Chapter 1171

“What do you see?” Zhang Lei frowned at once and asked in a low voice.

If it was just a handful of punks, Ji Feng would definitely not have spoken to him in such a cautious tone, so Zhang Lei understood that the guy they had just started a conflict with was definitely not an ordinary punk, nor was he the kind of thug who could not die after seeing no one.

“I haven’t seen anything specifically, but one thing is for sure, this guy has definitely seen blood.”

Ji Feng said in a low voice, “He has that aura of ruthlessness about him! Such a person is either from an iron-blooded organization that fights all the time, or, someone from the Dao, and I think this guy should be the latter. But the more such a person is, the more ruthless he is, and if what he said when he left is true, then they definitely won’t be able to let go of what happened just now.”

“People from the Tao?!” Zhang Lei snorted at once, “I think these people are all impatient to live, even if they are powerful, can they still fight against the police? They simply don’t know how to live or die!”

“That’s true, but if they really want to do something, you can still be on guard all the time, right?” Ji Feng laughed, “Besides, we’re out to have fun today, we’re not here to cause trouble. In case something scares Yao Yao, what’s the point of coming out to have fun?”

“Then just reveal your identity! I’ll go find those guys now and warn them a bit so that they won’t dare to mess around!” Zhang Lei said.

Since they were people from the Dao, they would definitely understand that some people could be messed with, but some people could not be messed with. This was especially true for people like them who were fishing for a side door. Normally, as long as they don’t make too much noise and have some connections with various parties, others won’t touch them, but if they really dare to mess with those they shouldn’t, they won’t even know how they’ll die!

So generally, people like this will have an instinctive sense of good luck and avoiding disaster. Zhang Lei believed that once he and Ji Feng revealed their identities, the other party would definitely tighten up a lot.

But Ji Feng waved his hand and said, “There’s no need for that, just be careful, don’t make a big deal out of it!”

“That’s fine!”

Zhang Lei nodded and said, “Since that’s the case, then when we go back, if we find that the situation is not right, you take Yao Yao and the others to go first, Jing Yi and I will be at the back, as long as that son of a bitch dares to show his head, I will have to kill him!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head and smiled, and casually said, “If they do it on the way, then you can explain your identity to them, or just call the police, you take care of your own safety.”

“Don’t worry, I know what to do.” Zhang Lei said.

Ji Feng also did not say another word about this topic, he was still very confident about Zhang Lei's skills, now the average expert could not even get close to him, not to mention that this was still Jiangzhou, it was convenient to do anything. And it's still broad daylight, even if some people are ruthless, they still have to take some into account.

In fact, the reason why Ji Feng had to be on guard was just in case, in fact he really didn't take that person just now seriously. He had seen a lot of people on the road, even a ruthless character like Xu Yuan's father Xu Long, Ji Feng didn't even put it in his eyes, let alone that Chang Chongwei just now.

The reason he arranged for Zhang Lei was that he didn't want to scare Yao Yao because of this matter.

This little girl was already pitiful enough on her own, it would not be good if she got scared again after she could not easily come out to play for once. What's more, with a child as cute as this, I'm afraid no one would be able to bear to let her get hurt.

"Daddy, come and eat dumplings" the little girl's voice came over.

Ji Feng instantly smiled: "Here it comes."

"It's really worthy of a child, forgetting to be afraid so quickly." Zhang Lei also couldn't help but shake his head and smile as he walked over.

In the afternoon, Ji Feng continued to take the little girl to play, because the weather in the afternoon was even hotter, especially around two o'clock in the afternoon, that temperature could simply reach forty to fifty degrees, the little girl's hot little face was flushed and her hair was wet.

Ji Feng then took her, went to play indoors, look at the sea world, and played some indoor items such as bumper cars, the little girl's laughter almost never broke.

She played until 4pm, when the little girl finally got tired.

Ji Feng held her with one hand, this little girl hooked her two little hands around Ji Feng's neck, leaned on his shoulder and just fell asleep.

"Let's go, see she's had her fun too!" Ji Feng laughed.

When the group left the playground and White Spider and Little Shadow picked up their cars from the car park, Ji Feng felt something was wrong when he swept his gaze.

He didn't move, he just gave Zhang Lei a wink.

"What's wrong?" Zhang Lei asked in a low voice.

"Something is not right!" Ji Feng said, "Be careful later."

"That bastard is still really going to do it?" Zhang Lei was instantly a bit angry, "I haven't even said to fix him yet, but he dares to do it first? I think he's tired of living!"

"Come on, don't just make harsh words." Ji Feng laughed, "Send Yao Yao home first, we'll talk about the rest later."

Only then did Zhang Lei nod, but he was still a bit reluctant and couldn't help but ask, "Crazy, is there something wrong with the way we look. Do we both have a bullying face? How come a cat or a dog dares to come and bite?"

Ji Feng lost his smile and said, "It's hard to say."

"Maybe people who are handsome are jealous!" Zhang Lei said.

Scenes like this, both Ji Feng and Zhang Lei had seen a lot of them, and they didn't have a bit of nervousness at all, in fact, it was that they didn't even put that Chang Chongwei in their eyes.

Soon, White Spider and Little Shadow drove the car out, Ji Feng thought about it and said, "Yu Xuan, you and Little Shadow and Jingyi, you three take Yao Yao back first, just call Zhang Ma's phone when you get to the lake area."

"Aren't you guys going back together?" Xiao Yuxuan was slightly stunned.

"Lei Zi and I still have some business." Ji Feng said, "We'll go back soon."

"Is there something wrong?" Xiao Yuxuan sensed something keenly, and she couldn't help but hurry to ask.

"It's not a big deal, it's just that guy I met when we finally had dinner, I'm worried that he'll be reckless in the future without knowing the importance of the situation, so I'm going to check him out!" Ji Feng made a haphazard excuse.

Xiao Yuxuan didn't suspect anything, after all, that guy at noon was indeed a bit arrogant, and with Ji Feng's temper, he would definitely be on guard against him.

"Then you guys come back after you finish your business." Xiao Yuxuan admonished.

Ji Feng nodded and said to Xiao Ying, "Xiao Ying, their safety can be entrusted to you, don't be careless!"

"Yes!" Little Shadow answered.

Xiao Yuxuan took Yao Yao from Ji Feng's arms and carried her to the car, Zhang Lei also said a few words to Shen Jingyi and let her get into the car too. And then, Little Shadow drove away in the BMW X6 that Ji Feng had, while the three of them got into the Audi that had originally been driven by Zhang Lei.

"White Spider, you don't need to follow me, immediately call a car and follow Yu Xuan and the girls, if you encounter someone attacking, kill them without alerting them as much as possible!" Ji Feng said.

"What about you?" White Spider immediately asked.

"You don't have to worry about me, go ahead!" Ji Feng smiled and said.

Bai Spider hesitated for a moment, then nodded her head and agreed, she also knew that Ji Feng was very strong, ordinary people would not pose any threat to him at all.

There were many taxis at the entrance of the amusement park, and Bai Spider casually waved for one and followed behind Xiao Yuxuan and the girls' car, trailing behind.

During this process, Ji Feng kept an eye on the movements around him. Although the entrance to this amusement park was noisy and surprisingly crowded, among these people, Ji Feng could still feel that someone was staring at him, but he couldn't find out exactly which one for a while.

However, Ji Feng was able to determine the general direction.

.....

At the same time, in a building just opposite the playground, there were two people standing in front of the window, looking down.

One of them, with binoculars in his hand, was looking towards the entrance of the playground.

A moment later, his brow, which was hidden behind the binoculars, furrowed, "There are two young men there, about the same age and size, which one is Ji Feng?!"

The man spoke Chinese, but strangely enough, he spoke in a very stiff, stumbling tone, and did not seem to be a Chinese.

"Back to you sir, the one in the blue T-shirt is Ji Feng!" The man next to him said.

"Humph! Is it just like that, just such an ordinary guy who actually caused us so much trouble?" The one holding the binoculars looked very unhappy, he put the binoculars down and suddenly jabbered something.

"Yes! Sir!"

The man next to him immediately nodded and responded, "Don't worry, today he will be gone from this world forever!"

"No!" The man with the binoculars fiercely put his hand up, "We can't let him die like this, he's still useful, in the future, he will be my pawn! Still, the moves that need to be made, need to be made."

"..... yes!" The other man nodded his head.

.....

"Lei Zi, let's go"

Ji Feng stood in front of the car for a few minutes, meditating and sensing, and after determining a few directions, he opened the car door and sat directly on the driver's seat.

At this point, he already roughly knew that there were at least three directions where people were watching him, or at least, they were watching him. Ji Feng didn't think that he looked that attractive to others, so it was obvious that these people must have had bad intentions.

"Go? Where to go?" Zhang Lei was slightly stunned.

"Of course we're following the White Spider's car!" Ji Feng laughed, "Get in!"

Zhang Lei turned around and sat on the passenger seat and asked, "Didn't you say that there are people with bad intentions? We're not staying to deal with those people, so we're just going straight back?"

“There are so many people here, they won’t make a move, and even if we want to deal with them, we may not be able to find their location accurately!” Ji Feng said, “Let’s go, let’s wait for them on the road ahead!”

Only then did Zhang Lei dawn on him, he nodded and said, “Good, these bastards are really domineering too, we have to teach them a good lesson today!”

“Knock, knock, knock!”

Just at that moment, someone knocked on their car window.

Chapter 1172

Ji Feng and Zhang Lei immediately looked up and saw a man with two tall figures standing right outside the car door, and another man standing directly in front of the car, blocking Ji Feng’s way to them.

Bang!

The sound of the car door closing suddenly rang out, and two more men sat directly on the back seat of the car.

“Buzz~~”

Ji Feng lowered the car window, and Zhang Lei immediately asked in a deep voice, “What for?!”

“Two, I hope you will follow the command of the two men behind you.” A man standing outside the car door had a cold smile on his face, “Their temper is not too good, moreover, they have weapons in their hands oh!”

“What?!”

Zhang Lei didn’t react for a moment, and only after a moment did he ask in dismay, “What, you want to kidnap? Or are you going to hold us hostage?”

“It’s just that our boss wants to treat you to a big meal, but he’s afraid you’ll be too polite and refuse to go on the date, so he has to use this method to invite you!” The man looked courteous as he spoke, but the teasing in his eyes could not be concealed.

Moreover, there was a cold light in this man’s eyes when he talked about eating a big meal, so obviously this was definitely not something good!

“He rubbed his temples and said helplessly, “I’ve seen all kinds of things in my life, but I’ve never seen such an invitation to dinner! What’s even more outrageous is that this is a fucking invitation to dinner for Laozi!”

His face sank, “You really think I’m that easy to bully!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, he threw a lightning-like punch through the car window, instantly hitting the man who had spoken.

Bang!

How sturdy that man's body was, but he was directly hit by Zhang Lei's punch and fell to the ground instantly, cleanly! All the way up to this point, the others outside the car had surprisingly not even reacted yet, showing how powerful and fast Zhang Lei's fist was!

Zhang Lei, however, did not hold back as he was about to push the door and get out of the car.

The next moment, Ji Feng laughed, and Zhang Lei couldn't help but shake his head as he sat back in the car.

Behind them, there were two guns pointing at them.

"I see, you guys really want to die!" Zhang Lei's face was incomparably gloomy as he said coldly, "Get out of the car right now before I get mad, or else"

CLICK!

The hammer of the pistol was pulled up, and Zhang Lei could only shake his head with a smile and said morosely, "You have guts! But I have to tell you, guys, you're dead!"

Ji Feng's gaze was slightly different, he looked at the few people standing outside the car, and then through the rear view mirror inside the car, he looked at the two guys sitting in the back seat of the car, his eyebrows slightly furrowed in thought.

These guys, not like the usual kind of gangsters, and even if they were from the road, they were a bit too powerful.

Especially the two guys sitting in the back seat of the car, they were even more powerful and excessive. Seeing that their companion was beaten up, not only did they not feel the slightest bit nervous and panicked, but they were calm as ever, and their actions were clean and crisp, absolutely no delay, they moved their guns when they said they would, and they pulled the hammer when they said they would!

Both their demeanour and their movements were neat and uniform, fast and precise, as if they had been trained to an extremely strict standard.

If they were really men of the road, then no matter whose men they were, that man would definitely be a famous yakuza big shot. Such elite henchmen were too hard to come by.

But what if these people were not from the Dao?

Ji Feng couldn't help but feel a stir in his heart, and when he saw these people, he suddenly thought of something and his eyes couldn't help but narrow slightly.

"The person who sent you here is Chang Chongwei, right?" Ji Feng asked indifferently.

"Hoo~~!" The guy who had been knocked down by Zhang Lei's punch earlier was helped up from the ground by his companion, his face was red and the veins on his forehead were high up, showing what kind of pain he was enduring.

"You'll see!" The man said through clenched teeth, his voice still trembling a little as he spoke, obviously in a lot of pain.

Ji Feng smiled indifferently, turned his head to look at the two guys in the back seat again and asked, "Are you two with them too? Both belong to the same boss?"

Those two guys, however, acted as if they hadn't heard, and just held their guns tightly, pointing at Ji Feng and Zhang Lei's heads.

"Oh" Ji Feng smiled faintly and said indifferently, "No matter who sent you, let him go to the police station to collect you!"

Before his words fell, he saw his body twist violently, and his two hands actually grabbed the wrists of those two people directly, those two people suddenly turned pale and pulled the trigger violently, but they suddenly found that they couldn't make their hands any stronger!

Bang Bang!

Zhang Lei backhanded two fists and smashed them over, the two men in the back seat instantly rolled their eyes and were directly knocked unconscious.

Before the people outside could react, Ji Feng and the two of them pushed open the car door, Ji Feng put one hand on the roof of the car and with a violent force, his whole body flipped over the car and smashed a fierce foot on the head of one of them.

At this time, Zhang Lei had also finished off the other two.

The guy standing in front of the car was almost stunned, and didn't even react until Zhang Lei had him by the neck.

"Say! Who sent you here! Was it Chang Chongwei?" Zhang Lei's voice was cold as he asked.

"Yes, it's Brother Peng!"

"Who's Brother Peng?"

"Yes, it's the boss here"

"Do you know Chang Chongwei?!" Zhang Lei asked in a cold voice.

The guy shook his head in fear, "No, don't know him, big brother, we are also here on Brother Peng's orders to do our job"

"Lei Zi, send them to the police station at the playground, I'll call your uncle and ask him to pick them up!" Ji Feng suddenly said, "Hurry up!"

Usually large public entertainment occasions like amusement parks have a special guard duty room, which is much more convenient, otherwise, Ji Feng and the others would still need to wait here until the police arrived, and that would be too much of a delay.

Zhang Lei, however, was stunned, this didn't matter?

But since Ji Feng had spoken, he nodded, and together with Ji Feng, they lifted these people up and threw them into the police station.

And then, Ji Feng called Zheng Yuanshan directly, “Uncle Zheng, there is something else I need to trouble you with

With Zheng Yuanshan’s intervention, Ji Feng and Zhang Lei left the police station directly without even taking a statement.

“Crazy man, why are you leaving in such a hurry?” Zhang Lei asked with a frown.

Ji Feng pointed ahead and smiled, “Yu Xuan and the girls are all far away, I’m worried that they might be in danger!”

Zhang Lei suddenly looked aghast and immediately said, “Drive drive drive, drive quickly!”

“You guy” Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, quickly started the car and stepped on the accelerator, “Lei Zi, give Chief Zheng a call, tell him the details of what happened, in addition, say that I asked him to properly check out those few people’s background, including their background, and the people behind them, especially those two guys with guns, make sure you check!”

“Okay!”

Zhang Lei nodded, took out his phone and dialed Zheng Yuanshan.

At this moment, Ji Feng, on the other hand, had an awe-inspiring look in his eyes. In fact, what happened just now was just a small incident, except for the two guys with guns that caught Ji Feng’s attention, the others were not even on Ji Feng’s radar.

The reason why he had to leave in a hurry was, on the one hand, because he was worried about Xiao Yuxuan and the girls’ safety, but more than that, there was still another reason. In fact, there was one thing he did not explain to Zhang Lei, apart from those people just now, Ji Feng felt that there were still people watching him, and, those people in the shadows, surprisingly, were vaguely giving Ji Feng a hint of pressure.

There were still people preparing in the shadows, and their eyes, for sure, were aimed at themselves! Ji Feng’s heart was aghast.

.....

Buzz~~!

Ji Feng drove his car with a bland face, looking laid back and relaxed as if nothing had happened.

But if you look closely you will find that Ji Feng’s eyes are almost unfocused and his gaze appears to be scattered. For example, he was obviously driving, but that attention was not at all in front of him, but swept over the surroundings from time to time and finally fell back to the rear view mirror.

Ji Feng was sensing an air of danger here.

This is an instinctive intuition, but after several times, his intuition has proven to be accurate, especially in recent times, almost without any mistakes.

Now, Ji Feng likewise felt that there was danger creeping closer and closer, and his face sank.

That fellow called Chang Chongwei was really bold, to be able to make Ji Feng feel the danger, then it was obvious that the other party was planning to kill!

Moreover, this guy had actually arranged several batches of manpower, and if one batch was unsuccessful, several more batches of people would come and do it!

He wouldn't give up until they were dead!

Ji Feng's eyes narrowed slightly, deliberating slightly for a moment, but he had a little doubt in his heart.

Those people just now, were they really sent by Chang Chongwei?

He had never heard of this person's name in the past two years in Jiangzhou. If this Chang Chongwei was not from Jiangzhou, then he was able to mobilize these people in such a short time, and there were two very powerful guys among them, then this was really a fierce dragon crossing the river!

Ji Feng's hand subconsciously touched under the seat, but after his hand reached out, he was stunned. There was nothing under the seat, it was empty.

"Hmm?!"

Ji Feng's brow furrowed as he slightly swept his head down, and then he couldn't help but shake his head with a smile.

"What's wrong?" Zhang Lei asked.

"Nothing, I thought I was driving the original X6 now!" Ji Feng laughed, "If I had known, I would have given this car to Yu Xuan and the girls to drive."

"What's the difference?" Zhang Lei asked, "If we encounter danger, the X6 can pick up speed much faster, which is very beneficial to them. We're fine driving this crappy car, why do we need to change?"

"Because my pistol is inside that X6!" Ji Feng laughed bitterly, "Usually I put it under the car seat out of habit, I only remembered when I touched it just now, it's not the same car I'm driving now."

Zhang Lei immediately realized something, he asked in a deep voice, "What did you find?"

Chapter 1173

Zhang Lei immediately realized something, and he asked in a deep voice, "What did you find out?"

Just now at the entrance of the amusement park, Zhang Lei felt that Ji Feng's reaction was a bit strange, he should have grabbed those few guys and chased after them, to get the origin of the few guys clear as soon as possible, but Ji Feng gave up decisively and just threw those few guys to the police while they left as soon as possible.

Now that Ji Feng was preparing his gun again, Zhang Lei understood that Ji Feng must have sensed some kind of trouble, and it was definitely much trickier than the guys just now!

You know, back then, even when he went to the Tan family to kick in the door, Ji Feng didn't even bring a gun with him, he just handed it over to the White Spider.

But now he wanted the gun

“Things may have changed a bit, or be a bit more complicated than we expected!” Ji Feng laughed, “Having a gun in hand is more or less safe, but now Lei Zi, if something happens later, we can only rely on our fists.”

“Fists to fight only painful, using guns is too violent!” Zhang Lei laughed, “Just now, for example, it’s much more enjoyable to hit someone with your fists!”

“I’m afraid that people won’t give you the chance to use your fists, in that case, it’s useless even if your fists are hard!” Ji Feng said.

Zhang Lei then nodded and his eyes became stern, being able to force Ji Feng to even plan to use a pistol, that was enough to see that things were obviously not ordinary and should be much more serious than originally thought.

“What’s that thing called, Chang Chongwei, right?”

Zhang Lei’s voice was cold, “I think that guy really wants to die, just for that little spat, he actually dared to you mourn for him, he’s definitely going to be unlucky this time!”

“It’s a pity, I should have known that I wouldn’t have given the gun to the police station when I was in front of the amusement park earlier.” Zhang Lei shook his head, “Two pistols at that time, exactly one for each of us, no matter who came over, we could have beaten him all over the face!”

“Not having a gun doesn’t necessarily determine the final outcome.” Ji Feng said, “It’s just slightly more passive, but it’s not completely out of the question.”

“That’s a good point, for me, having a gun or not doesn’t really make much difference, unless the opponent stands still in front of me and lets me fight!” Zhang Lei laughed: “In close quarters, with a gun in my hand, I might as well just use my fists!”

Ji Feng laughed and looked up at the taxi in front of him.

After some time of chasing, Ji Feng caught up with Xiao Yuxuan and White Spider and their car, and then he slowed down again and distanced himself from White Spider and the others.

Within a short time, Ji Feng found that the White Spider and the others had gone far away and that there was a red light just ahead and the car was stuck in traffic.

But at this time, Ji Feng was not in too much of a hurry, at least he knew that Xiao Yuxuan and the others were not in any danger.

Ji Feng’s gaze fell to the rear view mirror again, a few cars were slowly following behind.

When the green light came on, Ji Feng slammed on the accelerator, while quickly turning the steering wheel, the Audi made a steep turn and raced away quickly along a main road.

“Crazy, what are you doing? This is not the road they are taking!” Zhang Lei hurriedly said, “Wrong way, right?”

“They’re already safe, we need to lure the car following behind us away!” Ji Feng said, “With White Spider and Little Shadow following, you can rest assured of their safety.”

Zhang Lei jerked back and saw that there were indeed several cars following behind them, but the speed of the cars was not very fast, always keeping a similar distance from the Audi, and these cars kept crossing forward, if not for Ji Feng's reminder, he would not have been able to tell that these cars were following them.

"Not a small formation!" Zhang Lei was fearless and sneered.

When Ji Feng's gaze swept over the rearview mirror and found that none of those vehicles that were following them were missing, a smile flashed across the corner of his mouth, but it was cold.

Since none of these cars were trailing Xiao Yuxuan and the girls and all of them were running towards him, this meant that these people were indeed targeting him. And this, however, was exactly what Ji Feng wanted, since they were all here, then don't go back either!

Ji Feng drove his car and drove along the main road all the way through the inner ring road, to the outer ring, and straight to the suburbs.

Since we have to settle, let's find a more spacious place, where everyone's target is obvious and it's convenient to do it!

It took nearly an hour to drive from the city to the nearest suburb, and during this process, Ji Feng had been patiently observing those vehicles, and gradually, his face gloomed.

Ji Feng found that those vehicles were staggered very regularly and cooperated with each other quite well, obviously, at least among those drivers, there was a very tacit understanding, this staggering looked very simple, however, it was difficult to really do it, because it was not only to stagger the driving, but also to ensure that the people being followed would not notice, this could be very difficult.

"Crazy, should we call for help?" Zhang Lei asked in a deep voice.

Ji Feng shook his head, "It's already too late even to call someone now, except for the police!"

"The police will come and do even less!" Zhang Lei immediately shook his head and said, "Once these people see the police, they will definitely run faster than anyone else, and it won't be easy to find them again then!"

"That's it!" Ji Feng smiled lightly, "Take some risks and try to lure them all out!"

"Good!" Zhang Lei nodded excitedly and said, "Don't let me know that these people were sent by Chang Chongwei, otherwise, I'll have to cut him to pieces!"

"If it's really the people sent by Chang Chongwei, then you really may not be able to move him!" Ji Feng said, "Let's not talk about the other things, just this formation alone, can ordinary people mobilize so many people in such a short period of time? What's more, those two people with guns just now are not simple, I suspect that they are probably soldiers!"

"Soldiers?!"

Zhang Lei was suddenly slightly stunned, "Are you kidding? Crazy, does that Chang Chongwei look like a soldier at all? How could he possibly mobilize a soldier?!"

“It may not be an active duty soldier, or a retired veteran, or perhaps, someone who has done mercenary work” Ji Feng said, “but no matter which one, it shows that this Chang Chongwei has a lot of energy, such a person, if he doesn’t have If there is no backstage and background, do you think he can exert himself in the country?”

“In that case, that guy is still an over-the-hill dragon!” Zhang Lei said.

“No matter what we say now, it’s all speculation. When the results of the trial come out from your uncle’s side, we’ll know everything.” Ji Feng said, “Now our task is to lure out all those people hiding in the shadows!”

Zhang Lei couldn’t help but shake his head and laugh, “This is really saying it’s out to play, but it’s actually become a group meeting, all kinds of cats and dogs are jumping out, soldiers, punks, do you think there will be killers? Maybe there will be a group of people with guns sweeping at us”

“Lei Zi, I suddenly found a problem.” Ji Feng suddenly said.

“What problem?” Battlecry was slightly stunned.

“You kid is a crow’s mouth!” Ji Feng snorted coldly and jerked the steering wheel, the car jolted steeply, emitting a sharp sound and unexpectedly shifted a full two to three metres sideways on the road.

Zhang Lei was instantly shocked: “Crazy, are you really crazy?!”

Bang!

His words had not yet fallen, a gunshot suddenly came, and Zhang Lei saw straight away that the road next to him just now was shot with sparks!

“..... Holy shit!” Zhang Lei was immediately stunned: “There really is a killer?”

Judging from where that bullet hit, if Ji Feng hadn’t suddenly done a drift, that bullet would have hit the car right on the spot, and obviously, the person behind them was shooting at them!

“Thanks to you!”

Ji Feng said without good humour, “Do you want to guess again and see if the other party has any other weapons besides guns, like rockets or something?!”

Although he had been talking to Zhang Lei, his attention had been on the cars that were following behind him, and when he noticed that from one of the cars behind, a rifle was sticking out, he knew that Zhang Lei, the crow’s mouth, was really right.

So Ji Feng made a split-second decision and played a direct drift to dodge the other side’s bullets.

“That what, I also said it casually, I didn’t expect it really”

Bang!

Before Zhang Lei could finish his words, he was once again interrupted by the sound of gunfire.

“Wow!” A sound, the bullet smashed the rear light of the car.

Zhang Lei immediately said, "Crazy, we can't go on like this, this has been passive, we have to find a way to fight back!"

"Take your stinky shoes and throw them!" Ji Feng said as he drove.

"....." Zhang Lei was speechless.

"Don't worry, just dodge this section." Ji Feng said, "There's a wasteland up ahead, let's get rid of these people there!"

"How do you know?" Zhang Lei was stunned.

"Because I like to watch the news!" Ji Feng said. There was a piece of land in front of here that had just been auctioned off for a property development, but it was still wasteland, and Ji Feng had seen it on TV the other day, the grass was high and it was all wild, perfect for getting your hands dirty!

However, yet it had to be said that both Ji Feng and Zhang Lei were bold.

There were a few cars chasing behind them, and there were even bullets coming from time to time, which might have pierced right through the seats and hit them. However, these two guys were not afraid in the slightest, instead they were talking and laughing.

They even managed to tease and flirt with each other!

Ji Feng kept stepping on the accelerator, and his car skills were brought to the highest level. The gunman in the car behind him fired a dozen shots, but apart from breaking one of the Audi's rear lights, he never hit it again.

Zhang Lei turned back frequently and said through gritted teeth, "Son of a bitch, the first person I'm going to beat up later is this guy who fired the gun!"

If you looked from above you would have seen several cars on the road speeding along, chasing each other. The Audi in front of them made some difficult drifts from time to time and whizzed by!

Finally, the suburb was here, and the wilderness that Ji Feng had mentioned was close at hand!

Chapter 1174

"Here it comes!"

Zhang Lei's gaze burned as he stared intently at the few cars gradually approaching on the road in front of him, a cold glint in his eyes, "No matter how powerful these dogs of Chang Chong Wei are, this will be their burial place today!"

This was a barren wilderness, it was August, the weeds here were very lush, some of them were even waist deep, the branches were so thick and leafy, it was almost as if they were saplings. It was precisely because of this that Ji Feng and Zhang Lei were given the best hiding place. They hid in the grass, and outsiders could not see any shadow at all when they looked at them.

What's more, it was all green grass, so even if they set fire to it, it would definitely not give Ji Feng and Zhang Lei half a hurt, and it was even a big question whether they could light it.

Therefore, Ji Feng and the two of them could hide here with complete confidence, without having to worry about being discovered at all.

However, this was not the ultimate goal for the two of them, it would be really easy to avoid these people, all Ji Feng needed to do was to go on a wild goose chase and he would be able to get rid of all these people. But he didn't do that, he just put his car skills to the test in the last few minutes and brushed off those who were trailing the future.

And then, Ji Feng left the Audi at the side of the road, while he and Zhang Lei quickly went to hide in the grass, watching for any movement on the road.

The reason for leaving the car by the roadside was to tell those who were tracking them that he and Zhang Lei were not far away and were hiding around here, so as long as they had the guts, feel free to come over. It was believed that those people were furious and had weapons in their hands, they would definitely come over to search for them, they would not let go of such a good opportunity.

Buzz~~!

Those cars were already close to the roadside, and after braking sharply, they stopped at the roadside.

"These people's driving skills are not bad at all!" Zhang Lei frowned and couldn't help but sneer, "Crazy, it looks like you're right, that Chang Chongwei is really not an ordinary person, there are really experts under his hands!"

Along the way, Ji Feng drove furiously, but the bullets from the back were firing from time to time, and they were hitting in the right places, if it wasn't for Ji Feng's good driving skills, constantly changing positions and driving routes, I'm afraid they would have been hit long ago.

This was not a movie, the car was moving at a rapid pace, and to hit a moving target accurately, it definitely required very good marksmanship.

That's why Zhang Lei said that those people were experts, or at least the person who shot and the person who drove the car, were both experts.

However, Ji Feng shook his head slightly, it was not too sure if these people were sent by Chang Chongwei, because Ji Feng always had a feeling that these people were not the same group as the ones they met at the entrance of the amusement park before, their style of action was different and the ruthlessness of their methods was also completely different.

Those people at the entrance of the amusement park were just going to arrest Ji Feng and Zhang Lei to meet their boss. Whereas now, these people, it was clear that they wanted them dead!

"What a lively day!" Ji Feng sneered, "All the bulls and devils are here, I just don't know if there are any other spirits and demons!"

"No matter who comes, let's do it first!" Zhang Lei's eyes flickered with bearish anger, he didn't notice any difference between these people and the guys he met at the entrance of the amusement park before, despite the suspicions in his heart, he still thought that they were all sent by Chang Chongwei.

When he thought of how that bastard had raised such a fuss to finish them off just for a little spat between them, Zhang Lei gritted his teeth in anger.

This bastard, he was so crazy that he had no limits!

However, in addition to his anger, Zhang Lei was also vaguely excited.

This was the first time he had ever encountered this kind of scene where he was being chased and killed. In the previous chase on the road, he and Ji Feng could only be passively beaten because they had no weapons in their hands, but now, it was different.

They were in the dark and those guys were in the light, which gave the duo great room to play.

Zhang Lei looked around, and a joyful look appeared on his face at once. In this wasteland, there were some broken stones and other rocks and other things that came from somewhere, perhaps left over from the road construction, these were all excellent treasures for sneak attacks.

Zhang Lei casually picked up a stone, but was stopped by Ji Feng: "Don't rush first, wait for those people to get closer and scatter before we make a move!"

The doors of several cars on the roadside had opened, and about thirteen or fourteen people leaned over cautiously.

"A total of fourteen people, three long guns, and a few pistols, the rest are barehanded" Ji Feng was very keen to see those people clearly, "Lei Zi, later hit those with weapons first, to aim The first thing you need to do is hit them, and try to get a hit!"

"Don't worry, I'm not good with guns, but I can still kill someone with a brick!" Zhang Lei said in a cold voice.

"Okay, let's split up now, I'll make the first move and attract their attention, you can strike from behind!" Ji Feng said, moving slowly through the grass.

Bang!

Ji Feng had not gone far when a gunshot suddenly came, Ji Feng's eyes suddenly flinched, this one with the gun, was really tricky and extremely quick to react.

.....

However, neither Ji Feng nor the guys chasing them noticed that there were several cars parked on the side of the road a long way from this grass, and in one of the SUVs, there was a man with binoculars, watching the situation over here.

"Into the grass?"

The corners of this man's mouth pulled up in a slight curve, "It looks like this guy really has some ability, he actually knows to run into the grass!"

"Sir, do our men want to make a move?!" A man sitting in the passenger seat asked, slightly respectfully.

"No!"

The man who was called sir said flatly, "Our men will strike when these people are almost depleted!"

“But” the man couldn’t help but hesitate a little, “Sir, I don’t think these people are all that bad, if they kill Ji Feng, it will be too late for us to make a move.”

“If they die, they die!” The person called sir said indifferently, “He caused us no small amount of trouble, it’s not enough to die! However, I do think that he won’t die so easily, if he was killed so easily, he wouldn’t deserve all the trouble he caused us Watch, it could be exciting down there!”

“..... Yes!” The man in the passenger seat nodded his head.

However, there was some hesitation in his heart, just these two boys, with so many men armed with weapons searching for them, what else could they turn up?!

His looked at the few cars in front and behind him, where all their men were sitting, all of them were absolutely tough elites. If they made a move, then even if Ji Feng was more powerful, he would definitely not have any chance of escaping!

.....

Ji Feng was half crouching, bowing his waist and leaning his upper body forward, a posture that was most suitable for a sudden attack, like a cheetah about to pounce on its prey.

In his hand, he was pinching a few small stones, his gaze sharp.

Through that gap in the grass, Ji Feng could clearly see that there was a gunman slowly approaching, and beside him, there was a man with a pistol, as well as a bare-handed fighter!

This discovery made Ji Feng’s brow furrow slightly and his eyes grew more and more stern.

The opponent’s coordination was regular, the long gun, the short gun and the beater cooperated with each other and covered each other, and the distance between them, the position they were standing in, all had a pattern to them!

“These people are not ordinary!” Ji Feng once again affirmed this speculation of his, this gang of people, had definitely been professionally trained, and moreover, it was certainly not the first time they had done this kind of thing, “Where on earth did this gang of people come out from? Are they really the ones sent by Chang Chongwei?”

The closer those three people came, the more Ji Feng’s mind flashed through countless ways to attack, the angle

Bang!

One of the men with a pistol casually fired a shot and the bullet hit the ground next to Ji Feng, but he didn’t even blink, just the moment after the man fired, Ji Feng suddenly stormed up and struck out like lightning with a few stones in his hand.

This was the most lax moment for them, and the one angle they were least likely to defend against, when Ji Feng struck!

Swoosh swoosh~~!

Those few stones, which were simply more powerful than bullets, hit those three men with unerring accuracy in an instant, and in a flash, those three fell to the ground as their bodies went limp.

Bang Bang Bang Bang

The other side's reaction was so fast that just the moment those three men fell down, several other gunmen opened fire.

"Hoo~~!" Without even looking, Ji Feng rolled on the ground, not only hiding in the grass, but also rolling away the two guns on the ground.

Bang~!

A stone instantly flew out of the bushes and hit a man's head.

Bang Bang Bang!

Several more rocks flew out and the sound of gunshots suddenly diminished quite a bit, at the same time, Ji Feng had already pulled up the bolt, knelt down on one knee and raised his gun to fire.

"Bang!"

A man's eyebrow instantly flashed a red dot and he fell directly to the ground with a shot to the head!

All the rest of them were shocked and scrambled to dodge.

This time, the form was instantly reversed, under the cooperation of Ji Feng and Zhang Lei, all the gunmen were all put down, and the ones left, were those bare handed fighters. And at this moment, Ji Feng was holding a long gun, he was not afraid of anyone who came!

"Lei Zi, I'll leave the people here to you, I'll go over there!" Ji Feng and Zhang Lei leaned together again, and Ji Feng's gaze, fell on those cars by the roadside.

"What's the point of going over there?! Zhang Lei asked in a low voice, while at the same time, his gaze was constantly scanning the surroundings.

"The big fish is over there!"

Ji Feng said, "Remember, be careful of those people picking up the guns"

After saying that, Ji Feng then bent through the grass and went straight to the road, he had seen just now, in the car by the road, there were shadows of people shifting, obviously, there was still someone left there, this person, might be the big fish!

Chapter 1175

The fierce gunfire had completely disappeared after just a moment, as if a string of firecrackers had been set off, and a very short string at that.

When the gunshots came to an abrupt end, those gunmen who were after Zhang Lei and Ji Feng were all put down.

Afterwards, Ji Feng simply explained a few words to Zhang Lei, and then he quickly stalked towards the road, ready to catch the big fish that was hiding in the car.

Fortunately, this was a suburban area, and a very remote one at that, so Ji Feng could feel at ease to surround himself with these people and uncover the person behind the other side!

The so-called suburban area is not necessarily the kind of place where there is no village in front and no shop at the back, but just far away from the city.

However, this battlefield that Ji Feng had chosen was this kind of place that was desolate to the extreme.

This piece of land has already been auctioned off and groundbreaking will soon begin. And as this place was originally wilderness, there weren't any households either, so there was no need for any demolition or other work at all.

Therefore, this place was very different from other suburbs, although it was not quite deserted, there were very few homes at least for a few kilometres in the vicinity.

It was because of this that Ji Feng had chosen this place as a battlefield.

Whether he shot or moved his knife here, no one would find out and it would not affect Ji Feng's plan.

The waist-deep grass helped Ji Feng a lot, as he was able to move quickly through the grass, and the opponent could only see the swaying grass at most, but could not see Ji Feng's figure.

At the same time, Ji Feng held the rifle in his hand horizontally, and everywhere he passed, a large area of grass would shake, but in fact, Ji Feng himself was at least a meter away from the shaking grass, so that even if the opponent found the shaking grass, he would definitely not be able to hit Ji Feng accurately, because the opponent could not accurately determine where Ji Feng was.

In fact, it wasn't just Ji Feng and Zhang Lei in the grass now, there were also those beaters.

So even if the man sitting in the car spotted the swaying grass, he would never think it was Ji Feng closing in on him!

It wasn't really that far from Ji Feng's position to the road, but Ji Feng was so careful that it took him a good three or four minutes to reach the roadside. And at this time, he still didn't come out of the grass immediately, he just hid in it and patiently observed the situation in the car.

"No more gunfire?!" In an off-road vehicle in the distance, the corner of the man holding the binoculars pulled up the corner of his mouth, "Looks like those people are in trouble, this Ji Feng really didn't let me down!"

"Sir, do you mean to say that those people can't shoot?!" The man sitting in the passenger seat was immediately taken aback, unable to fire, this means that those people have all been put down I'm afraid, this is just too incredible.

"Ji Feng's fighting ability is not bad, I'm more optimistic about him now!" The man called sir smiled very confidently, "Tell our men to get ready, as the saying goes, the mantis catches the cicada, the yellow bird is behind it, today, I'm going to capture Ji Feng alive!"

“Yes!” The other man immediately nodded and answered.

.....

And at this time, on the roadside near the grass, there were several cars parked, and in the middle one, there were two men sitting in the same car. Only, this duo, who seemed to be very imposing, was about thirty years old and looked as if he was a superior man, as he sat in the back seat of the car.

The other man in the driver’s seat, on the other hand, was dressed like a bodyguard.

“Something’s not quite right!” The man in his thirties said with a frown, “Why has the gunfire stopped?”

He squinted his eyes and looked outside, but could see nothing. Even though it was already five o’clock in the afternoon, the sun still hadn’t set, and from his direction, he could still see the slightly blinding sunlight.

“Boss, do you want me to go down and take a look?” The bodyguard asked in a low voice.

“What are you doing down there?!” The man in his thirties but his eyes glared, “If you go down there, who will protect my safety? I’m telling you, as soon as you find out that something is not right later, you drive immediately, I’m doing a job for someone and settling my hatred by the way, but I’m not here to play with my life, remember?”

“Yes, remember!” The bodyguard immediately nodded his head.

“Well, just be ready to drive at all times, don’t concern yourself with what’s going on over there!” The man waved his hand and turned his head to look at the large expanse of dense grass, an imperceptible panic flashed in his eyes, he seemed to remember something, he couldn’t help but swallow his saliva and his throat moved.

..... It was a sign of nervousness!

The dense grass, not a bit of movement, so many people who went in before, like small stones thrown into the sea, it seems that apart from that “thud!” There was no more movement, not even a wave.

The situation was just a little too bizarre.

“This really seems a bit off, can’t so many people be unable to do Ji Feng?” The man muttered in some panic, seemingly asking himself, and seemingly asking the bodyguard in front of him.

After thinking about it, he hurriedly took out the walkie-talkie from the seat next to him.

Zizi~~~!

“It’s the boss, it’s the boss, what’s the situation?” As soon as the intercom was connected, he hurriedly asked.

“Boss, the situation has changed Zizi!”

“What change? Hey hey, what” The man’s words ended abruptly before he could finish, his face full of dumbfoundedness, with a strong look of shock in his eyes.

“Snap!” In a flash, the walkie-talkie in his hand fell on the seat.

And at the same time, the bodyguard sitting in the driver's seat reacted. He subconsciously reached for his waist, but seeing the scene outside the window, he could only slowly raise his hand.

Outside the car window, a young man stood expressionlessly outside, his left hand, holding a pistol, his right hand clutching a rifle, just standing there, not even saying a word, but both the man in the back seat of the car and the bodyguard sitting in the driver's seat felt a chilling sensation all over their bodies!

A murderous feeling rising up!

This was what the two men in the car saw in the eyes of the man standing outside the car, and they could be sure that the young man outside the car, wanted to kill them!

The gun in Ji Feng's hand moved and he took a step back, signalling for the two of them to get out of the car.

When that bodyguard saw that Ji Feng's gaze fell on the man behind him, he quietly moved his body and gradually lowered his hand, wanting to draw his gun.

"Bang! Bang!"

Ji Feng fired a direct shot, directly piercing both sides of that bodyguard's shoulders.

"Ugh!" The bodyguard immediately let out a muffled cry and shuddered, the intense pain made his face turn pale.

"Bang!"

Ji Feng didn't let up and shot the man in the leg again.

"Bang Bang Bang" Ji Feng held the pistol at the bodyguard and kept shooting the bullets in the magazine before he stopped. Only, he did not hit any of the vital points, but even so, it had already made the bodyguard painful and unbearable, and finally passed out directly.

The man in the back seat of the car was so scared that he was shaking as if the shots had been fired at him.

"Come out!"

Ji Feng looked at him, his face incomparably gloomy, and coldly shouted, "Die! Or get out!"

"Don't, don't shoot, I'll come out, I'll come out" the man cried, almost on the verge of tears of fear, and said in a panic.

"Get out immediately!" Ji Feng roared lowly.

The man was so frightened that he opened the car door and came down, the original aura of that big man disappeared without a trace, and even, he was so frightened that his face was pale, all as if he was a dead dog, almost kneeling down to Ji Feng.

"Ji, Ji Shao" The man struggled to squeeze a smile on his face that was worse than crying, and his voice was trembling.

Ji Feng's face was however incomparably gloomy, looking at this guy with an undisguised murderous intent in his eyes, "So it was you, I said who the hell was so ruthless that they had to want me dead or alive, I thought left and right but never thought that the mastermind behind it was actually you!"

"Ji Shao, I'm wrong" The man was so scared that his body trembled and he actually cried out, he knelt down in front of Ji Feng with a thud, "I know I'm wrong, Ji Shao, please be merciful, don't kill me!"

Ji Feng stared at him coldly and said indifferently, "Zheng Haoyu, you have put up such a big front and mobilized so many men to take my life, so you can't rest in peace if I don't die, right? So, do you think I will let you go?"

This man kneeling in front of Ji Feng was no other than Zheng Haoyu, who had dealt with Ji Feng more than once, that is, Qin Shujie's ex-husband, which was something Ji Feng had not expected in any way!

Ji Feng had never thought that the person behind such a huge mobilization of so many gunmen and fighters would be Zheng Haoyu!

This person should be killed!

Seeing the murderous intent in Ji Feng's eyes getting thicker and thicker, Zheng Haoyu knelt on the ground, his body trembling continuously, "Ji, young Ji, I was also confused for a moment, please forgive me, I beg you, I beg you to spare my life, I will do whatever you want me to do in the future, I am your dog, I am willing to be your dog... I'll be your dog..."

The current Zheng Haoyu, where was he, had no trace of his graceful appearance, he knelt on the ground, looking up at Ji Feng, crying and begging, hoping that Ji Feng could spare his life.

That kind of look simply made people feel sick just by looking at him!

"Fortunately, Qin Shujie didn't see your current appearance, otherwise, she would have to die head over heels in shame!" Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head, "You're not even as good as a dog! Being a dog, you're insulting a dog!"

"Yes, yes, I'm worse than a dog, I'm really worse than a dog, beg Ji Shao to give a way to live, please" Zheng Haoyu was really frightened, Ji Feng's relentless constant shooting at the bodyguard had scared Zheng Haoyu's guts out, he simply no longer had the slightest the guts to resist!

Chaptet 1176

Zheng Haoyu knelt on the ground and cried out in pain, constantly begging, hoping that Ji Feng would let him go, or at least spare his life.

Looking at this look, which was worse than a ghost, Ji Feng was simply disgusted, however, Zheng Haoyu's next words instantly made Ji Feng burn with rage.

"Ji, Ji Shao, please spare me for the sake of Shujie, I know I'm wrong, from now on Shujie is yours, please, Yao Yao is also yours" Before Zheng Haoyu could finish his words, Ji Feng burst into a rage.

"Bullshit!"

Ji Feng shouted angrily and viciously kicked Zheng Haoyu on the chin, surprisingly, one kick sent his whole body flying, as if he had directly flipped a backflip and plopped down on the roof of the car at once.

The rifle in Ji Feng's hand was pressed against Zheng Haoyu's head and he gritted his teeth, "Laozi just wants to shoot you now!"

"Well don't, please, don't shoot" Zheng Haoyu was in pain and panic, his body was trembling and he was lying on the roof of the car like a dead dog, not even daring to move. But that pain made him struggle subconsciously and instinctively.

"Slap!" Ji Feng fiercely slapped him on the face: "Dog, don't be afraid to speak out, I've never seen such a shameless man like you!"

"I, I'm not a man, I'm just a dog, young Ji, please spare my life as a dog" Zheng Haoyu begged bitterly with a shy face.

Ji Feng almost didn't die of disgust, he took a deep breath and coldly shouted, "Say, why are you targeting me, where did you transfer these people from, don't tell me that these people are your men!"

"I, I'm confused, I deserve to die, Ji Shao, I"

"Slap!"

Ji Feng slapped Zheng Haoyu's face fiercely, "Cut the crap, answer my question, where did you transfer those people from?!"

"Yes yes yes, I'll answer the question, those people are not my men, they are"

His words had only just reached this point when Ji Feng's face abruptly changed slightly, he fiercely dodged and his entire person directly slid under the car. And at the same time, two gunshots suddenly came.

"Bang Bang!"

"Clatter!" With one sound, the car window glass was shattered, while Zheng Haoyu, who was completely on top, was shot in the head.

"Fuck!" Ji Feng cursed angrily, his whole body stood up against the other side of the car's door, turned around, raised his gun, he didn't even aim, he pulled the trigger directly at the east side.

"Bang!"

With the passing of a gunshot, he saw a figure on a large tree on the roadside not far away, falling straight down from the tree and falling straight to the ground.

Ji Feng's eyebrows were furrowed, a cold light in his eyes, and a murderous spirit rose up in his heart.

"This bastard!" Ji Feng's face was frighteningly cold, and he stared straight at the guy who had fallen to the ground, practically wanting to go straight over and whip him.

He had just wanted to ask something from Zheng Haoyu, but he hadn't expected that someone was secretly trying to kill him and Zheng Haoyu! Not only did they want to kill Zheng Haoyu to silence him, but they also wanted to kill him!

"Bastards! Bastards!" Ji Feng was furious in his heart, but his face didn't show it at all. His gaze kept scanning the surroundings, it was useless to be angry now, the most crucial thing was to find out if there were any more killers hiding in the shadows!

"What bullshit super agents, they can't even stop a bullet!" Ji Feng couldn't help but curse, if he wasn't afraid of bullets, he would have captured all these people alive long ago, even if there was someone in the shadows firing cold shots, he could still slap the bullets away, instead of being silenced so directly like this, just after asking a little bit of clues.

"Bang!"

Another gunshot rang out, and Ji Feng snapped back, and saw that Zhang Lei was holding a gun and directly shot a man down.

And then, he came straight over this way with big strides, "Crazy, what's the situation?"

"Get down!" Ji Feng shouted lowly.

When Zhang Lei heard that, he immediately catapulted himself into the grass and quickly hid himself, and then he quickly rushed over.

"Crazy, what's the situation?!" Zhang Lei also hid on this side of the car and asked in a low voice.

"There are killers in the dark!" Ji Feng said with a sullen face, "Today's situation is so complicated that it caught me a bit off guard, really all kinds of demons and spirits have rushed here!"

"It seems that today is a cluster of demons!" Zhang Lei said, and then, his eyes stared, "Crazy, did you see those cars in front of you? Do you know what's going on?"

"I've seen them, but they're too far away and there's nothing to hide around here, we can't rush through." Ji Feng said.

Looking in the direction of the killer that Ji Feng had just killed, one could see that there were a few cars that were parked by the roadside, about a thousand meters away from this side.

And in the middle of this, it was all a flat road, and the grass in the middle was not even this high, and there was a bare area in front of it, with only some centimeter high grass, there was no hiding place at all, and it was impossible to sneak past here.

What's more, the identity of the people in the other car is still unknown, and in case the other side has a gun, it's impossible to rush straight through "Crazy, can you see clearly what kind of people are in that car?" Zhang Lei asked in a low voice.

Ji Feng shook his head, "The distance is too far, I can't see too clearly."

"Then can you hold the gun in your hand?" Zhang Lei asked, "Think of a way, give him a shot, no matter if it's people with bad intentions or people watching, drive them away first!"

“No way!”

Ji Feng shook his head, and then looked at the semi-automatic rifle in his hand, could not help but let out a bitter smile, “If there is a long-range sniper rifle, it is possible to make precise strikes, but by relying on the semi-automatic rifle, the bullets can hit the place, but this accuracy, it is not easy to say

“So what now?” Zhang Lei asked, frowning.

“Three things!”

Ji Feng stretched out three fingers, “The first, you call Shen Jingyi now and report to her that she is safe, and I will also call Yu Xuan and the girls. They’re both very smart, we’re going separately from them, there must be something going on and this can’t be hidden from them. Second thing, I’ll cover you here, you go and pick up two more rifles and come over!”

“And then what?” Zhang Lei asked.

“The rest is up to me, right now we are too far away from each other, you are not good at playing with guns, you can’t help much!” Ji Feng said.

“..... That’s fine!” Without saying a word, Zhang Lei immediately turned around and went back to pick up his gun.

Ji Feng, on the other hand, took out his mobile phone and first dialed Xiao Yuxuan’s number: “Yuxuan, have you arrived home yet?”

“Almost there, just sent Yao Yao home, by the way, is there nothing wrong with you guys?” Xiao Yuxuan asked.

“We’re almost back too, just a little situation on the way, we’ll be fine after dealing with it.” Ji Feng smiled, “Then give me a call when you arrive home!”

After closing the line, Ji Feng’s face was once again gloomy, he deliberated for a moment, picked up the phone again, pulled out a number from the address book and dialed it.

“Hello, Old Xiang, this is Ji Feng.” Ji Feng said in a deep voice: “I’m in trouble now, there’s something I need your help with

.....

“Good shot!”

In an off-road vehicle on the far side of the road, the man called sir, took a look at the killer who was shot down by Ji Feng in the distance and couldn’t help but sigh in admiration, “I’m afraid this must be a distance of nearly a thousand meters, and it was shot down with just one shot, really a master!”

“Sir, it looks like all those people were taken care of by Ji Feng and the others, should our men go up?” The man sitting at the front asked.

“This young man’s strength is really somewhat beyond my expectations, I had already overestimated him, but I didn’t think that I would still underestimate!” This man had a hint of surprise on his face, “Send a sniper and give him a show!”

“Yes!” The man in front of him immediately nodded in response, and then, with a wave of his hand, one of the men in the car in front of him immediately opened the door and set up a sniper rifle in the car park.

Bang!

.....

“Son of a bitch!” Ji Feng pressed his body against the car and looked at Zheng Haoyu who was jolted by the bullet on the roof of the car, Ji Feng’s face was incomparably gloomy, he violently smashed the car window glass with the butt of the gun and aimed the gun at the sniper on the opposite side.

Bang!

Ji Feng fired, but, he didn’t see the sniper fall down.

“Missed!” Ji Feng’s eyebrows immediately tightened, “The distance is too far, the rifle’s bullets are starting to drift”

He gritted his teeth and took a deep breath to calm himself down. But just at that moment, the opposite side was suddenly another gunshot, the other side’s sniper actually fired again!

Bang!

The tremendous impact of that bullet once again hit Zheng Haoyu’s corpse position with a jolt.

“Provocation?!” Ji Feng’s eyebrows were raised.

Ji Feng urged the bio-current, acting on his eyes, his eyes slightly narrowed, aiming, aiming again, to find that feeling before the sniper’s head, appeared in Ji Feng’s line of sight Ji Feng pulled the trigger violently!

Bang!

The next moment, I saw that sniper directly bald to the ground, a shot to the head!

“Bang!” Ji Feng fired again, the bullet directly pierced the windshield of that other car, directly taking out the driver who was driving!

“Bang Bang Bang Bang!” Since he had already aimed, then Ji Feng no longer had the slightest hesitation at all, his finger kept pulling the trigger and the bullets kept shooting out, one after another.

In his line of sight, the people in that first car, before they could even react, were all taken out!

“Ka!” When Ji Feng pulled the trigger for the last time, there was an empty sound, no more bullets.

“Lei Zi!”

Ji Feng shouted, “Get the gun!”

“Coming!” Zhang Lei’s voice also came through, and he ran over from the grass, holding two rifles.

At that moment, the two men sitting in that SUV, however, changed their faces.

Ji Feng’s toughness was beyond their imagination!

Chapter 1177

Ji Feng and Zhang Lei’s toughness was indeed beyond everyone’s imagination, especially Ji Feng’s shot that was so strong that it sent shivers down one’s spine!

Point-blank shots, all of them!

Ji Feng had taken out everyone in the first car with just one shot, one point blank shot!

This kind of terrifying marksmanship simply made people shudder just thinking about it.

Even if it was closer, even if it was a thousand meters, it would be like a dream to be able to shoot with such precision with just a semi-automatic rifle!

It is not unheard of for experts with guns to kill at point blank range from a couple of kilometres away, and some of them can even snipe from further away. However, those people were not only professional snipers, but also, what they were holding, was definitely the most professional sniper rifle, not like what Ji Feng was doing now, picking up a semi-automatic rifle casually and actually being able to shoot such a terrifying result, which was simply unimaginable.

In the SUV, the man with the binoculars sank, his tightly furrowed brows indicating the gravity in his heart, Ji Feng’s performance, could no longer be described as stunning, it was a complete almost demonizing toughness.

“Sir, should we back up a bit? Ji Feng’s marksmanship is just too powerful!” Looking at the car in front of him, which had almost been beaten into a sieve, the man sitting in the passenger seat could not help but have a flash of shock and gravity in his eyes as he asked in a low voice.

He could not afford to be careless, knowing that if the bullet had only had more penetrating power, it would have hit their SUV directly.

The man who was called sir, however, shook his head and said, “No need to be so nervous, the stronger Ji Feng is, the better it will be for us, because only then will he be able to play a greater role after being called a pawn. Now I’m getting more and more interested in him, such a little guy, not only does he have so much energy because of his identity, but also, he actually has such strong strength himself is a good pawn!”

“But sir, your safety” The man sitting in front of him was about to say something else, but was cut off by the man behind him.

He shook his head, “You don’t have to worry about my safety, even if Ji Feng is tough, he is only one person, he can’t hurt me yet. It’s just that now our plan is going to take a few more twists and turns, this little guy, he’s really too tough!”

The man could not help but pause for a moment as he spoke before continuing, "Send a few more snipers to put some pressure on him."

"Yes!" The man in front of him immediately nodded his head before he brought an earpiece to his ear, "Snipers, take up positions"

.....

"Crazy, who the hell are these people?" Zhang Lei narrowed his eyes and looked at the cars in the distance, "Does Chang Chongwei really just have so much energy to be able to mobilize so many people in such a short period of time?"

Seeing the waves of attackers, Zhang Lei also realized clearly that there was a high possibility that these people were not in a group, otherwise, when they ambushed those guys in the bushes just now, the people in the distant sedan should have come down to support those guys, instead of waiting until now to start you and me shooting back and forth.

As a result, Zhang Lei then felt that it seemed that Ji Feng was really right, things were much more complicated than originally expected and, moreover, there had been many unanticipated changes.

Ji Feng was ejecting the bullets from one of the rifle magazines, one by one, and after that, he pressed all the extra bullets into the other magazine, and carefully checked that there were now two magazines, and if they were full, there should be thirty-six bullets in each one, but now, only one magazine was full, and the other only had a few bullets left.

"No matter who they are, or whether they were sent by Chang Chongwei or not, we just know one thing, these people are definitely not going to come to invite us as guests, let alone come to catch up with us on family matters!" Ji Feng loaded the magazine onto his gun and coldly snorted, "There were four cars across the street, I knocked out one, and there were three more, plus an SUV."

"If you count five people in each car, there are almost twenty of them." Zhang Lei immediately interjected.

"Twenty people, I have forty rounds of bullets, on average, they were able to rake in two rounds each!" Ji Feng sneered, "Lei Zi, guess, with these forty rounds of bullets, can I finish them all off?"

Zhang Lei raised his eyes and looked at the row of cars in the distance, he couldn't help but shake his head, "It's hard, madman, if the opposite cars were arranged horizontally, I guess you'd still be close, but they are now arranged in a single line, the remaining few cars, a large part of them are blocked by the one in front, I'm afraid it's not easy for you to kill the people inside so point blank. "

"Yeah, that's a problem!" Ji Feng nodded helplessly and looked left and right.

In fact it was indeed a very troublesome problem, from where Ji Feng was there was about a few hundred meters ahead, that road had an arc, a big turn, this angle changed, just as the car in front blocked the two cars and an SUV behind it, because the distance was too far, it was impossible to see clearly.

Even, whether the other side is only these cars are not easy to say, no one knows, whether there are cars were all blocked

Now Ji Feng and Zhang Lei are once again in a passive position, and neither of them dare to make a rash move, because as soon as they step out of the grass and leave the shelter of the car, then they will become the most obvious target on this flat ground and become a living target for the other side!

However, as they were too far away from each other, it was a bit difficult for them to move their angle to shoot at point blank.

Zhang Lei's gaze, however, fell on the car they were hiding in.

After a moment of slight hesitation, Zhang Lei couldn't help but whisper, "Crazy, do you think this is okay, let's push the car a bit further forward"

"Do you want to use the car as a cover and thus adjust the angle so that those people on the opposite side are exposed to our line of sight?" Ji Feng immediately understood Zhang Lei's meaning and couldn't help but shake his head, saying, "This solution won't work, ah, the other side has snipers!"

"Can snipers be that accurate?" Zhang Lei said, "Then this way, we can open the car door as cover, just like the movie staged, I believe we should be able to"

Ji Feng lost his smile, "Know what is meant by snipers? They are engaged in precision shooting, do you think they can hit accurately?"

Also open the car door for cover, Ji Feng believed that as long as they dared to show themselves, the crosshairs in the other party's scope would definitely be aimed directly at their heads, the reaction, judgment and ruthlessness of those snipers, never hold the slightest doubt, otherwise, it will be paid for with a small life!

"Then you say this won't work, you come up with a way!" Zhang Lei said, "Now people don't leave or come over, they just confront you, it's clear that they want to provoke, what can you do about it!"

"Lei Zi, don't you think something is wrong?" Ji Feng asked with a tight frown, "Think about it carefully, this last group of people, they shouldn't be in the same gang as Zheng Haoyu's people in front of them, right? Then what is the purpose of their coming here? To kill me? But why didn't they just give Zheng Haoyu a hand, instead of waiting until they were all beaten up before they did it?"

"But if they didn't aim to kill us, then why did they shoot at us just now, and, now they are still confronting us, this is now an absolute right and wrong place, they dare to stay here and not leave, so they are obviously not ordinary people, right?" Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

The behaviour of this last group of people was really too odd, making it hard for Ji Feng to understand their purpose and intention, to fight but not to kill, to leave but not to leave, just to stay here and confront them, what exactly were these people up to?

"Never mind what they are!" Zhang Lei was not so patient in nature, he waved his hand violently and said, "This way, do you have a way to deal with them or not, if you do, the two of us will have a good time with them, if you don't have a way either, then do as I say, or just call the police, you decide!"

"Do as you say!" Ji Feng said without hesitation.

As far as this current situation was concerned, Ji Feng really didn't have anything too good to do, there was no space to hide and buffer, no one else had good weapons, and there were experts with guns on the opposite side, these few things alone were enough to put off any thoughts of impact for Ji Feng.

As for calling the police, Ji Feng had already called Xiang Yongzhan, so naturally there was no need to call the police, instead, these people stayed here for the confrontation, Ji Feng was happy, once they waited for Xiang Yongzhan to arrive, they wouldn't be able to get away even if they wanted to!

"Dang!"

Ji Feng pulled open the door of the car close to his side, which happened to be the driver's seat.

However, as soon as Ji Feng came to open the door of the driver's seat, he heard a thud and a man fell off the driver's seat and fell directly to the ground without a sound.

This was Zheng Haoyu's bodyguard, the poor guy, who had been shot by Ji Feng for an unknown number of times in a row, and although he didn't hit the vital points, it was enough to cause him some pain. However, the two shots that came out of nowhere from that assassin directly ended the lives of both Zheng Haoyu and this bodyguard.

Ji Feng couldn't help but shake his head and stopped thinking about this. He lifted his head and saw that the car keys were still there, he was then slightly relieved, at the same time, he coldly snorted in his heart, maybe, this method of Lei Zi's could really give those guys a heavenly 'surprise'!

"Bang!"

Just then, a gunshot sounded, and the rear view mirror of the car, which was only less than twenty centimeters away from Ji Feng's head, was instantly shattered by a bullet.

Chapter 1178

"Shit!"

Zhang Lei immediately cursed angrily, his side's rear view mirror was also shot out!

"These bastards bully too much, they are clearly trying to provoke!" Zhang Lei gritted his teeth and said, "Crazy, what do we do?"

"Don't rush first, let me take a look" Ji Feng frowned tightly and squinted his eyes.

He found that a few more people had been dispatched from the opposite side, a few snipers I think, and these people were hiding behind the first car, now only showing their black muzzles, only occasionally showing a head to look when the attack was aimed.

Ji Feng's brow couldn't help but frown more tightly, these people were definitely hard to deal with, just by looking at the position they were hiding in, and that probing action, you could tell that these guys were definitely not ordinary snipers, they were not only very experienced, but also very sharp shots!

"This bunch of things, kinda powerful" Ji Feng muttered, and then, he turned his head and looked around, looked at the surroundings, and then looked at the place where the road turns, "Lei Zi, come to my side, you drive! "

“Drive?!” Zhang Lei couldn’t help but be stunned, “Crazy, now we can’t even lift our heads up, how can we drive? Isn’t that deliberately letting someone shoot us in the head?”

“Don’t worry, I’ll cover you.” Ji Feng quickly said, “Besides, who told you that you must raise your head when driving, you directly reverse see that rear view mirror overhead? Slightly adjust the angle, you bend your body down and back up against that.”

“..... I’ll just have to try as best I can.” Zhang Lei said.

“Whether or not you can leave all these people behind today depends on you.” Ji Feng said.

“So I start now?” Zhang Lei asked.

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and said, “Don’t rush yet, the person I’m waiting for hasn’t arrived yet, we’re not in a hurry to attack, let’s play with them first!”

By now Xiang Yongzhan should still be on his way, or already setting up, but Ji Feng hadn’t received news from him yet, so naturally he wouldn’t attack hastily, what he wanted, was to keep all these people and capture them all alive, he wanted to find the mastermind behind this matter!

The original thought was that they had offended a small force, Chang Chongwei, and thought that at most they would be just a few punks looking for trouble, and then they would take a step back, even if there were people on the road to settle accounts with them, but that would be the extent of it, right? What else could they do? What else could they do? Did they have to be killed because of a little spat?

But neither Zhang Lei nor Ji Feng expected that someone would really want them dead!

Moreover, it wasn’t just one or two groups of people, there were three groups of people coming from the front and back, and the people coming were more powerful and more difficult than the others.

This is like seeing a ghost in broad daylight!

The first thing that happened was that they were all in the same day, and they all came together.

For a while, even Ji Feng was unable to guess where these people had come from.

He didn’t even know, when did he offend so many people?

Could it be that these people were all sent by the dynasty?

Ji Feng thought about it and still couldn’t be sure, there wasn’t even a hint of it, he only knew that the group of people who attacked them just now were all elite teams, apart from Zheng Haoyu, everyone else was very powerful and well trained, it looked as if they were a small detachment!

And these people who were now confronting them actually had snipers again, and they also looked very powerful!

However, there was no way to guess what the identities of these people were!

In this situation, Ji Feng could only wait patiently until Xiang Yongzhan arrived with his men and cut off the retreat of these people, so that they had nowhere to run to.

But not now!

Therefore, Ji Feng could only play with them first at this time, and at the same time, he could also stall for time.

“Bang!”

Another gunshot came from the windshield, the windshield was smashed, with a clatter, those tiny glass fragments splattered the whole cockpit, while a small hole appeared on the windshield, at the same time.

Ji Feng frowned and his face sank, instantly setting his gun up and aiming it at the sniper on the opposite side.

But at this time, he found that those snipers' heads immediately shrank back after firing their shots, not giving him any chance to fire at all, which made him quite helpless.

Bang~~bang~~!

Two more snipers fired provocatively, directly blowing out the tyres of the car.

“Crazy, these guys are too bastard, these motherfuckers of theirs are simply humiliating us!” That fiery temper of Zhang Lei couldn't hold back a bit, he bellowed, “Why aren't they shooting?”

“Don't rush, you have to wait slowly for your chance, don't forget, we don't have many bullets!” Ji Feng said.

Zhang Lei nodded helplessly at once, but he also knew that what Ji Feng said was very reasonable. You know, right now they only had forty rounds of bullets, if say there were really about twenty people on the other side, then one person would only have an average chance of two bullets, and those two bullets would be an additional danger if they didn't hit.

If those bastards are so well hidden, it's not easy to hit them, so you have to be cautious, find the right opportunity and kill them in one blow!

The snipers would have to show their heads if they wanted to shoot, and as long as they dared to show their heads, Ji Feng would be sure to blow their heads off!

The first time I saw a sniper, I had to squint slightly while blocking the sunlight with both hands, so I could barely see the figures clearly, but he couldn't see more specific things, such as the expressions on their faces.

Suddenly, Zhang Lei's eyes snapped open wide.

Because he saw that a gun on the opposite side, the muzzle began to gradually deflect, and a head quietly emerged from behind the car.

“Fight! Fight! Fight!” Zhang Lei screamed wildly in his heart, but, until that head put its eyes behind the scope and was all set to fire, there was no sign of Ji Feng making any move to fire.

“.....” Zhang Lei could not stand it anymore, he turned his head and was about to shout at Ji Feng, but suddenly he heard a “bang!” A bang!

Zhang Lei was startled and immediately turned his head to look over, but was shocked to find that the sniper who had quietly emerged earlier had a bloody red head, and his whole body slid limply down the body.

This guy, he had been shot in the head!

“Swish!”

Zhang Lei snapped his head around and looked at Ji Feng in shock, but saw that he was looking at himself with a relaxed smile on his face, “Lei Zi, don’t be so furtive in doing things, find the right opportunity and kill with a single shot, have you forgotten all these?”

“I shit!” After holding it for a long time, Zhang Lei only held out this sentence, “Shooting against a sniper, you kid is too ruthless!”

Ji Feng, however, did not move, the muzzle of the gun moved slightly and pulled the trigger again.

Bang!

Another sniper was shot in the head.

Ka ka ka!

All the snipers couldn’t help but be shocked and panicked as they pulled up the bolt and hurriedly retreated.

The young man’s shooting was so accurate that they simply didn’t dare to show their heads again, at such a distance, the other side could still strike with such precision, was the other side really holding just a normal rifle and not a sniper rifle?

Not only these snipers, but even the two men sitting in the SUV could not help but pale slightly as well.

“Good boy, this shooting skill is really amazing!” The man said.

“Sir, what do we do next?!” The man in the passenger seat said, “We’ve been delayed too long now, should we retreat?”

“Retreat? No! Before retreating, we always have to leave our identity ‘proof’ for our little friend to find out, otherwise, wouldn’t we have come for nothing this time?!” The man who was called sir said with a smile.

“What does Mr. mean?”

“Let the second group attack in conjunction with the snipers!”

“..... Yes, I understand.”

“It’s just one group, don’t be upset!” The man said smilingly, “The most crucial issue is to let him know who is actually attacking him!”

“Yes! Sir!”

.....

“This group of people aren’t afraid of death, huh?” Zhang Lei frowned at the group of people in front of him, “These bastards, all of them are cowering like fucking ghosts entering a village, what are they going to do? What are they doing? Taking a human wall tactic?”

Ji Feng shook his head with a stony expression, “I don’t know!”

Following their line of sight, not far ahead of them, those snipers unexpectedly walked out from the back of the car slowly bending down, at the same time, behind them, a number of people also walked out with their waists catatonic.

These people were surprisingly uncharacteristic, from the original cautiously making an effort to hide, to the current striding forward, the contrast in between was just too great.

“Bang!”

Ji Feng casually pulled the trigger and took down a sniper, while saying, “No matter what they want to do, first take care of the gunmen, the rest of those bare-handed guys, you can take care of them alone, right?”

“That’s true!”

Zhang Lei nodded his head and said, “Then you take care of the gunmen!”

Bang!

Ji Feng immediately pulled the trigger, but his brow was furrowing more and more, these people suddenly came out from behind the car, it was so strange, these people were just like sending death, what the hell were they up to?

However, no matter what these people were actually up to, just by rushing this bizarre move of theirs, Ji Feng had a vague feeling of unease.

It seems

Ji Feng’s brow furrowed, this third set of enemies, is the most tricky?!

Chapter 1179

“Bang!”

Another gunman was taken down.

Ji Feng was holding a semi-automatic rifle, and his gaze was fixed on those gunmen on the opposite side, especially those remaining snipers, which were the focus of his defense.

The difference between the two was even more obvious, especially when it came to long-range shooting. If it wasn’t for the fact that Ji Feng’s eyesight was far superior to normal people and his marksmanship was amazing, he would have been overwhelmed by the other side and couldn’t hold his head up.

“Crazy man, don’t just shoot him in the head, you have to leave a few alive to do that!” Zhang Lei said.

Now Zhang Lei could also already be sure that something was very wrong. The combat literacy of these people and the change in the situation were no longer just ordinary interceptions, it was obvious that it was more complicated in the middle than Ji Feng and the two of them had guessed before, so it was very necessary to leave a few people alive, this was somehow intercepted and killed, it was always necessary to find out who was actually doing it!

Ji Feng, however, turned a deaf ear to this, and just fired shot after shot, and soon only two snipers were left on the other side.

“Damn it! What the hell are these people, how come they are so brave?!” Zhang Lei looked at those guys in the distance and couldn’t help but curse.

Under the suppression of Ji Feng’s such a harsh shot, those guys on the opposite side, were actually still charging forward quickly, and those who were charging at the front were actually those guys with bare hands. But the more so, those snipers hiding behind, the more scary they were. Even Ji Feng had to aim for a while before he was able to put down a sniper.

“These people’s behaviour is too bizarre, it’s almost as if they’re deliberately coming to send people to their deaths!” Zhang Lei frowned, “Crazy, beware of these people playing any tricks!”

“Bang!”

Ji Feng fiercely pulled the trigger once more, putting down another one, but missed, taking down only a guy who rushed ahead with his bare hands.

He couldn’t help but curse out, “Bastard thing!”

“Crazy, these guys wouldn’t be that what comes straight to block the gun, would they?” Zhang Lei asked.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, “It’s indeed very wrong, but we’ll have to take another look at exactly what’s going on.”

After saying that, he immediately raised his hand to look at his watch, nearly half an hour had passed, Xiang Yongzhan should also be arriving soon, by then, as long as he kept all these people, whatever tricks they played would be impossible.

“Crazy, look!” Zhang Lei suddenly said.

Ji Feng smiled and immediately looked up, and instantly noticed that the cars had actually started to turn around.

“The other party is trying to escape!” Zhang Lei immediately shouted, “Crazy, stay with them!”

“Bang!”

Before he could finish his words, he heard a sudden gunshot from the opposite side, followed by the continuous sound of dense gunfire, and Ji Feng and Zhang Lei immediately raised their eyes to look.

Clatter!

The glass of the car was immediately shattered, and the body was even more battered with holes, making it impossible for Ji Feng and Zhang Lei to lift their heads, they could only bend down and crouch on the ground, using the body as a cover to block in front of them.

“What the hell are these bastards mad about?” Zhang Lei cursed, “First they come to die, and then they suddenly go crazy”

“These shooting ones are the elite!” Ji Feng suddenly said, “Finally I understand what’s going on, those snipers hiding behind are their real elites, those in front should be cannon fodder!”

Zhang Lei heard chills all over his body and asked in shock, “What, what do you mean? Are you saying that those people at the front were deliberately sent out to die?”

“Yes, it’s obvious that they all came to send them to their deaths!” Ji Feng nodded his head.

“Then is the person commanding them crazy?” Zhang Lei was even more stunned, “So many of his men sent out to die, his brain is broken, right?”

Ji Feng shook his head with a sullen face, listening to the dense gunfire still ringing out, he couldn’t help but coldly snort, “Who knows what kind of trick the person behind this is playing, maybe there are too many men to use up, so it’s possible to send some of them out to die!”

“..... damn is a psychopath!” Zhang Lei cursed.

But in reality, neither Ji Feng nor Zhang Lei had realized the other party’s true intentions.

“Bang!”

Ji Feng didn’t even look, raised his hand and returned the shot.

The intense gunfire from the other side was still ringing out, with a tendency to fight a battle, Ji Feng raised his head from time to time, but he couldn’t show his head at all, the other side’s shooting was very accurate and specifically towards the car, showing his head had a great risk.

The other side is very accurate and specifically towards the car, showing your head has a great risk.

Ji Feng clenched his teeth and directly lay down on the ground, from under the car far can see some of the opposite situation, he found that those people’s footsteps did not approach, but lying on the ground to shoot, and, the number of people is still decreasing

“They’re running!” Ji Feng said.

“Sure enough!” Zhang Lei snorted coldly, “These guys are shrewd enough to know that they are delaying here for too long and the police will be here soon, so they are leaving.”

Ji Feng got up helplessly and spread his hands, “But there’s nothing we can do to stop it.”

There were still several gunmen left behind by the other side, and each of them was a very good shot, and they weren’t taking any chances anymore, so it was difficult to keep them at this time.

“Can we fight to leave one alive?!” Zhang Lei asked.

Ji Feng shook his head and said, "It's too difficult. The other side is too far away, even if they wound one, they will be saved, unless they leave their bodies behind."

"Damn it!"

Zhang Lei was so angry that he punched the car beside him hard, "It's just too much of a shame today, being beaten up and not even knowing exactly who was doing the dirty work, and letting the other side leave in a big way just like that, it's a disgrace!"

Ji Feng could only shake his head and laugh bitterly, Zhang Lei was right, today was just too much of a shame, but it was something that could not be helped.

Many of the opponent's men were elites, and the gunmen's marksmanship was even better, and they didn't even come close, making it difficult for Ji Feng to even try to catch up, so he could only watch as they marched away, but couldn't do anything.

The sound of gunfire from the other side gradually thinned out, and Ji Feng snapped his head up, quickly aimed and raised his gun to fire.

Bang!

This shot, hit a gunman's thigh, instantly making him fall to the ground, but the next moment, the two guys next to him simply crept and dragged that pistol gunman away, and under the cover of several other gunmen, got into a car, turned around and drove away.

"See, can't keep them at all." Ji Feng was helpless as he watched the people across the street gradually withdraw.

Zhang Lei also couldn't help but shake his head slightly, "This time, we've met a formidable opponent!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly, the opponents were so powerful that it was impossible to capture them alive, either they would be killed directly, or, they would have to watch them leave.

After a slight pause for a moment, Ji Feng took a deep breath and raised his gun again.

This time, however, he did not intend to hit anyone, but aimed at the tyres of the cars.

Since he couldn't leave anyone behind, he would hit them so that their cars couldn't be driven, so that they would have to get out of their cars and move, in which case, Ji Feng would have room to manoeuvre.

"Bang!"

A wheel was blown up.

Ji Feng then immediately moved his gun and pulled the trigger again.

Bang Bang Bang!

Three consecutive shots exploded the wheels of the other two cars, making those two cars only drive forward in a crooked manner.

“These bastards are too smart, aren’t they?” Zhang Lei couldn’t help but curse, as soon as he saw that those cars were actually still driving even though their tyres had been blown out, he immediately realized that Ji Feng’s intentions had not been realized.

Even if people had blown out their tires, they would have to drive out of the rifle’s range and then move to another car, and there were two gunmen lying on the ground sniping at Ji Feng, leaving him with no way to pursue them, and he could only watch the other party go far away.

Zhang Lei’s face was also ugly, these people were indeed tricky and very difficult to deal with, it was really hard to keep the other side with just him and Ji Feng.

However, when Ji Feng saw the two snipers lying on the ground and not following the other vehicles, he immediately said, “Good opportunity!”

“Make sure to keep them!” Zhang Lei said eagerly.

“Don’t worry!”

Ji Feng hid behind the car, raised his gun and aimed at one of the snipers.

Bang Bang!

After two shots, the sniper, who was lying on the ground, was hit in both shoulders and the sniper rifle in his hand fell to the ground. The other gunman was just about to go to the rescue when Ji Feng’s hand pulled the trigger once more.

Bang Bang

The other gunman was also hit.

“Chase!” Ji Feng shouted. Without the sniper breaking off, those cars were in danger of being left behind.

However, Ji Feng and Zhang Lei had just flipped straight over the top of the car and hadn’t taken two steps after them when they suddenly heard two gunshots from the distance.

“Bang! Bang!” The two gunmen who had been shot in the shoulder by Ji Feng had actually been killed!

Looking again in the distance, a man was retracting his head and hands from the car window. Obviously, the one who had just killed those two gunmen was the guy in this car.

Ji Feng and Zhang Lei suddenly shuddered, what a ruthless tactic, when their own companions were left behind, they were able to shoot and kill them directly without mercy, such ruthless tactics, it was truly chilling!

“Chase!” Zhang Lei gritted his teeth and was about to continue the chase.

But looking at the other party’s vehicles again, they had all left long ago and were extremely fast, having already left him a long way behind, and could no longer catch up at all.

“Fuck!” Zhang Lei cursed angrily.

Ji Feng was also watching the other party leave, but was simply unable to catch up anymore.

His face was grim as he watched the cars quickly disappear at the end of the road, and could only stand in place, not moving for a long time.

Today's encounter was really stifling, from the beginning to the end, they could do nothing to the other side. Even those corpses were shot down by Ji Feng because of the other party's odd behaviour, if the other party had been a little more restrained, Ji Feng wouldn't have been able to keep anything!

Chapter 1180

Three cars flew past on the road, these three cars were the same cars that the people who attacked Ji Feng and Zhang Lei were riding in before.

However, compared to the previous faction of cars, the three cars now had a somewhat cold paint job, and one of them had a few bullet holes, which were caused by stray bullets hitting the car, which made the situation look more or less wretched.

The three cars had been driving at speed for most of an hour before they stopped in a suburban area.

A man quickly got out of the car in front and came to the middle SUV and said respectfully, "Sir, the count is done"

"Oh, how many died?" The man sitting in the back of the SUV asked, still smiling as he spoke, as if those people who fought Ji Feng fiercely earlier had nothing to do with him, and even the fact that many of his men had died had no effect on him.

"Fifteen dead, five of them snipers, ten fighters" No matter what the man's expression was, the person reporting from outside had been very respectful, and it was obvious that he was in awe of this man in the car.

"Oh, it looks like that little friend Ji Feng did a pretty good job, actually killing so many of us in such a short period of time!" The man in the back seat of the SUV raised his eyebrows, but if one looked carefully one could still notice that the veins on his forehead still couldn't help but jump a few times when he heard that so many people had died.

"Go back!"

The man sitting in the passenger seat instructed the man outside the car, and then he turned his head and said, "Sir, this Ji Feng person is indeed very uncomplicated and has a very strong fighting ability, it looks like we need to set up properly if we want to capture him alive! Otherwise, there will be even more serious losses than this next time!"

"Hmm! Ji Feng's strength is so strong that it is indeed beyond my expectations."

The man in the back seat frankly admitted his miscalculation, "The loss of manpower is indeed a bit too much, however, it also positively verifies Ji Feng's strength and can be an accurate reference for our next move. Of course, this operation is still very rewarding, at least, Ji Feng will recognize from those corpses, who is actually attacking him, when the time comes, his revenge should not be so easy to bear, certain people, be unlucky!"

"Sir, then what should we do next?"

“What should we do?” The man smiled, “Of course we should watch the show first, we’ve already set up the stage, the rest will depend on how Ji Feng sings. But I think it should be exciting!”

“Then the task set down from above” The man in the passenger seat in front of him was a little hesitant.

“Don’t worry, from the moment we left, Ji Feng has become our pawn. Of course, to know if this pawn is handy and obedient, it depends on, when and how fierce Ji Feng’s revenge will unfold!”

“Sir is highly intelligent!” The man immediately said admiringly.

“Oh to say, this kid Ji Feng has really offended a lot of people, look, in just a moment, there are dozens of people who have laid hands on him.” The man known as sir said derisively, “It’s not easy to offend so many people.”

“Sir, with so many people going down on him at the same time, will this affect his judgement?” The man sitting in the passenger seat said with some concern, “In case he is influenced by those other people, his judgement will be faulty and he will not be able to follow the pre-defined strategy of Sir”

“That won’t happen!” The man who was called sir waved his hand and directly interrupted the former’s words as he said, “Ji Feng is a smart man, his identity, his ability, and his intelligence all determine that he is the most suitable candidate to be our pawn, this is the conclusion that was reached after a large number of people were sent from above and after a thorough investigation, therefore, Ji Feng is the most suitable pawn! ”

“Alright, let’s not talk about that, I believe that by now Ji Feng’s little friend’s reinforcements should have arrived, in order to avoid any further complications, it’s better for us to leave.”

“Yes, sir!”

The three cars continued on their way and soon disappeared at the end of the road.

.....

“Why don’t you eat and take a bath before you come back?!” Ji Feng’s face was unkind as he snorted coldly.

Looking at the large number of soldiers jumped down from the car and quickly took control of the scene, Ji Feng’s face did not ease in the slightest, but became more gloomy, especially when he saw Xiang Yongzhan’s look of a dragon walking, he was even more angry, now he knows to act quickly, what did he do earlier?!

“Have you kid taken gun pills?”

A camouflage clothed Xiang Yongzhan just walked up to Ji Feng, he was stunned by what he said, and then said in consternation, “My actions are not slow anymore, right? From the time I received your call to the time I reached here with my men, it only took forty-five minutes”

“Still merely?” Ji Feng looked at Xiang Yongzhan with an unkind face and sneered, “Do you know how many people can be killed in forty-five minutes? Not to mention just the two of us, Zhang Lei and I, the other side can completely change their ways to play countless tricks to get us both killed, and you still only used forty-five minutes?”

“You brat have to be reasonable in your words!” He laughed bitterly, “You have to know how far away our station is from here, it’s a forty minute drive, and we still ran red lights all the way here, if we run into traffic again.”

“Then I’ll be dead!”

Ji Feng directly took the words over and coldly snorted, “When the time comes, you can simply come and help me collect the corpse, instantly clean up the battlefield and do nothing else.”

“Fine, fine, I’m the one who’s wrong with you, alright!” Faced with Ji Feng’s increasingly unkind face, Xiang Yongzhan sensibly chose to go soft. It was obvious that Ji Feng had encountered something extremely unpleasant, and it would be very unwise to argue with him now, or else this guy would abuse himself, and that would be for nothing.

Ji Feng couldn’t help but give a cold snort, today’s encounter was really too much of a loser, being attacked one after another, almost giving up his life here, but up until now, still didn’t know who actually laid the black hand, and finally watched the other party leave!

This feeling can drive people crazy!

Especially when one thought that this guy Xiang Yongzhan had actually dawdled until now, the fire in Ji Feng’s heart was even greater.

“It’s useless to talk about this now, say it, what do you want me to do?!” Xiang Yongzhan wisely changed the topic, he also understood Ji Feng’s mood, it was better to do the business as soon as possible now.

“Two things!”

Ji Feng is also too lazy to talk nonsense with this guy, “First, see how many people are still alive at the scene, try to save as many as you can, and use the fastest method to interrogate who actually sent these people, who their backstage is, what they want to do to me, and where they got my information from ”

“My men are already going about it that way.” Xiang Yongzheng laughed, “What’s the second thing?”

“Secondly, I want you to use the military’s intelligence system to make sure you find out exactly what forces are involved today, and I want the most detailed information. Old Xiang, you should understand what I mean, what I want is not only who is behind the curtain, but also a detailed account of what happened, but anything related to the attack on me today, I want it all!”

“This matter is more or less troublesome, after all, using the intelligence system for no reason is more or less out of line” Before Xiang Yongzhan could finish his words, he was cut off by Ji Feng.

“One word, success or failure!” Ji Feng said with a cold face, “If it’s a success, do it immediately, if not, I’ll find someone to investigate it myself!”

“Cheng!”

Xiang Yongzhan clenched his teeth, "Since it's your senior brother Ji who asked for it, it has to be done even if it's not. I will help you find out the details of the matter even if I have to be punished."

Xiang Yongzhan knew very well that today, Ji Feng was really annoyed. If he refused again at this time, then with Ji Feng's temper, he would really find another way, but if that was the case, then the relationship between the two of them would have to be discounted, and it was even possible that they would never interact with each other in the future.

This aside, it is impossible to resist a favor from a friend, especially at this time.

Only then did Ji Feng nod slightly and said with a sullen face, "That's it then, get to work, I still have things to do, let me know immediately when you have news, any time."

"Then how should I explain this matter today?" Xiang Yongzhan asked as he looked at the corpses all over the ground, as well as the car that had almost been beaten into a sieve.

In this international metropolis, a fierce gun battle had suddenly broken out for no reason, and so many people had died, there had to be an explanation. After all, this kind of fierce gun battle certainly couldn't be hidden from everyone's eyes, and the matter was so badly affected that if it was just covered up straight away, perhaps someone would say something gossipy.

For example, did the army belong to the Ji family? Is Xiang Yongzhan a soldier or is he a member of the Ji family?

Wait

Ji Feng nodded slightly, this was a problem.

He deliberated slightly for a moment before saying, "Let's go from the formal procedure, there's no time today, I'll go to the city bureau tomorrow to take a statement, by then I'll also need the city bureau to cooperate with the investigation!"

"That's good, I will contact the city bureau on this matter!" Xiang Yongzhan nodded his head.

"Phew~~~!"

Ji Feng then nodded his head, let out a long breath and coldly snorted, "What a loser today, if you kid could have come a bit more block, you would have been able to catch those bastards."

"It couldn't be helped, it happened too urgently, and it was a bit far away you should have called the police first!" Xiang Yongzhan said.

"Call the police?"

Ji Feng sneered, "The closest thing to this place is the police station, but what can they do with their guns? Engage in a gun battle with these people? That's not sending death, huh?"
