Chapter 1341

Li Yantong couldn't help but purse her lips and smile lightly, "Are you that overbearing?"

But Ji Feng laughed: "Other things can be passed by with one eye open and one eye closed, but it's definitely not okay for someone to bully you. Bullying my sister, I see who doesn't want to live!"

Although Ji Feng said it in a joking tone, Li Yantong's beautiful eyes stared at him for a long time before she said softly, "Little brother, thank you!"

"Oh" Ji Feng, however, laughed with an odd expression, "Sister, this is not right, you are calling me little brother while being so polite to me, a family helping each other, is there still a need to say thank you?"

"Yes, a family" Li Yantong nodded, but her smile was much better than just now, because this time, there was no more reluctance in her smile.

And at this time, Li Yueqin, looking at Ji Feng and Li Yantong talking happily, it was really as if they were a family, she couldn't help but be lost in thought.

Looking closely at Li Yantong and Ji Feng sitting together, the two of them were really similar in looks, except for the different contours of their faces, other features could be very similar.

For example, they both have oval foreheads, neither of their cheekbones are very high, and the kind of demeanour they have, that one subtle expression, they are all so similar.

If the two of them walked out together, which even people who had never seen them before would be able to tell at a glance that there must be a blood relationship between them and that they were most likely brother and sister..... right, because Ji Feng looked to be older than Li Yantong's age and Ji Feng appeared too mature.

"Ugh!"

Thinking about this, Li Yueqin couldn't help but sigh lightly.

"Mom, why are you sighing?" Li Yantong hurriedly asked, "Is it something uncomfortable?"

Ji Feng also looked at Li Yueqin and asked, "Auntie, is everything alright?"

Li Yueqin didn't answer immediately, but carefully stared at the two of them for a long time before revealing a complex expression and saying, "You two look, really, very much alike. Really worthy of being two siblings!"

Li Yantong was a bit puzzled and couldn't help but ask, "Mom, why are you saying all this?"

Ji Feng, however, smiled heatedly, he didn't care what Li Yueqin said, the key issue was that the kind of tone and demeanor Li Yueqin had when she spoke to him showed that she wasn't so repulsed by herself anymore, this was the first time she could speak to herself with such a calm and peaceful attitude that was the most important thing!

“Auntie, Yan Tong and I are originally siblings, we definitely have similarities.” Ji Feng smiled and said.

“That’s right, you were originally siblings!” Li Yueqin also nodded emotionally and said, “Little Feng, if you’re not busy in the future, come often, you haven’t eaten auntie’s cooking yet, right? How about this, stay for dinner today.”

Although Ji Feng didn’t know why Li Yueqin had suddenly changed her attitude towards him, there was one thing that was beyond doubt, as long as Li Yueqin could change and no longer reject him, that was a good sign!

What’s more, now Li Yueqin had actually offered to let him stay for dinner, and this kind of treatment really made Ji Feng feel a bit flattered.

He would be foolish not to say yes!

“Well then, you two can talk here first, auntie will go wash the vegetables” The smile on Li Yueqin’s face also gradually changed from the reluctant one at the beginning to the softer and softer one now.

“Auntie let me help you!” Ji Feng said.

“Come on, how can you cook for a boy?!” Li Yueqin said, “Yan Tong is in a bit of a bad mood, you should accompany her to talk!”

Ji Feng then stopped insisting and just nodded with a smile and sat down.

“My mum” seems a bit strange!” Li Yantong looked in the direction of the kitchen in surprise, and then looked at Ji Feng, “Little brother, do you know what’s wrong with her?”

Ji Feng spread his hands, “If I knew how to make my aunt happy, I would have done it long ago, why wait until now?”

“So yeah, that’s why I said my mum is strange!” Li Yantong’s eyebrows knitted slightly, “What exactly did you do to make her so happy? It’s really too strange”

Ji Feng smiled, honestly, until now he didn’t know what exactly he had done to make Li Yueqin’s attitude towards him change so much, it was almost a hundred and eighty degree turn, from the original dislike and cold face to now with a smile on his face and even asking Ji Feng to stay for dinner, it was only a few words in between.

What the hell has happened?

The two thought about it for half a day but couldn’t figure it out, so in the end they simply stopped thinking about it and made small talk instead.

“Little brother, the matter of Fang Ming, you can just look after it, and there is no need to make a haphazard decision just to take care of my feelings!” Li Yantong said.

“I’m already doing that!” Ji Feng said, “Originally, I also came over today with the purpose of admitting my mistake to you, what that guy did made it impossible for me to just let him off so lightly, that’s impossible!”

“You ah” A faint smile appeared on Li Yantong’s face.

She suddenly turned her words around and asked, “You must be wondering why I’m not sad at all, right? Honestly, to say that I’m not sad at all after knowing that Fang Ming is a liar would be a lie, but as I told you last time, I’m actually not that sad, probably because studying law has made me rational, since I know that this person is not sincere to me, why is it necessary to be sad for him?”

Ji Feng nodded, it was naturally best if his sister was able to look away.

“There’s only a little bit of sadness now too!” Li Yantong smiled, “Luckily, I’m not like other girls who are sad and looking for death when they lose their love and get cheated on, otherwise, you must be dying of guilt, right?”

“..... huh!” Ji Feng grinned, he suddenly realized that his sister was actually really smart, it was just that there were some things she rarely said out loud.

My Ji Feng’s sister, naturally smart!

He said so in his heart.

After that, they did not continue with this topic, but talked about something else. From life in school, to studies, and then to future job forethought.

“I hope that after I graduate, I can do something like legal aid, it doesn’t matter how much money I earn, as long as it’s enough for my usual expenses to live on... I don’t really care about myself, but the key is that my mother won’t be able to go out on stalls when she gets older, so I can’t do unpaid volunteering, I can only try to do charity work... ..”

When Li Yantong spoke, her voice wasn’t very loud and she didn’t speak too fast, it was that very even tone of voice that made people feel very comfortable.

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Well, this goal of yours is very good, but have you thought about it, sister, doing legal aid, it looks like helping those in need, doing justice for them and so on, but in fact, with the current social situation in our country, this job is actually offending people everywhere, and everywhere you have to help the disadvantaged to fight with those who are bullying people”

“You’re right, it’s a bit blunt, but that’s the truth.” Li Yantong nodded her head, agreeing with Ji Feng’s words, “But because of this, this society needs legal aid even more, and someone needs to do it.”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but laugh, “Sister, maybe you don’t know too well, in fact, your own personality is a bit weak, and you are not very suitable for this kind of work.”

“That’s not necessarily true!”

Li Yantong laughed, “I know what you’re worried about, in fact, at first I was a bit worried myself, but then I tried a few times in the group is that our department originally had a practice group, which was dedicated to providing legal aid to people... ..I practiced in it and realised that I actually still had a lot of confidence and strength when it came to helping people!”

“So you’ve decided to do this aspect of work?” Ji Feng asked.

“Yes.”

Li Yantong nodded and said, “I hope to be able to enter any of the departments in the public prosecution and law, but I must be assigned to a group or department related to legal aid, my mentor has some connections in this area and he agrees with my idea

“Hehe!” Ji Feng laughed: “If you really want to enter these departments, why do you still need to ask your mentor for connections? Have you forgotten what position big brother is in?”

With Li Yantong’s education, as long as no one messed up in the middle, it would be easy for her to get into the civil service of these departments with her own skills, and having big brother Ji Shaodong take a shot at it was just to make sure no one messed up for her.

“But I don’t quite want people to know that I have a big brother who is the secretary of the district committee, that wouldn’t be good!” Li Yantong said.

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, “Sister, you don’t understand, if you don’t have any background, when the time comes, maybe no one will even take care of you, it will be hard for you to help people at that time. But if others know that you have a big brother who is the secretary of the district party committee, maybe you just show up, people will help do the things you want to do

In fact, this is a human society, do the job, not only do we need to pay attention to hard work and diligence, a little means is also necessary!”

“You think I don’t understand these ah?” Li Yantong blushed slightly, “Brat, you are lecturing your sister now?”

“..... ha!”

Ji Feng froze, then he laughed out loud, this joking, he realized in an open manner that only by getting along like this did they really seem like a pair of real siblings, not the kind of restraint that had separated them before

And at this time in the kitchen cooking Li Yueqin, heard the laughter in the living room, could not help but freeze, and then, she shook her head and sighed lightly, also laughed

But why this was the case, he was not very clear.

It was only after Ji Feng left that Li Yueqin, in conversation with her daughter, revealed the reason for the change in her attitude towards Ji Feng

Chapter 1342

In fact, not only was Ji Feng surprised by Li Yueqin’s change in attitude, but even her daughter Li Yantong was also a little surprised, knowing that in the past, although Li Yueqin had tried her best to be polite and not too cold towards Ji Feng, the attitude of being somewhat warm on the surface, but cold in reality, could not be hidden.

Anyone could see it, but no one said anything about it.

But today is completely different, today's Li Yueqin, is still a bit hard on the surface, but in fact her bones have begun to accept Ji Feng, at least, not to reject.

Li Yantong was then a bit puzzled, so when Ji Feng left, she asked her doubts out.

"Mom, why are you today," Li Yantong hesitated for a moment before asking, "Why is your attitude completely different from before?"

Li Yueqin glanced at her daughter, sighed lightly and asked, "Girl, tell mum the truth, what do you think of this young man Ji Feng?"

"Sh, what about?" Li Yantong did not react.

"What about his character as a person? How is he treating you?" Li Yueqin asked.

"Not bad, I think, I can obviously feel that he is not a bad person when I sit with him, even if I have any flaws or strengths myself, I can vaguely feel them from his body as well" Li Yantong said. "If he lies in front of me, he certainly can't hide it from me!"

"So although I have had very little contact with him, I have a general understanding of his character." Li Yantong said, "However, he is a bit overbearing! For example, this time, he didn't even go through our consent and directly interfered in Fang Ming's affairs, I'm afraid that if Fang Ming falls into his hands, it won't even end well"

"Yes, after all, you are siblings, you are close siblings, that's why you have the feeling that you all know each other's thoughts, it's not strange!" Li Yueqin nodded, "As for bullying judging whether a person is good or bad is not based on other people, even if he is a great saint, as long as he treats you badly, then as far as you are concerned, he is not a good person, on the other hand, even if he is a ten evil bad guys, but as long as he is genuinely good to you then he is a good man!"

"Mom, what exactly are you trying to express by saying this?" Li Yantong couldn't help but ask, "You've never said anything like this before, it's very strange!"

"It's not strange at all. In fact, mum is trying to tell you that the reason why mum has changed her attitude towards Ji Feng isn't really strange or sudden at all, but rather mum has realized that he truly treats you well, he really treats you like a sister, like family!" Li Yueqin said, "If that wasn't the case, even if he were to make a hundred trips here with his dead skin, mum wouldn't treat him well."

"Just because of this?!" Li Yantong asked in amazement.

"Isn't that reason enough?"

Li Yueqin said, "Girl, you've seen all of Ji Feng's performance, the two trips he made were indeed a sincere attempt to ease relations with us, although before I thought he was just trying to be merciful and took it as a good deed, plus that's why mum didn't treat him well! But then after this incident with Fang Ming, you can see that he really sees you as a sister and wants to take it out for you, and even came to explain to you specifically"

"Girl, having such a brother is also your good fortune!" Li Yueqin said as if with emotion.

Li Yantong was a bit hesitant: “Mom, you changed so suddenly, I was a bit unable to accept it for a while eh!”

“Girl, have you ever thought about the difference in the outcome of this matter between having Ji Feng and not having Ji Feng?” Li Yueqin asked, “If there was no Ji Feng, then you might have really fallen for Fang Ming’s trick, we lost a little money is not much, money can be lost and then try to earn, as long as you do not starve to death, but, if you wait until after you marry Fang Ming to find out that you have been cheated, then”

The first thing you need to do is to think about the outcome.

She really dared not think, if her daughter was cheated to that extent, then the two of them would really have the heart to run headlong into death. Fortunately, nothing had happened between Yan Tong and that bastard, and it was still too late to put the brakes on everything in place.

This was also what Li Yueqin was most afraid of.

Li Yantong was also unable to help but be silent, indeed, if Ji Feng hadn’t stepped in in time, she might have really fallen for Fang Ming’s trick.

“We both live our lives, mum doesn’t matter, she’s an old woman, but you’re different, you have a long way to go.” Li Yueqin said, “With your character, it is inevitable that you will be bullied in the future, when the time comes, who will you turn to for help? It’s better to have your own brothers and sisters who are closest to you and can help you the most.”

Li Yantong couldn’t help but nod, her mother was right, when it really came to the critical moment, there was really no one who could help them, and only their own family.

“If it was just to find you a backer, then mum would have helped you to find a good family to marry. But mum knows your character, in that case, you will definitely suffer in the future.” Li Yueqin said, “Fortunately, Ji Feng is truly good to you, and is your own brother, he can protect you!”

“Only now does mum see that actually all those insistence and prejudice are somewhat alas, how to say it, girl, you need a sibling, otherwise you might not even have one to talk to.”

Li Yueqin sighed lightly, “Ji Feng that young man, in fact, is also a poor child, mum can see that when he looks at you, there is a kind of attachment in his eyes, he really wants to have you as a sister!”

Li Yantong’s eyes suddenly reddened, Li Yueqin’s words instantly hit the softest part of her heart.

In the past, although there was a gap between her and Ji Feng, in reality, how could she not wish to have a brother who constantly pestered her?

But the special relationship with Ji Feng had deterred her somewhat.

This time, however, her relationship with Ji Feng had come a long way, which made her feel warm as well.

“Girl, there are some things mum can remember that you need to let go of!” Li Yueqin said, “Before blaming on Ji Feng, in fact, it is not justified, he also followed his mother suffered for more than ten years, is also a bitter child”

Li Yantong nodded, tears welling up in her eyes.

“Well, what’s the point of talking about this properly!” Li Yueqin wiped her daughter’s tears, “Girl, from now on, do whatever you want to do, and if you want to talk to Ji Feng, go to him, he will definitely be happier than you if you go as a sister.”

“Mm!”

Li Yantong nodded her head, her eyes were red again

.....

“Three children, Fang Ming those few have made treatment, the police are ready to prosecute them under the name of fraud, this guy has done a lot of unethical things in other places, if he is redeemed and punished, he will not want to get out in this life!”

When Ji Feng returned to the Jinli Hotel, Ji Shaolei immediately ran over to him excitedly and said.

Ji Feng smiled, so what if he came out?

“Second brother, now Fang Ming and the three are insignificant, what we need to focus on to guard against is that boss Huang behind the curtain.” Ji Feng’s mind was clear, “I suspect that that Boss Huang isn’t behind the curtain either, maybe behind Boss Huang, there’s someone else!”

“Investigate!”

Ji Shaolei said immediately, “Just follow what we agreed before, the boss is in charge of one line, you are in charge of one line, both sides work in tandem, we don’t believe we can’t uncover the black hand behind the curtain!”

Ji Feng nodded, “Investigate! We must investigate!”

No matter who the other party is, Ji Feng must investigate to the end, for no other reason than the fact that the other party has actually hit on Li Yueqin and Li Yantong’s mother and daughter, Ji Feng absolutely cannot tolerate it.

“The company’s main business is to provide a service to the public. She’s not still sad about that son of a bitch, is she?” Ji Shaolei asked again.

Ji Feng said, “I remembered as soon as you said it, my sister’s state is not bad, what’s weird for me is Aunt Li Yueqin’s attitude, she’s really weird today, it’s confusing me”

He quickly told Li Yueqin’s performance today, puzzled, Li Yueqin’s attitude change was indeed a little too sudden, making it hard for Ji Feng to adapt.

“What’s so strange about this, as long as you take your heart to her, she can be indifferent to where?” Ji Shaolei said, “People’s hearts are long, think about it differently, she will naturally understand your difficulties, don’t think so much!”

Ji Feng couldn’t help but nod his head and laughed, “Not to mention, second brother, this simple mind of yours can sometimes really find the best way to think, hit the nail on the head!”

Ji Feng laughed out loud.

Li Yueqin’s change in attitude made Ji Feng let out a long sigh of relief, once this big problem was solved, then nothing else was a problem anymore.

Fang Ming was detained, they would no longer be looked at by Ji Feng, and these three cheats could only end up in such a miserable way.

For Ji Feng, the trip to Jinling was a very fruitful one!

Now there was only one last key question left, who was the boss Huang hiding behind Fang Ming, and what was his origin.

This question, however, was not so easy to get an answer to, but Ji Feng and Ji Shadong had already started to investigate.

When everything has been calm, Ji Feng and Ji Shadong’s action, also began.

First, Ji Shadong’s side, began to secretly investigate who had leaked the information, while Ji Feng, however, also began to investigate that phone number

After another day, Tong Lei suddenly ran over and said that she had received a call from Li Yantong. She volunteered to be a tour guide and take Ji Feng and the others on a tour of various attractions in Jinling, and this news made Ji Feng even happier.

“This trip to Jinling has got rid of a big burden!” Ji Feng said with emotion, thinking of the excitement, he couldn’t help but shout twice, “From now on, Laozi really has a sister!”

Chapter 1343

The next day, under the leadership of Li Yantong, Ji Feng and the others travelled around and explored several of the most famous attractions in Jinling. The most important thing is that Li Yantong’s attitude has obviously changed, and there is no longer a half-way gap between her and Ji Feng.

Although the relationship between the two of them was a bit special, but that was only a side issue.

In this process, Ji Feng also learned from Li Yantong’s mouth the reason why Li Yueqin’s attitude suddenly changed, he couldn’t help but be silent, in fact, he understood Li Yueqin’s thoughts, no matter what she did, she couldn’t just rely on her own preferences, she had to consider her children’s feelings.

In fact, if Ji Feng had not shown enough sincerity, Li Yueqin would never have accepted him either. So strictly speaking, Ji Feng’s own sincere attitude and his concern for Li Yantong were the reasons that impressed Li Yueqin.

Only then did Ji Feng let out a long breath, the efforts he had put in were finally not in vain!

His whole body was relieved!

It was not until another day had passed that Ji Feng and the others intended to leave Jinling. However, before leaving, Ji Feng still had to pay a visit to Li Yueqin.

“Ji Feng, you and Yan Tong are siblings, you have to help each other in the future, this time you did a very good job and didn’t let your sister be bullied” looking at Ji Feng sitting in front of her, Li Yueqin’s mind was still a bit complicated, but she was able to accept Ji Feng. “In the future, if you are free, you can come here often, your sister is usually alone, not many friends, if it is idle at home ha, there may not even be a person to talk to.”

“I remember, auntie!” Ji Feng nodded his head.

“Mm! Then I’ll be relieved!” Li Yueqin also nodded and said, “In this way, you call all of Shao Lei and the others over, and we’ll eat at auntie’s place at noon.”

“This”

Ji Feng hesitated for a moment, “Auntie, there are so many of us, if we cook we don’t know how long we will have to work, we’d better go out to eat, it would be more convenient, what do you think?”

“What’s the point of going out to eat, it’s not as hygienic as cooking at home, and it’s not as casual and free in a restaurant, it’s better to be at home!” Li Yueqin said.

“Then okay, I’ll call them right now!” Ji Feng smiled and nodded, “But it’s going to be hard on auntie!”

“It’s been hard for decades, so I don’t care if it’s hard this one more time!” Li Yueqin said.

Ji Feng then smiled and didn’t know how to answer, he could hear that Li Yueqin still hadn’t completely let go of the previous matters.

However, it was quite good that she was able to reach this point now.

Ji Shaolei and the others soon came over, and Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei took the initiative to help, so they didn’t make Li Yueqin work too hard.

“Third child, awesome!” Ji Shaolei gave Ji Feng a thumbs up and said in a low voice.

Ji Feng laughed, “I didn’t expect that things would be solved so easily either, it’s mainly down to Auntie Li being understanding!”

Ji Feng really didn’t expect that Li Yueqin’s attitude would suddenly change, after all, her attitude before was very firm and cold, at that time Ji Feng had no confidence at all, he was even prepared to hold on for a long time.

As long as he was sincere and genuine, Li Yueqin would always see it.

Now, it’s a good thing that the clouds have opened up to the moon!

The most happy person was Li Yantong, who wanted to have a brother and didn’t want her mother to feel bad.

And then, Ji Feng and Li Yantong chatted for a long time, they also all know, in fact, this kind of opportunity is very rare, after all, work up in the future, certainly will not often meet, as far as Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei are in Jiangzhou, once they are busy are not too meet it, sometimes a couple of months do not see once.

Now Ji Feng and Li Yantong are one in Jinling and the other in Jiangzhou, so naturally there are not many opportunities to meet!

It was not until after 3pm that Ji Feng and his party left to return to Jiangzhou, and by the time they reached Jiangzhou, it was already late afternoon.

After returning home, Xiao Yuxuan and Tong Lei, with White Spider, Xiao Ying and Han Zhen, several girls went to clean up their rooms, after being away for the past few days, the rooms always needed to be simply cleaned up before sleeping.

Ji Feng, on the other hand, went straight to the study and opened the computer.

“Tick tock” As soon as Ji Feng opened his instant messaging software, a beep came, Wang Xin had already received his notification and was waiting for him in front of the computer.

“Boss, the phone number you asked me to check, we have the result.” Wang Xin’s voice and video image were displayed on the computer screen, “It’s a phone number that can be opened without identity registration, and it can’t be traced to the place it belongs to.”

“Can’t find out?!”

Ji Feng was a little surprised, “No clues at all?”

Some phone numbers could not be traced at all, this was something Ji Feng knew very well, and thought that since the other party dared to use this phone number, they would definitely be prepared and would not be that careless.

You know, according to what Fang Ming said, that Boss Huang was wearing a hat and a mask when he met him, and his face could not be seen at all.

The other party’s caution was evident.

Although he had been mentally prepared before, he was still more or less reluctant when he saw the trail cut off here.

“Boss, don’t worry, when I said I couldn’t find out, it was through conventional means.” Wang Xin said, “Then I investigated directly through the communication company and found out that the phone number belonged to a certain batch, and the number of this batch was sent to Nan Yue!”

“Nan Yue?!”

Ji Feng frowned, “You can be sure of that?”

“Can be sure!” Wang Xin nodded and said with great certainty, “The number of this batch belongs to Nan Yue, it was sent over a year ago!”

“It’s related to Nan Yue again”

Ji Feng pondered for a moment before suddenly asking, “Apart from that, are there any other clues?”

“Not for now.” Wang Xin said, “That’s all I can find out, and this number hasn’t been calling again since these two days, so I can’t find out the exact location, I only know that this number belongs to Nan Yue!”

“Then if I use this number to talk to him, how long can it take you to find out the other party’s location?” Ji Feng asked.

“I can’t answer this question accurately, it depends on the length of the call, already the strength of the signal and many other factors to decide However, I will definitely try my best!” Wang Xin said.

Ji Feng then nodded, and he pondered for a moment before saying, “Then how about this, I’ll go to your place tomorrow, and we’ll try it then!”

“Okay!” Wang Xin answered.

After closing the line, Ji Feng stood up from his chair and went to the window, looking at the night that had started to fall outside, he frowned slightly as he deliberated.

It was related to Nan Yue again!

If one counted the group of people who had attacked and killed him before, this would be the third time that it was related to Nan Yue.

If he did the math carefully, he had been entangled with the Wu family and Nan Yue ever since he had first clashed with them.

First, the Rongpeng Group of South Guangdong wanted to launch an attack on the eastern and northeastern regions belonging to the Ji family. Later, the Wu family’s plan did not succeed, and the Rongpeng Group was dismantled by Ji Feng, and the electronic component production base invested by its subsidiary Red Light Company in Huahe County also became a bad project.

Moreover, because of Zheng Yuxiu’s stupidity, Ji Feng had an excuse to cause trouble in Southern Guangdong, causing the Zheng and Wu families to suffer considerable losses, and even the elders of the two families had to bow down, but of course, the Wu family was still the main one, and I’m afraid that the elder of the Zheng family couldn’t even say a word in front of the elder of Ji.

This time, the Wu family had lost a lot of money and lost an army!

The next thing is that Ji Feng was suddenly attacked and killed. According to Zheng Yuanshan’s investigation, a group of them belonged to a small gang in South Guangdong, and it is said that after the attack and killing incident, the heads of that small gang all fled, some absconded abroad and some disappeared, and that small gang soon fell apart

And now, it’s involved with Nan Yue again!

“This matter, is it related to the Wu family?” Ji Feng whispered to himself, “Is it a smokescreen deliberately created by people with ulterior motives to confuse me, or is it really related to the Wu family?”

Several times in a row, it has something to do with South Guangdong, and that side is where the Wu family has been operating for many years and is considered the backyard of the Wu family, Ji Feng really can’t help but be suspicious.

Moreover, based on some things Ji Feng had either heard or experienced, it had given him more or less an understanding of Wu Zhiyong's character. This kind of underhanded thing, Wu Zhiyong can definitely do it, when He Hongwei was not planted in the hands of Wu Zhiyong?

The other side sent people to approach Li Yueqin and Li Yantong's mother and daughter, what exactly is the purpose of Ji Feng can more or less guess.

They wanted to get hold of Li Yantong's origin material and use it against his father.

Of course, when he reached his father's position, these materials would have little effect on him and would not be able to shake his foundation and position.

However, Ji Feng would not forget that there was still a year to go before it was time for the general election.

If some scandal breaks out before then and there is solid evidence father's position may not be shaken, but it will be almost impossible to go further!

Sniping!

This is obviously a sniping operation with an extremely clear purpose, targeting father Ji Zhenhua!

Although Ji Feng was not sure that the other party had other purposes, but sniping at his father's ascendancy, this was definitely one of the other party's intentions!

"Wu Zhiyong" Ji Feng's eyes body glowed cold, "Don't let me find out that you did it, or else humph! "

So one after another provoked, the other party even put the idea to Li Yueqin and Li Yantong mother and daughter, once exposed, this will definitely not be a small blow to them, this kind of underhanded tactics, is Ji Feng absolutely can not tolerate!

Chapter 1344

"Wang Xin, are you ready?" Ji Feng asked.

"It will be ready soon, boss take it easy for now, I need to get the equipment all tuned up and the preparations all done, hold your horses!" Wang Xin said quickly.

"Hmm! You shouldn't rush either, I'm not rushing you!" Ji Feng said.

Tengfei Network Company, in the manager's office, Ji Feng was standing next to his desk, watching Wang Xin crackling and tapping away on his keyboard.

It was already the morning after Ji Feng returned to Jiangzhou. As agreed last night, Ji Feng got up early in the morning and first arranged for Tong Lei and Han Zhen to take care of Xiao Yu, and then he drove straight to Tengfei Network Company.

Fang Ming went to Jinling to take the opportunity to get close to his sister Li Yantong, and was secretly assigned by a mysterious boss Huang. What's more, the phone number of this Huang boss was actually attributed to Southern Guangdong, and this news made Ji Feng have to treat it with caution, even to the extent of playing a twelve-point spirit.

The reason is that the moment Nan Yue is mentioned, Ji Feng can't help but associate it with the enmity and grudge with the Wu family, so how much does this matter have to do with the Wu family?

Ji Feng's heart was a bit unsure, so he came to the Tengfei Network Company early, to work with Wang Xin to verify whether his speculation was true or not, because it was a big deal.

If it is finally confirmed that this matter is really related to the Wu family, then Ji Feng will not stop there, this matter, and will make waves again!

If it is not related to the Wu family, then Ji Feng will also continue to pursue it.

The key issue now was that he had to verify his suspicions with Wang Xin!

"Alright!"

Suddenly, Wang Xin made an 'OK' gesture to Ji Feng and said, "Boss, the tracking device I'm using now can connect to a satellite for tracking, but if the distance is too far, it will take some time, so you have to find a way to delay with the other party."

"How long will it take?!" Ji Feng asked.

"It's best to have more than fifteen minutes, that's the safest, even if the other party is not within China, I can still track him." Wang Xin said.

"Fifteen minutes" Ji Feng frowned slightly, even two old friends on the phone may not talk for fifteen minutes sometimes, what's more, the contact between the other party and Fang Ming was not a proper call, they were going to have a nasty hookup, the call would be even less long.

"That's the maximum time, if it's shorter it's fine, I'll try my best anyway!" Wang Xin said.

"That seems to be all we can do now, improvise!" Ji Feng smiled, "After all, it's not up to us to decide how long the other party wants to say!"

Wang Xin also smiled, "However, I believe that with the boss's only ability to delay for a while, it's not a problem."

"Alright, wearing a high hat with me won't make the other party's call with me last longer!" Ji Feng smiled, "Ready, right? Then we're about to start!"

"There's still a bit of a wait!"

Wang Xin suddenly said, she pressed the phone on the table, which was the internal communication network, "Manager Wang, please come in for a moment!"

"Manager Wang?"

Ji Feng thought about it, there was another manager Wang in this Tengfei Network Company? He couldn't help but ask, "Who are you calling?"

Wang Xin said with some embarrassment, "Calling my brother."

".....," Ji Feng was stunned.

Wang Xin said embarrassedly, "I think that there should be some standardization within the company, even if they are relatives, they should be addressed directly by their positions, otherwise, the company would be in chaos."

"Well, that's right!" Ji Feng laughed.

"Then you're still laughing!" Wang Xin was embarrassed, "Did I do something wrong?"

Ji Feng shook his head and laughed, "I just think that you're starting to grow up too."

Wang Xin then blushed slightly on her pretty face and muttered, "You're not even as old as me, yet you sound like an old grandfather"

Ji Feng burst out laughing.

But when you think about it, what Wang Xin said was true, and Ji Feng knew that his mentality was older than his age, mainly because he had experienced too many things in the past, making Ji Feng's mentality very mature early on.

"Knock, knock, knock!"

A knock sounded on the door and Wang Hu pushed the door in, "Manager boss is also here?"

"Wang Hu, become a manager?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

Wang Hu immediately scratched his head in embarrassment and he smiled: "It's the manager of the security department, in charge of a few people, they are all called indiscriminately!"

"That's not nonsense shouting." Ji Feng said with a straight face, "Don't ever underestimate the importance of the security department, if you weren't there, then the company wouldn't have any security to speak of, your work is very important and your duties as a manager are also very heavy!"

"Yes!"

Wang Hu exclaimed, his military air still strong.

Ji Feng then smiled and nodded, "That's right, do a good job, maybe in the future the whole Tengfei Group's security work will be your responsibility!"

Wang Hu then became even more embarrassed, he laughed and scratched his head.

"Manager Wang, you send someone to guard outside my office, no one is allowed to come in without my order!" Wang Xin said.

"Yes!"

Wang Hu nodded, not the least bit embarrassed by being commanded by his sister, he already considered himself a rough man and was simple and straightforward, so of course he wouldn't have any thoughts about it.

"Then you go out!" Wang Xin said.

Wang Hu nodded, turned around and headed out. But just as he stepped out of Wang Xin's office, he was suddenly startled.

"Ee?!"

Wang Hu looked back in surprise and scratched his head, "I was told to send someone outside to guard no one from going in, so what are the two of them doing in there?"

Immediately, he was slightly stunned, "Could it be that Wang Xin and the boss"

He hurriedly shook his head, what was he thinking blindly!

Ji Feng in the office, on the other hand, did not feel anything wrong yet, after all, he was bent on finding out exactly where the owner of that phone number was, and had no other thoughts in mind.

"Boss, let's get started!" Wang Xin said.

"Get ready, it's up to you!" Ji Feng took out a mobile phone from his pocket, it was a random broken phone he had found, but the phone card was Fang Ming's.

He followed the phone number he got and dialed it.

"Start!"

Ji Feng waved his hand and dialed the number, while over there, Wang Xin was starting to crackle and tap on the computer because there was still some distance between the two of them, so Ji Feng wasn't afraid that Wang Xin's sound of tapping on the keyboard would penetrate into the other party's ears.

"Duh~~duh~~" The phone went through, but no one answered.

Ji Feng wasn't in a hurry and waited patiently.

When he was in Jinling Ji Feng had already interrogated Fang Ming, when he contacted that boss Huang, sometimes when he called several times that boss Huang might not pick up, but as long as he insisted on calling, he could get through.

This is the way that Fang Ming used to get in touch with that Huang boss.

As expected, it was just as Fang Ming had said. The first time, the call went through but no one picked up.

Ji Feng continued to call for the second time still no one answered.

The third time

"Hello" Finally, Ji Feng kept calling until the fifth time, the phone finally got through and a low voice came from the phone.

Ji Feng immediately looked at Wang Xin, only to see her nod her head and start to quickly operate on the computer.

“Why are you calling me at this time? Is it because the mission has been completed?!” The person on the other end of the phone asked in a deep voice, with an unpleasant tone.

Ji Feng coughed lightly and suddenly changed his voice: “The mission is completed, when will the rest of the money be paid?”

If Fang Ming was still awake at this moment and could still hear these words, he would have been shocked to find that when Ji Feng spoke, his voice was very similar to his, although it hadn't reached the point of being identical, the similarity was already frighteningly high.

“I'll naturally pay you when I get the information.” Boss Huang said in a deep voice, “However, you have to promise that your information must be first-hand and the most detailed! Don't forget what I've entrusted you with, to get that woman's blood sample, as well as the test report

“The information is all here with me!” Ji Feng laughed, but there was a cold flicker in his eyes, “Not only do I have Li Yantong's blood sample, but, I also have her mother's recording that I secretly recorded when she was talking about her previous affairs.”

“What?!” The other party was startled, and his voice changed a little.

A cold light flashed in Ji Feng's eyes and he said, “Boss Huang, I want more money!”

“Say it again!” Boss Huang's voice became somewhat angry as he said in a deep voice, “Fang Ming, don't think that just because you have the information in your hand, you are qualified to bargain with me!”

“Boss Huang, from what Li Yantong's mother said, I have gotten some information.” Ji Feng's face wore a thick smile, but his eyes grew colder, “If I'm not wrong, you want me to get this information to actually target a big shot, am I right?”

“What do you know?!” The other party's tone lowered, “Fang Ming, I'm warning you, there are some things you can't know, otherwise, you'll get into trouble

“But I already know!”

Ji Feng interrupted him directly, “In a word, I want to increase the money, double the original price again

“Trying to be a scoundrel?” Boss Huang's voice became teasing, “Fang Ming, the money issue is fine, I, Huang, don't have much else, just a lot of money. However, if you get so much money, do you have the life to spend it?”

“Don't you care about that!” Ji Feng said, “Once this information is in your hands, I think the value that can be created will definitely be much more than this amount of money. This recording has mentioned a big person oh, a big person in Yanjing, it seems to be some minister Ji

“Good! Very good!” Boss Huang was furious and laughed, “Just the price you said, where are you, I'll send someone over to get the information.”

“Don't bother!” Ji Feng laughed, “I know that you're very powerful, Boss Huang, and of course you're also very crowded, if I wait for you here foolishly, then wouldn't I be killed by you without even knowing what's going on?”

“Then what do you want?” Boss Huang’s voice was thick with anger.

“Which city are you in, I’ll send you to that city and I’ll notify you of the exact location then!” Ji Feng said.

Chapter 1345

“Which city are you in, I’ll send you to that city, and I’ll notify you of the exact location then!” Ji Feng said.

“You still dare to come to my place?” Boss Huang asked teasingly, “Aren’t you afraid that I’ll send someone to block you and throw you into the sea to feed the fish when the time comes?!”

“Then name a way to trade?!” Ji Feng sneered, “I’m not comfortable with you sending someone to get it, I’ll leave the information somewhere and I’m afraid I won’t receive the money, I don’t think there’s a better offer than mine, right?”

“Knock~~!”

A crisp sound rang out, but it was Wang Xin knocking on the table, while making an OK gesture at Ji Feng.

“Alright then, let’s do what you said!” Boss Huang said in a deep voice: “I’m in Southern Guangdong Chuzhou, you’re still calling this number when you come.”

“You can rest assured that the money is not less than yours!” Boss Huang said, “However, I want to see the information first.”

“Let’s wait until then!” Ji Feng smiled faintly.

“..... good!” Boss Huang said in a low voice, he was obviously pissed off by Ji Feng’s attitude, but now that the information wasn’t in his hands, he couldn’t get angry, he could only force his anger down!

“Then let’s contact again!” Ji Feng smiled and hung up the phone straight away.

Immediately, the smile on his face disappeared and was replaced by a flat voice look. However, if one looked closely at his eyes, one would find that he was actually forcibly suppressing the killing intent and anger in his heart.

“Wang Xin, how is it, have you got the results?” Ji Feng shook his head and asked in a deep voice as he tried his best to restrain the killing intent in his heart.

“We’ve already found out, the other party’s signal was sent from Yuezhou in Southern Guangdong, which means that the owner of the phone is in Yuezhou at this moment.” Wang Xin said, “And I’ve already found out the exact location” Boss, please look!”

Ji Feng went around behind Wang Xin and looked at the computer screen on the table, only to see that on it was a satellite map, and it was a three-dimensional image, which was the latest three-dimensional map.

On this map, there were several circles that were flashing, and in the middle was a red dot that was burning brightly.

“Here is the range I circled from the beginning, then gradually searched and finally found the exact location of the phone signal!” Wang Xin pointed to the red dot of light on the computer screen and said, “This is a busy avenue in Yuezhou, and look at the name on here, it’s a tea house!”

“Well done!” Ji Feng gave a thumbs up, “Wang Xin, I’m lucky to have you by my side, otherwise, I would only be able to scratch my head on many things!”

Ji Feng smiled and took a deep look at the name of the tea house on the computer screen, and then he said, “Wang Xin, don’t say anything to anyone about today, and, all the information on this computer of yours should be encrypted, don’t let anyone steal it.”

“Boss, don’t worry, I’ve taken precautions!” Wang Xin said, “The self-destruct program that Yang Yu and I wrote for the 3D TV trigger is in my computer, once the password is entered incorrectly more than three times, the information inside will protect itself, and if it is forcibly damaged, it will activate the self-destruct program

“Hmm! You are very careful in what you do!” Ji Feng praised, “Then let’s do this first, wait for my call, we’ll be in touch anytime, we’ll definitely still need your help to catch this rat hiding his head next!”

“If there’s anything boss, feel free to order!” Wang Xin said immediately.

Ji Feng patted her head and nodded with a smile.

Wang Xin’s pretty face then reddened slightly.

And then, Ji Feng left the Tengfei Network Company and was driven by the white spider, rushing to the Tengfei Group headquarters.

On the way to Tengfei Group, Ji Feng sat in the back seat of the car, keeping his eyes closed the whole time, but in reality, his heart was churning with anger.

“I was right, my guess, I was right!” Ji Feng repeatedly chanted in his heart, “That mysterious Boss Huang behind the scenes, sending Fang Ming to Li Yantong’s side, and also to get Li Yantong’s blood samples and test reports and such

Their purpose is to snipe the father to the top before the general election!”

Ji Feng’s heart was a little heavy, he had realized that his enemy was not ordinary!

This was evident from the opponent’s actions.

If the opponent was just an ordinary person, there was no need for them to have to send someone close to Li Yantong, and besides, an ordinary person wouldn’t be able to think of using such a method to snipe his father!

What’s more, the opponent knew the identities of Li Yantong and Li Yueqin!

So, how many people were there who could know their identities?

That is, some cadres in Yuncheng at the beginning, because they had seen Ji Feng and Ji Shaolei freak out on the spot, and there were people who knew their identities, and from that, from their identities, they deduced Li Yantong's identity!

In between, there must be someone else who knew about his father's younger days!

So that means that one or more of the big families in Yanjing must have been involved in this matter, or at least, they knew about it!

Maybe it was all a joint effort by some of the families, just putting a mysterious Mr. Huang in the foreground, but there was someone else behind the scenes who could be running the show!

The key problem is that the person who dares to snipe his father is obviously in an unusual position, and, once his father is sniped, there is definitely more than just one person who will end up benefiting, so it is not easy to find this person behind the scenes, those who can get the benefit could be the mastermind behind the scenes.

In that case, there is no focus when you want to play against your opponent.

It is possible that a black hand may appear from the side at some point and set a trap for oneself.

The matter has developed to this point, I am afraid that it is no longer able to cope with it alone, Ji Feng feels that he must find helpers, otherwise, there may be a mistake, and if at that time, because of his own ego and caused any consequences, it will be too late to regret.

Thinking of this, Ji Feng then snapped open his eyes and said, "White Spider, divert to the Municipal Party Committee compound!"

"Yes!"

White Spider immediately answered.

This was something that had to be told to Second Uncle first, and only after discussing it with him could he decide what to do later.

.....

"Boom!"

A tea cup shattered to the ground.

In a tea house in Yuezhou, a middle-aged man's face was blue as he slammed the teacup on the ground, ignoring the fact that it was a pot of extremely fine tea that cost thousands of dollars.

"Bastard!"

The middle-aged man's face was blue with anger as he gritted his teeth and said, "A little shrimp, how dare he call my bluff!"

He gritted his teeth for a long time before he sneered and said, "Fine, don't you want money? I'll let you have money and no life to spend! You want money, I want your life!"

After a moment of deliberation, he took out his mobile phone and dialed a number.

“What does it say?!” A slightly majestic voice came over the phone.

“Young master, we have news about that incident in Jinling, the people I sent have got the detailed information, moreover, my people have gained the trust of that woman, the woman talked about the previous incident, which was secretly recorded by my people!” The middle-aged man said with a slight respect.

“Oh?!”

The voice on the other end of the phone was a little surprised, “That’s quite a windfall, well done, you send it over to me as soon as possible!”

“Thanks for the compliment, but” the middle-aged man was a little hesitant.

“But what?!”

“It’s like this, the man had a problem and he needed a sum of money urgently, so this price went up slightly” the middle-aged man said carefully.

“Out of control?!” The other side immediately heard the meaning of the middle-aged man’s words, “Look what kind of people you’re looking for! I’m telling you, this matter must never be leaked out, or else you and I will both be out of luck!”

“Yes, yes, yes!”

The middle-aged man’s cold sweat instantly came down, “Then”

“Money is not a problem, but keeping such a person is always a curse” the person on the other end of the phone said, “Wait for now, someone will soon go over to help you, then do what you have to do!”

“Yes!” The middle-aged man immediately responded.

“That’s it for now then, get the information and contact me again!”

With that said, the phone hung up.

The middle-aged man let out a slight sigh of relief, and then he sneered, “A little hustler, and you dare to jump in front of me, do you really think it’s still the era of the jianghu? When I get the information, let’s see how I’ll get you killed!”

Immediately, he smiled smugly again, “This time, I’ve accomplished my mission, right? The big young man’s men hold a big group, compared to the reward given will not be less”

“Why have you suddenly come here?”

Looking at Ji Feng coming in, Ji Zhenguo pointed to the chair opposite and told him to sit down.

“Second uncle, I found out an important situation.” Ji Feng pulled the chair over and sat down, before saying directly, “I suspect that someone might be trying to snipe my father to the top”

“What’s going on?” Ji Zhenguo’s expression changed slightly as he asked indifferently.

Having reached his position, he didn’t know how many big storms he had experienced, this news wasn’t enough to make him change colour, but he sat up straight, obviously taking it seriously as well.

“It’s like this, this November long vacation, my second brother and I went to Jinling, where we met a few people with bad intentions,” Ji Feng quickly told Fang Ming and Qu Gang and others, what he focused on, was the information he got from Fang Ming’s mouth, and the call between the mysterious Huang boss he gave just before at Tengfei Network Company.

Ji Zhenguo revealed a thoughtful expression, pondered for a moment, and asked, “Little Feng, then what are you going to do?”

Ji Feng was slightly stunned, this time he had come to seek help from his second uncle, how come his second uncle was asking himself in return?

“Speak boldly, no need to be nervous!” Ji Zhenguo said.

“Alright then, I’ll talk about my plans.” Ji Feng deliberated for a moment and said, “I think we can do a two-pronged approach, I’ll catch this mysterious boss Huang and follow the vine upwards, as for the operation above, I don’t know much about it

Chapter 1346

In the Jiangzhou Municipal Party Committee compound, in the office of Municipal Party Secretary Ji Zhenguo, Ji Feng was lowering his voice and talking about his plan.

“At the moment I have stabilised that mysterious boss Huang, although he says he is in Chuzhou, South Guangdong, I have found out that he is currently in Yuezhou.” Ji Feng said, “Chuzhou is just a small city with a small population, but it is not less developed, he tricked me into going there because it is just better to do it and this, too, is my chance.”

“Catch this boss Huang, then we can follow the vine and find the mastermind behind the curtain.” Ji Feng said, “With evidence in our hands, I believe we will be able to make the most violent counterattack, and when the time comes for the operation at the top, it will be hard for you, second uncle!”

After hearing Ji Feng’s intention, Ji Zhenguo did not immediately take a position, but said, “Politics, by nature, is full of uncertainty, whether it is a general election or in the process of governing, accidents can occur, which is normal.”

Ji Feng nodded his head, he knew that second uncle would not say this for no reason, there must be an intention.

“This time for the general election, the situation is indeed rather complicated, and the unexpected fall of the Wu family boss will make the situation even more complicated all of a sudden, but as long as the preliminary preparations are done properly, you will be able to see the situation clearly.” Ji Zhenguo said, “A little wind and a little wave will at most just splash a big ship and bring some moisture, but it won’t capsize a big ship!”

It then dawned on Ji Feng that Second Uncle was telling himself that the preparations before the change had almost been done, and that the actions of a jumped-up clown like Boss Huang would not pose much of a threat to his father!

“This information you provided is still useful, at least, it can make us more alert, and it can also make us realize that there are still people who are not satisfied with our work, which means we are not doing our job well enough.” Ji Zhenguo said, “But all things in the world are like that, nothing can be done perfectly, only try to do better!”

“Then this Boss Huang” Ji Feng asked, “What should be done about it?”

“What do you think?” Ji Zhenguo asked rhetorically.

Ji Feng pondered for a moment before saying, “I think that we can just arrest him and ask for what we want from him, even if we don’t immediately get angry, but we can at least take some initiative.”

“Then in what name do you intend to arrest someone?” Ji Zhenguo asked again, “On the basis of you being Ji Feng, on the basis of your grandfather’s identity?”

“.....” Ji Feng was stunned, second uncle didn’t agree with the arrest?

“To do things, you have to be reasonable and justified, you can’t let others say otherwise, otherwise, it’s your fault.” Ji Zhenguo said, “Since what you did is already wrong, how else can you argue with others?”

“..... I understand!” Ji Feng pondered for a moment and nodded his head.

Ji Feng only thought about it slightly and understood what Second Uncle meant, he was asking himself to find a solution, but, he couldn’t make a scene, and at the same time, he couldn’t be too out of line.

“In addition, your sister there, try to take care of him more, not only your big brother take care of him in Jinling, the key is you, understand?” Ji Zhenguo said again.

Ji Feng nodded, “Second uncle, I understand what you mean.”

When elder brother Ji Shaodong took care of Li Yueqin and Li Yantong’s mother and daughter, it was out of affection for relatives, but it was completely different for Ji Feng to take care of them, because he was Li Yantong’s own brother.

Moreover, there was some unspoken meaning in Second Uncle’s words – since he had now returned to the family, he should give more care to his sister, as she was still drifting outside, at least for now, and I was afraid that how this problem should be solved would be far away.

Under such circumstances, no matter how much Ji Feng took care of them, it was not too much!

“Go on!” Ji Zhenguo waved his hand.

“Mm! I’ll go first then, goodbye second uncle.” Ji Feng nodded his head, got up and headed out.

“Wait a minute!” Ji Feng had just walked to the door when Ji Zhenguo called out to him, “Don’t be reckless in doing things, pay attention to your safety, and learn to use people because you are not necessarily all talented!”

Ji Feng was stunned, and then nodded, "I remember."

After leaving the municipal party committee compound, Ji Feng once again took a car to the headquarters of the Tengfei Group.

The conversation with his second uncle made all the original worries in his heart disappear without a trace. The preparations regarding the change of government had all been done at home, and his own reminders could definitely make his father even more vigilant.

Now, not to mention that the other party had not only failed to get hold of the information about his sister Li Yantong, but even if they did get hold of it, it might not be able to have any effect on his father.

However, if the other party really got hold of it, once it was revealed, it would cause Li Yueqin and Li Yantong's mother and daughter to suffer a double blow, and might even seriously affect their normal lives as a result.

This is not something that can be left untouched!

Therefore, Ji Feng still decided to follow his original plan and catch that mysterious boss Huang.

As the saying goes, woe to the family, although this was only a Jianghu rule, in reality, it was equally applicable in the official and shopping worlds. However, the other party had really affected Li Yantong, and Ji Feng absolutely could not tolerate such behaviour.

However, after second uncle Ji Zhenguo's reminder, Ji Feng also realized that it was imperative to arrest Boss Huang, but how to arrest him, what kind of approach to take, and in what name to arrest him, this was something that needed to be carefully considered before deciding.

Since Mr. Huang dared to investigate Li Yantong's mother and daughter, there must be someone behind him, and this aside, just Mr. Huang himself might be an influential person.

In order to catch such a person, it is really necessary to plan properly, or at least, not to fall into the wrong hands as a result.

"White Spider, if you were asked to secretly go and catch someone and bring him back, what would you do?" Ji Feng suddenly asked.

"Secretly catch someone?"

White Spider hesitated for a moment, and then replied, "I would first go through the investigation, find his exact location, and then make the arrest. The focus is still on the process of bringing him back, if possible, I think using the van to hide the man in the cargo and bringing him back this way should be the safest and most concealed."

Ji Feng couldn't help but ask with a smile, "You've done this before?"

The white spider nodded: "When I used to take on assignments, the client requested to make it look like a kidnapping and later tear the ticket, I utilized such a method However, that was abroad, the inspection at home is much more lax, it shouldn't be too difficult to do."

Ji Feng laughed: "That's good, I'm afraid it won't be too long before I have to use your kind of method!"

“There is a mission, at the command of young Ji!” White Spider immediately said.

Ji Feng smiled and nodded his head.

When he arrived at the headquarters of the Tengfei Group, Ji Feng did not see Han Zhong, and only when he called him did he learn that he was watching the crew shoot a commercial in Jiangzhou Film and Television City. The star was found with the help of his second brother, Ji Shaolei, who said it was a quite popular actress with a good image and a reasonable price, so Han Zhong was quite satisfied anyway.

Since Han Zhong was not there, Ji Feng did not stay too long, but went straight to the security department.

He came here today mainly to look for Yi Xingchen. To make an arrest, he had to wait for a few competent people to go over there, after all, he was unfamiliar with the place in Southern Guangdong, so if he wanted to bring him back safely, he had to make more preparations.

However, after arriving at the security department, Ji Feng did not immediately bring up this matter, but asked about the training and bonding situation of Yi Xingchen and Liu Xin and others.

Although the team had not been formed for a long time, but the good thing was that they were all veterans with some experience, and Yi Xingchen was quite talented in commanding, so he was able to blend these two teams, which originally belonged to two camps, together by means of joint training.

The two teams train together, both are security guards of the Tengfei Group, there is no distinction between mercenaries and special forces of the regular army, the teams are then disorganized into two teams, and then the training begins, the winning side has a reward, the losing side, then have to pay a certain price, such as washing and mopping the floor for the winning side

This is all a small punishment, but for these proud warriors, defeat itself is shameful, let alone having to serve the other side.

So, every time the teams were divided up, everyone didn't care who was who, as long as they were on their own team, then they worked together with one goal in mind, and that was to beat the other team and get a reward!

In this way of training, but in just a few days, the two teams quickly fused together. The soldiers were all straightforward men, and after getting to know each other's personalities, they easily got along and became close friends, just like the soldiers in the army!

What got Ji Feng's attention the most was that, according to Yi Xingchen, there were several soldiers in Liu Xin's team whose family situations were quite difficult, and some of their families had been received in Jiangzhou to work as labourers in the Tengfei Group for a good salary.

And there were families who were unwilling to come, or who didn't quite adapt to the environment in Jiangzhou after coming and went back, then those fighters were given higher salaries so that they could support their families and their families could live well.

“That's right!” Ji Feng nodded with certainty, “High salary, can make their families live well, then they will have no worries, compared to talents, money is really nothing! In the future, the salary will have to be gradually increased, so that when they are old and can't work anymore, they can live the rest of their lives without any worries!"

Ji Feng looked at Yi Xingchen and smiled, "Of course, the same goes for you guys, but I don't think it's too attractive to you guys, because you're already rich yourselves!"

When the four of them, Yi Xingchen, returned to China, they all brought a sum of money with them, and before that they also formed Star Security, which was later bought out by Ji Feng.

Moreover, they later shared the shares of the Tengfei Group, and that was even richer.

So all four of them were very rich guys, and their salaries didn't mean too much to them.

Yi Xingchen laughed, "Who minds too much money, besides the salary we get is not just money, boss, that aerobics routine of yours, it can't be bought with any amount of money!"

From the time they started practicing aerobics until now, they all had a good idea of how much their combat power had improved, so Yi Xingchen naturally knew that this aerobics set that Ji Feng had taught them was really worth geometry!

Ji Feng nodded with a smile and said, "Just kidding since we are all brothers in our own family, let's not talk about that. Also, there might be an operation recently and we need to find a few good hands, you guys discuss and see who goes, wait for me to inform you when the time comes."

Chapter 1347

Like every year in the past, this year's November holiday passed just as quickly amidst the fondness of many people.

School classes resumed as normal, students almost all returned to school, and Ji Feng decided to be a good student for a few days, at least, to attend classes honestly in the days before he left for Nan Yue, otherwise, he was afraid he wouldn't even be able to recognise his own teacher as a major.

Tong Lei is very happy!

Ji Feng went to and from school with her every day and also ate together in the school at noon in the cafeteria and would take a walk in the playground in the afternoon, no different from other couples.

This warm and somewhat romantic feeling on campus increased the smile on Tong Lei's face, and sometimes even when she returned home, she had a faint smile on her face, which, together with her clear and beautiful appearance, would make her feel as if she had a faintly sweet taste of freshness.

Ji Feng likewise enjoyed this kind of life, especially this kind of life without any hook-ups, just simply studying, living and having fun, which made him feel all the more relaxed.

Because he knew that such a life might not last for a few days, Ji Feng tried his best to live a leisurely life almost every day.

He didn't ask about the business development of the Tengfei Group, he didn't ask about the training and bonding of the battle team, and even, he didn't even sit in the classroom to listen to the lectures, he just completely relaxed.

Of course, he usually accompanies Tong Lei around the school when he is free, the library, the grove, and the canteen are all places where they often go on dates. Of course when they returned home, Ji Feng would flirt and fight with Xiao Yuxuan, and life was very relaxed.

However, after only three or four days of such a life, this feeling of peace and contentment that Ji Feng was enjoying was shattered.

A staff member of the Tengfei Group had been injured!

Han Zhong had also received a kick!

This news took Ji Feng by surprise, how could a good Han Zhong get beaten up? Could it be that this guy ran off in the middle of the night to steal someone? The pediatrician didn't have to take the staff of the Tengfei Group with him, right?

Ji Feng was after school and returned home with Tong Lei before he heard Xiao Yuxuan talk about the incident.

Xiao Yuxuan's face was a bit unpleasant as she said, "I don't know where a group of hooligans came from, but they ran straight to our studio and demanded protection money. Our staff just had a theory with them and the other side took out wooden sticks and beat them up, two of our staff were injured and Han Zhong also received a kick, but was protected."

"What happened afterwards?" Ji Feng asked calmly.

"Later the staff and security guards from Film City rushed to the scene, only for those people to report their names and then leave in a big way, and when the police arrived, they had already disappeared."

Xiao Yuxuan said angrily, "The police gave a statement, and then questioned the staff of the film city, the result is that they all stammered and muddled this is simply irresponsible, in their there took a beating, they actually came to provide some information are not willing to?!"

"Pop!"

Ji Feng not lightly slapped a slap on the coffee table, and then said, "Go! Go and see Han Zhong and the others."

"Go now? It's almost dark here!" Xiao Yuxuan said.

"We have to go even if it's dark, an employee has been beaten up, you as the chairman always have to go and visit, right?" Ji Feng said, "Otherwise who would still be willing to sell out in the future?!"

Xiao Yuxuan said, "I've already gone to see them during the day, those two staff members are a bit more seriously injured, their arms were broken and two ribs were broken, they are now in need of rest, Han Zhong is not seriously hurt, just as the general manager was kicked, he is holding his anger in his heart, it's useless for you to go."

Clatter~~!

Xiao Yuxuan suddenly turned around and saw that the coffee table, which had just been slapped by Ji Feng, had fallen apart with a crash, and the glass, which was fine even if a person stood on it, had broken to the ground!

Xiao Yuxuan was suddenly astonished, Ji Feng was angry, and was shaken with rage!

“Ji Feng, don’t be impulsive now, it’s useless even if you can’t find anyone you go!” Xiao Yuxuan saw that Ji Feng looked calm but his eyes were bitterly cold, so she was suddenly shocked, afraid that if Ji Feng went now, he would make a big fuss, he was in a fit of anger and something big might happen.

But Ji Feng said: “Don’t worry, you know me, I’m not that impulsive! However, Han Zhong and those two employees were beaten up, I definitely want to go visit you too.”

“Good, we’ll go together!” Seeing that Ji Feng’s stubborn temper had come up again, Xiao Yuxuan had to comply with him.

Xiao Yuxuan knew Ji Feng best, although usually Ji Feng seemed to have a good temper, however, once he really got angry, no one could stop him.

“I’m going too!” Tong Lei said.

“You stay at home, no need to go with so many people, it’s not a group fight!” Ji Feng said.

He knew that Tong Lei didn’t like such scenes, Ji Feng preferred that Tong Lei could keep her clear beauty, so let her dabble in such things as little as possible.

Tong Lei then nodded and said no more.

The white spider quickly went out and brought the car over, taking Ji Feng and Xiao Yuxuan, as well as Xiao Ying who followed them, out of the gate quickly.

“They’re at the First Hospital.” Xiao Yuxuan said the address.

Ji Feng frowned and asked, “Did those hooligans say anything other than that they wanted to collect protection money?”

“I wasn’t at the scene, but according to the staff who were present at the time after they came back, those hooligans just wanted to collect protection money, and the amount they wanted was not small, at that time a staff member just said, “It’s already been given, how come they still want to then those hooligans got their hands on people!” Xiao Yuxuan said.

“Well, wait until we get to the hospital, ask them and we will know.” Ji Feng nodded his head.

Xiao Yuxuan was not at the scene, so what she said was not that detailed, however, Ji Feng always felt that there seemed to be something wrong here.

Because according to Xiao Yuxuan’s relay, those hooligans came straight to Tengfei Group’s studio, and they beat people up when they didn’t get along with each other after two words, it wasn’t like they were collecting protection fees, but rather like they were specifically here to cause trouble!

“Protection fee” Ji Feng faintly pondered.

The city of Jiangzhou Film and Television is such a large base, to say that there are rogue gangsters and so on, it is not impossible, but wherever there are interests, there are conflicts, this is also normal.

Ji Feng has also heard that many crews come to Jiangzhou Film and Television City to shoot their scenes and pay an extra so-called protection fee so that they can finish their scenes here safely and smoothly Exactly who this protection fee is for, Ji Feng doesn't know, he doesn't know much about this business.

The actual fact is, this kind of gossip is specifically heard who said, Ji Feng also did not pay attention to, seems to be Han Zhong, also may be the second brother Ji Shaolei, but no matter who said it, anyway, there is certainly this thing.

In fact, not only in Jiangzhou Film and Television City, but also in all other places, there are black and white sides to society, and this is the default rule for everyone.

But the problem is that this gang of hooligans doesn't even look like they are seeking money

"No matter whether they are specialized in collecting protection fees or specialized in causing trouble, since you have done it, I can't be idle either!" Ji Feng secretly said.

When they arrived at the first hospital, Ji Feng met Han Zhong and the two injured staff members of the Tengfei Group, the three were staying in the same ward, Han Zhong did not make anything special just because he was the boss, so that he could get closer to his subordinates instead.

Of course, Han Zhong was not actually injured, but in order to cooperate with the police's investigation, he stayed in the hospital and also had the right to rest by the way.

When Ji Feng saw them, the three men were chatting in a small voice.

"Chairman!"

"Hello, Chairman!" The two employees lying on the bed saw Xiao Yuxuan first and greeted each other.

Han Zhong couldn't help but ask, "Chairman, didn't you come here during the day!"

Xiao Yuxuan smiled and asked those two employees, saying, "It all feels okay, doesn't it feel more painful than during the day?"

"No, it's just that there's still some vague pain, forget about it after a chat!" One said.

The other seemed to be a bit introverted, just grinning and not saying much.

Ji Feng, however, came to Han Zhong's bed, sat on the edge of it and asked, "What's going on, wasn't it all fine the other day? How come all of a sudden there are hooligans coming to pick a fight?"

Han Zhong spread his hands, "If you ask me, who should I ask? I still want to know what's going on!"

Ji Feng laughed: "Then you always know what happened, right? It's useless for you to hold your breath now, you can't take revenge just by being angry."

Han Zhong then shook his head helplessly and said, "There were six people on the other side, and they looked like street punks, but these guys acted crisply, hit when they said they would, were fierce and bold, I felt that they were not ordinary punks. I felt that they were not ordinary gangsters. Moreover, we had already paid the full protection fee according to the rules before, and now someone came to collect it again. It turned out that only when we had a couple of arguments with them, they made a move.”

“They’re not ordinary punks?!” Ji Feng asked, frowning.

“Not ordinary!”

Han Zhong nodded with certainty, “Moreover, they must have come from somewhere, otherwise the staff and security guards of that film city wouldn’t have been too scared to stop them, those security guards also had batons in their hands, but they didn’t know what they heard that punk say, they didn’t even dare to move! I guess they reported their names and origins!”

As soon as this was mentioned, Han Zhong became angry: “It’s just as well that they didn’t move, but when the police came, they didn’t even dare to tell the truth, they didn’t know anything at all, what the hell

Ji Feng asked again, “What did the police say about these things?”

“What else can be said? The staff and security guards refused to say anything, so there was nothing they could do.” Han Zhong said.

Ji Feng nodded and said, “I know, I will investigate. But I’m curious about one question. You said that you had to pay protection fees to shoot commercials there, which I can understand. Who is responsible for protecting you? Where were the people who said they would protect you when you were beaten up?”

Chapter 1348

The matter of paying protection fees had always been puzzling to Ji Feng.

Han Zhong, however, said, “This matter is not strange, in fact, the phenomenon of paying protection fees is everywhere!”

“What does that mean?” Ji Feng asked.

“In fact, not only in Jiangzhou Film and Television City, in fact, in Jiangzhou city, already other cities, some other businesses that come with money, as long as they are not state monopolized industries, there are definitely rogue landlords who intervene to reap benefits.”

Han Zhong said, “It’s just that some places have better law and order, so the people on the road are more restrained. And in some places, where law and order is worse, there may be law enforcement officers who are themselves from the Dao!”

Ji Feng suddenly dawned on him, if it was really like what Han Zhong had said, then the local people on the Dao then were naturally very arrogant.

“So, if a businessman wants to get involved in a certain lucrative business, he definitely needs to pay homage to the dock. The term “worship the dock” here actually means to make good friends with a certain big brother on the local road, or to pay protection fees honestly!” Han Zhong said, “If you don’t pay the protection fee, there will definitely be people coming to cause trouble, after you pay it, almost no one will come to cause trouble, they all eat this business, they break the rules themselves, it won't do them any good

According to Han Zhong's introduction, Ji Feng's general understanding of these inside information can be considered.

The entertainment industry is obviously an extremely lucrative business, especially at the moment do not know how many people are blindly chasing stars and so on, a large amount of hot money into the entertainment industry, which, there is a lot of money belongs to the people of the road, or, there are people of the road eye on this piece.

This is why an unwritten rule has been formed that the film crews who come to Film City for filming must prepare a portion of the money to give to those people in the road, which is called protection money!

In fact, it has been a long time since people from the Taoist clan have been involved in the entertainment industry. The most well-known of these is the entertainment circle in Hong Kong.

As we all know, the entertainment industry in Hong Kong is heavily infiltrated by the triads, and there are many entertainment companies that are run by people from the road themselves, such as the Xiang family, the leading family of Xin Yi An in Hong Kong

Of course, the Xiang family here is not the same family as Xiang Yongzhan's. Although they may have been a family 500 years ago, the nature and status of the two families are now very different.

The Xiang family in Hong Kong is the leading family on the road, and Xiang Yongzhan's family that is naturally needless to say.

However, this also illustrates the point that it is obviously better to pay protection fees than to have people from the road intervene directly in the film and television industry, so that on the one hand, the filming can go smoothly, while on the other hand, it can also prevent people from the road from continuing to infiltrate the film and television industry, thus affecting the normal life of the people in the industry.

Ji Feng could understand all this and had an agreeable attitude, but the issue of paying protection fees had always puzzled him.

Who did the protection money go to?

Since the protection fee was called for, someone had to show up to deal with it after an accident, right?

Also, the Tengfei Group is not a specialized film and entertainment company, it just shoots a small advertisement, but also has to pay protection fees?

Once again, Ji Feng asked these questions in quick succession.

"As long as one enters the Film and TV City to shoot, whether it's for a commercial or a movie, one has to pay protection fees." Han Zhong said, "Spending some money is also to save some trouble from people looking for trouble."

"Isn't someone still looking for trouble now? And the matter is not small!" Ji Feng said.

Two employees had been broken and Han Zhong had been kicked, so this was not a small matter, strictly speaking, it had risen to the level of a criminal case!

What's more, an employee of the Tengfei Group had been injured while working normally, this was undoubtedly a blatant challenge to the Tengfei Group!

Han Zhong shook his head helplessly, "I've already sent someone to find Wang Errongzi, now that the police investigation is inconclusive, the staff and security guards of Film City don't dare to tell the truth, but Wang Errongzi has to give an account before he can do so!"

"Wang Errongzi?" Ji Feng asked, "What kind of person is it?"

"It's a leader near the Film and Television City, the protection money is given to him, the money is not much but when you receive money, you have to do something!" Han Zhong said in a deep voice.

"Wang Errong" Ji Feng laughed, "That's a good name, once you hear it, you're not a person who can do things, how many Errons have you seen who can do things like normal people?"

Han Zhong shook his head and said, "This is just his nickname, I've also heard of this Wang Er Rangzi, it is said that when he was on the road, he dared to fight, sometimes he was desperate, isn't there a saying that the horizontal ones are afraid of the rash ones, the rash ones are afraid of the desperate ones! He belonged to the category between the rash and the desperate, so people on the road called him Wang Er Rongzi."

"So it's still a ruthless character?!" Ji Feng asked.

"I don't know much about the specific role, no matter if he's not a rash man, it's only natural to take money and do something!" Han Zhong said in a deep voice, "This matter, he has to give me an answer!"

"Ding"

Suddenly, Han Zhong's phone on the bed rang, he casually picked up the phone and picked it up, "Hello, this is Han Zhong."

But soon, Han Zhong's face turned gloomy as he said in a deep voice, "Mr. Wang, I, Han Zhong, have always been disciplined in what I do, but for you to say that is a bit too much, isn't it?"

"....."

I don't know what was said on the phone, Han Zhong's face was even more ugly, "Mr. Wang, don't talk to me about this either, you have to give an account of what happened today Hey, hey hey?!"

Boom!

Han Zhong flung his hand and smashed the phone on the ground, the high-grade phone that claimed that even a truck couldn't crush it, just fell to pieces.

"Motherfucker! What a bully!" Han Zhong roared lowly, his face incomparably grim.

"What did he give you to say?" Ji Feng asked with a smile.

"You're still laughing?!"

Han Zhong said without good humour, “Motherfucker! Laozi paid the protection fee for nothing, that bastard Wang Errongzi, actually said something about it being an accident and passing away, saying something like he has also protected us for several days and told us not to go to Film City to shoot commercials in the future!”

“Oh” Ji Feng was instantly happy, “Paying protection fees, or by the day? Holy shit, such an extreme statement, it’s really the first time I’ve heard it!”

Everyone is not a child anymore, who does not know that once you pay the protection fee, you have to have a beginning and an end, even if it is a child playing house, it does not say protection by the day, right?

Now that Wang Er Rongzi was clearly playing a monkey game! He was playing Han Zhong and the Tengfei Group like monkeys!

“This matter cannot be left like this!” Han Zhong said with a gloomy face, “It doesn’t matter if Wang Er Rongzi is playing me, but it’s not okay if he doesn’t do anything after paying the protection fee.”

“Of course we can’t just let it go like that.” Ji Feng nodded, “Then what do you plan to do?”

Han Zhong gritted his teeth and whirled out of bed and picked up on the floor.

“What are you looking for?” Ji Feng asked.

“A phone card!” Han Zhong said, “I need to ask where Wang Errong is, at this rate, I’m afraid I won’t even be able to shoot the commercial, I have to find him, if he dares not give me an answer, I’ll play with him!”

“You’re going to go straight to Er Rangzi?”

Ji Feng laughed, “You’re the boss of a big conglomerate with billions of assets, and you’re going to fight with a rogue punk?”

“It’s not a fight, I’m going to ask for a statement.” Han Zhong said, “Of course, I also need to know why there are suddenly rogue punks coming to make trouble and coming up to beat people up when they don’t agree on a word!”

Ji Feng frowned slightly, this matter had to be dealt with, those rogue punks had beaten people for no reason, and they absolutely had to be punished, there was no doubt about that.

However, Han Zhong’s behavior Ji Feng was somewhat disapproving.

According to his idea, even if he wanted to retaliate, he had to find out why and whether there was any reason behind it first.

But seeing as Han Zhong is now in a state of anger, I’m afraid he won’t listen even if Ji Feng says so.

And

In fact, Ji Feng himself would like to use his fists to solve, young people, there is never a lack of hot blood, the age of blood is the time to be brave and fierce!

The most important thing is that to deal with these hooligans and gangsters, you have to be more ruthless than them!

Pah!

Ji Feng slapped the bed and stood up sharply, "Han Zhong, ask where Wang Er Rongzi is, let's go together!"

"You're going too?" Han Zhong was stunned.

"What, you, an old boss, can go and fight with someone, can't I go?" Ji Feng laughed, "But don't forget, to say fighting, ten of you are not my opponent!"

"Then what are you waiting for?" Han Zhong said, "Let's go!"

"Go!"

Ji Feng laughed loudly.

"Ji Feng, don't be impulsive, you guys, it's better to think of a more secure solution!" Xiao Yuxuan saw the two of them getting more and more energetic, and hurriedly advised, "You guys just go over like this, in case there are a lot of them, you know those punks are not light and heavy handed, what kind of status are you two, specifically running over to fight with them?"

"Nothing, go over and take a look!" Ji Feng laughed, "It doesn't have to be a fight!"

"Found it!" Han Zhong found his phone card from the phone that had fallen apart, and then took another phone out of his pocket, quickly swapped down the phone card, and then dialed a series of numbers.

"Who are you calling here?!" Ji Feng asked, "Asking Wang Errong directly where he is?"

"Of course not!"

Han Zhong said, "I sent someone to look for Wang Errong before, when we spoke just now, my man was next to Wang Errong, he must know where Wang Errong is"

As he spoke, the call came through and Han Zhong immediately asked, "This is Han Zhong, where is Wang Er Rongzi?"

After speaking to the person on the other end of the phone, Han Zhong then hung up the phone.

"My people said that Wang Errongzi is now drinking with his men at a bar not too far from Film City, which is Wang Errongzi's territory", Han Zhong said to Ji Feng after he hung up the phone.

"So what are you still waiting for?" Ji Feng asked.

"Go!"

Han Zhong said at once.

Ji Feng smiled faintly, "Yu Xuan, you and Xiao Ying drive back first, we'll go and meet that Wang Errong!"

Chapter 1349

In the end, Xiao Yuxuan still didn't advise any further, she knew Ji Feng's temper. Don't look at his smiling face when he spoke now, but in fact, the cold light constantly flickering in his eyes already fully illustrated how angry he was in his heart!

Therefore, seeing that Ji Feng and Han Zhong had already decided to go to Wang Errong, Xiao Yuxuan could only urge them to try not to be impulsive, as those hooligans and gangsters were probably all desperate people, and it would not be worthwhile to over-complicate with them. What's more, if Ji Feng has any kind of accident, that's

Xiao Yuxuan is not quite at ease with their promise, and turned around to admonish the white spider, "White spider, their safety can be left to you, can't let them have any slip-ups, if you see the momentum is not right then call the police, now is the rule of law society, in front of the police those people can't always openly commit murder!"

"..... yes!" The white spider nodded.

In fact, White Spider is not quite agree with Xiao Yuxuan's words, now is indeed the so-called rule of law society, but even how bright the society is, there is always a dark side.

Moreover, between the black and white, there is also the grey

The police may have been recruited by the police, and those hooligans and gangsters are all in cahoots, it's hard to say!

However, these words will not be said directly by the white spider, not to mention the worried mood of Xiao Yuxuan, just her cleverness alone makes the white spider a bit intimidated.

Did Xiao Yuxuan really not understand this?

The White Spider felt that she might not necessarily not understand, and perhaps it was because she did that she had asked the White Spider to call the police.

Come to think of it, maybe that was the most thoughtful thing to do.

Anyway, no matter what, like Tong Lei, Xiao Yuxuan's words were tantamount to Ji Feng's orders, and the White Spider naturally had to obey.

Just

The white spider secretly glanced at Ji Feng, what was hidden beneath Ji Feng's calm demeanor was perhaps raging anger, the white spider felt that when the time came, the ones who really needed to be protected were probably the hooligan punks, and the ones who called the police were probably them too!

Even the Tan family, a martial arts family with many experts, was beaten down by Ji Feng with three punches and two kicks!

"Ji Feng, be careful, don't try to be strong!" Xiao Yuxuan tidied up Ji Feng's clothes and couldn't help but admonish him once more before driving off with Xiao Ying.

“Take my car!”

Han Zhong took a look at Xiao Yuxuan leaving and instantly let out a sigh of relief, “I’ll drive!”

“Come on you, let White Spider drive!” Ji Feng said. With Han Zhong’s current state of excitement, Ji Feng was really afraid that this guy would drive the car straight into a ditch!

“Hurry up!”

Han Zhong, however, was already a bit impatient.

Today’s incident had really made him hold his anger, not to mention being beaten up for no reason, this advertisement could not continue to be filmed, and God knows when those hooligans would come back to cause trouble?

What’s more, he had already sent someone to pay the protection fee, but the fucking Wang Errong, actually said something about protection by day!

..... is simply fucking bastard logic!

If Han Zhong hadn’t paid the money and was subsequently beaten up by these people from the road, then at most he would have been angry, which meant that the two sides were in conflict, and that would have been understandable.

But the question is, after paying the money and still being teased like this, how could Han Zhong possibly swallow this anger?

Moreover, the tone of Wang Errongzi’s voice on the phone made Han Zhong even more furious, the other party had a completely teasing tone, which meant that Wang Errongzi did not take him into consideration at all!

Han Zhong had never been this angry before!

That was why he had to go to Wang Er Rongzi himself today, he couldn’t swallow this anger!

“Is Wang Errong in that bar?” Sitting in the car, Ji Feng asked.

“It’s a bar near Jiangzhou Film and Television City, called Shengshi Bar.” Han Zhong said, “Before I also inquired, Wang Errongzi is the boss there, he has quite a few properties, this Shengshi bar is just one of them, other seems to have hotels or something, I didn’t inquire too much about the specifics.”

“Wang Errongzi is very famous in the Dao?” Ji Feng asked.

“The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of services and services to the public. However, you can’t get too deeply involved with them in general, or else accidents are likely to occur.” Han Zhong said.

“However, this Wang Errongzi is quite famous near Jiangzhou Film and Television City, and it is said that of the several leaders near Film and Television City, he is the most powerful, so the protection fees are usually paid to him.” Han Zhong said, “At that time, a director of the film and television city told me implicitly that it was best to pay respect to the dock before shooting the advertisement, and said the name of Wang Errongzi”

Ji Feng nodded, it looked like Wang Errongzi should be a relatively powerful person in the area of Jiangzhou Film and Television City. Even the director of the Film and Television City said this, which was enough to see the energy of Wang Errongzi.

It's no wonder that this Wang Errongzi doesn't even have the Tengfei Group in his sights. Generally speaking, people like this probably don't just have a few ponies and thugs, they definitely have official power as well, otherwise Wang Errongzi would definitely not be able to mix in the area of Film and Television City today.

The reason is that many of the film crews that go to the film city have backgrounds, and even many of the investors themselves are people with considerable backgrounds, and as far as Ji Feng knows, Ji Shaojun seems to be engaged in this line of work, so imagine if someone asks for protection money from his crew, can he not get mad?

But the fact that Wang Errong was still able to get away with it until now without even being cleaned up was enough to explain the problem.

These situations flashed through Ji Feng's mind one by one, but he didn't care much.

Not to mention that Wang Errongzi had a bit of background, even if he was the king of the heavens and beat up someone from the Tengfei Group and kicked Han Zhong for no reason like that, Ji Feng would definitely have to clean him up!

This time, he was going to fight!

"White Spider, speed up and get to the Shengshi Bar as soon as possible." Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

"Yes!"

White Spider immediately pulled out the exact address of the Sheng Shi Bar near Film City from the navigation system, and then sped up and sped away.

At this time, the bar was noisy and lively, with people coming and going, the noisy people and the high decibel music, filling the bar with excitement, it was another exciting and enjoyable night.

As it was just the beginning of the night, the majority of people had just arrived here, and those who had come to seek excitement or to get drunk out of loneliness had not yet entered the most exhilarating state, so compared to previous nights, it was still considered 'cold'.

Therefore, Wang Errongzi did not go down to look for a target for his 'sexuality', but sat in the corridor on the first floor of the bar, drinking leisurely.

The design of the bar was not quite the same as some restaurants and discos, as the bar was divided into three floors, of which the third floor was the office, the second and ground floors were for guests to play, and in the hall on the ground floor, there was also a dance floor.

The corridor on the first floor, where Wang Errong is sitting, is a large circle with a guardrail next to it, and the whole circle covers exactly half of the hall on the ground floor. Sitting in the corridor on the first floor, one can clearly see every move of everyone in the hall.

This is a typical bar decoration style, and it is also Wang Erzhi's favourite place.

Sitting on the first floor, he could clearly see if there were beautiful women below, which one was lonely and empty, which one was still a chick, which one was a long-established master in bed

The most popular thing that Wang Errongzi likes is to hook up with those young women who look serious. He feels that turning that kind of serious young women into sluts is a real man's skill, and it's more tasty to play with them, so usually, as long as there's nothing going on, he always likes to sit in the first floor corridor in the position with the widest vision and observe everywhere.

Soon, Wang Errong's eyes fell on a position in the ground floor hall where a young man was sitting. From the young man's face, one could see that he looked a little nervous and from time to time, he turned his head to look outwards, as if he was waiting for someone.

A look of contempt then appeared on Wang Errong's face as he sneered, "Stupid!"

He knew this young man, just before, this young man had run over to him, saying something about how they had already paid the protection fee and why they were still beaten up by rogue punks

"If someone beats you, it must be because you have offended someone, and it must be because you have done something wrong, otherwise, why is it that instead of you beating someone else, someone else runs over and beats you?!" Wang Errong asked rhetorically, instantly blocking the young man speechless.

"Tengfei Group hum!" Wang Errongzi picked up his glass and took a sip, full of disdain and sneered, just a group company with a bit of fame, really think that with a bit of money, others will have to listen to them for everything?

"After offending Brother Long, you still have the nerve to come over and ask me why I was beaten I think it's still a light beating!" Wang Errong shook his head and smiled.

Although this was not in line with his usual rules, but beating up someone from the Tengfei Group and being able to befriend Brother Long was definitely a good deal, and as for any rules or lack of rules, they could all be pushed back.

"Hm?!"

Suddenly, Wang Errong's eyes stared as he saw that there were three people walking into the bar, two of them young men, and a woman following them.

"A superb woman is actually still a chick?!" Wang Errongzi was instantly interested, and an evil smile flashed across the corner of his mouth, "It's worth playing with!"

However, in the next moment, the smile on the corner of Wang Errongzi's mouth suddenly froze.

Only to see those three people come directly to the seat where the young man from the Tengfei Group was sitting before, and all sat down.

Then, instead of calling a waiter, one of the tall young men waved towards one of the ponies and said something.

That ponyboy seemed to be arguing with him.

Bang!

A bottle hit that ponyboy right on the head and instantly knocked him out

Chapter 1350

“.....”

Wang Errong was literally frozen at once!

His ponies actually came up and got knocked out with a bottle of wine?

What the hell kind of people were these?! Do they know what kind of place this is? Do they know what this place is?

Not only was Wang Er Rongzi frozen, but the other staff in the bar were also frozen, especially the waiters, the ponies, and some of the escorts and girls who were pushing the drinks, all of whom were looking at the table with straightened eyes.

Are these people crazy?

Do they know who they are fighting? Did they know whose turf this place was?

Ever since Er Rongzi came to this area, he had never seen anyone who dared to be so arrogant, coming up and beating people up without saying a word!

Those people looked at that table of customers and couldn't help but bring a hint of sympathy.

However, the next moment, something even more speechless to them appeared, only to see that the young man who did it, after knocking out that pony of Er Rongzi's, not only did he not feel the slightest bit nervous, nor did he have a sword-drawn stance, instead, he just sat down in a grand manner and beckoned towards the waiter.

“How can you be a waiter? You have no eyesight at all!” The young man glared, “Don't serve the wine yet! What did your boss teach you?!”

The few waiters standing nearby were all frozen by the reprimand and did not react for a while.

He wanted more wine?!

This guy was really crazy! This is what all the waiters and the escort girls are thinking at this moment, they are still drinking and it's not even clear if they can get out alive later, these guys are really sick of their lives!

However, some of the customers who were drinking in the bar at this moment were all excited and looked over here, whispering.

Someone had dared to cause trouble in Erroneous's bar, that was something new!

“Who's this guy? Isn't this a blatant slap in Er Rongzi's face? He's got a lot of nerve!”

“Hey! We’re in for a treat, with Er Rongzi’s desperate personality, these youngsters might be in trouble, maybe they’ll have bad luck!”

“That’s not necessarily true, see, those guys are simply calm and collected, not a bit of nervousness, ordinary people can have such a calm temperament?”

“That’s right, that’s right, I reckon ah, these few people are probably specifically here to find fault with Erroneous.”

“Then we’d better leave, in case we get into a fight later and get hurt by mistake, it won’t be good.”
A man said slightly timidly.

But he was quickly met with contempt from everyone, a fight to accidentally injure someone?

This possibility was not unheard of, but it was pitifully small.

Everyone knew that Er Rongzi had a good reputation, and apart from collecting normal protection fees, he rarely bullied ordinary people.

Moreover, some people said that Er Rongzi himself was an expert, otherwise he wouldn’t be able to suppress the four vajra under him!

Such a strong force against those few young men would certainly be a handful.

Now they were not talking about whether to run or not, but they were a bit worried for the youngsters.

However, if they thought about it more carefully, if they dared to come to Er Rongzi’s venue to cause trouble, maybe these young men were really capable? Who would dare to go up the mountain without three or three?

“What are you waiting for?” The young man bellowed, “Is there anyone who understands human language? Serve the wine! If he doesn’t get here within five minutes, there’s no need to open this bar in the future!”

“.....”

This time not only those waiters and escort girls, but also those customers who were drinking were all a bit speechless.

Damn you!

This was too arrogant!

With Erroneous Wang sitting here, not to mention that someone would dare to come here to pick a fight, even if they were to fight here, they would have to think about the consequences, so there was an extremely ironic phenomenon that emerged – bars run by people like Erroneous were not only well policed, but the customers all liked to come here because of that.

On the other hand, the bars and discos run by decent businessmen are not good places, especially for young men and women who are quite innocent, because there are a lot of hooligans and the security situation is a bit bad.

And this also proves, from the side, how intimidating and powerful someone like Wang Errong is!

But now, these young men were actually so reckless, not only did they directly hit Wang Errongzi's ponies here, but they also spoke in an arrogant manner.

This time, no one thought that these young men would be able to leave safely anymore.

Those waiters and escort girls were even more speechless, looking at the arrogant appearance of these young people, they seemed to have foreseen the downfall of these people

"Bring the wine, didn't you hear?!" The young man, as if he did not see the reaction of those around him, glared at a nearby waiter and shouted.

However, the waiter gave him a contemptuous glance and then treated him like he was nothing, ignoring him.

At this time, another young man stood up from his seat and came to the waiter, taking a bottle of wine from the tray in the latter's hand, as well as a few glasses.

"Sorry, my friend is angry in his heart, so he spoke in an impulsive tone!" The young man smiled slightly, his tone was very calm, "However, I think you should listen to him seriously and hurry up to get Wang Errongzi over, otherwise this bar really won't be able to open, and won't you be out of a job then too?!"

"Kid, you know this is Erzong's bar, how dare you come here and cause trouble?" The waiter sneered mockingly, "Aren't you afraid of being thrown into the Pu River to feed the fish?"

As that waiter spoke, a few cold-faced men in vests walked over from inside.

"I'm not really afraid, because Wang Er Rongzi has neither the guts nor the strength to do that!" The young man said with a smile as if he didn't see the cold men, "Hurry up and inform Wang Errongzi, and by the way, tell him that if he comes late, it won't just be a matter of keeping the bar or not!"

Hoo~~!

A bottle slammed over, and one of them, a sturdy and fit cold man, kicked the young man ferociously.

"I told you to come and seek death!"

However, the young man turned slightly sideways, and in the next moment, he had somehow shifted to the right side of the cold man, and the bottle in his hand was raised high in the air.

"Boom!"

The wine bottle collided with the cold man's head without any reservation, immediately splashing glass everywhere and spilling wine everywhere, causing a wave of shrieks.

Flop!

The man's eyes rolled back and he just straightened up and passed out.

Several other men immediately surrounded the young man with stony faces, but did not make a rash move.

They could see that this young man was definitely a master. Most of the people who smashed people with a bottle would just have their heads broken and bleeding, but it was not that easy to knock someone out in one go.

Don't think it's that easy to knock someone out. Only when the force and position of the blow are precise can you knock someone out instantly.

And if the hit is inaccurate, either the head will break and bleed, or you will simply be killed.

"Which lane is my friend from?!" One of the men asked in a deep voice, "Is there something wrong with our bar, and please say so!"

But the young man just smiled, and without paying any attention to him he turned around and walked towards his seat.

"Stop right there"

The other man shouted, and came up with a fist and smashed it hard.

The young man turned around and swung his leg, smashing it into the man's face without reservation.

Bang!

The man's sturdy body instantly fell to the ground, causing the crowd to feel a tremor under their feet and their faces to change colour in unison.

High hand!

Everyone in the audience could see that this young man was outrageously powerful.

..... was really here specifically to pick a fight!

And, it looks like they are really qualified to pick a fight!

That young man returned to his seat without haste, and another young man sneered twice, "If you don't all want to fall down, go get Wang Errong to come over and tell him that Han Zhong is here!"

These young men, naturally, were Ji Feng's group, and they had come to the Shengshi Bar this time to pick a fight itself, so they didn't even think about keeping a low profile.

Moreover, after arriving here, that staff member from the Tengfei Group had already told them that Wang Erzhong was on the first floor, but they didn't go up there, instead they just waited for Wang Erzhong here.

Since they were here to pick a fight, there was no need to be so polite, no matter who came, beat them up!

Ji Feng used his actual action to show that they could be considered as bad comers this time!

The scene was somewhat frozen, and the few remaining sturdy men could not help but hesitate a bit.

Even if the rest of them went up together, they would definitely not be a match for that young man, they would only be beaten in vain, but if they didn't go up

“Bang!”

There was a muffled sound from upstairs as a man in his early thirties slapped the table and stood up. He rested his hands on the parapet and looked down.

“A few of you are sure you’ve come to cause trouble?” Wang Errong asked in a deep voice.

“Nonsense, why would I come here to you if I’m not causing trouble?!” Han Zhong sneered without looking back, “Have you come to collect protection money?!”

“..... ha!”

Wang Errongzi looked like he had heard some extremely funny joke, with a strange expression on his face, he nodded: “Good, good! It’s really the first time I’ve seen someone who dares to come up to my place, Wang Xiao, to collect protection money”

“Cut the crap!”

Han Zhong directly interrupted him, “Don’t stand up there pretending to be a pussy! I’ve given you face for coming here! Get the hell down!”
