

Campus Master 121-

Chapter 121

Seemingly because she was taking all of Ji Shaolei's calls, Qin Shujie's face was a bit gloomy. Go to see the net -7-K-o-m. She spoke into the phone and briefly told what had happened, and finally said, "Ji Shao, you already know what happened, Zhou Dayong is doing things under your banner, how do you plan to deal with it?"

There was a moment of silence on the phone, and then the person on the other end of the line said a few words about something.

A moment later, Qin Shujie had Old Wang hand the phone to Zhou Dayong, who had just gotten it to his ear and heard only a few words spoken inside, when he instantly turned pale and trembled, about to go limp on the floor.

At this moment, everyone knew that Zhou Dayong's backer had given up on him, or rather, his backer did not intend to stand up for him. Otherwise, he definitely wouldn't have had this expression on his face.

The person standing outside the crowd, Ji Feng, could not help but nod slightly, it seems that this Qin Shujie's origin may not be as big as Ji Shaolei's, but also absolutely can not let Ji Shaolei worry, or maybe, this Zhou Dayong is simply not on stage, not worth Ji Shaolei to step in to protect him.

But no matter what, Ji Shaolei's performance today was barely acceptable. In fact, since he knew that Zhou Dayong was the department manager of Ji Shaolei's Jian'an Group, Ji Feng had already decided that if Ji Shaolei insisted on using the power of the Ji family to press Qin Shujie this time, he would step in and talk to Ji Shaolei directly.

He wanted to see just how far the three children of his second uncle could run wild in Jiangzhou!

Fortunately, it was enough that Ji Shaolei did not step in to protect Zhou Dayong, no matter what the reason was, he did not do so. The only thing he cared about was that what Zhou Dayong had done today had aroused his anger, especially because the sultry woman had called him a 'wild child', which made Ji Feng furious.

However, Ji Feng was also a bit surprised to find out what Qin Shujie and that old Wang were up to, how come they called so many big men with one phone call and acted so recklessly.

Obviously, this question will not get any answer for a while, but Ji Feng's origin for Qin Shujie, another point more important.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. At this moment, even the arrogant demon woman beside him knew that they were in big trouble today, they had messed with the wrong person!

The demonic woman's face instantly changed, she was trembling with fear, but because she was being held by those few big men, she didn't even have the chance to go limp on the ground.

The demon woman trembled in horror, "Husband ....."

Zhou Dayong slowly shook his head and suddenly took a few steps forward, only to be stopped by the alert Old Wang. Zhou Dayong clenched his teeth and fiercely threw himself on his knees in front of Old Wang and turned to Qin Shujie, begging, "This lady, what happened today was our fault, please be noble and spare us a horse."

At this time, the young boy Zhou Xiaogang's face was similarly devoid of the kind of arrogance and smugness he had learned from his father, becoming awe-inspiring and finally crying in fear.

In fact, if you think about it, a three or four year old child is still looking at the faces of adults and imitating them? Even if he was bad, how bad could he be?

The character of a child, in the end, lies with the parents.

Qin Shujie looked indifferently at Zhou Dayong who was kneeling in front of Old Wang, without the slightest expression on her beautiful face. The people around him could not help but sympathize with Zhou Dayong, but when they remembered how domineering he was before, and his arrogant face, they could not help but gloat, or rather despise.

Why should I have known that?

Before, he said 'wild seed', not only did he ask the mother and daughter to apologise, he even wanted 100,000 yuan to pay compensation.

Now, the mother of the little girl has to pay for the damages, and even apologize to the other side together. Then, they were about to start settling scores again, but Zhou Dayong was a coward.

There were some people who understood the situation and could not help but shake their heads in secret.

The mother of that little girl was a person of some status at first glance. Such a person, seeing her daughter being beaten up, not only did she not get angry, but even brought her daughter along to apologize to the other party, which meant that the other party either did not care for her daughter at all, or, was really angry. The news was a bit of a surprise, as he casually browsed through it.

Ji Feng searched mainly for news about Jiangzhou City, and after a general look, there was not much that was new, so he was ready to close the webpage.

Suddenly, an advertisement came into Ji Feng's eyes. It was a news item about an upcoming jadeite and jade exhibition in Jiangzhou City, and Ji Feng immediately remembered that the Qin Shujie he met today was not the boss of the jewellery company.

He was slightly intrigued and skimmed through the news in general.

It turned out that in three days' time, the exhibition centre in Jiangzhou would hold a jadeite and jade exhibition, and there would be a trade fair for raw jadeite stones in addition to the exquisite jadeite and jade stones on display.

Ji Feng immediately came to the spirit, jadeite raw stone?

He seemed to have heard that jadeite grows out of stone, the so-called jadeite raw stones are actually jadeite rough stones, only when the stone is cut, we can know if there is jadeite inside, which is equivalent to a kind of gambling. Only, this kind of gambling relies on eyesight and experience, of course, also has a great relationship with luck.

Chapter 122

“There are three more days to go before the jadeite and jade exhibition is held for four days. Go to see the net . After that, it’s the two-day jadeite raw stone fair, adding up to a total of six days.”

Ever since he saw the information about the jadeite raw stone fair, Ji Feng’s attention was immediately drawn to this information, “The jadeite jade fair for the first four days doesn’t have much to do with me, but if I can go to it, at least I can still have some understanding about the prices of jadeite and jade stones. In this way, it will definitely help quite a bit with the original jadeite trade fair later on.”

Ji Feng was lying on his bed and muttering to himself, secretly calculating in his heart.

In fact, the reason why he was so interested in this so-called jadeite trade fair was because he found out that this trade seemed to be prepared for him by nature!

The jadeite grows in stone, which Ji Feng had heard about occasionally before, and now that he saw the information about this fair, he immediately had a calculation in his mind.

His own gaze could penetrate thin barriers, such as human clothes, the silver pulp-covered area of the scrapers. Then, for this bulky boulder, if the same could be seen through, the huge windfall would be enough to drive anyone mad!

“We can’t be chaotic, we have to be steady!” Ji Feng forced himself to calm down and concentrate on his plan.

As far as it was concerned, the opportunity was there, but it was only an opportunity. Because first of all, Ji Feng didn’t know if his penetrating eyes could see through the stone. The second point was that Ji Feng did not know what kind of qualifications were needed to participate in this jadeite jade exhibition, as well as that jadeite raw stone trade fair that would follow.

To know if one’s own penetrating eyes could see through stones, it was actually very simple, one only had to find a random stone and look at it, so this was not difficult to solve.

Because if you can’t even see through an ordinary stone, then there’s no need to go to any trade fairs, even if it’s a good opportunity, it’s useless to go for it without that ability.

This, at this point, is the most basic requirement.

Apart from that, there is also the qualification to participate in the trade fair.

Ji Feng did not think that he, a small student, could just go to the trade fair in such a big way. Most of the trade fairs of this nature should be initiated by some corporate groups or some businessmen with strong financial resources.

This point, however, is what gave Ji Feng a headache.

“Strong strength .....” Ji Feng couldn’t help but shake his head and laugh bitterly, where did he have any strength anymore?

It seems that even if he can see through the stone, he may not be able to tragically call that trade fair. Ji Feng closed his eyes and pondered, if this time the trade fair is really the same as what he thought, then there is only one way to participate in the trade fair, to cooperate with others!

Ji Feng is now without a collaborator, and he doesn’t want to find one for the time being.

So after thinking about it, Ji Feng decided that it would be better to go and have a look first. Anyway, the jadeite and jade fair that started first was all free, so the big deal was to go as a tourist when the time came. As for the trade fair at the back, let’s take a step first and see what happens!

With an idea in mind, Ji Feng took out his phone again and dialed Tong Lei’s number.

“Ji Feng.” Tong Lei’s clear, lark-like voice came out of the receiver, causing a smile to cover Ji Feng’s face.

“Lei Lei, is the training very tiring? Otherwise, come back.” Ji Feng said with concern. Tong Lei, that girl who seemed as delicate as a porcelain doll, clear and beautiful, participating in military training, did make Ji Feng’s heart ache.

“You want me to go back?” Tong Lei smiled cheekily.

Ji Feng rightfully nodded, but remembered that it was on the phone and Tong Lei couldn’t see, so he also laughed, “Of course, your brother deserves a good training, but you are different, you don’t need to participate in that kind of military training, as long as you usually exercise more, it’s equally good for your body!”

“Not for now, I’ll talk to you when I can’t hold out any longer.” Tong Lei thought about it and decided to stay, “I’ve met a few friends here and I think it’s quite good!”

Ji Feng suddenly understood, when she was in high school, everyone knew that Tong Lei was the daughter of the county party secretary, so most of those who approached her did so with some utilitarian purpose, or they were afraid to approach her, leaving her without many friends. Now that she had a new friend, Tong Lei naturally cherished it.

“Alright then, if you can’t hold out anymore, make sure to call me, got it?” Ji Feng was a bit uneasy and admonished again.

“Mmm!” Tong Lei was very well behaved in front of Ji Feng, except for the occasional naughtiness.

Next, the two of them chatted idly for a while, although Ji Feng rarely tried to coax a girl, his concern for Tong Lei came from his heart, which made Tong Lei very happy and worked better than any flowery words.

Listening to Tong Lei’s giggles over the phone, Ji Feng’s mood also lightened up.

Time flew by, three days passed in a flash, and the Jiangzhou Jadeite and Jade Exhibition officially opened at 9am on September 23rd.

During these three days, Ji Feng only did two things. The first was to find a stone, proving that he could indeed see through stones and that his penetrating eye was invincible.

The second thing, was to look up information on the internet, going through some of the classifications of jadeite jade, the varieties, and the corresponding prices of the various grades in detail.

Through a detailed understanding, Ji Feng could not help but be secretly surprised. In recent years, the price of jadeite was skyrocketing, and, because the long-term mining had made some extremely fine jadeite almost extinct, the price naturally climbed by leaps and bounds.

Most of the jadeite on the market now is of the ordinary water variety, but the ice variety or the more advanced old pit jadeite is very rare.

In addition, the price of jadeite also fluctuates greatly, but overall, it still shows an upward trend.

As for jade, it was not easy for Ji Feng to grasp, as there was a big difference between jade and jadeite, and he had no plans to have any plans in jade, so he just browsed casually.

At 10am on the first day of the exhibition, Ji Feng arrived at the main entrance of the exhibition centre on time.

At this moment, the exhibition centre was already filled with cars outside, and the square at the entrance was also crowded with a large number of people, who were obviously all here to participate in today's exhibition.

In fact, Ji Feng knew very well that most of these people standing outside should be some people whose status was not enough to attend the opening ceremony, and compared to those inside who attended the opening ceremony, most of them were just some small fish and shrimps.

This is exactly what Ji Feng wanted, because now he is also a small fish and a small shrimp, not even a small shrimp, just an unranked student. Those who can participate in the exhibition are at least figures in the jewellery and jade industry, and which of these people do not have a little bit of money?

The total deposit of Ji Feng is only a little over 100,000, of which there are still more than 60,000 in Xiao Yuxuan's account.

When he thought of Xiao Yuxuan, Ji Feng's heart was filled with melancholy. The beautiful woman who also made his heart flutter, where had she gone? The figure that he saw on the campus of the United University that day, was it Xiao Yuxuan?

Shaking his head slightly and shaking off all those complicated thoughts, Ji Feng stood at the outermost part of the crowd, waiting to enter it with these people. At the same time, he was also trying to listen to these people chatting, so that he might be able to learn some relevant information.

Sure enough, Ji Feng heard a piece of information that made him laugh bitterly. This time, the first day of the jadeite and jade exhibition was only for people in the industry, and from the second day until the end, it was only for some ordinary visitors. In that case, Ji Feng didn't have to come so early, he could have come tomorrow and come in as a visitor openly.

But since he was here, Ji Feng naturally did not want to just go back, he made up his mind that he would find a way to blend in later.

“Brother-in-law, your business is so big, you must be one of the main guests at this jade exhibition, right?” Just as Ji Feng was eavesdropping on the others’ conversation, a familiar voice suddenly came through, causing a cold light to flash in Ji Feng’s eyes and his face to sink abruptly.

He slightly turned his head sideways, and the light of his eyes instantly saw that at a distance of about twenty meters from him, a voluptuous figure was standing there, but it was Ji Feng’s old acquaintance, Hu Xuehui!

Next to Hu Xuehui stood two people whom Ji Feng also knew. These two people, one of them was a very sultry woman dressed in a super short skirt with a small vest on top, revealing a snow-white piece, half of her belly showing in the middle and a head of red hair, making it look as if she was a street girl.

The other, a fat-headed man, the sun at ten o’clock was not too hot, but this man was already sweating profusely and seemed very uncomfortable.

These two people, naturally, were Hu Xuehui’s sister and brother-in-law.

Seeing the three of them, a cold light danced in Ji Feng’s eyes. He still clearly remembered that winter break of his senior year, when Hu Xuehui’s three men saw Ji Feng and his mother selling vegetables on the street, that kind of condescending and unforgiving insult.

Before that time, Ji Feng had never had any half-hearted hatred for Hu Xuehui, yet it was that one insult that made Ji Feng really angry. He could be insulted by anyone any way he wanted, but, he just couldn’t treat his mother with any half-hearted disrespect!

Ji Feng turned his head away again, he didn’t want Hu Xuehui’s trio to recognise him just yet.

At this time, Hu Xuehui’s sister’s voice came over, “That’s right, Xiao Hui, your brother-in-law’s jewellery company, it’s very famous in Jiangzhou oh, this time’s jewellery exhibition, your brother-in-law will definitely be one of the main guests.”

“Hey, hey, don’t be too ostentatious!” Hu Xuehui’s brother-in-law waved his hand, but his face couldn’t hide the smug look.

The exhibition started at nine o’clock and the opening ceremony ended at ten o’clock. Those who were invited at the opening ceremony were considered the main guests, while others, at most, could only be considered industry insiders.

This man is so shameless, he is not afraid of being laughed at!

Chapter 123

Ji Feng stood in the square while waiting, listening to Hu Xuehui’s brother-in-law bragging smugly there, with a mixture of amusement and good humour. Go to see the net —.7-K-o-m.

What amused him was how Hu Xuehui’s brother-in-law, who was also considered a businessman, dared to talk big so recklessly in this square. One should know that almost all the people who came today were industry insiders, and although these people were not invited to the opening ceremony, they were, at least, considered to be people of some strength.

Hu Xuehui's brother-in-law was also not invited to the opening ceremony, which meant that he was not as strong as he could be. If he dared to speak in such a way under such circumstances, being laughed at was a small matter, but if he was belittled by others, it would have a great impact on his voice in the future.

"It seems that this is also a thug!" Ji Feng gave a secret disdainful smile.

At the same time, he also learned that Hu Xuehui had indeed come to Jiangzhou, only that the universities in Jiangzhou were all in military training now, and he himself had only come out of the military camp for special reasons, so how come Hu Xuehui had not participated in military training either? In theory, she shouldn't be available at this time.

It seems that Hu Xuehui must have used some special method to not go to military training as well.

Because of the close proximity and Hu Xuehui's brother-in-law's incessant raucous bragging, Ji Feng could only smile bitterly and endure the torment of his ears.

Fortunately, Hu Xuehui's brother-in-law's bragging didn't last long and the opening ceremony was over. At this time, the crowd in the square began to gradually enter the exhibition hall, and Ji Feng also walked in with the crowd.

However soon Ji Feng found something wrong, those who went in front of him, had a ticket to the exhibition hall in their hands, or rather, that was a kind of invitation like the pictures seen on it as opposed to the real thing on the spot, and one by one, Ji Feng recognized various grades of jadeite, such as violet jadeite, watery jadeite and other jadeite of some lower grade. As for the old pit variety, Ji Feng also saw a few of them. As soon as he saw them, Ji Feng couldn't help but be attracted to them.

The kind of glassy jadeite that seemed like an emerald was really something that one could not take one's eyes off.

Of course, in addition to the appearance of these superb jadeite, what was also striking was the price. The glass jadeite, which was only the size of a fingernail, was as high as 600,000 to 700,000 yuan, which made Ji Feng simply unbelievable. The prices of these things were too outrageous, weren't they?

A small pendant, I'm afraid, could buy a house!

Ji Feng couldn't help but sigh, although the price of this jadeite had also been speculated up, but something so beautiful and expensive was indeed very attractive.

After a look around the exhibition hall, but for some of the varieties introduced online, Ji Feng had mostly seen them all. Of course, he mainly looked at jadeite, as jade was hard to grasp and was of little use to him for the time being.

"The ticket money wasn't spent in vain!" Ji Feng said secretly in his heart. Today, when he came to visit, not only did he gain insight, but he also learned about the prices of various grades of jadeite, especially the description boards next to those jadeites, which made Ji Feng see a lot of things.

Then through some of the knowledge he learned online, Ji Feng knew almost everything about the jadeite market and some basic trading rules in his mind.

After another round, after making sure that nothing was left behind, Ji Feng walked out of the exhibition hall and prepared to wait for the trade fair two days later.

Ji Feng thought of Hu Xuehui again, and since her brother-in-law had also come here to visit, this proved that the fat-headed man must also be in this business. So, at the trade fair two days later, would he run into them again?

Ji Feng really didn't have any half-hearted feelings towards Hu Xuehui's trio, and he didn't want to fight with them at the trade fair, let alone have them sneer at him.

"It's just as well if you guys don't come and mess with me, otherwise ....." For the first time, Ji Feng had the idea of bullying Hu Xuehui's trio with his family history, and this was the first time he intended to bully others with his power!

Because, Ji Feng didn't want to put up with it anymore!

For the next two days, Ji Feng stayed in the dormitory and didn't go anywhere, just reading books at ease. He was studying Economics and Management, and his first-year course was very shallow, with some of the most basic theories, and some explanations of terms and such, which Ji Feng then memorized in his head to death.

Soon, the trade fair came officially, and Ji Feng was cautious. This is the first time he embarked on his own business, absolutely can only win, not lose.

Chapter 124

After the exhibition, the trade fair finally arrived as scheduled, and Ji Feng arrived at the gate of the fair with a carry-on satchel containing all the funds. Go to see the net .

The trade fair and the exhibition were not held in the same place. The exhibition was held in the exhibition centre of Jiangzhou City, which was built like a palace, leaving an extremely deep impression on Ji Feng.

However, the trade fair was different because all the stones were jadeite stones, some of which weighed several tons, so it would be inappropriate to hold them in the exhibition centre. Therefore, the fair was held in a factory warehouse compound in a suburb not too far from the university town.

Of course, a three-metre-high fence had been temporarily built around the warehouse, and there were a number of security forces, so it was considered safe. In fact, everyone knew that, apart from those raw stones that were too small in size, the vast majority of them weighed no less and it was too difficult to steal them away.

Even so, Ji Feng was still unable to find the location of the trade fair in time, after all, it was already considered a suburb, so Ji Feng could only take a taxi directly there.

When he arrived outside that factory warehouse, it was around nine o'clock in the morning. At this time, there were already many people at the fair looking back and forth at the raw stones that were placed in the courtyard.

Many of these people were together in twos and threes, and many of them even had magnifying glasses in their hands, as if they were trying to look at the raw stones carefully.

In fact, the so-called raw stone fair is a huge gamble, or what people in the industry call gambling on the stones.

If a stone shows some of its features, you may be able to gamble on it, but for those that don't show any signs, just a big stone, it's really a gamble to buy.

It is said that up to now, there is no instrument that can detect whether there is jadeite in the stone or not, therefore, it is obviously not too safe to rely on eyesight and experience alone, but also rely on a certain amount of luck, which is no different from gambling.

The first time he attended such a fair, Ji Feng looked inevitably a little excited. Anyone who could possess the penetrating eye to see through stones and encounter such opportunities could not remain completely calm.

However, Ji Feng was as calm as ever on the surface, wearing a short-sleeved T-shirt, jeans, a pair of casual leather shoes under his feet, a sports watch on his wrist and a satchel on his body, at first glance, he looked like a no more ordinary student, inconspicuous in this bustling crowd.

This is exactly the effect that Ji Feng wanted, he did not want people to notice him, at least, not to notice his unusual behavior, otherwise, it might lead to some trouble. .com

In order to avoid letting others see that he was an amateur, Ji Feng looked at the courtyard almost full of raw stones and did not rush up to check them out, but quietly paid attention to the movements of the others.

Ji Feng noticed that there were many boss-like people in the courtyard, all with a few henchmen, leisurely checking out the raw stones. Most of the time, it was one or two of the slightly older men under them who first looked around the jadeite rough stones to check the general condition.

If they come across a stone that might produce jadeite, they will use a magnifying glass to take a closer look before negotiating a price with the owner selling the original stone.

After watching several people do this in succession, it dawned on Ji Feng that these people responsible for looking at the raw stones should be experts hired by those owners, or people who were more experienced in this area, so that the raw stones bought in this way would have a higher chance of producing jadeite.

According to Ji Feng's understanding, if the original stone bought produced jadeite and was worth more than the price of the original stone, it meant that it was gambled up, and vice versa, it was gambled down.

These bosses obviously did not want to gamble themselves into collapse, so they brought in these experienced people.

Seeing this, Ji Feng couldn't help but secretly breathe a sigh of relief, fortunately he didn't wait to see the original stones, otherwise, others would have seen at a glance that he was an amateur, and then in terms of price, it wouldn't be so good.

The first time he came in, he remembered that there seemed to be someone selling magnifying glasses at the entrance, and even if he was pretending, he had to act like it, so that at least when it came time to bargain, he could say something.

However, when Ji Feng bought the magnifying glass and just returned to the entrance, he suddenly noticed a fat figure slamming right into him, Ji Feng reacted keenly and took a step back fiercely long next to him, dodging.

“Bang!”

The obese figure stumbled and swayed a few times before stabilising itself.

“Honey, are you all right?” A voice so whispery that it gave people goosebumps suddenly rang out from the side, followed by a woman with a full head of red hair who quickly walked over and held the obese figure.

Ji Feng was stunned, these two people, weren't they Hu Xuehui's sister and brother-in-law?

He immediately turned his gaze to the side, just in time to see Hu Xuehui, who also looked stunned.

“It's really ..... unjust!” These words popped up in Ji Feng's mind as he gave Hu Xuehui a faint glance as if he was looking at a stranger, and then walked towards the courtyard.

“Kid, stop right there!” Hu Xuehui's brother-in-law shouted angrily and took a few steps to Ji Feng, blocking his way.

Ji Feng's eyebrows instantly furrowed as he immediately smelled a puffy smell of alcohol; clearly, this man seemed to be hungover.

“Kid, why didn't you hold me up just now? Damn it, if I fall down, you'll be responsible!” Hu Xuehui's fat-headed brother-in-law cursed.

Ji Feng's face sank: “You try cursing again?”

Nowadays, Ji Feng had already had an extraordinary aura, and when he sank his face, a majesty was immediately revealed, causing the man to be stunned and look at Ji Feng for a long time, but he didn't dare to say half a word.

“Humph!”

Ji Feng coldly snorted, gave the man a disgusted look and turned to leave.

“Damn it!”

It was only until Ji Feng walked away that Hu Xuehui's brother-in-law sort of reacted, and he felt a pang of shame at the thought that he had been intimidated by a look from Ji Feng.

“Damned brat, if you dare to mess with me Wu Changqun, you're dead!” The fat-headed man, Wu Changqun, became furious with shame and anger and couldn't help but curse.

“Honey, that man just now seems a bit familiar, have we seen him somewhere before?” Hu Xuehui's sister asked suspiciously.

“Sister, brother-in-law, that man just now was Ji Feng!” Hu Xuethui spoke up.

“What?!”

Hu Xuethui’s sister immediately shouted, “That’s that poor kid? He dares to speak to your brother-in-law like that?”

“I can’t spare him!” Wu Changqun snorted angrily.

In Hu Xuehui’s eyes, however, a look of deep thought appeared, the kind of aura Ji Feng had just displayed was really impressive!

However, in the blink of an eye, Hu Xuehui shook her head disdainfully, so what if the momentum is strong, it can’t be a meal, money is the most important thing.

Just like herself, because her brother-in-law was rich, she didn’t even have to participate in military training, while the other students were still suffering from training!

Hu Xuehui was so proud of herself, but at the same time she was also baffled, how could Ji Feng appear here? According to reason, he should also be in military training now, right?

Without thinking much, Hu Xuethui followed her sister and brother-in-law into the trade fair.

What happened just now didn’t affect Ji Feng much, at this moment, he was holding a magnifying glass in his hand, looking carefully at a raw stone, while in fact, his gaze had already seen through the magnifying glass and the outer skin of the stone, and saw the inside.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly in his heart, inside this stone, it was just a green mist like stuff, obviously the stone was dug out too early, the jadeite had not yet formed inside.

Ji Feng also did not move, and looked at the other raw stones again.

There were hundreds of stalls like the one Ji Feng was looking at now, in the whole factory warehouse compound, and the scope of the compound was enormous, so it was impossible for Ji Feng to look at them one by one, he just let his intelligent brain activate the bio-current and came to a stall, first sweeping through it with a glance, and only when there was a stone worth noting would he take a few serious looks at it.

“Boss, how do you sell this raw stone?” Ji Feng pointed to a piece of raw stone in front of him that was half a man’s height. There was a thin layer of green mist on the outside of this piece of raw stone, and it looked to be of good quality, but Ji Feng knew that there was actually nothing inside. In fact, what he was looking at was the one next to it, which was the size of a millstone.

Although he had never done business before, Ji Feng knew that the more he looked at a piece of raw stone, the more he must not reveal any hint of it, otherwise the boss would be asking for a lot!

The boss was a man in his forties and dressed in a very ordinary way. He took one look at Ji Feng and immediately frowned and said, “Little brother, you’re still a student, right? This piece of raw stone is not cheap, you .....

Ji Feng naturally understood what he meant, he was worried that he couldn’t afford it.

“The boss always has to say a price first!” Ji Feng smiled and said.

“Seven hundred thousand!” When the boss saw that Ji Feng was undeterred, he couldn’t help but shake his head slightly and said with a smile.

Ji Feng was speechless, the money he had with him was not even a tenth of this price.

“I indeed can’t afford it!” Ji Feng hung his head somewhat, and somewhat undeterred, pointed to the smaller raw stone next to him, “What about this one?”

“One hundred and thirty thousand!” The boss was a little impatient, in his eyes, Ji Feng definitely could not afford it.

“Boss, this is too expensive, isn’t it? That original stone just now came out green, so it’s not too much for you to ask for 700,000, but this one, it’s nothing, it’s too much of a gamble, and you want 130,000?” Ji Feng argued at once.

“I say, little brother, are you going to buy it or not, don’t make trouble if you don’t buy it, okay?” The boss didn’t even bother to argue with Ji Feng.

Ji Feng was just about to speak when he heard a voice next to him suddenly ring out, “Boss, this is just a poor boy, usually his family still lives on selling vegetables, how can he possibly afford it!”

Ji Feng’s brow furrowed and without turning around, he knew who the speaker was.

Hu Xuehui’s brother-in-law, Wu Changqun, walked over with a slightly shaky look of disdain.

Chapter 125

“I can’t afford it, can you afford it?!”

Ji Feng frowned and turned around and asked in a cold voice, “If you want to act like a big spender, you have to have the ability to act like a big spender!”

Wu Changqun was instantly furious, “Brat, you dare to say I’m acting like a big spender?”

“Isn’t it?” Ji Feng sneered back. Go watch the net -7-K-o-m.

“Hey, kid, do you know how much a piece of clothing costs on Laozi? You can’t make that much money in a year by selling vegetables!” Wu Changqun said disdainfully, “A vegetable seller who dares to come to the jadeite raw stone trade fair, what a laugh!”

Ji Feng opened his mouth and wanted to retort, but on second thought, he took his words back.

In fact, Ji Feng knew that there was no jadeite in the two jadeite stones he had just negotiated with that boss, and he had wanted to provoke Wu Changqun into buying them so that he could undermine him. But Wu Changqun’s arrogance had completely enraged Ji Feng.

Therefore, Ji Feng was not going to do that, to con him, he had to con him hard, and believed that a few hundred thousand to Wu Changqun could not hurt his vitality.

“Humph! A bumpkin, you dare to come here and pretend to be a big spender too?” Seeing that Ji Feng wanted to say something but stopped, Wu Changqun immediately thought he was afraid and immediately sneered back at him.

“That’s right, kid, seeing that you’re carrying a bag, you’re not trying to take sheep by the hand here, are you?” Hu Xuehui’s sister also followed, saying disdainfully.

Ji Feng smiled coldly and stopped paying attention to them, but turned to that boss and said, “Forty thousand, I’ll buy this jadeite raw stone!”

“Just kidding!” That boss almost jumped up, 130,000 turned into 40,000 in the blink of an eye, that was a bit too big a difference.

He shook his head and said, “Little brother, if you sincerely want to buy it, take it for 120,000, if it’s less than that, there’s no need to talk about it!”

“Yo, this is simply an open robbery!” Hu Xuehui’s sister sneered disdainfully from the side.

Ji Feng was not angry, he had already decided that if he did not move, he would have to take Wu Changqun’s life. Therefore, he simply ignored Wu Changqun and his wife’s sneers.

Ji Feng’s gaze fell on a small stone on the edge of the stall. This was a piece of jadeite stone almost the size of an adult’s fist, on the surface, there was only a faint green mist, in fact, according to Ji Feng’s understanding, such a jadeite stone, there were obviously already cut marks on it, obviously just a waste stone.

Perhaps it was because of this hint of green mist that the stall owner took a chance with it.

“Boss, how do you sell this piece of raw stone?” Ji Feng squatted down, a little annoyed in his heart. He was certain that there was jadeite in this small piece of raw stone, and it was still of good quality, it should be a water jadeite, and this piece, if all of it was pulled out, should be able to make a few pairs of bangles and a few pendants, and at the current price, it would cost almost two million or more. .com

Ji Feng originally did not intend to ask the price of this piece of raw stone directly, but only wanted to buy a scrap stone, thus incidentally buying this small piece of raw stone away, so that it would not attract attention. But Wu Changqun suddenly intervened, making Ji Feng’s original intention fall through, so he could only ask for the price directly.

“This piece well ..... three thousand!” The stall owner said, and although he looked serious, Ji Feng still saw a ‘full of care’ look in his eyes.

Obviously, the stall owner did not attach much importance to this piece of waste stone.

Ji Feng frowned: “Three thousand is too expensive, isn’t it? Boss, as you know, I’m just a vegetable seller, I came here just to have some casual fun and grow up, how about this, five hundred!”

“Five hundred ..... good!” The stall owner waved his hand, “Open for business, even if it’s to make a friend!”

Ji Feng immediately took out five large bills and handed them to the boss, and then he took the scrap stone into his hands.

“Ai yo yo~~~”

Hu Xuehui’s sister instantly stretched her voice, “Look, a poor boy selling vegetables is just not ordinary, buying jadeite raw stones for hundreds of dollars!”

Such sarcastic words, I’m afraid that anyone can understand. You know, jadeite raw stones, a few hundred dollars can’t be seen very often. It’s not that the price is too high, but it’s too low. Even if it was an ordinary scrap stone, it was not unusual to see a few tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands.

Now that Ji Feng had bought a five hundred dollar scrap stone, it was inevitable that he would be met with unbridled sarcasm.

“Hey, Xueqin, you can’t say things like that, the boy who sells vegetables buys raw stones, naturally, with the eyes of a vegetable seller, can you still ask him to have a high taste and vision? Wouldn’t that be too difficult for people?” Wu Changqun laughed loudly.

Ji Feng, however, only smiled lightly and glanced at Hu Xuehui’s sister, thinking, “So this woman who seems like a street girl is named Hu Xueqin, what a waste of such a quiet name.

“Sister, brother-in-law, let’s go somewhere else, don’t get bad luck here!” Hu Xuehui spoke more cold-bloodedly and more snobbishly.

“Right! Right! We are also here to buy the original stones, we can’t get bad luck here with the poor boy.” Wu Changqun said this, but had no intention of leaving, he still had to give this poor boy who dared to contradict himself a good sarcasm here, how could he leave so early?

What’s more, Wu Changqun had long had other thoughts about Hu Xuehui, his nominal sister-in-law, and when he remembered that Hu Xuehui had once been in love with Ji Feng, Wu Changqun hated Ji Feng even more.

“Hu Xuehui is Laozi’s, how dare you, a poor boy selling vegetables, mess with her?” Wu Changqun laughed coldly in his heart.

Ji Feng’s face was expressionless, he just glanced at Wu Changqun’s three people indifferently, but in his heart, he had already sentenced Wu Changqun’s three people to death.

He stood up and asked the stall owner, “Boss, where can I solve the stone?”

The cash in Ji Feng’s hand was only over 60,000, and he could not afford to buy any slightly larger original stones, so he had to deconstruct the stone first and exchange the jadeite in this stone for cash so that he could buy more of the original stones.

That boss pointed behind Ji Feng, “See, at the entrance of that warehouse, there is a stone solving machine right there, but if you didn’t buy the raw stones from that boss’s stall, you need to pay for the stone solving.”

Ji Feng smiled faintly and turned around to walk over.

“Haha, let’s go, let’s follow suit and see what that poor boy can unravel!” Wu Changqun laughed arrogantly, put one arm around Hu Xueqin, slapped his big hand on her buttocks, and followed with a laugh.

Because the fair had just started not long ago, everyone was still busy shopping, so there were very few people at the stone solving place, and Ji Feng paid directly when he arrived and started solving the stones.

“Solving stones~~~!”

The owner of the stall shouted loudly, and many people immediately gathered around, as this was the first time the stones were being unsettled at this fair, and everyone wanted to get lucky. Of course, there were also some people who were just watching the fun, not daring to make a purchase themselves, but watching others solve the stones was a great way to get excited.

The last group of people are those who are in the jadeite and jade business. Any time there is a jadeite jade fair, it is a good time for them to purchase raw materials. Especially in the last few years when extremely fine jadeite jade is becoming more and more scarce, these jewellery or jadeite jade merchants have become more active in attending such fairs, and even some companies with a greater demand are directly involved in gambling on the stones.

“Ee? Is that him?” A low voice of surprise rang out from the crowd. The owner of the voice, a charming and peerless woman, was the old president of a jewellery company that had once crossed paths with Ji Feng, Qin Shujie.

Beside Qin Shujie was still the unsmiling Old Wang.

Seeing that the person preparing to solve the stones was actually Ji Feng, a look of surprise flashed across Qin Shujie’s beautiful eyes, she indeed did not expect that Ji Feng would participate in this kind of stone gambling activity.

In a short moment, the crowd gathered around, and Qin Shujie and Old Wang also gazed at Ji Feng. Some jadeite merchants even made up their minds that if a jadeite came out, they would definitely buy it into their hands. If you wait until it’s too late, you’ll have to pay a lot more!

However, when these people saw the original stone in Ji Feng’s hand, they immediately revealed a disappointed look.

This was not a raw stone, it was clearly a waste stone. Moreover, it was also a waste stone that had almost no gambleability whatsoever. It was only the size of a fist, and it was still a waste stone, so the chance of a jadeite coming out of it was not even one in ten thousand.

Once they saw it, most people lost interest, but since it was the first stone to be solved today, most of them didn’t leave despite their disappointment.

“Haha, this poor boy who sells vegetables is really ignorant!” In front of so many people, Hu Xueqin ridiculed without sparing any effort, “Spending five hundred dollars, buying such a waste stone, and still coming to this trouble, really anyone wants to get involved in the jadeite jewellery business.”

“Sister, don’t say more, it will hurt people’s pride!” Hu Xuehui was ‘persuading’ from the side, in fact, it was her words that were more sarcastic, just more subtle.

Qin Shujie, who was standing in the crowd, frowned slightly and glanced in the direction where Hu Xueqin was, obviously a little displeased.

Ji Feng, however, was not affected in the slightest, his face remained calm, and only after asking the stall owner about the usage of the stone solving machine, he fixed the raw stone in his hand.

After starting the machine and slightly cutting off a small piece, Ji Feng stopped.

The raw stone was already very small, so it would be very dangerous to use a cutting machine, in fact, Ji Feng was just looking for speed.

Next, Ji Feng started to pick up the grinding wheel and polished it, and everyone shook their heads slightly, not intending to watch any longer.

“Haha, if this waste stone can still produce jadeite, I’ll eat this one up!” Wu Changqun laughed loudly, but said what was on everyone’s mind.

“That’s what you said oh!” Ji Feng suddenly raised his head and gave him a cold look, while the small polishing machine in his hand suddenly started.

Zizi~~~!

After a few short seconds, Ji Feng stopped, picked up the clear water next to him and poured it on the raw stone in his hand.

“Out, it’s green!” The stall owner was the first to see the change in the original stone in Ji Feng’s hand, and immediately lost his voice and exclaimed.

“What? The bet has risen?!” Everyone was in disbelief when they heard this, what a joke, how could that kind of waste stone be gambled up?

However, when the eyes of the crowd landed on the original stone in Ji Feng’s hand, they instantly narrowed their eyes, and a glint of greed flashed across everyone’s eyes.

On the original stone in Ji Feng’s hand, a crystal and soft green colour that made people’s hearts beat violently and dazzled them!

Chapter 126

No one would have thought that a jadeite stone, which could not possibly produce jadeite, would actually rise in gambling!

Moreover, judging from the side we see now, it should be a water jadeite, and the quality is really not low. Go to see the net . You know, in recent years, when old pit glass jadeite is almost extinct, water jadeite is already considered to be the very best jadeite.

What’s more, this was a water-grain jadeite cut from a ruined stone!

Everyone had to exclaim that this kid’s luck was really .....

Especially Wu Changqun and Hu Xueqin, who had been sneering, were green in the face that a poor kid who seemed to them to be nothing more than a vegetable seller had actually gambled on a water variety jadeite!

On the other hand, Hu Xuehui's mouth was wide open as she stared blankly at the calm Ji Feng, unable to believe that this poor boy had casually bought a scrap stone and turned it into a treasure!

What made it even more difficult for Hu Xuethui to accept was the reaction of some of the other onlookers.

Seeing the piece of jadeite in Ji Feng's hand that had not yet been completely removed, some jadeite jewellery merchants' eyes instantly lit up, as this was an extremely fine jadeite when glass jadeite was extinct.

One merchant immediately said impatiently, "This little brother, judging from the current quality, you don't need to keep polishing it, how about this, I'll offer you 200,000, how about you sell it to me?"

"Two hundred thousand?" Upon hearing this price, Hu Xuehui's heart immediately felt as if she had been ruthlessly seized, a poor boy had made two hundred thousand in the twinkling of an eye?

"I say, Old Jiang, your two hundred thousand is too shabby, isn't it?" A merchant next to him picked up, obviously familiar with the previous merchant, he turned his head to Ji Feng and said, "Little brother, I'll offer two hundred and fifty thousand, as you know, your piece of raw stone is too small in size, if you continue to cut it, it's likely that the bet will collapse, this price I'm offering is already very reasonable!"

"Hey, Mr. Liu, you are such a big company, and you are still grabbing food from us small individuals, that's unkind!" The first boss couldn't help but complain.

Qin Shujie, who had not spoken in the crowd, opened her mouth to speak as well, but seemed to have considered something, and she swallowed back the words that were on her lips.

No matter how these merchants offered their prices, Ji Feng just shook his head and smiled. Immediately afterwards, he started the polishing machine again and continued polishing.

One side of the stone was already polished out, revealing the green jadeite, and then he continued to polish the second side.

Although it was Ji Feng's first time to cut a stone and he had no experience, it was reasonably easy to destroy the jadeite by polishing it like this, but Ji Feng was different from others, he could clearly see the jadeite in the original stone, so he polished it without any difference. .com

At this time, the other merchants could also see that this young man was definitely not satisfied with the price of $200,000 to $300,000, he wanted to continue gambling until the entire jade head was taken out.

Within a few moments, the stones around the original stone were polished off and a crystalline jadeite, half the size of a fist, appeared in front of the crowd.

At this moment, everyone's eyes went straight.

Although this piece of jadeite was only of the water variety, however, there was not the slightest impurity in it, and the whole piece of jadeite was so well integrated that it almost caught up with the glass variety.

What's more, judging from the size of the jadeite, it weighed almost four or five catties, and according to the market price, it would cost millions!

In a flash, those bosses gathered around began to bid.

"Little brother, one million, I'll take this piece of jade!" A boss said impatiently. With glass-type jadeite extinct, a piece of water-type jadeite like this was enough to hold up the door.

"One million one hundred thousand!"

"One million three hundred thousand!"

.....

Listening to those merchants bidding, Hu Xuehui just stared at the smiling young man surrounded by people, her face changed dramatically, but she didn't know what she was thinking.

Wu Changqun and Hu Xueqin, on the other hand, likewise changed their faces. Especially Wu Changqun's face became ugly. He knew that he was also in the jadeite business, just not a big one. This piece of jadeite was enough to hold up his facade.

Therefore, Wu Changqun was actually eager to follow the bidding.

However, remembering his sneering at Ji Feng earlier, he knew that this piece of jadeite had no chance with him, and could not help but secretly regret it in his heart.

Hu Xueqin, on the other hand, was psychologically sour and muttered, "What are you tugging at? It's just a blind cat that met a dead rat, it's only a million dollars, my husband has plenty of money!"

"Mr. Qin, should we make a bid?" Old Wang, who was standing in the crowd, could not help but ask when he saw that Qin Shujie also showed a heartfelt look.

Qin Shujie shook her head slightly and said, "Forget it, such a small piece will still not alleviate our shortage of goods, it's better to take another look!"

Old Wang then nodded his head and asked no more questions.

Instead, a middle-aged man in his fifties standing next to Old Wang said in a low voice, "Mr. Qin, I see that this young man seems to be very insider."

Qin Shujie nodded and said, "That's right, look at the magnitude of his cutting and rubbing of the stone, he is almost sticking to the edge of the jadeite, without a lot of experience, it is impossible to have such a precise technique."

"Mr. Qin, I don't think we should talk to this young man later, or follow him." The middle-aged man said, "He must not be satisfied with just buying this piece, they will definitely continue to buy later, so if there is a suitable jadeite, let's jump ahead of the bidding and buy it first."

"No need." Qin Shujie smiled faintly and said, "I know this young man, I will talk to him directly later."

The middle-aged man was stunned, and then he smiled, since he knew him, it would be much better, at least he could buy it first at the same price.

Just as a few people were talking, the jadeite in Ji Feng's hand had risen to one million seven hundred and fifty thousand, which was considered a very high price. This was the price offered by a boss with a Sichuan accent, and when the others saw this price, they all stopped going up.

"Little brother, how about it, one million seven hundred and fifty thousand, sell it to me, right?" The Sichuan boss asked.

Ji Feng said, "Of course I can sell it to you, but I want a cash cheque, or cash as well."

He had to continue selling other raw stones, and he couldn't do it without money on him.

The Sichuan boss immediately nodded his head and said boldly, "No problem, I'll write you a cheque right now, haha! But, little brother, if you have a bank account, I'd better transfer the money to you directly."

"Can I transfer money even here?" Ji Feng asked.

"Oh, that's of course, not only can you transfer money directly here, you can also transfer money directly at all the stalls, it's very convenient!" The Sichuan boss laughed.

Ji Feng suddenly blushed a little, after all the trouble, it turned out that he had made a mistake and mistakenly thought that he wanted to buy in cash at this trade fair. In fact, if you think about it, there are some huge raw stones, I am afraid that millions of dollars are possible, if you use cash, it is a bit too exaggerated.

Ji Feng chose to transfer the money and reported the account to the Sichuan boss.

When both sides finished the transaction, the others saw that there was no more chance, so they left.

"Shit-lucky brat!" Wu Changqun cursed and turned around indignantly to leave.

With Ji Feng's ears, he naturally heard Wu Changqun's words, and he only smiled slightly before leisurely strolling in front of the other stalls. To him, Wu Changqun's insults were actually just his last struggle before he died, just like a grasshopper after the autumn, he couldn't hop around for a few more days.

"Ee? General Manager Qin?" Ji Feng just turned around and immediately saw Qin Shujie not far away looking at himself with a smile on her face, beside her were Old Wang and a middle-aged man.

"Mr. Ji, you really have good eyesight, such a recognized waste stone can be turned into treasure in your hands, it's really remarkable!" Qin Shujie said with a smile, her voice seemed to have an indescribable charm that soothed people's ears.

Ji Feng waved his hand with a smile and said, "It's just good luck!"

"Oh, in this business of gambling stones, eyesight and experience are certainly important, but luck is also essential, and the good or bad luck directly affects the result, Mr. Ji's good luck is the biggest advantage!" Qin Shujie's voice was soft, as if it was a small hand, constantly plucking the other party's heartstrings.

Ji Feng smiled faintly and didn't say anything.

Ji Feng was not surprised by Qin Shujie's appearance here, after all, he knew that Qin Shujie ran a jewellery company and would definitely come to such a jadeite and jade trade fair.

"Mr. Ji, you're going to buy the original stones next?" Qin Shujie asked with a smile as she walked over.

"Not necessarily, it depends!" Ji Feng snorted, he didn't want others to notice him, so he spoke a little vaguely.

Qin Shujie seemed to have seen what Ji Feng had in mind and said with a smile, "Mr. Ji, I have an unrequited request, I don't know ....."

"No problem, as long as it's something I can do, Mr. Qin, just say it." Ji Feng smiled and said.

"It's like this, Mr. Ji should also know that I have opened a jewellery company." Qin Shujie deliberated on her words for a while before continuing, "But then, recently, because of the tight supply of goods, it has made it a bit difficult for the company to run. What I mean is that Mr. Ji is so lucky today, if you come across another jade of better quality, can you give me priority in selling it to me at the same price?"

"Oh, so in that case." Ji Feng smiled and nodded, "This is certainly no problem, just that, I can't guarantee that I will be able to gamble up next, so ....."

Qin Shujie gathered her long hair and smiled, "That's natural."

"Then let's put it this way, I won't bother Mr. Qin." Ji Feng smiled and turned around to continue walking towards the other stalls.

Ji Feng was carrying a bank card of over one million dollars, compared to the sixty thousand dollars or so he had when he first arrived here, his heart was instantly fuller and he dared to bargain with the owner for those larger raw stones.

Chapter 127

Ji Feng has his eye on a raw stone, and it's a massive one at that. Go to see the net .

This piece of raw stone, which was half a person high, was barely enough for one person to hug. Moreover, it was a piece of raw stone that did not reveal any semblance of character. From the outside, this piece of raw stone did not look half different from ordinary stones, and even, the surface was a bit rough, and there were some signs of weathering, how this looked like a random stone thrown by the roadside.

However, there was a huge jadeite inside the stone!

The size of the jadeite in it was bigger than two basketballs, and, again, it was a water jadeite!

When Ji Feng saw the jadeite in it, he was almost taken aback, where on earth did these raw stones come from? Could it be jadeite from some old pits? How could such extremely fine jadeite appear?

However, after the surprise, a wave of excitement instantly filled Ji Feng's whole body.

A jadeite the size of two basketballs!

If one were to calculate the price of the small piece of jadeite that Ji Feng had just sold, such a large piece of jadeite would cost tens of millions of dollars. What's more, a jadeite of such a large size was far more valuable than those fractional jadeites, even if they weighed the same, they couldn't be compared.

You know, fragmented jadeite can be made into small objects like bracelets and pendants, however, no amount of bracelets and pendants can make up a complete object. A large piece of jadeite, on the other hand, can be carved into a number of ornaments in addition to making small objects such as bracelets, and this is where the real value lies!

Especially for some big rich people who are attached to elegance or seek for taste, or for the rich and famous, a complete carved jadeite piece is enough to cause crazy bidding!

The jadeite in the stone in front of Ji Feng's eyes, if carved into a large object, not to mention ten million, I'm afraid tens of millions are very normal!

After taking a few deep breaths, Ji Feng struggled to look away, and it was only after a few moments that he could barely calm down.

However, Ji Feng did not dare to look at that original stone again, but looked at other original stones instead.

"Hmm?!"

Ji Feng's gaze went to the other original stone and he couldn't help but frown, and then he lost his smile dumbly.

The reason why he acted so out of shape was really because this piece of raw stone was somewhat cute. This piece of raw stone was about the same size as the one before, both being half a man's height, yet the jadeite in this piece of raw stone next to it was surprisingly smaller than a baby's fist.

Yet, on the contrary, there was a layer of green mist on the skin of this original stone, and it was not bad in quality!

Ji Feng pointed at the 'cute' piece of raw stone and asked, "Boss, how can I sell this piece of raw stone?"

The boss was a man in his thirties, and seemed to be quite brisk. He looked at Ji Feng and smiled, "Little brother, this piece of raw stone is the most expensive one I have here, four million for a bite."

Ji Feng was stunned, four million ..... for a jadeite smaller than a baby's fist, unless one is crazy.

"Boss, it's too expensive, isn't it?" Ji Feng shook his head slightly and laughed bitterly, "Do I look like someone who has four million to you?"

"Humph, don't nag here if you don't have money, what kind of big money are you pretending to be!" A sneering voice suddenly came as Hu Xueqin swayed over with a mocking look on her face, "Boss, this kid is a poor man, he'll bring you bad luck if he comes here!"

Wu Changqun and Hu Xuehui also followed, and Wu Changqun said in a grand manner, "Boss, your four million for this original stone is indeed too expensive, how about this, three million, I'll take it."

The stall owner frowned, glanced at Ji Feng and then at Hu Xueqin, "This boss, business is always about first come, first served. What's more, three million is too low."

Hu Xueqin hurried to Wu Changqun's side and said in a low voice, "Honey, three million, how can such a broken stone be worth that much?"

"What do you know!"

Wu Changqun glared at him, "The original stone is of very good quality, the green mist is very dense, and the area is very large, the further in you go the more dense it becomes, obviously the jadeite is almost certain to come out inside. Three million, not too expensive!"

Although the two people spoke in very soft voices, Ji Feng could hear them clearly. He couldn't help but shake his head slightly in his heart. In fact, if we extrapolated according to general common sense, Wu Changqun was right, the original stone was indeed of very good quality, and under normal circumstances, three million was definitely a solid profit.

All these reasoning and experience, Ji Feng got through the internet, but Wu Changqun obviously wasn't, because he said it with such certainty, obviously after quite a few times of practice.

However, Ji Feng knew that this time, practice and experience were actually of little use, and there was only half a baby's fist-sized jadeite in this original stone.

This is also quite normal, experience and eyesight, in fact, do not have too much to do with the result. Luck is equally important, if it wasn't there would be no 'one cut in heaven, one cut in hell' to speak of.

"Boss, this kid can't afford it, three million, I'll take it!" Wu Changqun said with a big grin.

Ji Feng sneered, "Boss, three and a half million, I'll take it!"

"Brat, I'll see where you come up with three and a half million from!" When Wu Changqun saw that Ji Feng dared to bid against him, he became angry and said with a cold smile.

Ji Feng also ignored him and smiled lightly, "Boss, how about it?"

That stall owner's heart suddenly snickered, selling things, most like to see this kind of thing bidding against each other, so that they could definitely sell for a price far higher than the heart price.

"This ....." The boss made a difficult face, looked at Ji Feng and then at Wu Changqun, said with difficulty, "How about this, I am in business, naturally, the item will be given to whoever offers the highest price!"

"Humph!"

Wu Changqun coldly snorted and said disdainfully, "Boss, four million."

Ji Feng said indifferently, "Four and a half million!"

"Five million!"

"Six million!"

"Six and a half million!" Wu Changqun was furious, his face red and neck almost jumping up.

"It's yours!" Ji Feng smiled faintly and gave up decisively.

In fact, if it were any other person, Ji Feng would not have continued to fight with the other party, because Ji Feng knew very well that he did not have that much money and, moreover, others might not bid with him.

However, Wu Changqun was different. Through just two or three contacts, Ji Feng already knew that this guy was reckless, arrogant and had a very thuggish air about him. Such a person, and a bit too much to drink, how could he still control his brain when he was drunk?

"First, I'll let you take out six and a half million, which is considered interest. As for the principal, I'll get it from you later!" Ji Feng coldly snorted in his heart.

"Swipe the card directly!" Wu Changqun snorted coldly and said condescendingly, only his face didn't look very good, he also reacted now that he was being counted on by Ji Feng!

But for the sake of face, Wu Changqun was unwilling to admit it, and besides, more than six million was not an unbearable figure for him.

"Boss Wu, how about it, do you want to continue?" Ji Feng pointed at the largest raw stone again and asked with a cold smile, "Boss, how do you sell this piece?"

"This piece ..... three million!" The stall owner was overjoyed when he saw the two bidders topping the bull. The original intention was to ask for two million, but surprisingly, he added one million to the raw deal.

Ji Feng glared at that boss, thinking, this guy is surprisingly also looking at people under the noodles, a turn of the eye to call a lot more.

"Three million ....., " Ji Feng shook his head, "Boss Wu, let you have it!"

Wu Changqun snorted coldly and didn't say anything. This piece of raw stone had no character at all, it looked as if it was a roadside stone, the gamble was just too big.

What's more, Wu Changqun had already spent more than six million, his assets were not very large in the first place, and this six million might not even be a sure win, if he lost another three million, I'm afraid the company wouldn't even be able to run.

Ji Feng shook his head slightly and sneered, "So our big money Boss Wu is just a big money on the outside."

"Kid, your mouth had better be honest!" Wu Changqun instantly became ashamed and angry.

Ji Feng looked around and found that not far away Qin Shujie and the middle-aged man were looking at the raw stones at a stall, while Old Wang seemed to sense Ji Feng's gaze and looked over at once, and the two of them exchanged glances, both nodding in greeting.

"Mr. Qin, Mr. Ji is over there!" Old Wang whispered to Qin Shujie who was looking at the original stone, "He might be in trouble."

Qin Shujie was stunned for a moment, then stood up and said, "Go over and take a look!"

“Mr. Ji.” Qin Shujie and her group of three walked over.

Ji Feng nodded slightly in greeting, “General Qin.”

Wu Changqun, however, looked at Ji Feng in a daze as if he had seen something unbelievable.

How could this poor boy know Qin Shujie? Wu Changqun was shocked beyond belief.

“Mr. Ji, what can I do for you?” Qin Shujie asked with a smile.

Ji Feng hesitated for a moment before saying, “It’s like this, I want to buy a raw stone, but in terms of funds .....

“How much do you need?” Qin Shujie asked directly.

“One million three hundred thousand.” Ji Feng was not polite either.

Qin Shujie nodded slightly and said, “Old Wang, transfer it over to Mr. Ji.”

“Thanks.” Ji Feng nodded and reported his account number to Old Wang.

And at this time, Wu Changqun, who was in shock, only managed to react and said in a panic, “Qin, General Manager Qin, hello!”

Qin Shujie’s eyebrows knitted slightly as she asked, “You are .....

“Oh, I’m Wu Changqun from Wu’s Jewelry.” Wu Changqun hurriedly said.

Qin Shujie then nodded her head, as a greeting. In fact, she had never even heard of Wu’s Jewelry, so naturally, such a person would not be placed in her eyes.

Wu Changqun, however, was excited. He knew that Qin Shujie was high up in his eyes, and even if he could say a word to her, his face would be very glowing.

Ji Feng ignored Wu Changqun and just conducted the transaction with the stall owner.

When all the formalities were completed, a smile finally appeared on Ji Feng’s face, a piece of superb jadeite, finally in his hands!

Chapter 128

“Mr. Ji, do you plan to unravel this rough stone directly here, or do you want to transport it away?”

When everything was done with the transaction, Qin Shujie didn’t even use to look at Wu Changqun and his wife, who had been standing next to him, and Hu Xuehui, who had a dumbfounded face, and just asked Ji Feng straight away. Go to see the net -7-K-o-m.

In fact, for Qin Shujie, more than one million is not too much, with the strength of her company, even if Ji Feng completely disavowed, there is no problem. You know, just the Cadillac that Qin Shujie is sitting in is far more than a million.

Therefore, what Qin Shujie was concerned about was the mao stone in Ji Feng’s hand.

“Mao Shi? Isn’t this thing called a raw stone?” Ji Feng was a little surprised. He had looked up information online, as well as from other sources, and found that most of the stones containing jadeite were called raw jadeite stones, and now he was surprised to hear the word ‘rough stone’ from Qin Shujie’s mouth.

Qin Shujie smiled sweetly at once: “It seems that Mr. Ji is not too proficient in this trade. The raw stones that Mr. Ji is talking about are indeed called that, but they are relatively rare. At least, within this trade, people in the industry directly call them rough stones, or rather rough material. Of course, it’s just a different name, as long as the meaning is right.”

Ji Feng listened but his heart jumped, and a rare look of embarrassment appeared on his face.

The reason why he was embarrassed was not because of anything else, it was because of the word ‘woolen stone’ that Qin Shujie had said in her mouth. Only now did Ji Feng realise that the real name for a jadeite stone should be called a rough stone or a rough material.

Ji Feng would not naively think that what Qin Shujie said was true. Obviously, Qin Shujie was saving face for herself, estimating that the name of the original stone should be too little to be called, and by this one call, it was enough for people to see at a glance that they were an amateur. It was a shame that he was pretending to be an amateur, what a joke!

“Huh!”

Ji Feng laughed awkwardly before saying, “Mr. Qin, I don’t have the strength to carry such a big piece of rough stone back, so I’d better just unravel it here. To be honest, all my money has gone into it, if the bet collapses, I’m afraid I won’t even be able to pay back the money I owe you!”

When these words came out, Qin Shujie immediately gave Ji Feng a big look of deep meaning. She believed that what Ji Feng said was true because there was no reason for him to lie to himself in this regard, after all, no one who could come to this trade fair would just bring a few tens of thousands of dollars with them. However, according to Ji Feng, this piece of wool was three million, and Ji Feng had sold a piece of water jade before, which was almost a million or so. This meant that in reality, the money that Ji Feng really brought to this fair was merely a few tens of thousands of dollars!

A person who brought tens of thousands of dollars with him and dared to buy several million mao stones after gambling up once, was he overwhelmed by the first windfall, or was he really sure of himself?

Looking at Ji Feng’s calm face with a hint of a smile on it, Qin Shujie instantly felt that Ji Feng was sure of himself. Although she didn’t know exactly where his certainty came from, Qin Shujie just had this feeling.

The next Wu Changqun heard this, but almost exploded in anger, he really wanted to curse: I X!

This kid only had a million or so dollars on him, but he dared to bid against himself, and he was arguing so much that he wouldn’t even let go!

After all, this bastard was bluffing!

This also meant that because of Ji Feng's bluff, he had maliciously bid against himself, causing him to spend a full two to three million dollars more!

Once he understood this, Wu Changqun stared at Ji Feng, his hatred was so strong that he almost wanted to bite Ji Feng to death. 2-3 million, although he could afford to lose, was not a small amount, if it was more, it would have hurt his vitality!

However, no matter how much Wu Changqun hated it, with Qin Shujie present, he didn't dare to have a fit. Moreover, from the current situation, it seemed that the relationship between Ji Feng and Qin Shujie was still very good, so Wu Changqun could only swallow his anger back into his stomach. It was just that his eyes, which were full of anger, could not be concealed in any way.

"Mr. Qin, I want to unravel the mao stone on the spot." Ji Feng didn't pay any attention to Wu Changqun, he just said directly to Qin Shujie.

"That's a good idea." Qin Shujie smiled faintly and waved to a service person not far away.

That service staff immediately trotted over and politely asked, "Mr. Qin, what can I do for you, please?"

Qin Shujie said, "Go find a trolley and take this rough stone to the stone solving place for me."

Only then did Ji Feng understand that at this trade fair, if a customer wanted to have his stone solved on the spot, the organiser of the convention provided a trolley for free.

It seemed that he still had a lot to learn. Ji Feng said in his heart.

The attendant quickly pushed a trolley, and when Ji Feng took a look, he was dumbfounded. This so-called trolley was actually a thick steel plate with four small sliding wheels underneath, with a high handrail on the plate. Because the ground in this warehouse yard was all concrete, it was easy to push up.

"Mr. Qin, please come with me, if you can solve the jadeite, if you don't mind, I will sell it to you directly. If you can't solve it, then I'll have to find another way to raise money to return it to you!" Ji Feng said with a smile, he didn't say his words to the full, saying that he could definitely solve the jadeite, if that was the case, once the rough stone was solved later, I'm afraid everyone would know that he had a problem. This was not in line with the low-key strategy that Ji Feng had set at the beginning.

Qin Shujie smiled sweetly and said, "Mr. Ji, it's no fun to keep talking about money."

Ji Feng nodded and smiled at once, but in his heart he was secretly impressed. No matter whether Qin Shujie's words were true or not, just by her attitude, it was enough to make people's hearts feel good, and they also owed a favour to themselves. It didn't seem like Qin Shujie was able to become the boss of a jewellery company for no reason.

"Husband, should we also follow to the stone solving?" Hu Xueqin couldn't help but ask in a low voice when she saw that Ji Feng and the others had all left. Seeing Wu Changqun's gloomy face, she was also a little worried, had she just bought the wrong one?

"Of course I want to solve it!" Wu Changqun grunted and said angrily, "That little bastard bought a piece of rough stone with no quality at all, which obviously cannot produce jadeite, and he still dared to solve it in public. The piece we bought is of very good quality, so we have to solve it with them!"

Hu Xuehui, who had not said anything, was staring at Ji Feng's back in a daze.

She could not have imagined that it had only been a year since she broke up with Ji Feng, but the boy who was so obedient and obedient to her, but who seemed to her to be the most incompetent, was now like a different person, opening and closing his mouth with millions of dollars, and even when he was talking to that magnificent woman like Qin just now, he had a bland face and an equal conversation.

It was even surprising that Ji Feng used only a small tactic to make her brother-in-law, who used to look omnipotent, lose millions. Perhaps her sister Hu Xueqin could not understand what had just happened, but she could.

Was this still the same timid and inferior poor boy from back then? Hu Xuehui was very upset in her heart, and in her opinion, since she was the one who gave up, he must be a piece of trash. But now, Ji Feng had suddenly become a big shot, and she had given up on him, didn't that mean she had a problem with her vision?

"A poor boy is a poor boy, even if you know more people, you can't change that fact!" Hu Xuehui thought with hatred.

"Brother-in-law, let's go and solve the stones too, I haven't seen you solve them yet!" Hu Xuethui took two steps forward and said in a delicate voice. She wanted her brother-in-law to solve the stone with Ji Feng, according to his words, there was a high possibility of Ji Feng's rough stone collapsing in gambling, so she would like to see how he would still act like a big money man! At the same time, this would also prove how correct her choice was in the first place.

At this time, Ji Feng had already arrived at a stone solving place with Qin Shujie and the three of them. Because this fair was so big, there were several places for stone solving, and this place that Ji Feng came to now was not the same one as the first one.

When Ji Feng arrived here, there was a man in front of him who had just finished solving, and the piece he had solved was a five or six pound violet jadeite, and looking at the man's dishevelled face, it was obvious that he hadn't made his money back.

"Mr. Ji, it's your turn!" Qin Shujie said with a smile.

Ji Feng nodded, secretly praising Qin Shujie in his heart for being able to talk. Qin Shujie said 'it's your turn', not 'it's our turn', which meant that although several people had come together to solve the stones, in reality, Qin Shujie had no intention of partnering with Ji Feng, even though she had lent Ji Feng more than one million dollars, but if she had said that Undoubtedly there was a sense of robbery while the fire lasted, and Ji Feng couldn't say anything yet.

But Qin Shujie didn't do that, apparently divided very clearly, and such a person is, indeed, very generous.

Together with several people from the stone-setting office, Ji Feng transferred the rough stones to the stone-setting machine.

A middle-aged man at the stone solving office asked, "Little brother, how do you intend to solve it?"

Ji Feng thought about it, took a piece of chalk from the side, drew a line on the rough stone and said, "Just cut along this line."

"Okay!" The middle-aged man nodded and then directed the staff to prepare for the cutting.

Ji Feng didn't intend to cut it himself because the jadeite in this rough stone was really too big and he only had one experience in stone solving, so he didn't dare to mess around with it.

The middle-aged man who had been following Qin Shujie, however, nodded slightly and praised in a low voice, "This little brother has good eyesight."

Qin Shujie asked, "How so?"

The middle-aged man said, "This piece of rough stone of Mr. Ji's does not have any quality, it is a big gamble, and it will certainly not be easy to solve the stone. Because no one knows whether there is jadeite inside, and how big it is. If one is timid, one would have to cut the rough stone bit by bit from the outside, which would be time-consuming and laborious. If there is no jadeite inside, you may not be able to finish it in a few days. And if there is jadeite inside and you strike too hard, you might destroy the jadeite inside."

Qin Shujie looked at the chalk line on the bristle stone and was suddenly struck by a sudden realization, "If you cut from this line drawn by Ji Feng, you can ensure that you can save time and effort, but also protect the jadeite inside to the greatest extent?"

"That's right!" The middle-aged man nodded his head.

Chapter 129

Although the conversation between Qin Shujie and the middle-aged man was very low, Ji Feng's ears could not be measured by common sense, so he heard it word for word. Go to see the net .

Ji Feng turned back slightly and glanced at the middle-aged man. He had felt that the middle-aged man was not simple, and now it seemed that if he was correct, that middle-aged man should be the 'expert' that Qin Shujie had hired.

Gambling on stones was, without a doubt, extremely risky. Therefore, when one cannot control one's luck, an old eye and rich experience in gambling stones become the greatest pursuit of all those who gamble on stones. For the major jewellery companies operating in the jadeite business, if there is an experienced expert in the company, not only can they participate in the gambling directly, eliminating the intermediate link of buying jadeite raw materials from the gamblers, but also, can reduce unnecessary losses when gambling on the stones.

It is not uncommon to pay tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands of dollars, or even millions. Therefore, for those jewellery companies, if they can increase the success rate of their gambling, it means that they can save an astronomical amount of money, although the company also needs to pay a substantial commission to the experts, but naturally, it is not easy to compare with the loss when there is no expert.

Obviously, this middle-aged man beside Qin Shujie should be an expert hired by her company, or an old acquaintance.

“If possible, it would be a good idea to ask this middle-aged man for some advice on the essentials of gambling stones, so that I wouldn’t have to figure it out on my own.” Although he was able to see through the rough stones to the jadeite inside, if he was seen as an amateur, I was afraid that he would be ripped off as an ingrate when it came to prices.

“Let’s unlock the stones!”

A loud shout from the owner of the stone-solving office immediately brought Ji Feng’s thoughts back and he turned his head, only to find that it was another stone-solving machine where Wu Changqun was pointing someone to lift up the piece of rough stone he had previously bid for with Ji Feng and start to solve the stone.

Ji Feng turned his head away and laughed in his heart. If Wu Changqun saw later that the jadeite inside the piece of rough stone he had bought for millions was smaller than a baby’s fist and of inferior quality, I wonder what kind of expression he would have.

Zilla~~~!

The harsh sound of the grinding wheel cutting the stone made Ji Feng frown, although he knew it was a necessary step, Ji Feng was still not used to the sound, however, seeing his own rough stone and Wu Changqun’s rough stone being opened at the same time, he put up with it, wasn’t it just a harsh sound? It was no big deal compared to seeing Wu Changqun’s kind of face as if he had died of his own father later.

Tolerate it!

In fact, it was not only Ji Feng who had some difficulty in accepting the harsh sound, even Qin Shujie, who often attended such trade fairs, and the middle-aged man beside her, as well as Old Wang, all frowned a little, the sound was just a little too harsh. I consulted some information on it, so don’t be offended if there are any problems with the writing, this episode will soon pass.

Finally, I implore brothers and sisters to vote for flowers.

Chapter 130

The sound of the grinding wheel polishing the rough stone is still very harsh and almost unbearable. Go to see the website . Now, however, no one minded the unpleasant sound anymore, and as the crystalline jadeite was gradually revealed, everyone expected that the harsh sound would be faster and more intense.

Almost all the onlookers had envious and greedy eyes in their eyes, staring at the piece of rough stone under Uncle Hai. The jadeite, which was half the size of a basketball, was already revealed. And this, however, was only one of the divisions. Looking at the direction of the jadeite, there seemed to be more jadeite among the remaining uncut majority of the rough stone!

Apart from the onlookers, Qin Shujie and Wu Changqun were the most surprised. However, their faces were very different.

Qin Shujie looked meaningfully at Ji Feng who had a faint smile on his face. She suddenly remembered that when she first saw such a large piece of jadeite, she seemed too excited to contain herself, but this young man in front of her looked very calm. Although Ji Feng's face wore the same look of excitement, Qin Shujie had a vague feeling that this expression of his seemed to be faked.

In other words, it seemed that Ji Feng was not really surprised that he had bought such a large piece of jade!

Did he already know about this situation, or did he himself simply not see this amount of money in his eyes? Or, was it that he was so used to seeing the storm that this bit of excitement could not excite him at all? Qin Shujie was at a loss to understand.

However, Qin Shujie knew that she was very excited.

Nowadays, business is not too good in the jewellery and jadeite business, the competition is certainly one of the reasons, but the tight supply of goods is also crucial.

For example, in Qin Shujie's company, apart from those one or two pieces of treasures in the shop, there are no extremely fine jadeite at all, most of them are some violet or more inferior jadeite carved into objects, which is not very attractive to those rich people at all.

Especially in recent times, the supply of goods for Shu Yao Jewellery Company was extremely tight, the jadeite was almost running out, while other jewellery was in sufficient supply, however, with more and more people attaching themselves to it in the past few years, the sales of jadeite and jade were obviously in demand, and this side was about to run out of stock.

It was precisely for this reason that Qin Shujie came to this jadeite and jade fair in person, just to buy enough raw materials to ease the company's crisis.

However, when she arrived at the fair, she realised that there were too many jade merchants coming to the fair, from all over the country, and some of them were big companies with great strength.

Therefore, it had been almost half a day since Qin Shujie arrived at the fair, and she had not even bought a single jadeite yet.

If she hadn't accidentally met Ji Feng, Qin Shujie would have participated in the gambling herself, which is why she brought Uncle Hai along to the fair. .com

But now it looked as if there was no need to worry about any of this.

The piece of rough stone that Ji Feng had purchased had risen in gambling, and it was a big one at that!

Just from the size of the jadeite that was now exposed, this piece of jadeite was the size of a basketball, and the jadeite was of such good quality that it would be enough to top the company for a while if it was bought over.

"This young man, what a surprise!" Qin Shujie looked at Ji Feng who was not far away and couldn't help but murmur.

In stark contrast to Qin Shujie's performance was Wu Changqun, who was limp beside another stone solver, and the two sisters, Hu Xueqin and Hu Xuehui, who were beside him.

The three looked at Ji Feng dumbfounded, with a strong sense of resentment welling up in their hearts. Wu Changqun, in particular, was red in the face, as if he was being strangled, with veins rising high on his forehead.

“Damned little bastard, with just a million or so on him, he deliberately bid against me, only to make me pay over six million for a scrap of stone!”

The loss of more than six million dollars made Wu Changqun almost red-eyed, and if not for the presence of so many people, Wu Changqun would have had the heart to eat Ji Feng alive.

The two sisters, Hu Xuehui and Hu Xueqin, on the other hand, were filled with a strong jealousy in their hearts. How could Wu Changqun not be able to solve the jadeite, but this poor boy could solve such a large piece of jadeite?

In fact, Hu Xuehui and Hu Xueqin did not know how much the jadeite that Ji Feng had solved was worth.

Gulp!

The sound of swallowing saliva was so obvious that everyone stared dumbfounded at the jadeite that was getting bigger and bigger in Uncle Hai’s hand, a look of both excitement and greed in their eyes.

“Ice jadeite, it’s ice jadeite!” A merchant murmured, full of surprise, “Such a large piece of ice jadeite, but it’s so rare!”

Ice jade?

Ji Feng was immediately stunned, he had never heard that there was such a thing as ice jade.

“Didn’t you say that the best jadeite is glass jadeite, followed by ice jadeite? How come there is still ice jade?” Ji Feng was a bit puzzled, he wanted to ask Uncle Hai, but seeing that he was busy, he dismissed the idea, it was better to wait until he was done.

“Zhi~~!”

As the last sound of friction fell, the emerald in Uncle Hai’s hand finally revealed its true face.

It was as big as two basketballs and somewhat irregular in shape, but this did not hinder its beauty and high value in any way.

“What a piece of ice-grown jadeite!”

Uncle Hai wiped a handful of sweat from his forehead, his face full of awe, “The old man has been in the jadeite business for most of his life, but it’s the first time I’ve personally solved such a large jadeite, and it’s still an ice jadeite!”

He was not the only one, the others were also in awe, it was two basketballs big!

Uncle Hai immediately commanded the staff to weigh it, more than eighty-three pounds!

Everyone’s eyes went straight, staring at the jadeite with a greedy look in their eyes that they couldn’t hide.

“Ji Feng, your kid’s luck is unspeakable, it’s really ..... tsk tsk!” Ji Feng just walked over, Uncle Hai couldn’t help but laugh, perhaps because he was too excited, he looked very close to Ji Feng when he spoke.

Ji Feng smiled faintly and said, “Uncle Hai, this is not my good luck, the one who solved the stone is you, so to say luck, it’s also your good luck.”

Uncle Hai pointed at him with a smile and said, “Ji Feng, this jadeite is an ice jadeite, and looking at its quality, it’s not too far from a water jadeite, and it’s such a large size, in this situation now, it’s enough to be called an extremely fine jadeite!”

Ji Feng did not have time to speak, a boss in the crowd suddenly shouted: “This little brother, you this piece of jadeite for sale, let Uncle Hai help estimate a price, I buy it!”

“Old He, you’re buying by force, it’s up to this little brother to decide who to sell it to!” A boss said with a smile, “Little brother, I’ll add 10% to Uncle Hai’s estimate, sell it to me?”

The others immediately followed suit and yelled, such a large piece of jadeite was enough to guarantee a small company’s supply of goods for half a year without any problems, and it was also ice jadeite, so it was naturally even more attractive.

Uncle Hai looked at Ji Feng and smiled, “You make the decision!”

With a faint smile on his face, Ji Feng said aloud, “Sorry everyone, this piece of jadeite has already been reserved.”

The others were instantly disappointed, but there was someone else who was unwilling and said, “Little brother, this jadeite is so big, I’m afraid it’s hard for one person to swallow it, how about this, why don’t you discuss with that person who has reserved it, can you share some with me?”

“Yes, yes!” The others immediately followed and echoed.

Ji Feng turned his head to look at Qin Shujie and smiled, “Chief Qin, this matter will be up to you to decide.”

“It’s General Manager Qin?”

The others’ gazes also shifted to Qin Shujie, and once they saw it was her, they were stunned. Especially the local businessmen in Jiangzhou had a helpless look on their faces.

With Qin Shujie’s presence, I was afraid that I would have no chance with this piece of jade.

Because many people knew that Qin Shujie’s origin was not small, and the company’s background was also very powerful. In this situation where there were too many monks and too little meat, it would not be so wise to insist on competing with the Shu Yao Jewellery Company.

After all, those foreign businessmen might leave at any time, while they, the locals, were the ones who had to stay here, because the company was here, and it would not be worth it if there was a conflict with Shu Yao Jewellery Company.

“So it was Mr. Qin who settled on this piece of jade, Mr. Qin really has a good eye.” What businessmen like most is to see the wind and make the rudder, a businessman had already decisively given up the competition for the jadeite and instead turned his head to pull a relationship with Qin Shujie.

Qin Shujie had an elegant smile on her pretty face and her red lips were lightly parted, “Boss He is overpraised.”

Ji Feng smiled, “Mr. Qin, as agreed before, this piece of jade will be sold to you.”

Qin Shujie nodded with a smile and looked at Uncle Hai, saying softly, “Uncle Hai, please give an estimate.”

Uncle Hai mused, “This jadeite of Ji Feng’s is a top quality ice jadeite, and it is large, so apart from being carved into small objects, it can also be carved into some rare large objects, so in terms of this price, it fluctuates quite a lot. However, excluding the carving work and other costs, if we just talk about the price of the jadeite, I think it should be between forty-five and fifty million dollars!”

“Hiss~~~!”

As soon as Uncle Hai’s words were spoken, the two Hu Xuehui sisters instantly sucked in a breath of cold air, so expensive?!

Hu Xuehui’s face even revealed a look of disbelief as she subconsciously lost her voice, “How is this possible, a poor boy, how can he turn into a multi-millionaire in the blink of an eye? A piece of jadeite, how can it be so valuable?!”

Qin Shujie looked at Ji Feng and asked, “Mr. Ji, what do you think of this price?”

Ji Feng, however, was very quick and nodded: “If Uncle Hai says this price, then that’s the price.”

“Speaking of which, I’m still taking advantage of it.” Qin Shujie laughed lightly.

Ji Feng just shook his head and smiled: “That’s very kind of you, Mr. Qin, if it wasn’t for the million or so that Mr. Qin lent me, I wouldn’t have been able to buy the rough stone, much less get this jadeite!”

“Ji Feng, you’re a good kid, not greedy and atmospheric!” Uncle Hai exclaimed.

Watching Qin Shujie order people to load the jadeite onto the car, all the merchants secretly said in their hearts that it was a pity that such a good opportunity had been missed.

Judging from the current situation, I’m afraid that the best jadeite at this trade fair has just been bought away.

And one word came to the minds of the two sisters, Hu Xuehui: “Sky-high price!”