to his conversation with Rong Peng, and smiled, "If you want, I can provide you with everything you need here, and your daughter Suyan has a venture capital company there, so these are enough. Of course, what I would like most is for you to come to me."

"What Young Ji means is that I should go and help you?" Rong Peng couldn't help but frown slightly, "But Ji Shao, I'm sorry, it's not that I'm not willing, but I've already suffered a big loss here in the Wu family, so I"

"I know, once bitten by a snake, ten years afraid of a well rope!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly and said, "But I didn't say that you should help me either, what I mean is that we can cooperate with each other, of course, not with me either, but with my friends. Of course, if you mind very much, you can also let Su Yan work with my friend."

"The most crucial question now is, do you still have that guts and confidence to launch an attack on the Rongpeng Group with a very small company that will be snatched away from you in the future?" Ji Feng's expression became very solemn again and asked seriously.

"Launch an attack?" Rong Peng couldn't help but laugh, "Ji Shao, you use this word very well, is to launch an attack, attack the city, and eventually rush the Rong Peng Group to its death!"

"Then" Ji Feng raised his eyebrows, "the matter of cooperation, we can talk about it?"

"Of course you can please sit down." Rong Peng laughed, "Frankly speaking, after making a decision, that is really a relief, think about this time being forced by that little hoof of Zheng Yuxiu, really anxious I jumped to my feet!"

Rong Peng is indeed truly relieved, Ji Feng's open invitation, so that his heart not only rekindled the fighting spirit, but also a big stone in his heart also fell to the ground.

In fact, before this, Rong Peng was still a bit hesitant about whether to lean over. After all, for Rong Peng, he is now equivalent to a big trouble, the people of the Wu family do not treat him well and may even deal with him after taking back the Rong Peng Group.

Under such circumstances, Ji Feng might not really dare to accept this person who was hated by the Wu family.

But what Rong Peng did not expect was that Ji Feng did not put up any front at all, and was worried about his situation; he was obviously inviting himself sincerely.

Nonetheless, Ji Feng even subconsciously showed the kind of bravado he had and his arrogant character. It was this that made Rong Peng feel that Ji Feng was definitely much better than Wu Zhihe or even Wu Zhiyong.

Of course, if that was all, it might not be quite enough, but if you added Ji Feng's origin, then everything would be enough.

Rong Peng knew that if he wanted to take revenge, the young man in front of him, who had an arrogant personality, might be his only hope, and not only that, Ji Feng would probably be the best thing for his daughter to rely on. However, I just don't know if Ji Feng has a girlfriend now.

Honestly, Rong Peng does not want his daughter to still go to people as a lover, but thinking about his daughter's relationship with Wu Zhihe once, he can't help but have some headaches

Daughter can now fall in love again, but, if the other party knows what she once experienced, will they have any idea

In this instant, quite a few thoughts flashed through Rong Peng's mind.

"Mr. Rong, just now Zheng Yuxiu mentioned that the distribution of equity in the Rongpeng Group seems to be based on the original Rongpeng Company?" As the two sat down again, Ji Feng took out a cigarette and lit it for each of them before he asked.

"Speaking of this, I can only say that I was confused at the time." Once the issue of shareholding was brought up, Rong Peng could not help but shake his head and smile bitterly, "At that time, when Rong Peng Company was first established, there was indeed a private agreement that marked that I had 30% of the shares of Rong Peng Company, of course, nominally all the shares of the company were under my name, in reality what happened, I think you are also very clear."

Ji Feng nodded and smiled, Rongpeng Group was actually the hidden asset of the Wu family, this was certainly clear to him.

"Originally, if according to the agreement, even if the Rong Peng Group was formed later, I should still have 30% of the shares." Rong Peng said, "However, at that time when the group was formed, the equity was not just mine alone, there were other individuals who also took shares, and one of the bigwigs from the Wu family also spoke up, at that time I was also riding a tiger, so I did not insist on making a note!"

Rong Peng shook his head, "So, at that time, there was just the original shareholding division agreement, stating whose shares would be put under my name, as for my own real shares, that is, after shaving off everyone else's shares, what was left, that was mine."

"But it didn't occur to me that no one would admit it now once the tables were turned, Rong Peng Group and Rong Peng Company are simply two different enterprises, and although the legal person is both me, according to that previous agreement, the shares that I can really get are only 30% of the shares that the original Rong Peng Company holds in the group." Rong Peng said.

Ji Feng then understood, that is to say, the current Rong Peng Group was actually a joint venture between several parties, and the original Rong Peng Company, in which it was considered a shareholder.

Then, the shares that Rong Peng could own now were 30% of the shares held by Rong Peng Company. The original result of their negotiation was that Rong Peng would take up 30% of the shares of the Rong Peng Group!

The difference is not small when comparing inside and outside.

"So, does Rongpeng have a big share in the group?" Ji Feng asked again.

"It is not small, Rong Peng Company accounts for more than sixty percent of the shares in the current Rong Peng Group." Rong Peng said, "And what I take up is only thirty percent of that sixty percent, which is nearly twenty percent!"

"That's not bad at all." If we calculate the total assets of the Rong Peng Group, this one-fifth of the shares would be worth billions of dollars, right? No wonder the Wu family wants to take back their entire shareholding, they should be very reluctant to share one-fifth of their shares with you."

"Humph!"

Rong Peng couldn't help but snort coldly, "They don't want to give up? Then they are going to sit back and enjoy the fruits of my hard work, and even take away my share, so I can give it up? In a word, they are unreasonable, and we have nowhere to go, so we can only hold our noses and admit it!"

Ji Feng slowly took two puffs of his cigarette before saying, "That's not quite true, since you have nearly one-fifth of the shares, you should take it back."

"How can I get it back?"

Rong Peng shook his head and said, "When Rong Peng was established, there were two agreements signed, one was a share entrustment agreement, which stated that 70% of the shares of Rong Peng belonged to an offshore company, only that they entrusted me to take care of it. The other agreement was for my 30% shareholding. However, that 70% shareholding agreement is legally valid, while my 30% shareholding agreement, which was signed privately, is not legally valid at all"

"Offshore company?"

Ji Feng couldn't help but be slightly stunned, and then sneered, "Needless to say, this offshore company must have been registered by someone sent by the Wu family, right? What they did was really stealthy, and they actually came up with this method in order to avoid suspicion. No wonder Zheng Yuxiu dared to come so righteously to ask for the equity"

Chapter 1064

Ji Feng did not expect that the Wu family would use the method of entrusting the equity to Rong Peng as an escrow agent for the offshore company, which not only cleverly avoided all the regulations, but was also reasonable and legal, so that no one could pick any fault.

What's more, the Wu family is so sophisticated that they signed such a shareholding agreement many years ago, allowing the 70% of the shares to be held in the name of the offshore company and entrusting it to Rongpeng. The remaining 30% of the shares were signed privately with Rong Peng, making Rong Peng a real chicken-and-egg loser.

It's no wonder that Zheng Yuxiu was so arrogant and said that even if the lawsuit went to Yanjing, Rong Peng would still lose, but now it seems that the Wu family has a backhand to do things, and they also have a legal basis, reasonable and legal, it's strange if the lawsuit is not won!

"Mr. Rong, I'm a little confused, since you know that the 70% of the shares are reasonable and legal, and not yours, then the remaining 30% of the shares, how come there is only a private agreement signed, but not" Ji Feng was a little confused.

This private agreement is not legally valid at all, this is something Rong Peng shouldn't not understand, ah? Then how could he still make such a mistake?

“Of course I know this.” Rong Peng nodded and said, “The reason I didn’t seriously count on this matter was based on two willingnesses. Firstly, the agreement I signed with that offshore company was conditional, that is, when the other party wanted to take back their equity, they had to have my consent and both parties had to negotiate, if I didn’t agree, they wouldn’t be able to take back their equity!”

“Secondly, that the remaining 30% of the shareholding will be under my name.” Rong Peng said, “Under such circumstances, how would I deliberately bother about whether or not the agreement for that 30% equity stake is legally valid?”

“That’s true!”

Ji Feng tapped his head and laughed, “Look at this brain of mine, I’ve been confused by the roundabout

“Hehe

Rong Peng laughed, “Simply put, right now, as long as I don’t agree, they can at most take that thirty percent or so of Rong Peng Group’s equity because it’s someone else’s share and I have no right to interfere. However, this remaining sixty percent or so of shares, no one can touch it!”

Ji Feng nodded slightly, Rong Peng had already said before that when the Rong Peng Group was formed, there were other people who had shares, and in fact, the shares that he and the Wu family’s people had in the Rong Peng Group was this sixty percent or so.

“So in that case, in fact even if you don’t hand over that thirty percent of the equity, no one can do anything to you, right?” Ji Feng asked, “This thirty percent of the original equity, which is also just about one-fifth of the Rongpeng Group’s shares, is simply yours, and in terms of the proper way, there is no reason at all for the Wu family to snatch it away, is there?”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but be a little puzzled again, “Then why did you say before that you actually had nothing?”

“My son is still in prison,” Rong Peng said bitterly.

Ji Feng was then silent, it turned out that what Rong Peng was really afraid of was not any contract or agreement or anything like that, but his son who was still in prison.

It could be foreseen that if Rong Peng did not hand over all the equity, what kind of treatment his son would encounter in prison. The mere thought of that scenario was enough to make one’s scalp tingle, not to mention the fact that it was his own son who was being abused at hand.

What’s more, even if he had been abused, he wouldn’t have been able to find the Wu family’s head, and in a place like prison, there were far too many people willing to come out and take the blame.

Therefore, Rong Peng could only choose to go soft!

“Actually, I once thought that as long as I could get Bao Gang out and be able to send the three of them out, I would immediately kill myself!” Rong Peng said in a deep voice: “As I said earlier, there was a condition in my agreement with that offshore company, that they must have my consent if they want to take back their equity, and if I die, they won’t be able to take back their equity

“Then all the equity, will all fall into the hands of Suyan and the three of them!” Rong Peng shook his head and sighed softly, “Unfortunately, it’s a bad move, ah, I didn’t expect that Bao Gang had already been confined and wouldn’t be able to leave.”

“It was Zheng Yuxiu who did it!” Rong Suyan sneered from the side, “I really don’t know whether I should hate her or thank her.”

If Zheng Yuxiu hadn’t brought Bao Gang under control, then I’m afraid they would have gone abroad by now, and their father, Rong Peng, would have committed suicide. From this perspective, this vicious act of Zheng Yuxiu’s was the one that saved Rong Peng’s life.

However, this was not Zheng Yuxiu’s intention, she wanted to control Rong Baogang to force Rong Peng to hand over his entire shareholding, even without any regard for his relatives’ feelings.

In that respect, Rong Suyan simply hated Zheng Yuxiu to the bone!

“Some people want to cover the sky with one hand, they have to see if their hands are that big first!” Ji Feng shook his head and smiled mockingly, “Mr. Rong, you don’t have to worry about your son’s place, don’t look at Zheng Yuxiu jumping around so happily, she is just a clown. Not only that, in addition to that, you will definitely get back your nearly one-fifth of the equity.”

“Good!”

Rong Peng nodded heavily, “Since you are so confident, how can I hold back? Young Ji, as long as I can get back all the share that belongs to me, I will have the confidence to rise again from the east, just like you said, I will destroy Rong Peng Group with my own hands, that is my heart and soul, I will definitely not let others snatch it away even if I destroy it!”

Ji Feng nodded with a smile and said, “With this word from you, I am completely at ease.”

“Didn’t that little hoof of Zheng Yuxiu only give us three days? Then, I’ll compete with her.” Rong Peng sneered, “I’ll first transfer all this equity that doesn’t belong to me, to her, but the share that belongs to me, if she wants to snatch it away, she’ll have to think hard about it.”

He turned his head to Rong Suyan and said, “Suyan, you will go back to Jiangzhou tomorrow, first set up some properties, especially real estate, to set up, we are leaving Yuezhou.”

“Leave Yuezhou?” Rong Suyan was stunned.

“Yes, there are people from the Wu family everywhere here, if we are here, then we are still at the mercy of others?” Rong Peng said, “Let’s go to Jiangzhou, there, I’ll use the shareholding that belongs to me and play well with the Wu family. Anyway, if we want to smooth out all the assets of the Rong Peng Group, it will be enough to keep them busy for a while, and we have all the time in the world to start preparing.”

Looking at her father, who had renewed his fighting spirit and was full of high spirits, Rong Suyan could not help but nod happily, “Yes! I’ve already bought two villas in Jiangzhou, both in my own name, and they have nothing to do with the Rong Peng Group, so you and my mother can go there anytime.”

Rong Peng rubbed his hands together and said in a hard voice, “The Wu family crossed the river to tear down the bridge, we can’t just go along with them like that!”

Ji Feng saw him like this, also can’t help but secretly nod, such a business lord, finally did not sink down on this, but renewed the high fighting spirit, in the future the Wu family can really have a headache.

If the two of them are determined to attack the Rong Peng Group, it is not easy to say who will win and who will lose.

Especially, Rong Peng’s hand also holds as much as one-fifth of Rong Peng Group’s shares, which is a huge amount of money!

“Ji Shao” Rong Peng stood up, came to Ji Feng’s front and extended his hand, “Thank you! If it wasn’t for you, I’m afraid that my old bones would be decrepit from now on, even if I still have the will to fight, but without your help, I wouldn’t have that confidence to fight against the Wu family!”

Ji Feng laughed, “That’s what I should do, Su Yan and I are already friends, besides, I have some problems with the Wu family, the enemy of an enemy is a friend.”

“Good point.” Rong Peng nodded and said solemnly, “Ji Shao, it’s still too early to mention the matter of cooperation, and I won’t give you a blank cheque, after I get my family settled in Jiangzhou, we can talk about cooperation again, of course, as long as you don’t mind my old bones!”

Ji Feng nodded and laughed, “I’m not that confused, besides, Mr. Rong, you’re not old at all, you’re still in your prime, you can struggle for at least another twenty years!”

Rong Peng laughed happily, “Young Ji, if you don’t mind, just call me Old Rong, don’t call me Mr. Rong, Mr. Rong.”

“That’s out of order, I’m friends with Su Yan, let’s call you Uncle Rong.” Ji Feng smiled, “You should also stop calling me Ji Shao, just call me by my name, Ji Feng. Or you can call me Xiao Feng, that’s what everyone in my family calls me.”

“Little Feng!”

Rong Peng laughed harshly, “It’s time for us to join forces and give the Wu and Zheng families a headache.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but smile slightly, yes, he and Rong Peng joining forces could definitely give the Wu family a headache for a while.

“Right Little Feng, I heard Su Yan talk about it, your friend also has a group under his name right?” Rong Peng suddenly remembered something and said, “The group has just been established, so it must be hard to keep up with the talent in management, right? If you don’t mind, you can stay in Yuezhou for two more days. I’ll call a meeting with all the senior and management staff of the group, and you can pick whichever one you like.”

Ji Feng was stunned: “Uncle Rong, you are”

“Since this group is on the verge of not belonging to me anymore, then I have nothing to be polite about.” Rong Peng coldly snorted, “Over the years, I have painstakingly cultivated a large group of talents, now it is just the right time to take them away together, this is also my first step to start a war with the Wu family!”

“Uncle Rong, really let me pick?” Ji Feng couldn’t help but ask with a smile, but there was an unstoppable joy in his heart.

Campus Master Chapter 1065-1066 -

Chapter 1065

“Uncle Rong, really let me pick?” Ji Feng couldn’t help but ask with a smile.

“Of course I’ll let you pick.” Rong Peng laughed, “The Rong Peng Group will soon cease to belong to me, so why would I want to leave so many talents for others? What’s more, since I have decided to rise again, I likewise need a strong team. So even if you don’t pick them, I will still take them all away.”

“Ha! That’s really great!” Ji Feng laughed, with an unstoppable joy in his heart.

Originally, Ji Feng had been considering the fact that the Tengfei Group lacked a large number of management talents, and going through headhunters could only solve the pressing problem, but the Tengfei Group had been expanding rapidly, with Xiao’s Pharmaceutical Factory, Changhe Pharmaceutical Company, Tengfei Network and Tengfei Investment Company

It can be said that, apart from the original Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, which still has barely enough talent, several other companies under the Tengfei Group are seriously short of talent.

And as the group expands, the talent gap will get bigger and bigger!

This problem has always been one of the most troubling issues for Ji Feng. The lack of talent is still very different from the lack of other resources.

For example, if there was a lack of capital, through bank loans, or borrowing from other channels, that could be solved. And if there is a lack of other raw materials, we can also find ways to acquire them. But the problem of lack of talent is very difficult to solve.

It can take a year, two years or even longer to train a person for a certain job. It is not impossible to adapt a person to a certain job quickly within a short period of time, but that is only for certain jobs that are not very demanding, such as workers on an assembly line.

But when it comes to management talent, it’s definitely a matter of gaining experience over time.

Very few people come into a management position without a bit of management experience and do a good job, and if there are such people, they are the better ones.

But the vast majority of people, who rarely have this kind of talent, need to be nurtured slowly, building up bit by bit.

And it takes time to nurture talent.

The Tengfei Group may be able to produce a dozen or so talents suitable for such management positions within half a year, but within that half year, the Tengfei Group will probably expand a lot, and as a result, the number of new management positions created by the expansion will definitely far exceed the number of talents produced!

Therefore, all in all, the Tengfei Group is in desperate need of talents!

Therefore, Rong Peng's proposal really made Ji Feng a bit overjoyed. That was all the management talents of the Rongpeng Group. Just looking at the prosperity of the Rongpeng Group now, it was enough to see what level of talent was in this group.

To be able to poach a large number of talents from the Rongpeng Group, this is definitely a big surprise from the sky for the Tengfei Group!

"Since young Ji is also interested, then I will start preparing for the meeting of all the management staff." Seeing Ji Feng's face, Rong Peng also knew what he meant, and could not help but nod and smile.

"Uncle Rong, thank you very much." Ji Feng shook hands with Rong Peng and said solemnly.

This gesture of Rong Peng was more satisfying to Ji Feng than him bringing in billions and billions of dollars, these managers, they were not something that could be compared to that money.

If you don't have money, you can find a way to make money, as long as you have the bottom in, with the momentum of the development of the Tengfei Group, making money is simply a breeze. Even if Tengfei Group does not launch new drugs from now on, the Kang Yuan slimming powder and the special effects current produced by Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory alone are enough to bring huge profits to Tengfei Group every year.

The key is still these talents!

And Rong Peng offered to give Ji Feng management talents, and he could also let Ji Feng pick them at will, no doubt, this is definitely a big gift.

In fact, it was also true that Ji Feng had already made his attitude clear that he would not let anything happen to Rong Baogang and guaranteed that he would stay in his prison peacefully, which was already meaningful enough. You know, right now, Ji Feng and Rong Peng were only a verbal alliance, in fact, they had not really joined hands to do any one thing between them.

Under such circumstances, the fact that Ji Feng was able to go this far was enough to show his sincerity.

Then, Rong Peng had wanted to lean over and wanted to use Ji Feng's power to take revenge on the Wu family, so now he naturally wanted to return the favour.

If you want to get benefits from others, then first you have to pay.

Rong Peng knew this very well, so he didn't even need Ji Feng to mention it, he first stated his intention to give Ji Feng talents.

It can be said that this move by Rong Peng will make both him and Ji Feng live a great benefit, and the next two will be a win-win outcome.

The reason is that as long as Rong Peng leaves the Rong Peng Group, even if he wants to start up again, then when he first starts, he definitely won't be able to use too many talents, after all, the current Rong Peng Group is really too big and there are too many talents inside, as long as he doesn't immediately build another Rong Peng Group, he simply won't be able to accommodate so many talents.

If these people are kept for nothing, it may be a waste of resources and the company will also look a bit bloated, but if all these people are dismissed or left directly to the Rongpeng Group, Rongpeng will naturally not be willing, after all, that is too much of a pity.

If you give some of the talent to Ji Feng and leave the rest to Rong Peng himself, then the Rong Peng Group will definitely be greatly wounded, while Ji Feng and Rong Peng, will get enough talent.

With people and money, then everything would be fine.

"Uncle Rong, I still have a question." After being happy, another question came to Ji Feng's mind and he couldn't help but ask, "It's true that Rongpeng Group has a lot of talents, but are all these people willing to follow us? You know, even if the Rongpeng Group has changed ownership, its strength is not comparable to that of the Tengfei Group."

It is an unchanging truth that people go to higher places and water flows to lower places.

Even if Rong Peng was the chairman of Rong Peng Group, not everyone would listen to his words, after all, he would soon cease to be the chairman, and those talented people, would they be willing to give up such a privileged job and run to a small group in Jiangzhou to start from the heart again?

This is a very important question!

"Little Feng, are you worried that those talents won't be willing to leave?" Rong Peng asked.

Ji Feng nodded and said, "Yeah, the working environment and treatment and stuff like that aside, many of the employees of Rong Peng Group have probably settled in Yuezhou, so I'm afraid that alone, they wouldn't be willing to go to Jiangzhou."

"Oh"

Rong Peng smiled and waved his hand, saying, "You don't have to worry about that, admittedly, there are indeed many people who are not willing to leave, but do you know how many people there are in the Rong Peng Group?"

"How many?" Ji Feng asked.

Rong Peng laughed, "Rong Peng Group's employees, excluding those frontline production employees, and business personnel, just the management staff above the department head level, there are nearly 20,000 people, and the middle and senior management staff, there are also more than 3,000 people!"

"So many?" Ji Feng couldn't help but be slightly stunned.

"This is also determined by the industrial structure of Rongpeng Group, which is mainly an intensive industry." Seeing Ji Feng's somewhat surprised expression, Rong Peng couldn't help but smile, "The ones we are taking away this time are mainly middle and senior management, among these people, as long as there are twenty to thirty percent who are willing to go with us, it will be enough to meet our current demand for talents.”

“So that’s how it is ……,” Ji Feng then dawned on him, no wonder Rong Peng had such a bottom line.

“Apart from these people, even if everyone else stays, we will have already gained a lot.” Rong Peng laughed, “What’s more, if we take all the employees of Rong Peng Group at once, then this group will also collapse, there is still nearly one fifth of my shares in it, I will not do that kind of thing to the detriment of others.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but smile: “Thank you, Uncle Rong, for this time. However, I’m afraid that if the Wu family knew that this would be the result, they would be furious and jumping to their feet.”

“Then I would really like to see this scene!” Rong Peng harrumphed, “Let’s see what the expressions of those moralistic guys from the Wu family would be when they know that a large portion of the middle and senior management of the Rong Peng Group has been taken away by me!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but laugh dumbly, Rong Peng is really worthy of being an old man, this move of his can really be described as the bottom of the pot, it can’t be said to be not poisonous.

Even if the Wu family sent someone to take over the Rong Peng Group, at least in a short period of time, they would be unable to take care of themselves just by integrating the group internally and rebuilding the group’s skeleton, let alone going around to make waves.

“Little Feng, you can play in Yuezhou for two more days first, I’ll start preparing for the meeting here.” Rong Peng said.

Ji Feng nodded with a smile and said, “Uncle Rong, you don’t have to be polite, you go about your business.”

Rong Peng once again looked at Ji Feng and nodded his head in a very satisfied manner.

Ji Feng then smiled and said goodbye, Rong Suyan immediately stood up and said, “Young Ji, I’ll see you off.”

The two of them walked out of the office side by side, and the smile on Rong Peng’s face became even bigger, he couldn’t help but secretly nod his head, although he didn’t see what kind of attitude Ji Feng had towards Suyan today, but to be able to cooperate with Ji Feng, this result had made him very satisfied.

At least from now on, the Rong family would no longer have to be threatened casually, nor would they have to stay awake at night for fear of their son’s safety.

However, remembering Zheng Yuxiu’s wild look today, Rong Peng’s face suddenly turned gloomy. If it wasn’t for Zheng Yuxiu suddenly coming to make trouble, maybe he would have been able to test out what kind of attitude Ji Feng had towards Su Yan, this woman, was really outrageous!

Rong Peng couldn’t help but cursed: “Villainous thing, for the sake of a little profit, you don’t even want your ancestors …… I’ll see if you have the day to fall from grace!”

A few moments later, his face eased up a little, and then he picked up the phone on his desk and started preparing for the meeting!

Chapter 1066

“Young Ji, thank you.”

Ji Feng took the white spider with him and rode downstairs in the lift with Rong Suyan.

In the lift, Rong Suyan looked at Ji Feng’s stalwart face with a bemused expression, she couldn’t help but say softly, “If you weren’t here today, then my dad he would have ……”

“It’s fine, it’s fine!” Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile, “Su Yan, actually I think that you still don’t know your father too well. The fact is that a person like him, who has been in the business world for most of his life, what kind of people have he not seen? What kinds of things have he not experienced? The kind of woman like Zheng Yuxiu who doesn’t know the sky is the limit when she gets a little ambitious, would she really let your father lose his mind in anger?”

The first thing you can do is to get a good idea of what you’re getting into.

I really have to admit, that woman Zheng Yuxiu is really an absolute best, when it comes to not knowing the sky is high, when it comes to shamelessness, at least in Ji Feng’s impression, there is really no one who can match Zheng Yuxiu.

This woman, in this aspect of shamelessness really has a unique talent and advantage.

If it were anyone else, even if they were really forced by the Wu family and had no choice but to go to their own aunt’s husband to ask for the equity, they should have reasoned and moved, stating to Rong Peng the pros and cons of the relationship, letting him know that if he handed over the equity, he would live in peace in the future and would not have any more trouble.

At the same time, he should also let Rong Peng understand that if he does not hand over his shares and intends to resist to the end, he will not be the only one to suffer in the end, but also his family, his wife and children, will all be hurt.

The first to suffer, for example, is his son, Rong Baogang, who is now in prison and being tortured ……

If this is the case, no matter what Zheng Yuxiu thinks in his heart, but in the end there is a point, Rong Peng at least will not hate her, she can still be a relative with the Rong family, it is not possible for her to establish an image of a good person in front of Rong Peng who is doing his best to help the Rong family and will gain the gratitude of the Rong family.

A wise person, or a cunning person, would basically choose this method.

And with Rong Peng flustered by the talk, and Zheng Yuxiu following with another idea on the side, maybe Rong Peng would just nod and agree to hand over his stake.

If that were the case, things wouldn’t have come to this point, and Zheng Yuxiu wouldn’t have ended up with such an impression in the hearts of the Rong family.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

..... that Zheng Yuxiu is really a woman who doesn't know the sky is high and petty, and an extremely stupid one at that. She simply doesn't know what to do is the best way to go, and doesn't even know what to do when she encounters things. Apart from being jealous and bullying, she is useless!

Can a woman like this really make Rong Peng lose his mind in anger?

Ji Feng felt that this was not necessarily the case.

Rong Peng was definitely angry, and could even be said to be enraged, but he would not lose his mind because of this, which could be seen from the fact that Rong Peng's mind was still very clear after Zheng Yuxiu left.

For such a person, I am afraid that while Rong Peng was angry, he was still cursing her stupidity in his heart, right?

That's why Ji Feng said that Rong Suyan didn't know Rong Peng too well yet, just because of this reasoning, after all, Rong Suyan had still experienced too few storms, which could also illustrate Rong Peng's excellence even more!

Ji Feng said his analysis and guesses to Rong Suyan, and only after that he laughed: "..... so that even without me present today, your father will have his own way to deal with Zheng Yuxiu away without anything happening, and my arrival will only give your father some more bottom line. "

"Yes, Ji Shao, your analysis is right." Rong Suyan is such a smart woman, she understood Ji Feng's words after just a little thought, and couldn't help but nod her head lightly: "But even so, I still have to thank you."

"What else do you want to thank me for?" Ji Feng asked with an unimpressed smile.

"What I want to thank you for is that you stood up to protect my brother, so that my father had the strength to fight against the Wu family, and the Zheng family, so that he didn't throw in the towel and had to let others slaughter him!" The subconscious flirtatious style that flowed out of her eyes made Ji Feng's heart jump wildly a few times.

Ji Feng hurriedly moved his gaze away, but heard Rong Suyan say, "My father is really a very proud and proud man, he has never bowed down to anyone in his life, but, for me and my brother, he has bowed down to others over and over again"

"Pity the heart of a parent." Ji Feng nodded and smiled, "No matter if it's an ordinary citizen, or a big tycoon, or an official, or a lord, as long as they are parents, they all feel the same when it comes to their children. They are willing to do anything for the sake of their own children."

Very often, it is difficult for some people to appreciate the kind of emotions they feel when they are parents, they will be so devoted to their children that they are willing to suffer for the sake of their children

I don't know the kindness of my parents if I don't raise a child!

"That's why I have to thank you, young Ji, it's because you spoke up and said you would protect my brother and not let others hurt him that my father was able to hold up his proud head once again!" Rong Suyan looked at Ji Feng and said, "If it wasn't for your righteous words, I'm afraid that my dad would have been sullen for the rest of his life and would have even sunk into this" young Ji, you are a great benefactor to our family!"

"What kind of benefactor or not, that's a bit of an insult to say." Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile and said without the slightest thought.

"Since we are friends, it is only right for me to help, besides even if we are strangers, when we encounter this kind of situation, how should I manage to be consistent. Besides, if I can make good friends with your father, it will also be beneficial to my confrontation with the Wu family. So that's why the account is a win-win any way, so you don't need to thank me."

Looking at Ji Feng's bland smile, Rong Suyan couldn't help but nod heavily, and then, she gave Ji Feng a deep glance, as if she wanted to carve his likeness into her heart.

"Dingdong--!"

The lift beep suddenly sounded, and Ji Feng laughed, "It's on the ground floor, right?"

Only then did Rong Suyan suddenly react and couldn't help but blush slightly, she hurriedly covered it up and pretended to say inadvertently, "Yes, Young Ji, let's go out!"

As the three of them walked out of the Rong Peng Group's headquarters building, Rong Suyan couldn't help but ask, "Young Ji, why didn't I see you guys bring your luggage?"

Ji Feng pointed to a building diagonally across the road and smiled, "We've booked a hotel, it's right across here"

"This"

Rong Suyan couldn't help but smile bitterly, "I originally thought of arranging a place for you to stay, we have a hotel under the Rong Peng Group, I didn't expect you to live outside, Ji Shao, it's safer to stay in our own hotel, how about"

"It's the same wherever you live." Ji Feng laughed.

When it comes to safety, Ji Feng really hasn't worried about his own safety yet, it's those who come looking for trouble that should be worried. What's more, in an upscale hotel like this, the security was generally pretty good, basically nothing would go wrong.

The first time you've been to Yuezhou, right? How about I be the tour guide and show you around?"

"That's fine." Ji Feng nodded and smiled.

At this time, inside a villa in Yuezhou, Zheng Yuxiu, who had just returned from Rongpeng Group, was leisurely half lying on the sofa, talking to someone on the phone.

"Hello, big brother, this is Yuxiu" Zheng Yuxiu looked particularly respectful as he spoke on the phone, and the smug look that was on his face disappeared, "Big brother, I went to Rongpeng Group again today and gave the equity transfer agreement to Rongpeng"

Zheng Yuxiu quickly went to the Rong Peng Group today, a detailed account of what happened, especially Rong Peng's arrogance, as well as her threats, all in detail, without the slightest hint of concealment.

The reason for saying this was to tell the person on the phone that she had even been at odds with the Rong Peng family in order to fight to come to the Rong Peng Group.

"Well, you did a good job, Rong Peng that person is a human being, old and cunning, you must hold on to his soft spot, can't give him any chance to breathe, otherwise, he will probably get out of your control to grasp it yourself!" The voice on the phone said, "Especially important is to let him know what the consequences will be if he continues to be recalcitrant!"

This voice on the phone, is a low man's voice, if Rong Suyan was here, she would have heard at first, the owner of this voice, is none other than the third generation of the Wu family when the boss, Wu Zhiyong!

This was the same person who was counting on the Rong family, but was the older brother that Rong Suyan used to admire so much.

This could not help but be an irony!

"Big brother, I remembered, now that my side has taken control of Rong Peng's 'soft spot', there's nothing he can do at all, and he should also be clear that if he continues to be stubborn, he'll have to pay some price in space that he can't afford!" Zheng Yuxiu giggled, "So when I went there today, although Rong Peng was jumping with anger, he couldn't help but give in."

"He loosened his tongue?" Wu Zhiyong asked over the phone.

"That's right, looking at his meaning, he just wants to keep that 30% of the equity Brother, don't worry, I will make him hand over the entire equity!" Zheng Yuxiu said.

"Well, since he has already started to give in, then the remaining 30% of the equity, he won't want to keep it like this, you first collect all the other equity, the remaining 30% of the equity, you can slowly grind with him, he will definitely agree to hand it all over eventually!" The Wu Zhiyong on the phone looked very wise, like the kind of high level person who can plan in a tent and win a thousand miles away.

Campus Master Chapter 1067-1068 -

Chapter 1067

"Yes! Big brother please don't worry, I will make sure that the matter is done satisfactorily and will not let down the expectations that big brother has for me!" Zheng Yuxiu said in a docile and obedient manner.

"Well, that's good, Yuxiu, Zhihe's choice of you is really the wisest choice this kid has ever made. I have to say, you are much smarter than Rong Suyan, very good!" The moment Wu Zhiyong heard that Rong Peng had begun to soften, he knew that the day to get the Rong Peng Group back was not far away, and his mood was much better, so he could not help but praise Zheng Yuxiu a few words.

This is the Zheng Yuxiu excited, she said in a panic: "big brother praise, I just follow the instructions of big brother and Zhihe, do some things I should do. If it wasn't for big brother's teachings, I wouldn't have been able to make it this far."

"Well, you still get a lot of credit. After you're done with this, go to Jiangzhou and see Zhihe, he kinda misses you over there." Wu Zhiyong smiled, perhaps because he was about to get a large conglomerate with tens of billions of assets, it made all of Wu Zhiyong's mood, which had been somewhat stifled because his brother had been injured, become much better, and he spoke to Zheng Yuxiu in a much more casual manner.

Zheng Yuxiu was also very happy, especially after receiving Wu Zhiyong's praise, which made her even more secretly happy, getting Wu Zhiyong's approval, which means that the Zheng family is gradually leaning on the big boat of the Wu family, I believe that if she accomplished this matter, then her father might be promoted, right?

"Big brother, I will, in fact I actually miss Zhihe too." Zheng Yuxiu said somewhat shyly.

Wu Zhiyong chuckled, "Then hurry up and get this matter in Yuezhou done, in fact I don't want you to be delayed in Yuezhou, but I can't help it, there are not many people I can trust besides you, so I have to condescend to you for a while longer, too."

"Big brother does not need to say so, I understand everything!" Zheng Yuxiu said very good-naturedly, and then, she suddenly remembered something and said in a panic, "By the way, big brother, there is something I find quite interesting"

"Oh? What is it?" Wu Zhiyong asked with a smile.

"It's like this, when I went to Rong Peng Group today, in Rong Peng's office, I met Ji Feng!" Zheng Yuxiu said.

"What? You said you met Ji Feng in Rong Peng's office?" Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but be stunned, "What was he doing there?"

"What else could he be doing, Rong Suyan left Zhihe to follow Ji Feng, so there's nothing unusual about Ji Feng appearing in Yuezhou now!" Even now, Zheng Yuxiu still did not forget to sarcastic Rong Suyan twice, "The funny thing is, this guy really thinks he is a person, he actually dared to threaten me with words, saying something about smashing my face result ah, was squeezed by me in a few sentences and could not say anything. "

"Oh?!" Wu Zhiyong, however, did not listen to the nonsense of Zheng Yuxiu, but immediately caught the point and could not help but ask: "To smash your face? What did he say in his original words?"

"Big brother, that little bastard is just nonsense, he is just threatening me, so that I do not hurt Rong Peng's 'soft spot', I will not eat his set, his prestige ah, can not play on my head!" Zheng Yuxiu said with disdain.

"I am asking you, what did he say in his original words!" Wu Zhiyong, however, said in a deep voice.

Zheng Yuxiu was stunned: "Big brother, how do you he is just bluffing, there is nothing to care about, I squeezed him speechless in a few words, so that he is just a"

Who knows, before she could finish her words, she was interrupted by Wu Zhiyong: "Zheng Yuxiu, don't you understand my words? I'm asking you what Ji Feng's original words were!"

Wu Zhiyong's voice was low, and it was obvious that he had become somewhat upset.

Zheng Yuxiu was immediately startled in her heart and hurriedly said, "He said that the matter of shares could be discussed separately"

She immediately quickly repeated Ji Feng's original words before saying, "It's normal for certain people to fight with other inmates in prison and get confined, it's fine for him to know about it, if he dares to interfere haphazardly, instead, he'll still end up with a mouthful, I think, Ji Feng shouldn't be that stupid, right?"

"He is indeed not that stupid", Wu Zhiyong was silent for a long time before he said in a deep voice. In fact, he had another sentence that he had not said, "He is not stupid, but, you are stupid!"

"This Zheng Yuxiu, she really dares to open a dye house even if she is given a few points of paint!" Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but secretly shake his head, "This woman, too pompous and very brainless, is really not worthy of great use. Now that Ji Feng has arrived in Yuezhou, with this brain of hers, can she cope with Ji Feng?"

Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but secretly deliberate, "What is Ji Feng doing there? According to common sense, he should be avoiding suspicion at this time, or at most manipulating behind the scenes, how come he is now coming out directly? Is he not afraid of falling foul of the people?"

Ji Feng's sudden appearance in Yuezhou, and his direct appearance in the chairman's office of Rongpeng Group, was indeed somewhat out of Wu Zhiyong's expectation.

Because it was the most critical moment for Rongpeng Group to change ownership, Ji Feng's sudden appearance was a bit surprising. However, this matter was somewhat unthinkable. If Ji Feng directly interferes in this matter, then it will fall into the mouth of the truth, then Wu Zhiyong will have something to say, your Ji family's eldest grandson, still just a student, just meddle in the normal business activities of others, what do you want?

If you don't attend classes and participate in other people's business activities, this is already a bit absurd, and if there is a further incident of oppressing people with power, then even if Ji Feng has ten mouths, he won't be able to explain.

So generally as long as it is a struggle between gentry involved in business activities, everyone will choose to play their hand secretly behind the scenes and will not appear directly on the front stage at all.

Otherwise, in case the other party takes your identity and insists that you are using your power to oppress others with your status, then it will definitely leave a bad impression on others, and if things are serious, then it might even affect the family.

If you want to say that Ji Feng is stupid, but his brother Wu Zhihe has fallen into Ji Feng's hands three times, this is not something that a stupid person can do at all, so if someone says that Ji Feng is stupid, then that person is either smart to the extreme or stupid himself.

So, what was Ji Feng's purpose in just running to Yuezhou and contacting Rong Peng with such a big grin?

"Could it be that he really just went to comfort Rong Peng as Rong Suyan's friend?" Wu Zhiyong shook his head, he didn't think this was very likely.

"Then" Wu Zhiyong couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

And this end of the phone, Zheng Yuxiu is heard the phone suddenly no sound, she can not help but strange asked, "Big brother, big brother you are still there?"

"Yuxiu, this situation is very important, you have to keep a close eye on Ji Feng's movements, at least, to know what Ji Feng went to Yuezhou to make contact with Rong Peng!" Wu Zhiyong said, he knew very well that once Ji Feng really interfered in the affairs of Rongpeng Group, although it would cause others to criticize, but the impact of this on the Wu family was not small as well.

The significance of the Rongpeng Group to the Wu family is really too important.

The number of people in the Wu family's lineage who were driven by the Rongpeng Group to create political achievements and be promoted, Wu Zhiyong did not need to count to know that this is definitely not a small number.

If something goes wrong with the Rongpeng Group, the blow to the Wu family will definitely not be small!

"Big brother, I have an idea, I just don't know if I should say it." Zheng Yuxiu hesitated for a moment before he said.

"Whatever idea you have, just say it!" Wu Zhiyong said immediately.

"I think, Ji Feng came to Yuezhou for what matter, this is not important, or rather, not the most important matter!"

Zheng Yuxiu weighed her words, this was a good opportunity for her to perform, "Because our goal, is to make Rong Peng hand over all his equity, as long as we achieve this goal, then whatever Ji Feng wants to do, it won't have any effect on us, if he goes too far, it will lead to fire, this is better!"

"Hmm!"

When Wu Zhiyong heard this, he couldn't help but nod his head and said, "You're right, getting the entire equity of Rongpeng Group now is the most urgent task, I think, Ji Feng went to Yuezhou, it should also be to fight for that old thing of Rongpeng's to seize the time and get the equity! "

With the equity in hand, by then whatever Ji Feng was up to, it no longer mattered.

"Yes!" Seeing that his opinion was accepted, Zheng Yuxiu was instantly happy and immediately nodded his head and said.

However, Wu Zhiyong was still a little apprehensive in his heart, really because, this guy Ji Feng was not a mediocre person, on the contrary, this guy was still a very tricky character. The fact that his younger brother, Wu Zhihe, had continuously fallen into the hands of Ji Feng had made Wu Zhiyong's vigilance towards Ji Feng extremely high.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. And Rongpeng Group!"

I believe no one can be calm in the face of a giant with tens of billions of dollars in assets, and Zheng Yuxiu can't be even more so, and the Rong Peng Group is her first target after sidelining Rong Suyan!

In fact, the idea of getting the Rong Peng Group had already been in Zheng Yuxiu's mind a long time ago.

At that time, whenever she came to her aunt's house in Yuezhou, she did not want to go home when she saw the luxurious decoration of her aunt's house and really wanted to stay here forever.

Later, as she gradually grew older, Zheng Yuxiu became more aware of the benefits of having money. Especially when she saw some people around her, a set of cosmetics are tens of thousands of hundreds of thousands of dollars, before she graduated from university, there are people driving hundreds of millions or even millions of luxury cars, her heart became even more envious.

However, what made this envy in her heart turn into a strong desire was Rong Suyan!

Chapter 1068

However, what made this envy in her heart turn into a strong desire was Rong Suyan!

Rong Suyan's life was not considered wasteful, and she usually lived like an ordinary person, and did not appear to be very special. However, when Zheng Yuxiu saw her lifestyle and her taste in life once in a while, she was instantly envious.

Occasionally, when the mood strikes, or when she is tired of working, Rong Suyan likes to sip a bottle of red wine that costs tens of thousands of dollars, the clothes she wears may seem ordinary, but they are tens of thousands of dollars a piece, she usually has a special driver and bodyguard for her trips, and drives a luxury car of more than a million dollars, she does not have many decorations on her body, but occasionally she carries a pendant, or an imperial green jade worth millions of dollars... ..

When she felt bored at leisure, Rong Suyan would very casually book a flight and just fly away, regardless of the destination.

For example, she might suddenly get the urge on one of the more free mornings, and after that she would take a flight to France, go to the Louvre, the temple of art in the heart of the French capital, feel the art, swim around in a leisurely manner, and then take a flight back in the afternoon or evening

Such a lifestyle makes Zheng Yuxiu's eyes red with envy.

The result of the comparison between yourself and Rong Suyan, especially when you look at the results, is that Zheng Yuxiu is so jealous that he wants to strangle Rong Suyan directly and then take his place.

In terms of status, she was the daughter of a high-ranking official, and in the political world, her family had a lot of influence, so wherever she went, there would be people flattering her. However, these same things were not lacking in Rong Suyan, who also had people flattering her and almost holding her in their hands wherever she went.

When it comes to her family, her own family has its own rivalries, but the Rong family is peaceful and free from the burden and pressure of rivalry, so it can be described as a life in paradise.

All this, all these disparities, made Zheng Yuxiu unable to understand, and incomparably painful.

What the hell is going on here?

With the influence of her own family, no matter what, it should not be surpassed by a businessman's family, but why did she not have that kind of life, but a businessman's daughter could enjoy this kind of life as if it was heavenly?

What the hell is going on here?

How could Rong Suyan be so much better than herself?

This serious imbalance from her heart made Zheng Yuxiu burn with jealousy, and when she thought of Rong Suyan's face, which seemed even more beautiful than her own, and her aloof look, she was almost mad with hatred.

What made Zheng Yuxiu especially jealous was that Rong Suyan, the daughter of such a businessman, had actually found Wu Zhihe as her boyfriend!

What is this?

Who was Wu Zhihe? He was the son of one of the top families in China, and if he married him, he would be a young grandmother of a top family.

This kind of glory is not something that a woman like Rong Suyan, who is fake and noble and smells of copper, can have.

The stench of copper

The most important thing is that the difference between yourself and Rong Suyan is not the difference in status, position, appearance, etc., but the huge difference in money, which has caused the two to have a very different lifestyle today.

Even if I wanted to get some money, I would be careful not to let others know, so I wouldn't dare to spend it carelessly. But Rong Suyan, her family's money is measured in billions, and this alone is something that even if the Zheng family worked hard for ten lifetimes, they would never be able to match.

Unless, of course, they reached for the public purse.

But even if they did, they would never be able to catch up with the Rong family, because the Rong family had so much money, so much that they could never spend it all.

Even if all the members of the Zheng family were to try their best to make money, I am afraid that they would never be able to catch up with the Rong family in their lifetime. Moreover, those who make money are at great risk of being sent to jail or even shot at any time.

In other words, if you want to compete with the Rong family in terms of money Zheng Yuxiu will never be able to catch up with Rong Suyan!

This is definitely not okay!

Zheng Yuxiu gritted her teeth in hatred, she would never allow Rong Suyan to be so much better than her, then, the only way, is to snatch the Rong Peng Group, so that Rong Suyan's money, become her own money, so that Rong Suyan's status, status, all become her own.

In that case, she would be able to catch up with Rong Suyan, or even surpass her!

So, from that moment on, Zheng Yuxiu was already calculating how to separate Rong Suyan and Wu Zhihe and how to get the Rong Peng Group into her hands

The first thing that she did was to pretend to be intentionally close to Wu Zhihe, and then to provoke a few words from time to time, so that Wu Zhihe's heart gradually shifted to her. And then, she pretended to intentionally or unintentionally say something to Wu Zhihe about the 'gossip' she had heard outside.

For example, with Wu Zhihe's status, marrying the daughter of a big tycoon who owned such a big group would have a bad impact on him and a bad impact on the reputation of the Wu family, etc.

After these years of hard work, Zheng Yuxiu finally succeeded in getting Rong Suyan away from Wu Zhihe, and as the Rongpeng Group was about to be taken over by someone from the Wu family, Zheng Yuxiu was really relieved that he was only one step away from taking control of the Rongpeng Group.

It was far better for the Wu family to take control of the Rong Peng Group than for Rong Suyan and her father to take control, and Zheng Yuxiu was confident that he would be able to get a foot in the door!

What's more, Rong Suyan was on the verge of losing everything!

Compared to Rong Suyan's absolutely petty life in the past, the difference between the two of them in the next few days will still be worlds apart. But the difference is that this time it will be Zheng Yuxiu who will be living in paradise, while Rong Suyan will have no other way out but to be trampled under her feet!

"..... That's more like it!" Zheng Yuxiu took off her high heels and casually kicked them onto the living room floor, she was barefoot and curled up with a face of elegance and enjoyment, "This is the life I should be living, ah, that bitch Rong Suyan has actually enjoyed it for so many years, if she keeps enjoying it, even God won't be able to look at it!"

"After so many years, even the turn should be mine" Zheng Yuxiu smiled delicately, stretched out her orchid fingers, pulled up a hand flower and smiled sweetly: "Congratulations, young grandmother of the Wu family, and future General Manager of the Rongpeng Group, Zheng!"

"No, at that time, it can no longer be called Rong Peng Group, what Rong Peng Group, this name is really vulgar, it would be better to call it Yuxiu Group, Zheng Group, or also Zheng Wu Group?"

In the living room of the villa, Zheng Yuxiu rolled continuously on the wide and soft sofa, with a look of enjoyment on her face, occasionally letting out a giggle or two, showing that she had thought of something extremely happy again

"Young Ji, this front is the Olympic Park, let's go over there and take a turn?" Rong Suyan said with a pink sunshade, her pretty face flushed and smiling.

"I think it's better not to go." Ji Feng glanced at Rong Suyan, who was already slightly sweating, and laughed, "It's been half a day of shopping, I'm a bit tired too, let's go back, or find a place to sit."

"Good, there is a cafe in front of this park, let's go there and sit down." Rong Suyan nodded and said.

"Let's go!" Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head.

The most direct impression of the summer in Yuezhou is the heat, at this time it was just after noon, the time when the weather was the hottest, looking around, that the ground was a little shaky in sight, which was a burst of heat waves rising up.

In this hot environment, Rong Suyan had already been hot and sweaty, but as the host, she also wanted to accompany Ji Feng to have a good time, that's why she kept going.

All this fell on Ji Feng's eyes. His mind had been thinking about the cooperation with Rong Peng and the future development of the Tengfei Group, and he hadn't had much interest in going on the tour, so at this time he also proposed to go back. In fact, to say that he was tired, except for the time when he was so tired in the training space that he could barely get up, he had never felt tired at any other time!

Even, he hadn't even broken a sweat on his body after walking for so long in this hot environment.

The only reason he said he was tired was to take care of Rong Suyan and White Spider.

Bai Spider and Rong Suyan were each holding a sunshade, walking left and right on either side of Ji Feng. Both of them were stunningly beautiful, especially in this summer, their beautiful bodies and faces were unreservedly revealed, and as they walked past, pedestrians turned around with a look of amazement in their eyes.

It wasn't long before there was a murmur of misery, and it was clear that the men whose eyes were glazed over had been 'attacked' by their girlfriends beside them.

But it is undeniable that Rong Suyan and White Spider standing together, that is simply a bright scenery, any normal man who saw it, will not be able to help but turn around to look twice, and this turn around, the neck can not turn over

"The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. In the future, ah, you guys should come out less, otherwise how many tragedies will be brewed yo" Ji Feng listened to the sounds of pouring in cold air coming from time to time around, can't help but laugh and tease.

The two women were complimented at the same time, but two very different reactions, which also illustrates the mindset of the two women

The three of them went straight to the cafe next to the park, but after walking for a moment, suddenly, Ji Feng jerked to a halt, his brow furrowed slightly, but soon, he took two more quick steps to keep up with the two women.

“Ji Shao” White Spider was extremely keen to notice Ji Feng’s reaction and she called out softly.

“Pay a little attention to the surroundings, something seems wrong” Ji Feng had a smile on his face and looked as if he was joking with the two women, “I feel as if someone is watching us.”

Rong Suyan turned red with a pretty face and said, “Young Ji, stop making this joke, let’s hurry inside.”

She thought that this was Ji Feng deliberately flirting with her and Bai Spider.

However, White Spider was the one who understood what Ji Feng meant

Someone was watching them and, moreover, Ji Shao sensed the danger.

Campus Master Chapter 1069-1070 -

Chapter 1069

Ji Feng indeed sensed the danger.

Just a moment ago, Ji Feng suddenly felt some coldness behind his back, the feeling was like being targeted by a poisonous snake, making the muscles in his back tighten, he then immediately realized that someone was watching him, and, definitely, it was not with good intentions.

This was a very mysterious feeling, but Ji Feng was very sure of it. If we go by the words of martial artists, as his cultivation level got higher and higher, his six senses also became sharper and sharper.

For example, darkness could not block his vision and his hearing was beyond normal

In reality, what Ji Feng valued more, however, was this arcane and mysterious feeling. Many times, often he has not even seen anything unusual, but that uncomfortable feeling has already appeared.

This kind of forward perception helped him tremendously, and the one that impressed Ji Feng the most was several such experiences.

For example, on that night when he was chasing Xu Long in Hangzhou, Jiangsu Province, apart from his extraordinary eyesight and hearing, this feeling also helped him immensely. There was also the time when he rescued Xiang Yongzhan and the others on that deserted island outside of China, Ji Feng likewise relied on his six senses to be able to avoid the other side’s secret sentries time and again and discover Xiang Yongzhan and the others hidden in the cave.

Especially when he could not see anything unusual, this arcane sense was especially important.

Like now, for example, he didn’t even have to look back to get a very uncomfortable feeling, and he immediately realized that he was now being watched, and that someone was out to get him

Only, the only thing Ji Feng couldn’t be sure of right now was who was targeting him and where the other party was hiding!

And there was another point that made Ji Feng very confused.

His own move to Yuezhou was very sudden, and basically no one knew about it except for Xiao Yuxuan and a few of them. Apart from them, that would be the Rong Peng father and daughter in Yuezhou, as well as Zheng Yuxiu who had unexpectedly appeared and other people who knew that he was in Yuezhou.

In that case, who had come to target himself?

The first possibility that Ji Feng thought of was Zheng Yuxiu, but on second thought, she ruled it out. Although Zheng Yuxiu was stupid, she was not so stupid as to be this stupid, right?

She should have known what the consequences would be if she took action against herself!

But the question was, besides Zheng Yuxiu, who else, exactly, would have that kind of animosity towards herself?

The feeling Ji Feng felt just now, as if he was being targeted by a viper, was definitely not ordinary surveillance or hatred, it was almost as if it was a resentment!

“Ji Shao” The three of them were about to enter the cafe when the white spider looked at Ji Feng with a questioning look in his eyes and lowered his voice to an extremely low level so that only the two of them could hear it: “Do you want me to go take a look? ”

“No need!”

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “Sit down together, if you should come, you will come sooner or later, you may instead alarm the other party by going out”

Since the other party has already set eyes on himself, he must have set eyes on even the people around him together, at this time every move of the white spider will fall in the sight of the other party, instead it is better to wait and see what happens, wait for the other party to come over by himself!

The white spider then nodded slightly, only taking two steps behind and using his own body to block Ji Feng as the three of them walked into the cafe together.

“What are you two talking about?” Rong Suyan heard Bai Spider and Ji Feng whispering and couldn’t help but ask.

Ji Feng laughed, “Nothing, I just think the weather in Yuezhou is really scary hot, I’m afraid it’s going to be around forty degrees outside here, right?”

“It should only be more than that.” Rong Suyan said, “Although Yuezhou is not the hottest place in China, it is indeed very hot here compared to the north. However, if we can get the data from the official weather forecast, I’m afraid it’s only thirty-five or sixty degrees, because if the temperature gets any higher, enterprises and institutions can go on holiday”

Ji Feng also could not help but lose his smile: “Yes, in fact, no matter what aspect of the data, as long as it comes from the mouth of the official, good things you can only believe thirty percent, bad things you have to guess three times more!”

By good things, I mean, for example, what kind of achievements were made in a certain quarter, how much good work was done, or how much money was made, etc. For these figures, it would be good enough if 30% of them were true. And those bad things, it means for example what kind of accident occurred in such and such place, how many people died, then this data must be multiplied and guessed!

Rong Suyan instantly pursed her lips and smiled lightly: "This is really a spot-on comment from young Ji young Ji, please sit down!"

"I was just saying that casually too." Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile, and then after looking around, he smiled, "Suyan, find a private box by the window."

Naturally, Rong Suyan would not object, so she explained to the waiter to find a seat by the window. In fact, there are really no private rooms in this cafe, basically two high-backed sofas are placed opposite each other and a table is placed in the middle, which becomes a small private room.

Because the backrest of the sofa was very high, a big man of 1.8 meters could not see anyone from behind the sofa when he sat on it, so this box made up of sofas was quite decent.

The first thing the white spider did was to draw the curtains in the small box, so that even if there were people standing outside the window, they could not see what was going on inside the box.

Ji Feng nodded secretly as he watched, letting Bai Spider sit as a bodyguard was really more suitable than many professionally trained guards, because she had been an assassin, so what she liked the most, was hiding in the shadows and monitoring others, rather than being monitored by others. This was precisely the same as Ji Feng, who also liked to keep an eye on the whole picture, but did not want his movements to be monitored.

"Why are the curtains drawn?" Rong Suyan asked somewhat strangely, "Our side is shady, the sun does not shine, so wouldn't it be a bit dark to draw the curtains?"

Ji Feng laughed, "The sunlight outside is too harsh, I like darker places."

"Young Ji, could it be that you have some silence in your heart?" Rong Suyan asked with a smile.

"How so?" Ji Feng couldn't help but ask, at the same time, he looked sideways towards the window, the white spider had already pulled the curtain open a small gap, so he could see the outside situation very clearly.

Ji Feng swept a traceless glance at the situation outside the cafe through the gap in the curtain, and he couldn't help but frown slightly. Since he entered the cafe, the feeling of being watched disappeared. Although it was hot outside now, there were quite a few pedestrians, and there were also constant passing vehicles on the road in front of him, so it was impossible to see where the person who was watching him was.

Not to mention the exact location, I couldn't even be sure of the general direction!

It seems that one can only wait slowly and wait for the other party to appear on their own initiative, otherwise, it would be difficult to find them in the crowd.

But Ji Feng wasn't in a hurry either, he had plenty of patience. As long as the other party wanted to disadvantage him, he would definitely appear. If you want to say that you should be anxious, it would be the other party who should be anxious!

Ji Feng then collected his thoughts and chatted with Rong Suyan, while White Spider was in charge of keeping an eye on the outside, trying to find out the opponent hiding in the shadows. She had worked as an assassin and was still very familiar with such dark hands hiding in the shadows, so as long as the other party appeared, she would definitely be able to find it out.

At the same time, on that road in front of the Olympic Park, a black car was parked in the shade of a large tree, with four people sitting in it. Apart from the big man in charge of driving, the other three were each holding a telescope, watching from afar as the three Ji Feng slowly entered the cafe, talking and laughing.

Seeing this scene, one of them had an ugly look on his face and couldn't help but let out a cold snort from his nose, cursing under his breath.

If Ji Feng had been here, he would have recognised at once that this cursing guy was no other than the 'successful man' he had met on the plane, Tension Qin.

The other three men in the car were the same three people who had picked up Zhang Liqin at the airport when he got off the plane.

"Old Fourth, looking at your expression you don't seem very happy, do you?"

The skinny monkey sitting in the back seat, seeing Zhang Liqin's expression, couldn't help but laugh, "This Miss Rong family's thousand-year-old daughter, that beauty is famous in our Yuezhou, let you take her first, and you're still not happy? If you have the ability, you can kill two birds with one stone and play with three batches!"

"Of course not, such a superb woman seriously, it's the first time I've ever laid hands on such a woman, and it's thanks to big brother for giving me this opportunity ah, if big brother hadn't called me back from abroad, I would have really missed out." Zhang Liqin couldn't help but heave a smile.

"Then why are you still cursing and swearing?" A big man sitting in the passenger seat couldn't help but ask, "Old Fourth, you're not sure you can handle it and are backing out, are you?"

"No matter what kind of woman I am, as long as I am in love with her, she will never get away. If we can't get hold of her, we still have the ultimate means, it's no big deal!" Zhang Liqin laughed, "What I hate is that little bastard next to those two women!"

"That's the young man?" Slim Monkey couldn't help but be stunned, "Lao Si, you know him?"

"See that other superb woman next to Rong Suyan? She's that little bastard's girlfriend. When I took the plane back this morning, I planned to make a move on this woman, but that little bastard ruined it for me, and I never thought I'd run into him again here!" Zhang Liqin couldn't help but snort coldly, "This is really an injustice!"

One of the big men was taken aback, "Lao Si, you've got a lot of nerve, haven't you? You dare to do it on a plane?"

Chapter 1070

One of the big men was taken aback, "Lao Si, you've got a lot of nerve, haven't you? You dare to do it on a plane?"

"Hey, Third Brother, you don't understand this, do you?" Zhang Liqin laughed, "Don't look at the small place on the plane, but it's especially exciting, pull into the bathroom and fuck there, there are stewardesses walking by outside from time to time, hey, that taste is not ordinary wonderful ah."

"You're not afraid to get into trouble, if something happens on the plane, you won't have anywhere to run!" The big man couldn't help but stammer.

"Hey, without three or three, who dares to go up the mountain?"

The first thing you need to do is to get to know the woman you're with, and you can't do it on the plane."

"So, if you come across an extremely good woman, just use drugs!" Zhang Liqin's hand shook and a white handkerchief was held in his hand, just like playing magic, "Ecstasy plus aphrodisiac is enough to turn the most chaste lady into a slut in the shortest time."

"So when you're done, people won't find out, huh?" That third brother was dumbfounded to hear that, and couldn't help but ask in a daze.

"How can they find out about it" Tension Chin smiled lustfully, "If you're banging a single woman, clean her up afterwards, it's in the bathroom anyway, it's convenient. Then just pretend to be her boyfriend, help her back to her seat while she's confused, cultivate a relationship with her while she's still a little confused, and maybe even become a long term **."

"So, what if it's with a companion?"

"If it's a companion, likewise clean her up a bit, then pretend to come out as if nothing happened, even if she finds out afterwards that there is something different about her body, she will definitely not make a statement, moreover, even if she wants to make a statement, there is no evidence well, playing with it is also for nothing, what can happen?" When it comes to this aspect, Tension Qin immediately talked about his experience incessantly.

The other three were dumbfounded, and Tension Qin laughed: "It's not necessary to say that big brother is thinking about big things, he is the one who is in charge of our brothers, and he doesn't have time for this. However, second brother and third brother, you two are different, don't practice martial arts all day, only put your mind on fists and kicks, taste more of the taste of women, you will find that it is definitely more enjoyable than you defeating an opponent!"

"Lao Si, you're really" Even the skinny monkey boss was a bit dumbfounded, and only after a long time did he laugh: "I don't think there's anyone else in the world who can study this to such an extent except you, Lao Si! I don't think there's anyone else in the world who can compare to you!"

"Hey, how can we say that the four of us have our own strengths?"

Instead of being ashamed, Zhang Liqin laughed: "The eldest is in charge of the overall situation, and is involved with all the forces in Yuezhou, so he has the best connections and the most powerful mind. The second and third brothers, when it comes to kung fu, I'm afraid that in the whole of southern Guangdong, you are all ranked among the best.

"Old Fourth is right, we four brothers together, no matter where we are, we are also famous." The boss of the skinny monkeys nodded and said, very satisfied with Tension Qin's words, "No, this time someone approached me, asking us brothers to go and find some 'discomfort' for the Rong family, the price is not low."

"The matter of dealing with the Rong family women is on me." Zhang Liqin patted his chest and said, "However, the little bastard with Rong Suyan, I need you to do something about it, Second Brother and Third Brother.

"That's a no brainer!" The skinny monkey boss nodded and said, "Lao Er Lao San's kung fu is nothing to write home about, not to mention such a kid, even those so-called experts are no match for them" Lao Er, what is that kung fu you guys practice called again?"

"It's an internal martial art!" Lao Er returned.

"Yes, it's this internal martial art, Old Four, you've been gone for so long, you don't know a lot of things, last time Old Two had nothing to do, he went to a black boxing match and ended up knocking his opponent to the ground with one punch and couldn't get up." The skinny monkey boss said, "Dealing with that kid is even more handy!"

Zhang Liqin laughed heatedly, "Really? Let's try to get the kid to a remote place. We don't have to kill him yet, just punch him one by one, and make him cry."

"It's still early in the day, let's not rush to do it so early, Old Two, you follow them first, we'll do it later in the evening." The skinny monkey boss deliberated for a moment and said, "For now, let's go back and think it over and find the safest way"

"That's right, find a safe way, when the time comes, second brother and third brother you are responsible for beating this kid to death, and I, in front of him, will have a good time with those two women!" Zhang Liqin said with a heated smile.

A few people said, can't help but a burst of laughing, especially tension Qin, laughing even more, he seems to see Ji Feng was beaten to the knees begging for mercy scene, heart that screams a happy!

"Young Ji, that cooperation project you told me about some time ago, has it started now?" In the cafe, Ji Feng and the three of them cooled off a little before Rong Suyan gathered her hair and asked with a light smile.

"It hasn't started yet, but it's currently being prepared" By the way, didn't I tell you to contact Han Zhong, the general manager of the Tengfei Group." Ji Feng asked curiously, "He didn't agree? Or did you not contact him?"

"Neither!"

Rong Suyan shook her head lightly and said, "It's just because the situation is still a bit unstable, and besides, my father's side hasn't been dealt with yet, so I didn't get around to contacting"

Ji Feng nodded and after a moment of deliberation, he said, "Let's do this, anyway, things are almost taken care of over here, when you return to Jiangzhou, you should immediately go find Han Zhong, right now the Tengfei Group is negotiating with Mingguang Electric about cooperation, there may be some shortage in terms of funds, which is just right for your venture capital company to carry out business."

"Young Ji, thank you!"

Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile and said, "Since we're all friends now, there's no point in talking about this all the time."

Rong Suyan nodded and smiled, but in her heart, she knew very well that Ji Feng was indeed looking after her.

In fact, back then, in order to deal with the Ji family together with the Wu family, Rong Suyan had once learned something about the Tengfei Group in detail. Of course, at that time, the Tengfei Group had not yet been established, but all the companies under Xiao Yuxuan's name, the Wu family had given her detailed information, so this was no different from learning about the Tengfei Group.

According to her understanding, the Tengfei Group was not involved in any other industries other than in pharmaceuticals and the internet, moreover, both Xiao's Pharmaceutical Factory and Tengfei Pharmaceutical Factory, that were both steadily profitable and very lucrative. Therefore, the capital reserves of these companies are still very sufficient.

Later on, when several companies merged together to form the Tengfei Group, the capital became even more concentrated.

Under such circumstances, if the Tengfei Group wanted to enter the electrical industry or the electronics industry, there should be no difficulty in terms of capital, and there was absolutely no need to bring in foreign capital.

So for Ji Feng to bring in Rong's Ventures now was clearly an attempt to help Rong Suyan, which she knew very well.

"Young Ji, since you are planning to enter the electrical industry, I can help a little in terms of channels." Rong Suyan said, "There are several relatively large electrical appliance companies in China that have business dealings with the Rong Peng Group, and my father has a pretty good friendship with those old bosses"

"That would be perfect." Ji Feng smiled: "Funds, channels, technology but all kinds of conditions that can make the goods hot, we have, next, it is also the time to do a big job."

Rong Suyan nodded with a smile on her face, she knew that from now on, both herself and her father would be firmly tied to Ji Feng

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do.

It is naturally very good to cooperate with Rong Peng and Rong Suyan on the business side. The problem is, how to position Rong Peng and his daughter?

Just pure collaborators?

Ji Feng could not help but secretly shake his head, although it was indeed very good to cooperate with Rong Peng and his daughter, after all, their business ability was obvious to all, and there was certainly no loss in cooperating with them, and maybe even more profit.

However, how long can this cooperation last?

According to Ji Feng's plan, in the future, not only pharmaceuticals and electrical appliances, he also had a lot of mechanical and weapons knowledge in his head, all of which would definitely be put into production gradually, and at least some of that knowledge would definitely be applied to the commercial field.

With this advanced and professional knowledge of his, coupled with the rapidly expanding Tengfei Group, there is naturally no need to say much about the future prospects.

So frankly speaking, with Rong Peng and Rong Suyan in the state they are in now, if we think about it in the long run, it would be better not to cooperate with them and have all the industries held by the Tengfei Group rather than cooperating.

After all, as long as it is a partnership, the shares will have to be shared out, and if something changes in the future, such as Rong Peng suddenly withdrawing his shares, then I am afraid that it will cause a certain amount of turmoil for the whole Tengfei Group, and such a consequence may not be impossible!

Therefore, how to position them becomes a matter that must be considered now.
