

Campus Master 1381-1382

Chapter 1381

The leader of the Lake Gang, Ma Bu Zhou, has been captured!

The Lake Gang, which has a great reputation in Zhen Yang, has actually been beheaded!

Moreover, it was said that those who took Ma Bu Zhou were only a few young men, and one of the leaders only looked to be in his early twenties!

This was reported by the mistress of Ma Bu Zhou, the leader of the Lake Gang. It was said that before dawn, she called one of the hall masters of the Lake Gang for help, her voice was trembling and she stammered, barely able to speak.

She said that the young men who took Ma Bu Zhou were very powerful, and they beat him up as soon as they could, without any mercy at all.

Moreover, when they were leaving, they also took away the CCTV footage from the villa!

The news, as if it had grown wings, spread throughout the entire dao of Zhen Yang in a very short time, and all the gangs were shocked.

Ma Bu Zhou had been fowled away!

And there were actually only a few people on the other side!

It was unimaginable, who was Ma Bu Zhou? He was the leader of the Lake Gang, and he was known to be the most rampant but also the most cautious person!

Even when he sleeps at night, there are many bodyguards around his house to protect him, and where he stays, few people know about it, so it can be said that he is a cunning man!

And yet, with such caution, he was caught!

According to Ma's mistress, the bodyguards didn't even give any warning, as if they just disappeared into thin air.

The young men entered Ma Bu Zhou's villa as if they were in no man's land, even more casually than in their own home!

The whole of Zhen Yang was shocked!

To be able to capture Ma Bu Zhou so soundlessly, even rendering his bodyguards useless, without even making a single sound, was simply too shocking.

Not only that, according to some well-informed people, the headquarters of the Lake Gang, the Lakeside Building, had also been taken out, with a large number of the gang's hired guns killed and the whereabouts of the deputy gang leader, Jan May Teng, unknown.

It was said that he was in ambush with his men in the Lakeside building, preparing to ambush them, but in the end, they were all wiped out!

It was said that there were only a few people on the other side, but they had struck such a powerful attack, so powerful that it was truly terrifying!

Obviously, these people were definitely masters!

They were definitely not ordinary masters, but the kind of super masters who were decisive and extremely powerful in battle, otherwise, how could they have taken out the Lakeside Mansion while being ambushed?

How else could they have taken the Lakeside Mansion in an ambush and captured Ma Bu Zhou without a sound?

Everyone agreed with this guess without a second thought, this group of people, were definitely immensely strong and shocking experts.

But when did such a group of strong experts come to Zhen Yang?

This was a real overpowering group!

Then there was news that the group itself had come specifically for Ma Bu Zhou, because before they had even entered Zhen Yang, Ma Bu Zhou had already sent people around to find out where they were and to deal with them.

This was known to many gangs. Zhen Yang was not too big in the first place, so naturally the Lake Gang's people could not hide it from the other gangs when they made such a big move.

So after they heard this information, they immediately understood that people were coming for revenge!

Moreover, those people's methods were so severe, how ruthless and cold, that all the gangs were shocked, the fighting power of this gang of experts was too strong.

In one night, a large number of the Lake Gang's horsemen were taken out or routed, the gang leader Ma Bu Zhou was captured alive, and the life and death of the deputy gang leader Jane Pang Teng was unknown!

With the loss of so many forces, the entire Lake Gang was almost like being wiped out by half.

Decapitated!

What was left of the Lake Gang were just a few halls.

Ma Bu Zhou's mistress had originally tried to get the Lake Gang leaders to send someone to try to save Ma Bu Zhou, but to little avail.

Those young men were so tough and ruthless that even Ma Bu Zhou had fallen into their hands, so who would dare to make a move?

They were also afraid of being beheaded!

What's more, the days of the remaining hall masters were definitely not easy either.

Now that the Lake Gang has been beheaded, the other gangs are ready to take advantage of this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to take over the territory of the Lake Gang!

However, these gangs did not dare to accept the defection of the Lake Gang's hall masters, nor did they dare to take the initiative to send someone to bring them in.

The reason is simple, no one knows where those young men who carried out the beheading operation against the Lake Gang have gone, are they still in Zhen Yang? Is it to target the entire Lake Gang?

If they rashly took over the Lake Gang's halls, would they provoke hatred and targeting from those people?

The other gangs abandoned their plans to recruit and simply attacked all of the Lake Gang's halls, so that they would be in opposition to the Lake Gang, and I believe that those young men would no longer make a move against them.

From this, we can see what kind of shock the action of Ji Feng and the others has brought to Zhen Yang.

A single action had shocked the entire Zhen Yang gangs and made everyone fearful!

However, some people were happy and some were sad.

Just as the other gangs in Zhen Yang were in ecstasy and began to plan in earnest how they should attack the Lake Gang's halls, Qian Bin, who was far away in Yuezhou, was shocked to the core.

"Sh, what? Ma Bu Zhou was taken away?"

It was not until early the next morning, when the time was past midnight, that Qian Bin got the news that Ma Bu Zhou had been captured.

It was only when Ma Bu Zhou's mistress was really desperate that she finally remembered to look through the correspondence records left by Ma Bu Zhou and, with a try-it attitude, called Qian Bin for help.

When Qian Bin found out the news, he was so shocked that he almost dropped his phone on the floor.

Ma Buzhou had been arrested?

Qian Bin could hardly believe his ears, how could this be possible!

There were so many people in the Lake Gang, even if they couldn't catch Ji Feng and the others, they couldn't have been caught instead, right?

However, the news he got from Ma Bu Zhou's mistress made Qian Bin die, from her description he could tell that it was really Ji Feng and the others who had captured Ma Bu Zhou!

"What to do, what to do ....." Qian Bin was in a frenzy.

The chain reaction that would be caused by Ma Buzhou's capture would really make Qian Bin not even dare to think about it anymore.

Because what Ma Buzhou knew was just too much, if he opened his mouth and told everything, then Ji Feng would definitely turn around and deal with himself immediately next!

Not only himself!

Qian Bin only felt his temples bursting and beating rapidly, I'm afraid that he may not even be considered an important person in Ji Feng's eyes, what he wants to deal with, I'm afraid is his own father Qian Hongda.

There was even ..... a Wu Shao!

This bad chain reaction made Qian Bin's heart very uneasy, but for a moment, he did not have any good way, he could only be as anxious as ants on a hot pot, walking back and forth in the living room, anxious beyond measure.

"Ji Feng, Ji Feng ....." Qian Bin gritted his teeth in hatred, how could this man be so restless, not staying in Jiangzhou properly, running here to cause trouble!

Swish!

Qian Bin suddenly stopped in his tracks, "No, we can't continue to hesitate like this, otherwise, Ji Feng will have to hit home!"

He grimaced and pondered for a moment before finally clenching his teeth and picking up the phone to dial a number.

"Hey, Xiao Bin, what's the situation now?" It was the same slightly imposing man's voice on the phone, "Have you caught anyone yet?"

"Not yet ....."

Qian Bin's face twitched a few times, took a deep breath and said, "Young Wu, there's a problem."

"What kind of problem?"

"Ma Bu Zhou was captured by that man ....." Qian Bin quickly told the news he had received, and then said, "It happened last night, and that man should not be out of Southern Guangdong yet ....."

"Then what are we waiting for?!" The voice on the phone immediately rose high and appeared angry.

"Wu Shao, you mean ....." Qian Bin was a little stunned, what could he do if he didn't wait? Just no way to call you ah!

"Is it Huang Yuanxing knows more, or Ma Bu Zhou knows more?"

The voice of young Wu on the phone was low as he said, "Don't you know what to do yet?"

Qian Bin's heart stuttered, he instantly understood what Young Wu meant, even Huang Yuan Xing had been killed off, Ma Bu Zhou knew more than him and was still alive?

"Wu Shao, Ma Bu Zhou is my uncle .....", Qian Bin said hesitantly.

"Is your own uncle?"

"..... No, a distant relative."

“Then you think it’s time to protect your uncle and then let everyone else be implicated and buried with him?” Wu Shao asked coldly.

“.....”

“I don’t want to hear about Ma Bu Zhou being taken out of Southern Guangdong, you watch out!” After Wu Shao finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Pop!

Qian Bin’s heart suddenly jumped, his face was incomparably ugly, and his heart, moreover, was vaguely chilled.

“Finally it’s my uncle’s turn, will ..... it be my turn next?” Qian Bin muttered, he had a bad feeling when he carried out the silencing of Huang Yuanxing, and now, this feeling was getting stronger and stronger.

“What should I do? Should I keep going?” Qian Bin was confused .....

.....

Morning, quarter past nine.

A black business car came from a not-so-wide concrete road, far away.

“After that town ahead, we’ll be in Chuzhou.” Inside the car, Fatty Jane introduced slightly respectfully, “We’ll take a detour through Chuzhou, and after that we’ll be able to go straight from Chuzhou past the edge of the delta and into Gui Province, and after that there’ll be no obstacles!”

“Are there people from Qianbin in Chuzhou?” Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

Chapter 1382

“Chouzhou Qianbin’s people?” Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

Fatty Jane was stunned, then shook his head somewhat embarrassedly, “I really don’t know this, but there is a hall of the Lake Gang in Chuzhou .....”

After all, Fatty Jane was only the leader of the Lake Gang, he was able to know Qian Bin, or because he was usually often at Ma Bu Zhou’s side, but he was not too clear about Qian Bin’s specific strength.

“Then be careful!” Ji Feng said.

“Hey!”

Fatty Jane immediately nodded his head and asked with great discernment, “Young Ji, do you want me to go down and spy out some information?”

“No need, just have something to eat in the town, don’t stay too long, and after that we’ll go to Chuzhou!” Ji Feng said.

“Humph! Shameless thing!”

An indignant angry scolding came from inside the car, "Thanks to the fact that you were once Laozi's military advisor, people don't trust you, yet you still stick up for them, how come Laozi was blind in the past and didn't see you clearly as a dog!"

"Hehehe, Master Ma, you can curse all you want!" Fatty Jane said with a smile on her face, smiling, "Master Ma, I admit all these things you scolded, it was me who betrayed you, and I was also the one who told young Ji your address, all these are correct, but I think I've done right by you!"

The one who cursed was naturally the leader of the Lake Gang, Ma Bu Zhou.

After he was knocked unconscious, he woke up again to find that he had actually left Zhen Yang.

Leaving Zhen Yang was tantamount to leaving his sphere of influence, and the fact that he had fallen into Ji Feng's hands had almost cut off his possibility of asking for help from the outside world!

Ma Bu Zhou then realised what might happen to him!

He hated Ji Feng, especially when he was humiliated mercilessly by Ji Feng, which made him mad with hatred in his heart, but there was nothing he could do to resist, because his life was now in Ji Feng's hands.

If Ji Feng wanted to kill him, it would really be easier than crushing an ant.

Therefore, even if Ma Bu Zhou had fire in his heart, he did not dare to send it out.

However, apart from Ji Feng, there was another person that Ma Bu Zhou also hated almost to his bones, and that person was Jian Maoteng!

As his own military advisor and deputy leader of the Lake Gang, he had actually defected to Ji Feng straight away and even sold himself out, which made Ma Bu Zhou simply intolerable, if he could, he would even want to give Jane Hui Teng a three-stabbing and six-hole attack, or even kill him alive!

If he was defeated by his enemy, Ma only hated him, but when he was betrayed by one of his own, he hated him to the bone!

At this moment, Ma was sitting in the middle of the back seat of the commercial vehicle with his hands tied behind his back, while Liu Xin and Lu Gang sat on either side of him, watching him closely, giving him no chance of escape.

Ma Buzhou's eyes were fixed on Jian Ruiteng, and he said through gritted teeth, "How dare you say you deserve me? Is that how you can live up to me? What?"

"Indeed, betraying you was unethical of me." However, Master Ma, when I say I have done right by you, I have a clear conscience."

He looked back at Ma Bu Zhou and said, "If it weren't for me, with your arrogant personality alone, could the Lake Gang have developed to this point? Can you own properties like Lakeside Mansion? You have Qian Bin to look after you, but in this local area, he is not able to play much of a role, you should admit this, right?"

"Humph!"

Ma Bu Zhou coldly snorted, "This is all your work?!"

"Even if it wasn't my fault, I've been following you for so many years, working for you, even ambushing them at Lakeside Mansion last night, I think you know how dangerous it was. ...this should not be the only thing that happened, right? After all these years, I've done some hard work if not some credit, right?"

The smile on Jian's face remained unchanged, still smiling, "But what about you? My dear Master Ma, what have you ever given me? What have you ever done for me?"

"Without me, could you be where you are today and your glory?!"

Ma Bu Zhou said angrily, "As Vice Clan Master, you even have to count this? Why don't you think about it, anyone who sees you in Zhen Yang has to call you Brother Jane, who brought this to you?!"

"That's why I said, to you I have a clear conscience!" The smile on Jane's face grew even wider, "I served you in the saddle and you gave me the honour ..... Of course, even though this honour was a boon to you, it was given by you after all, which I admit!"

"Then how dare you betray me!" Ma Bu Zhou became even more furious, "You son of a bitch, anti-bone boy!"

"Where's Xiao Qing?" Jian Chang Teng suddenly asked.

"..... Sh, what?" Ma Bu Zhou looked stunned.

Jian Zuoteng grinned and said leisurely, "Master Ma, you shouldn't have forgotten Xiao Qing, right? It was your first ..... well, exactly how many mistresses, I can't remember, but I don't think you will forget, because she jumped off the building in front of you, only to be given a conclusion of suicide by the police ..... you must still remember, right? "

Ma Bu Zhou's expression was incomparably gloomy: "What exactly are you trying to say?"

Ji Feng and Yi Xingchen and the others also looked at them, they could tell from the expression on Jane's face that there was a story between these two, and that it involved the woman called Xiao Qing.

"My dear Master Ma, you must still remember how I, a minor civil servant, was forced by you to become a member of the gang back then, right?" Jian Chang Teng laughed, but his expression was somewhat cold, "Back then, just because I rushed you, so you forced me to go out of my way ....."

There was a strong flicker of hatred in Jian Chang Teng's eyes, and his face was a bit livid.

It was obvious how much he hated Ma Bu Zhou!

"So you've been harboring second thoughts for a long time!" Ma Bu Zhou was infuriated, "Jian Chang Teng, I was blind, why did I use you in the first place?"

"Because I was smart!"

The sadness and hatred on Jian Maoteng's face flickered, and then his face returned to calm: "Because you are stupid, arrogant, and can't distinguish between situations, so you need a smart man like me. Your arrogance makes you think that I wouldn't dare to have second thoughts or betray you. Your stupidity, on the other hand, highlights my intelligence and makes me more useful to you, so my position in the Lake Gang keeps rising ..... which is good!”

“Bastard! Son of a bitch! Anti-bone boy!” Ma Bu Zhou roared lowly, and he was about to stand up with a furious jerk, “I’ll get you to death!”

Slap!

A slap slammed Ma Bu Zhou’s face, but it was Jian Ma Teng who did it!

With a thud, Ma Buzhou was a little dazed by the blow and sat back on his buttocks, seemingly a little dazed by the blow.

“From the day Xiao Qing was taken over by you, I swore that one day, I would finish you off with my own hands! I will make you taste what it is like to be abused!”

Jian Maoteng stared straight into Ma Bu Zhou’s eyes and said in a cold voice, “You are powerful and have extensive connections, so until I find an opportunity to bring you down, I will hold back! I have gradually gained your trust in order to find the opportunity to bring you down... God forbid, this day has finally come!”

“Hmph! You’ve waited?” Ma Buzhou laughed in anger, “Jian Chang Teng, stop dreaming! I believe the news of my capture has already spread, and if those hall masters find out that you did it, the first thing they will do is to exterminate your whole family!”

“They won’t have that chance!” When I left Zhen Yang last night, I already informed my family and told them to rush to Jiang Zhou! I’ve been preparing for this for so many years, they’ll move quickly, even if the news gets out, those hall masters won’t have time to do anything!”

“Good! Very good!” Ma Bu Zhou smiled fiercely, “Jian Chang Teng, don’t be complacent, in my place, when I was blind to reappoint you, but, in other people’s place, you are just a dog, and what about me? Even after being arrested, you are still Qian Bin’s uncle, the brother-in-law of Qian Hongda, the secretary of the Yuezhou Municipal Committee, and you are still no match for me!”

“If I were you, I would definitely not say that, because that would not only harm you, but also harm Qian Bin and Qian Hongda!” Jian Chang Teng smiled faintly, “As for what I can do, that’s not for you to worry about, you only need to know one thing, I will personally end you!”

There was a thud!

No sooner had Jian Chang Teng’s words left his mouth than he turned around violently and fell to his knees in the car in one go.

“Boom!”

I’m not useless, I have a brilliant mind, I’m willing to be a dog, a dog for young Ji, I only beg that young Ji can give me a chance to follow you, let me solve Ma Bu Zhou with my own hands, from now on, this dog’s life is young Ji’s, take it when young Ji says, take it when you say! ”

“Boom!”

Jian Maoteng nodded his head to the ground and knelt at Ji Feng's feet, not moving a muscle as he waited for his response.

The space inside the car wasn't very large, and with Jane's somewhat obese body, kneeling on the ground would have been awkward and seemed cramped.

But he knelt with extraordinary determination!

The people in the car were stunned, and Ma Bu Zhou was even more stunned, then laughed loudly, "Jian Maoteng, you rebel, it's really hard for you. Let me tell you, I'm not the only one you've offended by betraying me ....."

Ka ka ka!

Lu Gang pulled out his pistol straight away, the bullet loaded, and put it against Ma Bu Zhou's head, "Little Chief, should we shut him up forever?"

Ma Bu Zhou's voice came to an abrupt halt, as if he was a chicken being choked, his face flushed red.

Only after a long time did he say in a hateful voice, "Humph! You were once the deputy leader of the Lake Gang and you ambushed them, do you really think they will trust you? You're dreaming! You don't even have a chance to be a dog!"

Ji Feng was silent as he stared at the kneeling Jian Maoteng, his brow slightly wrinkled .....

Chapter 1383

Jian Maoteng knelt on the floor of the car and just knelt in front of Ji Feng, not moving a muscle.

He knew that this was his chance. If he got Ji Feng's approval this time, then he would undoubtedly be able to take a step up to heaven, even if he had to be a dog, he would accept it!

However, if he could not get Ji Feng's approval, then he would die without a burial place, because by betraying his boss, he would be betraying Qian Bin, or even, someone further up, perhaps making it a little difficult for Ji Feng to cope.

So once Ji Feng disapproved of him, then the enemy that Jian Chang Teng faced would be enough to crush him to death with a move of his little thumb!

He was really afraid that Ji Feng would agree to Jane's request and let him be a dog.

If that were the case, then Jane would never let him go.

He had been so arrogant that he had always thought that he had been subservient to him.

Instead of dissipating with the passage of time, Jane's hatred for him had grown deeper and deeper.

Ma Buzhou was naturally very clear about what he had done in the past.

Although Ma might have forgotten that he had ever had such a woman if he hadn't suddenly mentioned it, now that he saw the hateful look in Jane's eyes, he immediately recalled the past.

At that time, he did not know about Xiao Qing's relationship with him.

In fact, even if Ma Bu Zhou had known, he would not have cared, because at that time, Jane was just a small civil servant, a small officer in a section, with no power whatsoever.

Ma Bu Zhou, on the other hand, was already a black-and-white boss, and his business was not small, with assets of tens of millions of dollars.

He threatened her with the safety of Jane and her family, so that she could only grit her teeth and not dare to resist.

At the time, he was unable to resist because Ma Buzhou was too powerful for him to resist.

However, not long afterwards, Ma took a shine to Xiao Qing's sister, and Xiao Qing couldn't stand it any longer.

Afterwards, Xiao Qing's family called the police and even petitioned the police, but to no avail. Under the threat of Ma Bu Zhou, Xiao Qing's family had no choice but to leave Zhen Yang and go away to another country.

Later on, Jane Ma returned to Ma's side.

He soon gained Ma's attention because he was a clever man with a good eye for detail.

At that time, Ma Bu Zhou was so arrogant that he only occasionally doubted Jane's motives for submitting to him when he was idle, but as Jane's performance became better and better, Ma Bu Zhou gradually lost all doubt!

This showed how arrogant Ma Buzhou had become!

Now it had become clear that he had never given up his intention to take revenge, but was simply waiting for an opportunity.

Ma Bu Zhou was worried. If Ji Feng took on Jian Maoteng, would he still be able to survive?

He looked at Ji Feng's expression with great apprehension and secretly made up his mind that as soon as Ji Feng had his heart set on something, he would have to find a way to sabotage it, and would definitely not be able to let Jian Youteng go with Ji Feng, otherwise he would really be dead.

At this time, Ji Feng, however, was frowning slightly, staring at Jian Chang Teng, and did not speak immediately.

"Haha ....."

Ma Buzhou laughed loudly, "Jian Maoteng, fatty Jian, you son of a bitch, you really want to work for someone else as a dog, how about now? They don't even want you as a dog! You still want to be a dog, I think you're worse than shit!"

He just knelt on the ground and didn't say a word.

"Jian Maoteng, I'll see how you die this time!" Ma Bu Zhou laughed in triumph, "I'm dead anyway, but you won't be any better ....."

Slap!

A slap ruthlessly slapped Ma Bu Zhou's face, instantly knocking his head sideways and banging it against the backrest behind him with a dizzying thud.

"Old thing, just needs a beating!" Lu Gang waved off his hand and said disdainfully.

Ji Feng, however, ignored Ma Bu Zhou, how could he think, and how could he be affected by Ma Bu Zhou?

A moment later, Ji Feng finally spoke, "Get up, I don't need you to be a dog for me, and I don't have that hobby."

"Young Ji!"

Jian Maoteng pleaded, "Please give me a chance ....."

"If you are allowed to continue to hang around in the Dao, are you willing to do so?" Ji Feng interrupted him and asked.

"Huh?"

Jian Maoteng was stunned and didn't respond for a moment.

"Get up, when you return to Jiangzhou, there is something for you to do instead." Ji Feng said indifferently, "However, there is no need to say things like playing dog for me!"

Ji Feng really wasn't that absurd to take people to be dogs for himself ..... this kind of thing wasn't something he should do, moreover, he wasn't interested in it either.

If you want to find people to sell their lives for you, there are simply too many, you can find them with money, you can likewise find them with your own connections and energy, there are plenty of people who don't want their lives, but Ji Feng never liked to do that, nor did he care to do such things.

But for the time being, it seemed that this Jian Maoteng could be used, he should be considered a person!

"Thank you, thank you, young Ji! Thank you!" Jian Maoteng finally understood that Ji Feng had taken him in. He was instantly grateful and kowtowed three times on the ground with a thud, "Young Ji, this life of mine will be yours from now on ....."

"All right!"

The first time I heard the words, I didn't believe them.

"Don't say such things in the future. Besides, I can't agree to your other request." Ji Feng said indifferently, "Ma Bu Zhou is still useful to me, you can't kill him."

Swish!

Ma Buzhou was originally dazed from the beating, and after hearing that Ji Feng had actually accepted Jian Chang Teng, his whole body even felt as if he had been sentenced to death, his heart thudded and his whole body froze.

And now that he heard Ji Feng actually say that he would not allow Jian Chang Teng to kill himself, Ma Bu Zhou immediately felt as if he had been given a new lease of life, overjoyed and almost screaming out in ecstasy.

“But ..... when I’m done with the matter, I can hand him over to you for disposal!” Ji Feng said.

“.....”

Ma Bu Zhou choked and turned pale.

“Many thanks to Young Ji!” Jian Chang Teng, however, was instantly overjoyed.

“Get up!” Ji Feng said, “I don’t like this set of yours, so in front of me in the future, there is no need to be like this, besides ..... that’s it, the rest of the things will be arranged for you when you return to Jiangzhou.”

“Yes!”

Jane Mao Teng replied loudly, and then he stood up with some difficulty, with his kind of body fat, being able to kneel down in the car and then stand up again was already very good, doing this kind of action was indeed a bit difficult for him.

But instead of feeling the slightest bit uncomfortable, Jane had a look of ecstasy on her face. When he turned his gaze to Ma Bu Zhou, who was sitting in the back row, his ecstasy turned into a cold murderous look.

Ma Bu Zhou’s face turned pale and his heart was so terrified that he didn’t even dare to look at Jian Chang Teng!

“Humph!” Jian Chang Teng grunted coldly and turned around to sit down.

Since Young Ji had said that he would hand the man over to him for disposal later, he naturally wouldn’t lie to him, and with Young Ji’s status, there was no need to do so, so despite his incomparable hatred for Ma Bu Zhou in his heart, Jane could hold back.

At this moment, the car had already entered the town.

After Ji Feng promised to take him on, it filled him with energy.

There was nothing unusual in the town, and because it was located on a major transportation route, it was quite busy. After Ji Feng and the others ate at a restaurant, they continued on their way and entered the border of Chuzhou.

In the next few hours, nothing unusual happened, and Ji Feng and the others rushed at full speed. At around 5pm, they were about to leave the border of Chuzhou, and further ahead was the edge of the delta, from where they would enter Gui Province and then take the road north to return to Jiangzhou.

However, when they were about to leave the border of Chuzhou, Ji Feng felt that something was wrong.

In order to avoid scrutiny, they did not take the highway, but the provincial road, and the road condition was naturally much worse than the highway, and they had to pass through several towns and counties in the middle. So even though they were rushing at full speed, they didn't dare to speed up too fast. By the time they got here, the sky was already dark and it was about to go into the night .....

In the border area between Chuzhou and the Delta, there is a small town, and according to the map, this is the last town to pass through to enter the Delta.

Because of its remote location, this town is not very busy, there are very few pedestrians on the streets, not even tall buildings, basically some small buildings of about two or three stories, and the style of the buildings is not very new, but has an old feeling, which is rare in the prosperous southern coastal areas.

It was when he entered this town that Ji Feng felt that something was wrong.

Exactly what was wrong, Ji Feng could not say, but he was instantly alert, because every time he had this feeling, it meant that there was danger nearby!

Chapter 1384

"Xiao Bin, have all the people been arranged?"

In a villa in Yuezhou, Qian Bin received a call once again, from the same 'Young Wu' as he called him.

"Don't worry, Mr. Wu, all the people have been arranged, but all the major traffic routes around Zhen Yang have been set up with manpower!" Qian Bin said.

"This kind of arrangement is still far from enough!" Wu Shao said on the phone, "In addition to those manpower you have arranged, I have also arranged a large number of manpower at several major traffic routes around South Guangdong, don't underestimate that person, he often takes surprises, many people have fallen in his hands ....."

"Then we now ....." Qian Bin was a little hesitant.

"Just wait for the news quietly."

Wu Shao said, "Xiao Bin, this time, no matter what, we can't let them leave South Guangdong, otherwise, the consequences should be clear to you! Especially Ma Bu Zhou! So, don't care about all the childishness first, we have to get rid of the hidden trouble in the shortest time possible, that person's energy can't be underestimated either, maybe someone will come to rescue them, so we have to hurry ..... do you understand?"

"..... I understand!" Qian Bin nodded his head. Only when he said this, his face had a hint of oddness and complexity that was hard to detect.

Obviously, Ma Bu Zhou's life is definitely not saved, because that person is too terrible, let Wu Shao are very scare, so, even now that the side of that only follow a few people, the force is thin, Wu Shao but also never dared to mention the words to put that in the death, he at most said to Ma Bu Zhou ..... shut up.

This is the gods fight, mortals suffer ah!

Qian Bin's heart thoughts are a bit complicated, showing Huang Yuanxing, then Ma Bu Zhou, this is his own uncle, even if not the closest, but at least there are relatives, but Wu Shao still let himself send people .....

Qian Bin was even thinking, if he was caught by Ji Feng next, would Wu Shao even take himself out together?

Perhaps, it might really be his turn .....

Looking at the dilapidated town that was getting closer and closer, the uneasiness in Ji Feng's heart was getting stronger and stronger, a very mysterious feeling, but one that did exist.

"We're not staying in this town, Zejun, go over as fast as you can, and if you encounter an emergency, rush over!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

"Boss, there's not much fuel left, we need to fill up at the town ahead before we can continue on our way!" Liu Zejun, however, shook his head, "Or get a car in this town, otherwise, we shouldn't be able to enter the delta before the car breaks down!"

Ji Feng couldn't help but frown slightly, this was indeed a big problem!

Although this place still belonged to the border of Southern Guangdong, but because it was remote and belonged to the very edge of Southern Guangdong, it was very isolated, and this last leg of the journey, there were hardly any towns encountered, so there was no refueling all the time.

Because on the map, there was such a town at the edge of Southern Guangdong, so they didn't rush to refuel ahead, but they didn't expect that something would go wrong in this last town!

"Is there something going on?" Yi Xingchen noticed that Ji Feng's face didn't look right and couldn't help but ask.

Ji Feng said, "There might be danger ahead, or at least it's not normal!"

Yi Xingchen immediately opened the map and quickly checked along the route they had taken, and a moment later, his brow furrowed, "From the map, this is already on the edge of Southern Guangdong, and from here into the delta ahead, there are at least a couple of hundred kilometres to go."

"Yeah."

Ji Feng nodded and said, "There might not even be a place to refuel next!"

According to their plan, although they entered the delta area next, they were only passing through the fringe, which meant that they would be passing through the border area between South Guangdong and the delta, and generally at the border between the two places, it was basically a zone that belonged to the Three Regions, and according to Fatty Jane, this was likewise the case here, and it was very confusing.

So, in order not to reveal their target, they couldn't stop along the way, they had to rush through in one go until they entered Gui Province!

In that case, they would never have the chance to refuel.

“Young Ji, I’ll go!” Jian Maoteng suddenly said, “I’ll go to the town and check the situation, if there’s a petrol station, I’ll get the fuel.”

Ji Feng, however, shook his head and said, “There’s definitely a situation in the town, there’s no doubt about that, whether you go to see it or not!”

“It’s better for me to go.” Yi Xingchen said, “Let Zejun go with me, Lu Gang is responsible for covering, even if there is a situation, we can still exit in time, there won’t be a big problem!”

“Don’t be in a hurry!”

Ji Feng waved his hand and turned his head, “Zezun, drive the car to the side of the road and stop first.”

The more at this time, the more you can’t rush, otherwise, it’s easy to make mistakes in the chaos, and then it will be too late to regret.

Liu Zejun pulled the car to the side of the road, and after that, Ji Feng and Yi Xingchen got out of the car, with White Spider following closely behind.

Snap!

Ji Feng stood by the roadside, looking at the lush barren grass not far away, he lit a cigarette and took two puffs before saying, “Old Yi, do you think the evacuation route we set before was wrong? Or, was it not well thought out?”

Yi Xingchen, however, shook his head and said, “We are not familiar with the terrain and road conditions over here, so it’s actually difficult to work out a flawless route just by looking at the map, from the time we started evacuating until now, there shouldn’t be any mistakes.”

“You didn’t understand what I meant!” Ji Feng shook his head, “I always feel that we seem to have fallen into a misconception ..... of course, this may be a lapse in my judgment. Old Yi, why do you think the one fleeing must be us? And not the other side?”

“..... What do you mean?” Yi Xingchen couldn’t help but be stunned, not understanding for a moment.

“It shouldn’t be us who are fleeing now!”

Ji Feng’s tone was heavy, as if he was affirming his opinion, “Old Yi, think carefully, from the very beginning of our operation, we actually only came to arrest people secretly, and we felt that we were in someone else’s territory, that’s why we had the feeling of being sneaky. However, once Huang Yuanxing explained some of the circumstances, we actually had nothing to fear anymore, at least in terms of the main principle, we could stand our ground!”

Yi Xingchen couldn’t help but nod slightly, hearing Ji Feng say so, to the extent that it was really like that.

Because the previous incident of capturing Huang Yuanxing had made them have a preconceived feeling, that’s why they felt that they must escape as fast as possible and bring the person to Jiangzhou before interrogation.

But now it seemed that there was something wrong with just escaping like that.

“Boss, then what you mean is .....” Yi Xingchen asked, “We have to change our strategy next?”

“Definitely change!”

Ji Feng nodded very definitely and said, “Just running away won’t work, it’s us who are taking the initiative now, so it shouldn’t be us who are afraid, but the other side!”

“That being said, that is indeed true. However, now we are still in the other side’s territory, especially since they are being scared, so will the dog jump to the wall?” Yi Xingchen asked, “The fact that we were ambushed earlier is a lesson!”

Ji Feng nodded and said, “You’re right, taking the initiative and standing firm on the avenue is our advantage. However, we can’t rely on this advantage and think that we can use justice and law to shame the other side’s heart and they will come out and surrender ..... that’s something only a fool would do!”

People are really capable of doing anything in order to keep their interests, and the more they are in high positions and hold great power in their hands, the more they are like that, and how would they be able to stand by with their hands tied?

So the more evidence they have of their crimes, and the more they have the advantage in terms of reason and law, the crazier the other side will be!

“Now there are two ways in front of us, first, rely on our strength and break out of Southern Guangdong hard, detour through Gui Province and then return to Jiangzhou, this method is dangerous, just this town in front of us is a place of right and wrong, whether we can break out or not is not even known yet.” Ji Feng said.

Yi Xingchen nodded, the town in front of him was dilapidated, but if the other side had set up a large number of people here, it would be a bit difficult to break through.

A road ran through the town, with only two streets in the middle, which still ended up intersecting at a point, connecting through the whole road, the other side only needed to set up manpower on both sides of the town, and that would be enough to block Ji Feng and the others to death here!

“There’s still a road!”

Although the situation was now a bit precarious, Ji Feng now had a calm look on his face, “Let’s retreat and ask for help, and after that, we can just make a move to arrest the people who are involved with this matter.”

“It’s not that I’m afraid of fighting, but if I can, I think it’s better to go the second way!” Yi Xingchen said, “But now there are a few issues that need to be clarified beforehand, who are we going to ask for help from? Also, what name are they going to use to rescue us? This is the other side’s territory, will the rescue people be able to come over?”

“If we ask for help, then there are naturally a lot of rescue people, and there are various excuses, no one can stop them, so this we don’t have to worry about at all!” Ji Feng shook his head and smiled, “But even so, I still think the first way is a bit better.”

“Oh? Why?” Yi Xingchen asked.

“Because of that thing!” Ji Feng raised his hand and pointed upwards, “It has now been proven that the other side is also able to use satellites for tracking, if we call for help ..... hehe, I’m afraid that before the rescue people arrive, the other side will take us out first!”

This is also the reason why Ji Feng has never called for help, satellite tracking, before this method was still a powerful weapon in his hands, but now, the other side also used this method, plus this is in the other side’s territory, Ji Feng is somewhat passive.

So from this, it seems that when two forces engage in a contest, there is a time and a place, and people are in harmony, these three things are really missing.

“So in the end, it all has to come down to breaking through this town in front of us, even if we have to ask for help, or even kill a return, that will have to wait until we enter Gui Province!” Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

Chapter 1385

“Liu Zejun, Liu Xin, White Spider .....,” Yi Xingchen said aloud.

“Present!”

As Yi Xingchen’s voice fell, the voices of the three White Spiders rang out at the same time.

“You three, follow me and prepare for a strong attack.” Yi Xingchen said, “Make preparations immediately and check your weapons, ammunition and other equipment!”

“Yes!”

“Lu Gang!” Yi Xingchen shouted again.

“Present!”

“You’ll be in charge of sniper cover ..... The wound on your shoulder has to be overcome, you have a heavy responsibility, there may be many people on the other side, but you’re the only one on our side to cover with a sniper rifle, hold on!” Yi Xingchen said.

“All out!” Lu Gang exclaimed.

Yi Xingchen nodded and looked at Ji Feng again, “Boss, wait for me and them to rush through, I’ll leave the next command to you, we’ll open the intercom, within a short distance, it won’t reveal our trail, but I’ll transfer the white spider away .....,”

“I don’t need anyone to protect!” Ji Feng said.

He originally wanted to undertake the task of leading a strong attack, but thought that Yi Xingchen wouldn’t agree, so he didn’t bother with that.

Besides, Lu Gang had been injured and his standard with a gun might have decreased, so he would also be responsible for sniping later.

“Alright then, everyone listen carefully, start moving later on my order, now, start preparing immediately .....,” Yi Xing Chen said loudly.

About a few kilometres away from the town at the border of Chuzhou, Ji Feng and the others parked their car on the side of the road and began their setup.

Originally, they were only a kilometre or two at most from this town in front of them, but in order to be able to set up conveniently without being discovered, they turned around and walked back some distance, so that they could move conveniently and also ensure the secrecy of their operation.

Yes, they were going to move, there was no doubt about it!

If they wanted to call for help, they had to get to a safe place first, or at least, they had to make sure that their reinforcements would arrive before the pursuers sent by the other side, otherwise, instead of calling for help, they would still be inviting disaster upon themselves!

Therefore, Ji Feng and his group had to rush through this town, along the edge of the delta, and enter Gui Province, which is adjacent to Southern Guangdong, at the fastest speed possible, so that they could call for help once they got there.

And in fact, once they got there, they would be half as safe, or rather, their danger would be reduced by half!

..... Even though up until now, whether it was Yi Xingchen or White Spider, they hadn't found anything wrong in the town ahead of them, and even Lu Gang, looking through his sniper rifle, couldn't see the slightest hint of anything wrong inside the town, no suspicious people, and no signs of anything unusual.

However, everyone was obedient to Ji Feng, and even if they had doubts in their minds, no one raised them.

Even if Ji Feng's senses were wrong, there would be no loss to them other than some delay, but if they were ambushed again because of carelessness, it would really be a case of looking for death!

So even though none of them could see anything different, they were all meticulously preparing, no big battle was better, but if there was a real battle ..... they wouldn't be caught off guard and unprepared!

"Ka ka ka~~!"

Liu Xin and the others were all quickly preparing their weapons and checking their equipment.

"Ji, young Ji, what about me?" Fatty Jane was looking a little hesitant at the side, everyone had work to do, but he was the only one idle there, it was a bad feeling.

Ji Feng had just promised to take him in, and at this time he was the one eating idle food and not performing at all, which made him a little uneasy.

"You?"

Ji Feng looked at him and said, "Your task is more important, you are responsible for keeping an eye on him, the requirements are ..... don't let him run away or commit suicide, other than that, you can look after it!"

Saying that, Ji Feng pointed to the business car not far away, Ma Bu Zhou was being tied up and thrown in the car.

“Hey! Promise to complete the mission!” The meaning of Ji Feng’s words was clear enough, as long as he could guarantee that Ma Buzhou would not die, it would be no problem to get some small tricks on him!

A few moments later, everyone was ready.

Yi Xingchen waved his hand, “Get in the car!”

The group of people got back into the car and slowly approached that town in front of them, while choosing a suitable location on the road, this was for Ji Feng and Lu Gang, the two of them, one would be in charge of command and the other would be in charge of sniper cover, both had to choose a vantage point with an open view, otherwise, the limitations would be great.

“Just stop in front!” Ji Feng said.

Not far ahead on the roadside was a high post, and coincidentally, there was a big tree growing on it, so if you got up there, the whole town could be seen clearly.

Ji Feng felt somewhat fortunate that this town was somewhat dilapidated and did not even have taller buildings, otherwise, unless they were standing on a cloud, they would not have been able to take in the whole town and their vision would have been very restricted, far from being so open.

The car stopped at the side of the road, and the four of them quickly got out, and then stalked quietly along the road, towards the town.

Lu Gang also got down and quickly came under the big tree, carrying his sniper rifle very nimbly up the tree and found a more suitable position for sniping.

And then, Ji Feng lifted the car towards the front and parked it behind some trees on the roadside, covering it slightly with some branches.

“Jian Maoteng, I’ll leave Ma Bu Zhou’s side to you.” Ji Feng looked at Jian Maoteng and said in a deep voice, “You also know why we are going to Zhen Yang, right? If anything goes wrong with him .....

“Don’t worry, Ji Shao, if anything goes wrong with Ma Bu Zhou, you’ll take my head off and use it as a urinal!” Jian Chang Teng exclaimed.

“Dog! Bastard!” Ma Bu Zhou cursed angrily from the side.

He just sneered, “Yes, I’m a dog, so what? So what? You’ve been helping from on high, but now you’re going to be watched and killed by my hand! Besides, Ma Bu Zhou, don’t forget that you also have to listen to Qian Bin, and you don’t dare to discount half of what he tells you to do, so what’s the difference between you and me?”

“Humph! I don’t compare myself with animals!” Ma Bu Zhou said angrily.

“Yes, Qian Bin is your nephew, yet you are nodding and bowing in front of him. Jian Chang Teng said.

“You .....

Ji Feng ignored the scolding between them, but dropped a sentence, “Keep an eye on him!”

And then, he got out of the car with a big step, grabbed a walkie-talkie and a sniper rifle, and went up that big tree as well.

Fortunately, they had prepared well before coming to Nan Yue, and now they basically had all the equipment and no shortage of weapons, otherwise they would have had no choice but to find a way to flee in disarray, not to mention forcibly attacking the town!

The town was already dark and there were no street lights, so they could only see their surroundings vaguely, but of course, for Ji Feng, this was not a problem.

“Lu Gang, later on you’ll be in charge of the main road in the middle, I’ll take care of the two sides!” Squatting on a thick tree trunk, Ji Feng said.

“It’s better for one person to take half, you’re still in charge of command, Little Chief!” Lu Gang said.

To snipe, one had to concentrate, although Ji Feng’s marksmanship was overwhelming, once distracted, problems might arise.

Ji Feng smiled and said, “Don’t worry, I have it in mind.”

Up ahead, Yi Xingchen and the others had already touched the edge of the town, reached the foot of the first building in the town, and were gradually approaching inside.

Buzz~~!

Just at this moment, there was a sudden roar of an engine.

A car drove over from the opposite side, the headlights of the car shining so brightly that Ji Feng couldn’t help but squint slightly, but he kept his eyes wide open and watched the movement on the opposite side closely.

It was clear from the movement of the lights that the car coming from the opposite direction was not fast, but because the town was so small, it took only a few minutes for the car to pass through the town, but just after leaving the town, the car did not continue to drive forward, but turned around and drove to a building on the right, then turned off the engine.

The lights also went out, and the contrast between the front and back of the light made people’s eyes blink.

Ji Feng immediately squinted his eyes and urged the bio-current to work on his eyes, looking straight ahead.

He found that after the car stopped there, a person came down from the back seat. After this person got down, he did not go anywhere, but walked quietly around, seemingly watching for something.

After a few more moments, four more people got out of the car, and they leaned against the back of the car, and there was no other movement.

“Little Chief, there is something wrong with these people .....,” Lu Gang whispered.

“You keep an eye on Old Yi and the others, don’t mind the others!” Ji Feng said.

Their mission was to be in charge of sniping cover, so naturally they couldn't be distracted by the others, and once they opened their mouths to talk, their attention would ironically be distracted.

Lu Gang then nodded his head and stopped talking.

Fortunately, at this time, Yi Xingchen and the others had already taken cover and were hiding in the opposite direction of where the car was parked, otherwise they might really have been discovered.

Buzz~~!

After a few more moments, several motorbikes drove over again, and after crossing the town, they turned directly in the opposite direction of where the car was parked before ..... which was the direction where Yi Xingchen and the others were hiding, and then one after another parked the motorbikes by the wall of a building.

Several people likewise began to search around, and one of them walked towards the opposite side.

Then, the sound of conversation came from over there, but because of the distance, it was impossible to hear what they were saying.

Buzz~~!

Suddenly, the sound of an engine roaring came from the next street as well.

Ji Feng immediately frowned as he realized that that street was exactly the direction where Yi Xingchen and the others were hiding .....

Hoo~~!

A shadow flashed, and the few people who got off the motorbike were suddenly attacked, and the first two people immediately fell down without a sound .....

Yi Xingchen and the others had nowhere to hide!

This town is too small, there are only three streets, and they will all end up concentrated on this provincial road, there is nowhere to hide .....

Ji Feng immediately shouted lowly, "Lu Gang, pay attention to cover, the battle has begun."

Chapter 1386

The town is too small and the buildings are very simple, including the provincial road that runs through the middle of the town, there are only two streets, on the left and right side of the provincial road, and three roads that divide the town into four narrow areas, beyond which there is no road access.

Even from the wasteland, the roar of the engines was clearly audible throughout the town and there was no concealment at all.

Moreover, with the performance of the commercial vehicle, it was not easy to pass through the wilderness, not to mention passing without a sound.

Therefore, Ji Feng and the others could only choose to fight with one!

However, after Yi Xingchen and the others had passed, many people came out of the town. There were only three streets in the town, and the streets were very close to each other, just a row of buildings apart, so when the motorbike riders came over, Yi Xingchen and the others had no place to hide.

The battle started instantly!

The four of them were so fast that before they could even react to what was going on, the motorbike riders were knocked down one after another.

Meanwhile, next to the car on the opposite side of the road, a few people were still talking about something.

Then one man turned and walked across the street.

“Ah...!”

Whirling around, he suddenly exclaimed, reflecting the lights of the buildings in the town, the man saw a shadow flash by, and immediately he realised that all his companions had actually fallen to the ground.

“Someone broke in .....” he immediately let out a cry of alarm, however, as soon as he opened his mouth, a sudden cracking sound rang out, and in a flash, he only felt a boom in his head, and his whole person doubled over and fainted.

But by this time it was already too late, the others had already reacted long ago, only to see a few people beside the limousine hurriedly drawing their guns.

“Bang Bang Bang!”

They pulled the trigger straight away.

Pop, pop, pop!

All of a sudden, the lights of the entire town lit up, even including some searchlights on the roadside.

Ji Feng couldn't help but frown slightly as he watched, there really was an ambush in this town!

They had alerted the other side early, which was not to blame for Yi Xingchen and the others, if they wanted to go through without a sound, they might be able to, but if they wanted to drive through the town, they would have to attack strongly.

Moreover, there was nowhere to hide outside the town except inside the buildings, and it was only a matter of time before they were discovered by the other side.

Besides, since we are going to attack strongly, we don't care if the other side finds out .....

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the other side. He was even more shocked in his heart, there was really an ambush in the town!

How did Ji Feng know about it?

“Concentrate!”

Ji Feng said in a low voice, “Don't get distracted!”

Lu Gang's heart suddenly flinched and he hurriedly set up his sniper rifle, ready to cover Yi Xingchen and the others.

At this time, the guys who were shooting at Yi Xingchen and the others were slowly approaching, each on guard.

Ji Feng frowned again, he could tell at a glance that these guys were not ordinary punks either, they were very skilled with guns and worked well with each other.

For example, right now, the five of them had formed a fan and were slowly approaching in the direction of Yi Xingchen, both defensively and offensively, so it was clear that this was not the first time they had taken this kind of coordination.

Then, their seemingly haphazard shooting just now was not out of panic, but a warning shot to the people in the town!

They were telling their companions in the town that an enemy was coming in!

"Little Chief, should we finish them off?!" Lu Gang asked in a low voice as he watched those people getting closer and closer to where Yi Xingchen and the others were hiding.

"Don't rush, these people shouldn't be a match for Old Yi and the others, you have to pay attention to the people coming out from inside the town, don't let Old Yi and the others get hit on the back!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

Swoosh~~!

A cracking sound rang out, under the strong light of the searchlight headlamp, only a cold light flashed, in the next moment, a dagger was stuck on the throat of a gunman, he didn't even have time to react, he just fell straight down.

"Bang Bang Bang!"

The remaining four men simultaneously fired in the direction the daggers flew from, their reaction time was extremely fast, they fired almost the moment the daggers flew from them.

High hand!

Ji Feng's face sank, he had been fooled by them all.

When these guys first came out, they could be described as strutting around, looking as if they were ponies in a gang, not professional at all.

And now as soon as they did, their fighting qualities immediately manifested themselves. How could an ordinary ponyboy have such a quick reaction time?

Stomp stomp stomp .....

People came out of the streets on both sides, and Ji Feng could see very clearly that these people were coming out of the building in the small town that had no lights on.

"Lu Gang, knock out that searchlight headlamp near Old Yi and the others!" Ji Feng said in a deep voice.

Bang!

The searchlight headlamp was instantly shattered, and the surroundings suddenly fell into darkness.

Hoo~~!

In a flash, several silhouettes flashed through the darkness, and the few remaining gunmen were put down cleanly.

“Old Yi, there’s someone coming from the street behind you!” Ji Feng alerted them through the intercom.

Yi Xingchen and the others did not answer, but immediately afterwards, they were all hiding under the corner and began to slowly move towards the street where those people were running from.

Liu Zejun, at this time, was slowly backing up and going around from another street.

He was as nimble as a monkey and climbed up to a building in a few clicks, clutching a rifle and began to fire downwards.

Ta-da-da~~~!

In a flash, those gunmen who had just rushed out were instantly hit and scrambled to dodge, while those who couldn’t dodge were never given the chance to leave!

These people were beaten to a pulp.

Yi Xingchen and the others also took the opportunity to rush out and began to strike at those who hadn’t been cleared away.

The four of them worked together with unparalleled power, pressing those people who could barely lift their heads and could only dodge in a mess.

But the tacit cooperation between the top and bottom gave them nowhere to hide, and soon these people were cleared away.

“Zizi~~!”

Ji Feng’s headset rang, it was the sound of the intercom, and then Yi Xingchen’s voice came through, “Boss, it’s time to move forward!”

“I got it!”

Ji Feng said, and then turned his head to Lu Gang and said, “Go, drive behind them!”

The duo jumped down from the tree and pulled open the car door to get in.

“Mmm~~!”

A muffled cry suddenly came out, only to see Ma Bu Zhou with his hands tied behind his back and a jacket sleeve stuffed in his mouth, his face red and his eyes wide.

The man who was slapping Ma Buzhou’s face with a slap on the face was infuriated, but he could not break free, let alone resist .....

When he saw Ji Feng and Lu Gang suddenly enter the room, Jian Ruiteng hurriedly stopped and smiled at the same time.

“Lu Gang, you drive, I’ll take sniper cover!”

Ji Feng didn’t have the time to pay attention to him now, and directly sat in the passenger seat, peeking out of the car window and setting up his sniper rifle.

Lu Gang quickly started the car, turned around and drove onto the road, and then slowly moved forward.

A number of gunmen continued to pour out of the town, and Yi Xingchen and the others were in the middle of a fierce battle with them, and with the cover of Liu Zejun on the roof of the house, they were able to make steady progress.

It was also because of the fierce gunfire that kept ringing out that it drowned out the sound of the engine, allowing Ji Feng and the others to quietly approach the town without being noticed.

However, at this time, Lu Gang said in a deep voice, “Little Chief, look ……”

Ji Feng jerked to follow Lu Gang’s line of sight, and the sight that entered his eyes was such that Ji Feng’s face instantly became so gloomy that it could drip water!

Only to see that in front of the door of that building without lights on, finally came out a dozen gunmen, different from those in front of them, these dozen people, their bodies, respectively, someone in front of them.

Men, women, old men ……

Looking at them, they looked very much like honest farmers dressed up, and now, they were acting as meat shields for these gunmen!

“Don’t, don’t fight …… help ……”

“Help …… oooh ……”

……

The men dressed as peasants who had to move forward with guns against their backs, each screamed in terror, some of the women even let out a cry of pain, but didn’t dare to stay away with the blackened guns pointed at them!

The gunfire in the town stopped instantly!

The whole town, instantly became silent, as if it was suddenly deserted!

“Stomp stomp stomp ……” Suddenly, on the leftmost street, dozens of gunmen poured out, they didn’t come directly to attack Ji Feng and the others, but went directly in the direction of the wilderness.

Ta-da-da~~!

Lu Gang flung his hand and shot out a pistol, instantly taking down five or six gunmen.

The other gunmen instantly shrank back.

Bang!

The next moment, a man dressed as a farmer on the far right street was shot in the head and fell limply to the ground.

“Ahh...!”

“Oooh .....

“Murder, help .....

At once, the other peasants wailed in terror, the bloody scene before them really terrified those of them who had been digging in the land all day.

“I ..... grass!” Lu Gang’s eyes instantly turned red as he clenched his teeth and cursed angrily.

Ji Feng’s face was gloomy to the extreme, and if you look closely you will find that his hand that was holding the gun was trembling slightly.

“Stomp, stomp, stomp .....” The group of gunmen on the left street, once again came out, they were still heading towards the wilderness.

CLICK~~!

Lu Gang pulled the bolt of his gun once again, “I’ll slaughter these bastards!”

Snap!

Ji Feng squeezed the sniper rifle in Lu Gang’s hand and said with an incomparably gloomy face, “You can’t shoot, those people are listening to the sound of gunshots to move!”

The gunmen who were holding those peasants were in the street to the right of the town, they were separated from the gunmen on the left by two rows of buildings and could not be seen at all, so they could only tell by the sound of gunfire .....

Chapter 1387

“Little Chief, they are trying to use these old people as hostages to force us to give in!” Lu Gang said with red eyes and gritted teeth.

Because of his shot just now, he had caused a farmer to be shot in the head by those bastards, Lu Gang was furious and blamed himself, he wanted to take his gun and kill all those bastards right now!

But Ji Feng was silent, how could he not know what these people had in mind?

“What a good plan, actually taking these peasants as hostages!” Ji Feng sneered, the look on his face was a bit grim.

These gunmen were taking those old people, not just to be meat shields!

Now Ji Feng had completely seen that this move was definitely taught to them by someone, because someone knew that he would definitely not lay a hand on these peasants, nor would he have the means to do so!

Don't forget, this was in Southern Guangdong, the other side's territory.

The only thing they could do was to leave as quickly as possible, take Ma Bu Zhou with them, do everything they could to get back to Jiangzhou, interrogate Ma Bu Zhou again, and then do whatever they had to do next, and everything would be logical.

As long as there is evidence in hand, everything will be fine below.

Whether Ji Feng and the others killed those gunmen in Southern Guangdong or caused any trouble, it is all insignificant.

In the process of fighting against the black and evil forces, killing those militants is not a bad thing, but rather a righteous and heroic act, and even if the top knew about it, they would never say anything.

But now it was different, those gunmen had escorted out all the farmers in the town and made them serve as shields and meat shields, which left Ji Feng with nothing to do.

A few dead gang members, that was no big deal, but these farmers did not deserve to die.

Once something happened to them, when the time came, even if Ji Feng had evidence in his hands, he would definitely be punished in the end, and would even drag the whole Ji family down with him.

What, the young master of the Ji family doesn't treat the common people as human beings anymore? Killing whenever he wants to?

So now Ji Feng can't kill these people, and he can't even drag these peasants down because of himself, because this is someone else's territory, and once they leave, the other side will still be able to set up whatever they want?

To say that it was Ji Feng and the others who did it, no one had any evidence, and Ji Feng had no way to justify it!

In modern society, even if a family's power overshadows the sky, it can't just overshadow the sky. No one can kill the unarmed people with impunity, unless they are tired of living!

Ji Feng could not do the same, not to mention Ji Feng, even the Ji family could not!

Obviously, the other side is playing with this idea, so that Ji Feng will throw in the towel and eventually be unable to pass through this town!

..... Of course, even if the Ji family is involved and they are chastised, these consequences Ji Feng is not afraid, what is wrong with being chastised, it's not a big deal!

What Ji Feng cares most about is the life and death of those farmers.

They can't die because they were dragged in by themselves, otherwise, Ji Feng won't be at ease for the rest of his life.

..... He hadn't yet reached that level where one would die with ten thousand bones!

Therefore, when Ji Feng watched, after a farmer was shot in the head by those gunmen, his heart instantly filled with anger, not only Lu Gang wanted to blitz all these people with one shot, Ji Feng also wanted to do the same!

But he couldn't do that now, otherwise, more peasants would die!

From the fact that the gunmen had shot one of the peasants in the head without mercy, it was clear that these people did not care about the life and death of these peasants.

"Boss, what should we do?" In Ji Feng's earpiece, Yi Xingchen's voice also came through.

His voice was low and full of thick anger, but one could hear that Yi Xingchen was holding back because he was the commander of the battle group, so he had to make sure that he was absolutely calm because his command now involved not only the life and death of his team members, but also the life and death of those peasants!

"Phew~~!"

Ji Feng exhaled a long breath of turbid air and said in a deep voice: "You guys retreat back first ..... Liu Zejun don't move yet, continue to lurk upstairs!"

"..... Good!" Yi Xingchen agreed to Ji Feng's order.

Although they also went through a fierce battle to occupy a favorable position, now Liu Zejun and them up and down together, Ji Feng and Lu Gang are using two sniper rifles to block the left side of the street, the pressure of the other side simply can not rush over, and they want to rush out of the town, is not much difficult thing.

But now it was too late to care about that, if they didn't back off, none of those farmers would survive.

The two sides were no longer simply fighting. When the other side used the unarmed peasants as hostages, the nature of the battle had changed.

Ji Feng's gaze, however, had been paying attention to those gunmen who had entered the wilderness. He noticed that after entering the wilderness, those gunmen then began to circle towards the road, and a few moments later, they arrived at the road and stood in a tight position about five or six hundred metres behind the car.

They were trying to block the retreat of Ji Feng and the others!

Just then, Yi Xingchen quickly retreated back along the big tree by the road and got into the car.

"Where are Liu Xin and White Spider?"

Ji Feng asked when he saw that it was just Yi Xingchen who had come back alone, but Liu Xin and White Spider were nowhere to be seen.

"I left them over there and had White Spider go up to the roof as well, while Liu Xin was guarding against a reverse attack!" Yi Xingchen said.

Ji Feng then nodded his head, he knew that Yi Xingchen had set up this way because he didn't want to give up this hard-won advantage.

"What now?" Yi Xingchen asked in a deep voice.

"Phew~~!" Ji Feng shook his head, now he was also out of ideas, "Let's wait and see, if it doesn't work, there is always no problem for us to protect ourselves!"

The way things were now, there was no way to move.

The back was blocked, and if we wanted to go back we would have to face dozens of guns, while going forward there were many farmers being taken hostage by the other side, and those gunmen were shooting at every turn, not putting the lives of those farmers in their eyes at all.

It was a dilemma!

"Bastard, don't get caught by me!" Lu Gang gritted his teeth and said angrily.

Yi Xingchen, however, shook his head slightly, looking at this situation now, it was really hard to catch the other side, especially when the enemy was outnumbered, plus his own side was throwing caution to the wind and didn't dare to shoot at all, it was almost impossible to save the people now.

Ji Feng's face was gloomy as he said in a low voice, "Lu Gang, there is no need to rush this moment!"

Lu Gang then nodded, he heard the killing intent in Ji Feng's words, it was obvious that the bastards' behavior without any semblance of humanity had angered Ji Feng and made him move to kill.

That's good!

As long as the little chief allows it, there will always be a chance to finish off these bastards in the future!

Stomp stomp stomp .....

Those gunmen on the street in front of them all came over, part of them holding their guns and pointing them at the commercial vehicle, while the other part, escorting those peasants, and the gunmen in the back were also standing by.

These people, surrounded Ji Feng and the others in the middle.

"Ji, Ji young, this ....." Jane May Teng looked at the face slightly changed, the scene in front of him is really some ..... this front and back surrounded, want to escape is impossible, this is simply the same as being in a desperate situation.

"Well, well, well ....."

Ma Bu Zhou saw this situation, his mouth emitted the sound of umph, his face was even redder, his eyes showed a very excited look. He shook his head desperately, trying to shake the clothes out of his mouth and not knowing what he wanted to say.

Slap!

Jian Chang Teng slapped Ma Bu Zhou across the face and said angrily, "Be honest! Even if I can't get away today, I'll finish you off first! Don't think you'll be saved, or that we'll die together. I was ready to die with you the moment I joined the Lake Gang!"

Ma Bu Zhou instantly glared at Jian Chang Teng, his eyes very contemptuous.

In fact, Ma Bu Zhou did not believe that Jian Zuoteng would have the guts to die with him; this was simply Jian Zuoteng bluffing.

In the past, when he was in the Lake Gang, he was known as a coward. Apart from his brain, this fat man was useless.

Don't look at Jane Wu Teng's current bravado and appear to have a lot of balls, but in reality it was also because he had Ji Feng backing him up. If Ji Feng wasn't able to protect him anymore, what the hell would he be so majestic about!

"Well~~!"

Ma Bu Zhou stared coldly at Jian Chang Teng, his eyes gradually turning gloomy with a strong sense of threat.

Jian Wueteng's face turned even colder as he gritted his teeth and said, "Young Ji, we may not be able to run away now, please allow me to finish this beast off, then I will take the bullets for you and cover your exit ....."

"There's no rush!"

Ji Feng said indifferently, "It hasn't come to that yet!"

"This ....." Jian Chang Teng couldn't help but be slightly stunned, could it be that young Ji still had a way to escape?

However, now that the outside was surrounded, there was only one way to go but to die together.

"Ka ka ka!"

"Ka~~!"

Ji Feng and Yi Xingchen simultaneously racked their guns, pointing one after the other at the gunmen who were gradually surrounding them.

At once, those people stopped in their tracks, but didn't back off.

The two sides formed a standoff and froze there.

"Boss, if we shoot at the same time, we should be able to get rid of these people within half a minute!" Yi Xingchen said, "Shouldn't we think of a way to take down some of them first?"

Don't look at the number of people on the other side, but, just one shot past them would be enough to take down a large number of them, the power of the gun, naturally, was self-explanatory!

Besides, with Yi Xingchen and Ji Feng's marksmanship, it wasn't too difficult to take out the enemies in front and behind them respectively within a single pike, so Yi Xingchen wanted to give it a try!

Chapter 1388

“No way!”

Ji Feng shook his head and denied Yi Xingchen’s suggestion, if he followed Yi Xingchen’s opinion, he and Yi Xingchen both fired at the same time, indeed they could take out those gunmen in the shortest time, however, those peasants would not be spared either.

Because Ji Feng knew very well that even if he was a good shot, he would not be able to take out all those gunmen in a very short time without hurting those peasants!

Unless ..... used point blank shooting.

But there were twenty to thirty gunmen in front of them, and among them, those using the peasants as meat shields, there were a dozen of them!

If you want to do it, you have to point and shoot a dozen times in a row, the gun has to move instantly, your grasp has to be accurate, you can’t make the slightest mistake, and you have to prevent the other gunmen from shooting ..... Ji Feng from getting down!

That’s right!

It’s not that he can’t, but he can’t get down.

Because according to this scenario, he only has a fifty percent certainty, or even lower, especially in times of tension, his play may be a little lower, one screw up, there may be many farmers affected.

So, he didn’t dare to take the risk!

Look at the peasants who are being held hostage, men and women alike, but they all look like honest peasants, and from their faces, one can see the vicissitudes, but more than that, it is fear.

There are a few whose faces are white with fear, and a few who are clenching their lips and shaking on their legs!

They were all truly terrified!

“Zizi~~!”

The intercom rang again, and Liu Xin’s voice came over the headset, “Little Chief, Lao Yi’s suggestion can be considered .....

“How to consider it?!” Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

“We can .....

Before Liu Xin could finish his words, he suddenly heard a “BOOM!” a sound, another peasant got his head blown off!

“Ah...!” The others were instantly terrified and shrieked, some with four exhausted shrieks, while one woman was a woman who simply went limp on both legs!

“Fuck!”

Lu Gang roared, “*****’s, stop it!”

“Bastard!” Yi Xingchen’s face was also incomparably gloomy as he cursed coldly and angrily.

Bang!

Another shot rang out.

The gunman who had fired towards the peasant, incidentally, was shot in the head, a bloody hole was added to his head, a blood splash rose up, and he fell down on his back, flopping onto the ground.

“Ding .....

A bullet casing jumped out from the barrel of Ji Feng’s racked gun, this shot, he fired it!

CLICK~~!

Ji Feng pulled the bolt once more, changing from point and shoot to automatic, his eyes were icy cold, killing in his eyes.

“Good shot, little chief!” Lu Gang’s eyes were red as he roared.

The corners of Yi Xingchen’s eyes also danced a little, and his expression became even more gloomy. Although he didn’t say anything, the raging murderous look in his eyes still showed that his heart was also extremely unsettled!

All the gunmen couldn’t help but subconsciously take a step back, Ji Feng’s shot was without warning, a direct shot to the head, and it was so harsh that there was almost no need to aim seemingly, after that gunman had shot the farmer in front of him in the head, Ji Feng instantly shot that gunman in the head!

If you dare to give that farmer a cut, I’ll give you a shot with my backhand!

Ruthless, stern, a tooth for a tooth!

That’s what those gunmen saw from this shot from Ji Feng, and everyone subconsciously was shocked because Ji Feng was acting too ruthless!

“Get your leader over here, let him come and talk to Laozi!” Ji Feng shouted.

For a moment, not a single person in the scene spoke, everyone was silent, and no one dared to shoot anyone easily anymore!

Even, when Ji Feng’s stern gaze swept by, not a single person actually dared to look at him!

Even if those gunmen were still a few hundred meters away from him, and it was still dark, the distant lights shone dimly here, even if they looked at each other, they couldn’t see his eyes at all ..... but no one dared to look at him, as if his gaze had substance and could penetrate the souls of those people!

“What, you dare to wait for me here, and now you don’t even have the courage to come out and meet me!” Ji Feng said in a cold voice: “Or do you think you can hold me like this? Ah?!”

“Hehe .....

Suddenly, a light laugh came out, followed by this voice laughingly saying, "Your Excellency's words are a bit harsh, we have no intention of holding your Excellency here!"

A tall, sturdy man came from behind a nearby tree, this man did not know when he had also arrived in the wilderness, but looking at his direction, there was no doubt that he had come out of the wilderness.

This man was in his thirties, stout and fit, with short, inch-long hair, some cross flesh on his face and a hostile look in his eyes, not a character to be messed with at first glance.

And when he walked, he likewise walked with a dragon's stride, looking as if he was a fierce villain!

However, at this moment, his face was smiling as he stared at Ji Feng and said, "Your Excellency, we are here to assist the relevant units in arresting a suspect, who has committed an extremely serious crime and must be caught!"

"What does it have to do with Laozi if you arrest someone?" Ji Feng said coldly, "Immediately let your people get out of the way, otherwise, don't blame me for being merciless in my actions!"

"No no no .....", the man said smilingly, "Your Excellency, you should stop covering up. From the moment you shot down my men just now, it has been proven that you still care about the lives of these mudbloods, now it's useless for you to cover up any more, we are all understanding people, so don't use this little tactic of yours, right?"

Ji Feng's eyes instantly narrowed!

This man was right, Ji Feng was indeed covering up, ever since he started talking to this leader guy, Ji Feng didn't mention half a word about those peasants, he only said that he told those gunmen to get out of the way, but didn't say that he told them to let those unarmed peasants go.

This is not because Ji Feng does not want to save them, but he tries not to let the other side know that he actually cares about the lives of those farmers, otherwise, the other side will be even more rampant with hostages in hand, and in the end, these farmers who witnessed the criminal atrocity, I'm afraid they still can't escape the fate of being silenced .....

However, this stout man is obviously a connoisseur, this little tactic of Ji Feng's did not play a half-hearted role in front of him, it is because, Ji Feng burst the gunman who shot the murderer with one shot!

"Hand over the suspect, Ma Bu Zhou!" The stout man said, "Hand over Ma Bu Zhou, and you can all leave, and we will leave immediately!"

"Ma Bu Zhou?!"

Ji Feng smiled faintly, "I'm afraid my answer will disappoint you!"

"What, it seems that your Excellency still wants to continue the circumlocution?" The man chuckled, "That would be detrimental to your Excellency, right?"

"I have never thought of circling with you, however, Ma Bu Zhou is already dead, so indeed, I can't give it to you anymore!" Ji Feng said indifferently.

“Dead?!”

The man laughed: “This joke is not funny, what you want to do with Ma Buzhou is clear in your heart, and I know the same. So there’s no need to play these tricks, just hand over the man .....”

“Zizi~~!”

The voice of the white spider came from the headset of the intercom, “Young Ji, I’ve scouted, there’s no one in the buildings in the entire town, and the rooms with lights on are also empty .....”

Ji Feng’s heart continued to sink, how could there be no one?

The room was lit, and many of the buildings were lit up when the gunshots were fired, so how could there be no one there?

Then who turned on the lights?

Ji Feng was silent for a long time with a sullen face.

Only after a while did he ask in a low voice, “Liu Xin, White Spider, Liu Zejun, can you all hear it?”

“Zizi~~ can hear!”

“Can!”

Ji Feng nodded slightly as he gritted his teeth and asked again, “Can you guys see those gunmen clearly? If you guys are allowed to shoot, how sure are you that you can take out one head shot? You only need to take out one each .....”

“Little chief, as long as you turn the headlights of the car to the brightest, we will be able to see clearly ..... Now between us and those gunmen in front of you, the distance is probably between two hundred and three hundred meters, I am ninety percent sure!” Liu Xin said.

“Ninety percent sure!” Liu Zejun said.

“Ten percent!” White Spider said. Having been an assassin, she was a better shot than Liu Zejun and Liu Xin, and she was in the most stable condition, especially after she practiced body building exercises, her six senses were far more sensitive than normal people!

Ji Feng nodded and asked again, “Old Yi, if those gunmen at the back were handed over to you, how sure are you that you can take them all out in an instant?!”

“There will definitely not be a problem!” Yi Xingchen replied resoundingly.

“Boss, counting me alone, the captain is in charge of the gunmen at the back, and the five of us are in charge of the ones at the front, there shouldn’t be a problem!” Lu Gang said.

“There shouldn’t be a problem?” Ji Feng shook his head, “What I want is not should, it’s must!”

The ferocity of these gunmen Ji Feng had seen, they were not reasonable at all, not even any nonsense, they killed when they said they would, ferocious and vicious!

In such a situation, unless one had full certainty to make a move, otherwise, it would be victimizing the peasants being held hostage!

“Hand over Ma Bu Zhou!” The burly burly man yelled, “Your Excellency, I don’t suppose you’d like to see all these people taken out, would you? That may not affect you well either .....”

Ji Feng frowned and said in a cold voice, “As long as you dare, I guarantee that I will personally cut you alive with a single knife!”

“What wouldn’t I dare?”

The man sneered, “Your Excellency, don’t think that we only have these few mudbloods in our hands, all the people in this town are in our hands! Even if you cut me alive, you won’t be able to save those people! Besides, in my line of work, I have my head on my trousers, in your words, I am a desperate man.

Swish!

The cold light in Ji Feng’s eyes flashed and two words burst out from his teeth, “You dare!”

“Cut the crap, hand over the men, I’ll let you go, and I’ll let those mudbloods go too!” The burly man didn’t care about Ji Feng’s threat and said indifferently.

Chapter 1389

As the strong man’s words fell, the scene instantly tensed up.

Ji Feng stared coldly at the strong man, not hiding the killing machine in his eyes, this strong man’s actions and words had touched his bottom line!

“I didn’t threaten you!” Ji Feng said coldly: “Want Ma Bu Zhou is it? You can .....”

He waved his hand and said, “Throw Ma Bu Zhou out!”

“Well! Well .....” When Ma Bu Zhou heard this, his eyes immediately opened wide, and his face had an unconcealed joy, at the same time, he incomparably glanced at Jian Chang Teng in triumph, and then, his eyes were filled with a threatening intent.

Obviously, Ma Buzhou was incomparably smug because he knew he was about to be released, and was warning Jian Maoteng again .....

“Son of a bitch .....,” cursed Jian Chang Teng in a cold voice.

Although he was reluctant to do so, since Ji Feng had given him an order, he had to do as he was told, so he could only grit his teeth and untie the ropes on Ma Bu Zhou’s hands, but his face was ugly.

“Ji Shao .....” After untying the ropes from Ma Bu Zhou’s hands, Jane was still a bit reluctant. He had endured humiliation for so many years just so that one day he could finish off Ma Bu Zhou with his own hands, but now, he had to release Ma Bu Zhou with his own hands, which was a bit hard for him to accept.

“Let him go!” Ji Feng said.

“..... Yes!” Jian Maoteng gritted his teeth and agreed.

Zap!

The door of the car was opened, and Jane迴騰 grabbed Ma Bu Zhou and said through clenched teeth, “Bastard, count your life, but don’t get too complacent, one day I will end you with my own hands!”

“Hey! You won’t get that chance!” Looking at Jane’s blue face, Ma Bu Zhou said proudly, “If you don’t kill me today, it will be my turn to deal with you in the future, just wash your neck and wait .....”

Ma Bu Zhou laughed and pushed the door to get off.

However, Ma Bu Zhou had just gotten down one foot, and before he could fully get down, he only heard a sudden gunshot.

“Boom!”

A splash of blood rose from Ma Bu Zhou’s collarbone.

“Ah...” In the next moment, Ma Bu Zhou let out a painful scream, and his whole body fell to the ground at once.

Bang Bang!

Two more shots were fired, and two more blood splashes rose from Ma Bu Zhou’s body.

This turn of events startled everyone, even Ji Feng and Yi Xingchen, because the ones who fired were not others, but those gunmen from the other side!

They were not here to rescue Ma Bu Zhou, but to kill him!

Ji Feng immediately reacted and shouted, “Get Ma Bu Zhou up here!”

Yi Xingchen was quick with his hands and lifted Ma Bu Zhou up and threw him onto the car, by this time, the latter didn’t even scream, he had already passed out.

“They want to silence him?!” Yi Xingchen said in a deep voice.

Ji Feng nodded and said, “Ten out of ten’s nine .....”

He looked at the burly man outside through the car window, only to see his face grim as he shouted, “Hand over Ma Bu Zhou, quickly!”

“You want to kill him?!” Ji Feng asked in a deep voice.

In his heart, however, he already understood that these people were here on guard, not to rescue Ma Bu Zhou, but to finish him off, to make it impossible for him to speak.

“How we do it is not for your Excellency to meddle!” The stout man said in a cold voice, “To let you live until now is already the greatest gift, don’t seek death, throw Ma Bu Zhou out immediately!”

“Heh!”

Ji Feng sneered, “What a big mouth! With just you guys, you still want to kill me?”

“Don’t overestimate yourselves, although some of you are quite good at shooting, you can’t stop a random gunshot, even the carriage can’t stop a bullet .....” The strong man sneered, “I didn’t kill you because we didn’t receive an order, otherwise .....”

“Then I should really be thankful?” Ji Feng’s words were tinged with a sneer, and although the strong man’s words were arrogant, they were not without merit.

This business car is not specially made, the compartment indeed can’t stop bullets, if the other party fires indiscriminately, it is indeed extremely dangerous, the people in the car will be in danger.

However, Ji Feng is not a person who sits back and waits for death, so how would he give the other side the chance to shoot indiscriminately?

The competition between the two sides is not only about whether the weapons are advanced and powerful, but also about the personal strength of both sides.

However, Ji Feng did not bother to debate with the other side about this.

It was only real who could laugh at the end, because the situation in front of him had already decided the final result, and only one of the two sides could definitely survive.

For Ji Feng, this strong man’s side, must die, because what they have done, has made Ji Feng intolerable!

And at the same time, several doubts in Ji Feng’s heart had been solved.

The purpose of these people coming to intercept themselves and others this time was not to free Ma Bu Zhou, but to silence him, it was because someone didn’t want him to say something unfavorable, so they were trying to silence him, so that he could never speak .....

On top of that, the reason why these gunmen didn’t kill themselves from the start was not because they didn’t dare, or because they were merciful, but they must have received an order not to permit harm to their lives!

If not, with the ruthlessness and heartlessness of these gunmen, would they have spared their own group?

..... Dream on!

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on the subject.

But from the point of view of those gunmen, they don’t think that so many people can’t deal with Ji Feng and the others!

Therefore, Ji Feng could be sure that those gunmen must have received an order not to make a rash move!

From the actions of the gunmen, it could be seen that the person who gave the order only instructed the gunmen not to take their own lives, but the other party did not mention anything about the lives of the civilians.

Of course, perhaps the other side also mentioned those civilians, but not to explain those gunmen try not to harass these farmers, but another kind of order .....

The reason why those gunmen dared to be so ferocious was probably because they were under orders!

Then, in that case there is a possibility that naturally arises – that person behind these gunmen, most likely gave these gunmen some kind of hint.

For example, that person told the gunmen that if they used the civilians as hostages, they would be apprehensive, would be afraid, or would even have no choice but to tie up their hands!

These civilians were kidnapped as hostages, most likely on the orders of someone!

Thinking of this, Ji Feng's face was gloomy to the extreme.

"Well ....." Ma Bu Zhou moaned in pain, but his voice was very faint, he was shot several times in a row, and he didn't know if he had hit the vital points, he only saw his face was getting paler and paler, his breathing was getting more and more rapid, his whole state was very depressed.

Since it has now been established that it was the other side that wanted to silence Ma Bu Zhou, then Ji Feng could not let him die all the more, because the more the other side did not want him to talk, then it meant that what he knew must be very important!

Even .....

Some of the things that Ma Bu Zhou knew were already enough to threaten the safety of certain people!

Fatty Jane immediately took a quick look at Ma Bu Zhou's condition, and his heart was immediately filled with joy, "Young Ji, Ma Bu Zhou has been shot in the chest, which is likely to be fatal, however, the injuries elsewhere are not too serious ....."

He said Ma Bu Zhou's vital injuries first, obviously hoping that Ma Bu Zhou would die quickly, it was almost subconscious.

However, on second thought, Jane Ma Teng hurriedly added, because Ji Feng had only asked him to check the condition of Ma Bu Zhou's injuries, he hadn't asked him to gloat here!

Wow~~!

Ji Feng casually threw over a small plastic bottle and said in a deep voice, "The pills inside, give one to Ma Bu Zhou!"

"Hey!"

Jian Chang Teng immediately nodded his head.

"Your Excellency, if you don't hand over Ma Bu Zhou, we'll have to attack by force!" Outside, when the strong man saw the delay in the car, his voice couldn't help but lower, "Of course, before the strong attack, these mudbloods will have to go to hell first to clear the way for you ....."

“Want Ma Bu Zhou is it?” Ji Feng’s cold voice, interrupted the strong man’s words, “Wanting people is no problem, you first release those peasants, they have nothing to do with this matter, I think, you also do not want to risk being hunted by the whole world to do these things without any doubt, right?”

Since he had already been recognized by the strong man that he cared a lot about the lives of those peasants and was very much throwing in the towel, Ji Feng had nothing to hide and instead said it out in a big way.

“Hehehe!”

That strong man, however, smiled grimly: “Know what it means to be a desperate man, right? People who are not afraid to die and are ready to die at any time, who dare to do anything and don’t care if the person they kill is an old man or a child ..... are the real outlaws, and fortunately for me, and my men, they are all such outlaws!”

He sneered, “So stop threatening me, your threats are no more sinister than they are useful to me ..... After all this nonsense, hurry up and let them go!”

“You let go first, as long as you let go of the people, I will let go immediately on my side!” Ji Feng, however, said in a deep voice.

“Boom!”

The strong man raised his hand and aimed his gun at a farmer’s head and was about to pull the trigger. However, in a flash, a bullet instantly penetrated his shoulder.

Bam!

The strong man’s pistol fell to the ground and he couldn’t help but let out a stifled cry .....

“The next time a bullet hits a farmer’s head, it will be his head!” Reflecting the faint light, Ji Feng’s icy words, full of murderous intent, reached everyone’s ears with unmistakable clarity.

“What a good shot!”

The strong man clenched his teeth, because the bone of his shoulder was pierced, making cold sweat rise on his forehead, a vicious light shot out from his eyes, “I really don’t believe this, if you have the guts, just shoot me dead, see if you can keep these mud-legged people after my death .....”

In a flash, the strong man’s other hand picked up another gun and aimed it at a farmer’s head!

Chapter 1390

“BOOM!”

In this silent dark night, the sudden sound of the gunshot was so piercing that it was like shattering the long sky, making people’s scalps tingle and their hearts skip a beat.

Yet, Ji Feng had to shoot!

The burly man in the lead opposite had no humanity at all, he didn't take the lives of these hostages seriously at all, he could kill them whenever he wanted and dispose of them however he wanted, it was just like killing a pig and slaughtering a sheep.

This time, the leading burly man aimed his gun at the back of a farmer's head again and was ready to pull the trigger.

Without hesitation, Ji Feng pulled the trigger and fired!

In a flash, that stout strong man's body shook violently, and a blood splash rose from his other shoulder, his shoulder blade was instantly pierced by the bullet, and at this time, his arm could no longer exert any strength, and drooped down like his other arm!

"Hiss ....."

Even the strongest of people would feel the pain of having their shoulder blades pierced twice in a row. The pain of having one's shoulder blade pierced is simply somewhat unimaginable.

It is often said that the ten fingers of a person are connected to the heart, and to break his fingers is to pluck out his heart!

So in the old days, when interrogating prisoners, there would be a torture specifically done on the prisoner's fingers, or pulling out the nails, or pricking the fingers .....

But in reality, the pain caused by the scapula was definitely not less painful than the pain caused by the injury to the ten fingers, and even more painful!

However, this sturdy strong man was gritting his teeth, only muffling two cries and sucking in a cold breath, but he did not allow himself to let out a painful scream!

But he was definitely not feeling well either, which was evident from his pale face and his forehead covered in cold sweat.

"Whoever dares to shoot at these peasants again, I'll kill him alive!" Ji Feng's low but ice-cold killing voice clearly reached everyone's ears, and even those gunmen could not help but subconsciously tremble in their hearts.

The killing intent in Ji Feng's words was so strong that it was as if they felt a strong killing intent coming over them, and Ji Feng's previous actions also clearly confirmed that his words were definitely not a threat or a bluff.

If anyone dared to shoot recklessly again, he really dared to directly explode the other party's head!

For a time, none of the gunmen present dared to move, or even to speak. The dark night outside the town was silent, as if everyone had fallen asleep!

Ji Feng had subdued everyone!

"Liu Xin, you and Zexun and White Spider each aim at a gunman, quick!" However, after firing his gun, Ji Feng was not toeing the line and continuing his nonsense, but was instructing in a low voice through his headset, "You guys start from the east side ....."

“Zizi~~!”

Liu Xin’s voice came over the headset, “Already in position, ready to fire at any time!”

“Old Yi, I’ll leave the back to you!” Ji Feng said quickly, “Lu Gang, the gunmen in front start with the fourth one, you are responsible for two, the rest all to me!”

“Yes!”

“Understood!”

Yi Xingchen and Lu Gang quickly responded.

Ji Feng nodded slightly and said in a deep voice, “All of you, you have to listen to my orders before you can open up, no one is allowed to fire indiscriminately until I speak!”

“Good! Very good!”

The burly man’s eyes were fierce and incomparable as he stared at Ji Feng in the commercial vehicle, his body trembling slightly as he let out a fierce laugh, “Good job, your Excellency is really good in courage! However, since you have shot, you have to suffer the consequences .....”

“Boom!”

Ji Feng fiercely pulled the trigger again and took down a gunman hiding behind a farmer who had hidden his entire body behind the hostage, but unfortunately, he was slightly taller than the farmer, revealing half of his head as well as the top of his head.

And it was that extra bit of height that cost the gunman his life!

“Once again, whoever dares to move again, don’t blame me for not recognising the strong in my hands! Bullets don’t have long eyes!” Ji Feng shouted violently, “If you don’t believe me, this dead ghost is an example! All of you, put your guns down immediately!”

“I have plenty of men, every one of them is an outlaw, I’m not afraid of you killing them, but I’m afraid you won’t dare!” The stout, strong man was furious and threw his head violently.

Ka ka ka!

One of the gunmen beside that stout strong man suddenly raised his gun and aimed it at the head of the peasant in front of him.

Boom!

That gunman suddenly had an extra bloody hole in his head, and then his body went limp and he slowly fell down .....

Another gunman had his head blown off by Ji Feng.

“Release them immediately!” Ji Feng shouted.

In his heart, he was counting silently: another one, and ten ..... thirteen more!

“Your Excellency, you’re mistaken, aren’t you?” The fierce light in that burly man’s eyes showed: “It’s us who have the initiative now, we still have a dozen hostages in our hands, besides these, all the other mudbloods in the town are also under our control, how many can you kill?! Hand over Ma Bu Zhou immediately!”

Ji Feng’s eyes were cold and he said angrily, “I tell you, I don’t care who you are or how many of you there are, now, let them go immediately! Otherwise, the consequences will be absolutely unbearable for you!”

“I’m afraid it’s you who can’t bear it!” The burly man shouted.

Boom!

Ji Feng gave him the best answer with the sound of a gunshot, and another gunman fell down.

At this time, all the gunmen couldn’t help but be a little agitated, some subconsciously backed away, some but showed an impatient look as if they were a little mad, while some others just pulled the firing pin and pulled on the bolt .....

However, Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen’s eyes were glowing, because at this moment they had realized Ji Feng’s intention.

“Kill!”

Being so provoked by Ji Feng one after another, the stout strong man could finally not hold back even though he had orders to do so, his eyes glared and he shouted violently.

“Kill all these people for me!” The burly man shouted, “Leave no one behind!”

Boom~~!

Boom boom boom boom .....

The moment the stout man’s words fell, gunshots suddenly rang out, as fierce as if firecrackers were being set off.

da da da da da .....

The gun of Yi Xingchen also went off, and all of a sudden, the outside of the town was in a mess of chaos, and there was no telling who was shooting and who was actually hitting who!

All that could be seen was a tongue of fire spewing out in the darkness, the effect of a bullet shooting out of the muzzle of a gun.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Ji Feng’s hands were as steady as two iron pincers, and even when he was firing the gun, the huge recoil couldn’t make him wobble too much.

He had to do his best to ensure that his shots were sharp, because he was responsible for seven gunmen, and he had to know that these gunmen were all desperadoes, and they were very good and ruthless. To take out all seven gunmen in the shortest possible time, there could not be any mistakes, otherwise, there would be farmers killed again!

BOOM!

As the last gunshot fell, the fierce battle finally stopped.

The gunshot sounded very abruptly and ended as if it had come to a screeching halt.

Looking at the scene, only the burly man was left alone, the other gunmen had all been taken out!

Those peasants, on the other hand, were none of them dead, except that those people were all paralyzed on the ground with their heads in fear, or they were lying on the ground, not daring to move

.....

“Phew~~!”

Only at this time, Ji Feng exhaled a long breath, the pressure in his heart, all at once disappeared without a trace, finally rescued these peasants!

“Well done!” Lu Gang violently waved his fist twice: “Great! That’s fucking awesome!”

From the moment those gunmen took the peasants hostage, it was as if a big stone was pressed into Lu Gang’s heart, and his breathing was a bit uneven. If Ji Feng hadn’t stopped him several times, he would have even wanted to go down and fight those gunmen one on one with his gun!

Now it was finally good, these bastards who had no humanity at all had finally been killed!

No!

There was still one son of a bitch left, that big, burly man, the leader of the animals!

“Get off!”

Ji Feng shouted lowly and directly opened the door to go down.

Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen also walked towards the burly man with big steps, their faces both carrying killing intent.

Beast leader, using this word to describe this man was absolutely not too much, he had no bit of humanity, killing these peasants as he said, not taking human life seriously at all .....

And now, finally, it’s his turn!

“I’ll see how this son of a bitch can still jump up and down!” Lu Gang cursed as he walked, gnashing his teeth, hating this sturdy man Lu Gang so much.

At the same time, Lu Gang had admiration for Ji Feng in his heart to the extreme.

It was all thanks to Ji Feng that he was able to get to the present situation and kill all the gunmen who were holding the farmers hostage!

Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen both understood that, in fact, when they saw that those gunmen were holding the farmers hostage and threatening their own side with hostages, Ji Feng actually did not budge and said one more sinister word than another, both Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen were amazed.

Ji Feng was undoubtedly provoking the other side!

He wasn't afraid that those gunmen would kill all the peasants in a fit of rage, and then rush over to take Ma Bu Zhou away, or kill them all together?

But the next thing they saw was that Ji Feng and the burly man threatened each other a few times, said a few harsh words, and then Ji Feng would just shoot one of the other gunmen, say a few more words, and then shoot another gunman to finish off the other .....

But as a result, the burly man hadn't even gone berserk!

Listen to Ji Feng's next arrangement, he let Liu Xin three people each responsible for taking out a gunman ..... Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen immediately understood that Ji Feng was doing this on purpose, he was nibbling away at the other side's strength step by step, and then take them out in one fell swoop!

The fact proved that Ji Feng was right, he used a method that no one else had ever thought of, or even if they had thought of it, no one had ever dared to use, and saved all those hostages!

Of course, the hostages that were killed before, however, can only become a permanent regret, Ji Feng is no longer powerful, but also can not save them .....

The moment they thought of this, the murderous intent on Lu Gang and Yi Xingchen's faces became a few degrees thicker, while at this time, Ji Feng was already full of coldness and his eyes were filled with a strong murderous intent!

Now there was only the last head of the beasts left – the burly man!
